I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 651-After hearing Yan Zixuan mention the third family, Shen Ruojing couldn't help but ask, "Who is in the other family?"

Yan Zixuan said, "I heard that people call their leader 'King'. He is someone that controls the global economic trends. But over the years, this King has become increasingly mysterious, never appearing in public. Gradually, he delegated power, allowing everyone to develop together. The King's broad-mindedness is quite admirable. After all, anyone who has reached this level would want to dominate, but the King did not. Our Country A's royal family and Karl's family developed under his watch, and the King has never said a word."

Yan Zixuan continued, "The King and the founder of the Loong Corporation are two of the most mysterious and capable people in the world today. One has a broad mind, and the other has the ability. Our royal family and the Karl family have accumulated wealth through generations, but the Loong Corporation has relied on themselves entirely, catching the wind of technology!"

Upon hearing this, Shen Ruojing couldn't help but ask, "Who is this King?"

Yan Zixuan shook his head. "I don't know. No one knows who it is so far. He is very low-key, unlike Karl's family, who wants to publicize everything. However, the King will not cooperate with us. They are used to going their own way, and they have a family rule passed down from their ancestors not to interfere with the world's economic trends or participate in power struggles. They may have partners in this world, but they will never cooperate with families like ours. So don't think about the King. Focus on winning over the Loong Corporation, the Eastern Dragon!"

Shen Ruojing listened to his words and fell into deep thought.

She used to know only about the three major economic powers, and now they had finally shown their heads.

This made her understanding of the world much clearer.

Although she and Chu Cichen were already very strong, there were always people beyond people and heavens beyond heavens in this world. She didn't know who was more powerful between Chu Cichen's leader, the Eastern Dragon or the King, but it was clear that the King had a legacy, while the Eastern Dragon had reached this height on his own.

So there was no way to compare the two.

Shen Ruojing thought about it and looked at Chu Cichen. "Eastern Dragon loves his wife very much, right? So should we try to please his wife?"

Chu Cichen. "..."

He twitched the corner of his mouth, about to say something, but Shen Ruojing touched her chin. "No, his wife definitely won't appear. This cooperation is already attracting the world's attention, and if Eastern Dragon appears under the world's scrutiny, he won't be able to maintain his privacy in the future, especially since their leader has never shown his face."

As Shen Ruojing said this, a vague guess formed in her mind.

But she glanced at Chu Cichen and didn't say anything.

Yan Zixuan had no idea what the two were thinking, and at the moment, he was saying, "Tomorrow, my father and I will also attend the reception. If Your Highness needs anything, feel free to ask us."

Shen Ruojing nodded.

Yan Zixuan then left.

Shen Ruojing and Chu Cichen returned to the palace. Afterward, she didn't ask Chu Cichen any more questions, trusting him to handle things properly. She only tried on the dress prepared by the royal family for her and went to bed early.

The next day, after waking up, she put on the dress she was going to wear today and headed to the banquet hall.

As Chu Cichen had said, he arranged for the Loong Corporation to arrive at 9 a.m.

As soon as Shen Ruojing arrived at the banquet hall, she saw that a group of people had already arrived.

Even Karl was there, and he brought Princess Daisy with him. When Princess Daisy saw Shen Ruojing, her eyes lit up, and she clearly wanted to come over. However, just as she took a step, Karl whispered something to her, and her face instantly showed anger. In the end, she didn't come over and only gave Shen Ruojing an apologetic look.

Shen Ruojing didn't pay attention to the two of them and instead walked toward King Jing Zhen.

To her surprise, as she approached, she saw that Jing Zhen's face was a bit dark, and he was scolding Chu Cichen. "You're using this kind of tea? It's too low-grade! At least use a more valuable one! The leader of the Loong Corporation is so rich; his quality of life must be excellent. What kind of banquet have you prepared? It's really..."

Chu Cichen coughed. "Father-in-law, he doesn't like tea."

Jing Zhen frowned with hesitation. "Are you sure?"

"I'm sure."

"How can you be sure? Besides, even if he doesn't like it, we still need to prepare it. At least, we should show a sincere attitude. What if they come and see that we've prepared the tea so casually, and then don't want to discuss any further cooperation? Also, although we're not afraid of the Loong Corporation, they can join our alliance at this time and sign a cooperation agreement. They are supporting our Country A, so we should at least show some goodwill to our allies!"

While Jing Zhen was scolding, Karl walked over, smiling and saying, "Your Majesty, our Karl family has a favor to ask of you."

Jing Zhen was slightly taken aback. "What is it?"

Karl looked back at Daisy behind him. "Well, I heard that the leader of the Loong Corporation is not yet married. Our Princess Daisy is so noble, so we would like to ask Your Majesty to help us make an introduction."

As soon as Karl finished speaking, he looked at Shen Ruojing with a half-smile. "After all, Her Highness the Princess already has someone she loves and will certainly not be interested in Eastern Dragon, right?"

The Loong Corporation was a group, but they silently referred to the founder of the group as Eastern Dragon.

Karl was very interested in finding out who this Eastern Dragon was..

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 652-As soon as Karl spoke, the faces of the people present turned dark.

Why did the royal family of Country A want to form an alliance with Eastern Dragon? Wasn't it because they were forced by Karl's family?

Had Karl himself forgotten about his recent shady actions?

He had threatened Jing Zhen not long ago, and now he was shamelessly asking for help with introductions?

Even Shen Ruojing couldn't help but look at Karl up and down.

Karl was inexplicably stared at by her peach blossom eyes, and he coughed. "Does Your Highness the Princess have any questions?"

Shen Ruojing. "Oh, no."

"Then why are you staring at me like this? Although Princess does not need to abide by the virtues of Country A, I have heard that the Chinese people are reserved. I cannot bear your frank gaze."

Karl's words were full of mockery, which was disrespectful to Shen Ruojing in this situation.

Karl still did not take Shen Ruojing seriously.

His actions provoked Ji Wuyou, who couldn't help but clench the gun in his hand. He wished he could shoot this insolent man dead!

Their Princess was insulted, which meant that they had failed to protect her.

However, if Karl were to die at a banquet in Country A, it would be a provocation against Country Y. After all, he was representing the United Nations, and Karl had done everything secretly and privately. The royal family of Country A didn't have a legitimate reason to deal with him.

