

Boss Is Reborn 361

Chapter 361. The Night of The Finals

Ding Shan was relieved to hear Yang Lu's words. After Yang Lu becomes a civil servant, she can work in her studio. In Ding Shan's opinion, Yang Lu had potential. She was ready to give some of the resources in the studio to Yang Lu. She believed that Yang Lu would not disappoint her.

On the night before the finals, Chen Tong and Wen Xiu's scandal had a significant impact on the two of them.

There was no need to talk about Chen Tong. She had relied on the support of her sugar daddy to get to where she was in the entertainment industry. Now that she dared to go behind her sugar daddy's back and date a pretty boy, she naturally had to pay a heavy price.

On the other hand, Wen Xiu was also in a miserable state. To put it nicely, he was an idol, but to put it bluntly, he was a trainee who had not debuted yet. In China, it was tough for fans to accept the relationship between an idol and a trainee.

Idols and trainees weren't capable stars, and it wasn't easy to get good resources when they weren't popular. They didn't have a solid foundation in the entertainment industry, and if they wanted to survive, they could only rely on fans' support.

In the eyes of fans, they spent money to see their idol work hard to develop his career, not to see their idol use their money to fall in love or have a woman!

Not to mention the fans who fantasized about their idols as their virtual boyfriends. It was even more difficult for them to accept their idols in love.

This time, Wen Xiu was walking at a dead end. He had lost many fans, and his popularity had plummeted. He had dropped from second place to eighth place on the voting list.

Soon, it was time for the third public performance. This was the last program of the Festival Group, also known as the 'Final night.' On this night, the audience would vote for nine members to form a male idol group.

Among the nine outstanding members, the team with the highest ranking would become the strongest team in this year's Idol Creation Camp after the votes of the trainees from the same team were added up. The instructor would also be awarded the title of 'The strongest instructor.'

Three days before the competition, Ding Shan had barely seen Xiang Hong. She guessed he was busy preparing for the program on the night of the final.

Although they could not see each other, Xiang Hong would still chat with her on the phone daily. 'Good morning' and 'Good night' were never absent.

Only now did Ding Shan finally feel the reality of being in love.

Every day when she woke up, she would receive a Good morning, and someone would always be by her side. Morning to night, from the present to the future.

Ding Shan was looking forward to seeing Xiang Hong again after the finals. She had already thought of her answer and wanted to tell him herself.

The night of the finals finally arrived. Today, the usually lively online world seemed to be even more vibrant. The news about the finals of Idol Creation Camp spread to various social media platforms. The fans of the trainees made many posters and promotional videos to campaign for votes for their idols. Some ordinary audience members had also finished their other things early and were waiting for the live broadcast to start.

As the live stream's countdown went from ten seconds to zero, the night of the final officially began.

The stage for the final night was located on the open-air beach. The Festival Group had spent considerable money on building a stage space. Three giant circular screens showed the trainees' performance in all directions, and the excellent lighting made the night as bright as day.

With the vast night sky above them, the open-air atmosphere made the audience feel even more excited. Everyone was loudly shouting the countdown numbers. When the countdown reached zero on the screen, all the lights came on, and the special effect fireworks around the stage suddenly shot into the sky. The entire venue was in a wave of carnival.

There was a wide space in the audience stand, and the five instructors sat in their seats.

Ding Shan appeared grandly today, wearing a limited edition dress sponsored by Kaipuu. The bright red dress set off her noble Princess-like temperament, and her hair was tied up high with a mini crown. She was lively and cute but also had a low-profile luxury like a noble.

Even without the luxurious dress, Ding Shan's beauty was enough to make her the event's focus. She wore the exclusive Kaipuu limited edition dress that only international superstars could wear.

After she got together with Xiang Hong, Ding Shan discovered that Kaipuu had come to work with her because of Xiang Hong. At that time, she felt like she was living off a man.

However, Xiang Hong told her that Kaipuu was already preparing to make her the spokesperson for the next half of the year. He did not interfere with Kaipuu's decision. If Kaipuu were not satisfied with Ding Shan, they would not work with her a second time, even if they did so initially for Xiang Hong's sake.

Ding Shan had proven her popularity and value, and that was why Kaipuu continued to choose her.