Chapter 851 Threatening Jack to Kill Himself by Taking Amber as a Hostage

The hoarse voice rang out in the bamboo forest loudly.

Both Iga TobiRyuu and the two Ninja Lords frowned and looked in the direction where the voice came from in shock.

The person was able to throw a sword towards them until the sword inside Iga TobiRyuu's hand was shaken off his hand.

This was too shocking!

"Young Master, we're here!"

Brent's voice rang out.

At the same time, Jack saw a figure running towards him.

The two Ninja Lords were about to block the person at once.

However, the Mysterious Man let out a hoarse and cold voice.

"Who dares to move?"

The two Ninja Lords were stunned for a moment.

When they regained their consciousness, Brent had already passed by the two of them and stood in front of Jack.

“Young Master, this is for you!”

Brent handed one of the two samurai long swords in his hand to Jack.

“You’re here just in time!”

Jack smiled faintly and took the long sword with a smile. He displayed a look as if he wanted to kill someone.

He had a long sword and a short sword. In a battle, a long sword and a short sword had different functions. The long sword was used to attack the enemy while the short sword was used to defend himself.

It was considered amazing as he could fight with Iga TobiRyuu with a short sword that was used to defend himself.

Now that he had a weapon, and the Mysterious Man and Brent also arrived at the scene. Everything happened as he had expected at the beginning.

Jack raised his head, looking at Iga TobiRyuu coldly as if he was a bloodthirsty beast.

“Iga TobiRyuu, it is now a duel between us again!”

Jack teased Iga TobiRyuu playfully.

This made Iga TobiRyuu narrowed his eyes, and the corners of his eyes pulsed frantically.

He felt angry, remorseful as well as regretful in an instant.

“The bunch of Ninja Masters was bastards!”

Iga TobiRyuu gritted his teeth and said angrily.

He shouldn't underestimate his enemy until the reinforcements arrive at the scene.

He also cursed the bunch of Ninja Masters furiously.

If they could delay their battle for a little longer, he would not need to face such an impasse.

He took a deep breath.

He tried to suppress the mixed emotions in his heart. He gripped the hilt of the long samurai sword stuck in the ground using his right hand as if his right hand was not injured.

“Iga TobiRyuu, you are to blame for the failure of this operation.”

A Ninja Lord scolded Iga TobiRyuu angrily.

“Hehe...”

Iga TobiRyuu smiled and said, "Yes, I am the one to blame. I will complete this mission perfectly. I will make Iga Clan which cultivated me proud. I will also not disappoint God who bestowed good luck on me..."

As soon as he said these words, Jack and Brent looked at each other. They looked puzzled.

They were going to have a 3-on-3 battle. Even if he, Brent, and the Mysterious Man were all injured and weakened a bit, Jack thought that they would not be defeated and killed by the three top Ninja Lords.

The best evidence which could validate his statement was that the long sword thrown by the Mysterious Man at the critical moment was able to shake off the long sword in Iga TobiRyuu's hand.

It was true that the Mysterious Man did not have his full strength now.

But he could still defeat them.

At that moment, Iga TobiRyuu suddenly said firmly, "Retreat!"

Bang, bang, bang!

The three Ninja Lords threw their smoke bombs in front of them almost at the same time.

Smoke rose abruptly from the area beneath their feet. In an instant, it was even more difficult for Jack and the others to find them as the bamboo forest was very dark.

“They retreated?”

Brent frowned and said in confusion.

“Didn’t Iga TobiRyuu say he wanted to complete the mission perfectly?”

Jack was also puzzled. Frowning, he pondered for a moment, “Something is not right...”

He tried to figure out what was going on for a moment.

He felt that Iga TobiRyuu’s action was really strange.

He thought that it was very strange that the two Ninja Lords immediately understood Iga TobiRyuu’s words and immediately retreated after they complained about Iga TobiRyuu’s misbehaviour.

This...

However, at this time, a figure quickly ran towards them not far away in the smoke.

They heard the Mysterious Man’s hoarse voice, “They have retreated.”

“Go back first.” Jack and Brent glanced at each other. Then, Jack led them to head towards the courtyard in the bamboo forest.

The Mysterious Man and Brent quickly followed him.

But just as Jack took his third step towards the courtyard, he was stunned for a moment.

His face which looked relieved just now suddenly displayed a grim look of panic.

“Oh no! Amber is in danger!”

After he shouted in shock, he rushed towards the small courtyard in the bamboo forest at a high speed like a madman.

The Mysterious Man and Brent also looked cold as they realised what was going on immediately.

They realised why Iga TobiRyuu’s acts belied his words.

Now that the three Ninja Lords had retreated at the same time, it was indeed the best way to protect themselves.

However, it was very strange as the three Ninja Lords retreated after Iga TobiRyuu said he would complete the mission perfectly.

If the battlefield was shifted back to the courtyard in the bamboo forest. Iga TobiRyuu could complete the mission perfectly if he took Amber as a hostage.

Both the Mysterious Man and Brent knew that Amber was the apple of Jack's eyes!

They thought that their enemies might threaten Jack to kill himself by taking Amber as a hostage and Jack might really choose to do so.

"I hope such a thing won't happen, or else it would be a mishap!"

Brent was extremely anxious as he ran towards the courtyard, "Luckily, Mr. Ward and Daisy are in the courtyard. I hope..."

He was so anxious that he even didn't finish his words.

Mr. Ward and Daisy stayed in the courtyard.

It was to protect Amber.

However, the main reason was that just now the Mysterious Man and Brent felt that they suffered from injuries. They forced them to rest in the courtyard as it wasn't so appropriate for them who suffered from injuries to involve in fights with Iga TobiRyuu.

It was true that the two of them were able to fight with the three top Ninja Lords. However, they were now suffering from injuries and it was impossible for them to protect Amber!

"If that's the case, perhaps..."

The Mysterious Man murmured in a hoarse a low voice. He did not finish his words, just like Brent.

In the bamboo forest, it was silent and eerie.

Jack held the two swords in his hands and quickly rushed towards the courtyard as if he had gone mad.

At this moment, it seemed like he was not injured at all.

He displayed a cold and stern aura.

He was very worried about Amber's safety as he rushed towards the courtyard.

Even the Mysterious Man and Brent looked extremely worried as they followed him.

But at the same time, they were very worried.

Finally, a light appeared in Jack's vision. He could see the courtyard in the bamboo forest becoming clearer.

At the open space outside the courtyard.

Now, the fighting had come to an end. People were lying on the ground, wailing with pain.

The few Ninja Masters were also injured heavily. They were surrounded by many people led by Lone Wolf.

Jack didn't pay attention to the melee in front of him.

He only rushed into the courtyard with a grim expression.

The air was filled with the smell of blood at that time.

However, as there was a melee which made many people injured happening outside the courtyard,

Jack also couldn't distinguish whether the smell of blood was wafting in from the outside or lingering inside the courtyard.

Inside the courtyard, it was messy.

However, there was no person in the hall.

But just as he rushed into the hall, he heard a "bang" sound.

A large, bloodstained, wrinkled hand suddenly grabbed the door frame of the hall.

Looking at the scene, Jack felt desperate on the spot.

Then, he gazed anxiously at Mr. Ward, whose face was covered in blood. Mr. Ward slowly poked his head out from the door, displaying a look as if he was in pain.

When he saw Jack, he wailed in pain, "Young Master, Mrs. Hughes..."

