I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 661-Upon hearing this, everyone at the scene was suddenly stunned.

They looked at her in disbelief.

Jing Zhen immediately asked, “Jingjing, what did you mean by that?”

Even Karl was dumbfounded. “What do you mean by the words ‘our own people’?”

Princess, Country A hasn’t even started cooperating with the Loong Corporation, and you already consider the Loong Corporation as your own people? Isn’t that acting a bit too familiar?”

Jing Zhen also thought that the statement wasn’t quite appropriate, so he immediately grabbed Shen Ruojing and whispered, “Jingjing, what do you mean by ‘our own people’? Is Mr. Eastern Dragon one of your people?”

Shen Ruojing smiled slightly and nodded her head.

Jing Zhen suddenly seemed to understand something.

No wonder, ever since Shen Ruojing had learned that Eastern Dragon was coming, she had been calm and unhurried, even letting Chu Cichen handle the matter. Could it be that Shen Ruojing had known Mr. Eastern Dragon all along?

Up to now, Jing Zhen hadn’t even considered that Chu Cichen could be Mr. Eastern Dragon.

Yan Zixuan looked at Shen Ruojing in disbelief. At this moment, the image of the Crown Princess in his mind suddenly changed, becoming more mysterious and grand.

It was as if the Crown Princess had suddenly turned into a giant...

So, the Crown Princess already knew the people from the Loong Corporation and Mr. Eastern Dragon all along. No wonder she always seemed unhurried whenever Yan Zixuan brought up the banquet.

As Yan Zixuan was pondering, he heard Jing Zhen ask in a lowered voice, “Jingjing, tell me, what is your relationship with this ‘own person’ of yours?”

Shen Ruojing glanced at Chu Cichen with a faint smile and then slowly said, “Hmm, a very reliable relationship.”

Jing Zhen.”?”

He couldn’t help but ask, “How reliable?”

Shen Ruojing touched her chin. “As reliable as Chu Cichen.”

As reliable as Chu Cichen...

A thought suddenly surged in Jing Zhen’s heart, could Mr. Eastern Dragon be having an affair with his daughter?

Jing Zhen was startled by his own thoughts, but then he felt that it was possible.

After all, when his daughter was abroad back then, she indeed had done many things he didn’t know about, and she had several identities that he was unaware of... so it was possible for her to have had a brief affair with Loong...

However...

Jing Zhen couldn’t help but glance at Chu Cichen and suddenly feel a bit sorry for his son-in-law.

He coughed once.

Next to him, Yan Zixuan’s expression became even more colorful upon hearing the father-daughter duo’s conversation.

(Mr. Eastern Dragon is actually a suitor of the Crown Princess?)

(This is simply... too dramatic!)

(But... the Crown Princess is already married, right?)

Yan Zixuan couldn't help but glance at Chu Cichen again, suddenly feeling as if there was a green meadow growing on top of Chu Cichen's head.

While Yan Zixuan and Jing Zhen were lost in their wild thoughts, Karl spoke up, "Princess, what do you mean by this? Are you saying that Eastern Dragon pursued you? But you are clearly engaged to Mr. Chu, and you two never held a wedding ceremony... Was it because of this?"

Karl was relentlessly trying to sow discord between the two parties. "Does Mr. Eastern Dragon know about Mr. Chu's existence? Or have you been playing both sides all along?"

Shen Ruojing."?"

Karl's imagination was indeed rich.

The corners of Shen Ruojing's mouth twitched. She then looked at Chu Cichen, sighed silently, and asked, "Mr. Eastern Dragon, do you know about my relationship with Chu Cichen?"

Suddenly, Shen Ruojing called out 'Mr. Eastern Dragon,' which left everyone present dumbfounded.

Everyone instinctively followed Shen Ruojing's gaze and then looked past Chu Cichen to the space behind him.

Karl's face was immediately covered with a smile as he looked past Chu Cichen, but he saw nothing...

There was no one there...

Just as he was about to question Shen Ruojing's intentions, he suddenly saw Rick touching his head and walking toward Chu Cichen. He then greeted, "Boss!"

Karl."?"

