

Chapter 671: Disowned And Outcasted

Seeing that the face filled with anger and disdain turned into one that filled with shock and surprise, Ye Jian thought of that sentence – karma strikes back.

In her past life, she was accused by Ye Ying of seducing her teacher. From then on, it followed her for the rest of her life.

Just like today, everyone told her to scam as far away as possible. Even parents were making a ruckus in school, fearing that she would bring the other students into harm's way. They were hoping for her to disappear completely in this world.

She was so afraid back then. She didn't dare to go back to the village or go out of school. She stayed in her dormitory every day. No matter how badly Xie Sifeng bullied her, she thought that staying in school was better than going out.

Back then, Ye Ying did that to her. And now... this was her retribution.

She had it coming. She ruined herself with each step she took! With today's incident, how could Ye Ying continue to study in school? And how could her classmates be willing to be in the same class as her?

Xia Jinyuan didn't look at others. He only had Ye Jian in his sight and saw the coldness in her eyes... What was she thinking about? What was she reminiscing about?

Why is there such sorrow in her eyes? It was desolate enough that he felt a tight tug in his chest.

"He who is unjust is doomed to destruction! Ye Ying, you still haven't realized what you have done wrong." Ye Jian lowered her eyes slightly. She then had the condescending arrogance as she stared at Ye Ying, who was squatting out of fear. "Stop making any more excuses for your own stupidity. Ye Ying, you don't even have the courage to admit your mistakes. And you still want to compete with me?"

"I didn't make a fuss because you're not even worth it. In my eyes, you're not even worthy to be my opponent. There's nothing for me to compete with you."

"All I need to do is just watch you ruin yourself. Why do I need to spend any effort on you?"

Ye Ying didn't raise her head and bit her lip. She didn't even let go as it bled. She said that I wasn't worthy to be her opponent... I'm better than her, and yet she dares to talk to me like that.

Ye Jian, Ye Jian! I will return today's disgrace back to you a hundred times!

"I know that you must hate me to the core at this time, and would curse and swear secretly in your heart. That one day, you will make sure that I would rather die than live. But Ye Ying, you can't even win me now, why are you thinking about the future? You will only look up to the future me!"

Although that last sentence was soft, it was like a bullet, smashing Ye Ying's heart. She collapsed on the ground.

"I'm disgusted by your apology..."

That was the last sentence that Ye Jian had for her. It was straight to the point, just like Ye Jian.

It was impossible for Ye Ying to stay in Provincial No.1 Middle School anymore. A soldier hurried over with a teacher. After understanding the situation, the teacher was so angry that her face went dark. What a worrisome student!

The blow was too big. Ye Ying didn't even know how she left the shooting range. She was carried off by two soldiers. As for her luggage, it was taken care of by the school teacher. She didn't even participate in the review the next day and was sent off, leaving the chemical defense regiment.

Chapter 672: I'll Repay It All

The students from Class One were all focused on the target that the soldier brought back. It was the one that Ye Jian shot at.

Seeing that the bullseye was penetrated, they were all amazed and impressed.

Perfect score. The political commissar said that it was difficult, even for the soldiers in the chemical defense regiment. He also mentioned that Ye Jian used very little time and her speed was fast. It was no wonder that the instructor admired Ye Jian.

The shouts and cheers could be heard for a long time, and even the soldiers from the chemical defense regiment were clapping for her.

"It's a pity that I knew it too late." The political commissar expressed his regrets and urged Ye Jian, "Keep improving, don't be proud and complacent. You must not be prideful and impetuous. You must do it step by step."

"With your standards, you would be an elite anywhere you go. Moreover, you are still young. Because you are young, you must not forget where you came from. You must keep a good heart so that you won't let down anyone."

She couldn't be his soldier, but he was still glad to see her achievements.

In the faint sunset, Ye Jian saluted the political commissar who gave her advice.

The female soldier stood tall and straight under the red flag. Look at her and you would know what a warrior she was!

How could Ye Ying compare to her? How is she mediocre?

Once the sword was out of the sheath, it was unstoppable. No one could stop Ye Jian from climbing up. She was fearless and determined, and she used her excellence to paint her own path.

