

Boss Is Reborn 24

Chapter 24 -

024. Beg Her

It didn't take long for Ding Yuan to rush home.

As soon as she entered, Ding Yuan anxiously looked for her. "Where's Ding Shan? I want to confront her face to face! She's always been faking it!"

Ding Wan and Wang Chun frowned and didn't say a word.

Ding Yuan suddenly realized that their expressions weren't right, and the ominous premonition in her heart grew stronger and stronger.

Ding Yuan's expression became solemn. "What happened?"

Ding Wan scratched his head and sighed continuously. His heart was aching badly. That was an uncountable amount of money.

Wang Chun was still thinking about what Ding Wan had said just now. She wanted to say something but hesitated.

Ding Yuan did not care about pretending to be obedient anymore. She shouted in a sharp voice, "Hurry up and say something! Did she do something again?"

Wang Chun was shocked by Ding Yuan's reaction. Although Ding Yuan had been raised to be arrogant, she had always been obedient.

Ding Yuan at this moment was full of thoughts about how she had been tricked by Ding Shan the last time. She had been confident about Ding Shan, but now that Ding Shan seemed to be possessed by a ghost, it was getting harder and harder to control her. This made Ding Yuan extremely angry.

Initially, she thought that she could toy with Ding Shan and trample on her. However, accidents happened time and time again. How could Ding Yuan swallow this?

Ding Yuan's ruthless expression made Wang Chun shrink back a little. "Little Yuan, what happened to you? Ding Shan... ran away."

Ding Yuan screamed, "Ran away? What do you mean? Hurry up and bring her back!"

Ding Wan cursed, "D*mn it, we couldn't find her at all. She was the one who called you just now."

Wang Chun continued, "She tricked me into changing my manager. Now we have nothing. This B*tch, if I catch her, I'll beat her half to death!"

Ding Yuan was so angry that she could hardly breathe. That night, Ding Shan had become a little strange, but no one believed what Ding Yuan said. It finally caused a big disaster today.

Ding Yuan couldn't help but complain, "I told you that she was the one who inflicted me, but you guys didn't listen! Why didn't you think about it? What manager? Without money, how are we going to live?"

Wang Chun sighed, "That's not the problem now, it's CEO Jin..." Wang Chun looked at Ding Yuan worriedly.

Ding Wan interrupted Wang Chun. He didn't want Ding Yuan to know about his plan unless it was necessary, he gently coaxed her, "Little Yuan, Daddy knows that you've never liked that Little B*tch Ding Shan, but we still need to use her..."

Ding Wan still had one last glimmer of hope, "She still has feelings for you. If you beg her, it might work. Otherwise, CEO Jin's side will take our lives!"

Ding Yuan gritted her teeth. She was not as naive as Ding Wan and Wang Chun. Ding Shan might have pretended to have deep sisterly love in the past, but now that she had dared to frame her, how could she have any feelings? Moreover, asking her to beg that B*tch Ding Shan? It was simply impossible.

Ding Wan finally dialed Ding Shan's number at that moment and shouted excitedly, "Ding Shan! Is that you?"

Ding Shan was annoyed by Ding Wan. She was just about to change a new phone card. She planned to completely end things with Ding Wan after the call was connected. "It's me. Don't contact me again in the future."

Wang Chun rushed to the phone and shouted, "You little B*tch! How dare you lie to me? I've raised you for twenty years. How dare you steal all the money? You Little B*stard!"

Ding Wan stopped Wang Chun for a moment and quickly signaled Wang Chun to stop talking, he coaxed Ding Shan, "Good girl. Your mother is very anxious. Daddy knows. Have you been troubled recently? We are a family. Why can't we discuss it properly? Hurry and come home."

Ding Shan snorted coldly. She did not expect things to come to this point. Ding Wan was still hoping to use such a method to deceive her. How stupid was she in his heart?

Ding Shan said calmly, "I will take this opportunity to make things clear to all of you in one go. First of all, you know what you have done to me in the past twenty years. My money is my legal income. If you have the ability, go and sue me."

Ding Shan was not afraid at all. As a public figure, there were many things to consider. If Ding Wan and Wang Chun had the guts to go through legal procedures, Ding Shan would only applaud and welcome them. The bigger the matter, the better it would be for the public to understand the truth.

However, Ding Shan guessed that Ding Wan would not be so stupid. They had done too many terrible things. Going through legal procedures would only make them die faster.