Kaboom!

Listening to the words said by Mr. Ward who was wailing in pain, it was like a bolt from the blue, making Jack felt desperate and hopeless.

Chapter 852 If I Become Crazy, what Can Buddha Do to Me?

Wham!

After running frantically, Jack's body trembled suddenly and he knelt on the ground abruptly as if his legs were filled with lead and became very heavy.

In an instant, he felt very dizzy.

He also felt extremely depressed as if his chest cavity was stuffed with countless stones.

Jack stood still and at this moment, his gaze was cold as he stared at Mr. Ward who was gradually climbing up from the doorway.

However, his expression turned gloomy gradually.

He became tensed up and had a shiver run down his spines.

When the Mysterious Man and Brent reached the scene, they felt desperate too when they realized what was going on.

Oh shit!

They were down in the dumps when they saw Jack kneeling in the middle of the courtyard.

Everything was happening in the worst possible direction.

Even they were away from Jack for a few meters, the Mysterious Man and Brent still could sense the increasing chilling aura displayed by Jack.

“Mr. Ward...”

When Brent saw Mr. Ward, his face turned pale instantly.

The Mysterious Man, however, tugged at Brent, “We should ensure Jack is safe first!”

Brent was stunned in an instant.

He felt very upset after hearing the Mysterious Man’s words.

Was the Mysterious Man asking him to ignore Mr. Ward?

As Brent was still hesitating what he should do, the Mysterious Man whispered to him in a deep voice, “Bewitchedness”.

Kaboom!

Brent’s expression changed abruptly. In an instant, he even looked pale.

He looked like he was very afraid of something.

Yes!

Now the worst possible things that might end the mission was not just that Iga TobiRyuu threatening

Jack to kill himself by taking Amber as a hostage, but also Jack might activate his Bewitchedness.

Amber was the apple of Jack's eyes and Jack treated her life as more important than himself.

Taking Amber as a hostage to threaten Jack might cause him to kill himself willingly, or even cause

Jack to go mad immediately.

However, the two endings were so atrocious.

"Daisy, they..."

Mr. Ward was very weak as if he was on the verge of death. He rested his head on the doorway of the hall, blaming himself while trying to breathe hard, "It's my fault. I didn't protect Mrs. Hughes well. It's..."

However, before Mr. Ward finished his words, there was a loud 'bang' sound in the hall.

There was a silhouette in the hall flying out of the hall suddenly. She passed through Mr. Ward who was lying at the doorway and flew directly towards the outside.

“Daisy!”

Brent let out a roar. He violently broke free from the Mysterious Man. He rushed forward as quick as lightning towards Daisy which were thrown out into his arms.

At this time, Daisy was already unconscious, and her body was still dripping with blood as she was attacked by the enemy with swords.

Brent turned furious as he held Daisy who was unconscious in his arms as if he were a raging beast.

Meanwhile, Jack also looked coldly at Daisy in Brent’s arms.

“Ms. Hill...”

Jack shouted in a low voice, but when the voice came out of his mouth, it caused the Mysterious Man behind him to have his hair stand on end.

His voice at the time was indescribable as if it wasn’t come out of a human’s mouth.

With that, Jack displayed a sense of majestic coldness.

The Mysterious Man who could feel the coldness coming over him clenched his hands into fists. His eyes displayed a fearful and panicked look.

At this moment, he could only see Jack in front of him. In a trance, he felt like there was a pool of blood in front of him. It was red and there were skeletons in it. Jack... was standing in the middle of the pool of blood and white bones.

Brent could feel the same as he held Daisy who was unconscious in his arms.

Jack who was Mercenary displayed a powerful aura as if he was Killer God.

They felt like they were powerless like ants facing Jack.

They felt terrified and uneasy watching him.

“Young Master!”

“Jack!”

Brent and the Mysterious Man spoke firmly in unison.

At this time, even Mr. Ward who was lying on the threshold of the hall with his face in blood also seemed to have forgotten the pain all over his body as he stared at Jack with horror and terror in his eyes.

He remembered something suddenly and he also wanted to shout at Jack so that Jack could regain his consciousness. However, he was too badly injured until he could not make a sound despite using all his strength.

“No one could stop me!”

Jack finally lifted his right foot once again and took a step forward. Then, he walked towards the hall determinedly.

As he walked forward, the Mysterious Man and Brent felt like it was a pool of blood and skeletons moving.

The chilling aura displayed by Jack surrounded the entire courtyard in the bamboo forest.

As Jack moved forward, his eyes which displayed a cold look were moving constantly.

Meanwhile, he always maintained an extreme coldness on his face.

“Jack!”

The Mysterious Man quickly strode forward and raised his hand to grab Jack’s left wrist.

However, there was a “kaboom” sound as his hand was broken free from Jack’s wrist.

He could feel a sharp stab of pain from the center of his right hand. His heart throbbed for a moment.

Even if he was always calm and cool, he looked fearful and panicked at this moment.

At this time, a teasing laugh came from the hall, “Sorry, Jack. You are still too late to come back here.”

The Mysterious Man and Brent looked in the direction the laugh came from at the same time.

In the hall, Iga TobiRyuu was holding his katana around Amber's neck and escorting her into the door of the hall.

He didn't care about Mr. Ward who was lying at the doorway at all.

At this moment, Amber's stunning face was filled with fear and trepidation. Her delicate body was trembling.

The moment she saw Jack, she wailed in a piteous voice, "Darling, save me..."

The Mysterious Man frowned as he listened to her shout.

He was well aware of Jack's current state, so he knew even better that Amber's piteous wail would add fuel to the fire!

However, Jack who was striding forward slowly spoke something before the Mysterious Man said anything, "I will!"

He didn't stop but stride forward with a majestic aura. He walked firmly towards Amber and Iga TobiRyuu.

“Don’t move!”

Iga TobiRyuu was instantly confused as he was taking Amber as a hostage to threaten Jack to kill himself.

But now Jack’s reaction was different from what he had expected.

Jack simply did not give him the chance to threaten him!

When he heard Jack’s shout, Iga TobiRyuu even gripped the katana in his hand harder.

In an instant, Amber’s pale and stunning face revealed a look of pain as she let out a soft grunt and her delicate body trembled even more.

On her snow-white and slender neck where the katana was placed, there was a trace of blood at this moment.

“Oh shit!”

Seeing this scene, Brent and the Mysterious Man cried out inwardly.

They really wanted to stop the mishap from happening but they were not powerful enough to do so.

“You...have made my woman bleed!”

Jack was still striding forward. His eyes were moving constantly as if he was mad.

His voice was indescribable as if it was a woozy Sanskrit and echoed in everyone's ears.

The Mysterious Man could not help but shout sternly.

"Jack, haven't you read all the Buddhist scripture "Tao Te Ching"?"

"If I become crazy, what can Buddha do to me?"

Jack smiled...

Chapter 853 Death Is Right In Front Of Him!

Blatant arrogance and unparalleled tyranny.

At that moment, even the mysterious man was tensed and his hair stood on end. Even Brent, Mr.

Ward, and Amber were stunned. Iga TobiRyuu was equally shocked!

The next moment, Jack turned around and grinned sinisterly. His eyes were piercing as they locked onto the mysterious man and paused. The mysterious man shuddered when he realized that Jack was staring at him. A chill ran down his spine as Jack stared into his eyes. He felt as if the tide had turned and he was about to be thrown into the depths of a chasm by Jack. Boundless fear and dread could not even overcome the panic that he was feeling.