It was already sunset when they left the shooting range. Class One sang 'Return from Shooting' as they returned in the evening, ending today's training with high morale.

"I feel so good today. I saw Ye Ying's look of anger. Hahaha, she shot her own foot... I bet she's still crying now." An Jiaxin held Ye Jian's arm and laughed, "So great! I'll see how she raises her head in class in the future."

If it was just to make sure she couldn't raise her head in class, she wouldn't have done anything.

Ye Jian smiled, "She will drop out. I wanted her to drop out of school on her own accord." Didn't she think that it was impressive to get into Provincial No.1 Middle School? She should have a taste of what it feels like to drop out.

Ye Ying would get a taste of her own medicine.

She said that those who bullied her and humiliated her in the past, she would repay them back in this life!

"Drop out? Really? Will she really drop out?" Startled, An Jiaxin suppressed her emotions. She was afraid that she would shout her throat raw because she was too happy. Her eyes flashed brightly out of excitement. "Really? If she really drops out, I'll buy firecrackers to celebrate!"

As a friend who saw how Ye Jian suffered in the past, An Jiaxin absolutely hoped that Ye Ying would drop out. Firecrackers were not enough to express her excitement.

"She'll probably drop out. What happened today..." Ye Jian lowered her voice and saw a man with his hands in his pockets. He was wearing a training uniform. "Go find Li Qian and the rest. Let me talk to someone."

She couldn't escape with him standing in front. Moreover, this was the military unit. It was Major Xia's territory.

Chapter 673: I'll Depend On Myself

After seeing that An Jiaxin had left without asking anything, Ye Jian sighed softly and walked towards that tall figure... He was already here in the unit. Where else can she hide?

Xia Jinyuan looked at her walking towards him at a turtle-like speed and glanced at her hands. He then smiled as she moved forward slowly.

His delicate and elegant facial features suddenly had tenderness in them. He didn't move and waited for her to approach. He then deliberately asked, "So slow. Are you tired from the training? Or did you control yourself too much and regretted not doing anything else?"

He had already reached out his hand and clasped her wrist quickly. He was so fast that Ye Jian didn't have the time to react.

It was too late to retract her hands.

Her palm was delicate and white like her skin. It was soft like tofu, and what was supposed to be flawless palm, had several half-crescent scars, imprinted by her fingernails. You could see how hard it was for her to endure.

He rubbed his thumb gently on her palm and sighed, "If I knew you endured so much, I would have let you beat her up and vent your anger."

He was the only one who could see how much Ye Jian had wanted to beat up Ye Ying. And he was the only one who could see how much Ye Jian had suppressed herself. If it was anyone else... they would already have punched her.

"If I can solve problems by beating someone up, I would have countless opportunities to do so." Ye Jian wanted to pull back her hands, but he was already prepared for that. "Captain Xia, this is the military unit, can you pay more attention?"

When encountering something like this, she could never reason with him. He would always be able to make her feel a little helpless.

"Beating people up can vent anger, but it's one of the worst methods to deal with people. Don't use it if you can. Ye Zhifan's daughter has something to worry about now. Be careful when you return to school." He knew that it was the most correct choice to control herself, but he saw the fatigue in her eyes and felt heartbroken.

This Ye Jian had always carried all the problems she had with her own shoulders. It made him helpless too.

His eyes were a little dim, and he said, "How do you plan on solving Ye Ying's affairs completely?"

He wanted to ask what she wanted to do and see if he could do something about it. He did not have a reason to interfere with her life. He understood her. If he did something, she might get more distant from him.

Ye Jian was someone who didn't like to be protected. She liked to achieve things with her own effort. She would never tolerate anything if it comes to principles.

This was a matter between her and Ye Zhifan's family. Even Principal Chen and Uncle Gen didn't step in. Let alone him. He could only ask and obtain her consent before he could act.

Ye Jian didn't shy away from such a topic and smiled, "It's okay to let her worry. I am annoyed. Yesterday, it happened. Today, it happened again. And it happened many times in school. I went to school to study, and enjoy my school days, not to be entangled with her every day."

"Since I am annoyed, I leveraged on the army and taught her a lesson. Now, even if Ye Zhifan wants to do something for his daughter, he will have to worry about the army."

