

Boss Is Reborn 51

Chapter 51: 51. Family reunion

Ding Shan looked at these explicit comments and blushed slightly. She sighed helplessly. Who would have thought that Ding Yuan exposed the scandal between her and CEO Jin?

Ding Shan felt that some things could not be done just because she was soft-hearted. She originally wanted to use CEO Jin to retaliate against her, but she had not considered posting this matter online.

She had thought that Ding Yuan was a girl, so she had left some details. However, she had not expected Ding Yuan to be so unsatisfied that she even wanted to use those wounds to smear her reputation.

Ultimately, she countered every move her way and caused this matter to blow up. Perhaps this was because Ding Yuan had brought this upon herself!

Xiao Zhao was overjoyed. She still had some unfinished business, "Sister Shan, you're amazing. You came up with such a good idea. This way, the rumor of her accusing you of domestic violence will be destroyed. She will also be accused of slander. This is great. The three of them can be reunited in the detention center!"

Ding Shan nodded. Such an outcome was naturally delightful. Although they were all detained, in the eyes of the public, their image had been tarnished. In the future, it would not be so easy to smear her again.

They should also learn a lesson and think about whether the audience would be willing to buy their words.

The people who had supported Ding Yuan on the Internet had also gone silent. In this era, it was no longer about who was weak and right. They were at a loss and explained in the comments, feeling wronged. They never thought such a soft and fragile little girl would slander her sister for domestic violence or sayshe was fooling around with men!

In this day and age, the morals of the world are declining. All kinds of strange things could happen. Did she even have a bottom line?

Ding Shan's fans, on the other hand, were crazily reposting the police notice as if it was the new year. They wanted nothing more than to announce to the world that Ding Shan had been wronged!

Two days ago, those who said that her younger sister had accused Ding Shan of domestic violence all widened their eyes to take a look. Didn't they say that they had to wait for evidence? Now, they had enough evidence to slap their faces!

After this incident, some netizens became Ding Shan's loyal fans. They all felt there would be no way an unfortunate little girl like Ding Shan would be in the world.

Her parents did not care. They had deducted Ding Shan's earnings from her work for many years and beat her up in public. One could imagine what kind of life Ding Shan was living at home.

Her manager didn't do anything either and almost ruined Ding Shan's career. All of this was bad enough. In the end, she had a black-hearted sister who took the opportunity to bite her back. This family was going to torture Ding Shan to death!

However, Ding Shan didn't disappoint. She was decisive and domineering in handling matters. It was satisfying. The net surfers felt they had watched a soap opera in the past few days. Their moods rose and fell with Ding Shan, and her fans surrounded them.

On the other side, Ding Yuan was not having a good time at the police station.

Once the results of the appraisal were out, Ding Yuan was dumbfounded. She never expected that CEO Jin's fingerprint would still be left on her back after so many days had passed.

That night, she was tortured to death by CEO Jin. She only felt pain all over her body. She did not notice that there was still a mark on her back, and the results were found.

Ding Yuan was devastated and helpless. She didn't dare to think about what the people outside would say about her. She cried and made a scene in the police station. She hated Ding Shan to death in her heart.

If she hadn't caused trouble and insisted on sending Ding Wan and Wang Chun to the police station, she wouldn't have been so anxious to come up with the idea of accusing her of domestic violence.

She made a mistake that would cause eternal hatred. This time, even she was involved!

Ding Wan and Wang Chun, who were in custody, would never have thought that Ding Yuan, expecting to think of a way to bail them out, would seek her death and send herself to the detention center.

Now, their family of three could be said to be notorious. They had utterly become famous, but it was just with a bad reputation. Countless people denounced them and were still digging up their dark history.

Ding Wan often squandered and gambled in the club. Wang Chun cleared the shopping mall and spent all of Ding Shan's money. The fans were thoroughly enraged and exposed the details of their lewd lives on Weibo.

Some people found evidence of Ding Yuan's bullying at school. She spent her young age with the family's money in nightclubs and bars. Pictures of her with smoky makeup and smoking cigarettes were also dug out.

Everyone could not help but sigh. Her private life was so chaotic, yet she still had the nerve to use those scars to slander Ding Shan. Was she playing more tricks behind her back?

Chapter 52: 52. Stood up CEO Jin

The three members of the Ding family were all trapped in the detention center and didn't know what was happening outside.

Ding Shan held a cup of hot milk and stood in front of the bright, spacious French windows. She looked at the sky that had utterly darkened. The lights outside were brilliant, and the traffic was heavy. She curled her lips into a smile.

Ding Wan and the others wouldn't think they were being punished in the detention center. Everything was still early. She didn't know what CEO Jin would do if he had to wait for them tonight.

Ding Wan naturally didn't forget about this matter. Ding Wan became increasingly impatient in the detention center as time passed.

It was almost time for CEO Jin's orders. He was about to go home to capture Ding Shan. It was still unknown where that b*stard Ding Shan had run off! Where was Ding Yuan? She couldn't have gone home. Wouldn't she run into CEO Jin?

Ding Wan had no access to the outside world, so he thought he couldn't send a message to Ding Yuan. He wanted to tell her to find a place to hide for a few days, and he would think of a solution when he got out.

In the current situation, he didn't have any assets in his hands, so he had to cling to CEO Jin. He couldn't afford to offend him.