"You spend so much time believing in something all because of seeking peace, wishes fulfilled, and love. If after so long your needs were not fulfilled, then why continue to believe?”

Jack's sinister grin pierced right into the mysterious man's heart and continued to say, “If it can't give you peace, can't fulfill your wishes and defend your love, then what is it good for?”

The mysterious man's lips quivered as he wanted to banter and respond but he felt as though Jack was pressing him down with an enormous formless hand. He felt so stifled that he could not even speak.

“Don't you think? Senior?” Jack smiled sinisterly as he slowly turned his head. Both the mysterious man and Brent could see clearly that Jack's eyes became bloodshot and ... the veins on his face started to swell and throb.

“Jack!”

“Master!” Both the mysterious man and Brent were terrified and yelled.

But Jack lowered his head as he turned and continued to walk forward without a care.

“You, stop right there!” Iga TobiRyuu was unnerved and unsettled. He did not know what happened to Jack physically but as a Ninja Lord, he had attained a superhuman level of capabilities and his senses were extraordinary. Hence, he was able to sense... that Jack had a physical transformation. He could feel a terrifying dread that continued to rise leading Iga TobiRyuu to feel horrified and shocked...

Jack did not stop and continued forward.

“Stop, Jack, stop right there!” Iga TobiRyuu held the katana to Amber’s neck. He took no notice of Amber’s wails and even dragged her backward a step.

This entire scene seemed laughable for the hostage-taker to be fearful of the person he was threatening. But now, Iga TobiRyuu seemed to be terrified of Jack.

“Take another step and I will kill your wife!” Iga TobiRyuu roared as he tried his best to conceal his fears. He endeavored to put up a brave front and control his desire to flee. His voice echoed in the dark bamboo forest.

Clink clank...

Jack released his katana and the sword fell to the ground. Iga TobiRyuu was relieved when he saw that. So long as Jack was not armed and he had Amber as a hostage, Jack seemed less of a threat even if he had some physical transformation.

Iga TobiRyuu continued to look at the advancing Jack with his eyes wide open. He mentally overcame his fears of Jack and demanded, “If you want your wife to live, then you will have to die!”

“This is the task of the Iga Clan. Even if I, Iga TobiRyuu, die today, I will also ensure that you will not live a moment longer.”

“Stop, stop right there! Fuck! I’ll kill your wife if you take another step!”

...

He kept demanding and threatening but could not prevent Jack’s advance.

The mysterious man and Brent looked frostily at Iga TobiRyuu and the mysterious man sighed, “You’re asking for your own death...”

At this point, the mysterious man felt that Jack was just a step away from killing Iga TobiRyuu. Yet, Iga TobiRyuu did not realize that the more he threatened Jack, he was actually assuring his own death.

The bamboo forest courtyard was filled with Amber’s cries for Jack to save her and Iga TobiRyuu’s frantic attempts to threaten Jack. Except that all these were unsuccessful in stopping Jack’s slow but steady advance.

The fighting outside the bamboo forest courtyard had ended and the surrounding seemed peaceful.

Lone Wolf now rushed towards the entrance of the courtyard with dozens of guards. He knew that something had happened in the courtyard and wanted to help. However, Lone Wolf was startled when he saw the situation in the courtyard. He quickly ordered the guards to block the entrance to prevent any more people from seeing that Jack was not crippled.

“Damn it, I deserve to die!” Lone Wolf suddenly realized that he had failed in his duties to protect Jack.

But now, what was happening in the courtyard hit him in the face like a sledgehammer. He now knew that he had utterly failed in his duties.

“Fuck!” Iga TobiRyuu yelled.

Now Jack finally stopped but he was now no more than three steps away from Iga TobiRyuu and Amber.

“Hubby... oh oh my... save me... I, I don't want to die...” Amber was beyond terrified, her eyes were swollen and her voice was raspy from all the crying and screaming.

“Jack, you must die for your wife to live!” Iga TobiRyuu threatened again as he was sweating profusely.

“Disgusting...” Jack declared as he still looked down.

Iga TobiRyuu was already terrified by Jack's transformation but his pupils constricted when he heard what Jack said. The Iga Clan was revered in the world of Ninjas. It was indeed disgusting that he had to resort to threatening a woman in order to kill his target. It was a huge embarrassment to the Ninjas, the Iga Clan, and to him!

Just as he was contemplating his deeds, Jack finally... raised his head.

When those fearsome eyes looked towards Amber...

“Argh!” A terrifying scream shattered the tranquility in the courtyard. Even Iga TobiRyuu was started by the horrifying scream. When he looked towards Jack, he could finally see Jack’s face.

Iga TobiRyuu shuddered in fear and his senses were overwhelmed. He had never felt the presence of death. But now, with Jack right in front of him and the appearance of Jack, Iga TobiRyuu felt as if...

death was standing right in front of him.

Chapter 854 Terrifying Power Of Insane Devil

Time seemed to stop and the air was sucked away. The sudden chill was as if the doors to hell suddenly opened. Death, gore, violence...

This was what Iga TobiRyuu actually felt when he faced Jack. He had never felt the presence of death.

Jack’s face was pale and frosty, without the usual warmth of a person. The veins of his face swelled and throbbed all the way to his neck. His eyes also became bloodshot. Jack was grinning sinisterly.

“Die...” Jack slowly said with an indescribable voice that reverberated within the courtyard and exploded in everyone's ears.

"Argh!" Now it was Iga TobiRyuu who could not help but yelled. In his anxiety, Iga TobiRyuu's right hand still held onto the katana and almost cut into Amber's throat.

Then, swoosh! Like a swift breeze.

Jack moved like a flash and rushed forward to Amber and Iga TobiRyuu.

Bash! Quick as lightning, Jack's right hand grabbed the blade of the katana and stopped it from getting any closer to Amber's throat. The sharp blade easily cut into Jack's hand and blood squirted onto Amber's face and dripped onto the ground.

That was fast! The mysterious man and Brent were both in awe.

Although Jack was only three steps away from Iga TobiRyuu, the katana blade was even closer to Amber's neck. Even the mysterious man was unsure if he could stop Iga TobiRyuu's blade.

This situation was truly amazing! The swift movement of Jack even caused their clothes to flutter in the gust stirred up by Jack.

Amber could feel and smell the warm blood on her face as she stared blankly at Jack. Jack's ferocious expression was cold and devoid of emotions. It appeared that he could not even feel the pain.

“Fuck!” Iga TobiRyuu yelled with his eyes wide open and his right hand grabbed the katana and tried to shake it free from Jack’s grip. But no matter how he tried, his blade was firmly held by Jack and he could not harm Amber.

Die! He deserved to die!

Iga TobiRyuu thought. He was a Ninja lord and he could not even shake free someone holding onto his katana.

The sword blade was right next to Amber’s neck but now it could not even move a single bid.

Horror, shock... All these feelings overwhelmed Iga TobiRyuu and caused him, a Ninja Lord, to lose all confidence in himself! He had never felt like this for years.

No! From the moment he entered the world of martial arts, he advanced rapidly and he had faced dangerous situations but he had never experienced such a feeling. The horror of seeing death’s face engulfed Iga TobiRyuu.

“Die...” Jack frowned as he maintained that sinister grin and his eyes still stared directly at Iga TobiRyuu.

