

BOOT CAMP 411

Chapter 411: Crossing Swords

After returning to the car, Principal Cao who came to bring his nephew out for dinner sighed, "The people of your generation in the Capital are really talented. The person just now was Major Xia. If I'm not wrong, he is the youngest major in the Xia Family. It's a pity that the two of you are not acquaintances, or we could have a chat tonight."

"The both of you stay in the same hotel. Did you meet each other during the day?"

The Xia Family's youngest major?

"Oh, that's Xia Jinyuan. I didn't come out of my room the entire day. It's a pity I didn't meet him."

Qin Xiu, who was indifferent at first, got a bit interested. He might say that it was a pity, but his face showed no indication of it. "My mother would want to know him. Whenever I return to the Capital, she would want me to help build her connections. Unfortunately, I'm a scholar and he's from the military. We are in different fields."

"Your mother has other plans. Hahaha, your dad is not even involved. You should stay away from this."

Principal Cao laughed and exposed his sister. "I'm flying to Germany the day after tomorrow. I'm free tonight. I shall bring you somewhere further to have the Southern Province specialties."

Qin Xiu chuckled, "I'm not particular about food, I'll leave it to you."

Not long after the car drove off, Xia Yiwei entered the hotel.

Entering on her high heels, Xia Yiwei raised her hand gently without a word and expressed her meaning clearly to the staff who stepped forward and silenced her.

The hotel was bustling with people. But even so, Xia Yiwei found her cousin easily.

He was only twenty-three years old and his temperament was comparable to her uncle Commander Xia's. Calm, restrained and cold, he looked gentle and personable, and yet he was quick to cut people off!

As deep as the sea, as tall as the mountain... He was unfathomable. Who knew what he was doing in the provincial capital city!

Thinking about the Old Madam's instructions, Xia Yiwei became focused and walked over to the leather sofa in the lobby and in front of Xia Jinyuan while crossing her slender pair of arms.

"This is the first time you're being simple and plain, you should stay in a better hotel to relax." Xia Yiwei was wearing a black blouse with a knee-length skirt. She sat on the opposite sofa and said, "However, this place is close to Provincial No.1 Middle School."

His few days off were all spent in the Southern Province and he did not have the intention to go back to the capital city. Even the Old Master and Old Madam had an opinion about that.

Xia Jinyuan put down the newspaper and smiled at his tough-looking cousin, "I'm learning from you, staying away from the capital city to avoid conflict. When you bring your husband back to the capital city, Old Master and Old Madam wouldn't be missing me."

"Are you here to keep an eye on me to quickly find someone?" Xia Yiwei opened a small metal box and took out a fashion cigarette. "Mind your own business. Don't interfere with mine."

As he lowered the newspaper, Xia Jinyuan stretched out his arm and took away the unlit cigarette, before folding it into two and throwing it into the ashtray. "I can't have any smell on my body. Apologies."

"I know. I'm just taking it out to smell it." Xia Yiwei gave him a gentle glance and said, "The Old Madam has called, you should go back to the capital city to take a look."

Chapter 412: That's How You Woo A Girl

After Xia Yiwei finished speaking, Xia Jinyuan took over, "The Old Madam had told me that I need to spend more time meeting with you here and talk about marriage and children. She even said that she had never married off a granddaughter. She has so much regret in her heart. She's hoping that you can fulfill her wish!"

His cousin's face got colder as he continued, "My comrade, have you forgotten that our Old Madam is the 4th Minister of Culture? The Ministry of Culture promotes communication and socializing. She's the best at showing consideration and cleansing your mind and soul."

"I didn't even mention the Old Madam and you're mentioning her first?"

It meant that they were both instructed by the Old Madam but were led into believing that they were the only ones that she had contacted!

"The Old Madam never mentioned a word about the fact that she contacted you!" Xia Yiwei rubbed her forehead. If that old lady was not that passionate about culture and the arts, she might have even become the 5th Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Even though she was old, as long as her brain was still functioning, the younger family members were not her match.