How could Ding Wan have imagined that not only did Ding Yuan not hide, but she had also walked right into the trap? She had personally cut off Ding Wan's hope of clinging onto CEO Jin. If he had heard the news, he would have wanted to bang his head against the wall and die in the detention center.

CEO Jin, who Ding Shan and Ding Wan had remembered, had fun the entire day. After eating and drinking his fill, he remembered that he had invited Ding Shan, this incredible beauty, to spend the night with him and smugly rubbed his oily face. He chuckled and turned to ask his bodyguard, "Have you done what I asked you to do?"

His bodyguard bowed respectfully. "CEO Jin, I've already informed the Ding family."

They had been busy standing guard all day and did not have the opportunity to use their phones. Naturally, they did not see the news on the Internet and did not know that something big had happened to the Ding family.

CEO Jin was delighted. "Then go quickly. Don't let my baby wait too long!"

The bodyguard waved his hand, and a luxury car drove over from not too far away. A few people escorted CEO Jin into the car and headed towards the Ding family house.

Once they reached the ground floor of the Ding family home, CEO Jin could not wait to order the bodyguard, "Quickly go up and invite Miss Ding Shan down. Don't neglect my baby!"

The bodyguard accepted the order and went upstairs alone to knock on the Ding family's door. However, after waiting for a long time, no one came to open the door.

The bodyguard did not suspect anything at first. After all, when he came to inform them, he had already made it clear that if the Ding family members did not want to court death, they should not play any tricks. The bodyguard worked for CEO Jin; his methods had always been callous. He had never seen anyone who dared to disobey CEO Jin's orders.

However, the Ding family house was silent. Indeed, no one was at home. The bodyguard's face was filled with shock and doubt. It couldn't be. Were the Ding family so brainless that they dared to stand for CEO Jin Up?

The bodyguard didn't give up. He no longer knocked on the door politely. Instead, he punched it hard.

What a joke! If the Ding family ran away and CEO Jin couldn't find Ding Shan tonight, not only would the Ding family suffer the consequences, but he would also lose his life if he didn't do his job well!

Unfortunately, the person he was looking for was already locked in the detention center. No one would open the door, no matter how hard he hit it. The bodyguard's face turned black. He cursed and went downstairs dejectedly.

CEO Jin was still waiting in the car. His heart tingled when he thought of the snow-white body and the miserable screams that night.

He liked this kind of female celebrity the most. He could torture them at will for money. He was not afraid that they would go out and spread rumors. After all, they were the most afraid of being exposed.

However, he did not expect that, after waiting for a long time, he would see the bodyguard come downstairs alone with a pale face.

CEO Jin was instantly displeased. "Where are they? Where are the people that I want?"

The bodyguard quickly lowered his head and admitted his mistake. "CEO Jin, it's my fault for not doing my job properly. I was careless and did not send anyone to watch over them. The Ding family... The Ding family, this group of people who don't know the vastness of heaven and earth, actually ran away. There's no one at home!"

The muscles on CEO Jin's face twisted. "What? Did they dare not to take my words seriously? What are you doing? Didn't you make things clear to them?"

The bodyguard was extremely afraid. CEO Jin's power was so great that it was a small matter for him to crush anyone casually.

The Ding family didn't have eyes. Even if they wanted to die, they still wanted to drag him down! The bodyguard quickly knelt on the ground. "CEO Jin, I made things clear to them. The people that CEO Jin wants, how could I have the right to stop them? I never thought that they would have the guts!"

CEO Jin narrowed his eyes, "Very good. It's been a long time since someone challenged me like this. Are they playing hard to get? Their plan is wrong. Did they dare to run? Then they don't need their legs. Get Up and investigate for me. If they are not here, then help find them!"

The bodyguard quickly got up and thanked him profusely. "Thank you, CEO Jin! I'll find those who have the guts to do this!"

Chapter 53: 53. Actually dared to play tricks on me

CEO Jin held back his anger and panted as he sat in the car, waiting for news. He had never been treated so lightly before. They dared to stand him up and let him waste his precious time waiting here for someone!

CEO Jin swore and kicked the car door. He was highly annoyed.

If it weren't for the excellent taste of that night, he would have left long ago. It was her fortune that he fell in love with Ding Shan!

The Ding family didn't know what was good for them. They were underestimating him by thinking of taking the money and leaving.

However, in CEO Jin's heart, Lust still prevailed. He planned to wait until he caught the Ding family and broke Ding Wan's leg to teach them a lesson.

Ding Shan still had to stay. If he breaks her leg, there would be no fun in bed. For the sake of the beauty, it would be fine if he let them go. They liked the cat and mouse game, so that he could play with them. It was also kind of fun!

CEO Jin sneered and licked his fat lips. He was secretly looking forward to it.

When he caught them, he would have to spend a good time in bed so that his wait would not be in vain. He would give the little beauty a taste of pain and see if she would dare to run away next time!

Just as CEO Jin was still thinking about ways to torture her, the bodyguard walked over, covered in a cold sweat with his phone. He cringed and said, "CEO Jin! Something has happened! Something has happened!"

CEO Jin rolled his eyes and looked very dangerous. "Useless! You Can't even handle such a small matter! What could have happened? Could they grow wings and fly away? Is there someone I can't find?"

The bodyguard handed the phone over while trembling. "CEO Jin, look. The Ding family has been arrested and taken to the police station. Ding Shan is fine, but her sister has something wrong!"