His face was full of confusion, feeling that the current situation was completely beyond his imagination!

Even Jing Zhen and Yan Zixuan were stunned at this moment, both looking at Chu Cichen in disbelief..

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 662-It was Jing Zhen who reacted first, instinctively looking at Shen Ruojing and asking, "Do you mean that Chu Cichen is in fact... Mr. Eastern Dragon?"

Shen Ruojing calmly nodded her head.

Jing Zhen

He suddenly looked at the son-in-law he had never been fond of. He originally thought that Chu Cichen was just a businessman, not worthy of his daughter. But at this moment, he understood!

How could he not be worthy!

Jing Zhen swallowed hard, beginning to reflect on how harshly he had spoken to Chu Cichen before.

Would his son-in-law cancel the cooperation with Country A because of it?

As Jing Zhen thought about this, Chu Cichen walked to Shen Ruojing's side, holding her hand. His deep, black phoenix eyes stared intently at Karl. He then smirked sarcastically. "Mr. Karl, our Loong Corporation and the royal family of Country A have always had a close alliance. As for why my marriage to Jing Jing has been delayed, it's because I haven't yet won her heart. You don't need to worry about that. When we do hold our wedding, I can send an invitation to the Karl family."

Chu Cichen was dressed in a black suit, wearing a tie that matched the color of Shen Ruojing's gown.

At this moment, the man exuded an aura of authority that couldn't be ignored!

Not to mention Karl, even Jing Zhen couldn't help but re-evaluate Chu Cichen.

This man had always been low-key and reserved. Although he had a strong presence, he was always humble in front of Jing Zhen, making Jing Zhen subconsciously look down on him... But at this moment, Chu Cichen's dominating aura as Eastern Dragon was fully unleashed) without any concealment.

This made Jing Zhen swallow hard. Perhaps he had underestimated this man too much.

The news that Chu Cichen was Mr. Eastern Dragon spread throughout the entire banquet at lightning speed.

Everyone saw Chu Cichen's ridicule of Karl and how Karl had been trying to stir up trouble between the two parties, only to be ruthlessly slapped in the face. For a time, the people of Country A couldn't help but applaud!

As for the thoughts of the noble families, they changed once again at this moment.

With a husband like Eastern Dragon, could the Crown Princess truly secure the position of the Queen?

No, not necessarily!

Eastern Dragon was too strong. If the Crown Princess were to become the next ruler, then Country A would eventually belong to Mr. Eastern Dragon!

The thoughts of the nobles were really complicated.

At one moment, they were worried that Shen Ruojing didn't have a powerful husband to support her, and the next moment, they felt that the husband was too powerful and might threaten the throne of Country A...

Shen Ruojing, of course, didn't know what these people were thinking. She just stared at the conference room where King Jing Zhen and Chu Cichen were signing the agreement for future cooperation.

Now, the Loong Corporation and the royal family of Country A were closely bound together.

Shen Ruojing couldn't hear what the two were saying in the room, but she could see through the glass door that Jing Zhen still had the demeanor of a ruler. After the initial shock, Jing Zhen, a man who had weathered many storms, did not lose to the rising star Chu Cichen.

The two men engaged in an in-depth conversation.

Shen Ruojing could see that Chu Cichen always maintained a respectful and humble attitude in front of Jing Zhen, greatly satisfying Jing Zhen's pride. The two had a pleasant conversation, eventually reaching an agreement and signing a joint contract.

As the two emerged from the conference room, the entire venue erupted in enthusiastic applause. At this moment, Karl had been pushed into a corner, staring at Chu Cichen and Jing Zhen with a fierce intensity in his eyes.

indeed, Karl no longer had the qualification to have a say in these two people's affairs. Everyone knew that the Karl family's persecution of Country A's royal family would never happen again – because the Karl family was not worthy.

Although Karl did not approach Chu Cichen, Chu Cichen looked at Karl and walked over with a wine glass. He then looked directly at Karl and said assertively, "Mr. Karl, I believe you'll have to withdraw that arrest warrant for the King that was issued by the United Nations, right?"

Karl's face turned pale instantly.

