018. Xiao Zhao was promoted 1

Yang Hua was also angry from the beating. Her face was burning with pain. Wang Chun's long nails and ring had scraped several bloody marks on her face.

Yang Hua leaned on the ground and said, "Can you stop acting like a shrew? Why don't you use your brain? That video might have been secretly recorded by that little b*tch Ding Shan!"

Ding Shan looked at Wang Chun with tears in her eyes. "I didn't, mother. Originally, I just wanted to persuade her to leave Dad alone. I didn't dare... she would hit me. I was too weak."

Yang Hua struggled to stand up but was kicked to the ground by Wang Chun.

Wang Chun's eyes were red with anger. She was like a hag. "She was bullied by you to such an extent. Do you still dare to speak? You B*tch, you stole my man and even dared to hit my daughter. I don't usually have the heart to hit her in the face!"

Ding Shan could not help but sigh. After hearing these words, those who did not know would have thought that Wang Chun doted on her. In the morning at the hospital, Wang Chun had wanted to hit her, but she had dodged it. Now that she was up against a mistress, she was able to defend herself.

Wang Chun had not had enough of the beating yet, so she gave her a few more kicks. Then continued to scold her, "You B*tch, you think too highly of yourself. Do you want to be together with that damned Ding Wan? And you want to snatch Ding Shan away to make money for both of you? Let me tell you, I, Wang Chun, am not a powerless/vegetarian!"

Wang Chun was huge and her flesh was solid. She had used all her strength just now and Yang Hua was already lying on the ground, unable to move.

Ding Shan saw that it was about time and did not want to kill anyone. She went forward and weakly stopped Wang Chun, "Mom, stop hitting her. She's not moving anymore."

Wang Chun resentfully retracted her leg and was panting.

Ding Shan secretly gave Xiao Zhao a look. Xiao Zhao understood and took out her phone to call for someone to carry Yang Hua away to the hospital.

Wang Chun calmed down and looked at Ding Shan.

Wang Chun did not have any feelings for Ding Shan. She even felt a little disgusted. She felt that other than being good-looking and having some use for Ding Shan, there was nothing else that she could do. Just looking at her made her annoyed.

However, Yang Hua's words today reminded Wang Chun that she usually had a bad attitude towards Ding Shan, which allowed Yang Hua to take advantage of her. No matter how much she hated Ding Shan, she had to at least rely on Ding Shan to earn money.

No matter how stupid Wang Chun was, she could still understand that she had already been betrayed by those two B*stards. If she had not grabbed hold of Ding Shan's heart, she would not have gotten anything.

Wang Chun used her fat and greasy face to force out a smile that she thought was loving, she looked at Ding Shan and said, "I always knew that you were a good child. I've seen it all. You were bullied by this B*tch, yet you did not forget to protect our family."

Wang Chun kept hinting, "Normally, mom is a little strict with you, but we are still a family. Do you understand? Mom cares about you. You don't have to be bullied by this B*tch anymore."

Ding Shan pretended to be ecstatic. "Really? Mom, are you going to replace her?"

Wang Chun nodded. "How can I let her stay by your side and disgust me? I want her to spit out all the money she swallowed all these years!"

Ding Shan was a little hesitant. "But what about Dad?"

Wang Chun's eyebrows twisted. "I'll slowly settle the score with that d*mned B*stard! You don't have to worry about it! It's been our common possession for so many years. If he was willing to shed all pretenses with me, he wouldn't have been secretly having an affair with this B*tch for so many years!"

Ding Shan nodded obediently. "Then, Mom, let Xiao Zhao take over this job."

Wang Chun glanced at Xiao Zhao and hesitated for a moment.

Ding Shan added, "Xiao Zhao is quite smart. She's still young and obedient."

Faced with Wang Chun's scrutiny, Xiao Zhao revealed a nervous look.

Wang Chun remembered that Xiao Zhao had taken the initiative to call and help her clean up the mess. She was quite smart and could be used by her, so she did not think too much and nodded her head in agreement.

Ding Shan smiled sweetly, it was a hint. "Finally, no one will come to destroy our family in the future. In the past, when I was performing overseas, she always took Dad on dates and bought a lot of good things. Unfortunately, I didn't dare to tell you at that time."

The fire in Wang Chun's heart was ignited again. She glared at Yang Hua who was on the ground and said, "Alright, you can go home by yourself later. I have something to talk to your Dad about!" Then she left aggressively.

Ding Shan turned around and looked at Xiao Zhao with a smile.

Xiao Zhao blinked and secretly made a “Yay” sign. Both of them were in a great mood.
