

BOOT CAMP 511

Chapter 511: People Are Getting Worse And Worse

T6 had a baby face and he had fair skin. He seemed several years younger than the formidable V8, like a university student.

T6 was only wearing a pair of shorts and immediately bent down to pick up the gray pants that he had taken off. "J5, you're a nightmare. It's rude to only wear a pair of shorts. Impetuous!"

V8 heard that and agreed with him immediately!

"Little Six, you're the reliable one. Little Five is just like a eunuch. He's anxious every day, causing us to be anxious too!" V8 commented as he picked up his pants that he had taken off. His expression was full of disdain for J5. "The two of you have met Ye Jian many times, but we are only meeting for the first time. I have to leave a good impression."

J5 wore his pants speedily and snorted when he heard those words. "Piss off. Who's the eunuch? The two of you are the traitors! We agreed on not trying to attract attention. Now, who are you getting neatly organized for?"

G3 immediately responded, "People are getting worse and worse. All of you are trying to leave a good impression. I can't fall behind." As he finished his sentence and was about to pick up his pants, he realized that K7 was dressed and ready!

With a look of shock, "Brother, you're so fast!"

"Troublesome, I didn't take it off." K7 had always maintained his principle of speaking fewer words whenever he could. Everyone was smart and could guess what he was saying.

Couldn't you guess?

"Fk! Next time, we need to let him undress first."

"Our teamwork is lacking, go back and wash a week's worth of uniforms."

Strong light shone from the airport building and several long shadows were drawn. When they bent over, their shadows looked like the peaks of a mountain, and Ye Jian... she stepped on their shadows as she walked over one step at a time.

"Isn't it cold? Why take it off and wear it again?" Ye Jian hadn't figured out the situation yet and saw them taking off their pants and then wearing them back again. She actually thought that they were feeling cold because of the low temperature.

Although that was what she had said, she whispered something else in her heart. The weather is not that cold, and they were part of the Special Forces. They could withstand the heat and cold. Why would they be afraid of the cold?

Xia Jinyuan secretly held his forehead lightly and smiled with his handsome face, "Everyone needed to disguise themselves as an al-Qaeda member by wearing their iconic gray robes. Now that the mission is over, there's no need to wear them anymore. That's why they took it off. But..."

In front of his little fox, Xia Jinyuan revealed his comrades' intentions. They had agreed that no matter whose girlfriend came over, the others would not attract her attention. Now they were all trying to leave a good impression in front of his little fox.

Seeing that he didn't continue, Ye Jian probed, "But what?"

"But they realized that they were only wearing a pair of shorts and saw that I was holding and binging you there. These guys felt that it was a bit rude to just wear a pair of shorts and was afraid that you wouldn't have a good impression of them. That's why they put them on again." Xia Jinyuan had guessed his comrades' intentions and revealed everything to Ye Jian. "That's why, even though they look impressive when they're fighting, they are just like any other man in private. They all love their faces!"

Chapter 512: We Know Everything

Ye Jian was laughing until she almost teared up. The glow in her dark eyes was more eye-catching than the strong light. "Your relationship is very good. That's to be expected when you all came from the same unit."

Back then, he was in Fujun Town and had to establish himself in front of the veterans. Xia Jinyuan had to maintain his dignity and managed to form bonds with the soldiers there.

At the Xueyu unit, the same rank, the same mission, and the same target required not your dignity, but a true comrade that would fight alongside you. Once Xia Jinyuan entered the unit, he was like a dragon that had returned to the sea, fitting in well.

Everyone was the same. Spending days in the trenches, eating in the cafeteria, lying down on the lawn and talking freely. Occasionally, they would crack small harmless jokes to bring up the atmosphere. Their relationship was naturally deep.

They couldn't hurt each other even if they wanted to.

