

Chapter 361: Long Time No See, Little Fox

The place where she took a bath was near the train station. The moment she came out, she heard the broadcast system looking for a person. They were looking for a lady called Ye Jian who was a student. She had short hair and was 165cm in height.

The name, identity, hairstyle, and height were all the same as her. Ye Jian was stunned for a moment. She thought of a possibility.

...Could it be that Principle Chen knew she was coming so he came to fetch her? She rushed towards the broadcast room.

The broadcast room was in the train station so Ye Jian went to look for a staff member. The staff looked at her student identity card and spoke into the intercom. "Broadcast room, broadcast room, Ye Jian is now in Train Station Lobby A. Ye Jian is now in Train Station Lobby A."

After repeating a few times, he told Ye Jian, "Wait here. The person looking for you will be here soon." Then, he sized up Ye Jian and said sternly, "Don't run around carelessly. The train station is packed with people. A pretty student like you will be a target for human traffickers."

He took Ye Jian as a child who lost her parents.

Ye Jian didn't refute. She accepted the kind reminder politely. "I'm sorry to cause you trouble. Where do I wait?"

"Stand beside me. Don't move around." The staff was a middle-aged man around 40 years old. He might have a child around Ye Jian's age so he reprimanded her as though he was reprimanding his child. "It will take around 10 minutes to walk over from the broadcast station. Wait here!"

Ye Jian always gave people the impression that she was a good and obedient student. When she smiled, her eyes would form into a crescent and it made her seem exceptionally obedient. She hurriedly nodded her head. The staff saw her pretty face and didn't feel like scolding her anymore.

He softened his tone and said, "Students like you don't know anything. You think that you're all grown up but there are bad people outside. Uncle doesn't want to scold you. I just want to remind you."

Ye Jian smiled and nodded. She stood obediently at the side but she had an arrogant aura around her.

Little Fox, your appearance is deceiving.

Fortunately, I met you in the mountains that year and saw how bold you were. If not, I might be fooled too.

Ye Jian suddenly felt a gentle gaze on her. She thought that it was Principal Chen. She looked up excitedly and smiled brightly. She looked innocent and pure.

“Principal...”

She swallowed the rest of her words. She saw who the person was. She got a fright.

A handsome man was standing in front of her. His aura was elegant. He wore a pair of linen khaki pants and a pure white shirt. However, the casual attire didn't appear casual on him. He looked extremely elegant in it.

The dangerous man that she met more than a year ago suddenly appeared in front of her again. Why is he here?

Chapter 362: Call Me Brother

The staff looked at Ye Jian and then turned to look at the man. He smiled and said, “Your brother is here. Hurry up and follow him. Don't lose him again and make him worry.”

He mistook Ye Jian and Xia Jinyuan as siblings because of their similar aura.

Before she could explain, Xia Jinyuan walked over and apologized to the staff politely, “I'm sorry to cause you trouble.” What he said was similar to what Ye Jian said just now.

What caused Ye Jian to feel awkward was when the staff turned back again after walking two steps and muttered to himself, “How good-looking must their parents be to give birth to such good-looking children?”

He spoke softly but Ye Jian and Xia Jinyuan had good hearing so they heard everything.

The young man smiled. This staff has a good imagination. He was her ‘brother’, right? However, he wasn't her blood-related brother. He really wanted to hear her calling him brother.

“Are you stunned that I came?” Xia Jinyuan's voice got nearer. His voice was low and happy. It was mesmerizing. “I came all the way here. Why are you so cold? You didn't give me an enthusiastic hug at all.”

There was no enthusiasm, no surprise, no happiness in her expression. There seemed to be only one thought in her mind: Why are you here?

Xia Jinyuan felt bitter when he noticed her indifference. His little fox was so heartless.

Shouldn't normal people be happy to meet an old friend? Why was she so unique? She didn't look as though she liked the fact that he came.