Of course, the bodyguard knew Ding Shan, but they never saw her face that night.

She was a mistress that CEO Jin had bought. Naturally, the bodyguard did not dare to ask too much about her. However, when he saw the news just now, he realized that Ding Shan was fine, but the internet was discussing the news that Ding Shan's sister, Ding Yuan, was having an affair with a man and was covered in injuries.

The bodyguard's heart quivered, and a bold idea suddenly came to him.

He naturally knew CEO Jin's sexual style. The screams in the room that night were constant, and when he thought of Ding Yuan's injuries, the bodyguard was so scared that he almost peed in his pants on the spot.

No way! The Ding family wouldn't be so bold!

The bodyguard couldn't believe it, but he had no choice but to muster up the courage to ask CEO Jin.

Only CEO Jin could understand this matter. He kept hoping in his heart that it wouldn't be as he thought. The Ding family was courting death, and his subordinates would also have to suffer CEO Jin's wrath.

President Jin narrowed his eyes. He looked at the panicking bodyguards and felt disdain in his heart. What could the Ding family do?

He reached out to take the phone. The more he looked at it, the darker his expression became.

It turned out that they weren't audacious enough to stand him up on purpose, nor did they grow wings and fly away. Instead, they beat up Ding Shan on the street and were arrested by the police. What was up with Ding Shan?

CEO Jin continued to follow the news. Suddenly, he saw that Ding Shan's sister had accused her of domestic violence and was reported to the police by Ding Shan instead. He found out that a man had injured Ding Yuan. The ominous feeling in his heart grew stronger and stronger, and his fingers unconsciously opened the video.

In the video, Ding Yuan showed the wound on her body to the camera with an aggrieved look. CEO Jin had no recollection of that face at all. He didn't care about the clear and flat face, but that slender arm and fair skin... It looked familiar no matter how he looked at it.

That red mark seemed to have been drawn out by him with a whip.

CEO Jin was so angry that he could not believe it. He stared at it with his eyes wide open until he saw that someone had posted a picture of Ding Yuan's wound being examined in the hospital.

Wasn't that the fingerprint he had made on her back with his hands that night?

It was CEO Jin's hobby. He especially liked to abuse a woman's back from behind. In addition, that night was so dark, and that woman seemed to have intentionally left her back for him. Which played right into CEO Jin's hands; he played with it for a while.

Now that there was a reasonable explanation, CEO Jin flew into a rage and threw the phone away.

His eyes were red and rosy, making him look even more ferocious with the fierce flesh on his face. CEO Jin gritted his teeth and said, "D*mn it, how dare you play with me!"

Chapter 54: 54. Bail out

CEO Jin's rage was intense, and he smashed the phone. The bodyguards were all as quiet as quails. They stood rooted to the ground in fear and did not dare to make a sound, afraid that CEO Jin would vent his anger on them.

Even the driver was restless. He wanted to escape from the car quickly but did not dare to make any moves. Everyone present realized that the Ding family was finished.

CEO Jin kept cursing, "F*ck, they're playing me like a monkey. I wanted to sleep with a female star like Ding Shan. How dare they use a little girl to fool me!"

When he thought of Ding Yuan in the video, CEO Jin felt it was a loss no matter how he thought about it. That bland and tasteless individual didn't want to sleep with him. After turning off the lights, her fair and smooth skin was still quite delicious.

It turned out that she was still young, which was a good thing. No wonder he had enjoyed himself so much that night, and it wasn't vain for him to wait for so many days.

However, he was satisfied. The Ding family's behavior of trading a civet cat for the crown prince was still unforgivable. No matter what kind of beauty it was, they lied to CEO Jin. Where would CEO Jin put his face?

CEO Jin fiercely spat on the ground; he gritted his teeth and ordered, "Take the money and bail out the Ding family. It's too easy for them to stay in the detention center. Get them out. I want to settle the score between us!"

The bodyguard tried to persuade him, "Boss, it's usually fine. We have people we can talk to. We can stuff the money in, but this matter is too big. Many people are paying attention to it on the internet. If we bail them out now, I'm afraid..."

CEO Jin's eyes hardened. He grabbed something from the car and threw it at the bodyguard; he scolded in a coarse voice, "Then why don't you find more people! Stuff more money in! Do I lack money? I want to see them! Do I need to care about who pays attention to this matter? If you can't do it well, you don't have to come back to see me. Get lost!"

The bodyguard bowed repeatedly. "Ok, ok. If you want to see them, there's no problem. I'll do it right away!" With that said, he jogged away.

The rest of the people wished they could hide. They mourned for their brother in their hearts.

It was his bad luck to be targeted by CEO Jin and sent to do such a task. He only hoped that CEO Jin would quickly calm down and not arrange any other complex problems.

Fortunately, CEO Jin still had a trace of rationality. He did not openly go to the detention center to apprehend people. Instead, he sat in the car and panted in anger. He saved his anger and waited for the three people to come out before torturing them.

Tonight, CEO Jin was initially looking forward to having sex. He was excited and in a wonderful mood. However, he did not expect that he would not see them and that such a thing would happen.

If they had not been caught and could not deal with it, then he would have been kept in the dark that he slept with a little girl in a daze.

The more he thought about it, the angrier he got. CEO Jin had nowhere to vent his anger, but he had no choice but to push it back. He was extremely frustrated.

