

Chapter 231: Worse Than Ye Jian (4)

She remained stubborn. "So what if it's true? Yingying could have participated too. That wicked girl Ye Jian did something behind the back and let Yingying..."

"Get out of here! Get out!" Before she finished, Ye Zhifan rushed forward and pointed at the door. He couldn't control his anger anymore. He glared at her as though he wanted to eat her up. "How else do you want to embarrass is? Look at yourself. Even middle school students look down on you! Why do you still have the face to stand here?"

Ye Ying smiled gently. "Father, I'm already prepared to transfer schools. After the fuss mom kicked up, I can't stay here anymore."

"I don't agree. Even if someone had to leave... Ah..."

A scream suddenly sounded in the room. What was more astonishing than the scream was the fact that Town Mayor Ye slapped his wife in front of all the people in the room.

It was a hard slap. A red handprint appeared on Sun Dongqing's face.

"She deserves it. One slap is not enough."

"No wonder he could become the town mayor. It's impressive that he managed to suppress his anger till now."

"Making drastic changes to an organization upon taking charge. The first change he had to make is his wife. Not bad."

These students were all 15 and 16 years old. They knew some things but not everything. Their ambiguous words made people's heads hurt.

Sun Dongqing looked at her husband's murderous gaze. She didn't dare to stand up and retaliate. She kept shivering. "You, you, you... you hit... me!"

"Sun Dongqing, look at yourself! Do you still know what shame is?" The thought of divorce came to Ye Zhifan's mind. If he could divorce her, he would have done it long ago! What a stupid woman! If he didn't teach her a lesson now, he deserved to be dragged down by her!

All her arrogance disappeared after she was slapped. Her expression changed too. The students were extremely satisfied.

It was wrong to hit people but when you hit someone who deserved it... Secretary Wu decided to pretend that nothing happened.

He cleared his throat and continued, "We have cleared the query on the competition. Now, let's talk about something else. I'm sure that after you all hear this news, you will be even more grateful towards Classmate Ye Jian."

How could they not appreciate her? The top ten students from Fujun Town Middle School were able to get a scholarship. The first-place would get 1000RMB. The rest would get 600RMB.

The entire class, no, the entire school will be in an uproar.

Everyone thought that only universities had scholarships. Now, their middle school had it too. This was all because of Ye Jian!

Not only students but even teachers also had bursaries.

Gao Yiyang was still sitting in the classroom so he heard this news before the rest of the school. He saw Ye Jian being surrounded by her classmates. She maintained her calm expression. Gao Yiyang, who normally wore a cold expression, gave a small smile. It was like the waves on the surface of a pool.

"Oh my god, Gao Yiyang looks handsome when he smiles." An Jiaxin was stunned by Gao Yiyang's smile. She turned and leaned towards Ye Jian. "He stood up for you just now. Do you think that he has feelings for you?"

Her smile got brighter as she continued, "I feel good thinking about this. Ye Ying is going to vomit blood again."

Chapter 232: Worse Than Ye Jian (5)

She wasn't sure if Ye Ying would vomit blood out of anger but she knew that Ye Ying must be extremely unhappy now. Ye Jian smiled. "You are thinking too much. From what I know, Gao Yiyang might be going to Australia after he finishes middle school. He might not come back after that."

"I don't think so. His grandmother is still here."

"I'm not sure about that." Ye Jian shrugged. She didn't know much. She only knew that Gao Yiyang was going to Australia after he graduated from middle school. Gao Yiyang's father told her this news after she came back. He wanted to see if Ye Jian was able to persuade Gao Yiyang to accept this plan.

Ye Jian rejected the offer. This was other people's family matter. However, based on Father Gao's strong personality, he would not change his mind easily.

Also, Gao Yiyang needed to take the senior high entrance exam this year. However, he didn't participate in it. He continued to stay in this school and went through the ninth grade again. No one knew what he was thinking.

"...The Provincial Educational Commission decided to give Ye Jian the 'Outstanding Youth Award'. The prize ceremony will be on the 1st of October at the Provincial People's Great Hall. She will be presented the certificate and the badge for the award."

The moment Secretary Wu finished speaking, a loud round of applause was heard again. This meant that Ye Jian had to go to the province again in October.

