

Boss Is Reborn 30

Chapter 30 -

030. Happy Cooperation

Xiao Zhao had been afraid that Ding Shan and Yin Hui would talk too happily and reveal their intention to cooperate too early. Yin Hui would take the opportunity to squeeze out the payment.

However, she did not expect Yin Hui to be so generous. He directly shouted out three times the price.

Ding Shan shook her head. "There's no need to do that. Instead, it will disturb the order of the industry. If we talk well in the future, we can just pay the normal price."

Xiao Zhao nudged Ding Shan secretly. She was so anxious that she wanted to say something to stop her, but she was too embarrassed to show it in front of Yin Hui. That was three times the price! Now was the time for them to run for the money!

Yin Hui smiled. "I know what you're worried about. Since I took the initiative to raise this price, it means that I think you're worth it. You're one of the selling points of my show. I'm willing to pay you three times the price. As long as your performance is worth this price, I'm satisfied."

Yin Hui still had something to say. He had indeed done his homework in advance, but it was not just Ding Shan's work and ability level. He had investigated Ding Shan's team from all sides.

In the industry, Ding Shan's team was known to be difficult to deal with. They demanded sky-high prices, and there were always many mistakes. Before coming, Yin Hui also knew about the matter of replacing her manager, but he was still a little uncertain. He was afraid that it was not the manager's problem, but Ding Shan's character that was in doubt. If that was the case, he would immediately stop working with her.

However, seeing Ding Shan with his own eyes, a gentle girl who was very polite and had a sense of propriety in her words, Yin Hui was very satisfied in his heart. He even secretly felt that she was indeed the woman that Xiang Hong had taken a fancy to. For the sake of his brother, spending more money was nothing, the thing that Yin Hui did not lack the most was money. He only needed a chance to amaze everyone!

Ding Shan did not know that Yin Hui was thinking about Xiang Hong's face. She did not even know about Xiang Hong as a person. However, she was indeed short of money at the moment. Yin Hui's suggestion could be considered to be a timely help. It was exactly what she wanted.

Initially, Ding Shan's financial situation was considered decent, but after buying the house and settling the refund on the previous contracts, she was a little short of money.

Ding Shan was not pretentious and nodded in agreement. "In that case, thank you in advance, director Yin. We can sign the contract after it is drawn up."

Yin Hui pulled out a contract from behind like magic. "No need to wait. I have already drawn up the contract. Take a look!" Yin Hui had made full preparations for this show. As long as Ding Shan did not disappoint him.., then he was determined to win this trip. If he did not sign the contract quickly, how could he be at ease?

Ding Shan laughed. "CEO Yin came prepared."

Xiao Zhao took the contract and looked at it carefully. A good thing that came out of the sky was a little mysterious. She was afraid that there was a secret hidden in the contract.

In the end, Xiao Zhao could not find any fault with it. It was indeed a big company. Every clause was very standard. There were even some clauses that were very beneficial to Ding Shan. The recording time was two months from next month, it also coincided with Ding Shan's arrangements.

Xiao Zhao widened her eyes in disbelief. She looked at Ding Shan and nodded in a daze.

Ding Shan also smiled. "Thank you, director Yin, for your trust. I will do my best."

Yin Hui nodded in satisfaction, he thought of something again. "Although it is your matter, we will be working together soon. I have to remind you of something. If something happens to your image, it will also affect the show. Your family..."

When Yin Hui was looking through Ding Shan's information, he had heard about her recent happenings. Otherwise, she would not have changed her manager so suddenly. However, he did not know what exactly happened, Yin Hui was a little afraid that Ding Shan's matters would affect her career.

Ding Shan understood. "Don't worry. I will handle it well. It will not affect the show."

Yin Hui rubbed his head, feeling a little embarrassed. "That's not what I meant. If you need help, just let me know. I won't decline if I can help."

Ding Shan smiled gratefully. "Alright, thank you in advance."

Yin Hui winked subtly. "However, it's just me saying these things. Someone is protecting you, so I don't think there's a need for me."

Ding Shan was a little confused and did not understand what Yin Hui meant.

Yin Hui still felt that Ding Shan did not want to make it public. If he said too much, it might make her feel awkward, so he did not say anything more, he smiled mischievously. "In any case, your choice to participate is the right choice. Let's create a top-notch variety show together. Who knows... there might even be a surprise!"

Although Ding Shan did not quite understand, she did not pay too much attention to it. She thought that Yin Hui meant that there would be some exquisite designs in the show, so she nodded and said, "Then I wish us a happy collaboration!"

Yin Hui said, "Happy Collaboration!"

Little did she know that both of them had misunderstood each other. Later, when Ding Shan discovered the "Surprise" that Yin Hui mentioned in the show, it almost turned into a shock.