CEO Jin took out a cigar from his pocket and put it in his mouth. The other bodyguard quickly went forward to light the cigar. After inhaling and exhaling for a while, he felt even more aroused. He suddenly remembered something, he asked the bodyguard, "Since the three of them have been captured, where is Ding Shan? Find her for me. I don't believe that she doesn't know about this. She joined forces to lie to me. It's time for me to teach her a lesson."

In CEO Jin's eyes, Ding Shan was just a plaything. But now, the plaything didn't know what was good for her. She found another creature that wasn't even a plaything to lie to him. She was courting death!

Since Ding Yuan had been captured, he could settle the score later. Wasn't Ding Shan still fine? Then he would capture her and add in the share from last time to make up for her mistake.

He had wasted two hundred million, but he hadn't even played the main character yet. How could he let Ding Shan escape just like that?

The bodyguard didn't know where Ding Shan had gone. He stuttered for a long time until CEO Jin glared at him fiercely. Then he hurriedly said, "I'll go and investigate right away! I'll bring her to you when I find her!" After saying that, he also ran away.

CEO Jin exhaled a puff of smoke gloomily. He knew that it was useless to be anxious. He could only find someone to vent his anger on.

Ren Dingshan ran to the ends of the Earth. He wanted to capture her and bring her along with her family. He wanted them to bear the consequences of their provocation!

CEO Jin smiled sinisterly and casually threw the cigarette away, he ordered, "I've been holding it in all night. Go to the club. I'll find a woman to vent my anger first. Tell those two people that I'll throw them into the river to feed the fish before I see them after I vent my anger!"

The driver nodded repeatedly and drove President Jin to the clubhouse that he often went to.

Chapter 55: 55. Boss was also a fan?

Under Boss Jin's orders, the bodyguards were busy arranging the bail for the Ding family and the search for Ding Shan.

However, things did not go as smoothly as they had imagined.

As the bodyguards had expected, this matter had blown up too much.

There were tens of millions of netizens nationwide. With so many pairs of eyes staring at the scandal of the Ding family, they all felt that the actions of the Ding family trio were unheard of and could no longer be considered entertainment news. It could be said to be a social phenomenon. There were also countless Ding Shan's fans who were continuously gathering evidence, preparing to add fuel to the fire and send Ding Wan and the rest directly from the detention center to the prison.

Under such circumstances, a single mishap could ruin their reputation. No one dared to let people bail Ding Wan and the rest out. Once the netizens discovered them, it would be the end of the world!

This made the bodyguards extremely anxious. Even if CEO Jin did not care about the cost and handed over so much money, no one dared to have any wishful thinking at this time. They were extremely polite with their words, but no one dared to agree.

The bodyguards had no choice and did not dare to go back to report—what a joke. CEO Jin said that he would throw him into the river to feed the fish before seeing anyone after he was done. CEO Jin could do it!

Fortunately, CEO Jin usually had to go through the whole night with his work. There was still some time left. The bodyguard wandered helplessly at the entrance of the detention center in the middle of the night. He even had the heart to break into the prison.

CEO Jin and his bodyguard were not the only ones who had not slept at this late hour.

Xiang Hong stood on the top floor of the busiest commercial building in the city. He looked down at the night view of the entire city. His expression was cold, as if he was thinking about something.

Xiang Hong's assistant, Xu Yan, politely knocked on the office door. After hearing Xiang Hong's low reply.., he stood at the door respectfully and reported, "Chief Xiang, the cooperation with country A has been negotiated. The Secretariat has already prepared the meeting records and drafted the contract. Bringing it over for you to take a look."

Xiang Hong nodded lightly as if he was not surprised at all. He was already confident of his success. He casually took the document that Xu Yan handed over and frowned slightly as he started to look through it.

Xu Yan quietly raised his head and glanced at Xiang Hong. His heart was filled with doubt. Everyone urged him to come in and deliver the documents.

It couldn't be helped. It was already so late, but everyone had been working overtime because of this international meeting.

It should have ended early. However, the meeting was only halfway through. Xiang saw something on his phone and became a little absent-minded. He then left early; he handed the rest of the meeting to his colleagues.

Xu Yan thought something big had happened and quickly followed him out. In the end, he was ordered to find out more about Ding Shan.

Everyone knew about Ding Shan. She was a household name child star and a double honor best actress. However, what shocked Xu Yan was that he heard from Xiang that this had nothing to do with work, and it was just a celebrity!

Usually, they were most concerned about stocks, exchange rates, and the economic policies of various countries. They were also concerned about gathering information about their competitors. They did not have the time to pay attention to which celebrity had a scandal. However, Xiang asked and Xu Yan did not dare to delay.

In a short while, Xu Yan gathered all the information about the Ding family and placed it on Xiang Hong's desk.

What Xu Yan didn't know was that Xiang Hong had already read the information about Ding Shan through other channels.

Therefore, he didn't bother to look at Ding Shan's information. Instead, he frowned and briefly browsed through the other people's information. After looking at it for a while, he threw it aside in disgust. His frown deepened, and he appeared to be a little angry.

Xu Yan was confused. Could it be that something in the Ding family had offended President Xiang? Or that Xiang wanted to enter the entertainment industry?

That shouldn't be. Did Crazy Xiang abandon an international conference to be angry and troubled over a celebrity's family matters alone? This was simply too crazy!

