

BOOT CAMP 2131

Chapter 2131: Missed Him Very, Very Much

His injuries must be so serious that he had to be hospitalized!

Ye Jian, who was a little breathless, closed her eyes slightly and mentally prepared herself. Then, she asked calmly, "Can you tell me how serious his condition is?"

She was very calm, but every word was as heavy as a stone falling from the sky. Commander Xia was shocked when he realized the sort of call he was making. Wasn't it... a little inappropriate?

Even though Commander Xia was a general, he was still a father who cared deeply about his son.

There was no time to reflect on his inappropriate call. Commander Xia quickly replied with a smile, "It's fine, it's fine. His waist was penetrated, but there's no organ injury. At that time, he handled it a little rashly. The shrapnel penetrated and left two small fragments, causing the wound to be inflamed.

"He was immediately treated when he got back. The doctor suggested he stay in the hospital for three days with anti-inflammatory drips. Just now, he came over and told me he wanted to go over and see you this afternoon. I didn't agree."

The clerk who knocked on the door walked in gently and saw the commander talking to someone. He opened the camouflage-colored folder and presented the contents to the commander.

This was an invitation from the political department's military arts unit. Commander Xia was invited to watch the performance of the capital city's military arts unit. The general idea was to invite the leaders at all levels to give instructions, guidance, and corrections.

Commander Xia turned his attention to one of the invited work units. He pointed and said, "Go and ask the school leaders who came to the capital city to attend this."

"Okay." The desk clerk nodded, put the folder down, and left the office.

On the other end of the phone, Ye Jian heaved a long sigh of relief. "Don't worry, I'll definitely stop him from coming over! I'll definitely make him stay in the hospital for three days." For his health, she definitely wouldn't let him step foot into the Southern Province!

The bullet pierced through his waist but avoided his vital points... Although the injury was serious, it was really better than some of the other worse possibilities!

With Ye Jian around, Commander Xia was relieved.

However, he could understand why his son wanted to see his girlfriend. It was quite pitiful for the two of them to spend so much time apart. Thinking of the document just now, Commander Xia asked Ye Jian about her results last semester and if anything had happened these few days.

Ye Jian, who had good results, reported her results for all her classes. "...My overall results are alright. There isn't much to do in the next few days. The main classes haven't started yet. Physical fitness is the main focus for now."

For the time being, they would focus on physical fitness... That would be easy!

Commander Xia, who had an idea in his heart, praised Ye Jian. He smiled and said, "Not bad, not bad. No wonder Little Six told me confidently that you would definitely get the title of Outstanding Student. Little Ye, you're very good. You make us feel at ease."

"Since you have no classes for the next few days, and it's the weekend three days later, why don't you follow the school's leaders to the capital city to watch the performances by the political regiment's arts unit? You can also visit Little Six at the hospital, lest he sneak to the Southern Province to look for you and make everyone uneasy."

Ye Jian agreed readily. Well... she couldn't ask for more!

She really, really wanted to see Captain Xia. She really, really missed him.

Her yearning seeped into her bones.

Regarding the matter of Ye Jian going to the capital city with the school leaders... The school leaders called the dean and asked the dean to inform the students of the academy that they would follow the school leaders to the capital city at nine o'clock tomorrow to report their work.

He could not directly go to watch the performances of the capital city's political regiment. After all, watching the performances was secondary. The meeting after the performances was the main focus.

Chapter 2132: Secretly Plotting

Ye Jian, who was about to go to the capital city, didn't know that Ye Ying was talking about her. Ye Ying smiled and said, "Jiayi, I always thought that you graduated from the National Science University too. So, you graduated from the military school."

Du Jiayi, who had her eyes shut and was getting her makeup done, acknowledged Ye Ying's enthusiasm and asked her, "Why did you say 'too'? Why? Do you have a friend who graduated from the National Science University? That shouldn't be. At your age, aren't you still studying?"

"I don't know anyone who graduated. I only know someone who's studying there. We're not friends. Our relationship is average. In the past, this girl was in the same junior high school as me. Her results were very average. After the college entrance examination, she somehow entered the Chinese Academy of Science. At that time, she caused a sensation in our place."

Ye Ying said calmly. At the same time, there was a hint of jealousy and disdain in her tone.