Xia Jinyuan saw that Xia Yiwei was outplayed by the Old Madam, and recited her words to her, "You're thirty-four, if you don't marry soon, the Xia Family will have their first unmarried granddaughter. The Old Madam said that she would not have the face to spend her retirement years in the capital city. She would have to return to her hometown."

After listening for five minutes, Xia Yiwei felt that her head was going to explode. It was even more tiring than working for a week!

Mentally tiring.

She waved her hand and stood tiredly while dragging her feet. "I've never met you, you've never met me."

"There's more." Xia Jinyuan stood up and smiled at her cousin who was trying to escape, "Sister, I think you forgot to say something."

"I will never mention that senior high student again."

Xia Yiwei raised her eyebrows and reached her hand out, "Hope we can cooperate together."

"Pleasure working with you." Xia Jinyuan reached out his hand. Everyone had their own secrets that they didn't want their family to find out. It was most pleasant to cooperate with each other.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have rushed back to the hotel. He would have waited for his little fox at the school gate instead.

"I have something on at 9 pm. Please remember not to call me if there's nothing urgent." Xia Jinyuan put the newspaper away properly and said gracefully to the lady that he had just reached a consensus with. "Now, I need to leave. I won't be waiting for you, Miss Xia. Goodbye."

Casting people aside, that was him.

After taking two steps, Xia Jinyuan turned and smiled at the expressionless Xia Yiwei, "Good men are also afraid of strong women. Sister, you need to let loose, there's no need to be so restrained."

"Like me..." He fixed his shirt and smiled intriguingly, "From time to time, I have to make my little fox feel guilty, and also show my maturity, and try to... hone her requirements for her partner such that I'm the only one who is qualified. That's how you woo someone."

Wooing a little fox was a long battle, but he was prepared and ready for it.

In the classroom, Ye Jian was continuously looking at her watch as she flipped through her revision notes, "...Captain Xia said that he was going to look for me tonight, don't tell me he's really coming?"

Chapter 413: I'll Hold Her Hand And Walk

I didn't manage to return to school last night. Am I not going to return to the dormitory tonight too?

No, no. I can't go out with him today. The supervisor will be doing his rounds!

But he said that he would come, based on his character... Captain Xia will definitely come!

Don't tell me he's going to enter the campus. That's unlikely.

The dormitory and management system was very strict in Provincial No.1 Middle School. The school guard would never allow a stranger to enter the campus at night.

... Over the wall?

Ye Jian almost laughed when she thought about that possibility.

However, thanks to such a thought, she managed to settle down and keep calm.

That special forces soldier was full of elegance... How could a Major climb over a wall to find her? The more she thought about it, the more she wanted to laugh.

However, he didn't know that Xia Jinyuan was now at Swan Lake with Principal Chen.

"We might return late tonight. It's a rare opportunity, I'll let her have a look." If Xia Jinyuan was coming, he would do it righteously.

However, if he just wanted to look for Ye Jian, the Major might just go over the wall!

However, even the stars were aligned for him. He had the opportunity to leave the school with the little fox.

Principal Chen could not possibly reject a training that would be beneficial for Ye Jian and laughed, "I can open the back door for you, but Captain Xia, she needs to be back tomorrow morning. I can't give her special privileges."

"Don't worry, Uncle Chen. I'll bring her back before 1.30 am." Xia Jinyuan smiled and replied calmly. "This training is meant to prepare for 'taking over' and lasts for half a year. If it is possible, please arrange the schedule so that she can practice at night, Uncle Chen."

Principal Chen looked at the young Major who was trying to fight for more opportunities for the girl and teased, "Captain Xia, is this an investment? Investments have its risks. Be careful, you might lose everything."

In the depopulated zone, he remembered what the young Major had said back then. He said that he wanted to make sure that the little girl would not fall in love easily when she was studying, and raise her standards when choosing a boyfriend... until he's the only one that would be qualified.

However, love is never guaranteed. There are times when they might fall for someone who might not be as good as those around them.

Xia Jinyuan was silent for a while. "Uncle Chen, I don't think this is an investment. I'm wooing her. I'm using my own way to woo a good girl."