"There are not many of us in the unit. Everyone eats and drinks together. We even know how many times we have gone to the toilet last night." Xia Jinyuan deliberately slowed down. It was their resting time now. "You will understand when you enter the unit. As time passes, you will be even closer than biological brothers. However, you still need to be wary of people."

Ye Jian liked this kind of conversation topic. It made her relax. During the conversation, she smiled slightly like a landscape painting of a river. It was serene and long, with a sense of tranquility. "I envy you for being able to have a group of comrades like them. I don't know where I will be going in the future and I will have to follow the military school's arrangements. It would be good if I was assigned to the frontlines. But if I'm assigned to the logistics department, then I would have to resign to fate."

Every time they fought together, she couldn't wait to join the army instead of sitting in school and study.

However, she would be able to calm down and study seriously. Of course, it would be better if the trivial matters were not around her.

"What's there to envy? Can't you just set me as a target?" A hunter would always set a trap inadvertently, waiting for his prey. Just like what was happening now. In order to raise Ye Jian's goal, Xia Jinyuan subtly proposed a solution for her after she had relaxed after such a tense situation. The results would be greater than a serious chat.

Ye Jian was really interested. Having cooperated with them three times, she could guess that Xia Jinyuan's unit was definitely a Special Forces unit. And she heard him mention that there were not many people in his unit... An average Special Forces unit would have at least thirty people in their ranks. Only a few units of a special nature would only have a limited number of elite soldiers.

In conclusion... Captain Xia's unit is one that is of a special nature!

Ye Jian's eyes flashed brightly as she looked at him and asked softly, "If I really set you as a target, is there a chance that I can join all of you?"

There weren't many baits that could hook the little fox in... The unit was one of them and the most alluring one. From time to time, whenever the unit was mentioned, the little fox would follow him obediently. Now, the unit was treated as a bait.

Very good, that was the effect he wanted.

It was what he wanted, yet... it made him a little hesitant. He wasn't sure whether bringing her to his unit was the right move... or the wrong one.

Chapter 513: Little Fox, You Know What I'm Thinking

Now... he needed to listen to her opinion before making a decision.

He never let go of her hands. He walked slowly and casually. If there was a moon in the sky, this would be a relaxing and comfortable walk.

He was smiling gently. "My team? That's quite difficult. Will you believe me if I say that even the best top soldiers from Fujun Town won't be able to enter my team?"

"Of course." Ye Jian replied without any hesitation. She turned a little serious. "You won't joke about this. Thus, I believe what you say."

She always believed him with no doubt. She trusted him so easily.

Xia Jinyuan turned his head and looked at her intently and quietly. He asked her softly, "Why do you trust me so much? You never think about what I say and just believe me without hesitation."

This little fox must know what he was feeling.

His gaze turned intense and his voice got lighter. He probed, "You know what I'm thinking, right?"

Ye Jian looked up suddenly and met his dark eyes. The emotions in the eyes made her heart pound faster. She started blushing.

Her breathing got unstable so she looked away. She smiled. "Of course, I know what you're thinking. You hope that in the future, I will only go to the military."

"Do you think that that's really what I'm thinking?"

Xia Jinyuan squeezed Ye Jian's hand as he smiled. He rubbed his thumb on her thumb to show how happy he was. It was a hint to Ye Jian too. He wanted to remind her that he had many thoughts in his mind.

When they were about five meters away from his comrades, Xia Jinyuan pulled her into a dark corner where the lights couldn't reach.

Ye Jian's heart skipped a beat when she saw this. She said instinctively, "Xia Jinyuan, where are you dragging me to?!" She understood what he was thinking so when he did such small actions, she rejected him.

She rejected his intention of getting closer again! She was fine alone. She didn't need someone else in her life. She didn't care about the old saying of finding a partner to complete your life too. She could live her own life alone.

"The airport is not big. I won't go out of the airport." The frightened reaction made Xia Jinyuan smile. A man who just came out of a battlefield was charismatic. He strode quickly with his long legs. Ye Jian had no choice but to run to catch up with him.