It was difficult for two girls to like an impressive girl together, but it was very easy for them to hate an impressive girl together.

Coincidentally, Du Jiayi was secretly looking for a flaw in Ye Ying. Hearing her words, a mocking sneer appeared on her lips. She pretended to be concerned and said, "It's indeed a headache to have an outstanding girl by your side. But you're not bad either. Why are you jealous of others?"

"It's not that I'm jealous of her; it's just that this person used to be very weak in her studies. Her grades used to be really, really bad. She was in last place from elementary school to junior high. I really can't believe she suddenly got into military school."

Ye Ying continued to flip through the photo album and casually continued the topic, "Your grades have always been good. It's not surprising that you got into military school. As for her, from the first grade of elementary school to junior high school, she had to copy my homework every time. No one gave her answers during exams, so she was always ranked last. How can I not be surprised when she got into military school after the college entrance examination?"

"That's true." So, that was what it was all about. Someone who was worse than her was admitted to the military school. Of course, Ye Ying would be unwilling to accept it. Du Jiayi just responded as a courtesy.

Ye Ying continued, "I'm related to her. We have the same surname. We grew up together. I'm happy that she got into military school, but I'm also worried."

"It's fine if she really relied on herself to get in, but I'm afraid that's not the case. During that period, the entire village was happy, but my parents were frowning. They were afraid that they would be happy for nothing."

If Du Jiayi conveyed her words to Staff Officer Du... 'Oh, Ye Jian, what do you think will happen to you?'

Du Jiayi, who was not interested, opened her eyes and looked sideways at Ye Ying. She was sitting at the dressing table on her left. "Same surname as you? What's her name?"

"Ye Jian." Ye Ying could tell that there was something wrong with Du Jiayi's tone. She thought that she had a chance to say what she wanted to say. Ye Ying frowned and sighed. "My cousin has no parents. If my parents didn't raise her, she would've lived on the streets."

"She wasn't cut out for studying since she was young. My parents said it should be my uncle and aunt who blessed her and that's how she got into military school."

They shared the same name, but one was a military cadet while the other was an army officer. Was she imagining things?

"Do you have a photo of her? Show it to me." Whether she was imagining it or not, she'd know it by looking at the photo! Du Jiayi persisted.

Chapter 2133: Scheming

Du Jiayi, who was far more scheming than Ye Ying and was better at hiding, didn't want others to know that she knew Ye Jian. She also didn't want others to notice her abnormality.

Then, she added lightly, “Even a gentle and generous girl like you doesn’t like her. I think that Ye Jian is indeed not very likable.”

Ye Ying hoped that Du Jiayi would stand on her side. Hearing this, she smiled and said, “I don’t hate her, nor do I like her much. After all, we’re still family. I hope she can make fewer mistakes and not think about taking shortcuts all day.”

At this, Du Jiayi almost burst out laughing.

Who was she to criticize others? She was the same!

These two cousins were the same!

If the Ye Jian she mentioned was the same person as the Ye Jian she knew, then she was really... Du Jiayi’s eyes darkened. If it was really the same person, she had to admit that Ye Jian was undoubtedly much stronger than Ye Ying.

They had one thing in common, though. Du Jiayi didn’t like either one of them.

Someone from a small family like Ye Ying wanted to marry into a powerful family? Dream on!

As for the other one, heh, she was always putting on a brave front. Somehow, the male soldiers fell for her tricks. Tsk, did she think that she was a flower in the army? Did she want to make all the female soldiers feel inferior to her?

A face flashed through her mind. Even though she was despicable, her face was as beautiful as the moon. Du Jiayi gritted her teeth, and a ruthless look flashed across her eyes. Her mood instantly sank, and she threw the eyebrow pencil in her hand onto the dressing table.

“I’m sorry, Miss Du.” The makeup artist thought she’d applied too much eye makeup and made her uncomfortable, so she quickly apologized.

Du Jiayi had a habit of taking out her anger on others, but she would never do it in front of others. Instead, she liked to play dirty tricks behind their backs.

This matter had nothing to do with the makeup artist, and she did not need to vent her anger on a mere makeup artist. She raised her hand to indicate that it had nothing to do with her.

