After the three little ones called out, they realized that something was wrong.

Chu Yu was the first to speak. "The clothes he's wearing... don't look like Daddy's. Daddy never wears stuff like this."

Chu Cichen had taken off his work clothes and was wearing Song Chen's old clothes: a worn-out denim jacket, a simple white T-shirt inside, a pair of black pants that were obviously too tight, and a pair of sneakers.

Apart from the sneakers, the other clothes looked somewhat ridiculous on him, as if a refined gentleman had suddenly put on a peasant's outfit. The clothes didn't quite match his temperament.

Chu Tianye was also stunned. "Yeah, Daddy looks so poor now."

Chu Xiaomeng held her dinosaur plush toy, also stunned. "Also, Daddy is angry at home right now. He wouldn't be here." Chu Yu. "So, if this person isn't Daddy, then who is he?"

Chu 'lianye. "Is he Daddy's twin brother?"

Chu Xiaomeng. "Daddy doesn't have a twin brother."

As the three little ones kept discussing the matter, Chu Yu couldn't help but ask, "Mommy, who is he?"

Shen Ruojing didn't know how to answer the children, so she remained silent. But then, Chu Tianye suddenly said, "I know! He's the stepdad Mommy found for us!"

Shen Ruojing.

Chu Yu and Chu Xiaomeng looked at Shen Ruojing in shock.

Shen Ruojing twitched the corner of her mouth. But instead of denying it, she simply opened the car door and said to Chu Cichen, "Get in."

Chu Cichen obediently sat in the passenger seat.

Shen Ruojing spoke up, "Should I take you back first?"

"No," Chu Cichen said seriously, looking at her. "I want to be with you." Shen Ruojing thought for a moment.

The man had opened his eyes and seen her first, so he must be somewhat dependent on her. It wouldn't be appropriate to force him to go back, so she simply said, "Alright, come with me to the Shen Manor then."

So, when they all arrived at the Shen family and entered the living room, Shen Yuansong stared at Chu Cichen in a daze. "Are you sure he's not Chu Cichen?"

Shen Ruojing. "...Just call him Song Chen for now."

Shen Yuansong dragged Shen Ruojing aside. "He looks exactly like Chu Cichen.

Jingjing, what's the meaning of this?"

Shen Ruojing coughed, not knowing how to explain.

Shen Yuansong frowned. "Jingjing, even though you are Grandpa's granddaughter, there are some things Grandpa has to say. Chu Cichen is definitely a good man. He's capable and ambitious. It hasn't been long since the Chu family moved to the capital, and they've become one of the top families, even competing with our four great families... Now, people are even saying that there are five great families in the capital..."

"Besides all that, when he used to live with you at this manor, I observed carefully that he treated you extremely well. What you're doing now is not right!

Old Master Shen Yuansong had only experienced a couple of years of romance in his life before parting ways with Grandma Yun from the Yun family. Therefore, he didn't quite understand love and romance and felt that his granddaughter's actions were wrong.

How could she find a pretty boy who looked just like Chu Cichen and keep him at home?

Could it be that after going to Country A and becoming a princess, she hadn't learned the other royal customs but had learned how to feed a pretty boy?!

It must have been that scoundrel Jing Zhen who corrupted his granddaughter!

That was what Shen Yuansong, who disapproved of his son-in-law, thought.

Shen Ruoqing coughed again, touched her nose, and said, "Grandpa, he looks like Chu Cichen because of plastic surgery. This is all somewhat related to me. Now that he has lost his memory and his means of making a living, I can't just watch him being bullied, so I brought him home first. As for Chu Cichen... I guess we are just not meant to be together."

Seeing his granddaughter's determined attitude and knowing her character, Shen Yuansong sighed quietly. "Then what about Chu Cichen..."

"I've already made it clear to him. We've broken up."

Afraid that Shen Yuansong would continue to probe, Shen Ruoqing hurriedly bypassed him and prepared to lead Chu Cichen upstairs to find a guest room to stay in.

But before she could walk over, she saw Chu Tianye already grabbing Chu Cichen and directly looking up, saying, “Stepdad, why don’t you sleep with me tonight?”

Shen Yuansong instantly looked unhappy. “Stepdad?”

Shen Ruoqing.

Suddenly, she felt like she couldn’t explain herself!

Chu Cichen looked down at Chu Tianye, his mouth twitching at the word ‘stepdad: He then glanced at Shen Ruoqing, looked upstairs, and nodded.

“Alright!”

So, Shen Ruoqing led them all upstairs.

The rooms prepared for the three little ones and Shen Ruoqing were three interconnected rooms, which made it easy for Shen Ruoqing to take care of the children at night.

As a result, Chu Cichen and Chu Tianye sleeping together meant they were only separated by a door from Shen Ruoqing’s room.

As Shen Ruoqing lay in bed, she heard the rustling conversation coming from Chu Tianye and Chu Cichen’s room. “Stepdad, don’t worry. We’re all very open-minded. As long as you can make Mommy happy, we’ll never object to you two being together.”

Then came Chu Cichen’s voice, seemingly through gritted teeth. “You are really a filial son!!”

Chu Tianye. “Oh, you don’t have to praise me-

Listening to Bai Shanshan's words, Shen Ruoqing suddenly narrowed her eyes.

How could Chu Cichen possibly do such a thing?

She couldn't believe it!

Without hesitation, she said, "I'm going to check it out now."

After hanging up the phone, Shen Ruoqing went out, and Chu Cichen had just finished his run and was going upstairs.

The man had been running for half an hour, and there was a thin layer of sweat on his forehead. Seeing Shen Ruoqing going out, he asked with a puzzled expression, "What's going on?"

Shen Ruoqing glanced at him, thought for a moment, and said, "Matriarch Chu is under house arrest. As a result, Chu Cimo couldn't stand it and went to the Chu family to confront him. Now, Chu Cichen wants to expel him from the Chu family, so I'm going over to take a look."

The man paused slightly.

Shen Ruoqing seemed not to notice his reaction and asked, "Are you coming with me?"

Chu Cichen lowered his eyes. "I don't know them, so I won't go."

Shen Ruoqing glanced at him and left without saying anything.

She went straight to the Chu Manor and saw that Bai Shanshan's car had arrived, but Bai Shanshan didn't go in. Instead, she waited for her at the door. Shen Ruoqing greeted Bai Shanshan, and the two of them went inside together.

The living room of the Chu Manor was a mess at the moment.

Chu Cimo was held down by the security guards. His head was pressed down, and he was struggling fiercely.

As for Song Chen, she sat on the sofa with his legs crossed, dressed in a suit and leather shoes, exuding a sense of authority. He looked coldly at Chu Cimo and said in a deep, cold voice, "As the second son of the Chu family, you spent all your time indulging in eating, drinking, and gambling. You're a disgrace to the Chu family. Today, as the head of the family, I will expel you from the family."

Chu Cimo roared, "Brother, you can't do this! Mother has been so good to you. She'll be heartbroken if you do this!"