Secretary Wu finally finished his task. He shook hands with Principal Chen who had walked up to him and smiled. "Principal Chen, Classmate Ye brought honor to the country. We would like to thank you for grooming such an outstanding student. Please accompany Classmate Ye Jian to the province at that time."

"Thank you, Secretary Wu. I will definitely accompany her." Principal Chen smiled and guided Secretary Wu out of the classroom. After walking a few steps, he returned to the classroom worriedly. He spoke to Ye Zhifan, "Town Mayor Ye, please let your wife leave this place. This is a school, not your house."

Ye Zhifan was still here because of Secretary Wu. He immediately sighed after hearing what Principal Chen said, "I will give Ye Jian an explanation. My wife created too much trouble for you today. However, my daughter is innocent. She got dragged down by her mother."

He looked coldly at Sun Dongqing who was holding Ye Ying tightly. He said seriously, "Apologize to Ye Jian now!"

Ye Zhifan had thought of a solution. His daughter must not be implicated. Secretary Wu was from the Municipal Educational Commission. He must protect his daughter no matter what.

He lowered his head and gave Ye Ying a look that only the two of them understood. They seemed to have agreed on something.

Sun Dongqing's expression changed. She raised her hand and pointed at Ye Jian. She screamed, "Why are you asking me to apologize to this stupid girl? I want to beat her to death now! Yingying said that she wants to transfer schools just now! She doesn't want to remain here!"

"Mom, what else do you want? Are you trying to force me to death?" Ye Ying suddenly screamed on top of her lungs. Her eyes turned red and tears poured down. "Will you only be happy after I die?"

She rushed out of the room frantically, looking as though she was forced to commit suicide by her mother.

Chapter 233: Daughter Of A Sacrificed Soldier (1)

At this moment, Ye Zhifan looked at her too. Ye Jian started smiling when she saw this. Her cold gaze seemed to be smiling too. With the town mayor around, any major issues could be solved.

The gentle smile made Ye Zhifan's heart jump. Her smile was too calm. It seemed resolute. Ye Zhifan felt that his niece saw through the silent communication between him and his daughter. She knew that Ye Ying was just acting.

His niece was not someone easy to deal with. He underestimated her last time!

A malicious intent flashed passed his eyes. He smiled coldly and walked towards Ye Jian. He didn't evade her gaze. "Niece, the situation is getting out of hand now. As an older sister, say something."

An Jiaxin stared at them intently. When she heard what Ye Zhifan said, she looked at Ye Jian worriedly.

Ye Jian comforted her with a gaze. Then, she stood up and looked indifferently at her sly uncle. She smiled. "This is your family matter. It has nothing to do with me."

"Family matter?" Town Mayor Ye looked as though he didn't understand what Ye Jian said. He frowned. After a while, he smiled. "Ye Jian, you are my family too. My family matter is your family matter."

Normally, he would not battle with a 15 years old child personally.

However, Ye Jian was getting tougher to deal with. He had to appear.

Ye Jian started frowning too. She looked at Ye Zhifan with a confused look. "I remember that my family and Town Mayor Ye's family split in the past. According to tradition, when two families split, they are considered two different families. That means that I'm not your family member."

"Look, the people who created a fuss are your wife and your daughter. What does it have to do with me? You are indeed someone of a high-rank. Your patience is amazing. Your daughter is looking for death and you can't stop your wife. Yet, you are making things difficult for an outsider like me. I respect you."

What a smart girl! No wonder Ye Ying always complained that she got bullied. No wonder... Sun Dongqing couldn't subdue her!

Ye Zhifan turned more serious. He didn't dare to underestimate his niece anymore. He felt that she seemed like a stranger now. He calmed his emotions and said unhappily, "You can write 'Ye' with one stroke. You are my niece. Your Aunt is your direct relative. Even though we split up, blood ties can't be broken!"

"You are going too far ahead. One stroke can't write 'Ye'. Everyone who had this surname belonged to the same family hundreds of years ago. However, there is a difference between distant and close relationships. Unfortunately, Town Mayor Ye has a distant relationship with me."

"Don't tell me that you raised me and I spent your family's money. Although I was only two years old when I went to live with you, I remember that the town government gave you some money to raise me because I'm the child of a sacrificed soldier. The land given to me were passed to you so that you could take care of them for me first."