Xu Yan boldly guessed in his heart. Could it be that Xiang was also a fan of Ding Shan?

He didn't know it!

As a top-notch personal assistant, Xu Yan confidently said that he knew all of Xiang Hong's hobbies and habits.

But he had never heard of any star that Xiang liked. So many beautiful female stars dreamed of fawning over Xiang, but in his eyes, there was only work that he could never finish.

Chapter 56: 56. I don't like watching

However, Xu Yan didn't expect that something even crazier was still to come.

Xiang Hong thought for a while and said, "What do you usually do to explain a scandal? Buy a troll army? Go and contact them."

Xu Yan couldn't help going against his professionalism. He lost his composure in front of Xiang Hong and expressed disbelief. For the first time, he questioned his hearing. "Chief Xiang, are you sure... you want to buy a Troll Army?"

1

Xiang Hong seriously thought for a moment and nodded calmly. "I don't like those brainless words on the Internet. Go find someone to say something nice."

Xu Yan could not help but ask, "Boss, can I ask why? Of course, I'm not questioning your decision. I'm just wondering if I should evaluate the specific situation of this operation. Are we going to enter the entertainment industry? Ding Shan... .. Is she your partner?"

Xiang Hong touched his chin and thought for a while. He smiled, "If that's the case, then it's not wrong. Isn't Yin Hui going to produce a variety show? He's already decided to work with Ding Shan. If Ding Shan's image is damaged now, his variety show will die before it even starts. He begged me to invest quite a bit. As a good brother, I'll help him. At the same time, I'll act as an investor to protect my project. Isn't that normal?"

Xu Yan let out a long sigh of relief. Only then did he feel that it was normal.

As expected, Xiang was still the same, who only liked to work—chasing female celebrities was too surreal. It was simply impossible!

Hence, Xu Yan nodded his head in a businesslike manner. He turned around and was about to leave to look for the Troll Army team. He had never dealt with such matters before, so he still needed to do some homework.

However, just as Xu Yan reached the door, Xiang Hong stopped him. "Wait for a moment!"

Xu Yan walked back quickly. "Chief Xiang, do you have any other instructions?"

Xiang Hong bent his body slightly and looked at the computer carefully. His slender fingers tapped on the mouse. Suddenly, his brows softened, and his expression was pleased. "There's no need to look for them. This little fox has made her move."

Then, he smiled meaningfully and leaned back lazily on the chair.

Xu Yan could feel President Xiang's mood was much happier than before. He was also curious as to why he suddenly stopped him.

Hence, he went forward to look at the computer. Then he realized that Ding Shan had reported the case directly after she came out of the hospital.

Once the news was out, the direction of public opinion on the Internet changed again instantly. More and more people supported Ding Shan. Ding Shan used the law to block those groundless guesses almost without wasting a single fighter.

What a talent! This thinking and decision-making were enough to do emergency public relations in a top company like President Xiang's!

Xu Yan praised sincerely, "In the past, I only knew Miss Ding Shan's acting was good. I didn't expect her to be so smart. It's a pity that her family dragged her down. In this era, there are such crazy family members. It isn't terrific. I don't know how Miss Ding Shan endured until today."

Xiang Hong curled his lips and stared at the video of Ding Shan's interview on the computer. He looked at the woman's pale little face and exhausted and helpless look and smiled playfully, "She's just a little fox. I should have known that she wouldn't give up without a fight. She doesn't look like someone who would be at a disadvantage."

During the meeting just now, Xiang Hong saw the Weibo post. Initially, he didn't want to pay attention to it.

However, when he saw Ding Shan's name in the headline, Xiang Hong slipped out of the meeting to open the news. He did not expect it to be Ding Shan's family drama.

Ding Shan had fainted from being bullied by her parents. She had just been discharged from the hospital when she was bullied again. That so-called younger sister dared to boast shamelessly and accuse Ding Shan of domestic violence.

Xiang Hong snorted in his heart. That woman was indeed like a little wild cat. However, Xiang Hong did not believe she had a vicious heart that could beat her younger sister.

That woman's eyes were very bright and pure. There was stubbornness and even wildness in them. However, she was not a vicious person.

It was also one of the reasons why Xiang Hong was still very interested in Ding Shan after that night. Xiang Hong had seen countless people and was confident he could tell if a person's heart was pure.

Chapter 57: 57. Boss was about to fall in love

Xiang Hong was a very possessive person. Even in his career, as long as it was a project that Xiang Hong took a fancy to, no one else could get their hands on it.

Although Xiang Hong had not made any progress in his relationship with Ding Shan, Ding Shan was the first person that Xiang Hong had observed, which was already very unusual.

In Xiang Hong's heart, he could investigate Ding Shan again or even tease her and play the game of "Guess who I am?"

Ding Shan had already been included in Xiang Hong's territory. If others wanted to bully Ding Shan, Xiang Hong would disagree.

Xiang Hong casually browsed through the comments at the bottom of the page, and the more he read, the more uncomfortable he felt. These idiots online did not have their brains in their comments. He did not know if that woman would be sad when she saw this.

As celebrities, didn't they care about these comments the most?

There were also those family members who kept acting like demons. How could they be considered family members when they were so insane? Xiang Hong thought skeptically. Since her family members had hurt her to this extent, there was no need for such family members anymore. Getting rid of them for her as soon as possible would be good.