Song Chen lowered his eyes. "What does her heartbreak have to do with me? Everything is her choice! She left me abroad when I was a child and never cared about me. Now, I'm back to take charge of the family, and she wants to send my children away behind my back. Is this her intention for me?"

Chu Cimo hadn't expected his big brother to say this and felt chilled to the bone.

Initially, he was really afraid of his elder brother and didn't have a close relationship with him, as he had always been abroad. However, after his elder brother returned, they slowly got to know each other, and Chu Cimo found that his brother was just cold on the outside but warm on the inside.

When Bai Shanshan had an accident, their family confronted the Bai family.

At that time, he thought that his elder brother would fear the Bai family's power and ignore Bai Shanshan. However, he later realized that he didn't know his elder brother well enough.

His elder brother didn't say anything and just stood behind him, sheltering the family from the wind and rain.

At that time, he felt that his elder brother was truly majestic, and he admired him greatly.

But now, how could his elder brother become like this?

Hearing this, Chu Cimo stared at him. "Mother has always cared about you; she just didn't express it. Big brother, hurry up and release her! Her health isn't good lately. She can't be locked up like this!"

However, Song Chen did not answer this question and just looked at Chu Cimo. After that, he said, "She is my mother. Even if she is locked up, she won't lack food and clothing. It's just a lesson for her. You don't need to worry about it. You should worry about yourself first!"

After Song Chen finished speaking, he sneered. "I heard that you joined Valor Gate and was once a famous thief named the Rooftop Gentleman. When did a child of the Chu Family become a thief?"

Chu Cimo was stunned. "I have never stolen anything I shouldn't have. The Valor Gate has explained this once."

Song Chen sneered. "That's the punishment of Valor Gate, but the Chu family has never punished you from beginning to end! Chu Cimo, think about it, how many crises have the Chu family encountered because of you? In Sea City, you beat up Bai Shanshan's ex-husband for your own pleasure, causing a huge public opinion storm for the Chu family. After coming to the capital, because of you and Bai Shanshan, the Chu family and the Bai family have never cooperated successfully, and now they are even avoiding cooperation. But what about you? What are you doing every day? Being uneducated and hanging out with a bunch of prodigal sons? The Chu family doesn't support idlers! From today on, you are expelled from the family!"

Chu Cimo listened to his cold words one by one, only feeling as if an ice-cold knife had pierced his heart.

Recently, he returned to Valor Gate, and every day after practicing martial arts, he would go out and help the Valor Gate expand their connections to aid the Chu family. But he had never expected that all of his efforts would be denied by his big brother in one sentence.

Chu Cimo felt very wronged.

When Bai Shanshan's identity as a granddaughter of the Bai family was exposed, Shen Ruoqing was treated badly at home for a while. At that time, Chu Cimo told Bai Shanshan privately that he would not work in the Chu Corporation because he didn't want to put his big brother in a difficult position.

Although his sister-in-law's identity was later exposed, he still didn't want to go. He didn't want to give outsiders the wrong impression of brothers fighting for family property.

His big brother had been abroad for the family since he was a child, so Chu Cimo had never thought about competing with his big brother for anything. But now, his so-called concessions and not causing trouble for the family were considered useless by his big brother?!

He was furious and shouted, "Fine, you can do whatever you want to me, but I want to take mother with me!"

His big brother had given too much for this family.

Even if his big brother treated him like this now, he still couldn't bear to compete with his big brother for anything.

After all, money could always be earned back.

But he didn't expect that as soon as he said this, Song Chen sneered. "Where would you live with her? Do you have money? A house?"

Chu Cimo was about to speak, but Song Chen sneered. "Are you thinking about the villa in the suburbs of the capital? It was bought with Chu family's money. Chu Cimo, let me ask you, have you ever contributed a penny to the family?"

Chu Cimo was speechless!

At this moment, he felt useless for the first time!

He really hadn't earned a single penny for the family.

Shen Ruojing happened to enter the door. Hearing these words, she said directly, "I can support her, release Matriarch Chu, and let her go with me!" Song Chen didn't seem to expect her to come and even looked behind her, seemingly disappointed that he didn't see the person he wanted to see. He sneered. "Miss Shen, since we have broken up, we have even less of a connection. What qualifications do you have to support my mother?"

Shen Ruojing frowned.

Just then, a cold voice suddenly came from the doorway.. 'Then I should have the qualifications, shouldn't I?"

Chapter 583: Ungrateful to Family

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone turned their head to see a tall man walking through the door.

The man looked a bit like Chu Cimo and Chu Cichen, but with a somewhat sinister appearance. His skin was even paler, looking like a shade-loving plant that hid from the sun all day long.

This person was someone Shen Ruojing had met before. It was Chu Ciyuan, the illegitimate son of the Chu family!

Seeing Chu Ciyuan, Chu Cimo was stunned and Song Chen frowned. "What are you doing here?"

"To fetch my mother," Chu Ciyuan spoke succinctly. "Over the years, I've never taken any money from the Chu family. I've earned my own money and bought my own house, enough to support my mother. We don't need to rely on the in-law's family for food and shelter. So, shouldn't I have the right to take my mother away?"

Song Chen narrowed his eyes.

Chu Cimo stared at Chu Ciyuan, clenching his jaw.

However, after a long while, Chu Cimo stood up and said, "That's right, my second brother is also my brother! He is my mother's son! Even though he is an illegitimate child of the family, he has always been registered under my mother's name. Elder brother, you say I have no prospects, but my second brother must have some, right?"

At this moment, these brothers, who grew up together but had been at odds ever since they were little, unexpectedly united.

Song Chen stared at the two for a long time before sneering. "Fine, you can take your mother away, but you're not allowed to take anything from the Chu family!"

After saying this, he waved his hand toward the people upstairs.

Shen Ruoqing looked up and noticed that the two security guards watching over Matriarch Chu's room were somewhat unfamiliar and didn't seem like people who worked for the Chu family.

Having lived in the Chu Manor for a while, she was familiar with the security guards who exercised every morning during her Tai Chi routine. These two strangers were clearly new.

The two men obeyed Song Chen's words and opened the door upon his signal.

After the door was opened, Matriarch Chu walked out.

At this moment, her eyes were red, and it was clear that she had heard the conversation downstairs.

She looked at Chu Ciyuan.

She had never expected that her good-for-nothing son would come to save her at this moment!

Matriarch Chu began to speak, "I won't leave. He didn't do anything to me, you guys.. "

Before she could finish, Chu Ciyuan impatiently said, "Just leave when you're told to. I don't want you locked up either. My current living conditions may not be as luxurious as here, but it's not terrible either. What? You can't bear to part with the wealth and honor here? Or is it that you can't part with your precious eldest son?"

Matriarch Chu had long since been accustomed to Chu Ciyuan's sharp-tongued speech.

Chu Cimo wanted to retort but held back after thinking it over.

Seeing Chu Ciyuan's awkward expression, Matriarch Chu suddenly laughed.

"Fine, I'll go with you and enjoy my second son's care in my old age!"

Hearing the words 'second son,' Chu Ciyuan's face instantly turned red.