Chapter 674: Heartbroken

It was a good idea to punish Ye Ying using the might of the army. When Ye Zhifan knows about this, he will not be able to do anything no matter how angry he is. He will scold Ye Ying instead!

There was a smile in her eyes, and the fatigue faded away. She slowed down and spoke with satisfaction, "I can't finish her off at once, you know that. My goal is to enlist and to get into the Special Forces. And with the army's capabilities, they will be much stricter during the review."

"If I take any action, it will not be beneficial to me instead. All I can do is to get Ye Ying out of my sight and let me finish my senior high peacefully."

As for the review, Xia Jinyuan naturally considered that. However, if he acted, Ye Ying might disappear faster, and it wouldn't affect her review too.

After contemplating for a while, Xia Jinyuan responded, "I have a few connections, I can help to handle some things."

"You can't be too ruthless against her." Ye Jian understood what he was trying to do, but she still had a piece of jade with Ye Zhifan. The jade was valuable, but it could not be taken back. She was not worried about the jade, but rather, the person behind the jade.

When her mother sacrificed her life, she had that piece of jade on her. During her past life, she asked Ye Zhifan about the jade, but the answer she got was that he lost it.

But now, the jade was still around, and she knew that Ye Zhifan didn't want to return it to her at all. On top of that, Grandpa Gen's attitude towards that made her feel that the person and story behind the jade were not simple.

Xia Jinyuan didn't know about the jade. He understood what Ye Jian meant and understood how to deal with Ye Ying.

It was still necessary for Ye Zhifan's daughter to stay away from his little fox. He had to be cautious about other things, but it was still possible for him to handle such a small thing.

The little fox shouldn't be concerned about Ye Zhifan's family. She was focused on improving her abilities, and the fatigue in her eyes was not because of that family, but because of the training she had.

Xia Jinyuan had absolute love for Ye Jian. Ye Jian was grateful for Principal Chen and Grandpa Gen for nurturing her, and Xia Jinyuan would be the one that brought Ye Jian further. That was because his military journey had just begun. There was enough time for him to hold Ye Jian's hand and walk faster.

He didn't let go of her wrist and took the opportunity to walk together, "Since you don't want to have anything to do with Ye Zhifan's family, it would be the army, the school, and Ye Zhifan's matter. You don't have to bother about it anymore. Go to the infirmary to clean up your wound."

Since she leveraged on the army to deal with Ye Ying, Ye Jian was already thinking of not getting involved with these.

"It's okay. It's just a small wound." Ye Jian saw that he wasn't letting go of her wrist and got flustered, "Captain Xia, let go of my wrist first. We shouldn't let any people see this."

Xia Jinyuan raised his eyebrows, as though he didn't hear anything. "Your wound might be small, but you still need to treat it. You haven't recovered from your wounds in Pakistan and you have already started training. The Head even instructed us to take good care of the brave girl. Go check on your injuries in the infirmary, and I can report to the Head while you're at it."

Chapter 675: I Can't Leave You

Ye Jian was speechless once the Head was brought up.

But how can they be holding hands!

She was already checking out the surroundings with the corner of her eyes. Class One was late, and the other classes were still having dinner. The training ground was rather empty.

The two of them were walking closely together, and even if they held hands, no one would notice them.

"With that small injury, we have the opportunity to speak alone." Seeing that she didn't understand that, Xia Jinyuan laughed and released her hand, "No one would be talking about us. I'm just an instructor accompanying a student to the infirmary."

He didn't expect that although the students' academic performances were not improving, their ability to catch wind of things caught his eye. She still needed to spend two more years in senior high. He had to be cautious. If anyone saw that... it would be another storm that she had to face again.

Ye Jian's eyes flickered and chuckled, "With Captain Xia's capabilities, even if someone talked about it, no one can ever stop you from doing what you want."

"Hmm? Why do I feel a little odd when listening to this? Little Fox, we shouldn't beat around the bush. What do you mean by that?" Xia Jinyuan narrowed his eyes and stared at her. "Tell me what no one can stop me from doing."

A faint smile was revealed in his eyes, and Ye Jian turned her head away subconsciously because of that intensity in his eyes. She didn't notice the teasing in his eyes.