"Xia Jinyuan, let me go. I can't catch up to you." Ye Jian grabbed his hands and attempted to break free. However, to a man, it was hard to let go of the hands of a woman he had always wanted to hold.

Chapter 514: A Man Serious About His Relationship

Xia Jinyuan was a loyal man. He finally met the lady that made his heart pound. He patiently groomed her and wait for her to bloom. When she bears fruits, he would pick them. He never thought of giving up throughout the entire process.

His sexy laughter was intoxicating like a glass of red wine. "You don't need to catch up to me. I'll hold you and walk together. When we reach the destination, I'll let you go. You can choose to walk past me or we can continue walking together."

Ye Jian stopped moving for a moment. There were hidden meanings behind his words. Was she thinking about the right thing? Or was she being teased by him again?

No, it didn't feel like it.

His gentle tone and the fact that he didn't want to let go proved what he was thinking.

Her heart wavered when she understood this. She wanted to ignore this feeling but it was hard to disregard it.

She stopped resisting and allowed him to pull her into the darkness.

Ye Jian didn't say anything. She didn't know how to handle these things. She had never met such a situation before.

"There's no hurry in replying. You can remain quiet." Her silence made Xia Jinyuan's eyes darken. Every time he met her, he used all methods to hint to her and improve their relationship. He hoped that she would accept him as she grew older.

He hoped that she would naturally accept him and not escape from him.

He couldn't be impatient with Little Fox. There was only one path he could take and it was the slow one.

Ye Jian pursed her lips. From his words just now, he really had some feelings towards her.

"Captain Xia, there's no need to give me hints so eagerly. Like I said, there is still a long path ahead." It was better for her to reject now so that they wouldn't be awkward in the future. Ye Jian had to run slightly as Xia Jinyuan was pulling her. She used her firm tone to show her attitude. "Hence, I will not take it to heart. I will not think deeply about it too."

"I want to climb higher and fly further. I don't want to be the piece of meat on someone's chopping board."

Her attitude was firm. She had never thought of getting into a relationship at a young age. Xia Jinyuan wasn't dejected. Her attitude was the reason why he took it really slowly. He smiled and said, "Of course. You're still young now. You shouldn't think about all these weird things. You should learn more and get into military school."

He was the one who said things that made her think. Yet, now, he said that she was thinking too much.

Ye Jian was frustrated and helpless. "Captain Xia, are you teasing me?"

"No. You're too young. I can't scare you." Xia Jinyuan laughed. "I didn't tease you but I won't take back what I said. You can make your own decision."

Ye Jian felt that she would be even more worried now. This sentence made her agitated. She was afraid that he would get angry because of her attitude but she didn't want to lie too.

Since she would make mistakes if she speaks, she should just shut up.

Her silence softened Xia Jinyuan's heart. Little Fox never questioned what he said. She was always so obedient. He really liked her.

Chapter 515: Psychological Trauma

He liked her obedience. Her stubbornness made his heart ache. He said gently, "If your wound tears again, tell me. We can attend to it first."

Ye Jian pouted and muttered softly, "Even if it's a small injury, you'll pull it into a big injury." Her voice was like a mosquito.

However, to Xia Jinyuan, who had undergone special training, he was able to hear the voice. He laughed in a low voice. "Why are you pouting? I saw your wound when you handed Pabel over just now. It's just a scratch. It won't turn into a serious injury."

"Why did you ask me then?"

"To show that I'm concerned about you."

This was a rare relaxed moment after the battle.

To Xia Jinyuan, this was the happiest moment.

When they were more than 20 meters away from his comrades of Xueyu unit, he stopped. He pulled Ye Jian down. "Let's take a rest. They have some things to talk about. We can go over later."

He turned on his earpiece again and spoke in a lazy tone to his comrades who were still waiting for him. "Sorry to keep you waiting. You can go ahead first. I'll take a break with Ye Jian and comfort her. She had been a hostage for more than ten hours. It will leave some psychological trauma in her. I need to give her some guidance."