“There was a Dragon Jade among the things my mother left behind. When the people from town came, they said that the jade was an old jade. It can fetch a high price! I remember everything. Don’t try to deceive me.”

Deceive? She said everything clearly. How could he deceive her?

Ye Zhifan was astounded. His breathing got heavier. That year, when the people from the government came and passed him the money and the Dragon Jade, there was no one in the room!

Chapter 234: Daughter Of A Sacrificed Soldier (2)

No, there was someone in the room! It was his niece who was still a baby!

“Don’t be surprised. I’ve always had a good memory. No matter what people say or do, I can remember everything since I was two years old. Thus, you can’t fool me.”

Ye Jian said as she admired Ye Zhifan’s complicated expression. When she saw the alarm in his eyes, her smile got brighter. “You can’t hide those things forever. I told Grandpa Gen everything. We are just waiting for you to pass them over.”

What the hell is she?!

Ye Zhifan secretly sized up his niece. She was getting more and more frightening. Did Sun Dongqing say anything else at home? She didn’t right? If she did... Ye Zhifan thought about murder. He gave a cold smile and said, “Amazing, my niece. Don’t worry, you will get back all the things that belong to you.”

“Of course. I will not take those things that don’t belong to me.” The killing intent in his eyes was captured by Ye Jian. After staying in the army for a while, she could feel other people’s murderous aura. “Town Mayor Ye, you should go and console your daughter. If not, she might really commit suicide.”

Fine! Impressive! He underestimated his opponent!

He schemed against so many people but in the end, he got bitten by this cub. Amazing!

He stared at his niece and gave a fake smile. He pretended to remind her when in actual fact, he was threatening her. “Niece, it’s not good to be too clever. Smart people will not live for long. Let me remind you as your uncle. You should be careful.”

“Thanks for your reminder. However, I would like to remind you too. There are always people more powerful than you. There are some people that you can’t touch or threaten. As a town mayor, you must think thrice before speaking. What you said can bring you trouble.”

After she finished, an oppressive and old voice echoed, "Well done! There are always people more powerful than you. As a town mayor, your perspective is narrower than a child!"

Ye Zhifan's expression froze. Agitation appeared in his eyes. He frantically turned.

Grandpa Gen and a 30-years-old commander were standing behind him. Grandpa Gen's face turned dark. He looked at Town Mayor Ye sharply and smiled coldly, "I came at a good time. I didn't expect to hear the town mayor threatening a little child."

Ye Zhifan's expression changed entirely. He no longer looked arrogant anymore. He greeted Grandpa Gen obediently, "Uncle..."

"Grandpa Gen, what brings you here?" Ye Jian jumped pass Ye Zhifan lightly. She smiled brightly like the warm sun. "I came back yesterday and you came today. If I knew you were coming, I would have come with you."

...If she did, the thing that happened just now would not have occurred.

The soldier who came along was unhappy. He pretended to be angry, "Girl, did you not see me? I'm such a huge person. How can you ignore me?"

"I won't dare to ignore you!" Ye Jian's laughter sounded like silver bells. There was an enchanting glint in her eyes. "I didn't see you last time. They said that you went back because you are having a child. Congrats on becoming a father, Uncle Yue. Also, did you bring my share of red eggs?"

Chapter 235: Daughter Of A Sacrificed Soldier (3)

This man was the company commander in the military unit. After five years, he finally managed to get a son. He couldn't hide his smile when Ye Jian talked about his child. "You little girl, you will have your red egg soon. Look, I brought you some."

He was carrying around ten red eggs in his left hand. On his right hand, he was holding a document that had the number of his military unit on it.

He looked up and tapped her head lightly. "You didn't take your allowance. Your grandpa couldn't sleep for the entire night because of this. I met your grandpa early in the morning. He came to send you your allowance."

They didn't expect to see a middle-aged man threatening her when they arrived.

The entire military unit viewed Ye Jian as their family member. Hence, he was furious when he saw someone threatening her with her life.

Ye Zhifan didn't dare to interrupt them. The astonishment he got was even greater than when Ye Jian told him about what she remembered when she was young.