Ji Wuyou's face turned pale with anger, and the next moment she heard the Princess speak indifferently, "Oh, I'm just curious, and I want to see how thick your face is."

Ji Wuyou."?"

He couldn't help but laugh out loud.

The destructive power of her Princess's words was too strong.

Even Karl's face changed slightly and gradually darkened. "What does Your Highness the Princess mean?"

Shen Ruojing wanted to say. 'Is your family's princess unable to marry? Let me help you introduce someone.'

But she realized that this sentence would involve Princess Daisy, so she held back the words and continued, "It means that your face is as thick as the Great Wall, which is really rare, so I couldn't help but take a few more glances."

Karl."..."

He snorted, "Your Highness the Princess, is this how you treat guests? I advise you to consider your language. If you meet Eastern Dragon with this attitude later, I'm afraid the cooperation between your Country A and the Loong Corporation will not be successful."

Shen Ruojing lowered her eyes. "So Mr. Karl also knows that this is the time for our Country A to negotiate with the Loong Corporation. Hmm, in that case, you should also know that your uninvited presence is not the way a guest should act in our culture."

Today, Karl had brought Princess Daisy directly to the palace gate and forcibly participated in this banquet under the pretext of finding Jing Zhen on behalf of the United Nations. Otherwise, how could he possibly appear here?

Karl sneered.

To solve the problem and meet the Eastern Dragon, he naturally had to have a thick face. Crashing parties was a common tactic for businessmen. It was just that this party was a bit more high-end.

Since he already crashed the party, he would simply endure being ridiculed a few times.

Anyway, he wouldn't bicker with a woman.

Karl looked at Princess Daisy and saw that her face was a little pale. Her expression was a bit in a daze.

Karl immediately approached her, lowered his voice, and said, "Princess Daisy, who are you frowning at? Please smile, you represent our Country Y!"

Karl's family also wanted to form a marriage alliance with Eastern Dragon, but Eastern Dragon would definitely refuse because he would not cooperate with Karl's family.

After all, when the three major economic empires were suppressing Loong, Karl's family was the one who came up with the strategies, and they also contributed the most. Therefore, the Loong Corporation hated Karl's family the most.

Karl had always thought that this must be the reason why Eastern Dragon chose to cooperate with the royal family of Country A.

Otherwise, how could a corporation like Loong that could compete with the three major economic empires sacrifice itself and come to Country A?

So, since Karl's family couldn't do it, they would let Princess Daisy step in.

Princess Daisy was considered one of the most respected people in Country Y, and she was currently the most distinguished person there as well. Her involvement would be absolutely tempting for the Loong Corporation!

After all, who wouldn't want to marry such a princess?

Oh, except for that one person.

As Karl was thinking, Shen Ruoqing had come to Princess Daisy.

She looked at Daisy's face. "Didn't sleep well last night?"

Daisy immediately looked at her, wanting to speak but hesitating, as if she wanted to pour out her heart but also seemed reluctant to voice her troubles. She was afraid of sullyng Shen Ruojing's ears. Her pitiful appearance made Shen Ruojing's heart soften.

She was so beautiful, like a delicate doll, making people unwilling to see her frown.

Shen Ruojing wanted to say something, but Princess Daisy shook her head.

She looked down at her phone again and found that the message she had sent last night had not been replied to.

Yes.

She didn't want to give up on that person so easily, so she sent him a message, telling him that she had been sent by Karl for a blind date today.

But she didn't expect that he wouldn't reply to her message all night.

He never had her in his heart, did he?

Thinking this way, Daisy put down her phone. When she looked up again, her eyes were filled with tears, which stunned Shen Ruojing.

At this moment, the phone in Princess Daisy's pocket vibrated..

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 653-Princess Daisy's eyelashes fluttered like a butterfly's wings, trembling slightly before she raised her head in disbelief. She then subconsciously looked toward her pocket.

Her deep and affectionate eyes allowed Shen Ruojing to understand her thoughts in an instant.

She was worried that the vibration she had just felt was just her imagination, that it was fake.

Shen Ruojing couldn't bear to see such a beautiful woman with a resentful look in her eyes, so she couldn't help but cough and remind her, "It's your phone. It seems to have received a message."

Her voice made Princess Daisy, who was immersed in her own world, shudder for a moment. Daisy then looked up at Shen Ruoqing, biting her lower lip, making Shen Ruoqing want to help her take out the phone and have a look for her.

Finally, under her encouraging gaze, Princess Daisy reached into her pocket and pulled out her phone.

Daisy's slender and fair fingers unlocked the phone and then opened WeChat.

.....

Princess Daisy had always been using WeChat.

She had always admired Chinese culture and used WeChat when she was in contact with Su Muxi, Huo Xiche, and him. She and Shen Ruoqing had also added each other on WeChat at the last banquet.

Shen Ruoqing watched Princess Daisy's face and then saw her eyelashes tremble again when she saw the content on WeChat, which caused her eyes to be filled with mist in an instant.

However, in this situation, she had to maintain a proper demeanor.

So, Princess Daisy blinked her eyes.

Under her long eyelashes, the stubborn sadness in her blue eyes was forced back.

Shen Ruoqing immediately understood that the message she received must not be good.

She coughed and didn't intend to look at Princess Daisy's WeChat.

But Princess Daisy suddenly looked at Shen Ruoqing and showed her the message on the phone.

The message that Daisy had sent was that she had been brought to a blind date by Karl.

The person whom she texted had a nickname "Evil", and he replied with a chilling message.! Understood.]

Shen Ruojing.”?”

She looked up at Princess Daisy who immediately said, “I’ve liked him since he went to study abroad in Country Y. My mother had forced his father to send him there... Later, he escaped, and he became very cold to me when I chased him to China. Madman, look at this message. Is he replying this way because he really dislikes me?”

Shen Ruojing was silent.

She didn’t know about Princess Daisy’s past, but judging from this message, the other party’s tone was indeed a bit off.

Shen Ruojing analyzed for Princess Daisy. “I don’t think so.”

Princess Daisy’s eyes brightened, “Really?”

Shen Ruojing said, “If he doesn’t like you and has no feelings for you, his reply should have been wishing you to find your ideal partner. Now, it’s just an ‘Understood’, which carries an ambiguous feeling.”