His comrades started smirking when they heard what Xia Jinyuan said. J5 said with contempt, "Q King, I'm the instructor here. I have more experience in this matter. You should have passed Ye Jian to me."

"Thank you. I'll take care of this matter myself. There's no need to trouble you." Xia Jinyuan wouldn't give his comrades a chance to take away his time with Ye Jian. The overseas visit would end soon. After he returned to the military unit and she returned to school... he didn't know when they would meet again.

His possessive was apparent in his tone. Ye Jian didn't take it to heart. Instead, she was frustrated by his attitude.

He was so hard to predict. Whether it was the complicated Xia Jinyuan, the scheming Xia Jinyuan, or the calm Xia Jinyuan during a battle, she was unable to understand him.

Now, when he decided to be irritating, she didn't know what to do too. After he ended his call, Ye Jian smiled at him. "Captain Xia, I don't have any psychological trauma. Don't talk nonsense."

"Even I have some psychological trauma. Why won't you have any?" Xia Jinyuan was like a playful rich second-generation when he was irritating. He smiled seductively. "I have quite a huge trauma. When I saw the gun you left behind, I almost shot the Pakistani worker who was with you."

He was smiling when he said this but Ye Jian believed that he really did have the intention at that time.

“If I heard that my friend was kidnapped, I might get agitated enough to kill someone too.” Her smile was relaxed and warm. The viciousness in Xia Jinyuan’s eyes subsided when he saw it. “Captain Xia, your team is the team at the frontline, right?”

He didn’t reply immediately. Ye Jian softly continued, “My aim is to go to the frontline. That way, I won’t have any regret for coming into this world.”

Chapter 516: The Elites In The Military

The frontline forces... If I can become a world-class sniper like Uncle Chen and become someone no one can touch, I’m willing to go through anything. I won’t have any regrets then.

Xia Jinyuan had laid down on the ground. His back touched the cold floor as he looked up at the vast sky. It was dark. After a moment of silence, he said, “You still need to work harder. My unit is not a unit that can be entered just by talking.”

He should be thinking about something. His tone was rarely so serious. Ye Jian tilted her body and waited patiently for him to talk about the special forces which she had been so curious about.

What kind of military unit was it? It was a military unit that gathered all the powerful and elite soldiers in the military. They were brave, fearless, and extremely powerful. Even their equipment was better than normal soldiers.

All these made her curious and attracted her to the military unit.

Xia Jinyuan narrowed his eyes when he saw her look of anticipation. She was really interested in the military unit he was in. She didn’t ask much but her actions betrayed her.

“You have seen what we do. We go to the most dangerous places. It’s good if my military unit is your goal. However, you need to work harder.” Xia Jinyuan didn’t say much. He just told her that the goal was good but difficult.

He remained silent just now because he was contemplating if he should let her become a member of the Xueyu unit. He always had this consideration before but the kidnapping today knocked him awake.

When a female soldier got kidnapped or taken hostage, their plight would be worse than a male soldier. They would be tortured mentally and physically.

Because of this, the Xueyu unit never had any female soldiers before. Recently, the leaders of the military suggested letting female soldiers enter the unit but it wasn’t decided yet.

He was confident of Little Fox but the event tonight made him more cautious.

However, he didn't want to let go of the chance to let her stand beside him. He yearned for the day when she wore her military uniform and fought alongside him.

He was unable to control this desire. She was already so outstanding at such a young age. There were six more years until she entered the military. How exceptional would she be in six years? He felt excited just thinking about it.

"Why do I feel that you're just encouraging me but not wanting to let me get what I want?" Ye Jian lowered her head and looked at Xia Jinyuan. His features were sharp and clear even when he was lying down. "It seems like I really have to work harder."