"It's just that she's still young and she is someone that doesn't like receiving help from others. I'll just point out a path for her. The rest is for her to explore and to advance forward."

"Don't you think that I've been holding her hand and walking forward together with her? When she needs help, I won't leave her. When she falls down, I'll stand by her. When she soars into the sky, I can still fly together with her. Wooing her like this, does Uncle Chen feel that it's not good?"

Not good? It's so good that he was speechless!

Such affection. He was afraid that once the girl knew about this, she would not know how to escape!

She was accustomed to being independent. Now, suddenly, a man appeared and was able to walk side by side with her. And they were comrades too... Principal Chen could see how tough it was for the Major to woo her.

Chapter 414: Master Xia The Wall Climber

He could foresee how hard it was and this young Major knew what was coming. Uncle Chen smiled and patted his shoulder and encouraged, "Perseverance is one of the qualities that a soldier should have. Major, you did a good job."

"I won't just settle for good, I will make sure... that she will look at me as her comrade-in-arms, a comrade with 'two identities'." Xia Jinyuan smiled and gazed at the faraway classroom.

The classroom lights were bright and Ye Jian was not aware that someone was waiting for her. Only when a boy came over to ask her a math question did she realize that she was smiling to herself for half a period of evening study session... just because she was thinking about whether Captain Xia would be climbing over the wall to find her!

Even if it was an evening study session, she should not be thinking about things that were not related to learning! Not even Captain Xia!

Soon, a sober Ye Jian regained her focus and calmed herself down. She got rid of her wild thoughts and no longer thought about Major Xia.

After the bell rang at the end of the evening study session, the quiet campus suddenly became lively. Ye Jian carried her revision notes and headed back to the dormitory with An Jiabin and the other four girls who were staying with them.

Just as they were nearing the Swan Lake, Ye Jian immediately saw a familiar figure passing under the gloomy street lights. She choked on her saliva and coughed repeatedly.

Although he only passed by the street lamp, Ye Jian could clearly tell that it was the man who distracted her for half the evening study session – Major Xia.

Xia Jinyuan..., he... he really entered the campus! Don't tell me he really climbed the wall!

Ye Jian coughed harder when she thought about this.

"Why are you coughing suddenly? Did you catch a cold?" An Jiabin asked nervously. "My mom prepared some cold medicine for me, go drink some when we get back to the dormitory."

"You weren't back at the dormitory last night, did you catch it yesterday?"

Ye Jian finally stopped coughing, but An Jiaxin's words made her heart pump harder. She slept in the hotel... with Captain Xia, and she almost hit him.

She frantically replied, "It's okay, it's okay. I didn't pay attention while talking and choked. Oh right, I forgot to take one of my revision notes. All of you can go back to the dormitory first, I'll go back later."

"Okay, okay, hurry up! I'll get hot water for you so that you can have a hot shower when you get back." An Jiaxin couldn't tell any difference in her voice and didn't think much. She only frowned and reminded Ye Jian, "Come back early, don't forget the time while studying."

She then left with the other girls.

No students strolled around the Swan Lake at night, unless it was students who were secretly in love and who were willing to risk being caught by patrolling teachers with torchlights. If not, they wouldn't be feeding the mosquitoes while flirting with each other.

Ye Jian clearly felt nothing, but when she saw a torchlight flashing from the dark, she was frightened and she tensed up.

"What are you afraid of?" Xia Jinyuan was standing far away in the dark when he said that in a low voice.

His voice was much lower when compared to during the day. It had the ability to make people blush as if a lover had whispered sweet nothings into their ear.

Chapter 415: You Can Come Back Later

He didn't come out immediately, but admired her carefulness and watched her reveal her crafty side.

The dark night became his natural cover, allowing him to watch her without worrying about anything else.

"Captain Xia, why are you here?!" Even if it was in the dark, Ye Jian could find him the moment he spoke. An excellent sniper could accurately pinpoint the target's location while observing the surroundings.

Ye Jian was an exemplary sniper of the special forces once she entered the military school. Trying to locate Xia Jinyuan who was just two meters away from her was a piece of cake.