Princess Daisy immediately asked, “What kind of feeling?”

Shen Ruojing touched her chin, trying her best not to disappoint Princess Daisy, especially not wanting to see such a beautiful doll sad again. She racked her brains, and then she heard Chu Cichen’s low cough. His deep voice came over.

“It feels like your two sentences don’t mean the same thing.”

Princess Daisy looked at him with a puzzled expression.

Shen Ruojing also looked at Chu Cichen.

Chu Cichen didn’t really care about Princess Daisy, but when Shen Ruojing looked at him with such admiration for the first time, he couldn’t help but chuckle. “Yes, it’s just the literal meaning. What you told him and his response are not about the same thing.”

Daisy.”?”

Shen Ruojing.”?”

Chu Cichen suddenly laughed. "Princess Daisy's itinerary is public, right?"

Daisy immediately nodded. "Yes."

Chu Cichen nodded. "Well, you said Karl would bring you on a blind date today, so I think the other party must know who your blind date is. After all, in Country A, someone with an extraordinary identity can arrange a blind date for Princess Daisy. This 'understood' is like you're asking him for help. You're telling him that you don't want to go on a blind date, and he has solved the problem for you."

Shen Ruojing."?"

She hesitated to look at Chu Cichen, not understanding why this man would explain it this way. But on second thought, it seemed like it could indeed be interpreted that way?

She looked at Princess Daisy again.

She then saw Princess Daisy's surprised expression. The look she had just lost in her eyes was returning. "Really?"

As soon as she finished speaking, a touch of sorrow climbed onto her brow. "But how did he help me solve it? After all, even I couldn't solve this problem myself..."

Princess Daisy lowered her head again.

Shen Ruojing looked at Chu Cichen for help, and the man was looking at her with a seemingly amused expression.

Shen Ruojing just glared at him, signaling him to hurry and comfort her.

She couldn't stand to see Daisy, a simple, beautiful, and lovely girl, being wronged like this.

Chu Cichen just rubbed his nose.

His life was really difficult, after all, who else would have to help their wife cheer up another girl?

Chu Cichen coughed. "Why not wait a little longer, and we'll see the outcome."

These words made Shen Ruojing look at him with a slightly deeper gaze.

This man... must know something, but he just wouldn't tell them.

Unfair!

As Shen Ruojing was mentally complaining about Chu Cichen, she suddenly heard Karl's laughter and inquiry. "Your Majesty, I wonder if the royal family of Country A has prepared a gift for Eastern Dragon?"

Then Karl took out an invaluable watch, smiling. "This is our Karl family's gesture to Eastern Dragon. I heard that he likes watches."

Upon seeing the collectible watch, which was priceless and irreplaceable, Jing Zhen glared at Chu Cichen and asked, "What is the gift we have prepared?"

Chu Cichen."?"

He rubbed his nose and then smiled calmly. "Eastern Dragon doesn't like watches."

Chu Cichen knew that a perfect person had no friends. However, the more mysterious someone was, the more memorable they would be. So, as Eastern Dragon, he actually released some signals externally intentionally.

Like a love for watches.

He personally had no interest in these things, so no one could associate Eastern Dragon with him.

But starting from now, Eastern Dragon would no longer like watches!

Karl immediately scoffed, "I see Mr. Chu's work is not up to par, huh? Eastern Dragon's fondness for watches is well-known! Oh, I forgot, the Chu family is just a small family in China, so how could they have access to such information? My apologies, my apologies...."

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 654-Karl's arrogant appearance was really annoying, so Jing Zhen became angry.

At this moment, Chu Cichen raised his eyebrows and said, "Indeed, the Chu family is a small clan, and we don't have access to such information."

Seeing his admission, Karl laughed. "Mr. Chu is really sensible. In that case, you might as well seek help from my family next time. Perhaps if I'm in a good mood, I might tell you. If Mr. Chu had come to ask me, I definitely wouldn't have held back."

Chu Cichen's words only made Jing Zhen feel more dissatisfied.

Jing Zhen's peach blossom eyes stared at him angrily, displaying his displeasure.

He thought to himself, 'If you really don't know and if you're not clear about the situation, you could have asked me. Why didn't you say anything?'

And looking at how modestly this palace banquet was being held, it was not at all in the style of their Country As royal family.

(When the people from the Loong Corporation arrive, will they think that we've neglected them?)

While Jing Zhen was pondering, Chu Cichen smiled and said to Karl, "Mr. Karl, there's no need for that, after all, I've checked with my father-in-law."

Karl."?"

Jing Zhen."?"

Both were confused as they looked at him, and Chu Cichen casually explained, "I've already asked my father-in-law, and he said that it was just a false piece of information released by the Loong Corporation. My father-in-law has accurate information that the founder of the Loong Corporation doesn't like watches at all."

Karl sneered, "What nonsense are you talking about?"

Karl then looked at Jing Zhen. "Your Majesty, is this really the information obtained by the royal family? I know the royal family is no longer as glorious as it once was, but are you really so far behind us in terms of intelligence?"

Jing Zhen's face darkened.

Of course, he had sent people to investigate the Loong Corporation and the information he had obtained was the same as what Karl had learned. Loong's Eastern Dragon did indeed have a fondness for watches.

Now that Chu Cichen claimed that he had found out otherwise, Jing Zhen couldn't refute him in public and could only reluctantly accept it.

If Eastern Dragon didn't come today, they could still confidently claim that their intelligence was the most accurate, and the royal family wouldn't really be inferior to the Karl family.

However, the other party was coming soon.

Was there any point in lying like this?

Jing Zhen thought so, but he didn't show it on his face. Being a former actor, he wore a confident smile. "Who has made an error in intelligence is still uncertain. Mr. Karl, isn't it a bit too soon to draw conclusions?"

Karl knew that Jing Zhen was just stubbornly insisting, and Karl didn't want to argue with him further. "Fine, since Eastern Dragon is coming today anyway, we can ask him directly, and we'll know the answer. There's no need for us to have a war of words here."

Jing Zhen sneered and calmly looked away, pretending to give instructions to someone nearby.

This demeanor confused many of Country A's noble families who had come today.

So, did His Majesty really receive the news that Eastern Dragon didn't like watches?