Her smile was confident and fearless. Just like what Xia Jinyuan said, Ye Jian wasn't afraid of difficulties. The more obstacles she met, the harder she would try to overcome them.

Xia Jinyuan frowned. There was a firm look on his face. He retracted his expression and said, "There's a difference between frontline troops and forward-deployed forces. There are differences in special forces too. I can only tell you that my military unit is the elite of the elite."

Chapter 517: Do You Know My Heart

Xia Jinyuan's voice was low and soft. It felt heavy like a huge bar of metal. "Wrestling, perfect aiming, high-speed driving, detonation, decoding, anything that flies in the sky and runs on earth, we need to know. Ye Jian, your path is still long. There are many things you need to learn."

"You need to learn how to drive all kinds of combat vehicles. You must be able to use all kinds of weapons from different countries. You must learn to operate all communication devices and learn to assassinate and scout. There are many abilities you need to know. Little Fox, you're just at the entrance now. You need at least five years to become an elite special forces soldier."

"If you really want to enter my military unit, I'll welcome you. You just need to reach the criteria after six years."

The members of the Xueyu unit were all chosen carefully. They had undergone strict training and were all-rounded and powerful people.

Ye Jian's eyes lit up. She nodded forcefully and said excitedly, "If I have the chance to learn, I'll make full use of it."

She continued, "Did you bring me for the vehicle training because you want me to enter the special forces?"

"Why did you become stupid suddenly? The Four-Year Plan that Uncle Chen and Uncle Gen set for you was based on the training of the Special Forces from the US Delta Special Forces. However, it looks like we need to be stricter with you now."

Since she thought this way, there was no way he was going to give up now! He would tell her what to do and support her dream until she left the military.

“Currently, your outstanding performance during the past few missions have caught the attention of the military. If not, they won’t let you take part in the overseas visit. They even asked you to train with the drivers of the military for a month. Ye Jian, the military has high hopes for you.”

“You can either treasure this opportunity or give up now. Before the order comes, you can still change your decision.”

Ye Jian sat up straight. She asked, “Captain Xia, are you saying that there’s a high possibility that I will enter the frontline troops?”

“Yes. As long as you maintain your speed of improvement, there will be a spot for you in the frontline unit.”

Looking back, since the military had already laid their eyes on Little Fox, it was obvious what their intention was when they let her accompany the leaders to a chaotic country for a secret visit.

His worry was nothing in front of the military order.

Xia Jinyuan had always been keeping note of the time. He pushed himself up and sat up straight. He gave a relaxed smile. “The most important thing now is to learn more skills before you enter the military so that the military and the country will trust you. You need to spend two years in high school. All the best. Train more with Uncle Chen. It will be good for you.”

This was the first time Xia Jinyuan was so serious. Last time, he always beat around the bush but this time, he spoke about Ye Jian’s future candidly.

“Yes, I understand.” Ye Jian nodded. The resolute expression on her face was like a soldier. She didn’t want to be a useless person again. Since she was reborn, she would climb to the top and look down on everyone.

Chapter 518: This Is His Comrade, This Is Her Goal

His little fox had undergone the basic training. Her foundation was strong. The tougher training was currently being carried out. The results of the training could be seen through the missions she carried out.

For instance, this time, she fought all alone in the base of their enemy. She used her intelligence and ability to complete a task which made all the leaders praise her. In the end, she saved the lives of all the hostages.

He couldn’t see her face at this moment but in his mind, he had already drawn her features out. He looked at the picture in his mind. He knew that Little Fox must be mesmerizing if he could see her now.

She had a pair of enchanting and calm eyes. Her face was beautiful like a flower. When she smiles, the flower would bloom. When she was facing her enemies, she was as cold as ice. How could be not be mesmerized by her?

Xia Jinyuan estimated that ten minutes had passed. He jumped up and stuck out his hand. He signaled for Ye Jian to hold his hand. "It's time to go back. They gave us ten minutes to rest. If we go back any later, they will really have to wait for us."