Ye Ying misunderstood. She thought that Jiayi was defending her and said softly, “Jiayi, don’t be angry. It doesn’t matter to me now. I don’t have a photo of her. If you want to see a photo of her, I’ll see if I can get the graduation photo.”

Who would be able to see a graduation photo clearly?

“Show me a photo of just her.” Du Jiayi glanced at Ye Ying, who was pretending in front of her. Her disgust grew. She really didn’t understand what her mother liked about her!

She was pretentious. Although she looked alright, her appearance was completely ordinary!

Seeing the joy in Ye Ying's eyes, Du Jiayi immediately understood why Ye Ying mentioned Ye Jian to her. She just said that Ye Jian's results were not good yet she suddenly got into the military school. Wasn't she hinting that Ye Jian only got in because she copied the answers for the college entrance examination?

'I see. So that's what she really meant.'

"Since you said that her results might be fake, we have to investigate. The military academy is to nurture future officers. How can there be an impostor there? Give me her photo. I'll get my father to ask what's going on."

Ye Ying was so excited that she secretly pinched her thigh to suppress her excitement. She pinched herself too hard. Pain and excitement intertwined, causing her sweet features to distort.

However, she said in a panic, "There's no need to look into it. She's fine now. I heard that if she fails the military school training, she'll be sent back. She didn't return, which means she's still capable."

Chapter 2134: Competing

The door of the dressing room was pushed open, and Madam Li walked in. Ye Ying, who was talking, turned around when she heard the commotion. She hurriedly adjusted her expression and stood up. She stood up and greeted Madam Li gently, "Madam."

Madam Li took in all her expressions. She thought that her daughter had embarrassed Ye Ying again. Seeing that Ye Ying could quickly adjust her expression and pretend to be calm, she smiled in satisfaction.

She had not misjudged her. She was indeed a lady who knew better than to embarrass anyone.

"You're injured, so don't stand on ceremony. Sit down quickly." Madam Li, who was walking over elegantly, took the initiative to put her arm around Ye Ying's shoulder. After a while, she said, "Fortunately, you didn't hurt your face. Don't wear anything else later. Just wear the military uniform. Don't put on too much makeup on your face either. Just be more elegant."

Du Jiayi, who had completed her eye makeup, said with a smile, "Mom, actually, I don't need to put on too much makeup either. I just need to look simple and elegant. I'll just wear my military uniform too."

"You want to go against me again, huh?" Madam Li tapped her daughter's forehead with her index finger. As she was in a good mood, she joked with the makeup artist, "Make her look uglier so that she won't be able to face anyone later."

The makeup artist quickly said respectfully, "Miss Du is naturally beautiful. She's already very beautiful without makeup."

"You heard that, right? Mom, you have to listen to the thoughts of the people." Du Jiayi, who was smiling like a flower, raised her eyebrows playfully and pulled Ye Ying into the conversation. "Tell me, who's more beautiful between me and Ye Ying?"

Madam Li liked Du Jiayi's antics. It made her laugh.

Hearing this, she looked at her and then at Ye Ying. "Each has her own merits. However, Yingying is still the most obedient."

"She's the only one you like who's obedient." Du Jiayi smiled at Ye Ying, who had lowered her head and whose cheeks were red. Her laughter was even crisper. "Let's not talk about it anymore. She's already blushing."

It was uncertain if she was angry or really blushing.

Her eyes darted around, then Du Jiayi retracted her gaze coldly and discussed with Madam Li which necklace to wear later to complement her gown.

More than ten necklace boxes were opened and placed neatly on the dressing table. Each necklace was expensive. When she saw the pink diamond necklace, Ye Ying's eyes widened.

So pretty and bright. How envious she was.

"It's pink and beautiful. It goes well with your white lace gown." Madam Li personally brought the pink diamond to her daughter. As she lowered her head, she said with a light smile, "Your lover will be here tonight. Dress up well and let him be amazed by you."

Du Jiayi's eyes lit up like diamonds. Her voice was so soft that Ye Ying couldn't hear it. She said happily, "Qin Xiu? Did you say that Qin Xiu will come?"

"Yes, the diplomat you like, Qin Xiu, will be coming. Look at you, you're already acting like a fool before he comes." Madam Li tidied her daughter's hair again and reminded the makeup artist elegantly, "The makeup doesn't have to be too thick. It just has to be plain and appropriate. She shouldn't look too mature. She's still young."