The United Nations was dominated by Country Y, and their influence was extensive. If they withdrew the arrest warrant, it would be a clear sign that the Karl family had backed down – something that they couldn't afford to lose face over.

Karl took a deep breath and then laughed. "Mr. Eastern Dragon, we both know that the arrest warrant is merely a formality. Why be so aggressive?"

The arrest warrant might just be there as a formality, and no one would dare to actually arrest Jing Zhen in Country A. But withdrawing it would make the Karl family lose face. If Chu Cichen and Jing Zhen could just let it go and not mention the matter again, everyone would just take a step back.

However, neither Jing Zhen nor Chu Cichen were the kind of people to back down when someone else tried to bully them. So Chu Cichen's face showed a hint of a dangerous smile. Seeing this, Karl quickly spoke up, "Mr. Eastern Dragon, I've always thought that there should be more than just three economic empires. So, our Karl family would like to welcome you as the fourth economic empire!"

Country A's royal family would no longer oppose Loong Corporation's rise, and the King's family always expressed their neutral stance. If the Karl family agreed, the Loong Corporation could immediately become the fourth economic empire.

But as soon as he said this, Chu Cichen raised his wine glass and laughed. “You should know that a triangle is always the strongest form.”

Karl was taken aback. “What do you mean?”

Chu Cichen just laughed. “I mean, three economic empires are enough. Having one more would be too chaotic.”

Karl immediately understood and sneered, “Mr. Eastern Dragon, I advise you not to be too arrogant! Our Karl family has been around for hundreds of years! Besides, King has always supported our country!”

Upon hearing this, Chu Cichen frowned. The mysterious King indeed always supported Country Y, and his strength was unfathomable. If Chu Cichen chose to intervene, a two-on-two battle might not necessarily result in a win for them. It seemed that they needed to find away to get acquainted with Mr. King first.

Meanwhile.

At the Huo residence in China’s capital city.

Ye Xie was lounging on his sofa, looking at the message sent by his contact in Country A.[The princess is fine, the blind date failed. I

Ye Xie casually repliedf[Well done.]

The other party suddenly sent a messaged Mr. King, the Karl family has offended both the Loong Corporation and Country A’s royal family. It seems that Mr. Eastern Dragon wants to strike the Karl family. Should we support the Karl family?]

Seeing this message, Ye Xie raised his eyebrows slightly.

The Karl family was the foundation of Country Y. If the Karl family were to fall, there would be no one left to protect his little Princess Daisy....

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 663-While Ye Xie was pondering, the door to his room was knocked on.

He walked over and opened the door to find an extraordinarily beautiful woman standing there.

The woman's jet-black hair casually draped behind her, and her face still had a trace of sleepiness. Even though she was already forty years old, she looked more charming than most younger women.

This person was Su Nanqing, Ye Xie's mother.

Su Nanqing then looked at Ye Xie. Her beautiful almond-shaped eyes were slightly raised as she asked lazily, "What's going on between you and the little princess?"

Upon hearing this, Ye Xie smiled bitterly. "Mom, there's nothing between us."

"So what are your intentions toward her?"

.....

Intentions?

Ye Xie thought for a moment.

To be honest, he quite liked Daisy. The little princess and his sister were close friends, and during his years studying in Country Y, Daisy had taken care of him quite a bit. Also, when he was younger, he would often tease her...

However, a King' couldn't be involved in any political struggle.

If he were to be with Daisy, he would be dragged into the royal family's conflicts in Country Y.

That was why Ye Xie had kept his distance from Daisy all these years... Besides, he couldn't figure out whether he saw her more as a sister or if he genuinely harbored romantic feelings for her.

Until he could clarify his feelings, he wouldn't be with Daisy, lest he held her back.

Moreover, they were both still young, not even twenty years old... There was a long future ahead of them. Also, due to his background, Ye Xie could only love his family and himself. He was unable to see into his own heart.

Ye Xie thought about this but remained silent.

Su Nanqing seemed to sense his dilemma and smiled, patting him on the shoulder. "If you're unsure, you can try boldly. The Karl family has always been using her, and they might not treat her well."