Ye Jian's face turned red as Xia Jinyuan teased her. She glanced at him and said, “I don't have a brother. Don't casually recognize your relatives.”

After a year passed, Xia Jinyuan was still the same. He still liked to tease her and say ambiguous things.

"I'm older than you. There's nothing wrong with calling me brother. Her blushing made her look exceptionally beautiful. It was not too much nor too little.

Xia Jinyuan's smile got brighter. His little fox has grown up within the year.

The familiar Xia Jinyuan was back. The alarm in Ye Jian's heart started ringing. She secretly kept a distance between them as she said calmly, "I'm not used to calling other people brother. Also, why are you here? Did Uncle Chen come with you?"

She had to control her emotions before she spoke. The young man in front of her made her feel that even time was lenient towards him. He didn't look like a soldier.

Her calm tone hid her intention of keeping her distance with Xia Jinyuan. It also confirmed Xia Jinyuan's thought that she wasn't elated to see him at all.

Xia Jinyuan raised his eyebrows. He took over her luggage and smiled brightly. "Uncle Chen is busy now. He needs some time to get used to his new working environment. He's not free today so he asked me to come and fetch you."

Uncle Chen is not free? How did he know that? Ye Jian didn't follow him.

Xia Jinyuan smiled and walked back when he realized that she didn't move.

Chapter 363: I Like This Intimacy

He switched to another hand to carry the luggage and raised his right hand casually. He placed it over Ye Jian's slim shoulders and said, "I need to watch over you. I almost lost you just now. If it wasn't for the broadcast system, I won't know where to look for you too. How will I answer to Uncle Chen?"

Ye Jian continued looking forward. She frowned as she looked at the hand on her shoulder from the corner of her eyes. It was slender and pretty. It looked like a hand that was meant for playing the piano.

However, she knew that this hand was fierce and powerful when pulling the trigger.

"Uncle Chen said that he is working in the province and will come and find me after I start school. Do you know where he is working at?" Ye Jian didn't pull his hand away. She didn't like this kind of close interaction but she decided to bore with it.

She was from the Southern Province. Southern state people were polite.

Xia Jinyuan smiled when he noticed Ye Jian bearing with him. He was only able to appear intimate with her if he used Uncle Chen as his reason. He acted blatantly too so she couldn't reject him.

"Uncle Chen said that he wants to surprise you so I can't tell you where he's working at now. Come, let's have breakfast." She smelled faintly of soap. She had a unique smell too. It was refreshing. "The registration starts at 9 pm. It's still early."

It was only a little past 6 am. The sun hadn't dispersed the coldness of the night. Ye Jian pursed her lips for the entire journey as Xia Jinyuan held her shoulder. She heaved a sigh of relief only after they walked into a porridge shop and he released his grip.

She flicked her shoulder lightly as if she was trying to remove the mint smell from his hand.

The breakfast shop was busy. Ye Jian chose a seat beside the glass window. The people around her were all students and their parents who came to report for school. While they were eating, they continued reminding their children. They asked them to be bolder but said that they mustn't be too rash at times.

Ye Jian smiled helplessly. Poor parents. Sometimes, they were so worried about their children they didn't know what they were saying.

One young man got irritated by his parents. He threw his spoon into the bowl and refuted angrily, "Mom, can you let me eat my breakfast in peace? I'm 16 years old, not 6 years old. If you continue talking to me like this, I'll suspect that I'm an idiot."

"Fine, fine. I won't talk anymore." The mother stopped talking immediately. She pushed half a salted egg over and said, "Eat some egg. We'll go register after we finish eating."

Only parents would forgive their children unconditionally. Ye Jian lowered her eyes as she smiled lightly. They were just like Uncle Chen and Grandpa Gen. They were strict towards her but they always bore with her.

She didn't have parents but fortunately, she had two kind elders looking after her.

Xia Jinyuan stood not far away and stared at the quiet Ye Jian with a kind gaze. Something flashed past his eyes. No one knew what he was thinking.