When did she have such a good relationship with the military unit? Wait, Yingying told him about this before. She said that Ye Jian was close to the military unit and even knew a Major! He didn't place much importance in this information at that time. He thought that Ye Jian just met them in the village and was acquaintances with them.

He never expected their relationship to be so close. Ye Jian was even calling the other party uncle. Also, this was not the Major his daughter told him about. This person was a commander!

Grandpa Gen didn't smile. He waved at Ye Jian and said in a serious tone, "Come over to me!"

"Hurry up and go. Your grandpa is sad." Company Commander Yue reminded Ye Jian softly. He blocked Ye Zhifan's vision with his bulky body and gave him an intense gaze. It was filled with anger.

Even as the town mayor, Ye Zhifan trembled when he saw the gaze.

The military was a place where men could groom their aura. Company Commander Yue had participated in numerous exercises in the military. He was in charge of the moving of weapons between the north and the south.

Company Commander Yue saw Ye Zhifan retracting his gaze so he looked away too.

Do you want to bully her? The regiment commanders and the political commissars will not allow you to!

Outside the classroom, Sun Dongqing hugged Ye Ying as she cried loudly in her arms. However, when Grandpa Gen appeared, Ye Ying had been looking at him.

She was puzzled. She even saw the fear in her father's eyes when he looked at Grandpa Gen.

It was reasonable that Ye Zhifan was frightened of him. Grandpa Gen knew how he became a commissar in his village. He knew how he became a town mayor. He knew everything!

Without Ye Jian's mother, he would not be where he was today.

"Loyalty, filial piety, courtesy, righteousness, and shame. Town Mayor Ye, I'm sure that you know how to write these words, right?" Grandpa Gen pulled Ye Jian behind him. This Class A Master Sergeant who went through many battles and life-or-death situations was someone Ye Zhifan could never surpass. He was unable to straighten his back under Grandpa Gen's oppressive aura.

The old man's voice was not loud but his words were clear and precise. Ye Zhifan was embarrassed by what he said. "How dare you threatened a girl. Are you the emperor of this town?"

"Do you know who she is? She is the daughter of a sacrificed soldier! Her mother's body was personally sent to the incinerator by the prime minister. The money for her was sent by the leaders of the military. The prime minister gave a special order and said that Ye Jian must be properly raised. You said that she is smart. Of course! She had a smart mother. How can she be stupid? She is smart and kind. That is why she put up with your family."

Everyone heard what Grandpa Gen said. His voice was clear and loud. They didn't know that Ye Jian was the daughter of a sacrificed soldier. She even knew the prime minister!

At this moment, Ye Jian felt her heart hurting. It felt as though numerous needles had pierced through her heart. It was dripping with blood.

She must have been blind to reject Grandpa Gen when he came to find her in her past life!

When she escaped to the village last time, Grandpa Gen came to look for her again. She was immature and thought that everyone would mock her. Hence, she ran away secretly that night.

She never returned to Shuikou Village again. She was framed by Ye Ying from then on, all the way until she died.

Thinking back, she didn't just let herself down in her past life. She let down all the people that had high hopes for her.

"Uncle, let's go out and talk." Ye Zhifan bent his back slightly. He didn't dare to retaliate. "Lessons are starting. Let's not interrupt the students. We can talk outside."

He was terribly humiliated today. If the commotion became bigger... his position as the town mayor would be gone! He has only sat on it for 15 days.

The bell signaling the start of the lessons rang. Mrs. Ke shouted at the students who were crowding around them. The students had no choice but to return to their classroom.

"Girl, return to your class first. I'm here. Let me see who dares to bully you!" Grandpa Gen didn't want to interrupt the students so he turned and said to Ye Jian in a kind tone. "Go to your class first. I'll settle everything."

This matter will not be so simple. Since Ye Zhifan dared to have any thoughts of hurting Ye Jian, he would not hold back either!

Ye Jian pursed her lips and hesitated. She wanted to say something. However, she saw Company Commander Yue secretly signaling to her. She paused for a moment before smiling and said, "Okay. I will return to class first. Don't get angry. I'm fine. The person that isn't fine..." She leaned closer and gave a naughty smile. "Is Ye Ying. Don't worry. I won't let people bully me just like this."

Ye Jian was right. She was not the quiet and timid little girl anymore.