Ye Xie nodded. "Even if they're using her, her popularity is quite good. So, the Karl family wouldn't dare to bully her. I've also asked her, and she said she's doing quite well. Anyway, I need to keep my identity secret. Otherwise, if I were to intervene and eventually not be able to marry her, she would be the one who suffers the most."

Su Nanqing said, "What a woman says is not necessarily true. Are you sure she's doing well and hasn't been mistreated?"

Ye Xie laughed. "Would the Karl family dare to bully her? She's now the only presentable person in the royal family. If I were the Karl family, I would treasure her and treat her like a national treasure."

This was Ye Xie's misunderstanding because he was a straightforward man.

Since childhood, he had been educated to strive for what he wanted.

But the life of Princess Daisy was an unfortunate one, and some things were difficult to say... Besides, Princess Daisy had a secret crush on him, and she admired him. Because of this, she didn't want him to know about the embarrassing side of her life.

Unfortunately, Ye Xie couldn't understand these things.

On the other hand, Su Nanqing seemed to have a vague idea but decided not to interfere further after hinting at it to her son.

The lives of the children should be left to their own choices.

She nodded and said, "As long as you have a clear understanding, that's fine."

The woman then yawned widely and said, "Well, I'm going to sleep now."

Ye Xie watched his mother, who was only interested in sleeping, and silently twitched the corner of his mouth.

Over the years, Ye Xie didn't know how his father, now retired, managed to face such a "sleeping goddess" every day...

After all, his father loved to travel and explore the beautiful landscapes of the world, but for his mother, it was just a change of scenery to sleep...

The banquet to host the Loong Corporation finally came to an end.

Before Karl and the others left, they looked back at Chu Cichen with a fierce glare.

He even warned Chu Cichen and Jing Zhen, saying that King would support the Karl family and they shouldn't think that joining forces could truly bring down the Karl family. If they thought so, it would be truly laughable.

After Karl left, Chu Cichen looked at Jing Zhen. "Father-in-law, have you ever met this King?"

Jing Zhen shook his head. "No. I haven't been in charge of the royal family for very long, but even if I had been, I wouldn't have met him. That King is even more mysterious than you. At least you, as Eastern Dragon, have appeared in public and left traces, but King has never appeared. No one knows who he is. The only thing I know is that the current King is the son of the King from years ago, and he's very young."

Chu Cichen nodded, revealing a thoughtful expression.

Jing Zhen asked, "Are you sure you want to make contact with King and bring down the Karl family?"

Chu Cichen nodded. "Father-in-law, I can't tolerate the existence of someone who harbors ill intentions toward us at all times. Moreover, only by suppressing the Karl family can we show the world that our two families are untouchable."

Jing Zhen understood that since the Loong Corporation had made an appearance, they needed to send a warning to the world.

With that, no one could easily target him and the royal family of Country A. Even a powerful family like the Karl family must pay the price for their recklessness!

Only this way could they deter others and ensure that no one dared to provoke them again.

After all, the Loong Corporation, unlike the three major economic empires, had no foundation in this world.

The Loong Corporation, like Chu Cichen himself, could only be considered a rising star in the business world but possessed immense wealth, like a child flaunting treasures in the streets, easily attracting the envy of countless people.

Chu Cichen couldn't help but frown. "Do you know why King has been supporting the Karl family all along?"

Jing Zhen laughed. "Well, I actually have heard something about that."

Chu Cichen's eyes lit up.. "What's the reason?"

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 664-Jing Zhen said, "I heard that King has some entanglements with the royal family of Country Y. It seems that the current Queen of Country Y was in love with the past King from years ago, but her wish was never fulfilled. When the Queen later sought other men, she looked for those who resembled King. Her subsequent boyfriends all seemed to have some resemblance to King."

...

Chu Cichen.

He thought that he would hear some secrets, but he didn't expect to hear this!

He wasn't interested in other people's romantic escapades!

Chu Cichen twitched the corner of his mouth, and Jing Zhen seemed to realize that what he had said was somewhat inappropriate. He then coughed and looked at Chu Cichen warily. "The Queen is like this because she couldn't get what she wanted. However, you mustn't behave recklessly outside. Let me tell you, even if you are Eastern Dragon, if you dare to wrong my daughter, I will still beat you."