As soon as Jack said, swoosh! Jack's left hand launched towards Iga TobiRyuu.

Fast! It was lightning fast! It was so fast that Jack's hand was a blur.

Bash! Jack's fist stopped at Iga TobiRyuu's chin. Following the sound of the impact, Iga TobiRyuu released his katana and he flew away from Jack.

"Master!"

"What a violent punch! Was this... the terrifying power of an insane devil?" Brent remarked as he and the mysterious man stared in disbelief.

Lone Wolf and the dozens of guards were completely dumbfounded. Could that kind of energy come from a man? All of them shared the same thoughts!

Amber went limp and slumped onto the ground as soon as Iga TobiRyuu was thrown off. Amber's face was pale and frail and covered with Jack's blood. She also stared in disbelief at Jack.

Next, Jack stepped over Amber and was fixated on the fallen Iga TobiRyuu.

A step... at a time... He advanced like death creeping nearer to Iga TobiRyuu.

The atmosphere of the courtyard immediately tensed up and everyone was gripped with fear.

“How... how...” Iga TobiRyuu tried to get onto his feet but that punch was like a sledgehammer that shattered his jawbone into several pieces. His mind was blank and he was starting to lose consciousness.

After struggling for a moment, Iga TobiRyuu finally sat on the ground. He mustered all his energy and then asked in disbelief, “How, how could your strength be... enhanced...” Towards the end, he was at a loss for words to describe Jack’s strength.

Just now, he could fight evenly with Jack. But how was it that suddenly Jack managed to transform and he was now barely a match for Jack’s strength! The drastic difference in strength level made him feel helpless and hopeless as he started to become overwhelmed by the pain. All these totally exceeded Iga TobiRyuu’s understanding of the physical world!

He looked at the advancing Jack and his heartbeat began to race. He could feel death approaching him but he was totally helpless.

The sudden changes made him give up trying to stand up, not to mention trying to escape.

Finally, Jack stood in front of Iga TobiRyuu. His sinister grin became even more pronounced and revealed his gnarling teeth. Jack said with a gnarl that only Iga TobiRyuu could hear, “Let me... try?”

Instantly Iga TobiRyuu was terrified and erupted in shock.

Try? Try what?

Chapter 855 A Lightning Speed, Arisen of The Devil

Iga TobiRyuu's body felt like burning all over.

He was in tremendous fright yet, forgot to defend or to escape.

Like what happened in the natural world where a goat trembled and frozen out of fear when approached by a predator, Iga TobiRyuu behaved the exact same way.

The next second.

Crunch... Crunch...

Jack's body trembled and moved slowly.

His body created sounds of bones cracking.

"This..."

The Mysterious Man's eyes widened and let out a sigh in awe.

While Brent's expression who was embracing Daisy changed, "Control... He can control all his muscles in all aspects!"

Brent looked like he saw a ghost when he shouted out the words.

He was in extreme fright as well at this very moment.

There were tons of muscles in a human body, it was beyond reach if one could train its muscles until this stage.

If he could control all the muscles...

Muscles control was one way to recover when a fighter reached a dead end, this enabled the muscles to perform even better and stronger.

If one was able to take full control of all the muscles... The power was no longer doubled, but much more!

Even the Mysterious Man or Brent couldn't predict the power of Jack once he mastered the art of muscles controlling.

So this was the ultimate power after Bewitchedness?

No, this was not human power, it was... Power of the devil!

Shivers filled Brent and Mysterious Man's body, they were extremely frightened now.

While in the house.

Amber heard the sound of “crunches”, she began to gain consciousness.

She whispered, “Jack...”

“Mrs Hughes!”

Mr Ward who was leaning against the door frame shouted with a low voice, “Young Master is no longer himself...”

Amber looked at Mr Ward in bewilderment.

Mr Ward on the other hand instructed her to keep quiet and looked at Jack terrifyingly.

No one could predict Jack’s next move!

The next second.

Bang!

Jack’s body trembled along with an explosive sound.

This heavy trembled created winds under his feet and the end of his trousers danced in the winds.

While everyone was still shocked, Jack raised his right leg and hit the ground.

Boom!

Another sound of an explosion.

This kick cracked the cement underneath and formed a spider web pattern.

Without delayed, Jack raised his right leg again and this time it landed on Iga TobiRyuu who fell sitting on the ground.

He flew into the air under the witness of everyone there.

Jack was like the controller of the time, everything seemed to happen in slow motion.

A storm arose the same time as Iga TobiRyuu flew into the air.

Jack moved towards Iga TobiRyuu at lightning speed.

He then hit Iga TobiRyuu on the back with his right hand.

Boom!

Sounded like an explosion caused by lightning.

Iga TobiRyuu who was about to land flew into the air again with this hit.

While he was in the air, Jack had once again appeared on the spot where he was about to land.

Boom!

Boom!

Boom!

Sounded repeatedly in the hall while Jack's body moved swiftly into Iga TobiRyuu's landing spot each time before he even landed and threw him back into the air.

It was a scene that could only be seen in a movie with special effects.

However, it happened right before their eyes for real.

Amber was astonished, Mr Ward too.

Lone Wolf and all the guards at the entrance were astonished too.

Even Mysterious Man and Brent were in tremendous fright.

Mysterious Man's body trembled to look at what was happening before his eyes.

He couldn't control his trembling lips, "A lightning speed, arisen of the devil, it kills without mercy this...

Is the real massacre!"

A chill travelled down Brent's spine listening to Mysterious Man, he swallowed his saliva.

Looking at what was happening in the hall, not only Brent was terrified he was also thinking about if he was the one fighting Jack now, would he be able to survive?

But the result demolished all his hope.

When one was thrown into the air, half of the energy was gone and he would only turn into a sandbag.

Apart from getting hit repeatedly until dead, there was no other way!

The only hope... The only hope was... To die faster?

Jack let out a huge roar to the sky in the middle of the hall.

All his veins in his face popped, he looked venomous, like a predator ready for a massacre.

And Iga TobiRyuu was seen landing, but Jack didn't hit him this time.

Instead, he kicked the ground with both his feet and threw himself into the air.

While he was in the air, the muscles of his right hand created cracking sounds that terrified every listener, and then he threw a punch on Iga TobiRyuu's stomach.

Bam!

Iga TobiRyuu was hit directly onto the ground, Jack landed along.

The ground cracked open created clouds of dust surrounded them.

Everyone experienced a short while of an earthquake.

The clouds of dust flew all over the place, there were even drops of blood falling like rain.

And then the whole yard was filled with silence.

Clouds of dust were still settling slowly.

And every single pair of eyes were locked on what happened in the middle of the clouds of dust.

At this very moment, none of them was courageous enough to take a breath, all of them were frozen.

There was a small pit seen in the middle of the clouds of dust.

While Jack squatted beside the pit with his right fist aimed at the pit.

Iga TobiRyu's body was inside the pit.

But they couldn't see clearly due to the distance.

And then Jack was seen standing up slowly with his right fist retrieved from the pit.

All they saw was blood dripping from Jack's right fist.

It startled everyone at the scene.

"Huh!"

An evil smile was seen on Jack's vicious face.

He swung the blood on his hand onto the ground and swept a glance at everyone in the hall.

A simple “huh” from Jack sounded like thunder, terrifying everyone.

Rustle...

A light rustle sound was heard when Jack was sweeping his glance.