"Yes, Madam," the makeup artist replied fearfully, afraid that she would anger Madam Li.

Madam Li nodded in satisfaction and turned to Ye Ying. "Yingying, change into your military uniform. I'll bring you out for a walk. There are guests at home. Li Yuan is entertaining the male guests. Come chat with the female guests with me. They're a group of young ladies in their 20s. I can't keep up with their conversation."

Chapter 2135: The Beginning Of The Great Abuse (1)

Not only were they all 20-year-old girls, but they were also Madam Li's favorite candidates for her daughter-in-law.

Ye Ying, who was wearing a military uniform, was led into a circle by Madam Li. She was quite good-looking, had learned how to play the piano, and could dance. She had an intellectual and gentle aura. In addition, she was led over by Madam Li. Although the people in the circle didn't know her identity, Madam Li was polite to her.

Madam Li did not let Ye Ying stay by her side. After introducing her to the daughters of her friends in the circle, she went away.

Although Du Jiayi's birthday party was held at her own house and they only invited friends, the people who came were all either rich or noble. They brought their children over as well. In the evening, the villa under Li Yuan's name was very lively.

"It's good to be young. Look at how they're all playing. Tsk, tsk, tsk. If it were us, we wouldn't be able to dance much. Our limbs would ache everywhere. We wouldn't be able to get out of bed the next day."

"They're in the midst of their good times. They even have a place to play, unlike back in our time. Who would've dared to play around? That wouldn't have happened."

"That's right. At that time, there was no fun and no food. Madam Li was still alright. She was born with a golden spoon in her mouth and was a true daughter of a prestigious family. Come, Madam Li, let me give you a toast."

A lady who was good at talking and usually played mahjong with Madam Li held a tall crystal glass filled with red wine and toasted first.

After she made the first move, the other madams followed suit.

When Du Jiayi appeared, the audience applauded. Ye Ying listened to the applause and looked at the crowd. Du Jiayi's legs appeared from the thick, snow-white gown. It was as if she was stepping on clouds. She looked so delicate.

The crystal lamp was too bright. It shone on the crystal crown that Du Jiayi was wearing. Ye Ying's gaze landed on the crown, and her vision blurred.

This life of being a princess and surrounded by stars was the life she wanted.

It was so wonderful that she wished she could have it now!

There was no need to be anxious. She was already walking on the right path. As long as she coaxed Madam Li, such a life would definitely become her life.

"The young lady behind Jiayi is named Ye Ying. After returning from studying abroad in France, she was specially recruited into the capital city's political regiment. Although she's young, she's very obedient. I like her personality very much."

During the afternoon banquet, Ye Ying was very good at interacting with people and handling matters. When she met two people who were deliberately making things difficult for her, she retorted with her own ability without batting an eyelid. This ensured that no parties lost their face tonight. Madam Li observed her for the entire afternoon and was even more satisfied.

Only then did she officially introduce Ye Ying to her friends.

With her special introduction, Ye Ying's name gradually spread. Before the banquet ended, everyone knew that Madam Li liked a girl called Ye Ying from the Southern Province.

Du Jiayi was happy in the beginning, but as time passed, the haze in her eyes grew. Fortunately, she knew how to hide her unhappiness.

The person she was thinking about did not come. To think that she had prepared early!

Ye Ying, who had a few new phone numbers on her phone, was very happy. She didn't steal Du Jiayi's limelight and stayed by Madam Li's side obediently. When Madam Li asked her something, she would answer generously and gently. The smile in Madam Li's eyes never disappeared.

Ye Ying was indeed not bad as long as Ye Jian was not by her side.

At this moment, Madam Li did not know that she had lost face because of Ye Ying.

Chapter 2136: The Beginning Of The Great Abuse (2)

As she was more and more satisfied with Ye Ying, she either brought Du Jiayi or Ye Ying to chat with her friends and Staff Officer Du's friends.

At the end of the banquet, Madam Li even asked Ye Ying to send off the female soldiers from the capital city. They were friends with Du Jiayi. Because of Madam Li's introduction, they didn't feel much rejection toward Ye Ying, but they did not have much interest in interacting with her either.