Could it be that their Country A royal family's intelligence department was actually stronger than Karl family's?

A group of people thought so and couldn't help but look at Jing Zhen.

Jing Zhen saw their gazes but avoided them. At this moment, he was cursing inwardly, thinking that Chu Cichen was utterly unreliable. He decided that he would never entrust such important matters to him again.

Shen Ruoqing, on the other hand, didn't think so much. She glanced at Chu Cichen and knew from his calm tone that he must be confident about the matter.

After all, he was someone from the Loong Corporation, so he would naturally know what their leader liked the most.

Considering the low profile of the Loong Corporation and the fact that Eastern Dragon's fondness for watches was something that every family could find out, there must have been a problem. Maybe it was indeed just a false signal, as Chu Cichen had said.

Understanding this, Shen Ruoqing didn't worry at all.

After waiting for a while, Jing Zhen stood up and said, "I need to change my clothes."

He then walked toward the resting room in the back, and as he passed by, he glanced at Shen Ruoqing and Chu Cichen.

Shen Ruoqing followed him with Chu Cichen.

As soon as they entered the royal resting room, Jing Zhen angrily scolded, "Chu Cichen, what have you done? How could you be so careless about this matter? Do you know that the Karl family has always been competing with our Country A's royal family? Apart from the King's Group, our two major families are vying for the title of second place. The Karl family boasts about its strength and relies on Country Y to wield power. Our Country A's royal family has never had a big fight against them. Now, aren't you just handing them ammunition?"

Jing Zhen was furious, and as he spoke, it felt like a burst of flames was spewing from his mouth, making Chu Cichen touch his nose.

Shen Ruoqing stood in front of Chu Cichen and said, "Dad, Eastern Dragon definitely doesn't like watches. Don't worry."

Jing Zhen immediately looked at Shen Ruoqing with a dismissive expression. "You're really blinded by love. Do you believe everything he says? Never mind, I'd better hurry up and have someone find a watch." Jing Zhen turned and left the room after speaking.

Shen Ruojing shook her head slightly and looked at Chu Cichen. Just as she was about to say something, the door was pushed open again.

Yan Zixuan walked in with an unhappy face. As soon as he entered, he immediately looked at Chu Cichen. "You're really useless.."

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 655-Jing Zhen had scolded Chu Cichen a few times but Shen Ruojing could still bear it since the other party was an elder after all.

However, what was Yan Zixuan doing with such a provoking expression on his face?!

Shen Ruojing's face darkened, and she was about to say something. But Yan Zixuan immediately stretched out his hand, showing off a watch on his wrist.

The look in his eyes when he stared at the watch was full of heartache, and he gritted his teeth.

In fact, Yan Zixuan also really liked watches, especially the one on his own wrist.

Today, knowing that Eastern Dragon was coming and that he liked watches, Yan Zixuan specifically took out this watch with a collection value and wore it on his wrist, preparing to discuss it with Eastern Dragon.

Although the Yan family was not royalty, they were still powerful and wealthy in Country A. Even so, Yan Zixuan had spent a lot of money to get this watch, which pained his heart...

Moreover, watches like this were hard to come by.

He had bought this watch years ago at an auction using all his savings...

Thinking like this, Yan Zixuan reluctantly took off the watch and handed it to Shen Ruojing, saying, "Here, this watch shouldn't be much worse than Karl's. You guys won't know where to find a watch in short notice, so you can take this one first."

Shen Ruojing."?"

Looking at the man's expression, Shen Ruojing swallowed the words she had prepared to scold him with.

Yan Zixuan was indeed sharp-tongued, but his heart was not bad, and he was a bit straightforward.

Even so...

Shen Ruojing still pushed the watch back, speaking lightly, "No need, Cichen said Eastern Dragon doesn't like watches, so it's not necessary."

Yan Zixuan's face instantly darkened, and he blurted out, "How can you two not appreciate kindness? Do you think I would willingly part with this watch? I can't bear to part with it, okay? It is all because I'm afraid that the royal family would lose face! Princess, today's negotiation with Eastern Dragon is very important, and you shouldn't entrust such an important matter to Chu Cichen. Besides, I think you're really love-struck, believing whatever he says, right?"

Shen Ruojing."?"

Was she love-struck?

She twitched the corners of her mouth and sighed at Yan Zixuan, "Cousin, it's really not necessary, Cichen won't make a mistake."

Yan Zixuan."!!"

Seeing Shen Ruojing confidently speaking, Yan Zixuan felt that his kindness was treated as donkey shit. He then angrily took back the watch and said fiercely, "Fine, don't want it, right? I'll just wait for you to make a fool of yourselves later! Your Highness, if the royal family of Country A really loses face, I'll see how you explain it to all the people of Country A!"

After saying this, Yan Zixuan turned around and left angrily.

Watching his retreating figure, Shen Ruojing turned her gaze back to Chu Cichen.

She hesitated for a moment and still asked, "So, are you sure Eastern Dragon really doesn't like watches?"

Chu Cichen smirked, "I'm sure, don't worry."

These four words made Shen Ruojing nod her head.

The two stepped outside and saw Yan Zixuan, who had just stormed off, suddenly turn back. However, after seeing them, he snorted, “I won’t argue with you. For the sake of Country As royal family’s reputation, I can’t stoop to your level. I’m going to find His Majesty the King and give him the watch.”

Then he headed toward the nearby lounge to find Jing Zhen.

Shen Ruojing.”...”

Her cousin was indeed stubborn... and a bit cute.

But never mind, both he and his father Jing Zhen were unaware of Chu Cichen’s situation, and Chu Cichen intended to keep it a secret, so they would not reveal his identity for now. If they wanted to worry, let them worry first.

Who told them to underestimate Chu Cichen?

They would be in for a shock later.

Shen Ruojing thought mischievously and then looked at Chu Cichen. She suddenly took the initiative to hold his hand and smiled. “I think Loong Corporation’s people are coming soon, so let’s go wait for them. As for them, if they like scaring themselves, let them be.”

Chu Cichen understood that Shen Ruojing was angry because no one believed him.

He wasn’t actually angry, as the hobby rumor was something he had spread intentionally. It was normal for his father-in-law and cousin-in-law to not know, which meant that he had successfully spread the rumor!

But when Shen Ruojing got angry on his behalf, he suddenly felt warmth in his heart.