Jing Zhen's beautiful peach blossom eyes, which carried a unique aura, stared at Chu Cichen, and Chu Cichen bowed his head. "You're right, father-in-law. Don't worry, I will never disappoint Jingjing."

Jing Zhen was finally satisfied. "Alright, you still have something to tell Jingjing, and I won't stand in your way."

He waved his hand generously. Chu Cichen finally satisfied the imposing father-in-law. He then breathed a sigh of relief and walked toward Shen Ruojing.

At this moment, Shen Ruojing was chatting with Rick who was praising her and bad mouthing a few others... When Chu Cichen came over, Rick tactfully found an excuse and walked away.

Chu Cichen looked at Shen Ruojing and began. "Jingjing, I..."

He seemed unable to say the words that followed, but Shen Ruojing seemed to understand, and she smiled slightly. "Go ahead."

Chu Cichen was stunned. "You knew I would go with Rick?"

"Yes." Shen Ruojing's peach blossom eyes, which were similar to Jing Zhen's, were filled with a hint of laughter at this moment. "You, the Eastern Dragon, have just been stranded in shallow waters. Sooner or later, you must soar into the sky. Now that your identity has been exposed, you must have many plans, right? Go ahead, don't worry. I can handle Country A's affairs and Xiaomeng's rescue."

Chu Cichen let out a sigh of relief. "Don't worry about Xiaomeng. I will rescue her myself before I get busy with other things."

Shen Ruojing also breathed a sigh of relief.

Now that Eastern Dragon's identity had been exposed and Karl knew about it, the Doom Organization, which collaborated with Karl, would also know. Therefore, the person in the most danger now was Xiaomeng.

Hence, when Chu Cichen said that he would go and save the child, this eased half of Shen Ruojing's worries.

Although both of them believed that Song Chen still had a little bit of conscience, since all his experiences and past were cloned from Chu Cichen, they didn't dare to gamble on him protecting Xiaomeng.

Shen Ruojing said, "As soon as you have any news about Xiaomeng, inform me immediately. No matter how important Country A's affairs are, they are not as important as Xiaomeng."

She knew that the women of Country A were waiting for her to help liberate them, but compared to her daughter, Shen Ruojing knew her priorities.

Chu Cichen nodded. "Don't worry."

After saying that, he couldn't help himself and patted her head. He said, "Jingjing, I'll come back as soon as I'm done with my work."

"Alright."

The two looked at each other.

Shen Ruojing didn't become cautious because she knew Chu Cichen was Eastern Dragon, and Chu Cichen didn't become arrogant because his identity was revealed. They had known since their time in the Dark Web Organization that they were trustworthy teammates. No matter what their identity was, they would always recognize each other's abilities.

"Boss, it's time."

Rick had no choice but to play the bad guy and interrupt the silky atmosphere between them.

Chu Cichen forcefully pulled his gaze away and nodded at Rick. He then said his farewells to Jing Zhen and Yan Zixuan before turning around and going toward the plane.

Both of them had their own careers and couldn't always be together.

Such separation would become normal for them in the future. They would have to get used to it sooner or later.

Chu Cichen thought about this as he entered the plane.

He couldn't help but want to wave goodbye to Shen Ruojing through the plane's window, but as soon as he turned his head, he saw that she had turned around and followed Jing Zhen back to the palace.

Chu Cichen.

Shen Ruojing didn't understand the meaning of a fond farewell. She had experienced too many separations and farewells in her life and had long since become accustomed to them.

After Chu Cichen left, she immediately contacted Xiaomeng to make sure the little girl was still happily reading and had no life-threatening concerns. After that, she took her phone and followed Yan Zixuan into the military camp.

There were only a few days left until the assessment, and she was determined to lead a group of female soldiers into the final round of the martial arts competition.

In a certain area of Country Y.

Song Chen, who looked exactly like Chu Cichen but had a thinner body, was currently receiving medical treatment.

