

Boss Is Reborn 354

Chapter 354. Voting

At the end of the performance, thunderous applause suddenly broke out in the venue. Ding Shan heard countless people shouting "X". The decibel of their screams was even higher than the cheers that the most popular Wen Xiu had received.

In less than a month, Mysterious X had already become so popular.

Ding Shan looked at the stage. Mysterious X and his teammates were standing in the middle of the stage and were being interviewed by the host.

Mysterious Person X didn't seem to want to be in the limelight. He gave the opportunity to speak to his teammates. When the host asked him, he only replied with a few words. His attitude wasn't enthusiastic, but it didn't seem perfunctory. It was more like he didn't like to talk much.

In the eyes of Yin Hui and the others watching the live broadcast, Xiang Hong's stern look was the most normal.

Xiang Hong did not speak much to outsiders and even in front of his good friends. However, Yin Hui and the others did not quite understand. Why did Xiang Hong and Ding Shan always look like they had something to talk about when they were together?

Could all of Xiang Hong's social skills have been used on Ding Shan?

After the host's interactive session ended, the vote tally for the dozen teams was almost over.

After each team's performance, the audience had two minutes to vote, so many teams' trainees would use these two minutes to ask for votes. However, some experienced trainees knew that it was useless to ask for votes. They might even cause the audience to dislike them, so it was better to say some light-hearted and humorous words to improve the audience's impression of them.

When Xiang Hong walked off the stage, a trainee on the same team said with pity, if only X had said a few more words just now. He's so popular. He might have been able to get more votes.

The other trainee laughed. "Don't force X. He's already exhausted these days to make our performance better. Do you still think that our team's votes can surpass that of Lion?"

As the overall strength of Mysterious man X's team was relatively poor, he had developed a detailed training plan for everyone these days. He even personally participated in the song adaptation. In addition to his practice, he had an average of fewer than three hours of sleep daily.

"Why can't we surpass the lion? I think we've done our best today. I didn't make any mistakes I usually make, and you all performed perfectly. Didn't you hear the applause from the audience?" Someone retorted in dissatisfaction.

"The audience's applause is for Person X, right? He's so popular on the internet right now. No matter how many votes our team gets in the end, he'll be able to advance. As for us ..." His voice gradually became softer, and the disappointment in his tone was unmistakable.

The others also fell silent.

The Festival Group arranged two voting segments. The first segment was to vote for each group's performance. The second segment was to let the audience vote for 'Your favorite trainee' after all the performances ended. The votes in the second segment would be counted as the personal votes of the trainees.

In addition to the live audience, the audience participating in the voting would also randomly select audience members online to vote to ensure the fairness of the process.

The atmosphere in the group was a little depressing. Xiang Hong looked at the few members beside him and said calmly, "I didn't finish this performance alone. The audience's applause is for the entire performance."

Was Xiang Hong trying to comfort them? The other trainees were stunned.

It was probably because Xiang Hong usually looked cold and indifferent, so although everyone acknowledged his strength and leadership ability, there had always been a barrier between them. Their relationship could not be considered close.

When they heard Xiang Hong's words, they felt flattered, and at the same time, they also felt a trace of warmth.

"Besides," Xiang Hong looked at a team not far away, and a sharp glint appeared in his eyes. "The team that ranks first will get additional votes from all the group members, right?"

The number of votes for the team in the first place far exceeded that in the second and third places. If Xiang Hong's team got first place, then the less popular members of the group might be able to avoid being eliminated.

However, in the first place ... Could they do it?