It turned him into a beast again in an instant.

He turned his head in a direction and smiled evilly. “There’s... More...”

Chapter 856 Slaughtering Lord Ninjas in Second!

While he spoke, he jumped out from the window in the hall and rushed towards the bamboo woods in a flash.

In the yard.

The tremendous pressured and terrifying atmosphere in the yard vanished with Jack’s departure.

Everyone let out a sigh of relief.

“There’s more?”

Mysterious Man realized something and said, “The two Ninja Lords didn’t leave.”

He quickly rushed towards the wall in between the wood and hall and jumped over it with two kicks.

He yelled at the same time. “Brent, come with me, Lone Wolf take care of the rest!”

Brent turned serious. He couldn't think much but to put down Daisy in his arms slowly and followed.

Lone Wolf was back to action too in the meantime.

He ordered the guards at the entrance to keep everything in order and ordered a few of them to follow him.

In the middle of the night, the bamboo wood was quiet and creepy.

Winds slipping through the bamboo leaves creating a nonstop rustling sound.

Two dark figures were seen moving rapidly in the middle of the wood.

They communicated in Japanese while moving speedily.

They were the Lord Ninja!

They didn't leave right after separation from Iga TobiRyuu. They stayed ambushed around the yard knowing Iga TobiRyuu's plan.

Iga TobiRyuu knew about this too.

But everything started with Iga TobiRyuu, hence, he faced them alone while the two of them stayed hidden, monitoring the situation.

But none of them expected that Iga TobiRyuu's plan to sacrifice himself and threatened Jack by holding Amber hostage would fail. The whole thing took a dramatic twist.

The Lord Ninjas were terrified of what they witnessed in the yard too.

Despite they were all Lord Ninja, but there was still a slight difference in their capabilities.

Amongst the three, Iga TobiRyuu was top and they were both slightly weaker than him.

However strong he was, Iga TobiRyuu was murdered by Jack at the end.

The scene of bloodshed was still playing in their heads now.

They had never thought that a Lord Ninja could felt as tiny as an ant like now!

Boom...Boom...Boom...

Strong winds blew from behind out of a sudden.

It sounded like a predator was on the move hunting for its prey.

Both of the Lord Ninja skipped a heartbeat hearing the sound, they increased their speed.

They looked back almost simultaneously and saw a dark figure coming towards them at an indescribable speed.

What they saw put them in tremendous fright and the fear of death arose.

“Fuck!”

They cursed at the same time.

They immediately took out the smoke bomb and threw it around them.

Bang Bang Bang...

Smoke bombs exploding one after another and the dark wood was covered with thick smokes in no time.

However.

Boom...Boom...Boom...

The wind behind them had not weakened but approached nearer.

The Lord Ninjas were terrified.

“What happened? We’ve thrown it at different directions far from us, but he’s still behind us?”

One of the Ninja Lords couldn’t hold his terror and cried out.

They were expecting Jack to follow the sound of the explosion, hence threw in different directions.

They had only used two bombs to cover themselves.

The wood was dark covered with thick smoke, their trail was barely visible, even by sound, he could not have had mastered their route accurately!

“His senses are too sensitive and strong! Amaterasu! Sight is covered with smoke, hearing is interrupted with bombs, so he figured our location by the direction of the wind?”

Another Lord Ninja sighed.

The Lord Ninja beside him stared at him in terror.

Their eyes met, both of them were horrified.

Their movements would inevitably cause changes in the airflow, but it was light and weak.

Both of them fell into a fatal void.

Ran or not, Jack would catch up in no time.

They clenched their teeth and decided to run in different directions.

They knew either one of them needed to die!

The survivor could at least went back to Iga Clan and reported what happened today!

One of them started to wave his katana speedily and rushed into the wood full of bamboo leaves, he continued to move forward.

Bang!

Suddenly a huge explosion was heard in the middle of the thick smoke.

Followed by the sound of bamboo falling.

Another bang followed the next second!

The Ninja Lord who was running felt death, he didn't even have time to think of a way out.

“Roar!”

The dark figure behind roared like a giant beast.

The sound was like thunder stroke that everyone feared.

Fear surrounded his whole body, the Ninja Lord sweat like rain.

Shoop!

Almost simultaneously, the sound of something flashed through was heard.

The horrified Lord Ninja turned at once and saw a bamboo stick flew in the dark, not towards him but another direction!

Bing Bang!

The bamboo stick landed on something in the wood.

“Ah!”

A grunt of loud pain covered the entire wood.

At the same time, a cluster of blood splattered around where the grunt was heard.

“Ah!”

The surviving Lord Ninja’s face turned white, his face was twisted.

A horrifying terror was approaching. But he missed a step, tripped and fell onto the ground amid terror.

Ran!

Ran!

Ran!

Before he struggled up, the dark figure that covered with blood appeared in front of him.

“Amaterasu!”

The Lord Ninja’s face turned face and waved his katana towards Jack who was approaching.

But Jack moved his body and avoided the katana in a flash when the katana was about to land on him.

He then raised his fist and hit the Lord Ninja.

Boom!

The Lord Ninja was still in the posture of waving the katana but his body was thrown ten miles away like a broken sandbag, he died instantly.

Only with one punch!

Chapter 857 Method To Wake Jack Up!

Swoosh...

In the bamboo forest, Mysterious Man and Brent's speed was fast.

Both of them were not worried that Jack was in danger.

In the guest house, when they were facing Iga TobiRyuu, it was already clear.

There was indeed danger!

But Jack had brought that to other people!

Jack had gone crazy, he was like a killer machine that had lost his mind, if they didn't stop him in time, if he slips off, it would be difficult to gauge the damage done.

"Senior, do you have any ideas on how to make Master regain his rationality?"

As they rushed forward, Brent asked nervously.

In the past Mysterious Man had mentioned before, after the Bewitchedness, there will be a threshold value in Jack's heart, if that value was reached, he will fall into a Bewitchedness, and the more times this happened, it would be harder and harder to get him out of that situation.

No one had expected the first Bewitchedness would have been so fast!

With Iga TobiRyuu's simple words, it had already pushed pass the threshold value of the Bewitchedness.

What Brent was worried about, was that, in the past Mysterious Man had showed Jack a bunch of Buddhist scriptures and Moral Codes. Regardless of what he or Mr. Ward felt, it was more of a psychological comfort.

Now that Jack had really fell into a Bewitchedness, whether Mysterious Man could really drag Jack out from his crazy state, Brent really had no confidence.

"Yes!"

Mysterious Man's hoarse voice passed through.

This made Brent's heart lift in excitement.

But his next sentence, was as if a bowl of ice water pouring on him, turning his heart ice cold.

“Win him in battle, and tire him out!”

Mysterious Man’s hoarse voice was extremely heavy.

Boom!

Brent suddenly revealed a face filled with anxiousness.

Win Master?

Tire Master out?

What freaking idea is this!

In the Bamboo Grove, Jack’s explosive power was beyond imagination.

The famous ninja in the Iga Clan, when facing Jack, was as tiny as an ant, being trampled around.

How could a normal human being fight this type of unusual power?

“Do you have any other ideas?”

Brent asked unbelievably. Mysterious Man’s reply was obviously confirming his and Mr. Ward’s initial idea.

“Kill him!”

Mysterious Man spat out two words.

Brent was speechless.

He suddenly had an impulse to scold someone, these ideas could not be used at all!