The doctor examined him thoroughly and said slowly, "Mr. Song's physical condition is good. There are no problems."

Song Chen nodded coldly, his face displaying an unwelcoming cold demeanor.

He sat up from the bed and instinctively asked, "What is she doing?"

Someone reported, "She's reading."

Song Chen's lips curled up slightly upon hearing these words.

But the next moment, his phone suddenly rang.

Song Chen looked at the phone, and his brows furrowed involuntarily.

The caller ID showed that it was Karl.

He answered the phone leisurely, and Karl immediately commanded, "Song Chen, I remember when you hid in Country Y, you brought a little girl with you. Is she the daughter of Chu Cichen and Shen Ruojing?!"

Song Chen's eyes darkened.

He instinctively asked, "What are you going to do?"

Karl sneered and said, "I'm going to use her to deal with Chu Cichen!"

Song Chen immediately replied disdainfully, "Do you really need her to deal with Chu Cichen? With such great intelligence and knowledge, he doesn't even know how to use it properly. He only defends his small Chu family, which is simply ridiculous..."

Song Chen had always looked down on Chu Cichen.

Song Chen was his clone and had his memories from six years ago, but even he knew what to do. In just six short years, he had joined the Doom Organization and had become its leader.

But what about Chu Cichen himself?

He didn't even make good use of what he had learned.

Why did Shen Ruojing like Chu Cichen and not him?

Every time Song Chen thought of these things, he felt indignant!

Upon hearing this, Karl sneered, "It seems you don't know him well enough. Do you know who else Chu Cichen is besides being the head of the Chu family?!"

Song Chen thought of Chu Cichen's several aliases and disdainfully said, "They're just a few insignificant little aliases, that's all...."

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 665-Regardless of whether it was Champion Chen or 527 in the Dark Web Organization, they were insignificant aliases to Song Chen.

However, after Song Chen finished speaking, he heard Karl say, “Do you know Loong?”

Song Chen was slightly stunned.

Of course, he wouldn’t misunderstand anything. Like Chu Cichen, people with the same intelligence only needed a hint from the other party to immediately understand what they meant.

He immediately understood. “You mean...”

Karl’s voice was full of mockery. “That’s right, Chu Cichen is Loong, the Eastern Dragon.”

Upon hearing this, Song Chen was taken aback.

.....

He had never expected that his proud identity would still be inferior to Chu Cichen’s.

He clenched his fingers holding the phone and then shouted angrily, “That’s because he has connections, while I can only live in the gutter and have never seen the light!”

Song Chen would never admit that he was inferior to Chu Cichen since he was Chu Cichen himself!

Karl sneered, “It’s no use saying these things now. I just want to tell you that the Loong Corporation has partnered with the royal family of Country A, and they seem to want to join forces against me, so I need you to bring their daughter to me!”

Song Chen finally came to his senses. “What do you want to do with Xiaomeng?”

Karl scoffed, “Xiaomeng? Why are you calling her so intimately? Oh, biologically speaking, Chu Xiaomeng is your daughter as well since you have her father’s genes, right? But has she ever treated you as her father? Besides, I don’t need to explain what I want to do! I have arranged for someone to go to you. Just hand over the child to them!”

Karl had checked, both Shen Ruoqing and Chu Cichen were quite doting toward their children.

As long as he controlled Chu Xiaomeng, these two would have to listen to him!

He hadn't thought much of the child before, and even the three major economic empires had never captured each other's family members or children no matter how they fought.

But now, since Chu Cichen had revealed his identity, this made Karl become vigilant!

Even if his methods were somewhat despicable, there was no other choice.

After saying that, Karl hung up the phone.

Song Chen's face turned from pale to flushed.

When the Doom Organization sought cooperation with Karl's family, it was because of their status in Country Y and their global economic power. The two parties were in a cooperative relationship, but now Karl's tone made it sound like Song Chen was a subordinate.

This made Song Chen feel very dissatisfied.

Moreover... when he captured Chu Xiaomeng, he just wanted to teach Shen Ruoqing and Chu Cichen a lesson. These two were too wicked, and it could even be said that he was unwilling to leave China like this.