He walked towards her and sat down opposite her. He smiled gently and said, "One serving of porridge, one salted egg, and one youtiao¹. This is the most hearty breakfast I've eaten this year."

Chapter 364: Little Fox, Help Me Wipe My Sweat

"Do you want to know what I ate from February all the way till May?" Ye Jian pulled out a tissue paper for him. "You look hot. You're sweating." There were tiny droplets of sweat on the side of his forehead.

Xia Jinyuan didn't take it. He leaned forward and smiled. "Why not you help me wipe them off? After all, I came all the way here to fetch you."

He really felt like teasing her all the time.

He knew that she wouldn't do it but he wanted to try. When he saw her hand freezing in midair, he smiled brightly.

He looked vibrant and elegant.

“Sigh, let me do it myself.” Xia Jinyuan knew when to stop so he raised his eyebrows and wanted to take the tissue paper. “It’s just wiping…”

Something flashed past his eyes. The piece of tissue moved towards his face and pressed on it lightly. He was caught off guard. She really helped him to wipe off his sweat.

“It’s just wiping sweat. I’ve helped many soldiers before during my summer vacation in the military unit.” Ye Jian purposely blocked his vision with her arm. She said calmly, “It’s a simple task. You can ask me directly next time.”

Do you want to make me feel uncomfortable? I have to show you that I can retaliate too! Ye Jian gave a naughty smile as she wiped off his sweat. When he saw his frozen smile, her smile got brighter.

Xia Jinyuan, you didn’t expect this, right?

Xia Jinyuan smiled. He didn’t expect to be teased by Ye Jian. His low laughter sounded like the music from a zither. It was pleasant to the ear. “Not bad, there’s an improvement.”

Ye Jian gently wiped the corners of his forehead. She smiled when she heard what he said and replied indifferently, “It’s normal to have an improvement. I went to the desert last October. My first meal was raw snake meat. I spent the entire spring in the desert. Captain Xia, if I didn’t improve, Grandpa Gen and Uncle Chen will be disappointed.”

Her voice was clear and clean. However, what she said made him speechless.

He was referring to the fact that she was able to retaliate when he teased her. However, Ye Jian felt that he was complimenting her for her overall improvement in her ability. She directed her thanks to her two elders.

Look, this is how interesting Little Fox was.

“Okay, please accept my thanks.” Ye Jian retracted her hand after she finished wiping his sweat. However, Xia Jinyuan reacted quickly and grabbed her wrist. He smiled. “Even though soldiers are quick, they should be detailed too.”

Ye Jian’s gaze changed slightly. She looked at him with vigilance. But she didn’t take her hand back.

Although she dared to retaliate, she would lose to Xia Jinyuan because of her innocence. Xia Jinyuan held her wrist and smiled. “Little Fox, there’s sweat on my neck too. You haven’t wiped it.”

Little Fox is inexperienced in relationships so she often loses to me. But if anyone dares to do this to her, I will chop his hands off!

Chapter 365: Don’t Play With Fire

How could the ‘wolf’ let go of his little fox so easily. At Makit, he said that he would get some interest back.

The interest... this was just the start.

As expected, she couldn't let down her guard when she was 'fighting' with him. Not even when she was doing a simple thing like wiping his sweat.

Ye Jian glanced at her wrist. Then, she looked at him. She took a look at the clean tissue papers and said, "Please let me go so that I can take a clean tissue paper."

The evil thoughts of this man always made her helpless.

She thought that he would release her hand but he didn't. "You can take the tissue with the other hand."

"Do you think that I'll cooperate? Captain Xia!" Ye Jian didn't pull her hand back. Instead, she smiled gently. "If you don't release me, you can wipe your neck yourself."

She noticed his worried gaze when he rushed to find her. He tried to hide it but she still detected it. The perspiration on his neck and the wet collar proved that he was looking for her urgently.

Because of this, she didn't reject him when he asked for her help to wipe his sweat. She couldn't refuse him.