He glared at Song Chen with an awkward expression before he coldly said to Matriarch Chu, 'Then let's go now. I drove here, and you don't need to bring anything. I may not have enough money to buy you luxury items, but I won't let you go hungry!'

After saying that, he went upstairs, grabbed Matriarch Chu's hand, and led her downstairs.

Matriarch Chu's eyes were slightly red, and after going downstairs, she looked at Song Chen. Matriarch Chu didn't understand why her relationship with her eldest son suddenly turned out like this. What happened to Chu Cichen?

However, she had always been a strong woman, so she just gave him a deep look and followed Chu Ciyuan and the others out of the door.

As soon as they left, Chu Cimo said, "Mother, what's wrong with big brother?"

Matriarch Chu sighed. "It's probably because Jingjing broke up with him, which irritated him and he vented his anger on us. Don't blame your big brother. He has given so much to the family since he was born. It's reasonable for him to have grievances now."

Although she said this, there was a hint of loneliness on Matriarch Chu's face.

Chu Cimo saw it and quickly held her arm. "Mother, it's okay. When big brother comes to his senses, we'll get him back in style. We'll punish him by making him kneel in the ancestral hall!"

Matriarch Chu's eyes reddened. "Alright. "

The group reached the parking lot, and Chu Ciyuan helped Matriarch Chu into the car.

Chu Cimo hesitated for a moment and didn't get in, so Chu Ciyuan sneered. 'What? You'd rather follow your wife to the Bai family and freeload, instead of seeing what I've achieved? Are you afraid you'll feel inferior?'

Chu Cimo was immediately provoked. "How is that possible? I'm just worried about letting Mother go with you, so I want to see where you live in case you bully her!"

These two brothers were indeed stubborn. One clearly knew that the other was using reverse psychology but still falling for it, and the other was using reverse psychology, knowing that he was exposed but still refused to back down.

So, everyone got into the car.

Shen Ruoqing, who was worried about Matriarch Chu, also followed in.

After some time, they arrived at a high-end residential area.

The housing prices in this area were around $50-60 million on average. Chu Ciyuan's apartment was a 500-square-meter flat with seven or eight bedrooms. Although it couldn't compare to the Chu Manor, it was still impressive that he could afford a place like this in the capital through his efforts.

When they entered, Chu Ciyuan immediately gave up the master bedroom for Matriarch Chu to live in.

They then all sat on the sofa with worried expressions. Bai Shanshan looked around, holding Chu Xiaoqi. Chu Xiaoqi then shouted, "Eldest uncle is bad.

Xiaoqi doesn't like him anymore!"

Everyone immediately looked at Matriarch Chu.

Matriarch Chu's face was haggard, and she didn't sleep well the night before. Hearing this, she couldn't help but say, 'Xiaoqi, be good. Your uncle is just in a bad mood for the moment. He'll come to his senses. '

After saying this, Matriarch Chu asked Shen Ruoqing, "Jingjing, what's going on between you and Cichen?"

Chu Cimo couldn't help but ask, "Yeah, sister-in-law, I just heard that you two broke up? Why did you break up? My brother may be cold and not considerate enough, but he's still a good person. Can't you give him another chance?"

Bai Shanshan also held Shen Ruoqing's hand. "Sister-in-law, big brother is usually good. I don't know what happened these past few days, but please forgive him."

Shen Ruoqing looked at the two of them and was about to say something when Chu Ciyuan suddenly looked at her and said sarcastically, "Women are really no good! Look at big brother, he is usually such a good person.. But because of a woman, he becomes ungrateful to his family!"

Chapter 584: Continue to Probe!

Translator: Lord bluefire

As soon as Chu Ciyuan said this, the other three people glared at him angrily.

Chu Cimo shouted, "Shut up, don't disrespect my little junior uncle!"

Bai Shanshan also frowned. "You can't talk to sister-in-law like that!"

Matriarch Chu also said, "Ciyuan, you cannot be so rude. This is your sister-in-law!"

But Chu Ciyuan didn't care about all that. Back in Sea City, he was deceived by a woman, so after learning the truth, he began to dislike women.

He hadn't been in a relationship for a while.

Now seeing his big brother change like this just because of a breakup with Shen Ruoqing, his anger intensified, and he felt even more that women were no good.

He sneered. "What sister-in-law? Didn't they just say they broke up? Talking about love, look at the three men in our family. I was cheated but let's not talk about that. As for Chu Cimo, even with a wife, he has accomplished nothing. And big brother? He's also tormented by a woman into falling so low to this point!"

After saying that, he stood up. "Women are really boring. They only delay my typing speed!"

After that, he went straight into the study and slammed the door shut.

Matriarch Chu immediately looked at Shen Ruoqing. "Ruoqing, he's just a weird-tempered person. Don't mind him..."

Chu Cimo also chipped in, "Right, this guy has always been sarcastic since he was young!"

Bai Shanshan couldn't help but say, "Sister-in-law, don't be angry."

How could Shen Ruoqing really be angry?

She just frowned and looked at Matriarch Chu. "Auntie,

But before she could finish, Matriarch Chu waved her hand. "Forget it, I won't interfere in your affairs. Ruoqing, I've always known that you're a good child. If you're unwilling to be with Chu Cichen, it must be because he did something wrong. But in any case, you must take good care of the three children."

Seeing her say this, Shen Ruoqing didn't know how to respond.

She pursed her lips. "Auntie, no matter what, the three children are your grandchildren! I will definitely bring them to see you often."

"Good..."

At this moment, in the Chu Manor.

Song Chen sat in the study with a gloomy expression.

His slender fingers tapped the sofa, and his eyes were flashing with a hint of sinister mockery.

With a face identical to Chu Cichen's, he displayed an elegant demeanor. But while Chu Cichen had an air of righteousness, Song Chen seemed more like a soul-fetcher from hell.

Right now, he was on the phone with someone.

Song Chen said, "Are you sure Chu Cichen has really lost his memory?"

The other party replied, "You've done so much, and he still hasn't shown up.

According to his proud personality, he probably has."

Song Chen paused for a moment. "Maybe they're just fishing for information. No, we can't easily believe them. Let's probe them some more."

The other party asked, "How do we probe?"

Song Chen laughed. "Now, his family members are like homeless dogs, yet they still have food and shelter, right? I heard that Chu Ciyuan is a hacker, codenamed CY. In that case, let's have our people probe him. I want to see if, when they truly become homeless, Chu Cichen will still be the same as he is now. At that time, if we can confirm that Chu Cichen has amnesia, we can proceed to the next step."

"Yes."

In Chu Ciyuan's apartment.

Shen Ruoqing sat with Matriarch Chu for a while and was about to leave when the door of the study opened.

Chu Cimo came out and handed a bank card to Matriarch Chu. "There should be enough money in here for our expenses. You can spend it first."

Matriarch Chu sighed, nodded, and took the bank card.

Chu Ciyuan was about to say something when his phone suddenly rang. He then walked to the side to answer it.

After hearing what the other party said, Chu Ciyuan glanced at Matriarch Chu and the others before he lowered his gaze. "I'll take this job!"

