

Boss Is Reborn 365

Chapter 365. Not The Ultimate Goal

Ding Shan's eyes sparkled as she looked at Xiang Hong, clapping her hands.

He did it.

"Ding Shan, congratulations, all three of your team members have stepped out of their daze. It's a pity that Wen Xiu didn't step out. Otherwise, it would have been four." Li Yang said to Ding Shan while clapping.

"Yeah, there's no doubt about the title of the strongest team this time." Chen Xi, who was beside them, also chimed in. I just asked the staff, and they told me that Mysterious X's votes exceeded the second place by more than 700000 votes. It's incredible."

Therefore, if there were no surprises, the total votes of Ding Shan's team members would be first.

Ding Shan wasn't too attached to the title of the strongest team. She had already achieved her goal of coming to this show. Now she was extremely popular on the internet and had a good reputation; she had also successfully changed her style in the show, letting the audience see her growth and massive potential for future development.

From now on, Ding Shan's path in the entertainment industry might not be smooth sailing, but at least it was guaranteed to be an uphill road.

After announcing the results, the emcee passed the microphone to Mysterious X, asking him to share his thoughts on winning first place.

"I haven't decided yet; let them go first." Mysterious Person X did not take the microphone.

The host was stunned for a moment, but she quickly changed the order of the interview at the last minute and let the ninth-ranked person start with his thoughts.

"I didn't expect to be able to step out of the sect. I've never been confident, but after joining Teacher Ding Shan's team, she talked to me many times. She's really like my sister. She saw the strengths of every member of our team and encouraged us to pursue our dreams, not to forget our original intentions, and not to lose ourselves. Even if I failed today, I learned much from Teacher Ding Shan's team. I'm very grateful to her. Teacher ding Shan, I love you!"

The trainee in ninth place was highly excited. Tears fell as he spoke, and his voice cracked when he shouted the last sentence.

Ding Shan was also a little surprised. She didn't expect her team's trainee to always talk about her. She stood up, took the microphone, and said, "Your achievements today result from your hard work. I believe that you will go even further in the future. All the best!" After she finished speaking, Ding Shan blinked her eyes playfully. "Also, everyone, please don't misunderstand the last sentence of this trainee."

The trainee in ninth place finally remembered what he had said. He blushed and quickly returned the microphone to the trainee in eighth place. He lowered his head and was too embarrassed to speak.

Ding Shan heaved a sigh of relief and looked at Xiang Hong.

Xiang Hong raised his eyebrows and looked back at Ding Shan.

When the trainee suddenly confessed to Ding Shan, Xiang Hong was surprised. When he heard the last sentence, he almost couldn't hold it in.

Ding Shan probably noticed the change in his eyes, so she added the last sentence to prevent the audience from misunderstanding.

However, Xiang Hong would never admit to this. Would he be afraid of a love rival? What a joke.

The other trainees gave their comments individually, and it was finally Mysterious X's turn.

The host looked at Mysterious X expectantly and was about to ask a few questions. The host knew Mysterious X was a man of few words, but it was okay if he didn't usually talk much. Today was the night of the finals, and he was in the first place. How could he not say a few more words?

However, to the host's surprise, Mysterious X took the microphone and nodded politely at the host, indicating that he would like to speak alone.

The emcee was elated to see that Mysterious Person X had something to say. This saved her the trouble of finding a topic in her mind. The emcee quickly stepped aside.

Xiang Hong was holding the microphone. The stage lights shone on him, making him look dazzling. He slightly squinted his eyes, and his expression was relaxed with a hint of sloppiness. His gaze did not hesitate to lock onto a person in the sea of people as if this person was the center of his entire world.

"First of all, I would like to explain something. I came to this show to get first place, and now that I've done it, I'm very grateful to the audience for their support. However, my ultimate goal isn't to leave the way. I'm here for a person."

Mysterious Person X's words stunned everyone present. Even the netizens in the live broadcast room were shocked. Rows of question marks flashed across the bullet screen.