What a good improvement. If it was last time, Little Fox would say 'Xia Jinyuan, if you don't release my hand, I'll get angry.' Then, she would glare at him fiercely.

She got even more interesting after she improved. She would face him head-on when he took a step forward. No one was willing to give up.

Xia Jinyuan released her hand. He wasn't planning to really let her wipe his neck. He took some tissue paper and smiled lazily. "The porridge is here. Have some. I'll wipe my neck myself."

Ye Jian took her hand back. She placed the tissue paper at the side.

She placed her hand under the table. Her fingers were trembling slightly. Just now, when she touched his wet forehead, she felt as though her fingers were scorched. The heat from his hand when he grabbed hers made her nervous too.

This was definitely a match. She had to use all her effort to fight him.

However, she had to admit that it felt quite good.

It only took a few seconds for Ye Jian to wipe his sweat. Before Xia Jinyuan could feel anything, her hand had disappeared. Fortunately, he was fast enough and managed to grab her wrist. He felt the temperature on her skin. Even now, he could recall how smooth her skin felt.

Her helpless but firm gaze when she looked at him was interesting too.

Both their breakfast had arrived. Xia Jinyuan stopped teasing Ye Jian and passed her the spoon he prepared for her. What happened just now seemed like an illusion. He smiled calmly and said, "It's still early. Come, tell me what happened in the desert. Was there anything interesting?"

He didn't do anything irritating again. Ye Jian heaved a sigh of relief. She scooped a spoonful of her porridge and looked down at the simmering soup. There were pieces of green vegetables in it. She said indifferently, "There's nothing interesting in the desert. It's a dangerous place. There are quicksand, poisonous snakes, lack of water... I experienced everything during my time there."

Chapter 366: Qin Xiu, A Man That Is Like Scenery

She felt as though her desert training just happened yesterday.

When she mentioned the desert, Xia Jinyuan remembered his training in the desert that lasted for almost 70 days. Two times, something went wrong with his engine and he almost died. However, when he heard her talking about it, he didn't remember all the dangerous moments. He only felt happiness.

"It's a piece of barren land with no sign of living things. It blocks you from the rest of the world. I only felt that I'm alive when I heard travelers walking past me." When Ye Jian recalled these precious memories, her eyes were sparkling. They were vibrant and lively like the sun.

The light shone on her back and bathed her in a holy light.

It enchanted the person who was looking at her.

"Mr. Qin." Outside the glass window, a man in a suit ran over quickly. He had a tie on his neck. He ran towards a man who was also dressed in a suit and had a gentle aura around him. "I'm sorry. I was caught up with work so I didn't manage to fetch you in time."

The hurried footsteps and the sound of panting traveled through the glass window. Ye Jian was distracted by the voice. She looked over and saw a tall man walking out from the side of the building.

His gaze landed on Ye Jian. He smiled and walked out of the shelter as though explaining to her that he just happened to be there because he was taking shelter from the sun.

This was an elegant looking man who looked knowledgeable and well-mannered.

His brown formal pants had no crease on it. His shirt was pure white. He paired it with an equally clean suit along with a tie that had the same pattern as his pants. He looked formal and refined.

Ye Jian was stunned for a moment. She didn't understand why this man was explaining to her.

Outside, the man known as Mr. Qin smiled. You could tell that he was well-mannered from his actions. "It's alright. Everyone knows that I'm bad with directions. It's my own problem. It has nothing to do with you. Where did you park the car?"

“This way, please. The car is parked on the side of the road.” Ye Jian could feel the other man heaving a huge sigh of relief.

Xia Jinyuan sized up the man called Mr. Qin. He narrowed his eyes. He seemed to have guessed the man’s identity.

He retracted his gaze before Ye Jian. When he noticed that Ye Jian was still distracted by the man, he said in a clear voice, “How long did you stay in the desert? You don’t look like you stayed for long. You didn’t grow dark.”