He had been Chu Cichen's stand-in for half a year. But in the end, he got nothing, and Shen Ruoqing didn't even give him a glance.

Later, Chu Cichen finally gave him a chance to become Chu Cichen, and he finally experienced the warmth of the world.

During that time, both Matriarch Chu and the rest of the Chu family were very kind to him.

They called him big brother, called him son... This made him feel as if he had finally met his relatives, so he simply went along with the flow and found someone to assassinate Chu Cichen abroad.

As long as Chu Cichen died, he would become the real Chu Cichen.

He would have a lover, relatives... even children, and he could live the life he had always longed for.

However, he didn't expect Chu Cichen to survive with his memory intact, and everything turned out to be a scheme. So before leaving, even though he had broken free from the other party's arrest and could have escaped more smoothly, he took a detour to the Shen family and took Chu Xiaomeng with him.

At least, by doing so, Shen Ruojing and Chu Cichen would remember him, and there would be a relative who would always be by his side...

Yes, relatives...

Biologically speaking, Chu Xiaomeng is his daughter.

Song Chen's face grew even darker now.

He looked at the hung-up phone, and dissatisfaction and anger welled up in his heart.

With a cold face, Song Chen strode toward the room where Chu Xiaomeng was held.

In that room, Chu Xiaomeng was reading a book.

Knowing that she loved to read, Song Chen had specially found many out-of-print books, and as a result, Chu Xiaomeng stopped crying and making a fuss.

He pushed the door open and walked in, only to see Chu Xiaomeng look up at him. She showed him a pure smile and then lowered her head to continue reading, seemingly lost in the ocean of knowledge.

Song Chen simply sat down across from her, thought for a moment, and then spoke, "Your parents' enemy, Karl, is sending someone to capture you."

Chu Xiaomeng was slightly stunned and then looked up. "So?"

Song Chen pondered for a moment. "I'll have someone take you away and send you back to your parents."

However, Chu Xiaomeng insisted. “No!”

Song Chen paused. “Why?”

Chu Xiaomeng said, “I haven’t finished reading so many books! I won’t go!”

Song Chen.”??”

The little girl in front of him looked dazed, her big eyes only showing some brilliance when facing a book. At this moment, she was staring at him with determination, seemingly unwilling to give up until she had achieved her goal.

Song Chen took a deep breath, unable to help but scold, “What are you reading at this time?!”

Did the little girl know that the Karl family had always been high and mighty, with no bottom line as human beings?!

Even when facing a child, they could be ruthless!

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 666-As soon as Song Chen said this, the little girl raised her head in surprise and looked at him. Her eyes revealed a trace of astonishment. “Uncle Song, can’t you read?”

...

Song Chen.”??”

Chu Xiaomeng shook the book in her hand in front of him and pointed to the cover, explaining, “I’m reading about the origin of species!”

Song Chen.”??????”

Now it was his turn to be stunned.

The little girl was not sensitive to danger at all. Was that what he meant just now?!

He took a deep breath and was about to say something when the little girl grabbed his hand.

.....

Her small, soft fingers held his big hand, only grabbing one of his fingers. But it made Song Chen's body stiffen slightly.

Song Chen also had Chu Cichen's habit of not being used to strangers approaching him, but the little girl's approach didn't make him feel uncomfortable at all. Even though she was already five years old, she still drank milk every day, and there was a faint scent of milk on her body.

The cute and soft little girl made Song Chen resist the urge to hug her, but he didn't have the strength to pull his finger away. While he was staring at that finger in a daze, he heard the little girl speak. "Uncle Song, can you not let them disturb my reading?"

Song Chen took a long time to react, his gaze falling on the little girl's hand holding his finger.

Song Chen then lowered his eyes and slowly said, "Alright, you read."

He paused and whispered, "No one can disturb you. What else do you like to read?"

Chu Xiaomeng looked up contentedly, her face filled with satisfaction. "These are enough, Uncle Song, you are so nice."

"You are very well-behaved too." Song Chen patted her head before he stood up and left the room.

