

Boss Is Reborn After Everyone's Betrayal!

019. Start Over 1

When she returned home, there was no one there.

Ding Yuan was still in the hospital, and Ding Wan was probably still in some clubhouse. He didn't know what had happened, and she didn't know where Wang Chun was going to find him.

Ding Shan didn't care about all this, but it suited her to have no one at home.

Xiao Zhao was still immersed in the joy of her promotion. "Sister Shan, can I really be your manager? You're amazing. How did you do it?"

Ding Shan looked at Xiao Zhao with amusement. She felt a rare sense of relief.

Ding Shan thought back to her previous life. Xiao Zhao had been by her side. It was a pity that she could not protect her. In the end, to protect her, Xiao Zhao had many conflicts with Yang Hua and Ding Wan. They had secretly fired her.

During those two years, Ding Shan lived a muddle-headed life. She could not protect herself. When she found out about it, she did not have the strength to pursue the matter. She could only let it go. Ding Shan had always felt guilty.

However, later on, she heard that Xiao Zhao had promoted two popular male celebrities and become a well-known manager in the industry.

Xiao Zhao could become a good manager. Ding Shan believed in this. Moreover, the rarest thing was that Xiao Zhao protected Ding Shan from the bottom of her heart. This kind of true love was what Ding Shan valued the most.

Even in her previous life, Ding Shan's reputation had plummeted. Xiao Zhao had suddenly become a great manager who commanded great influence. Xiao Zhao didn't forget her old love and even tried to contact Ding Shan to help her regain her reputation. Unfortunately, Ding Shan was exhausted from her family, and she did not have the strength to turn things around anymore.

In this life, Ding Shan had to take one step at a time and bring Xiao Zhao back to the peak.

There was still a tough battle to be fought. For Ding Shan, there were still many thorny problems to be solved. For example, CEO Jin. He had tasted the sweetness and would not let it go easily. It was estimated that he would be in a hurry to make a move in the next two days.

There was also Ding Shan's job. The most important thing now was to take advantage of Yang Hua's departure to make a big change in the resources at hand.

Ding Shan's remuneration for so many years had been controlled by Ding Wan. Many social media platforms were also managed by them. This time, taking advantage of Yang Hua's departure, they took the opportunity to take back all the things that belonged to Ding Shan.

Ding Wan and Wang Chun valued money the most. As long as they took back the things before them, Ding Shan did not care about having a falling out with them. She had already pretended enough in front of them for the past few days, it was better to let the storm come even more violently.

Before Ding Wan could react and Wang Chun and Yang Hua could not care about Ding Shan now they were in a mess. It was a good time to make a move.

The studio that Yang Hua established had already announced the change of manager at the request of Wang Chun, the official lady boss.

The wording was very strange. One look and it was obvious that it was instructed by Wang Chun. "Due to Yang Hua's lack of professional skills, her private life is a mess. She has confused public and private finances.

From the time of this release, Ding Shan's manager will be changed. Please let the public know."

She had even used the words "Her private life is in a mess and she has mixed up her finances." In the future, Yang Hua would probably not be able to continue in this circle. Which artiste would dare to use such a manager?

While the iron was hot, Xiao Zhao took advantage of the convenience of being her newly appointed manager and directly reported all of Ding Shan's bank cards to her. He opened an account that belonged solely to Ding Shan and obtained a social account from the studio, and directly changed her real name and password. After a series of operations, all of Ding Shan's bank cards were out of the control of the black-hearted couple.

Xiao Zhao looked at Ding Shan blankly. "This... This is done?"

Ding Shan carefully checked and nodded. "It was always that simple."

These were originally Ding Shan's legal property. All of the signed contracts were written in Ding Shan's name. They did not dare to transfer the property. They just hid the card number and password tightly, it was a cover-up.

Perhaps none of them would have thought that Ding Shan would have the courage to break this situation and completely rebel against them.

This was the effect that Ding Shan wanted. There was a saying that said, "When you are sick, I will take your life!"

Ding Shan allowed Yang Hua to slap her and put on a show. It was to stir up the water and start a new fire while they were internally disintegrating.