Ye Jian looked up casually as though she was looking at a piece of scenery just now.

“The desert is a hard place to live in. Yet, you spent four months there. Not bad.” He didn’t tell her that he had been in the desert too. It was a classified mission. As an Ace of Hearts mission, he couldn’t tell anyone, including the person he loved the most.

Chapter 367: Avoid Its Edge

Ye Jian thought for a moment and shook her head. “You can’t say ‘yet’. I love what I do so it’s not a torture for me. I enjoyed the process.”

“You’ve seen my training plan before. I like every single arrangement. Hence, I enjoyed the whole process.

This was a tough training program. He took a look at it before so he knew that this training was based on the training of the US Delta Special Forces. When he first saw the training program, he asked if it was too tough for a lady.

Uncle Chen just smiled and asked him to wait and see.

Wait and see... Actually, Uncle Chen already knew that Little Fox was able to endure it. He knew that she would enjoy the training too.

After hearing it from her personally, he finally knew how strong-willed and determined she was. She wasn’t someone who would be easily defeated by Ye Zhifan.

Ye Zhifan still wanted to do something with Little Fox’s test papers this time. Wasn’t he afraid that he would lose his position?

Xia Jinyuan drove here so they weren’t in a hurry to leave. After the customers around them finished eating, he restrained his smile and pretended to say casually, “There’s someone supporting Ye Zhifan. Little Fox, don’t meet him alone next time.”

“However, you don’t have to worry too. Principal Cao of Provincial No.1 Middle School isn’t a simple person too. He wouldn’t be able to touch you inside Provincial No.1 Middle School.”

Ye Jian’s eyes twitched. She placed the shell of the salted egg on the table and looked at Xia Jinyuan. He spoke casually but there was a lot of information in what he said. She pursed her lips and said in a low voice, “Captain Xia, do you know something?”

Xia Jinyuan hesitated for a moment. Ye Jian was really sensitive. "Before your exam, he contacted someone from the Bureau of Education. After your test, he contacted this person again."

"However, he is a smart person. He knew that he can't interfere with your results so he gave up. He even gave some benefits to the person he called."

He looked intently at the young girl who was able to protect herself well. He emphasized his words. "So, little girl, you must evade him. Before you build your own power, you must not fight him head-on."

"Because he has someone supporting him, right?" Ye Jian narrowed her eyes. Her calm expression seemed to be saying that she knew what the relationship was. "That's why he was able to climb the ranks so quickly, right?"

Xia Jinyuan's expression changed slightly. She was exceptionally shrewd. She was able to detect the crux of the problem. Why does he feel that she knew all these long ago?

Xia Jinyuan nodded. The smile on his face was already gone. It was replaced by coldness and seriousness. "Yes. That's why you can't face him head-on."

So he really had someone supporting him. Ye Jian smiled. Her gaze turned cold.

In her past life, Ye Zhifan's path was very smooth too. He turned from a town mayor into the second most powerful person in the entire province. If there wasn't anyone helping him, he wouldn't be able to climb the ranks so quickly.

Ye Ying wouldn't be able to marry into a wealthy family too.

Chapter 368: The Careful Little Fox

Uncle Gen also evaded Ye Zhifan. After he took Ye Jian's registered residence from Ye Zhifan, he never interacted with him again. He must have known about this too.

Also, Uncle Chen must be lowering his presence too when he chose to leave school.

Her two elders always taught her to be strong and independent. This is the only way she will be able to walk further in the future. She needs to reach a height that Ye Ying will be unable to surpass. She needs to hold more power so that no one can threaten her. Linking everything up, they were already trying to tell her that there was someone supporting Ye Zhifan.

As for her, she needs to be stronger than this person.

Ye Zhifan was in the political world while she was in the military. As long as she was able to maintain her position in the military, other people will have to think twice before touching her.

After Xia Jinyuan confirmed her thinking, Ye Jian felt more relaxed. She looked up and smiled. "I've never thought of fighting him head-on."

