

Boss Is Reborn 23

Chapter 23 -

023. Take care of yourself

However, Xiao Zhao was still a little worried. "I'm just afraid that those scumbags will not let this go and will use their identity as your parents to kidnap you."

Ding Shan said calmly, "That's only natural. They won't be satisfied without me as a tool to earn money. I'm afraid that they will be desperate now."

Xiao Zhao was anxious. "Then what should we do?"

Ding Shan shook her head. "There's no rush. As I expected, CEO Jin will be coming soon. They have something even more troublesome to deal with now."

Xiao Zhao's mouth was agape. "Sister Shan, how did you guess?"

Ding Shan did not say anything. How could she not have guessed? In her previous life, she had been sent there by those two black-hearted parents to be tortured every few days. During those dark days and those rich businessmen who were obsessed with money.., Ding Shan was very clear about it.

Ding Shan was very curious. What would Ding Wan and Wang Chun do now? Without her as a tool, what would they choose under the pressure of money and power?

Ding Shan turned her phone on. She ignored the countless missed calls and only called Ding Yuan.

Although Ding Yuan was in the hospital, she had also seen the news of Yang Hua's expulsion on the internet. She felt a little uneasy. She kept feeling that her stupid sister had become different.

When she saw Ding Shan's call, Ding Yuan could not wait to pick it up. "Ding Shan! What do you mean? Now you have learned how to disappear into thin air?"

Ding Shan asked coldly, "Your body has almost recovered, right?"

Ding Yuan snorted coldly. "There's no need for you to be hypocritical. Ding Shan, let me tell you, I will find evidence. It was you who caused me to be violated by that fat pig surnamed Jin. I will make you pay the price!"

Ding Shan smiled. "Ding Yuan, I will not offend others unless they offend me. If I am the one who harmed you, then I must at least have a chance. I just don't know who provided me with this opportunity."

Ding Yuan retorted, "I don't understand what you're saying! You admitted that it was you who harmed me, right? You even replaced Aunt Hua. What exactly do you want? Father and mother will not let you off!"

Ding Shan's eyes were ice-cold, she said emotionlessly, "I hope this is the last call I'm going to make to you. Ding Yuan, I originally treated you as my younger sister, but you didn't want it and insisted on harming me. You can't blame me for being vicious. I'm afraid that the days ahead will be very difficult. I don't know if your parents will let me off, but they probably won't let you off. Take care of yourself."

With that, Ding Shan hung up the phone. Ding Yuan was flustered on the other end of the line. She didn't understand what Ding Shan meant and was in a hurry to call Ding Wan.

Ding Yuan called him a few times before Ding Wan picked up. Ding Yuan couldn't help but complain, "Dad! Where have you been?"

Ding Wan was on the verge of a fire. He said impatiently, "I'm already annoyed! Don't make things worse!"

Ding Yuan was extremely aggrieved. "Ding Shan just mocked me on the phone. She's getting more and more outrageous!"

Ding Wan's eyes widened. "Ding Shan contacted you? What did she say?"

Ding Yuan was very angry. "She said a bunch of things that I didn't understand, but she framed me for being violated by CEO Jin. She even admitted it herself!"

Ding Wan's eyes rolled and he said anxiously, "Little Yuan, you're almost done taking care of yourself. Come home quickly. We'll wait for you at home."

After saying that, Ding Wan hung up the phone and was about to call Ding Shan.

Wang Chun was anxious. "Why do you want Little Yuan to come back? The house is in chaos!"

Ding Wan was also a little hesitant. "Ding Shan can still contact little Yuan. Maybe she still has feelings for her. If we let little Yuan come back, maybe that b*stard Ding Shan will change her mind!"

Looking at Wang Chun, Ding wan said tentatively, "If it really can't be done, tomorrow night at CEO Jin's side... anyway, it's not the first time for little Yuan."

Wang Chun slapped him and screamed, "Ding Wan, you bastard! That's your daughter, how could you let her do such a thing again?"

Ding Wan kept calling Ding Shan, flustered, "Aiya! Didn't I say that it really can't be done? Ding Shan might come back because she doesn't want Xiao Yuan to suffer! What do you know? This is a scheme!"

Wang Chun collapsed to the ground in tears. She couldn't bear to part with her daughter, and she was so scared that there was nothing she could do.