She then saw two students walking over and increased the distance between them while dismissing him, "How would I know what you want to do? Isn't that all classified? Why would I be clear about that?"

"No, you should be very clear. With your intellect, how would you not know what I am trying to do?" This brat is really... She wants to keep a distance from him once she completed her mission. The gap between them was enough for two people to stand!

They had to pay attention during the military training, especially that now the little fox was a dazzling star. There were many people sizing her up, and the two students who walked past her turned around and looked at her.

Here comes the worry, and here comes a little bit of annoyance.

Love letter! It's been less than a month and she was already receiving love letters. It was not just one or two, but countless letters!

Ye Jian didn't know that Major Xia was thinking about love letters. She was still thinking about how to answer his question, and she wanted to find out what he was trying to do by appearing in the chemical defense regiment.

After thinking about it, she simply said, "I don't know, and I don't want to know. So don't ask me about this!"

She must not act according to what he wants. Judging from her past experience, if she wasn't alert, the one who suffers would be her.

It was still the same. Whenever she encountered a sensitive topic, the little fox would immediately retract back into her den. It made him want to tease her again. "Then I won't say it again. The review's tomorrow, right? Will you go back to school after that?"

He asked about her whereabouts, and Ye Jian became more vigilant. She then frowned, "Is there anything that Captain Xia needs from me? We should be heading back to school tomorrow. Who knows? Maybe we might go for a walk."

Chapter 676: So Scared Of Me Sticking To You?

"You're so scared of me sticking to you?" They were only a fist apart, but Xia Jinyuan suddenly leaned over and she could feel his warm breath on her face, "Did you think that I came all the way here from the capital city for you? Is that why you're scared?"

Ye Jian was flustered by his sudden approach, but when she heard that, she gradually calmed down again.

Based on her own understanding of him, the more he spoke about it, the less truthful it was. She was now sure that he came to the chemical defense regiment because he had something on, not because of her. It was different from what she had initially guessed.

Instead of avoiding it, she looked up and smiled, "If I really think so, then can Captain Xia... stay further away from me?"

"That's a bit difficult!" He replied with a slight smile. They were close, and she saw the seriousness in his clear eyes, but it seemed to have other deep meanings. "It took me a few hours to get here. It's difficult for me to report back if I'm too far away from you."

"And Little Fox, I came to the chemical defense regiment but I didn't expect to see you here. Young people tend to think too much. That's not good."

He continued teasing her. He was the fox hunter. Unexpectedly, the little fox, Ye Jian was cunning by nature. If there was even a slight movement, she would be more vigilant and might even sense that something's off.

He understood her well and was able to say such words... It meant that he did not come for her.

If that really was the case, then the dangerous and elegant man would be like a hunter, with enough patience to wait for his prey.

Hearing that, Ye Jian raised her eyebrows, "Looks like I've wronged you, Captain Xia. Sorry about that, I was thinking too much. Please forgive me, Captain Xia. I thought that Captain Xia came here for me. Fortunately, it's not. Now I can rest assured."

She naturally widened their distance and took a few steps back with a sly smile. She then waved at a flustered Xia Jinyuan, "I'll go to the infirmary myself, there's no need to trouble you."

"Captain Xia, thank you for reminding me to change the dressing for my old wound."

She left briskly, leaving Xia Jinyuan behind as he stood there with a smile on his face. She improved!

He wanted to tease her and be that patient hunter. But who knew that the prey has become smart? She managed to foil his plans and fool him... Now she was the one that's teasing him.

Little Fox, when the prey gets smarter, the hunter will have a greater desire to capture it.

Knowing that he had something to do in the chemical defense regiment, Ye Jian was relieved. Now that both of them were in the chemical defense regiment, even if there was something serious, it would not prevent him from coming to her.

Looking at her back, and then at the students who were gradually streaming past, Xia Jinyuan didn't chase her, but smiled softly, "How can we be further apart? Don't forget that our camouflage uniforms are of the same color. That belongs to the army. How can we be far apart?"

After she vanished from his sight, Xia Jinyuan left leisurely. He was a bit hungry. He has to go have dinner first before talking with his little fox about the love letters.

