

BOOT CAMP 2021

Chapter 2021: Execute

Staff Officer Du, who came from a family of farmers, was most grateful to his wife. It could be said that without his wife, the Du family would not have its current status.

Therefore, although he didn't care about his family's affairs, he respected Madam Li in every way. Even though he was living a good life now, he still felt that he, who was once poor, had wronged his wife.

He gently hugged his wife's shoulders and sighed. "If we let our son marry the daughter of a small director, he'll suffer. If you really think that his daughter is good, you can continue to observe her. I didn't talk to his daughter earlier, but I feel that although that girl looks very obedient, there's a scheming look in her eyes. She doesn't look very dignified."

Madam Li could tell as well. She pursed her lips and pondered with a solemn expression. After a while, she said, "I'll continue to observe. The matter is not decided yet."

Women who were not dignified and overly scheming were usually not suitable to be left at home. They wouldn't be able to put their efforts into taking care of their family.

"Rest early. You still have to go for an inspection tomorrow. I'll get Director Ye's daughter to accompany me for a walk and take the chance to observe her carefully. If she's really a good girl, I'll consider her as a candidate for my daughter-in-law. Anyway, my son is still young, so I'll take my time in choosing the girl I like."

Madam Li, who was getting on in years and lacked energy, yawned. When she saw her husband turn on the TV, she casually picked up a black leather menu that was placed on the bedside table. She glanced at it and saw that there was wild ginseng chicken soup, so she asked the receptionist to send some food over.

As a five-star hotel in the Southern Province, Hotel Caesar always had ginseng and chicken soup so that guests who stayed in the presidential suite could have it.

The room was booked by Ye Zhifan, so he would settle the bill. No matter what the guests wanted, the hotel must satisfy them unconditionally.

Hotel Caesar was Hou Zi's hidden headquarters in Southern Province. In the past, he even welcomed people who had killed and committed arson.

The receptionist immediately informed the kitchen when she received the call. Ten minutes later, the aroma of ginseng filled the air, and the chicken soup was delivered to the room where Staff Officer Du was staying.

Staff Officer Du was watching the military news channel and the international military news. He only fell asleep at midnight.

Ye Jian, who had slept for a long time, picked up the vibrating phone on the bedside table. She looked at the string of '0000' numbers. She sat up and answered the call.

Three minutes later, Ye Jian knocked on Uncle Chen's door.

Without waiting for Principal Chen to get up, she stuffed the note she had just written under the door and left the hotel with her student ID.

Principal Chen woke up with a start and bent down to pick up the slip of paper. He looked at the familiar handwriting and smiled faintly.

Girl, your future is really bright!

Although it was dangerous, one had to rely on their own strength to fight. This was the true pride and glory that belonged to soldiers like them.

There were only two words on the note: 'Something's up.' There was nothing else.

A soldier should be forgiven for leaving without saying goodbye, especially when it was a special forces soldier. They might never meet again.

Uncle Chen, who was standing in front of the window, waited for two minutes before seeing the most familiar figure to him pass by the hotel's fountain. She was dressed in casual clothes and walked fearlessly into the endless night.

There was news from overseas that an engineering team in the country had been robbed. Most importantly, this engineering team was sent by the Military Institute of Engineering. They had a lot of confidential information on them. If the information was leaked, it would definitely cause a huge storm!

Chapter 2022: Erasing Her Identity

The mission this time was to rescue the engineering team overseas and bring them back secretly.

Ye Jian needed to meet Pigeon and the rest before setting off.

When she arrived at the airport, she received a call from the major general again. The person that the Xueyu unit could contact was Captain Xia and the major general of the army. Hearing the serious tone of the major general, Ye Jian's expression turned colder.

"Go directly to Jin City and meet up with the other nine comrades. We'll take the military weapons freighter and set off." Major General Yang's deep and serious voice came from the other end of the phone. "The engineering team has a launch point that connects with our country's military satellites. Our army knows that the engineering team is being forcefully held. This is the signal that they'll only use if they have no other choice.

"Because they disguised themselves and went abroad, on the surface, they're an engineering team sent by a corporation. The other party doesn't know that our country already knows about it. Ye Jian, all information about you will be erased from this operation. You'll only regain your identity after the mission is completed."

The major general paused slightly and asked Ye Jian, "Do you know what it means to have all your information erased?"

"I do," Ye Jian replied in a low and cold voice. "Including my school records, all of my personal information will be wiped out. I'll no longer be a lawful citizen of my country. I'll no longer exist."

"Your understanding is very comprehensive. They'll tell you more important information when you gather with your comrades." It was not convenient to talk too much on the phone. The major general reminded Ye Jian before hanging up.

At 3:20 a.m., Ye Jian took a plane from the Southern Province to Jin City Airport.

Pigeon had already arrived at Jin City Airport. After the car's engine was switched off, he turned around and said to his two comrades sitting behind him, "She'll arrive at the airport in three hours. The two of you have yet to meet her but I have. I'll go in and pick her up when the time comes."

This time, the people who were in charge of the rescue mission were the comrades from the Xueyu unit who were in charge of sneak attacks. Everyone's code name was in Chinese. Besides Pigeon, the other two comrades in the car were codenamed Weaver and Azalea.

Both of them went overseas for training some time ago and only returned a month ago.

The country they went to was a country that was exposed to the sun all year round. Both of them were tanned when they came back. It took a month for their skin to become a healthy bronze color.

When the two heard this, they shook their heads at the same time. Weaver said seriously, "It's precisely because we haven't seen her that we should pick her up. We can't be casual when we're meeting her for the first time. We still need to be polite."

Pigeon smiled when he saw this. "Sure, let's fetch her together. Ye Jian is easy to recognize. Although you have never seen her before, you'll definitely be able to recognize her from the crowd."

They were also soldiers and had familiar auras. Naturally, they would be able to recognize him.

Azalea smiled and said, "I want to see if she can recognize us. Pigeon, wait outside. Weaver and I will go in and pick her up. How about that?"

"You want to test Ye Jian's judgment? Hahaha, as long as she sees you, she'll recognize you at first glance," Pigeon said confidently. It was obvious that he recognized Ye Jian's ability.

Ye Jian was not an ordinary female soldier. Her amazing shooting skills were enough to suppress everyone!

Although he said that, Pigeon didn't stop his comrades from testing her. This was their first time working with Ye Jian. It was the right decision as this could speed up their cooperation in the future.