"Hurry up and go. I know what to do." Grandpa Gen saw her naughty smile and started smiling too. That's good. If she didn't get bullied, it's good.

However, this was not about whether she got bullied or not. He needed to settle this man. If not, he might disturb Ye Jian again.

He made the right decision to come today!

Ye Ying didn't return to the classroom. She clutched her chest. Her face was pale. Yet, she still remembered to remind Sun Dongqing. "Mom, hurry up and leave. Let's not create more trouble for father. Grandpa Gen is a respectable person in the village. Father doesn't dare to refute him."

“My daughter, if we really go away, your father will be in a worse state.” Sun Dongqing treated other people badly but she was sincere towards her husband and daughter. She was worried that if she left, Grandpa Gen would take her husband’s life.

Why didn’t she think so thoroughly just now? Ye Ying’s heart was filled with hatred. However, this was her mother. She was protecting her. No matter how stupid she was, she had to endure it.

She gritted her teeth and controlled her boiling anger. “We will drag father down if we don’t leave now! Mother, didn’t you see Grandpa Gen’s expression? Let’s hurry up and leave!”

Her heart started aching when she finished her sentence. She grabbed Sun Dongqing’s arm tightly and started panting heavily. Sun Dongqing didn’t have the time to prepare herself. Ye Ying looked as though she would lose her breath at any moment.

If she was acting, it was really good. Sun Dongqing was so frightened she started screaming.

She heard Ye Ying asking her to bring her to the hospital. She looked at Ye Zhifan instinctively. Then, under the stunned looks of the teachers and students, she carried Ye Ying up and rushed to the public health center.

She should... listen to her daughter. Old Ye was a smart person. Nothing would happen to him. She should leave first.

Both of them, Ye Ying and Sun Dongqing, were good at running away from problems. The moment Grandpa Gen appeared, the three of them didn’t dare to make any sound.

“I can ask my driver to send her...” Secretary Wu wanted to chase after them. Grandpa Gen said, “You are Secretary Wu from the City Bureau of Education, right? Please stay behind.”

Principal Chen knew that Secretary Wu didn’t know Grandpa Gen so he introduced Grandpa Gen to him. “Class A Master Sergeant, a highly-respected person in the military.”

Secretary Wu straightened his back.

It would be a huge embarrassment to him if his wife apologized to Ye Jian in front of all the students and teachers.

That meant that from the start, Ye Zhifan didn’t plan to apologize.

On the first day of school, Town Mayor Ye’s daughter almost committed suicide due to her mother. This news spread like wildfire. Soon, the entire Fujun Town knew this. Even the people at Shuikou Village got wind of this news too.

It couldn't be helped. Many parents came to send their children since this was the first day of school. Sun Dongqing picked a very good time. The fuss she kicked up was known by everyone in Fujun Town.

To other people, this was an issue they could gossip about. However, to Old Gen, this was a good time to settle one matter.

The matter regarding Ye Jian's guardian!

Grandpa Gen sat inside Principal Chen's office. The atmosphere was tense. Even Secretary Wu was serious. He waited attentively for Grandpa Gen to speak.

"By right, Ye Jian should be here. However, since it's lesson time, we don't want to interrupt any students." Old Gen's words didn't lighten the mood in the room. Instead, Ye Zhifan's heart pounded faster.

Ye Zhifan smiled bitterly. "Uncle Gen, my wife did create trouble for Ye Jian today. She's someone who speaks without thinking. Most of the time, she cares a lot for Ye Jian. After all, Ye Jian is her niece. Why would she..."

"Don't try to curry my favor. Everyone in the village knows how Sun Dongqing treats Ye Jian. Nothing will change even if you try to cover up the facts." Grandpa Gen stopped him directly. He didn't plan to give any chance for this new town mayor. "Even Secretary Wu knows what the relationship is like between Ye Jian and your family. Town Mayor Ye, do you think that there is still a need to explain it?"

Ye Zhifan's expression froze. He smiled helplessly. "No matter what, Ye Jian is my niece. As her uncle, I won't treat her badly, right?"

Chapter 238: Major Xia's Arrangement (1)

"Time reveals a person's heart. I gave you 13 years... I think I saw your heart." Grandpa Gen came with a purpose. He would not let Ye Zhifan had any chance of distorting the truth. He wanted to take Ye Jian's registered residence out of Ye Zhifan's family.