Chapter 677: Love Letters

That's right. Major Xia has been brooding over the love letters!

Ye Jian didn't know that he was still thinking about the love letters. To her, love letters were just like compositions. There was nothing for her to look at. They were all thoughts of some little boys. She was already an adult, and there was no reason why she would be playing with the little boys.

She hurried over to the infirmary and just when she was about to knock on the door, someone opened the door from inside, "I'm telling her parents to come over now. Military Doctor, I have to trouble you to control her."

That was Class Four's form teacher – the teacher in charge of the military training logistics.

Teacher Xiao, who hurriedly opened the door, saw Ye Jian and was taken aback. “Did you hurt yourself? Or are you feeling uncomfortable? It’s messy inside. Go wait outside. I will ask the school’s medical staff to take a look at you.”

Teacher Xiao knew Ye Jian and knew that thanks to Ye Jian, the matter today didn’t blow up. Otherwise, it would be hard for the school to account for the matter to the military unit.

Ye Ying framed her instructor for liking her classmate and even made the political commissar angry. As a teacher who had professional ethics, even she wanted to hit her. “Ye Ying’s parents will be coming over later. Don’t stay in the infirmary for too long.”

She was afraid that her parents would get into a conflict with Ye Jian and reminded her.

Ye Ying thought that the military unit had already sent her away. But it turns out that she was still in the infirmary. Hearing that, she smiled, “I understand, Teacher Xiao. I won’t stay for too long. I’ll leave soon.”

“Okay, you haven’t had your dinner right? After you’re done, hurry back and have your meal.” Every teacher loved good students who didn’t give them any worries. After reminding her, she left hurriedly.

Ye Jian entered the infirmary and saw two soldiers standing beside a sickbed. Ye Ying was lying there with her eyes wide open, blank eyes, and a blank expression. She didn’t make a sound and just stared at the ceiling lifelessly. Her tears flowed down from the corner of her eyes from time to time. It looked... pitiful.

“Hello, Military Doctor. Sorry to interrupt you. There’s an injury on my arm that needs to be checked. I have to trouble you.” Ye Jian took one glance and didn’t pay any attention to her. Ye Ying only had herself to blame for her current situation.

Ye Jian wouldn’t avoid her even if she was there. She took off her camouflage uniform and sat there on the stool with her training shirt.

The military doctor wanted her to wait, but when he saw the gauze on her arm, he instructed the soldiers, “Keep an eye on her. Don’t let her struggle anymore.” No one would dare to touch a student with heart disease.

When Ye Ying was carried into the infirmary, she did nothing else but cry. She didn’t speak. She didn’t make a ruckus. She was so quiet that even the teacher was panicking. After asking the school leader, he went to contact her parents.

As for how she will be dealt with, she will only know once the military training is over.

Not crying or making noise didn’t mean that she wasn’t thinking about anything. While she was staring at the ceiling, thoughts were running wild in her head. She was thinking about the worst outcome that could happen – dropping out. But there were several ways of dropping out of school!

Even if she is going to drop out, she has to do it beautifully!

To drop out because of a bad heart was the best way to do so!

Just as she was thinking about it, she heard the voice that irked her so badly. Her facial expressions came back to life and her eyes became sharp again.

Chapter 678: So What If Don't Agree

Ye Jian never expected Ye Ying to admit defeat and stop attacking her. If Ye Ying was someone who admitted defeat easily, she would have given up in junior high.

When Sun Dongqing kicked up a huge fuss in school in the past, Ye Ying took seven days of leave. She used seven days to adjust her emotions and came back to school after that. This was enough to prove that Ye Ying was a stubborn person who refused to give up.

Her stubbornness kept her from bowing down to Ye Jian. However, her stubbornness couldn't solve the problem now. This time, she lost.

That's right. This time, she lost. But no one knows what will happen in the next round.

Her breathing got heavier. Ye Jian noticed the change and smiled coldly. She knew that Ye Ying wouldn't apologize to her easily. So what?

She didn't need Ye Ying's apology. She just wanted to have a peaceful senior high life!

