

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack

Chapter 12: Visiting the Chu Family for the First Time

The bodyguards led Matriarch Chu to the ward and explained what had happened.

“We were too far and couldn’t rush over in time. It was that woman on the motorbike who rushed over. If she hesitated just a little, I’m afraid both she and the little young master might have...”

The group of people reached the ward and pushed the door open. They only saw Chu Yu’s little body sleeping on the bed, but the woman who saved him had disappeared.

There was a note on the cabinet beside the bed with some words written on them: [No need for thanks.]

At the back of the hospital, a black-colored sedan was parked there.

Shen Ruojing limped her way out and got into the car.

The man who was driving was named Lu Hui. He was roughly 25 years old and had bright teeth and red lips, which caused him to resemble a girl. If one listened to his voice closely, they would be able to discover that he was none other than the person who called her earlier.

“Boss, you discarded your beloved motorbike, so it can be seen that the situation was very urgent. But why did you have to gamble with your life? What were you aiming for?”

Shen Ruojing gingerly moved her legs. Her peach blossom eyes closed as she leaned against the leather seat. She then asked in a lazy manner, “What happened to my bike?”

“I sent it for repairs.”

Lu Hui saw Shen Ruojing’s expression through the rearview window before he continued weakly, “Previously, we had a discussion about the biological petri dish patent. Have you considered it? The other party is willing to pay quite a high price.”

“I didn’t consider it.”

Shen Ruojing wasn’t in the mood to talk about this.

Hence, Lu Hui could only shut up.

Ai, who would have thought that Professor Z, an internationally famous microbiologist, was actually this young woman?

Yet, she simply didn't give a damn about money.

Others wanted to give her money to earn, but she refused it. She could be wilful because she had many patents!

When Shen Ruojing reached home, her parents were already asleep.

She then entered her room and removed the gauze. After a simple cleaning, she took out a small unlabeled bottle and used the medicine inside to apply to her wound. Her wound instantly stopped hurting.

Only then did Shen Ruojing lie down.

Actually, she didn't understand what was happening back then. When she saw that child, she thought that it was Chu Tianye, so she didn't hesitate to charge over.

The situation then was more urgent than what she imagined.

However, that child she saved was really adorable. He kept tugging her sleeves and refused to let go, wanting to bring her to the hospital. When she was dressing her wound, she didn't even frown, but the little child was crying so badly on her behalf.

There was no solution, so she could only tap a few of his acupoints and make him fall asleep. It was only then did she finally manage to leave.

She originally planned to go to the Chu Family but decided not to after all that had happened. She would make a trip tomorrow morning instead, and at that time, the DNA report should also be out.

The next morning after Shen Ruojing woke up, she drove straight to the Chu Family.

The atmosphere there was currently very "lively"

Lin Wanru came early in the morning and hugged Chu Yu as she kept sobbing. "Little Yu, how could you run out just because mommy didn't satisfy your request? Also, you didn't even tell me you were going home and caused me to keep looking for you the entire night!"

Chu Yu expressionlessly pushed her away.

Matriarch Chu coldly snorted. "When Little Yu is with me, he's very obedient and sensible, but why did he want to run away when he went out with you?"

Lin Wanru sobbed and wiped away her fake tears. "A kid will always be stubborn in front of their mother. Aunty, Little Yu must be badly frightened. Can I stay here a few days to accompany him...?"

Matriarch Chu hesitated when she heard this.

Chu Cichen had made it very clear to forbid Lin Wanru from staying in the Chu Manor overnight. However, children would always tend to look for their mothers when they were not well...

Lin Wanru felt that she had a chance, and just when she was about to say something more, Chu Yu suddenly spoke, "No! I don't want her! I hate her! Go away!"

Lin Wanru's countenance instantly turned gloomy.

When Matriarch Chu saw her expression, she strode to the door with great momentum. "I'll send you out."

Lin Wanru could only follow her reluctantly.

After the two of them left, the door was pushed open once more, and Chu Tianye and Chu Xiaomeng entered. Chu Tianye then grumbled, "Your mommy is really loathsome!"

Chu Yu lowered his head. He felt that it was really embarrassing to have such a mother.

Chu Tianye then climbed onto his bed and sat down. He shook his leg and boasted, "My mommy is different. She's cool and charming, knows everything, and is the most beautiful woman in the world!"

Chu Yu immediately recalled the woman who had saved him yesterday. He rebutted, "Nonsense, the beautiful aunty that saved me yesterday is definitely prettier than your mommy!"

Chu Tianye was unhappy. "How can that be possible? I've never met someone more awesome than my mommy!"

Chu Yu snorted. "The beautiful aunty is very impressive with her motorbiking skills."

"My mommy is very impressive too!"

Chu Yu: "That beautiful aunty also knows how to tap acupoints. She tapped a few of mine and I fell asleep!"

"My mommy knows that too!"

"The beautiful aunty smells very fragrant and her body is very soft."

"My mommy is fragrant and soft too!"

Chu Yu was unhappy. "The beautiful aunty is the best woman in the world. I'm going to make daddy marry her. If daddy refuses to do so, I will marry her after I grow up!"

Chu Tianye grew anxious. "No way! Daddy has to marry my mommy, my mommy is the best. Sis, I'm correct, right?"

Chu Xiaomeng, who was called out, was currently hugging her cloth doll as she dumbly stated, "...Oh!"

Chu Yu immediately suffered a disadvantage since it was two versus one.

He then lifted his chin unhappily and lost his temper, deciding not to speak.

When Chu Tianye saw this, he pondered before speaking, "My mommy will come today. How about going to see her later with me? As long as you see her, you will surely feel that she is prettier than your so-called 'beautiful aunty'!"

Chu Yu snorted. "Impossible!"

Chu Tianye wanted to continue speaking, but his phone suddenly rang. He lowered his head and glanced at the notification as he exclaimed in surprise, "My mommy is here. Let's go and find her!"

Chu Tianye pulled Chu Xiaomeng along with one hand, while his other hand was pulling the reluctant Chu Yu.

Outside the door.

Lin Wanru still didn't want to give up. "It's because I interacted too few times with my child so he didn't want me..."

Matriarch Chu impatiently spoke, "A mother and son would have a bloodline connection. You are thinking too much."

"..." Lin Wanru didn't know what to say. After that, the butler came over. "Matriarch, Shen Ruojing is here. She's outside."

Matriarch Chu's expression turned cold. "I've said it. Before this matter is clear, she cannot enter!"

The butler nodded and went to handle this matter.

Lin Wanru's eyes gleamed. "Aunty, I will make a move first."

"Mn."

After Lin Wanru left, Matriarch Chu was planning to head upstairs, but she suddenly saw the silhouettes of three children acting sneakily and running toward the entrance gate.

She frowned and followed them.

Outside the gate.

Shen Ruoqing was clad in loose clothes that hid the wound on her leg.

She leaned against her car and waited impatiently for some time, but the butler actually told her to go back. "Miss Shen, you should return. The Chu Family temporarily doesn't welcome you."

Lin Wanru also followed the butler out and spoke as though she was the female master of this house. "Shen Ruoqing, why are you so persistent like a ghost haunting a place?"

She walked toward Shen Ruoqing and whispered, "Let me tell you the truth. With me here, don't even think of entering the gate of the Chu Family!"

As the sound of her voice faded, she heard three voices filled with joy and surprise ringing out behind her.

"Mommy!"

"Mommy!"

"... Beautiful aunty?!"