"Are you sure? I know you're skilled, but the other party said that if you take this job and don't do well, you'll alert the enemy and have to pay the penalty!"

Chu Ciyuan had made tens of millions as a hacker over the years. But he had also spent a lot. He had bought a house in Sea City, and after following the Chu family to the capital, he bought another house here.

This house was worth 50 million, but he had only paid a down payment of 30 million and had a loan of 20 million.

In the past, he could support himself by taking some random jobs every month. But now, with so many people suddenly in the house, he didn't want his mother to have to scrimp and save, so he needed to make more money.

So even after hearing the other party's words, Chu Ciyuan still said, "Yes, I'm sure."

The other party said, "Alright, I'll tell you the website they want to hack later.

You'll start tonight. The client wants some information from them."

"Okay."

He hung up the phone and turned around, only to see Shen Ruoqing standing behind him. Chu Ciyuan was startled. "What are you doing?"

Shen Ruoqing said, "Illegally hacking into someone else's website is against the law. You know that, right?"

Chu Ciyuan immediately felt a bit uneasy. Of course, he knew. Over the years as a hacker, he had done work for money, but he had mostly been playing it safe, never taking on jobs like this.

But now... Chu Ciyuan sneered. "How can you make money without taking some risks? And do you even know what a hacker is? What's legal and illegal is none of your concern, just mind your own business!"

After that, he went into the study and slammed the door shut.

Hacking into websites was, of course, illegal.

But Chu Ciyuan decided to take a chance to make money. As long as he wasn't caught, it would be fine. He was confident that he would leave no trace.

Shen Ruoqing frowned, knowing that he would be stubborn.

She sighed quietly.

Why were these brothers from the Chu Family all so disobedient?

Thinking about what might happen later, she decided to stay.

And sure enough, in the evening, there was a sudden knock-knock on the door.

Matriarch Chu went to open it and saw police officers standing outside. They asked, "Is Chu Ciyuan here? He is suspected of illegally hacking into someone else's website. We are here to brine him in.."

Chapter 585: You Are Not My son!

Translator: Lord bluefire

Hacking?

As expected, Shen Ruoqing guessed it right.

In fact, when Chu Ciyuan took on this task, she heard some of the content of the phone call, so she knew that it was unreliable.

Although she was also a well-known hacker, she never accepted tasks that break the law.

Now there were many restrictions on the cybersecurity law, and it was no longer as messy as before. Cybersecurity was also an important issue. Moreover, Chu Ciyuan underestimated the technical level of the relevant departments.

However, even if those people had a high technical level, it was impossible for them to find out so quickly that Chu Ciyuan had invaded their network.

So...

Shen Ruoqing stepped forward and asked directly, "How did you find out? Was there a report from someone?"

The staff member didn't really want to answer the question.

Shen Ruojing said, "I know Captain Cui, the leader of your special department. I think this small matter doesn't need to bother him, right?"

Upon hearing about Captain Cui, the two people finally spoke, "It was the people from the other website who discovered it, and they traced it back to you and reported it directly."

After the two finished speaking, they no longer answered Shen Ruojing's questions and looked directly into the apartment. "Where is Chu Ciyuan?"

Several people looked directly at the study.

The two officers then looked at each other and rushed over.

Shen Ruojing didn't stop them. Chu Cimo still wanted to stop them, but the two had kicked the door open and saw Chu Ciyuan trying to erase the traces of his intrusion into other websites.

Unfortunately, the police came too quickly, and he didn't have time to do so.

He was caught red-handed and had no defense this time.

The faces of the people in the living room turned black instantly.

Chu Ciyuan watched the actions of the police and stood up. He then took a deep breath and said, "I alone am responsible for my actions. The people in my family don't know what I'm doing. If you want to arrest someone, just take me away."

After speaking, he stretched out both hands.

The two police officers didn't hesitate to handcuff him and take him away.

Shen Ruojing stared at their departing figures, and a trace of darkness flashed in her eyes.

Matriarch Chu was extremely anxious. "What should we do now? It's over! Ciyuan broke the law!"

The previous incident with Chu Cimo was a misunderstanding, but now Chu Ciyuan was indeed breaking the law. Matriarch Chu knew that Chu Ciyuan must have been earning money through legal means.

But this time, he took a risk because of them.

Matriarch Chu's eyes turned red. As she heard the sound of the police car taking someone away downstairs, she asked directly, "What should we do, Jingjing? What should we do?"

Chu Cimo spoke up, 'Mother, don't worry. If worst comes to worst, I'll break him out of jail.'

Matriarch Chu slapped him on the head. "One of my sons has been taken away.

Do you want me to lose another one?'

Matriarch Chu subconsciously looked at Shen Ruoqing.

Shen Ruoqing said, "I'll call Captain Cui and ask what's going on."

Shen Ruoqing called Captain Cui directly, and after asking about the situation, her face darkened. She hung up the phone and said to Matriarch Chu, "Chu Cichen did it."

Matriarch Chu was stunned. "What?"

Shen Ruoqing also took a deep breath. "The hacked website is Chu Cichen's. I knew it, Chu Ciyuan's skills are pretty good, so how could he be discovered just after the intrusion? This is a setup!"

Matriarch Chu was dumbfounded.

Chu Cimo was also shocked. "How could this be... Why would my older brother do this?"

Matriarch Chu turned and walked out. "Jingjing, take us to find Chu Cichen!"

The group went downstairs and got into Shen Ruojing's car.

Shen Ruojing then drove them back to the Chu Manor.

As soon as the car arrived at the entrance of the Chu Manor, they got out of the car and tried to enter but were stopped at the large iron gate.

The gatekeepers had all been replaced and were no longer the servants from when Matriarch Chu was at home.

Seeing them, a security guard said, "I'll call the master to confirm."

When Matriarch Chu left, she didn't feel much, just thinking that she had run away from home. But when she returned, she found she couldn't even enter the front gate. So, her heart felt as if it had been gripped tightly.

She looked at the gatekeeper in astonishment, even feeling that she had misunderstood what she had just heard.

Did she need her son's permission to return to her own home?

A self-mocking smile appeared at the corner of her lips, and at this moment, her heart felt truly hopeless.

Soon, the security guard hung up the phone and said to the group, "The master said you can come in."

Matriarch Chu lowered her eyes and took a step forward, but she stumbled and almost fell to the ground.

Shen Ruojing hurriedly supported her.

Matriarch Chu patted Shen Ruojing's hand. "I'm fine, I'm fine."

Shen Ruojing stared at Matriarch Chu, seeing her so disheveled for the first time.

No matter what Matriarch Chu faced, she was always elegant, strong, and stubborn. But at this moment, she seemed to have aged more than a decade all at once.

Shen Ruoqing held her arm and helped her walk forward.

The group quickly arrived in the living room.

Song Chen was already sitting in the living room, waiting for them. Seeing them enter, he was not surprised at all, his expression still cold. He must have calculated that they would come.

Matriarch Chu stepped forward. “Cichen, why did you do this?”

Song Chen lowered his eyes. “A brother who doesn’t listen needs to be taught a lesson.’