Xia Jinyuan, who was in a good mood, raised his sexy and thin lips. As she approached, his eyes glimmered in the dark. Those eyes of his could strike fear in other people, but could also attract women.

"Didn't I say that I will look for you tonight? I never go back on my words."

Ye Jian raised the corner of her lips and seemed uncomfortable. Xia Jinyuan felt like a cheetah patiently sharpening its claw, ready to hunt, waiting for the beautiful little fox to come over.

Ye Jian heard that and was about to ask how he got into the campus when suddenly, a torchlight flashed past, brushing off the top of her head and illuminating Xia Jinyuan's face for around three seconds.

She saw him smiling from the corner of his mouth. She saw a man staring at her dangerously... like she was prey.

Ye Jian tightened her chest and stepped back subconsciously.

Elegance emanated from him even in the dark... But what she saw was danger.

Alarm bells rang in Ye Jian's body and she wanted to escape.

She stepped back and Xia Jinyuan immediately understood that the flashlight had created problems.

He was very clear about his facial expressions and gaze that he gave off.

They showed that he would make sure that the little fox had nowhere to run and his determination to catch the little fox.

'This is bad.' Xia Jinyuan muttered this in his heart and immediately sorted out his facial expressions and whispered in a low voice, "Let's go out tonight, I'll bring you to a better place."

"From tonight onwards, you can go out for half an hour and my friend will send you back."

Ye Jian, who had her guard up, refused without hesitation, "No, I'm going back to the dormitory to revise. I didn't come back last night. Although no one said anything, they clearly don't want me to return late."

His gaze was too terrifying like she was her prey and he was a beast ready for a hunt!

She didn't like this feeling!

"Hmm, how about I ask Uncle Chen? If he agrees, do you agree?" He had a tough time closing the distance between the both of them. Xia Jinyuan didn't want that to all go to waste just because of a flashlight!

Fortunately, he had spoken to Uncle Chen for half an hour. If she asked Uncle Chen for his opinion, she would be leaving with him.

Uncle Chen's dormitory was equipped with a phone. He's always available. But why does it sound like he's confident that Uncle Chen will agree?

Don't tell me Uncle Chen brought him in?

Ye Jian was contemplating. If he dared to call Uncle Chen, then the place they would be going to would be related to training.

And if it was related to training, Uncle Chen would agree to it.

Chapter 416: A Whole New World

Principal Chen was waiting for the call. He picked it up and urged, "Girl, Captain Xia came here especially to take you there. Since our goal is to be part of the special forces, then you would need to train. Go on and train, we will not let you be at a disadvantage."

He even told Ye Jian that she could come back a bit later!

“This is an opportunity! Go with Captain Xia. It’s okay to come back later. Give me a call before coming back and I’ll pick you up at the back door.” An automobile soldiers’ training was a good opportunity.

“Automobile soldiers’ training is not just any ordinary training. And this group of automobile soldiers is not ordinary too.” Xia Jinyuan mentioned the training when they got in the car. “The commander of Fujun Town will be there too, he would be pleased to have you there.”

They were not ordinary automobile soldiers because they were usually sent overseas to protect leaders who were on secret visits. They were not only automobile soldiers, but bodyguards too!

There were other types of troops that the public did not know of. And they might have other secret responsibilities and functions that they were trained for. These were not known to the outside world.

Xia Jinyuan did not elaborate, but with Ye Jian’s understanding of the army, she could guess a little.

Knowing it in her heart was enough. There was no need to say it.

She was happy, and for the entire journey, her eyes were full of smiles.

... She didn’t think about the past anymore! Xia Jinyuan paid attention to Ye Jian from the corner of his eyes and heaved a sigh of relief. He needed to be more careful the next time and not be so brazen in the dark!

She might be a little fox, but she won’t be able to get any clues.

It was 9.25 pm when they got out of the campus. After getting in the car, Xia Jinyuan increased the speed to one where the traffic police would not issue any tickets. At 10.20 pm, they finally reached their destination, which looked like an abandoned factory from the outside.