Even so, Ye Ying was very happy.

Ye Zhifan was so angry that he entered the hospital.

He drank a little too much last night as he was furious over the videotape. When he woke up, he found out that his wife and daughter had secretly left him behind. He was shocked and furious as he searched for them outside in thin clothes. At noon, he had a stuffy nose, a fever, and a cough.

"Why are you complaining about Yingying? As long as she can make things up, everything will be fine!" When Sun Dongqing received the call from the hospital, she was so frightened that she rushed over and complained about her husband's unreasonable behavior. "I hit and scolded her last night. Yingying knows that she's in the wrong. She's our only daughter. Don't tell me you'll really beat her to death?"

"I was very angry. At that time, I wanted to beat her to death too. It was better than continuing to embarrass myself. But now, there's Madam Li and the Du family. As long as Madam Li likes her, what's there to be afraid of?"

As she spoke, Sun Dongqing gritted her teeth and said fiercely, "We must find that person who harmed our entire family! If we don't teach her a lesson, she'll think that we're easy to bully."

"Yingying said that Ye Jian is that wretched girl. No matter how I think about it, there's no one else besides her who could've done such a thing! She must be jealous of Yingying joining the army, so she thought of such a sinister method to harm Yingying."

After Ye Ying's brainwashing, Sun Dongqing felt that this matter was caused by Ye Jian!

At this moment, Ye Zhifan was already disheartened. He didn't want to see this stupid woman in front of him again, nor did he want to see Ye Ying, who wanted so badly to climb up the social ladder but failed.

"Yes, you two are smart. You're the smartest in the world. Everyone else is a fool! Alright, now that your daughter has gone to the Du family to show off and please Madam Li, hurry up and be happy. Otherwise, I'm afraid you won't have time to be happy!"

Ye Zhifan closed his eyes and pointed at the door. "You can get lost now! Don't let me see you again! Get lost!"

"Dad!" Ye Ying pushed the door open angrily. "Why are you saying such ugly words? If Mom leaves, who will take care of you?"

"Tomorrow morning, Li Yuan will accompany me to report to the regiment. After reporting in the morning, I'll go with the capital city's political regiment to perform for the various leaders of the army. You always say that I embarrass you, but how have I embarrassed you?!"

"Today, Madam Li brought me to meet many ladies from noble families and the wives of high-ranking generals in the army. I met many new friends. I also met a few from the capital city's political regiment. Did I embarrass you? I only made you proud."

Ye Zhifan, who could always sense danger, felt despair when he heard that. It was over. Everything was over.

As long as the videotape was sent to Madam Li, his career would be over!

"Go away!"

Ye Zhifan, who had been working for nearly 20 years old, let out a desperate and violent roar. He stood up so forcefully that the drip needle was pulled out. With a wave of his hand, blood and medicine splattered on Ye Ying's face. Ye Ying screamed.

Chapter 2137: The Big Abuse (3)

Sun Dongqing knew that her husband was really angry. Seeing his ferocious expression, she felt terrified.

Usually, Old Ye would just tolerate his anger. He, who paid attention to his image, would never do anything that would risk his image as an official in public, let alone get angry at his wife and daughter.

At this moment, he was roaring and ignoring her own body. Sun Dongqing couldn't help but wonder in her heart.

Could something really happen after this? Old Ye would never do anything to harm his family. No matter how much they argued with him, he would never say anything shameful.

Sun Dongqing, who was suddenly afraid, tried to persuade her husband for the first time. "Alright, alright, Old Ye, calm down. Why are you angry with a child? Yingying knew that you were sick and rushed over to see you. At least on account of the child's filial piety, just forget about it.

“Didn’t you always say that a family should be loud and vibrant? Yingying has gotten Madam Li’s favor, and Li Yuan even dropped her off at the hospital. Didn’t you say that Madam Li really wants Yingying to marry into the Du family?”

“As long as Yingying marries into the Du family, what do you have to be afraid of? The one who should be afraid isn’t our family but the person who sent the videotape!”

“If they knew that our Yingying is going to marry into the Du family, they would never have dared to do it! How dare they go against the Du family? As Yingying’s mother-in-law, how could Madam Li let them off?!”

It was rare for Sun Dongqing to persuade him, but her words were still ambiguous.