This statement left Matriarch Chu speechless.

Shen Ruoqing stepped forward and said, “Chu Cichen, don’t go too far!”

Song Chen looked at her. “Jingjing, those who accomplish great things don’t fuss over minor details. A family must have absolute obedience to its head, just like managing an organization. Wasn’t that what you used to say when we were in the dark web organization? Every time we carried out a mission, you would say we should elect a leader, listen to their orders, and obey unconditionally. This is true for small groups and even more so for large families.”

Shen Ruoqing was stunned.

Although the man in front of her was talking about their past, she suddenly felt that he had become a stranger.

Shen Ruoqing didn’t speak for a moment, and Song Chen looked at Matriarch Chu again. “Besides, Chu Ciyuan is a bastard in the family, and he has always been on the edge of the law, repeatedly crossing the line. This time, I'm teaching him a lesson. I'm letting him know that there are some things he cannot do as I want him to avoid making bigger mistakes."

On the surface, his words seemed noble, but in reality, he just wanted to control the people in the family, making them all listen to him!

Shen Ruoqing stepped forward. "Chu Cichen, it was you who told me that even in the abyss, we should strive toward the light. Have you forgotten that now?"

Song Chen frowned, clenching his jaw. "I have always yearned for the light, never breaking the law or discipline. It's Chu Ciyuan who broke the law, so he must face legal punishment!"

Upon hearing this, Matriarch Chu stared at him and suddenly said, "You are not my son..'

Chapter 586: Identity Exposed!

With Matriarch Chu's words, the room suddenly fell silent.

Chu Cimo looked at Matriarch Chu and then at Song Chen.

He suddenly shouted, "That's right, you must not be my big brother. My big brother would never talk to our mother like that, nor would he ever force her. Also, he would never be so domineering to my sister-in-law! My brother is like a quail in front of my sister-in-law!"

Bai Shanshan was puzzled. "But if he's not our big brother, then who is he?"

Shen Ruoqing stepped forward. "He is Song Chen."

Song Chen...

Everyone looked at her in unison.

Shen Ruoqing's tone became more certain, and she stared at the man in front of her. "You are Song Chen.

Song Chen lowered his eyes. "Miss Shen, do you have any evidence to support what you're saying?"

Shen Ruoqing was speechless.

She had no evidence.

Chu Cichen had amnesia. Moreover, Song Chen and Chu Cichen's DNA were identical, and he knew all of Chu Cichen's past and secrets... So, she really had no evidence.

But at this moment, she was sure.

The person sitting in front of her was indeed Song Chen.

No wonder she had felt strange when she saw him after returning to the country, and no wonder she had a good impression of Song Chen, who had accompanied her in Country A. It turned out that he had been Chu Cichen all along!

The only person who knew the truth, Lu Cheng, was currently lying in the ICU of the hospital, still unconscious. It was unknown whether he would ever wake up. Today, Ye Lu updated her on Lu Cheng's condition, saying that he might stay in a vegetative state.

Shen Ruoqing clenched her jaw.

Song Chen sighed slowly. "I am Chu Cichen."

The five words were powerful and resounding, not knowing if they were said for the others or for himself.

Shen Ruoqing sneered. "I see, but do you think that by becoming Chu Cichen, you can do whatever you want?"

Song Chen slowly said, "At least for now... If my website issues a plea letter, perhaps Chu Ciyuan will be detained for fewer days."

Shen Ruoqing took a deep breath.

Matriarch Chu stepped forward. "What will it take for you to issue a plea letter and have them release Ciyuan?"

Chu Ciyuan was imprisoned because of them, and they must save him now.

Song Chen lowered his eyes. "As I said, I'm just disciplining my disobedient brother. Mother, it's better if you don't get involved in this matter."

Matriarch Chu was furious.

Chu Cimo, standing beside her, pointed at Chu Cichen and said, "I don't care if you're Chu Cichen or Song Chen. Let me tell you, this is our home and you need to get out right now!"

Since they had fallen out, Song Chen didn't mind and was too lazy to pretend. He then stood up.

The man's slightly pale face now showed a hint of gloom, and he said coldly, "This is your home? Do you have any evidence? The property is under my name, and the company's shares are also under my name. You are all living off me and using my resources!"

Matriarch Chu was stunned.

Her sorrow at this moment was somewhat less, and what remained was mostly anger.

Back then, when Chu Cichen returned to the country, he had no strong foundation domestically. So to help him take control of the company quickly, Matriarch Chu gave him all her shares.

Chu Cimo, not wanting to fight over the family property, had never interfered with the family's affairs. At that time, when the Chu Corporation was transitioning, he directly transferred all his shares to Chu Cichen as well. But now, these had become weapons for Song Chen to attack them!

Yes, everything in this home now belonged to Chu Cichen.

They thought that they were a family and never cared about these things.

Chu Cimo could always ask for money and spend as much as he wanted; he never thought about saving money...

Even Matriarch Chu's dowry had been used to support the family.

No one ever had a second thought.

When everyone's face turned pale, Song Chen looked at them. "In fact, we can go back to our previous lives. As long as you promise to keep obeying me, I won't be too serious about it."

Obey..

Chu Cimo sneered. "So if we don't obey, we'll end up like my second brother?"

Song Chen remained silent, as if agreeing.

Matriarch Chu found it ridiculous.

She spoke up, "Even if we become beggars, we won't be your puppets in this house. Song Chen, right? Where is my son?"

As soon as she said this, Shen Ruoqing coughed. "He's at the Shen Manor."

Matriarch Chu immediately looked at her.

Upon hearing the words “Shen Manor,” Song Chen’s face immediately changed.

He looked at Shen Ruojing with a gloomy expression. ‘What did you say? Are you and him together again?’

Shen Ruojing frowned upon hearing the word ‘together.’

Song Chen continued discontentedly. “I was the one who accompanied you back then and pulled you out of your abnormal mental state! How could you like him? Why? Just because we met later?”

Shen Ruojing stared at him. “No, no matter when we met, the person I like has always been Chu Cichen.”

She held Matriarch Chu’s arm. “Auntie, let’s go.”

Matriarch Chu seemed to understand something.

She nodded and followed Shen Ruojing out of the door.

As they were about to leave, Song Chen suddenly panicked and hurriedly shouted, “Wait!”

Everyone looked back

Song Chen said, “I can release Chu Ciyuan as long as you go back to how things were before.”

He looked at Shen Ruojing. “As long as you and I are together again..”

Chapter 587: Jing Zhen’s Research

Translator: Lord bluefire

Shen Ruojing looked at his expression and found it amusing.

She said coldly, “We were never together, so how can we be together again?”

After leaving those words behind, she walked away.

Watching her leave, Song Chen panicked.

He couldn’t help but follow them for a few steps. “Shen Ruojing, I am just like him. I am him. You understand what I mean. Why can’t you be with me? I will treat you better than he does!”

Shen Ruojing naturally understood what he meant.

After days of contemplation, she had concluded that Song Chen was most likely Chu Cichen’s clone.