The Southern Province was under development and there were investment projects that failed. And this industrial park was ‘made’ to fail intentionally and till now, it was still in ruins.

There was no one else within fifty miles in the vicinity. No one from outside could hear or see anything here. When the car’s engine was turned off, Ye Jian looked out of the window coldly.

“Get off.” Xia Jinyuan opened the door and told Ye Jian to get out of the car. “The sentries are stationed outside. This is a military restricted area. It might seem like a failed industrial park from the outside. But inside..., it’s another world.”

A sentry who was hidden in the dark approached them with a gun. Without any light, he was carrying out his duties while relying on night-vision goggles.

Xia Jinyuan handed his military ID and Ye Jian’s military access pass which he obtained from Uncle Chen to him. “Contact Commander Liu and inform him that Xia Jinyuan has brought Ye Jian over. Please allow access.”

There was not just one sentry. There were at least five of them and they were all covert sentries!

The atmosphere was serious and intimidating. However, Ye Jian felt comfortable. She knew that the sense of intimidation was given off by the hidden covert sentries. They were looking at them and always ready for battle!

The sentinel saluted him and contacted the people inside.

Soon, he handed back the documents to Xia Jinyuan and saluted again. "Major, please give me your car keys. Thank you for your cooperation."

Chapter 417: It's Tough To Raise Someone

Foreign vehicles were not allowed to enter. Even if it was Xia Jinyuan's car, it would not be allowed to enter the compound and would need to be parked elsewhere.

After the keys were passed to the sentinel, Ye Jian saw the sentinel starting the car. Without turning on the lights, he drove off into the darkness.

Without a sound, it disappeared in front of her eyes.

"These sentries also need to guard the chief. They are all selected elites from the unit." Xia Jinyuan saw that Ye Jian was shocked by the sentinels and smiled. "The training will last until the end of the year. If you're not afraid of hardships or fatigue, you can come over every night and I will arrange for people to pick you up."

Hearing that, Ye Jian's eyes immediately lit up brighter than the stars. "No! I'm not afraid of hardships or fatigue. The evening study session ends at 9 pm. I will reach the back door at 9.05 pm."

That was the bad thing about living in the dormitories. Everyone had to be at the evening study session and there was no free time at night.

"So interested? Let's go, Little Fox. The training is from 10 pm till midnight. I have to send you back to school by 1.10 am." Xia Jinyuan naturally held Ye Jian's hand and walked through the industrial park that was surrounded by scrap metal and towards the 'world' that Ye Jian was unfamiliar with.

He said that he would hold her hand and lead her to a path where they could go hand in hand together.

Then he would let go at an appropriate time so that she can have her own space to explore her world.

As long as he exists in that world of hers.

Ye Jian's mind had already been captivated by the mysterious training that was shrouded in darkness and secrets. She did not realize that she was being held by a steady and strong hand.

Even if it was dark, there was no fear, only belief when he held her hand.

After passing through two five-floor factories, Ye Jian felt a tremor when they were reaching the third one as if something was shaking underground.

There was no sound outside and no light inside... Besides the tremors underground, unless... there was a facility underground?

"That's right, as you have thought." She paused slightly and Xia Jinyuan could guess what she was thinking about. "The training is done underground. We can avoid disturbing people, and avoid their eyes. Most importantly, we do this to prevent any leaks."

Otherwise, why would the state spend so much on the military?

For a great country to be prosperous and safe, it must have a strong army!

A country could only be strong with a strong army. And civilians living in a strong country can stay away from the flames of war and keep their families safe.

"Major!" A strong, masculine voice came from the corner. Next, there was a flash of light and Ye Jian could see a soldier in training clothes standing in front of an abandoned staircase.

Xia Jinyuan squeezed Ye Jian's palm and whispered, "This is the entrance. Remember. You can come over alone during the day if you're free. The covert sentries won't appear in the day, you can come over anytime."

He laughed, "Not even a hobo would come here during the day. There's no houses or shops anywhere around. No one would come to a place without food or drinks."

It was impossible for young women to come here. If something happened to them, no one would know for a year.

Chapter 418: Their Way Of Interacting

The ordinary people all thought about it this way. But this dangerous place was the safest place.