“Or, do you want him to become an irrational killer machine?”

Mysterious Man suddenly asked Brent, “When he’s in a Bewitchednessc state, it’s not just about the number of times, it is also related to the period of time, the longer he is in that state, the lower the chance of him coming back.”

Brent’s expression changed. At this moment, his gaze was frozen.

Mysterious Man’s words, felt like two hands, tightening all of Brent’s nerves.

Brent who was running, felt his expression slowly calm down.

But his gaze was no longer as tentative as before, it was replaced with an extreme firmness.

All of a sudden.

Brent raised his lips, and laughed, “Hold on, let me attack first.”

“It will kill you!”

Mysterious Man said.

Brent shook his head, "For Master, my life means nothing, let me try once, if I survive, then I will count on you senior."

"Alright!"

Mysterious Man nodded.

All of a sudden.

A piercing coldness shot through from in front of them.

Mysterious Man and Brent's expression changed, they stopped and raised their eyes to look in front.

When they stopped, they smelled the fishy smell of blood decaying in the bamboo leaves.

This made them both frown.

The night breeze was blowing, and the bamboo leaves were rustling.

In their gaze, in the dark bamboo forest in front of them, stood a shadow.

It was as still as a mountain, unflinching.

The smell of blood and corpse couldn't have been more obvious.

Regardless of it being in the dark, looking at it from afar, Mysterious Man and Brent felt a chill go down their spine.

Brent opened his mouth, wanting to call out.

Before he could finish his words, Mysterious Man quickly pressed his shoulder.

But, it was too late!

In the dark, Jack who was standing unflinchingly on the spot, turned around in the sound of the noise.

At this moment.

Brent and Mysterious Man felt as if they were being locked in by a beast.

Mysterious Man gave a bitter laugh, he fished out a wine bottle from his pouch, opened the cork and passed it to Brent.

“Take a gulp to boost your morale!”

Using wine to boost his morale, to both Mysterious Man or Brent, it felt absurd.

But at this moment, when his words were out, not only Mysterious Man felt normal, even Brent felt there was nothing wrong with it.

Without hesitation.

Brent took the bottle from him, and raised his head to down half the bottle.

Suddenly, the burning sensation of the spirit spread from the mouth and along the oesophagus all the way into the intestines and stomach.

A heat boiled from inside him.

Brent wiped the alcohol from his lips, and passed the bottle back to Mysterious Man.

He laughed, "Good wine!"

Finishing his words.

With a bang!

Brent pushed his feet against the ground, and dashed towards Jack, "Senior, if something happens to me, please let Daisy know, that I hope she stays well!"

"Roar!"

At almost the same time.

Jack raised his head and roared, shaking the whole bamboo forest.

With the bamboo leaves on his feet, he dashed towards Brent.

Mysterious Man held the wine bottle tightly, his gaze watching Brent dash towards Jack.

Suddenly, he noticed Brent's waist tremble.

Mysterious Man immediately yelled out.

"Don't use Python Devours Dragon! He will learn from you!"

Brent who was rushing towards Jack, frowned suddenly.

He had indeed intended to use "Python Devours Dragon". This method used up a lot of his strength, but he was also most sure that it was the best method to drain Jack's power!

But Mysterious Man's reminder made him realize suddenly.

Even though Jack had fell into a Bewitchedness, but his devilish talent still remained.

If he used "Python Devours Dragon" now and it was picked up by Jack, he would die in Jack's hands.

And the following battle between Jack and Mysterious Man would become even more scary.

If Jack who was in his Bewitchednessc state used "Python Devours Dragon"...

Brent couldn't imagine.

At this moment.

"Roar!"

Jack had already rushed in front of Brent, without any tricks he punched him, straight away punching his body.

The sound was deafening, as if a cobra had attacked.

Brent's face changed, he raised his hands in a cross in front of him, blocking himself.

Bam!

A loud sound rang.

Brent's feet stayed put on the ground, ruffling the bamboo leaves on the ground, he retreated seven to eight metres away.

He followed by blocking Jack's punch.

Brent could feel that his left arm, after blocking Jack's punch, his bones had already shattered!

A sharp pain shot through him, suddenly engulfing his whole body.

When he stopped retreating, his face was in pain, his left hand straight away dropping.

A punch had shattered his bones!

Nevertheless.

Jack didn't give Brent any time to catch his breath.

When he blasted Brent back with a punch, he immediately rushed towards Brent full of blood.

Facing Jack.

It was the first time Brent felt total hopelessness.

"Master!"

Brent yelled, his voice ringing through the forest, "Brent is here to save you!"

In the darkness.

Brent raised his right fist, and headed for Jack.

Chapter 858 Battle!

Bam!

In the bamboo forest, punches sounded.

"Ah!"

Brent's painful scream echoed in the whole bamboo forest.

With this punch, it immediately broke the bones of his five fingers.

All of a sudden.

Brent's right fist also dropped.

Luckily, in the speed of light, he immediately volleyed and trampled onto Jack's chest. With this kick,

Jack retreated a few steps, Brent also fell backwards, increasing the distance between both of them.

When he fell back on the ground.

Brent's body was trembling, his arms dangling on both sides. His face was in pain, his features trembling, his mouth was also gasping for breath, his forehead was also drenched in sweat.

He hadn't expected that with his own power, when facing Jack, could be as weak as this.

With simply two exchanges, both of his hands had become wasted.

How would he win this?

How would he tire Jack out?

When he saw Jack kill Iga TobiRyuu, it had only scared him. Even if he had felt very scared, it was only a feeling.

But now, the pain was physical!

Jack who was in Bewitchedness, had speed and strength that made him hopeless!

The power of Bewitchedness made Brent feel totally hopeless.

“Master... Master...”

With red eyes Brent looked at Jack, and wailed, “Please wake up, please wake up... Madam, Mr.

Ward, Daisy, are all waiting for you to be back!”

His voice was a wail, almost carrying a tinge of begging.

This scene was almost never seen on cold-blooded Brent.

But facing Jack now, he could only be like this.

He couldn't win him, and couldn't tire him out. He could only hope for Jack to wake up.

Not far away, Mysterious Man raised his wine bottle, downing wine into his mouth.

A scorching sensation swept through the body.

His heated gaze was on Jack and Brent, his expression cold.

With just two exchanges, Jack had already made Brent fall into this situation, this was totally within his expectations.

This was the scariest part about falling into Bewitchedness!

While giving people a desperate pressure, taking away their rationality, becoming a killer machine, then... led people to hopelessness!

“Roar!”

In the next second, Jack roared again, like sweeping a hole in a plowing garden, with both feet moving, shovelling large bamboo leaves, he rushed towards Brent.

“Master...”

Brent didn't dodge, he didn't intend for Mysterious Man to attack now.

He was clear that if he could attack Jack once more, then he could weaken Jack more. Then when Mysterious Man and Jack battled, the chances of succeeding are higher!

For this little chance, he would risk his life!

Crack...

When he was dashing towards Jack, the muscle on Brent's back gave a loud cracking sound.

In his gaze, Jack was clenching his fist fiercely, attacking him directly.

In Brent's eyes were full of resolute death, and with a roar, he jumped into the sky.

Bam!

Jack's fist brushed pass Brent dangerously.

This time, Brent, who was volleying, made a whip kick and attacked Jack.

However.

Just when his right foot was almost on Jack.

A huge hand suddenly appeared.