The Pakistan government needed some time to clear the scene. Ten minutes was a good estimate.

As expected, they had finished their work. J5 and the rest of the people were waiting for the bus sent by the Pakistan government. The bus would send them back to the hotel.

After waiting for nine minutes, two figures slowly came out from the dark and into the light. The two people walked towards them with light shining behind them. The expressions on the faces were similar. V8 lowered his voice and said, "Miss Ye Jian's aura is similar to Q King."

"I heard from Z7 that Q King knew her since she was 14 years old. They've known each other for so long so she must be influenced by Q King. It's normal that their auras are similar." J5 heard his comrades gasping when he finished. He laughed. "Are you jealous? I'm jealous too. Hence, I decided to build a good relationship with Ye Jian so that she can introduce a girlfriend to me."

V8 had a different reason for sighing. "They are considered childhood friends. It's too late for me to get a childhood friend now. I've been single for many years. I'm even older than Q King. We are both soldiers but our lives are different."

V8 had a baby face and an occupation that he couldn't talk about. Hence, he faced many tearful situations during blind dates. The entire military unit knew that no woman ever believed that V8 was a soldier.

Every time he mentioned that he was a soldier, the ladies would look at him with suspicion. Those that were more serious asked to see his certificate. How could they show their certificate to random people? Thus, no one believed him.

V8 went for blind dates every break but he always failed. Finding a girlfriend was a thorn in his heart.

K7 patted his shoulder and consoled him. "Continue going on blind dates next time. You'll find one." There wasn't any comfort in his cold voice.

Teasing their comrades was an honorable tradition of the Xueyu unit. It couldn't be help. They were all single young men. If they didn't tease each other, they'll feel uncomfortable.

Chapter 519: Outstanding

Ye Jian looked at the several figures who were standing around and pointed to two of them who were foreign to her. "One of them is V8 and the other one is T6. Your heights are really similar. Is that deliberately chosen? Are all of you carefully selected to be of the same height?"

They had to be of the same height to be the elites of the army... It was hard to get them together.

"It's the same. That's why we have fewer people in our unit." Xia Jinyuan spoke faster when they were still three meters away from his comrades. "The face has to look good too, making it more difficult."

Ye Jian gave him a quick glance. Why does it seem that he was boasting?

They were walking closely together and holding hands too. They were so intimate that no one could bear to step in.

"We have cooperated again. We have done this many times, Little Ye." J5 chuckled. It had been more than a year since they have fought on the snow mountains and once again, he had seen her combat abilities. She managed to rescue dozens of hostages on her own and prevented the orphanage from destruction. She even managed to keep calm during the crisis, impressing him.

Ye Jian felt like a comrade who had returned as she high-fived them. "This is our third time. It was pleasant working together."

"This is our first time working together with you. Likewise, it's been pleasant and it's reassuring too." V8 opened his mouth, raised his dark eyebrows and teased, "Guess who I am."

Xia Jinyuan laughed and spoke tenderly to Ye Jian, "V8, one of my comrades. He is T6's partner and they have the highest chemistry. Proficient in multiple languages and among the best."

Proficient in multiple languages... that immediately gained Ye Jian's respect.

When introduced to T6, Ye Jian began to understand a little about this mysterious Special Forces unit. T6 was proficient in demolition, reconnaissance, assassination, armored vehicles and infantry fighting vehicles.

With a babyface, no one could tell that he was a veteran, nor could they tell that he was the best at assassination.

The Xueyu unit's car had passed the runway and was parked in front of them. The door opened and a suited young man stepped down from the car and asked, "Are there any injuries? The medical staff is at the airport. You can go over any time to treat your wounds."

The combat situation in the plane was transmitted to everyone's ears through the communication tower. Several soldiers of the Pakistani government forces were shot and had been sent to the hospital for surgery. Meanwhile, there was no news about any injuries from the Chinese Special Forces.