When he thought of the possibility that Ding Shan might hide in a corner and cry secretly and that her bright and beautiful eyes that seemed to be able to seduce people might have lost their luster, Xiang Hong felt a little stifled in his heart. He could not hold it in any longer and left the scene; only then did he think of asking Xu Yan to look for the Internet trolls to brush up on the comments.

Unexpectedly, Ding Shan did not disappoint Xiang Hong. Before Xiang Hong could make a move, Ding Shan had resolved the public opinion dilemma by herself and fought a beautiful comeback battle.

Xiang Hong's interest in Ding Shan grew stronger. He knew that that woman was not as incompetent and weak as she appeared in front of the camera. She should not be a string puppet that was despised by others, but a clever and adorable person. She was like a cunning and witty little fox.

She would not hide and cry in secret. She would hug her fox tail, squint her eyes and laugh secretly!

2

Xu Yan looked at the admiration and indulgence in Xiang Hong's eyes and felt that things were not as simple as they seemed. How was Xiang Hong acting like this to help Chief Yin? He had mortal desires! The iron tree had blossomed!

This was even scarier news than the collapse of the stock market!

Xiang had a crush on Ding Shan!

Before Xu Yan could digest this news, Xiang Hong's deep, cello-like voice sounded, "Go and say hello. Those two scumbags must have been dishonest in the detention center so that you can take care of them. As for Ding Yuan, go and investigate what happened to her. There might be some inside information. Find out who that man is."

Xu Yan swallowed his saliva. This was the first time he had seen Xiang put so much effort into something outside of work. He was angry about his girlfriend

Miss Ding Shan's charm was great. Not only did she make Xiang abandon his work and go online in the office, but she also made Xiang angry because of these things.

After all, Xiang had always been a lightning rod. If they found something, the Ding family would be in trouble.

Xiang Hong was still focused on Ding Shan's interview. He thought of something and said, "You guys have done a good job tonight. The project has been completed. Everyone gets a bonus at the end of the month. Let's get off work!"

Xu Yan's eyes lit up. He had thought that they would have to stay up all night again. After all, he was used to staying up all night and working overtime under such a workaholic boss. He had not expected that they would get off work at this time, and also get a bonus!

President Xiang must have been in a good mood when he saw that Miss Ding Shan was out of trouble. Even the rest of them would benefit from this!

Miss Ding Shan is too good, Xu Yan thought silently in his heart. He wished that President Xiang would be able to get his hands on this beauty as soon as possible. If that was the case, the people in the company might have a good life every day!

Xu Yan was excited in his heart, but he still maintained a reserved smile on his face. He bowed slightly and said, "Then I'll thank President Xiang on behalf of everyone. I'll inform them to get off work now and then go deal with the Ding family's matters."

With that, Xu Yan left the office with light steps, ready to inform the others of the good news.

Although Xu Yan still had to work overtime to help Xiang, who was about to fall in love, deal with his personal affairs, he was very happy in his heart. It was just that this shocking secret could not be casually revealed to others.

However, when he thought that Xiang was in a good mood and had fallen in love and if he had to go on a date with Miss Ding Shan, perhaps he would never have to work overtime with his workaholic boss until dawn in the future. Xu Yan could not help but smile.

Chapter 58: 58. Helped Jin Li

Soon, Xu Yan returned to Xiang Hong's office with the information he had found.

Everyone in the company had left, leaving only Xiang Hong's office with the lights on.

Xiang Hong was still working on the documents with his head lowered. His expression was cold, and his eyebrows were slightly furrowed. Even in the middle of the night, he was still full of energy.

Xu Yan sighed lightly. President Xiang had always lived like a machine that only knew how to work. He did not have any hobbies and did not like to socialize.

President Xiao Yin would occasionally come to the company and act shamelessly. Although President Xiang always despised him, he could only show his relaxed side.

He was young and talented, but while he enjoyed his fame, he also carried a lot of burdens. People only saw the wealth in front of President Xiang, but they did not know that the lights in the office of the company's president were always on until dawn.

Xu Yan sincerely admired Xiang Hong and was also worried about his manner of working.

If Xiang really could have someone he liked, he would have more humanity.

The mortal world's fireworks were the most soothing to the hearts of mortals. He hoped that Miss Ding Shan could become that person. Looking at the information in his hands, Xu Yan sighed again.

Miss Ding Shan's life was not easy either. It was very rough, but fortunately, she had a strong personality. Like Xiang, she was an intelligent person with extraordinary talent. It seemed that she was a good match for Xiang.

After work the next day, he had to pass down the order. Miss Ding Shan's group was the essential thing in the future. He had to put it on the president's desk in time!

Xu Yan's plan was interrupted by Xiang Hong's voice.

Xiang Hong saw Xu Yan standing at the door with the documents in his hand out of the corner of his eye. He did not make a sound and asked, "Why are you standing there like a fool? Have you done what I asked you to do?"

Xu Yan quickly sorted out his thoughts and walked quickly to Xiang Hong's side, he reported seriously, "Boss, I found out that the man is a famous nouveau riche Jin Li. He made his fortune by investing in real estate. He's famous in the circle for being a womanizer. In recent years, he has invested in a lot of movies and ruined a lot of female celebrities." As he said this., Xu Yan observed Xiang Hong's expression a little nervously.