If they were siblings or even twins, their DNA wouldn't be identical. But Song Chen and Chu Cichen were indeed identical.

Cloning technology had been invented but was only used on animals. No one had dared to use it on humans yet, but it wasn't difficult.

Yet, Jing Zhen's research was beyond that.

A cloned human would only be a biological entity without the memories of the original person.

So, Jing Zhen's research probably involved some method of extracting and transferring human memories. The reason why Song Chen possessed Chu Cichen's memories from six years ago was because he was cloned from him back then.

However, Song Chen didn't have Chu Cichen's memories from the past six years.

One could say that it wasn't Shen Ruoqing's fault that she couldn't tell the difference between Song Chen and Chu Cichen six years ago because Song Chen was indeed Chu Cichen at that time.

But after six years and various unpleasant experiences, the two had become completely separate individuals. A person's character couldn't be entirely replicated, so the current Song Chen and Chu Cichen were entirely different people.

Shen Ruoqing wouldn't be swayed by these facts. Instead, she had a clearer understanding of her feelings after Chu Cichen's amnesia.

The person she liked had always been Chu Cichen. Whether it was six years ago or now, that never changed.

She looked at Song Chen and said lightly, "You're wrong. Everyone is unique, so you will never be him."

Leaving those words behind, she turned and left the Chu Manor with Matriarch

Chu and Chu Cimo.

Watching them leave, Song Chen slumped down onto the sofa.

His face twisted in a horrifying manner, and he furiously swept everything off of the coffee table!

After the clattering sound, Song Chen suddenly hugged his legs, and a hint of madness gradually emerged in his gloomy eyes.

‘Why, why... why does nobody want me...’

“If nobody wants me, then I’ll destroy you all... destroy you all...”

Shen Ruoqing led the group out of the house and headed to Shen Manor.

That was when they saw the real Chu Cichen who had lost his memory.

Upon seeing so many people, Chu Cichen seemed a little scared and moved closer to Shen Ruoqing, grabbing her sleeve.

This small gesture softened Shen Ruoqing’s heart.

At the same time, a surge of anger welled up inside her.

Jing Zhen was truly unreliable. He had never consulted her before taking any action.

Now, he had gone and erased Chu Cichen’s memory.

After thinking for a bit, Shen Ruoqing decided to call Jing Zhen later and ask if there was a way to restore Chu Cichen’s memory.

Shen Ruoqing felt a great pressure in her chest, wishing that she could rush to Country A’s palace and give Jing Zhen a beating!

Back then, when he created Song Chen to accompany her, one could say it was for her good.

At that time, she was indeed in bad mental shape, suffering from depression and even contemplating suicide.

But now, without her consent, he drugged Chu Cichen and erased his memory just like that?

For a moment, Shen Ruoqing felt like Chu Cichen was really wronged.

If it weren’t for her feelings for Chu Cichen, Jing Zhen wouldn’t have meddled with him time and time again.

She couldn’t help but hold Chu Cichen’s hand tightly.

His hand was warm and broad, as if it could embrace everything.

She sat on the sofa holding Chu Cichen’s hand, her eyes slightly red. At this moment, she whispered, “I’m sorry.”

Chu Cichen looked puzzled. ‘Why do you say that?’

Shen Ruoqing didn’t hide anything and said slowly, “Your amnesia...is because of me.”

She opened her mouth, wanting to explain something but didn't know what to say. Just as she hesitated, Chu Cichen suddenly held her hand tightly. "It's okay."

Shen Ruojing was taken aback.

Chu Cichen said, "Although I don't remember anything, I know I like you. I know that no matter what you do, I won't mind. So, it's okay."

Shen Ruojing's eyes turned red.

She bit her lips hard, barely holding back her tears.

This man was unconditionally tolerant of her.

Matriarch Chu, Chu Cimo, and even Bai Shanshan were all looking at Chu Cichen at this moment.

Matriarch Chu's eyes turned slightly red. "That Song Chen is so wicked. How could he impersonate someone else!?"

Chu Cimo was also angry. "What do we do now? Are we going to let him take over the Chu family's property?"

Shen Ruojing also clenched her jaw.

Now they were truly in a difficult situation.

Song Chen was a fake Chu Cichen, but they had no evidence to prove it. Even if they wanted to use legal means to protect themselves, they couldn't.

This was because Jing Zhen's scientific research couldn't be disclosed to the public.

Therefore, there was no explanation as to why Song Chen and Chu Cichen were identical. In fact, even their fingerprints were likely the same.

Moreover, Chu Cichen had lost his memory. If Song Chen turned around and accused Chu Cichen of being the clone, Chu Cichen would face a life-threatening crisis.

Clearly, Matriarch Chu had also thought of this.

Hence, Matriarch Chu immediately said, "We can't sue him, but we can't just give away our family's property. We need to plan for the long term!" Shen Ruojing nodded in agreement.

As they were thinking, Shen Ruojing's phone suddenly rang. When she answered the call, a voice came from the other side. "Is this Ms. Shen Ruojing? We are from the People's Court. Mr. Chu Cichen has filed a lawsuit requesting custody of the three children..”

Chapter 588: Confidence

Shen Ruojing narrowed her eyes when she heard this.

The staff member on the phone continued, “He has already filed a lawsuit. We will send you the subpoena, and you need to appear in court at that time.”

Shen Ruojing was angry, but she didn't want to vent her anger on the staff member.

After all, from their perspective, this was just a case involving a child's parents, and they had to handle it accordingly.

Shen Ruojing was polite to them. “I understand. I will attend as requested.”

After hanging up the phone, Matriarch Chu who was next to her was furious. “He's such a jerk! The children are Chu Cichen's. What do they have to do with him?”

Shen Ruojing hesitated for a moment and said, “But now, legally speaking, the child is his, as he has assumed Chu Cichen's identity.”

Chu Cimo became anxious. “What should we do? Are we going to be bullied by him like this? With both families being well-off and Chu Yu growing up in the Chu family, he will definitely be awarded custody. At the very least, one child will follow him. Separating the three children is too cruel!”

Bai Shanshan was more concerned about the safety of the children. “He is not their biological father. If he gets custody, will he abuse the children? He has already treated their mother like this; he certainly won't do any better with the children!”

Shen Ruojing nonchalantly waved his hand. “It's easy to handle. I will contact someone tonight and have the three children sent to Country A where their grandparents can look after them.”

Upon hearing this, Matriarch Chu's eyes lit up. “This is a good idea. Since he wants to play dirty, we can play dirty too.”

Shen Ruojing nodded.

Seeing that the three children were temporarily out of danger, Matriarch Chu hesitated for a moment but didn't say anything.

Shen Ruoqing looked at them and spoke up, "Don't worry. Although Cichen has amnesia now, I am still here for the family. Rest assured, I will not stand idly by."

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief.

Shen Yuansong also learned the truth and had the butler arrange for Matriarch Chu to stay at the Shen Manor. Bai Shanshan then took Chu Cimo to live with her mother.

As for Matriarch Chu, she didn't want to burden Shen Ruoqing, so she didn't press the issue and went upstairs to rest.