So, Chu Cichen lowered his head, smiled slightly, and followed behind Shen Ruojing.

The two had just arrived at the banquet scene when they heard someone say. “Loong Corporation’s people have arrived! Their plane is about to land! They’ve already contacted us!”

The royal palace of Country A was vast and had a helipad, so the King and others could return home directly by plane. To show the Loong Corporation the appropriate gesture, they were allowed to land directly in the palace.

This could also prevent exposure of their identities outside.

To enter the airspace of the royal family, they must have contacted the royal family in advance, so everyone here knew about it early.

Hearing this, Shen Ruojing had someone notify Jing Zhen.

After a short while, Jing Zhen hurried over from the back, and Yan Zixuan, who was following him, had an exquisite box in his hand. The box must contain the watch he had just taken out.

The two entered and had no time for further conversation as they hurried to the helipad.

This was because the Loong Corporation's plane was landing!

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 656-Jing Zhen walked in the front, leading a large group of people toward the helipad.

Yan Zixuan, holding the gift he had prepared, followed alongside him.

Shen Ruojing and Chu Cichen lagged behind, following the two. As the Crown Princess, her status required her to be at the forefront, while further behind should be the nobles of Country A. However, due to Karl's presence and his family's special status, Karl and Princess Daisy closely followed behind Shen Ruojing and Chu Cichen.

The group arrived at the helipad and saw a helicopter slowly descending under guidance.

The humming of the propeller and the gust of wind from the helicopter's landing caused everyone to stop at a distance, their eyes fixed on the aircraft, as if eager to catch a glimpse of Eastern Dragon's distinguished face.

After all, this Eastern Dragon had never appeared before the public!

Everyone was curious about his appearance and his true identity.

.....

Karl, relying on his extensive intelligence, explained slowly to the crowd, “As far as I know, Eastern Dragon should be of Chinese origin, as their group’s name, Loong, seems to suggest. Moreover, according to our speculation, Eastern Dragon’s age shouldn’t be too great since the core members of Loong Corporation are all young and talented people of modern times. I don’t know if you are aware of China’s prodigy class?”

China’s prodigy class was an organization for individuals with high IQs.

It could be said that those who could enter the prodigy class were absolutely the cream of the crop. Even top universities like Qinghua and Peking University were eager to admit them. However, even without guaranteed admission, their intelligence would ensure they had no problem getting in if they wanted to study seriously.

Karl continued, “There is an international high-IQ club, similar to China’s prodigy class, but with even higher IQ requirements. The people who can join the club are truly the best of the best in the world. Moreover, the members are all very young. As far as I know, among the core members of Loong Corporation who have revealed their identities, they are all members of this club. So I guess Eastern Dragon himself is also a member of this club.”

Karl was quite pleased with himself. “So, he must be very young.”

The rest of the crowd nodded in agreement.

“An Asian person, high IQ, young, and no more than thirty years old – these are the characteristics of Eastern Dragon.”

Karl confidently displayed his information and then looked toward the aircraft with great anticipation.

Jing Zhen’s face turned cold, but he remained silent.

Shen Ruojing turned her head and saw Chu Cichen looking at the aircraft with an ambiguous smile.

She couldn’t help but ask softly, “Hey, is what he said correct?”

Chu Cichen whispered back, “It’s both right and wrong.”

Shen Ruojing.”?”

As she was puzzling over it, Chu Cichen spoke, "Eastern Dragon is indeed Asian, but who said that the person on the plane is him?"

Upon hearing this, Shen Ruojing suddenly understood.

But the next moment, she felt a surge of displeasure in her heart.

Could it be that Eastern Dragon didn't come?

Her father was here to personally welcome them, and if Eastern Dragon didn't show up, it would seem as if the Loong Corporation didn't value Country A enough...

She felt a faint sense of displeasure in her heart.

However, after thinking about it, she felt that it made sense.

Chu Cichen was just a minor character in the Loong Corporation; how could he possibly invite the real Eastern Dragon?

As she was thinking about this, she heard someone behind her exclaim. "Look, he's coming out!"

Following their direction, everyone looked over and saw a... black man stepping off of the plane?!

Shen Ruojing couldn't help but widen her eyes in surprise.

Because she felt that this black man looked somewhat familiar...

As she was pondering where this sense of familiarity came from, she heard Karl exclaim in shock behind her. "How... how is it possible? How can Eastern Dragon be a black man?"

Not only was Karl shocked, but everyone else was as well.

Even Jing Zhen couldn't help but take a few more glances at the man and whispered to the person behind him, "Jinging, are you sure this person is from the Loong Corporation? Were we deceived?"

Shen Ruojing."..."

She twitched the corner of her mouth but didn't say anything. Suddenly, the black man spoke, "Aiyo, I got dirt all over me!"

He spoke with a standard northeastern Chinese accent.

Jing Zhen."?"

Karl."?"

Everyone."???"

Only Shen Ruojing suddenly understood why this black man gave her a sense of familiarity!

She remembered that when she followed Chu Cichen to the capital, she went to his study to find him. At that time, he was afraid that if he told her that the person she had been dating years ago was someone else, she would leave, so he ran away.

At that time, he was having a meeting in the study, and when Shen Ruojing burst in, she saw a computer.

A video conference was in progress on the computer, and she glanced over briefly.

Since she didn't expect to interfere with Chu Cichen's overseas affairs, she didn't pay close attention to what those people were doing. However, this black man with a northeastern Chinese accent left the deepest impression on her.

Because the contrast was too great.

As Shen Ruojing was thinking, Jing Zhen had already stepped forward to greet him. "Hello, are you... Eastern Dragon?"

The black man immediately waved his hand. "No, no, no, how could I possibly be my boss!?"

Jing Zhen immediately breathed a sigh of relief and looked inside the plane, thinking that Eastern Dragon hadn't disembarked yet...

But only Shen Ruojing, who was standing next to Chu Cichen, stiffened slightly.

Because she suddenly remembered that back in the conference room, this black man had called Chu Cichen.... boss???

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 657-Shen Ruojing couldn't help but look back at Chu Cichen.

Chu Cichen didn't know that he was suspected. Seeing Shen Ruojing suddenly looking over, he smiled slightly at her.

Shen Ruojing."..."