If Major Xia didn't call him yesterday night, he wouldn't even have thought about this.

If he didn't do it now, things would be bad after Ye Jian took the university entrance examination.

The registered residence played an important role if Ye Jian wanted to get into a military school. If Ye Zhifan used his status as her guardian to do something behind the scene, Ye Jian's future would be destroyed.

Secretary Wu didn't know why this Class A Master Sergeant asked him to stay behind so he decided to listen to the situation first. Before he could get a grasp of what was happening, it was better to keep his mouth shut.

After some time, Grandpa Gen asked Secretary Wu, "I heard that you came here once before. That time, you came personally because you found out that that child's guardian is Town Mayor Ye, right?"

“Yes, if it is not recorded in the data, I wouldn’t have known that Ye Jian’s guardian is Town Mayor Ye,” Secretary Wu answered calmly. “Do you have any questions regarding this?”

If not, he wouldn’t suddenly direct the topic to this.

Ye Zhifan thought about something and narrowed his eyes. He started pursing his lips too.

Grandpa Gen nodded slightly. He continued, “If we place her registered residence somewhere else, can the data be changed?”

Ye Zhifan clenched his fist as his heart pounded furiously. Just like what he expected.

Grandpa Gen wanted to take Ye Jian’s registered residence out of his family. He wanted Ye Jian to have nothing to do with his family.

“Of course it can be changed. It’s not a huge problem.” Secretary Wu smiled as he explained to Grandpa Gen, “However, underaged youths can’t have a personal registered residence. Once there is a change in registered residence, the underaged person needs to have a guardian until he or she reaches 18 years old.”

Why must an underaged person have a guardian?

This was related to the law for underaged youths. Based on Article 16 of the ‘General Principles of Civil Law’ and Article 53 of ‘Law of the People’s Republic of China on the Protection of Minors’, the birth parents of a child were the legal guardians of the child unless they die or lose their rights.

Ye Jian’s parents were both dead. Her mother was a soldier too. That meant that her guardian would be the closest blood-related relative. This was known as ‘legal guardianship of a specific relative’.

The criteria for this specific relative was strict.

Ye Zhifan was the best candidate for this position.

Now, if they want to take Ye Jian’s registered residence out and change the guardian chosen by the government, it was a little difficult.

The court of justice had to consider if the second guardian fulfilled the requirements to protect the safety and assets of this child.

Grandpa Gen needed to know if he could change the guardian stated in the data.

“Uncle Gen, are you planning to take Ye Jian’s registered residence out?” Ye Zhifan knew the answer but he still asked. He wouldn’t sit still and wait to die. He crossed his arms and asked calmly, “Once her registered residence is taken out, who will become her guardian? You? I’m afraid you might not be suitable.”

Chapter 239: Major Xia’s Arrangement (2)

He was old and close to death. How could he become the second designated guardian? Also, he was not blood-related to Ye Jian.

Ye Jian had been listening to their conversation for a while now. She knocked on the door and walked in. She looked at Ye Zhifan firmly and said, "You cannot decide whether he is suitable or not. Although I'm underage, I already have the ability to make rational decisions. I can decide who I want as my guardian."

No one expected Ye Jian to appear at his moment. Hence, everyone was stunned for a moment.

"Just like what Grandpa Gen said, everyone at Shuikou Village knows our relationship. If I request to change my guardian and take out my registered residence, the court of justice can process my request immediately."

This 14-year-old child spoke clearly and logically. No one would suspect that she didn't have the ability to make her own decisions.

Ye Zhifan pretended to think for a moment before he replied, "This is not a small matter. I have to discuss it with your aunt. How about this. Let's talk about this matter a few days later."

He had to contact his friends and form some relationship with the court of justice within these few days.

"No need. The military has the necessary information regarding the whereabouts of the descendants of a sacrificed soldier. Town Mayor Ye, you should read through the 'Regulations on the Commendation of a Sacrificed Soldier' which was published in 1980, 4th of June." As the representative of the military unit, he would not allow Ye Zhifan to delay the time of action.

He opened the document in his hand and took out a piece of document that had the red word 'Military Commission of so and so' on the top of the paper. He passed it to Ye Zhifan. "Please look at this document. After you are done, you can sign here."