“Last year, he was trying to tell me that no matter how good my results are, I’ll still be in his control if I stay in school. That’s why I chose to tear the notification letter and leave Anyang City. He just has power in the city now. As for the province... when I received the notification letter from Provincial No.1 Middle School, I knew that he doesn’t have much power in the province yet.”

“No matter how fast his position rises, he will not be able to rise in rank in two years. I’ll leave the Southern Province before his hands reach into the provincial city.”

Ye Jian paused for a moment. As Xia Jinyuan’s gaze turned darker, she said slowly, “I don’t want to fight with him head-on but I need to let him know that I can’t be bullied easily too.”

“Based on Ye Zhifan’s suspicious character, he’ll be wondering if I have someone helping me too. After looking at the situation, he will not do too many things to me. If he wants to do something behind my back, he’ll worry about the person supporting me. As for why he’ll feel that there’s someone powerful behind my back, I’m sure you know the reason.”

As expected of Little Fox. If she continues like this, she will become a demon one day.

She made use of Ye Zhifan’s suspicious nature by appearing domineering in front of him so that he would think that she was really not afraid of him.

Of course, she was not afraid that she wouldn’t be able to study. She was so smart after all.

Even when other people felt that she wouldn’t be able to study anymore, she made use of the one year away from school to undergo special training. Then, she came back and retook the exam. She used her ability to prove to people that she was not someone who gives up easily.

Xia Jinyuan leaned back on his chair and smiled. “Aren’t you afraid that Ye Zhifan would do something to your papers?”

“I handed in my papers early and solved questions in front of so many teachers and leaders of the school. Everyone in school knew about my performance. If the person he called is not stupid and looked up about me, he would know that he is unable to touch my script.”

“Also, when I came back, Principal Cao told me personally that I can enter Provincial No.1 Middle School. Director Li from the Capital No. 1 Middle School also told me that if I’m willing to go to the capital city to study, I can take his recommendation letter and enter any school I want.”

Chapter 369: A Pretty Lady

“I have a path of retreat and witnesses. I used my ability to get into school. As for Ye Zhifan, he isn’t so powerful yet. What’s there to be afraid of?”

Her voice was clear and refreshing. Her aura was calm and refreshing too.

Her eyes were clear but her gaze was oppressive. Her expressions were elegant and arrogant.

Xia Jinyuan smiled. His expression was gentle as he looked at her intently. He was astounded deep inside his heart.

“So, it doesn’t matter what Ye Zhifan is doing. You will still be able to study.” Xia Jinyuan sighed. He felt that he was doing something extra.

He contacted the military unit and asked them to send two lieutenants. Then, he went to become the bodyguard of the independent lady so that Little Fox’s script can be sent specially to the provincial city by two lieutenants, one teacher, and one notary.

He even asked the Provincial Bureau of Education to keep her scores a secret so that even the City Bureau of Education wouldn’t know it.

He wasn’t planning to tell her what he did. He just hoped that she would have a smoother path. Yet, his little fox didn’t need his help at all. She could handle everything alone.

Ye Jian took the last bite of the youtiao and cleaned her mouth with some tissue paper. She looked at the elegant man with her deep black eyes and said, “As long as I want to, I can do anything well without anyone’s help. Captain Xia, I like to rely on myself and not other people.”

“That’s right. That is why I admire you.” Xia Jinyuan pretended that he didn’t understand what she was referring to. He took the car keys on the table and said, “We can leave after you finish eating. I’ve three days of rest. You don’t have to be in a hurry to tell me what you think.”

He got up and left, showing his firm and sexy back view to Ye Jian. He didn’t give her any chance to continue the conversation.

Ye Jian frowned slightly. She had no choice but to follow him. He was always like this. No matter how clear she told him about her intention, he would push it away easily.

Xia Jinyuan knew that if he didn’t evade this question, he wouldn’t be able to meet his sly little fox for the next few days.