He clutched Brent's right thigh strongly, he felt as if he had been shackled, straight away putting a halt to Brent's leg strength.

With a bang, following Jack's clutch, Brent's right leg fell onto Jack's shoulder.

With a strong resistance, Jack stood rooted to the spot.

In his blood-shoot eyes, blood was tumbling.

Nothing fancy, no hesitation.

At the moment when Brent's right leg fell onto Jack's shoulder, Jack immediately clenched his right fist, and with a bang punched into Brent's stomach.

"Ah!"

A terrible howl rang in the air.

Brent shot into the air, when he fell onto the ground, he tumbled, and a mouthful of blood shot from his mouth. His organs felt as if they had been twisted around.

Pain!

This pain was indescribable!

“Master... Master...”

Brent’s face had already paled at this point, on his face and chest, was blood.

He struggled to stand up, but his limbs couldn’t work, added with the pain on his stomach, made him feel as if he was mud on the ground. Regardless of how he struggled, he couldn’t manage to stand up.

“Time for me.”

A hoarse voice rang through from not far away.

“Senior...”

Brent’s gaze stared at Mysterious Man who was not far away.

Mysterious Man tossed the wine bottle in the air, and walked slowly towards Jack.

As for Jack, his attention had shifted towards Mysterious Man.

“Please, senior, help... Master...”

In Brent's mouth was blood, mumbling to himself. He closed his eyes, and fainted in the pool of blood.

In the pitch dark bamboo forest.

Bamboo leaves were rustling.

The cold breeze pierced through their bones.

But compared to the cold blood on Jack's body, it wasn't worth mentioning.

Jack's attention was fully on Mysterious Man, as if realizing the threat Mysterious Man brought. Now, even if Jack was in Bewitchednessc, he was rooted on the spot.

As for Mysterious Man, he walked forwards slowly, mumbling to himself.

"Truth can be known, but it may not be the truth you know."

His voice got progressively louder, he was chanting the Moral Code.

"He..."

When the chanting reached Jack's ears, his lips raised in an evil smile, a hoarse voice passed from his mouth.

As if he didn't care at all.

Crunch... Crunch...

Jack's body moved slowly, with just a small movement, it could already bring a creepy sound.

"Nameless, the beginning of heaven and earth; fame, mother of all things..."

Mysterious Man was also moving his body slightly, the voice in which he was mumbling Moral Code was getting louder and louder.

His voice was originally hoarse, when he was chanting the prayers, it carried a hint of strangeness.

It seemed to be able to penetrate through the clouds and crack the silk, and penetrate people's hearts.

The two were no more than five metres apart, but now both Jack and Mysterious Man remained relatively static.

There was no more of Jack's previous cruel Bewitchedness, he had instead fell into a creepy trance.

This scene, if Brent had been awake, would have been extremely frightened.

"Oftentimes, one strips oneself of passion, in order to see the secret of life; Oftentimes, one regards life with passion, in order to see..."

Nevertheless.

"Roar!"

The silent Jack suddenly let out a deafening roar, instantly overwhelming the chanting sounds of Mysterious Man.

The next second.

Jack who was wrapped in a sea of blood, as if a ghost crawling out of the depths of Hell, eager to claim his life, rushed towards Mysterious Man.

The mysterious man looked even more solemn, and his eyes were full of vigilance.

Roar!

It was still a fanciless punch.

For Jack who was in a Bewitchedness right now, whatever fanciful tactics were too cumbersome. With one swipe and one punch and one kick, it was enough to cause a terrorist destruction like a killing machine.

“Using the power of a body to combat the devil, not sure... if it is bearable...”

Mysterious Man gave a creepy laugh, and slowly retreated, opening his arms. At this moment, his aura soared.

Chapter 859 Jack Hughes VS Mysterious Man

Boom!

A punch was thrown swiftly towards Mysterious Man.

A sturdy wind engulfed the wood along with a loud explosion.

The bamboo wood danced to it.

Mysterious Man stood still ready to fight while squirming his apple and swallowed a mouthful of saliva.

His eyes were fixed on Jack's right fist, his fighting spirit skyrocketed like a dragon ready to hit the sky.

His decent and noble spirit was incompatible with the evil and deadly spirit released by Jack.

In a flash, the Mysterious Man stretched his right palm and swung it repeatedly. His strong arm then turned into a soft and boneless weapon, flapping like a bamboo.

Willows were weak yet they bind the wood!

He let loose of the strong and dominant strength used by Brent and Jack before.

Even the Mysterious Man couldn't be sure if he could defeat him using strength.

Avoid his strength and conquered with softness was the only way he could think of. It was the only way to drain Jack's energy in the meantime minimized his injury during each fight.

Bang!

A loud explosion.

Mysterious Man's limping arm hit the side of Jack's approaching right fist.

It seemed extremely weak but a loud explosion was heard when the two met.

The demon-possessed Jack was thrown miles away with this hit.

"Huh... Guess this is the correct way!"

Mysterious Man stood still letting out a long sigh, his stiffened face softened.

But only for a second.

"Roar!"

Jack who had been thrown away roared! The sound filled the wood.

He twisted his waist, defied the force that threw him away, turned and bent his body facing the ground supported by his right palm, at the same time stretched out his left leg into the air and attacked the Mysterious Man like a vicious snake.

Even the Mysterious Man couldn't expect this dramatic twist.

There was no turning back or time to avoid Jack's kick.

Mysterious Man clenched his teeth, took a step backwards, folded his limping arms together and took Jack's attack directly.

A loud crackling sound was heard!

Mysterious Man's steady feet on the ground ploughed the bamboo leaves around while reversing.

His stabilized body trembled.

"Puff!"

He threw up a mouthful of blood.

The Mysterious Man stared at Jack sternly.

He had managed to minimize the consequence of this kick, unlike how Brent faced Jack just now, it was strength to strength.

Despite he received the kick directly, but he stepped backwards and avoided the momentum of a direct hit from Jack.

However, he was still severely injured by it!

"Hehe..."

Jack didn't rush in to attack, he stood where he was and stared at Mysterious Man while making some sound.

It was like... Mocking.

Mysterious Man took a deep breath.

Slowly, he took another step backwards and ready to fight again.

But this time, while being cautious about Jack, he said lightly, "Truth can be known, but it may not be the truth you know..."

His chant echoed in the wood.

It created a different ambient to the dark and creepy bamboo wood.

Jack who had veins popped out his entire face started to clench his teeth and struggled at the same time Mysterious Man chanted 'Tao Te Ching'.

His whole body shaken with reddened eyes.

"Hehe... Hehe..."

He made the sound harshly along with heavy and rapid breathing.

Due to the darkness in the wood, the Mysterious Man missed the horrifying look on Jack's face, with all the veins popped out and the nonstop twisting of his face's muscles...

It was horrifying to look at.

But the dark covered everything up.

The chant continued to echo in the wood.

The Mysterious Man's concentration was fixated on Jack's action and response.

Jack stood frozen, breathing heavily, this ensured that 'Tao Te Ching' was working on Jack.

He also understood that the only way to awaken Jack was to defeat him under the influence of 'Tao Te Ching'.

Everything froze in the wood.

The rustling of the bamboo leaves, 'Tao Te Ching' chanted by the Mysterious Man and Jack's heavy and rapid breathing were the only sound heard overlapping each other in the wood.

This lasted for only a minute long.