She was so confident because she was certain that Ye Ying could marry into the Du family and that Madam Li liked her daughter. She definitely wouldn’t let others bully her.

However, she didn’t expect Madam Li to like Ye Ying only because Ye Ying looked innocent and obedient. She had secretly investigated Ye Ying and asked around Ye Zhifan’s colleagues and friends. She found out that Director Ye’s daughter was indeed obedient and didn’t have any messy boyfriends. She also found out that Ye Ying went to a noble school abroad to study. That was why she thought highly of Ye Ying.

Madam Li’s conditions for choosing a daughter-in-law were quite harsh. The most important thing was that she had to be clean and spotless!

Madam Li was impressed with Ye Zhifan’s official position and Ye Ying’s obedience.

However, once Ye Ying’s true colors were exposed and her promiscuous private life was placed in front of Madam Li, how could Madam Li help Ye Ying just because she liked her? She was not Ye Ying’s mother. Why should she forgive Ye Ying’s deception so easily like Sun Dongqing?

Sun Dongqing only thought that Madam Li liked Ye Ying as her daughter-in-law and that Madam Li would definitely help Ye Ying. However, Ye Ying was not Madam Li’s daughter-in-law yet!

Sun Dongqing was only fantasizing about beautiful things. She completely ignored the consequences of lying to Madam Li.

As for Ye Ying, she had the same thoughts.

The only one who was sober was Ye Zhifan. He had stopped Ye Ying, but Sun Dongqing turned the tables and pushed the matter to a dead end.

Seeing that his wife still didn’t understand the consequences, Ye Zhifan glared at Sun Dongqing with bloodshot eyes. “We’ll divorce! We’ll go back to the Southern Province to settle the divorce procedures! We’ll go back to the Southern Province immediately!”

After the roar, only Ye Zhifan's panting could be heard in the ward.

Sun Dongqing and Ye Ying were stunned by Ye Zhifan's words.

Chapter 2138: The Big Split (4)

This was the first time Ye Zhifan proposed a divorce under such circumstances!

Ye Ying found it unbelievable.

After a while, she screamed, "Dad, are you crazy? I'm about to marry into the Du family, and you're actually asking for a divorce at a time like this?! What do you want?!"

"You don't know how much Madam Li likes me! She introduced me to a few of her best friends today and even asked them to take care of me! She told Du Jiayi's friends to take good care of me!"

"When I rushed to the hospital, Madam Li didn't even let the chauffeur send me. She asked her son, Li Yuan, to send me directly! Dad, do you know what this means? It means that Madam Li has told Li Yuan that I'm the daughter-in-law candidate she approves of!"

"What kind of family is the Du family? I won't say anything about Staff Officer Du or their eldest son, but let me tell you, Madam Li's family used to be warlords!"

"Madam Li has a brother who is the head of your province! She also has a brother who can sell paintings for six figures!"

"The wife of such a noble family fancies me and wants me to be her daughter-in-law. This is something that the Ye family's ancestors have brought upon! You actually want to divorce my mother now? Alright, as long as you divorce my mother, I'll immediately change my surname to Sun!"

Sun Dongqing had yet to recover from her husband's mention of divorce and was so shocked by her daughter's words that her heart skipped a few beats.

"Nonsense! Your father said that in a fit of anger!" Divorce? How was that possible?! If she divorced Old Ye, who would she rely on for the rest of her life? Her daughter? Her daughter had to take care of her in-laws!

She would never divorce Old Ye.

Ye Ying, who was trembling in anger, raised her chin stubbornly and screamed fearlessly, "What do you mean I'm saying nonsense? Is he still my biological father? Is there a biological father who can't bear to see his daughter doing well? No, he's not my father!"

"Other biological fathers can't wait for their daughter to marry well. What about him? He's afraid that I'll marry well! Is he my biological father? Is he really my biological father?"

Facing the stubborn mother and daughter, Ye Zhifan, who was roaring in anger just earlier, became calmer. He had to calm down. Otherwise, he would be unlucky with the two of them.

“Sure. I don’t want anything after the divorce. I’ll give you all my assets. I’ll just bring my household register and ID. I don’t want a dime either. I’ll leave my wallet to you and your mother.