To be honest, she was somewhat surprised.

She knew Chu Cichen was very smart and capable.

Back in the days in the Dark Web Organization, this man always stood behind her and Dugu Xiao because he didn't have to compete for the top position. When the three of them carried out tasks together, he often followed their arrangements.

But now, thinking carefully, he was able to rank third in every assessment.

.....

The first and second places were her or Dugu Xiao – either she was first, or Dugu Xiao was first. But was there really someone who could consistently be third?

Or perhaps, did he purposefully do something to be in third place?!

Next was his other alias, Champion Chen.

Champion Chen's martial arts were undoubtedly stronger than Shen Ruojing's, but back then in the Dark Web Organization, Chu Cichen was inferior to her in every aspect.

So, this guy had really hidden his strength.

The founder of the Loong Corporation... This position was much stronger than the head of the Chu Corporation!

Shen Ruojing couldn't help but admire him in her heart – this man was even more outstanding than she had imagined!

Thinking carefully, Jing Zhen had cloned his body and made Song Chen, which was equivalent to cloning Chu Cichen's IQ. Song Chen could then become the leader of the Doom organization in just a few years, which further proved the strength of Chu Cichen's genes.

While Shen Ruojing was feeling emotional, Chu Cichen didn't move.

After Jing Zhen greeted the black man, he stared at the plane behind him. However, Karl, from another angle, could see more clearly that there was no one else in the plane.

So Karl stepped forward and smiled at the black man. "Hello, I am Karl."

The black man was slightly startled. "A member of the Karl family? Hello, you can call me Rick."

"So, you are the famous Rick. We have all heard of you and know that you are a capable subordinate of Eastern Dragon. It is an honor to meet you today."

Karl said right away.

His words were not unfounded – Rick was indeed the name that the Loong Corporation had put out. Many people knew that inside the Loong Corporation, Rick was one of the managers.

After saying this, Karl smiled and glanced at Jing Zhen.

It was initially agreed that Eastern Dragon would come personally, but now they only sent a subordinate. Didn't this imply that the relationship between the Loong Corporation and Country A's royal family might not be as good as the royal family claimed?

Or perhaps, the Loong Corporation came today not to sign the agreement but to investigate.

In that case, their Karl family had a chance!

Six years ago, the three major families joined forces to suppress the Loong Corporation in order to prevent the emergence of a fourth economic power in the world. However, over the years, everyone had been reevaluating that economic battle.

In the end, they all realized one fact – the rise of the Loong Corporation was inevitable. Therefore, in recent years, the three major economic empires all wanted to reconcile with the Loong Corporation.

If Loong were to choose the Karl family, their combined strength could potentially compete with the King's Group.

Karl would then become a great contributor to their family.

With this in mind, Karl's attitude became enthusiastic, and he smiled at Rick. "Rick, welcome!"

The black man Rick shook hands with Karl and then looked at Jing Zhen with a puzzled face.

Didn't Country A's royal family go against the Karl family? That was why they called for the Loong Corporation to cooperate, but why was Karl here? Moreover, Jing Zhen didn't say a word, but Karl kept welcoming him...

If he didn't know any better, he might think that he came here today to discuss cooperation with the Karl family...

As Rick was thinking, Karl took out the gift in his hand and handed it to Rick. "By the way, Rick, I heard that Eastern Dragon really likes watches. This is the gift I prepared for him. Please pass it on to him."

As Karl said this, he looked at Jing Zhen with a somewhat mocking smile. "The King said that Eastern Dragon himself would come today, so I thought your cooperation with Country A's royal family had been settled..."

This sentence was actually meant to sow discord.

He wanted to tell Rick that Country A's royal family had spread the rumor that the Loong Corporation was eager to cooperate with them.

But now that only Rick had come, Karl believed that Rick would definitely be angry. After all, the Loong Corporation cared about their reputation, so how could they possibly be eager to cooperate with the Country A's royal family?

When Karl said this, Jing Zhen's heart skipped a beat.

He also thought that he had misunderstood... He subconsciously glared at Chu Cichen.

Chu Cichen kept saying that today was about discussing cooperation details and that they would sign the contract immediately after the discussion, so they all thought Eastern Dragon himself would come. After all, only the founder of the Loong Corporation could sign the contract on the spot!

Who would have known...

However, considering that Chu Cichen didn't even know about Eastern Dragon's fondness for watches, it was possible that he had misunderstood the Loong Corporation's intentions...

Jing Zhen was confused!

Such a large conglomerate wouldn't just agree to cooperate like that! The Loong Corporation wasn't owned by Chu Cichen's family!

Jing Zhen took a deep breath and squeezed a smile onto his face.

Just as he was about to speak, he heard Rick exclaim in surprise.. "Our boss is actually already here!"

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 658-As soon as Rick said this, the surrounding became silent.

Karl was stunned and looked at him incredulously. "What did you just say?"

Rick glanced at the crowd, smiled slightly at Chu Cichen, and deliberately deepened his northeastern dialect. "I said, our boss is already here!"

"..."

The expressions of Karl and Jing Zhen fell instantly.

Jing Zhen's face was full of smiles, and he felt like he understood something. He then stepped forward, grabbed Rick's hand, and asked, "You mean your boss has already come to Country A?"

Rick didn't expect Jing Zhen to suddenly be so enthusiastic. Listening to Jing Zhen's words, he nodded. "Yes."

.....

Jing Zhen's face showed a look of realization.

That was right. Eastern Dragon himself must have been here all along, incognito, investigating Country A before agreeing to cooperate with the Country A royal family.

Otherwise, how could the Loong Corporation agree to cooperate with them directly...

Jing Zhen smiled at Karl. "It turns out I didn't misunderstand Eastern Dragon's intentions. But since you're here today, where is your boss? When will he come?"

Rick didn't know when his boss would show up, so he coughed and said, "Well, our boss will appear when it's time! Like... when signing the contract!"

Jing Zhen nodded.

Karl couldn't help but look around, hoping to spot Eastern Dragon in the crowd.

But with so many people around, it was impossible to tell who was who...

Moreover, both Country A people and Chinese people had yellow skin, which made it even more difficult for Karl to guess.

"Father, the guests are here. Let's invite them to the living room first."