Suddenly.

"Roar!"

Jack roared full in the sky and the next second, his right leg kicked the ground, bamboo leaves around flew into the sky and his kick created a huge pit.

In the meantime, he bent his body facing the ground.

“Hehe... Hehe...”

That roared earlier drained a huge part of Jack’s energy, while he bent over, his breathing had obviously become heavier and more rapid.

The Mysterious Man skipped a heartbeat, Jack’s roared awakened the fear inside him.

Although Jack’s breathing became heavier and rapid after the roar, but the volume was enough to cover up Mysterious Man’s chant.

He took a deep breath and increase the volume of his chant.

“Truth can be known, but it may...”

But when the first line covered up Jack’s breathing sound, Jack’s bent body straightened up slowly.

His gasping stopped and replaced with an indescribable demonic and uncanny sound.

“Truth..., truth of universe, truth of world, truth of fairyland, truth of devildom, truth of ...”

Following a tremendous loud roar, Jack became mad, along with his demonic and uncanny sound, he moved his body and rushed towards the Mysterious Man.

Jack's laughed was like needle stabbing on Mysterious Man's eardrums.

He frowned in pain while continued chanting loudly.

At the same time, he saw Jack rushing towards him like a furry beast.

He gritted his teeth, clenched his fists, chanted 'Tao Te Ching' along with a loud "Bang"!

And this time, none of them intended to avoid one another.

Jack threw his punch to Mysterious Man along with his demonic laugh.

While Mysterious Man on the other hand got his fist ready with his limping arm.

Boom!

Mysterious Man avoided Jack's punch while his punch landed on Jack's right wrist.

Though it was soft but extremely powerful.

The demon-possessed Jack lost his balance, made half a circle and staggered to the side.

When Jack was staggering to the side, Mysterious Man stunned as he saw something on Jack's face.

Something dripped onto his face while Jack staggered.

Wet, warm and sticky...

He immediately touched it with his hand and smelled, it startled him.

Those dripping were... blood!

Chapter 860 The Ultimate Battle

Jack was injured?!

Mysterious Man stunned.

He realized his thought was hilarious the next second.

A demon-possessed Jack would not get injured.

The Lord Ninja of Iga were nothing to him.

Even Brent was knocked out within three strokes.

He had a scary level of fighting spirit, one could only injure him with the help of a furnace weapon.

Even he himself was not confident that he was able to cause harm to Jack, their fights were not enough to injure him.

So... Jack caused his own bleeding?

But Jack didn't give much time for Mysterious Man to think.

He rushed towards Mysterious Man once again right after he staggered.

He had lost his rationality after being possessed, all he wanted was to kill.

He was a slaughter machine now and wouldn't stop until the opponent was killed!

He felt the storm coming towards him. The Mysterious Man could even smell the blood approaching along with the winds.

But it was Jack who he was facing, he couldn't let down his guard even for half a second.

He approached Jack while chanting 'Tao Te Ching'.

He had done testing Jack's current situation and strength, he knew what he should do.

Now that they were facing each other again, it would be the ultimate battle the moment their fists met.

Bang Bang Bang...

A series of explosive sound filled the woods whenever their punches or kicks collided.

With prior experience, the Mysterious Man could smoothly avoid Jack's fatal attacks and countered it with the strength of softness, using a "gentle" way to destroy Jack's powerful strength.

The Mysterious Man was able to effortlessly defied Jack's attacks from different angles.

He had full control over their battle making sure Jack was not dominating the fight instead was kept in the high-intensity battle.

It was a risky move but Mysterious Man's confidence and his experiences in countless battles allowed him to maintain the current battle strategy on Jack.

If it was someone other than the Mysterious Man, this battle would not seem as "leisure" as it would be.

Despite being possessed by the devil with his strength increased enormously, however, Jack's battling skills and combat experiences remained the same which was much lower than Mysterious Man.

Even someone like Mysterious Man wasn't confident enough to face Jack's strength directly.

The only solution now was as mentioned by Brent, couldn't defeat him but could exhaust and drained him!

Mysterious Man continued his chanting while Jack continued letting out a series of roars.

While combating in strength, skills and strategy, they were combating in volume too. Mysterious Man's chant would cover Jack's roar at times while Jack's roared covered his sometimes.

Bang Bang Bang...

They moved in the wood at tremendous speed and each hit created explosive energy and sound.

The bamboo in the wood was chopped down one by one following their attacks.

And the battle in the wood became more intense and fierce.

Jack's attack was direct with ultimate strength, he didn't care about injuries, his goal was to kill.

The Mysterious Man on the other hand did not face Jack directly but launched each attack on the side, as soft but as powerful as water.

It was a battle that would put every audience in awe, an ultimate battle in the combat world!

It was the direct hit that disregarded his own life by Jack and the top notched combating skills and strategies of the Mysterious Man that made this the ultimate battle one could witness only once in a lifetime!

However, there were only Jack and the Mysterious Man in the wood now.

The only spectator, Brent was knocked out.

And this ultimate battle only happened in the wood, the matter of life and death was all depended on the Mysterious Man alone.

Following the intensity of the fight, Jack's roar and grunt became more chaotic and loud, he seemed like an irritated beast.

He was hit a few times by Mysterious Man's attack, but Jack had no feeling at all, his only focus was to kill.

A slaughtering machine knew only to kill, disregarded own life, just want to kill!

On the contrary, Mysterious Man who kept chanting 'Tao Te Ching' while battling was exhausted both physically and spiritually, his injuries were much more severe compared to Jack.

Even though he managed to avoid every fatal attack, but the injuries caused by the demonic Jack was huge, and with time passing by, his energy was drained and concentration was distracted, which increased his danger in this fight!

Boom!

Another kick from Jack, Mysterious Man dodged by taking few steps backwards in the meantime his hand landed on Jack's right ankle.

But things took a dramatic twist this time.

While Jack was losing his balance, his body twisted and he hit Mysterious Man directly on the stomach with his head!

Following a loud bang, Mysterious Man's chant stopped and replaced by a loud grunt of pain, he was tossed a few miles away.

He even threw up a mouthful of blood while he was in the air.

Mysterious Man knelt on one knee after he landed.

This direct hit didn't kill him but had caused tremendous pain and injuries to his organs, his entire spiritual energy was messed up.

"Huh... Huh..."

The high-intensity battle depleted his energy, his entire body was soaked in sweat and blood.

His limbs were trembling uncontrollably while he knelt on one knee and breath rapidly.

A battle like this consumed every single energy in his body!

Jack on the contrary stood still, despite with heavy and rapid breathing, his condition was much better than the Mysterious Man.

No doubt, Jack's body was now controlled by the bewitched energy, he felt no pain, hence, his endurance was much higher than the Mysterious Man!

Which meant the Mysterious Man couldn't endure much longer under a rational circumstance.

While Jack with demonic control might have had more severe injuries but he felt nothing.

That was the difference between the two.

“Truth...”

Jack laughed out loud out of the sudden, his ears piercing laughter echoed in the wood. “Fuck the truth bull shit, the devil conquered all!”

This was the first complete and clear sentence uttered by Jack easily since he was possessed.

But it was like a fatal attack that pushed the Mysterious Man into a hopeless end.

“Die!”

The next second, Jack lowered his head.

Even in the dark, the Mysterious Man could feel Jack’s stony and brutal stared, his heart stopped beating and his whole body shaken...