Although the secret military facility was underground and the covert sentries would not reveal themselves easily, if anyone who was up to no good appeared, they would come out in plain clothes and chase them away.

As for how they would do that, Xia Jinyuan didn't mention and Ye Jian didn't probe further... But they wouldn't be treated like royalty for sure.

The soldier who went out to receive them was Commander Liu's admin officer. He knew Ye Jian too. After saluting Xia Jinyuan, he said to Ye Jian, "Commander Liu wanted to mention this to you, but there was no approval for him to do so."

He didn't ask why Ye Jian came tonight. It looked like he was informed about it. The admin officer spoke to Ye Jian about the things that had happened in the regiment. "... After you left, a few unruly soldiers asked for your school's address and were scolded by the political commissar. He warned them not to harm a little girl!"

After hearing that, Xia Jinyuan was a bit irritated and smiled faintly, "Unruly soldiers? Are you still responsible for them?" He then asked the admin officer with a cold voice, "What's their background?"

"Nothing much, they are just university dropouts who were sent here to toughen up. Their families have a bit of money." The admin officer did not notice the coldness in the major's voice and smiled, "After Ye Jian taught them a few lessons, they all got sunstroke and became obedient after a few days."

Ye Jian heard the coldness in his voice and thought it was because of the soldiers and smirked, "They thought too highly of themselves after studying a bit in university. The commissar asked me to deal with it and I took care of them in a few days."

They had reached the entrance, and Xia Jinyuan, who had been holding her hand, smiled slowly.

He was a bit sour, and yet she was totally on a different channel.

He was thinking about how the unruly soldiers were trying to get her contact details while she was thinking about using them as practice. Nothing else was on her mind.

Well, it looks like he was too calculative.

"Watch where you're going, don't miss your step." When they were going down the stairs, Xia Jinyuan who was constantly smiling, naturally lifted his arm a little, so that Ye Jian could go down the steps stably. "Walk inside, there are no railings."

On the staircase that led to the basement, the steel bars in the cement were exposed and you could feel the dust with every step that was taken.

Ye Jian smeared her hand on the mottled wall and it was all dust. She couldn't help but whisper, "Is there only one entrance? Every soldier enters and exits at the same place? That's unlikely."

"A cunning rabbit has many burrows." The admin officer who was leading the way laughed. Ye Jian was an impressive young lady, but she was still a curious little girl. "There's not much time for you as you still have to return to the school later. This path is only open for you."

Ye Jian also laughed. "Then I'll have to thank Commander Liu properly."

"Commander Liu has been waiting for you to thank him. Go this way." The admin officer turned on his helmet's headlamp. They were already in the basement and no one from above could see the light.

The front was still pitch-black like they were walking into the belly of a giant beast. The rusty steel frame shook in the dark, leaving behind a gloomy look.

Chapter 419: Living Without Regrets

Ye Jian was not afraid of the dark. She had been chased by Ye Ying's men in the past. She had even crawled through underground gas pipes and sewers.

She could still feel the tremors underneath her feet. When the admin officer pushed open a rusty fire door, a whole new world appeared in front of her eyes – just like what Xia Jinyuan had said.

She was greeted with the sound of a booming engine, accelerating her blood flow. Her shocked eyes were attracted to a complex training field that she could not take her eyes off of.

The admin officer closed the soundproof door and then locked the door. “Commander Liu is in front. He’s busy now. You can head over to the training field with Major Xia. You can look for Commander Liu once you’re done.”

He left after saluting Xia Jinyuan.

After thanking him, Ye Jian’s line of sight was fixated on the training field.

The movie scenes where cars would be speeding around could all be seen here. She saw a jeep rushing down from the second floor after stepping on the accelerator and landing with a ‘bang’. Before she could even blink, the tires were screeching as it rubbed against the ground and backed up sharply... It wasn’t a straight path. There were S-shaped paths, slopes, and even obstacles...

There were sounds of bullets firing from inside the cars. Although there were just blanks, the force was still formidable. When the motorized infantries were firing, no one should be standing in the effective range of the blanks.

