Chapter 351. The Damned Ding Shan

However, a fantasy could only be a fantasy. Ding Shan knew that Wen Xiu's father had always been in good health. Wen Xiu couldn't give up on this variety show. He was putting on an act in front of her.

If she were to say, "Wen Xiu, the Festival Group said that you can withdraw from the competition," she could guarantee that Wen Xiu would immediately say that his father's condition had improved. He could even quickly shed fake tears in front of the camera.

Three days after Wen Xiu's father was 'Seriously ill', the first public stage performance came.

At the venue, the audience was full of people. Many held light signs in their hands, on which words of encouragement for their idols were written.

The lighting design of the venue was comparable to that of the Spring Festival Gala. There were eight sets of unique effect lights and real-time live broadcast cameras in all directions of the venue.

Ding Shan wore a light white feather chiffon dress with a bare-shoulder design. The chest was made of white feathers gathered into the shape of a shell, and the tight belt outlined her extremely slender waist. Below it was a layered flowing chiffon dress, which changed into a psychedelic color under the illumination of the lights.

The audience burst into screams and cheers as soon as Ding Shan appeared.

After Ding Shan's incident, this was the first time that Ding Shan's fans had seen her in public. A few fans were waving light sticks and shouting Ding Shan's name with sobs.

Chen Tong was also dressed up very beautifully today, but perhaps because she had not been in a good state recently, her exquisite makeup could not hide her fatigue and anxiety.

Seeing that Ding Shan's appearance had attracted such exaggerated cheers, Chen Tong was jealous and angry. She walked to Ding Shan's side and gritted her teeth, "Ding Shan, I already told you last time that I'm not the mastermind behind this. Why are you still slandering me on the internet? I couldn't tell you're more skilled than anyone in backstabbing when you usually pretend to be virtuous!"

Chen Tong was mad with anger. Just because her malicious scoring was exposed, her reputation on the internet was now terrible. Her future career was also facing a significant threat.

The audience's affinity was both necessary and unimportant. She had now lost the trust and favorable impression of the ordinary audience. Although the fans would continue to support her, this also meant that no matter how active she was in the future, it would be difficult for her to attract new fans. It was equivalent to her inability to move forward in the entertainment industry!

This damned Ding Shan!

Ding Shan turned to look at Chen Tong with a calm smile. She even ran her fingers through her hair. "I didn't do this, but I'm thrilled. Chen Tong, no one is slandering you; it's just that what you've done has been exposed on the internet. As the saying goes, if you don't want people to know, then don't do it. I advise you to use your brain before you do anything in the future."

At this point, Ding Shan looked at Chen Tong's head and seemed to realize that she had said something wrong. "But to be honest, I'm afraid you'll need a 64GB USB flash drive in your head. In short, don't always think about doing bad things in the future. There will always be retribution for bad things."

Ding Shan's tone was not intense, and her calm tone sounded like she was lecturing Chen Tong. From the camera, it looked like Chen Tong was angry about something, and Ding Shan was comforting and talking to her.

Chen Ying was so angry that she almost smashed the teacher's sign in front of her. Her face was twisted, and her teeth were practically crushed. "Ding Shan, don't be so happy too early!"

Ding Shan laughed nonchalantly. "I'm not smug, and I don't care what you want to do in the future. Anyway, you should know my style of doing things. If others don't take the initiative to find trouble with me, I will never provoke them. If others want to harm me, I will pay them back double!"

It was as if sparks were about to be ignited between the two of them. Fortunately, the emcee spoke up and interrupted the confrontation between Chen Tong and Ding Shan.

After the emcee read a long string of passionate words, she introduced the public performance rules.

After that, the teams began to perform on stage.

This was the first time the trainees had performed on stage alone. The brilliance of the performance was closely related to the individual performance and depended on the level of team cooperation.

In many teams, one or two people performed outstandingly while the others sang out of tune. In the eyes of the audience, this kind of disharmony was simply a disaster for live performances.

As for some teams, although they didn't have outstanding members, everyone cooperated well and didn't make any mistakes. The overall performance made the audience very comfortable.