This was not a tone for discussion. He was ordering Ye Zhifan to sign the document after he finished looking at it.

There is no way a town mayor can fight against a military unit.

Since Xia Jinyuan called yesterday night to remind him, it meant that he had already made the necessary requirements.

He knew that Ye Zhifan and his family didn't treat his little fox well. Hence, he needed to wipe out all the potential dangers around his little fox.

He said that he would protect little fox. He wouldn't be able to go to the Xueyu unit with his heart at ease if he didn't make the necessary preparations.

Ye Jian didn't know that he had prepared everything. Hence, when she saw Company Commander Yue taking out the document, she was amazed. The military unit was very efficient.

Ye Zhifan felt his head hurting when he took the piece of paper.

Who dared to defy the military? Who dared to not cooperate with them? No matter how much connections he had, even if he bought over all the officers in the court of justice, it would be useless. No department had the right to interfere with the decision made by the military.

“Hurry up and sign it, Town Mayor Ye. I still have to go to the city in the afternoon and help Ye Jian with her registered residence relocation.” Company Commander Yue took the pen attached to the document’s envelope and passed it to Ye Zhifan. He smiled. “We will take care of such matters. There is no need to trouble you.”

Don’t think that the people in the military were just physically fit. They were smart when they needed to be.

Chapter 240: Major Xia’s Arrangement (3)

Ye Zhifan looked up. He wanted to eat this piece of document. He looked at Ye Jian thoughtfully and emphasized what he said. “Niece, you must consider this carefully! Once your registered residence and your guardian is changed, I will not be able to help you in the future.”

This was all planned! Even if his stupid wife didn’t create the fuss today, the change of registered residence and guardian would still happen.

“Town Mayor Ye, if you don’t remind me, I might have forgotten it.” Since he was still unwilling to give up, Ye Jian smiled and replied, “If anything happens in the future, I hope that you will not help me. I’m afraid that instead of helping you, you might harm me.”

Ye Jian didn’t know why Grandpa Gen suddenly wanted to change her registered residence but she knew what she should do.

No matter what Ye Zhifan said, she would not let him get what he wanted. She would not let her name remain in his registered residence.

She was totally for taking her name out.

Also, since Grandpa Gen had already made the necessary preparations and came at such a good time, she must finish this matter today. If Ye Zhifan had a chance to breathe, it would be hard for her to do this again.

Ye Zhifan’s face turned green with anger. Ye Jian ignored him and continued, “Of course, I will not give you all a chance to frame me again. Today, your wife came and framed me for going out with a man just because I didn’t come home for the summer vacation and met a male classmate yesterday. I want to pretend that nothing happened but she came and created trouble for me in school.”

Ye Jian was not a talkative person but when she spoke, it hit the nail on the head. Ye Zhifan felt so angry he wanted to vomit blood.

No matter how unwilling he was, he had to sign the document.

The moment he finished signing, Company Commander Yue took the document away. He fanned the document with a piece of paper and waited for the ink to dry. He smiled and said, "Town Mayor Ye, don't worry. Besides Grandpa Gen, the entire military unit will be Ye Jian's guardian. If anything happens to Ye Jian, we will take care of it. We will not trouble you."

It might be difficult to win against a soldier when you try to talk reasonably with him.

If they brought out their military unit, what could you say?

Ye Jian smiled brightly when she saw Ye Zhifan walking out angrily. Her eyes were shining like the moon's reflection on a lake. It was clear and refreshing.

In her past life, she became someone without identity because her registered residence was at Ye Zhifan's residence. She couldn't find a good job and couldn't study at night school.

Now, this problem was solved. She was elated.

"Child, you have nothing to do with that family now. After what happened today, Ye Ying will not be able to raise her head in school anymore. Study hard and don't destroy your future because of unrelated people." This was what Grandpa Gen told her before he left. They all hoped that Ye Jian would have a bright future ahead and not be bothered by her past.

This was what Major Xia hoped too. He looked at the endless snow mountains in front of him. He was still getting used to the high altitude. The light reflected on the snow and it fell into his eyes. His gaze was cold and intent.

This was the first training ground of the Xueyu unit. He would be having one year of intense and dangerous training here.