Shen Ruojing's timely reminder brought Jing Zhen back to his senses. He immediately made an inviting gesture to Karl, taking Karl and his two subordinates to the banquet area.

The group moved in a grand fashion.

Chu Cichen still followed Shen Ruojing.

Shen Ruojing looked at him and smiled. "Who do you think Eastern Dragon is? Is he hiding among us?"

Chu Cichen coughed and mysteriously said, "It's possible, Jing Jing. What kind of person do you think he is?"

He tentatively asked a couple of questions.

Shen Ruojing touched his chin and then laughed. "Well, I think Eastern Dragon must be... a strong, burly man with a full beard!"

Chu Cichen."?"

He immediately showed a surprised expression. "Why?"

Shen Ruojing pointed at Rick. "This guy has a strong northeastern accent, which he must have learned from someone. I remember when we were in college, there was a girl from the northeast in the dormitory next to ours."

Chu Cichen. "And then?"

Shen Ruojing laughed. "And then when we graduated, all four girls in the neighboring dormitory had northeastern accents."

Chu Cichen."!!"

He held back his laughter.

Shen Ruojing continued, "So, Rick must have spent too much time with Eastern Dragon and picked up the northeastern accent. From this, we can judge that Eastern Dragon must be a man from the northeast. Since he can conquer Rick, it means he must be an even more impressive man than Rick. He can only be a burly and strong warrior!"

Chu Cichen."!!"

He wanted to defend himself. "Actually, isn't it possible that Eastern Dragon is just a normal man?"

Shen Ruojing looked at him with a smile. "Is that so?"

Chu Cichen nodded, wanting to say something more. But he suddenly felt that something was off about her words. Seeing the laughter in Shen Ruojing's eyes, Chu Cichen understood that she must have guessed it already and was teasing him just now!

As Chu Cichen thought about this, he heard Jing Zhen's words in front. "Rick, if I may ask, does Mr. Eastern Dragon still like watches?"

Rick immediately replied, "Naturally..."

Karl laughed. "Your Majesty, see? I was right, wasn't I? Eastern Dragon must like watches. You can't entrust everything to your son-in-law. After all, the Chu Corporation doesn't have many connections overseas..."

Rick."?"

He looked at Karl in confusion.

Karl explained with a smile, "Your Majesty's son-in-law didn't prepare a gift for Mr. Eastern Dragon. I prepared a watch, but he even said that Mr. Eastern Dragon wouldn't like it. Your Majesty even believed it..."

He then shook his head slightly. With a smile on his face, he said, "So, that's why I said, 'Your Majesty, you really shouldn't trust your son-in-law...'"

(Son-in-law... The King's son-in-law, isn't that the boss?)

(The boss said Eastern Dragon doesn't like watches?)

(That must mean...)

Rick suddenly said seriously, "Mr. Karl, I think you misunderstood. What I meant was, naturally, he doesn't like them.."

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 659-Karl,"?"

Jing Zhen,"?"

Jing Zhen had felt that he was going to embarrass himself again, but he hadn't expected things to take another turn!

Karl looked at Rick incredulously. "Mr. Rick, how is that possible? Are you not familiar with Mr. Eastern Dragon? We heard that Mr. Eastern Dragon had once spent 50 million at an auction just to buy a handmade watch!!"

Rick naturally couldn't agree, as this was something the Loong Corporation had done on purpose. He could only cough and say, "Really? Maybe someone was impersonating him!"

Karl still found it unbelievable. "How could that be? Later, Mr. Eastern Dragon appeared at a Paris auction and spent another 30 million to buy a custom-made watch!"

Rick. "Perhaps the impersonator was the same person?"

.....

Karl thought that Rick's words were absurd. "They impersonated Mr. Eastern Dragon just to buy a watch at a high price?"

Rick, touching his chin and coughing, said, "Hmm, maybe that person has some weird fetish! After all, there are many strange people in this world."

For the sake of the boss, he even insulted himself!

That's right, the person who impersonated Eastern Dragon at the auction was none other than him...

As Rick spoke, he couldn't help but look back, wanting to find the boss for some comfort. Unfortunately, the boss was deeply gazing at Shen Ruojing, whispering something and completely ignoring his subordinate...

Rick coughed and couldn't help but touch his cheek.

Seeing that Rick didn't seem to be lying and even made the watch bidder sound ridiculous, Karl understood that Rick shouldn't be lying.

Karl suddenly took a deep breath.

It seemed that he couldn't give the watch today, otherwise, wouldn't it be mocking iMr. Eastern Dragon?

In that case...

Karl moved aside with a smile, revealing Princess Daisy behind him. After that, he said to Rick, "This is Princess Daisy of our Country Y..."

Unexpectedly, as soon as he saw this beautiful woman, Rick's face changed dramatically!

His pupils shrank as he looked at Daisy, his body unconsciously reacting defensively. After that, he subconsciously touched his cheek and looked at Daisy, coughing. "Uh, sorry, I'm allergic to blue-eyed people."

Everyone."?"

Karl was stunned. "What?"

Karl originally wanted Rick to introduce Daisy to Eastern Dragon. However, he was hesitating whether to let Rick act as the go-between or not. What if Rick fell for Princess Daisy?

But who could have expected Rick's reaction to be like this?

Rick couldn't help but touch his forehead.

How could he not be allergic?

The day before coming to Country A, he was inexplicably kidnapped and had a sack put over his head. Then, someone kept instilling this idea into him, muttering in his ear all night, causing him to have a physiological urge to vomit whenever he saw blue-eyed people now!

It was ridiculous!

Who could be so bored?

While Rick was complaining in his heart, Princess Daisy's eyes suddenly lit up.

She remembered what Mr. Chu had said earlier... that person had helped her resolve her problem. Seeing Rick's inexplicable reaction, how could she not understand?

It turned out that he really cared about her!

Daisy's eyes suddenly filled with tears...

At this moment, the most embarrassed person was Karl. Just as he was about to say something, Yan Zixuan stepped forward and stood between Karl and Rick, sneering, "Since Mr. Rick is allergic to blue eyes, Mr. Karl, why don't you take Princess Daisy away from Mr. Rick for a while to avoid causing any physical discomfort?"

Karl."!!"

Thus, Karl, who had just thought he was having a pleasant conversation with Rick, was isolated.