Major Xia said that he could use his network to do some things secretly... In her past life, she might happily accept his help. This lifetime, she wouldn't. She lived under Ye Ying's shadow for fourteen years. Then, she was forced to run around like a homeless dog. How could she forgive Ye Ying for the fourteen years of torment?

Ye Ying destroyed her past life and even indirectly killed her. This lifetime, everything had changed. There was no need to be impatient. There was still a long time to take her revenge.

Ye Jian knew that currently, she didn't have the power and ability to kill someone without getting discovered. She also knew that she didn't want momentary pleasure.

Ye Ying was still young. Killing her now wouldn't give her a sense of fulfillment. Let's boil the frog slowly. Of course, the main reason for not taking care of her now was because Ye Jian wasn't powerful enough to escape law yet.

It's fine to let Ye Ying torture herself now. Provincial No.1 Middle School was a good school. Many students from there entered the National Science University and the National Arts University every year. Based on Ye Ying's results, she could enter these two top universities in the country. However, she liked to destroy her own future.

Continue torturing yourself. Even if I don't act, you will destroy your own future. Ye Zhifan will have to worry about you.

The military doctor heard Ye Ying's hard breathing too. He inspected Ye Ying and confirmed that she was fine before attending to the injury on Ye Jian's hand.

The military doctor used sterilized hospital scissors to cut the gauze. The wound caused by the bullet was revealed. The military doctor immediately knew what caused this wound. He looked at the student in front of him in astonishment. "How... did you get this injury?"

This was an abrasion caused by a bullet. It was easy to tell the cause of the wound even if scab had formed. It was normal for a soldier to have such an abrasion but why did it appear on a student?

Ye Jian didn't expect the military doctor to know the cause of her wound. Just as she was about to open her mouth, Teacher Xiao walked in with a stern face. Her tone was serious too. "Ye Ying, your parents will come soon. The school has arranged for a teacher to go with you. You can explain yourself when you go back to school."

She continued, "Thank you for your hard work. We'll take over from here. Thank you so much."

Chapter 679: He's Here...

The two soldiers knew that it was unsuitable for them to stay beside the sickbed. The political commissar told them that the teachers and the school would take care of the issue so they saluted to the teacher and left.

After they left, Xia Jinyuan came in. As he walked in with his 1.9-meters tall figure, the space in the infirmary seemed to compress a little.

A familiar smell wafted into her nose. Ye Jian looked up slightly at the man she just shook off. He had come back. For some reason, Ye Jian's body tensed up when she saw him.

However, she believed that he wouldn't say anything that would make Ye Ying suspicious.

After what happened today and yesterday, Ye Ying would know that she had changed. This change caused Ye Jian to be ahead of Ye Ying so she would definitely tell Ye Zhifan.

What would Ye Zhifan do when he knew this? He would investigate Ye Jian. He would ask Ye Ying to recall everything she knows about Ye Jian and tell him. He would try to find clues within them.

She wasn't afraid of Ye Zhifan. Even if he knew her relationship with the military unit, she didn't mind. She just didn't want to implicate Xia Jinyuan.

This was a family matter between her and Ye Zhifan. She didn't want other people to be affected.

She raised her head and looked at him casually. Then, she glanced towards Ye Ying's direction. She knew that he wouldn't say anything but she still wanted to remind him.

Xia Jinyuan thought that Ye Jian wouldn't even look at him. As she did, the corners of his lips moved up slightly. He walked towards Ye Jian and looked at her arm.

It was red and swollen but the injury wasn't serious.

“Doctor, can I have a bottle of iodine?” He retracted his gaze almost immediately and didn’t probe further. After taking the bottle, he walked over to the military doctor and asked, “There’s only new bottles. Are there any used ones?”

Iodine was commonly used by the soldiers. The military doctor took a half-empty bottle of iodine from the shelf beside him. “This is half-empty. Please take the cotton buds yourself.” Then, the military doctor saw the major patting the shoulders of the female student lightly.

This simple action explained why Ye Jian received that injury. Since Ye Ying was present, Xia Jinyuan couldn’t say everything. He thought that the military doctor might ask Ye Jian about her wound so he came back.

Ye Jian saw his action and understood that he was explaining to the military doctor about her injury.

They were very close to each other. His hand didn’t move for a long time. The heat from his hand passed through her clothes to her skin. It felt a little hot.