“You can change your surname too. I’ll ask my friend in the household registration management to settle the divorce today. I’ll change your surname to Sun Ying today. From now on, your life with your mother has nothing to do with me.

“I’m not your father, and you’re not my daughter. I’ve made things clear between us. We don’t owe each other anymore!”

Before the worst happened, they had to clarify their relationship immediately!

For the sake of his career, Ye Zhifan, who was completely disappointed in the two of them, started to abandon his family. He was such a person just as Ye Jian said.

Ye Ying was very stubborn. When she heard this, she sneered and said, “Okay, my name is Sun Ying from now on. I have nothing to do with you!” She pulled Sun Dongqing, who had no chance to interrupt, away. In order to anger Ye Zhifan, she deliberately said happily, “Mom, he finally asked for a divorce. I’m very happy! In the future, you and I won’t have to live with him anymore. Mom, Li Yuan and I will support you in the future!

“It doesn’t matter if you don’t have a husband to support you! Li Yuan and I will support you! He’s just the director of the provincial city’s construction bureau. In the future, I’ll get Li Yuan to give you an even greater official post!”

Chapter 2139: The Big Divorce (5)

Ye Zhifan, who was coughing, didn’t feel any heartache when he heard this. Instead, he felt that he was going to be liberated!

Marrying Sun Dongqing and raising a daughter who didn’t know any better and was so stupid that she couldn’t change her ways was the greatest failure of his life!

He was getting a divorce now!

After the divorce, he could find someone better and younger!

As long as the Du family didn’t make things difficult for him, he would think of a way to advance his career. He didn’t care about the person behind the jade pendant! He wouldn’t care about anyone anymore!

He had been an official for nearly 20 years and had never been greedy. He had only taken up shares in a few companies. He would not be afraid even if the Discipline Office came to check on him.

Ye Zhifan, who was thinking about his escape route calmly, threw the mother and daughter out of his life. He didn’t care even if Ye Ying was his biological daughter!“Please reading on

Since he had raised an ingrate, why should he care about her?!

How could Sun Dongqing agree to a divorce? This was something that would embarrass her. How could she agree?!

This time, no matter what Ye Ying said, she was not tempted!

“Old Ye, if you want a divorce, I’ll die!” Sun Dongqing crossed her arms and sat on the bed. “Ye Ying is our daughter. A divorce? No way!”

Unlike her usual self, Sun Dongqing didn’t make a fuss. She just stared at Ye Zhifan coldly. “Don’t even think about it! I’ll continue to be a member of the Ye family when I’m alive. Even if I die, I’ll be a ghost of the Ye family!”

Her refusal made Ye Ying anxious. She pounced on Sun Dongqing and tried her best to pull her up. “Let’s go, Mom! Let’s go! Don’t beg him anymore!

“I’ll work hard for you. I won’t disappoint you! I’ll make sure you have a good life! He doesn’t even acknowledge me anymore. Why should I acknowledge him? Mom, go back to the Southern Province and divorce him! Divorce him!”

After last night’s beating, the benefits she enjoyed at the Du family’s house today were a stark contrast. Ye Ying hated Ye Zhifan even more. She wanted to leave him immediately!

“I’m not leaving. I’m not going anywhere! You want to divorce me? No way!” Sun Dongqing, who was provoked by Ye Ying again, suddenly exploded. She shouted at Ye Zhifan, “Ye Zhifan, if you dare to divorce me, I’ll go to your unit and make a fuss! I’ll make trouble until you can’t even be the chief!”

How dare she threaten him?! Ye Zhifan turned around and glared at Sun Dongqing. “If you dare to cause trouble and make me unable to become the director, I won’t let your daughter join the army!”

Holding Ye Ying’s enlistment notice and the videotape, Ye Zhifan became even more ruthless. “I can tear up this enlistment notice. I’ll send the videotape to Staff Officer Du as well! Sun Dongqing, how dare you threaten me? Let’s see who’ll win!”

Ye Zhifan and Sun Dongqing were the only ones who had turned against each other.

Ye Ying was frightened. She hugged Sun Dongqing’s arm and cried, “Mom, please, please, divorce him! I’m your daughter. For my sake, divorce him quickly!