Standing behind, Ye Jian couldn't see who had gotten off the car and only knew who he was when he opened his mouth. It was Qin Xiu, the Head's translator.

"All is well. No one's hurt." J5 saluted him and replied. "Thank you for your concern. The mission is accomplished and everyone is on standby."

Qin Xiu heaved a sigh of relief and showed a gentle and elegant smile. "That's great. The Head is still waiting for everyone in the hotel. Please get in the car." He looked over the 1.9 meters tall soldiers and saw Ye Jian and smiled, "Ye Jian, the Head wants to talk to you later. Be mentally prepared. It's not a bad thing, it's to praise you."

The tone was that of an acquaintance.

Chapter 520: Hold Your Arm Steady

To Qin Xiu, Ye Jian and he knew each other naturally and they were not as formal as with the Xueyu unit. It was a little casual.

After he finished his sentence, he let the soldiers go up first. When it was Ye Jian's turn to get in the car, he gently pulled her wrist. "Sit with me, let them get in first."

Xia Jinyuan, who was going to help her get on the car first, stopped in his tracks and turned to look at Qin Xiu. "Her arm is injured. We will deal with it in the car. Translator Qin, you should let her sit with me."

This time around, Qin Xiu recognized Xia Jinyuan. He was his mother's ideal son-in-law.

Based on that alone, Qin Xiu was gentle and polite. "Sorry, I was reckless." He turned to Ye Jian and said, "Get in the car first and let them check on your wound. If you need to go to the hospital, we can immediately arrange for another car to bring you there."

Ye Jian didn't want that much trouble and raised her arm. "It's just a bruise. I can handle it myself. There's no need to go to the hospital."

With the help of the car's light, Qin Xiu saw a burn wound on her arm. That was a stray bullet hitting a hard object, which brought down the force and power of the bullet as it changed its trajectory. That wound belonged to the lightest category of gunshot wounds.

"Then we will deal with the wound on the car. There is a medicine box in the car." Qin Xiu had seen gunshot wounds himself and had suffered a bruise before. He knew that there was no need for a hospital visit and didn't continue speaking. Xia Jinyuan, who was already in the car, pulled Ye Jian by the wrist and brought her into the car.

The medicine box had everything. Xia Jinyuan clamped Ye Jian's left arm between his knees and treated her wound with a cotton ball that was moistened with saline solution. All of this happened while the car was shaking. "Don't move. Hold your arm steady. Don't let the tweezers scratch you."

Qin Xiu, who was sitting alone, heard that and was getting up to support Ye Jian's shoulder. He then saw that she had already held onto the back of the seat.

After the kidnapping, the rain of bullets, and the injury, he still couldn't see the slightest difference in her facial expressions. Not a trace of fear. It was as if she had already been used to all that.

Qin Xiu couldn't help but glance again. His gaze landed on Ye Jian's back and there was a hint of doubt in his indifferent eyes.

"The wound is not deep. There's no need for stitches, but it will leave a scar." Xia Jinyuan remarked and rinsed it with a bottle of saline and put on a bit of anti-inflammatory medicine before wrapping it with sterile gauze. "Don't let it get into contact with water or it will be inflamed."

He raised his eyes and instructed Ye Jian. After putting away the medical supplies, he looked at Qin Xiu. He realized that Qin Xiu was looking at Ye Jian, and his mouth was raised up, revealing a slight smile.

Qin Xiu bowed his head slightly and retracted his gaze.

Both of them were of good family backgrounds and were princes from the capital city. Their nobility was not something that others could learn.

They were born with such nobility and they had it engraved in their bones. No one could ever attain this.

A calm gaze was exchanged with a slight smile, and he then looked away as usual.

Qin Xiu had narrowed his eyes slightly. The son of the Xia family is good. It's just that the matriarchs of both families are at odds with one another. If they wanted to marry off the Qin family's daughter to the Xia family, it would be hard to convince the Old Madam.