Sure enough, Xiang Hong had already guessed something when he heard this. His expression immediately turned cold and his eyes were clouded. "I'm afraid that Ding Yuan's appearance doesn't catch his eye, right? He initially wanted Ding Shan."

Xu Yan nodded, "That's right. Ding Wan sold Miss Ding Shan to Jin Li at the price of 200 million yuan. However, an accident happened that night. Miss Ding Shan successfully escaped, and the person who spent the night with Jin Li became Ding Yuan. Miss Ding Shan should have known about this long ago."

Xiang Hong sneered and cursed in his heart. He still felt that his anger had nowhere to dissipate. He stood up and walked to the French window, taking a deep breath. "Very good. As a father, he sold his daughter for 200 million yuan. No wonder she..."

Xiang Hong did not finish the rest of his sentence because he finally understood why Ding Shan would break into his room that night. Moreover, she was drugged and did not hesitate to cut his palm open.

So it was because Ding Wan sold her to Jin Li.

Xiang Hong felt a wave of frustration in his heart. If Ding Shan had not escaped with her strong willpower and coincidentally met him, what would have happened that night? Who would see such a passionate and touching Ding Shan? Jin Li? Hmph, he wasn't that lucky!

Xu Yan knew that Xiang Hong would be angry after hearing this. This Ding Wan was indeed a beast. Jin Li was also blind and even tried to get his hands on the woman that Xiang had taken a fancy to. However, there was another piece of news., he believed that Xiang would be in a better mood after hearing this.

Xu Yan continued, "Boss, you don't have to worry. We just received news that Jin Li's people are outside the detention center and want to bail out the Ding family. It's said that Jin Li was kept in the dark before. When the news broke out, he realized that he had been deceived. He's going to settle the score with them. We can watch them bite each other's heads off."

Xiang Hong raised his straight eyebrows. "Oh? Did they bail them out?"

Xu Yan shook his head. "This matter is too big. The detention center didn't dare to agree."

Xiang Hong smiled cruelly, "Then help Jin Li. Put some pressure on him and let Jin Li take the blame. According to that perverted mentality of his, he might be more appeased than us. No matter how we deal with the people in the detention center, we won't go too far. Jin Li might not."

Chapter 59: 59. Bail out

Xu Yan understood and nodded. He secretly complained in his heart: The Boss also said that Miss Ding Shan was a little fox, but he was the scheming big fox. Not only did he intend to give Ding Wan and the rest an even more terrifying lesson, but he had given Jin Li's name to the capital's underground force that perpetrated crimes unheard of. He hid his intentions and importance!

Xiang Hong added, "There's no need for him to know we're helping him. Just let him think that he's mighty. But tell him he can deal with Ding Wan's family as he pleases. Ding Shan can not be touched. If he still wants to get his hands on Ding Shan, he shouldn't blame me for not being polite."

Xiang Hong's eyes narrowed slightly, emitting a dangerous light.

Xu Yan couldn't help but laugh. The boss was terrific. He had never been in a relationship before but was devoted just at the inception. He had already become a wife-protecting maniac.

Xiang Hong looked at Xu Yan and raised his eyebrows. "Do you still have any questions?"

Xu Yan hurriedly shook his head and suppressed his laughter. He replied thoughtfully, "I'll go and do it right away."

Xiang Hong waved his hand and resumed his work.

Not long after, the bodyguard waiting outside the detention center suddenly received the news that Ding Wan and the other two could be bailed out. The bodyguard was still a little puzzled. Why could they be bailed out all of a sudden? At first, he did not have any hope. Could it be that the big shots in the upper echelons had suddenly come to their senses?

However, time was of the essence, and the bodyguard did not have time to think further. As long as they could be bailed out, it was good enough. Regardless of the reason, his task was completed.

Therefore, according to the procedure, the three members of the Ding family were bailed out at midnight.

When Ding Wan and Wang Chun saw Ding Yuan at the entrance of the detention center, their eyes almost fell to the ground. Wang Chun cried out, "Little Yuan! Why are you here? What Happened?"

Ding Yuan's expression was ugly. She knew she had done something stupid, so she was reluctant to say it directly. "Nothing, don't make a fuss."

Ding Wan narrowed his eyes. He had a bad feeling about this. He quickly asked, "What did you do? You never went home?"

Wang Chun was also worried about this. "That's right, little yuan. You didn't go home. CEO Jin said he would come to our house to pick her up. That B*tch Ding Shan isn't here. Mom was so worried that you would be... why did you come to the detention center?"

Only then did Ding Yuan remember that CEO Jin would pick up Ding Shan tonight. Unexpectedly, not only did Ding Shan escape again, but she was also sent to the detention center.

However, this could be considered a blessing in disguise. She was sent to the detention center but avoided going home. She never wanted to see CEO Jin again. When she thought of that fat body, Ding Yuan felt disgusted.

Ding Yuan comforted herself proudly. It was not a big deal to be in the detention center anyway. She would be bailed out soon. What could Ding Shan do to her?

Thinking of this, Ding Yuan looked at the man in a suit who was staring at her with a cold face. She was puzzled. Who was the one who bailed out their family at this time?

Ding Wan also realized this. He rolled his eyes and immediately walked toward the bodyguard with a smile on his face.