He stared angrily ahead, watching Rick and Jing Zhen chat intimately. He then couldn't help but turn around, wanting to vent his anger at Princess Daisy. It was all her fault that he missed the opportunity to continue chatting with Rick!

But as he turned his head, he saw Princess Daisy approaching Shen Ruojing and Chu Cichen, exclaiming, "Mr. Chu is truly amazing, you are so incredible!"

Chu Cichen coughed.

It wasn't that he was a clairvoyant, but he knew what had happened to Rick the night before his arrival. Combining Princess Daisy's blue eyes and her interpretation of the text message, he easily connected the two incidents.

So, the Chinese man that Princess Daisy liked thought that Rick was coming to meet her for a blind date. Thus, he had taken action first!

Chu Cichen's eyes darkened slightly, and he suddenly became somewhat interested in the other party, wondering what kind of person could capture Rick...

As he pondered, an angry Karl walked over. He had just heard Princess Daisy's words and sarcastically said, "Mr. Chu, instead of spending time cozying up to Princess Daisy, why not try to connect with Rick and see if you can establish a relationship with Eastern Dragon..."

His voice was a bit loud, letting everyone in the banquet hall hear, including Rick who was surrounded by people.

He immediately looked at Chu Cichen and asked, "What happened?"

Karl was the first to speak. "Oh, I was saying that the banquet Mr. Chu prepared is too low-level and doesn't show enough respect for Mr. Eastern Dragon..."

Hearing these words, Rick looked at Chu Cichen.

He saw his boss's face turn cold.

Chu Cichen initially wanted to tease Shen Ruojing a bit more, but now, Karl was so annoying... He sneered.

Rick immediately understood something and said in a mocking tone, "What right do you have to criticize my boss?"

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 660-As soon as Rick said this, Karl immediately explained, "I'm not talking about your boss, I'm talking about Mr. Chu. He really doesn't take Mr. Eastern Dragon seriously, it's too much!"

Rick wanted to say something, but Jing Zhen and Yan Zixuan already walked over and interrupted him.

Jing Zhen quickly explained, "Mr. Rick, this is just a misunderstanding. Cichen has absolutely no intention to offend Mr. Eastern Dragon!"

Jing Zhen might look down on his son-in-law and not want his daughter to be with him, but he was also protective and didn't allow outsiders to belittle Chu Cichen!

For example, now that Karl was targeting Chu Cichen, Jing Zhen was very angry.

He looked directly at Karl. "We, the people of Country A, have always respected Mr. Eastern Dragon and never had any intention of neglecting him. On the other hand, Mr. Karl, why have you been stirring up trouble since you arrived here?"

Yan Zixuan also spoke, "Yes, I can testify! Mr. Chu has made a lot of effort for this banquet. It may have been hastily arranged due to time constraints and perhaps some details were not in place, but it's definitely not because Mr. Chu disrespects Mr. Eastern Dragon. Please believe in the sincerity of us, the people of Country A, Mr. Rick!"

.....

The words of these two people eased Chu Cichen's expression a little.

He looked at Jing Zhen in surprise, not expecting his usually dismissive father-in-law to stand up for him today.

He then looked at Yan Zixuan who had been mocking him at every opportunity lately. He didn't think his cousin-in-law would help him today, but he unexpectedly spoke up for Chu Cichen just now...

Upon seeing this, Chu Cichen's lips curled slightly. He suddenly found Jingjing's relatives quite endearing.

He also understood why Shen Ruojing insisted on staying in Country A!

Karl listened to Jing Zhen and Yan Zixuan's words and hurriedly looked at Rick, only to see Rick slightly stunned, as if he didn't expect these two to speak up for Chu Cichen. Moreover, there was a hint of amusement on Rick's face.

Thus, Karl became anxious and immediately said, "Mr. Rick, I'm not trying to stir up your relationship. I don't mean that. I just feel that Mr. Chu's arrangement for the banquet in honor of Mr. Eastern Dragon is really lacking. Look at this tea..."

He picked up the teacup from the side and handed it to Rick. "The Chinese love tea, and this habit has spread to Country A. I know there are better teas in the royal family and even the King has some, but they only use this mediocre tea to entertain Mr. Eastern Dragon..."

Karl shook his head. "If I were to handle it, I wouldn't bring out such tea."

Jing Zhen and Yan Zixuan were about to explain again, but Rick suddenly stared at the teacup and laughed. "What kind of tea is this?"

Yan Zixuan explained, "It's Da Hong Pao."

"Oh, Da Hong Pao, what a coincidence. Our boss loves this tea the most." Rick smiled at Karl. "Mr. Karl, since you're so eager to get to know our boss, don't you know about his hobby?"

Karl. "??"

He was stunned, obviously unaware of Eastern Dragon's habit!

He looked around again, trying to find more flaws in the banquet and immediately said, "A few days ago when Princess Daisy of Country Y arrived, the banquet that was held then was several times more magnificent than this one. Not just the style of the buffet, but the arrangements and decorations were also more luxurious than what we have now. Mr. Chu's reception for Mr. Eastern Dragon's banquet is too simple!"

Listening to Karl nitpick, Shen Ruojing couldn't bear it anymore.

She looked at Chu Cichen sarcastically and suddenly laughed. "That's because Princess Daisy is a princess of a country. Country A naturally has to receive her with the royal attitude befitting a foreign guest."

As soon as Shen Ruojing said this, Jing Zhen and Yan Zixuan's faces darkened. They felt that she had misspoken.

Sure enough, Karl immediately caught the loophole in her words. "Oh, does Her Royal Highness the Crown Princess mean that Mr. Eastern Dragon's status is not as high as our Princess Daisy's?"

(It's over!)

Jing Zhen and Yan Zixuan both understood that this banquet was prepared by Chu Cichen, and indeed, its level of grandeur was not as high as the one held a few days ago.

But saying it so explicitly seemed to carry that implication.

What would Mr. Eastern Dragon think?

Shen Ruojing rarely spoke, but her words would usually hit the key points. Just what was happening today?

Just as the two were anxiously wondering how to make up for Shen Ruojing's recent remark, they saw Shen Ruojing suddenly smile. "Of course not, it's just that when receiving our own people, we don't need to make such a big fuss. Do I have to do this every time I return to my parents' home?...."