Ye Jian was sitting upright like a real soldier. She heard Xia Jinyuan’s deep and powerful voice coming from above her head. “This can be used for normal abrasions, right?”

Special Forces soldiers who came from the Xueyu unit knew some medical knowledge. Thus, it was obvious there was a reason why he asked this. Ye Jian knew what his reason was. She pursed her lips.

He stood so close to her and his hand was still on her shoulder. Now, he asked something he already knew. Ye Jian knew his intention but she couldn’t avoid it. The military doctor and Ye Ying were still around. She could only accept it helplessly.

The military doctor didn’t suspect anything. He thought that the major was helping the young lady to ask if she could use iodine to treat her injury after she leaves the military unit. Thus, he smiled and replied, “Of course. There’s no need to be nervous. Young people have a good recovery system so small injuries heal quickly. You can apply iodine on your wound daily.”

Chapter 680: You Need To Be Mentally Prepared

“I understand. Thank you.” A smile finally appeared on Xia Jinyuan’s indifferent face. He knew how uncomfortable Ye Jian was so he moved his hand away.

It was a sudden contact and a sudden departure. Ye Jian suddenly felt a huge sense of relief. The air was filled with the mint smell from his body but she couldn’t care about it now. She took a deep breath silently.

At this moment, Ye Jian suddenly realized that it was more difficult to interact with this dangerous man with other people around.

As for that half-empty bottle of iodine, Xia Jinyuan didn’t take it. He took the new bottle and left. Before he left, he smiled elegantly at Ye Jian.

The military doctor didn’t sense anything amiss. He just thought that the major was taking care of Ye Jian. “He’s quite thoughtful. Give me your hand. We’ll clean the wound first.”

There was nothing Ye Jian could say. Xia Jinyuan was always able to let other people believe that he was doing a good thing when in fact, he was doing something bad.

Since it was a work-related injury, the military doctor didn't probe further. He used saline to clean the wound carefully and found a small pustule. Military doctors were always cautious when attending to wounds caused by bullets.

After covering the wound with gauze, the doctor said softly, "It's not a big wound but there might be a scar. You need to be mentally prepared."

The scar wouldn't be as big as the one on her back. Ye Jian wore her uniform and smiled at the doctor. "No problem. Thank you. I'll come and find you again tomorrow."

After Teacher Xiao told Ye Ying that her parents would be reaching soon, she walked towards Ye Jian. "When did you get hurt? None of the teachers knew that you were hurt."

"I didn't get hurt during the military training. I injured myself accidentally. The wound is a little inflamed so I came to find the military doctor," Ye Jian smiled as she explained. After what happened during the past two days, all the teachers in the military unit probably knew who she was.

Teacher Xiao heaved a sigh of relief when she knew that Ye Jian wasn't injured during military training. Then, she inquired about her injury.

"It's not a big problem. The inflammation isn't serious. She will be able to recover within five days." The military doctor wouldn't tell the teacher the real cause of the injury. Possession of guns needed to be authorized by the government. Since Ye Jian was injured due to work, the military doctor would help her hide the truth. "It's not serious. It became inflamed because she didn't take care of it at the start. She just needs to change her gauze again tomorrow."

"After that, she can take the gauze off three to five days later and apply iodine on the wound daily."

Teacher Xiao was relieved after hearing the doctor's answer. Ye Jian was an important student. She mustn't be careless. She spoke to Ye Jian kindly, "Take good care of yourself. If you need anything, you can look for me. Hurry up and have your meal. Have a good rest today. You need to wake up early tomorrow."

Ye Ying felt a little angry when she heard this. Teacher Xiao didn't comfort her even though she was lying on the sickbed. Yet, she worried so much about Ye Jian when her injury wasn't even gotten during the military training.

"Teacher Xiao, I want to take a walk outside. I feel uncomfortable lying down." She was fine anyway. She just wanted to escape so she came to the infirmary and laid on the bed. After Ye Ying finished speaking, she placed her hands beside her and prepared to get up.

Teacher Xiao knew that she had a conflict with Ye Jian at the shooting range so her face turned black. "Where do you want to go? I'll accompany you."