“Three minutes and four seconds, fail! Firing accuracy, pass!”

Although they were fast, they still didn’t manage to pass!

Seeing that she was engrossed and her face was full of admiration, Xia Jinyuan leaned over slightly and whispered in her ear, “A pass is two minutes fifty seconds.”

“...” Ye Jian blinked and didn’t realize that he was very close to her. She turned around and looked at Xia Jinyuan with bright eyes. “Can I... train with them tonight?”

Xia Jinyuan raised his eyebrows and chuckled, “Ye Jian, you have high requests. Train with them tonight? These motorized infantries are all elites. There are elite scouts, elite free combat soldiers, and elites that have been selected by the army.”

“Less than two years in the army, less than half a year of driving experience..., If you train hard every day, you might get injured or even die. Little Fox, do you know what it takes to really take this step?”

Although he was smiling, his gaze was cold as he stared at Ye Jian, as if he could see and imprint every word that he said onto her soul.

An excited Ye Jian gradually calmed down because of his words, and her heartbeat returned to normal. She looked at him seriously, took a deep breath and replied, “I know very well. But I know even more what kind of effort it takes to be part of the special forces.”

“I will rub shoulders with Death and see the magnificent beauty between life and death! And I just need this kind of life! I like sessions of training like this that are full of challenges!”

After being reborn, she was willing to grab every opportunity there was and live a happy life! She wanted to enrich herself and once again feel the beauty of having a new life!

Chapter 420: Your Charisma

She will not allow Ye Zhifan and his family to make her live like a street mouse ever again! She will change her destiny with her own two hands!

A serious Ye Jian, a fearless Ye Jian, and a Ye Jian who works hard..., a sly, smart and grateful Ye Jian. That was his little fox.

Xia Jinyuan laughed and looked deeply at those clear and stubborn eyes. “I like your resolve, it makes me very, very happy.”

If he wanted to get close to her, he would need to know what she likes.

His little fox likes challenges, likes the army..., and he will bring them all to her.

Of course, he didn't just want her smile. He looked at her as if there was a giant beast lurking in his eyes... He wanted to win the beauty!

The twenty-three-year-old liked the sixteen-year-old senior high student. At least before he had met the little fox, he would never have thought that he was patient enough to wait for a girl to grow up.

There was a dim light in his eyes that loomed around like a halo, which made Ye Jian feel her heart beat suddenly. “I won't give up, Captain Xia.”

The opportunity is right in front of her eyes. How could she give up?!

“I didn't ask you to give up. Come on, Little Fox, go and experience what extreme drag racing is.” Xia Jinyuan withdrew his hand and went to the right. He was obviously familiar with this place. “I've trained here for more than three months and I've sustained three injuries. The biggest one was here...”

He suddenly tugged his clothes and exposed his smooth waist... sexy, perfect and full of masculinity.

However, Ye Jian did not see any of his sexiness. She only saw a thick ragged scar that encircled his waist.

Ye Jian's face shrunk. The scar resembled an oriental dragon and after seeing that, she even held her breath slightly.

“If this injury was a bit higher up, it would hurt my back directly. Not just driving, I would have problems walking.” He skimmed past the scar like it was something not worth mentioning.

“The reason why such a huge facility is located just dozens of kilometers away from the city and not in the mountainous areas is very simple. In the event of an accident, you can be immediately sent to the hospital for rescue.”

“If you choose this, Ye Jian, you will be dancing with Death. I have given you an option to give up, but since you followed me, you have no other way but to continue on without regrets.”

The clothes slid down as he walked and his low unique voice was like the morning bell, penetrating Ye Jian’s eardrums and hitting deep into her soul when it was mixed with the sound of the engines.

You could feel a tinge of coldness when you look at Xia Jinyuan’s handsome face. It was like when Ye Jian first saw him – just raising his eyebrows gently could strike fear in people’s hearts.

Sitting in a modified jeep, Ye Jian fastened her seatbelt and made eye contact with him. “I have never changed my decision easily. This Ye Jian is the one that Captain Xia knows.”
