

Boss Is Reborn After Everyone's Betrayal!

012. Will be handed over to professionals 1

Ding Shan and Xiao Zhao went to the makeup room first. Ding Shan turned around and gave Xiao Zhao a look. Xiao Zhao understood and quietly hid the small thing in her hands among the many cosmetics before leaving the room.

The makeup artist looked at Ding Shan nervously. This was her first time interacting with Ding Shan and she realized that she was even more beautiful than the camera made her look. She didn't know how to do it.

Ding Shan raised her head and smiled. "It's been hard on you, little sister. Help me to look prettier."

The makeup artist felt Ding Shan's kindness and gradually relaxed. "Your skin is really good. I don't need to give you a foundation at all."

Ding Shan looked at herself in the mirror and smiled in satisfaction. This year, she had not completely fallen into the abyss, and her condition was still passable. However, in the next two years, she would have been drugged, imprisoned, and beaten up many times. She then lost the glory of her past.

Ding Shan thought of the past and looked at the mirror with a faint smile.

The makeup artist held the makeup brush tightly in excitement and shouted in her heart. She was indeed a goddess. Any of her expressions could make people want to cry!

Then, the makeup artist began to put on makeup for Ding Shan. Ding Shan's foundation was already very good. She only needed to create a clear feeling of makeup and slightly lift her complexion. It would be like adding flowers to the icing on the cake. Heavy makeup would be a burden.

The makeup artist carefully created the details on Ding Shan's face. Yang Hua walked in with a gloomy face and slammed the door shut. The makeup artist was shocked.

Ding Shan did not care about her. She calmly sat on the chair and did not move.

Yang Hua felt even angrier. Usually, this Ding Shan was like a little quail, submissive, and never said a word. When she realized that she was angry, she would also be careful to curry favor with her. Today, she was indeed a little abnormal.

The reason why Yang Hua did not come in with Ding Shan was that she had gone to a hidden place and called Ding Wan to complain.

In front of the staff, Ding Shan had given her no respect (face) and even said that she wanted to treat them to afternoon tea. Yang Hua did not want to pay for it, so she called Ding Wan to complain about Ding Shan's insensitivity. She also heard about the incident with CEO Jin last night.

Yang Hua guessed in her heart, could it be that Ding Shan knew that she was going to get close to CEO Jin, so she started to be tough?

Yang Hua sneered. She felt that Ding Shan was still too young and naive. Did she think that with the support of the Big Boss, she would not put Yang Hua in her eyes? She could not wait to establish her authority in front of Ding Shan again.

After watching from the side for a while, Yang Hua could not help but get closer and start to point out, "The color of this eye shadow is too light. Her eyes are swollen and there is no feeling at all! Change the color of the lipstick to dark red that will make it look more imposing!"

The makeup artist was a little embarrassed for a moment and wanted to explain, "Actually, light makeup is more suitable..."

Yang Hua forcefully interrupted, "Isn't makeup made just to stand out a little on stage? It's better if it's thicker. She looks too bland. You just need to listen to my instructions!"

The makeup artist's eyes widened and she almost could not breathe. Did she hear wrongly? Was this person saying that Ding Shan looked bland?

In the eyes of this makeup artist, Ding Shan's face was already so exquisite that it couldn't be criticized. All she needed to do was to lightly touch it up. Ding Shan's eyes were moving, and her lips were red without touching them. It was enough to captivate everyone.

Yang Hua could question her level of makeup, but how could she lie through her teeth and pick faults with Ding Shan's?

At this moment, the makeup artist finally understood why Ding Shan, who she had seen on camera before, always looked lifeless, like a lifeless doll. If she were to be tormented by Yang Hua and go on stage with that kind of makeup. It was already Ding Shan's foundation that made her not to have an ugly crying audience!

The makeup artist could not take it anymore and looked at Ding Shan awkwardly.

Ding Shan opened her eyes and said directly to the makeup artist, "I think your makeup is especially good. It suits me very well. You can continue."

The makeup artist was delighted and was about to continue.

Yang Hua's sharp voice sounded again, "Ding Shan, are you deliberately going against me today? Do you think this is a child's game?"

Ding Shan looked at Yang Hua through the mirror. Her gaze was indifferent but cold. "Aunt Hua, I think that professional matters should be left to professional people. What do you think?"

Yang Hua was completely forced into a corner. "Are you saying that I'm not professional? You've become bolder. Do you want to replace me?"