After all, she didn't sleep well the night before since she was confined.

But before going upstairs, Matriarch Chu wanted to take Chu Cichen with her.

Unexpectedly, Chu Cichen just clung to Shen Ruoqing's sleeve and didn't let go. His eyes were filled with caution. "I don't know you."

Matriarch Chu almost laughed and cried at the same time. "How could I harm you? I am your mother!"

Chu Cichen heard this, hesitated, and leaned toward Shen Ruoqing. "But... I don't remember."

These few words made Shen Ruoqing feel heartbroken.

He was afraid that Matriarch Chu would be upset and that Chu Cichen would feel wronged, so he hurriedly said, "Auntie, he just temporarily forgot you. Don't worry. Let him stay with me for now. "

Matriarch Chu looked at her son's expression, sighed silently, and suddenly said, "Actually, it's not bad to have amnesia for a while. After all, this child has been carrying the fate of the family since birth and has never had a moment to relax. Jingjing, please spend more time with him lest he fails to feel a sense of security.

Shen Ruoqing nodded after she heard this.

After Matriarch Chu went upstairs, Shen Ruoqing looked at Chu Cichen and asked, "Do you really not remember?"

Chu Cichen held her hand, lowered his head, and looked like a helpless puppy. "Jingjing, do you think I am a burden? I can't help with anything now and I always stick to you. But only when I'm with you do I feel safe.

His eyes revealed a lost look. "I don't remember who I am, where I come from, or what I've done. In this world, there's only one person I trust, and that's you.

Will you find me annoying?”

Shen Ruojing felt intense heartache and shook her head. “No.”

She smiled bitterly. ‘We were both too busy before and rarely spent time together. Now is a good time to be with you more.’ Chu Cichen’s eyes lit up. “So you really don’t mind?”

“No, I don’t.”

“Then I want to be with you all the time.”

“Alright.”

The man paused and cautiously asked, “What about at night?”

Shen Ruojing. “?”

Her expression changed slightly, and she heard him sigh. “These past few nights, I’ve been afraid to sleep. I feel like once I fall asleep, I’ll be trapped in a strange darkness. I don’t know when I’ll wake up... ‘

Seeing his pitiful state, Shen Ruojing thought for a moment and agreed.

“Alright.”

The man’s face brightened.

Shen Ruojing warned, “But you must not take advantage of the situation.”

“Okay,” Chu Cichen answered without hesitation.

Anyway, he would just temporarily agree for now and would deal with it later in the evening!

At this moment.

Song Chen, accompanied by the Chu family’s security personnel, had arrived at the kindergarten in the school. At the entrance, Song Chen directly announced, “I am Chu Cichen, here to pick up the three children and take them home.”

Inside the kindergarten, Principal Lin, who had received his message, hurried over. Upon seeing Song Chen, she showed some goodwill and asked directly,

“Mr. Chu, why are you picking up the children early today?”

Song Chen lowered his eyes and smiled. “Well, I promised the children to have dinner together with them tonight, so I came to pick them up early.”

After filing the lawsuit against Shen Ruoqing, Song Chen was on guard about the children's whereabouts. Whoever had the children would undoubtedly have the upper hand in this legal battle..

Chapter 589: Testing Her Boundaries Bit By Bit

Translator: Lord bluefire

Unexpectedly, as soon as he finished speaking, the principal said, "But the three children didn't come to school today. Don't you know about this?" Upon hearing this, Song Chen was stunned. "What did you say?"

Naturally, Shen Ruoqing wouldn't send the three children to school at a time like this.

Song Chen's identity was not suitable for public disclosure, but he could do many things under Chu Cichen's identity, such as picking up the children from the kindergarten in broad daylight. So how could Shen Ruoqing not be on guard ?

As soon as she confirmed that he was Song Chen, the first thing she did was to take the three children back.

Upon hearing the principal's words, Song Chen suddenly understood. Shen Ruoqing had been suspicious of him for a long time but never made it explicit.

He suddenly thought of something and immediately ordered his subordinates, "Go and check if anyone from the Shen family or Country A's royal family has arranged to leave the country recently!"

He had replaced Chu Cichen's subordinates with his own people.

Most of the affairs of the Chu Corporation used to be handled by Lu Cheng, but after Lu Cheng was hospitalized due to an injury, Song Chen naturally took over all the power and quietly replaced the personnel.

The new recruits now came from various industries, working hard to gain his favor.

In less than half an hour, Song Chen found out that a private plane from the Shen family would fly to Country A tonight.

He instantly understood that they were planning to move the children.

Song Chen then narrowed his eyes and curled his lips.

He immediately contacted the court staff, preparing to catch them in the act tonight.

Although the three children were in Shen Ruoqing's hands now, if she tried to send the children away during the custody battle, she would be at a huge disadvantage.

If that happened, the judge would lean more toward Song Chen. Perhaps he would gain custody of all three children!

The court staff was very responsive. After hearing Song Chen's report, they immediately brought several staff members and followed Song Chen to the airport, waiting quietly for the Shen family to arrive.

Song Chen narrowed his eyes, revealing a somewhat lost expression. He sighed quietly. "It's bad enough that Miss Shen suddenly called off the engagement and took the children away. Now, she wants to send them abroad. It makes me feel terrible. I don't know what I did wrong."

The staff sympathized with him.

They didn't fully understand the complexities of these wealthy families, but the current act of forcibly taking the children away greatly annoyed the judge handling their case.

This was blatant defiance!

As they were thinking of this, they saw the Shen family's car arrive. Song Chen sneered.

Just as the judge was about to step forward, Song Chen stopped him. "Let's wait until they board the plane. Otherwise, they can simply claim that they are here to see off some unrelated uncles and aunts."

The judge thought about it and nodded.

It would indeed be hard to prove anything if they went in now.

The sky gradually darkened.

At the Shen Manor.

Shen Ruoqing and Chu Cichen were lying in bed, both staring at the ceiling.

Although there was some distance between them and they even had separate blankets, Shen Ruoqing still faintly felt the warmth from the man's body.

She couldn't help but shift her body and turn her head to see if Chu Cichen had fallen asleep.

As she turned her head, she saw that Chu Cichen was already asleep. His eyes were closed, his face calm, as if he had no worries. His long eyelashes, straight nose, and lips that were pressed together tightly made him look very insecure.

Shen Ruoqing had just thought of this when she saw Chu Cichen suddenly turn over.

His arm unconsciously flailed around a bit, seemingly restless and anxious.

Shen Ruoqing quickly grabbed his hand.

The man's emotions then stabilized.

Shen Ruoqing took a deep breath.

The man had lost his memory and was definitely on guard in this world. Now, she was the only one who could provide him with some sense of security.

Thinking of this, Shen Ruoqing didn't dare to let go of his hand.

She had called Jing Zhen tonight. Jing Zhen said that the human brain was not a hard drive, and memories were intertwined neural connections. One couldn't frequently extract and erase memories. Otherwise, the nerves would be damaged and the person might become an idiot.

Shen Ruoqing was so angry that she wanted to spew vulgarities, but after thinking about it, she scolded her father instead.