“I have to report for duty by 12 tomorrow. Go back to the Southern Province now and finish the paperwork tomorrow morning! Please, please.”

Sun Dongqing’s lifeline was Ye Ying. She hoped that Ye Ying could stand out. She didn’t want Ye Ying’s future to be blocked.

Sun Dongqing never thought that her husband would threaten her with Ye Ying’s future just to force her to get a divorce. She couldn’t accept it. She shouted and pounced on Ye Zhifan.

“How dare you force me, Ye Zhifan?! How dare you force me?! I’ll fight you to the death!”

Chapter 2140: The Big Kicking Out (6)

Ye Ying, who was caught off guard, was pushed to the floor. Seeing the chaos, she didn’t persuade any longer. Instead, she stared at the videotape in Ye Zhifan’s hand and her enlistment notice.

She wanted to snatch them!

Although Ye Zhifan was sick, he wasn’t so sick that Sun Dongqing could pounce on him. He dodged and shouted angrily, “I forced you? Did I f*cking force you? It’s you. You and your daughter are the ones forcing me to death!”

Marry into the Du family? They still dared to think about getting Ye Ying to be the daughter-in-law of a noble family after such a huge scandal? Did they think that Madam Li was blind? Did they think that she was easy to talk to? Could she forgive Ye Ying easily?

Ye Zhifan didn’t say this out loud. It was useless to say it. Sun Dongqing might not divorce him!

At night, the various wards were quiet. The noise of the family of three had already made the patients in the other wards complain to the nurses. Just as Ye Ying wanted to snatch the enlistment notice, the nurse pushed the door open with several security guards.

“What are you all doing?! Do you think the hospital is a market?! If you want to argue, go outside!”

The security guards rushed in and quickly separated Ye Ying and Sun Dongqing. Ye Zhifan held the back of his hand and coughed as he panted. “My ex-wife brought her daughter over to cause trouble. Please help me kick them out. Also, my heart is beating a little fast and my head hurts. My blood pressure might not be stable. Please take a look at me. Thank you.”

Ex-wife?

She became an ex-wife before she even got divorced?

Sun Dongqing was so angry that she pointed at Ye Zhifan’s nose and cursed, “Ye Zhifan, you bastard! When did I become your ex-wife? What about our daughter? I’ll fight you to the death!”

Ye Ying felt a little guilty when she saw the security guards and nurses enter. She was afraid that Madam Li would hear about it.

“Mom, let’s go first!” She climbed to her feet and tried to support Sun Dongqing, who seemed to be going crazy. “He won’t care about us anymore. I told you before, he won’t care about us!”

Divorce, divorce! One day, he would regret throwing them out!

Ye Ying gritted her teeth. She didn’t believe that she couldn’t do anything without him!

With Madam Li's admiration, as long as she could marry into the Du family, she would make everyone who looked down on her regret it!

Sun Dongqing didn't want to leave. Even when Ye Ying persuaded her, she wouldn't leave. Seeing that there were many security guards, she acted like a shrew and rolled on the floor. "You heartless man! I worked hard alongside you for most of my life. In the end, you still want a divorce!"

The more she acted like this, the more Ye Zhifan hated her.

He tried his best to let Ye Ying enter the military and worked hard for his family to live a good life. In the end? No matter how hard he tried, he couldn't stop the two of them from being stupid. They were too ambitious and stupid. He didn't want to be dragged down by them. The only way out was to get a divorce!

Ye Zhifan, who was sitting on the bed, didn't say anything else. He just held his chest and took deep breaths. He looked like he was having a heart attack.

Seeing this, the nurse immediately asked the security guards to escort them out.

The patient was the most important. No matter how much trouble Sun Dongqing caused, it was useless. The more trouble she caused, the angrier she would be.

Ye Ying didn't want to be carried by the security guard. She glared at Ye Zhifan in anger. Seeing that his back was facing her, Ye Ying, whose face was trembling from anger, shouted at the security guard, "I'll walk myself! Get out of my way!"

When Sun Dongqing saw the security guard coming to drag her, she shouted, "Someone's hitting me, someone's hitting me! The security guard hit me! I want to call the police. I want to call the police!"

The security guard responded swiftly, "Okay, it's good that you want to call the police. Go to the police station for the night and get someone to bail you out tomorrow."