A simple breakfast caused him to be surprised by Ye Jian’s improvement. She was really a firm person. No one was able to move her.

He was also astounded by her aura. Her smile was elegant and her frown was oppressive. There was a huge improvement in her aura. She was only 16 years old! 16 years old!

By right, after growing up in such a harsh environment, her personality should have been fixed. However, hers wasn’t. After she walked out of the environment, she dusted away the dirt on her body and walked on her own path.

After they walked out of the breakfast place, the sun had gotten brighter. Ladies on the streets had already taken out their umbrellas. Yet, to Ye Jian, who was used to training in the military unit, an umbrella was never something she had in her bag.

Xia Jinyuan wanted to remind her but when he saw the fair skin on her legs... Her skin was still fair and smooth even after running around in the desert, forest, and the military camps. She had the right to not hold an umbrella.

Chapter 370: The Anxious Master Xia

The school wasn't far from the train station. Ye Jian reached there before 8 am.

The registration was at 9 am but the school had already started taking registration at 8 am.

Ye Jian didn't ask Xia Jinyuan for help. She finished the entire registration herself. After she was done, she looked up at the shiny 'Provincial No.1 Middle School' words. In the end, she came back here. She still chose Provincial No.1 Middle School which was 18 hours away from her home.

Xia Jinyuan looked at her as she walked towards him with the sun behind her. Her short hair danced in the sunlight as she walked calmly among the students. From her smile, he could tell that she liked this school just like how she liked the military unit.

"Let's put your luggage down first. Where is your dormitory?" After she came closer, Xia Jinyuan smiled sexily. He took out a map of the school. "The male dormitory is here while the female dormitory is close to the Swan Lake. What is your block?"

Ye Jian took out her information booklet. There was nothing inside. She said in a cheeky tone, "I haven't been assigned a dormitory yet. It might take a few days. I'll go and look for Principal Cao first. Captain Xia, do you want to..."

"Are you trying to kick me away? Uncle Chen told me that I have to send you personally to him." Xia Jinyuan understood what she was trying to do. She wanted to chase him away.

His gaze turned dark. Even his tone got more serious. "I'm someone who means what I say. Since I promised him, I'll do it."

Ye Jian's heart dropped when she saw Xia Jinyuan's stern expression. She moved her gaze away and pursed her lips. After a while, she said, "Sorry to trouble you then, Captain Xia."

Sigh, if I'm not serious around her, she will definitely chase me away.

He didn't need to use so many methods when he meets his enemies. However, in front of her, he had to use all the ideas he had.

But this was really interesting.

The more she wants to escape, the more he wants to step closer to her.

Even if she turned 60 or 70 years old, he will continue moving closer to her.

It was hard for him to give up such an outstanding comrade that was able to move forward with him.

Principal Cao was talking to some leaders of the school in his office. There was a teacher at the meeting too. The topic of the meeting was Ye Jian. They were discussing who should be the form teacher of Class 1. Principal Cao smiled. "Don't try to bargain with me. Mrs. Zhu has already told you everything."

“You were the one who asked for Ye Jian. I didn’t plan to pass her to you in the first place. I’m afraid that the famous Miss Exterminator will anger Ye Jian and make her leave our school.”

Miss Exterminator, Mrs. Tong, was a special grade teacher. She was one of the treasures of Provincial No.1 Middle School. Along with math teacher, Mrs. Zhu, they managed to send 40 undergraduates to key universities and 14 undergraduates to second-grade universities.

Everyone in the class, besides those that went overseas to study, had their names in the ranking list.

Miss Exterminator was not a nickname given by her students. Mrs. Tong gave herself this nickname. She wanted to exterminate any possibility of not getting into university.

Mrs. Tong was more than 50 years old. She was a vibrant and outgoing teacher. She wasn’t like those teachers that always wore a stern face. She had the strictness of a teacher but she was amiable like an elder too.