Jing Zhen didn't dare to retort or say anything else. He just said, "Actually, you two care about each other now. Even without the previous memories, it shouldn't affect you."

Shen Ruoqing hung up the phone immediately.

As she thought of this, the man's arm suddenly reached over and pressed against her waist.

Shen Ruoqing's body stiffened, not moving.

After a while, the man's leg suddenly approached...

Shen Ruoqing, "Enough."

The man stopped moving.

"If you keep this up, I'll kick you out!" So, the man immediately retracted his leg.

Shen Ruoqing. "And your arm!"

The man silently withdrew his arm, but he did not let go of her hand.

Shen Ruoqing.

She took a deep breath and said nothing, “Stop pretending to sleep.”

Chu Cichen opened his eyes and looked at her with an aggrieved expression. “I’m just worried about the three children... Will they be okay?”

At the airport.

Any private plane would need to file a flight plan; it’s impossible to fly out directly. The air routes were also predetermined to avoid collisions with other planes.

So, a plane flying to Country A must also be boarded from the airport.

Song Chen and the others watched as Matriarch Chu and several bodyguards carried the three little ones onto the plane. They immediately rushed toward the plane with the judge.

Although people were trying to stop them, the judge quickly showed his work ID, and the airport staff didn’t dare to stop them.

So, the group boarded the plane grandly.

Song Chen sneered. “Your Shen family wants to secretly bring my children away. This is illegal! Your Honor, I hope you can help me bring the children back immediately.. Otherwise, if they stay in the Shen family, who knows what will happen!”

Chapter 590: Retaliation!

Translator: Lord bluefire

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone immediately looked toward the plane.

The judge nodded and looked directly at Matriarch Chu. “Now that the two families are in a lawsuit, you really shouldn’t take the three children away. This is against the law! Now, we need to ensure the safety of the three children immediately. Matriarch Chu, please step aside!”

Matriarch Chu looked at them but did not show any signs of panic. She simply stepped aside.

The judge and Song Chen immediately led people onto the plane, only to see several bodyguards standing on the plane, holding not children but plastic child dolls, which were obviously small models from children’s clothing stores.

Song Chen. ”

The judge was also stunned, and he looked at Song Chen. “Mr. Chu, what’s going on? Didn’t you say that the children were here?” Song Chen then realized that he had been tricked!

His face turned pale.

Matriarch Chu sighed. “Son, look at you, you’re always suspicious. Miss Shen broke up with you because of this. Who can stand this kind of thing?”

Matriarch Chu looked at the judge and spoke directly, “Your Honor, I am his mother and am responsible for this matter. My son was sent abroad at a young age and was not raised by my side, which led to his strange character that’s prone to suspect others. He even distrusts me, which caused Miss Shen to break up with him. Also, the three children can’t follow him... He doesn’t know how to take care of children. Chu Yu was raised by me since childhood. Now that he knows that he has siblings, he definitely wants to be with them. As the children’s grandmother, I have a say, right?”

After saying this, Matriarch Chu glared at Song Chen.

Song Chen might be impersonating Chu Cichen.

But she was indeed Chu Cichen’s biological mother, and that couldn’t be faked.

Song Chen’s previous actions had left them speechless, but she also found a way to leave Song Chen speechless!

At this moment, Song Chen finally felt what it was like to be at a loss for words.

He looked at the judge, wanting to explain something, but he didn’t know how to refute Matriarch Chu’s words.

The judge indeed spoke up, “Of course, we can allow visits and since you are Mr. Chu’s mother and the children’s grandmother, you certainly have the right to speak. What do you say...”

Matriarch Chu said, “My suggestion is to let Shen Ruoqing take care of the children. She has raised the other two children very well, and I am very satisfied with her. Chu Yu has grown up by my side but has a solitary personality. Now that he’s with his siblings, he has become much more cheerful. Let Shen Ruoqing take care of the three children. She won’t stop them from interacting with their father.’

Matriarch Chu was Chu Cichen’s mother, and even she said such words.

Moreover, the court also felt that Chu Cichen was overly suspicious tonight.

Wasn't it normal for the Shen family to go abroad?

Taking a private plane was even more normal, what was the big deal?

So at this moment, the judge's heart leaned toward Shen Ruoqing.

His face darkened as he looked at Song Chen. "Mr. Chu, children need to grow up in a comfortable and trustworthy environment. Miss Shen has raised two children, and the Shen family has the conditions to raise them. I think you should settle this matter privately. If you insist on suing in court, you can, but the current situation is not in your favor..."

After saying these polite words, he immediately turned around and left with the people behind him.

It was truly ridiculous; they had been waiting all night, only for the judge to get angry at his paranoid suspicions.

After the judge left, Song Chen looked directly at Matriarch Chu. "Where are the three children?"

Matriarch Chu smiled. "The three children are safe staying at the Shen Manor. Don't worry, everything is fine at home. The Shen family is also great; I feel at home there. Do you like the Chu Manor? If you do, then stay there. For us, it's not about having more or less money. What's important is that the whole family can be together, and that's when we can be happy."

Matriarch Chu's words struck a chord in Song Chen's heart.

Why did he want to become Chu Cichen? Wasn't it because he wanted to have a real life?

But after becoming Chu Cichen, he had pushed away all his loved ones.

Song Chen clenched his fists.

Matriarch Chu got off the plane and said to the bodyguards, "Oh, you can send these people to Country A. I need to go home and be with my grandchildren." Her words were utterly provocative.

Song Chen's face turned pale with anger, and he sneered as Matriarch Chu walked past him. "You only care about your three grandchildren, but what about your second son?"

Matriarch Chu paused but didn't say anything. She then left directly.

The three children were naturally still at the Shen Manor.

Sending them to Country A, as Shen Ruoqing said, was just a ruse to trick Song Chen.

Now, the court was clearly not going to side with Song Chen. Even if they went to court, the custody of the three children would most likely go to Shen Ruoqing.

Song Chen wouldn't waste any more effort on this, so he wouldn't touch the children.

The next morning when Shen Ruoqing came downstairs, she saw that Matriarch Chu had dark circles under her eyes, obviously not sleeping well at all.

Shen Ruoqing understood Matriarch Chu's worries and immediately said, "Auntie, now that the children's situation is resolved, we should save Chu Ciyuan!"

Upon hearing this, Matriarch Chu's face brightened and she quickly asked, "Do you have a way?"

Shen Ruoqing smiled confidently.

Next to her, Chu Cichen followed closely, showing a proud expression.

Seeing this, Matriarch Chu couldn't help but laugh. She had never seen Chu Cichen like this before. He had never been proud, no matter what special awards he had won in competitions or how much praise he had received.

Now, seeing that he had such a capable wife, he must feel delighted.

Shen Ruoqing didn't notice Chu Cichen's proud expression and said, "Let's have breakfast first, and then we'll go to the police station."

She was determined to dismantle Song Chen's schemes step by step and force him to reveal his true intentions.

Shen Ruoqing wanted to see what Song Chen was ultimately planning..