However, if one looked closely, one would find that his eyes were full of suspicion and questions, "Are you the gentleman who saved us? Aiya, you're a good-looking man. I see that your clothes are not ordinary. May I know which boss you are? Forgive my poor eyesight, but I have to thank you properly!"

The bodyguard snorted coldly. He did not care about a cunning and sinister person like Ding Wan at all. In any case, they would be badly beaten up by CEO Jin in a while.

In the eyes of the bodyguard at this moment, Ding Wan and the others were no different from useless people.

Moreover, Ding Wan's probing was also very low-level. How could he reveal his identity and say that he was sent by CEO Jin? Then these three people would probably run for their lives.

Thus, the bodyguard pretended to be impatient and continued with a cold face, "If it weren't for your old friends begging my boss, I wouldn't have bothered with your matters. Don't waste your time. Get in the car!"

The bodyguard deliberately made it very vague. There were many old friends. It would depend on which one they could name in their place.

Sure enough, when Ding Wan and the other two heard this, they immediately thought of Yang Hua.

That was because only Yang Hua was tied to them. Now that they could not beat Ding Shan and the money had been divided, Yang Hua would come to them to get her money back if she wanted to deal with Ding Shan. Moreover, Yang Hua had a lot of connections, it was normal for her to know some big bosses.

The bodyguard only said one sentence, but Ding Wan and the other two had a lot of imagination. They all felt that their logic was very reasonable and immediately felt relieved.

Chapter 60: 60. Trap

Wang Chun was still a little unhappy. She had already fallen out with that B*tch, and now she had to rely on that B*tch to bail her out of prison. Perhaps that d*mn Yang Hua was still thinking about Ding Wan, or rather, she was still thinking about Ding Shan's money; that was why she worked so hard and so actively to save them.

The more Wang Chun thought about it, the angrier she got. She said sarcastically, "Good job, Old Ding. Your good lover is quite amazing. She found a big boss to help so quickly. I'm afraid she has been hooking up with you a lot. She doesn't follow you wholeheartedly either."

Ding Wan turned around and glared at her. "Would it kill you to say less?"

When the bodyguard heard that Ding Wan and the others already had a suitable backer, he heaved a sigh of relief in his heart. Fortunately, he managed to fool them. Then, he urged them even more confidently, "What are you waiting for? Don't tell me you guys like to stay inside. In that case, I don't have to waste my effort."

Ding Wan quickly went forward and winked at him. "Look at what you're saying! We're leaving right now, but..."

Ding Wan's legs went weak when he thought about CEO Jin's matter. He was afraid that if CEO Jin didn't see him, he sent people to guard his house. If he went back now, wouldn't he be walking into a trap? He might as well stay in the detention center!

Ding wan said hesitantly, "It's... not convenient for us to go home now."

Wang Chun and Ding Yuan also thought that CEO Jin might be waiting for them at home. They felt afraid and looked at the bodyguard eagerly.

How could the bodyguard not know what they were worried about? He smiled maliciously and said, "Don't worry. Our boss sympathizes with your suffering and specially booked a suite in a luxury hotel. He will treat you well."

Ding Wan and the other two did not understand the gloating tone in the bodyguard's words. Instead, they heaved a sigh of relief. They felt that they were really lucky. As they were worried that they had nowhere to go, someone had booked a room.

The three of them followed the bodyguard into the car with great pleasure. They did not realize that they had stepped into another hell from prison.

In the blink of an eye, the car arrived at a five-star hotel. The bodyguard was still polite as he led the three of them to the presidential suite on the top floor.

Ding Wan's eyes darted around. He was still thinking that this boss was so generous. He had to find an opportunity to properly thank him and take advantage of this opportunity to get to know him.

However, he did not know that the moment he entered the room, the bodyguard said into his headset, "They're already here."

In a few seconds, four to five burly men dressed like this bodyguard swarmed into the room. Without saying a word, they surrounded the three of them.

Ding Wan was stunned and turned pale with fright. "What are you doing?"

But now that they were in someone else's territory, no one would bother about him anymore.

A few bodyguards began to search the three of them. Ding Yuan kept screaming, "What are you doing? Don't touch me! What are you doing!"

Wang Chun cursed, "Who told you to do this! We are guests invited by your boss. How dare you humiliate us like this!"

The bodyguard who was responsible for bailing them out could not help but laugh coldly, "Guests? Do you still think that someone helped you escape from your crimes and let you stay in such a good hotel? Seeing how stupid you are, I can't bear it. I don't know whether you're worthy or not!"

At this point, what did Ding Wan and the other two not understand? This was a scam! It was a trap!

But now, they could not run even if they wanted to. After being searched by the burly men, they were kicked. They knelt on the ground, bound tightly by ropes.

Ding Yuan screamed, "This is kidnapping! It's illegal imprisonment! Is there still any law?"

The bodyguard laughed disdainfully, "If there was a law, you wouldn't have been bailed out by me. There are some people you can't afford to offend because he's scarier than the law. Just wait here obediently!"

With that, the few bodyguards left the room, leaving Ding Wan and the other two kneeling on the ground in fear, nervously thinking about who they had offended.

From the act of being tied up as soon as they entered the room, it could be seen that the other party was full of malice towards them.

Moreover, in the suite on the top floor, they could be said to be silent every day. This made them extremely afraid of the unknown possibility in the future.

Ding Wan's forehead was full of sweat, praying in his heart: Please don't be like I guessed! Please don't be President Jin!