As soon as he closed the door, Song Chen's subordinate immediately said, "Boss, do we really need to be responsible for the safety of this child?"

Song Chen thought for a moment. "Hmph, responsible for what? I'm just keeping this child for a useful purpose! Using her against Shen Ruoqing and Chu Cichen in the future is the best strategy. How could we leave such a trump card to the Karl family? It must be controlled by us!"

Hearing this, the subordinate sighed with relief.

For a moment, he really thought that their boss was love-stricken, loving Shen Ruoqing so much that even her daughter was included!

He couldn't help but say, "In that case, boss, you don't need to rack your brains to collect so many books for her!"

Song Chen sneered, "I just tolerated her because she is well-behaved, sensible, and knows when to advance or retreat. She doesn't ask for much."

Subordinate."?"

There were many rare books in this room, some of which involved top-secret scientific research. However, Song Chen still allowed his undercover scientists to risk exposure to get them for her.

At this point, she still didn't ask for much?!

Song Chen spoke again, "By the way, if she wants anything else, just give it to her."

Subordinate."?"

Song Chen coughed. "After all, she doesn't cry or make a fuss, and she's quite well-behaved."

Subordinate."..."

(Boss, you're just short of plucking the stars from the sky for her. I guess even her parents haven't treated her this well. Is this what you call well-behaved?)

The subordinate suddenly wanted to say something but didn't dare.

At this moment, there was a commotion at the door.

Song Chen, with his subordinate, went to the entrance just in time to see two of Karl's men come in. They were dressed in black suits and extremely arrogant. They strode in and looked directly at Song Chen. "Mr. Song, Mr. Karl has sent us to pick someone up."

Song Chen furrowed his brows.

He stared at the two men for a moment before asking, "Who are you here to pick up?"

"A little girl," the two men replied, "We heard she's Mr. Eastern Dragon's daughter."

Song Chen lowered his gaze, his fingers unconsciously rubbing a string of beads on his wrist.

One of the two men suddenly spoke, “Mr. Song, I believe you wouldn’t dare to refuse Mr. Karl’s order, would you?”

“Yes, I advise you to recognize your own status. Your Doom Organization is now despised by everyone. Only our Karl family is willing to shelter you, so don’t waste time talking here. Hand over the girl quickly, or else, after we expose your identity, we will definitely uproot you all!”

The two men were extremely arrogant, making Song Chen’s most trusted assistant clench his fists.

The subordinate stepped forward, wanting to say something, but he was held back by Song Chen’s arm. “These two are right.”

The subordinate was slightly stunned, looking incredulously at Song Chen.

The two men laughed. “See? When you’re a dog, you need to have the awareness of one. Even your master understands this, but you, his subordinate, don’t? I advise you to learn from your master how to behave properly!”

As the man spoke, he even patted the face of Song Chen’s subordinate.

The subordinate’s face turned ashen, but without Song Chen’s order, he didn’t dare to act.

After taking control of the Doom Organization, Song Chen actually captured the hearts of all his subordinates. Also, this assistant was his most loyal subordinate, obeying only Song Chen’s orders.

After they were done speaking, Karl’s men looked at Song Chen and slowly said, “You are now in Country Y, our territory. I advise you to recognize the situation and act wisely!”

Song Chen looked indifferently at his subordinate. “Bring Xiaomeng out..”

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 667-The subordinate was slightly stunned.

Just now, didn’t his boss come up with a bunch of excuses and make many sophistries, implying that he wouldn’t hand over the child to these two men?

But then, things suddenly changed.

Perhaps the boss really had no other choice, after all, they were in Country Y now. If they offended the Karl family, it would be difficult for them to escape.

Although the subordinate complained in his heart, he still obediently turned around and walked toward Chu Xiaomeng's room.

Seeing this scene, the two men sent by Karl followed behind the subordinate, casually bypassing Song Chen and heading to the room where Chu Xiaomeng was being held. However, just as they passed by, they suddenly heard two gunshots.

It seemed that... their hearts were pierced by the bullets.

Both men stiffened. They then incredulously turned their heads to see the seemingly gentle and thin man blowing the muzzle of his handgun to dissipate heat. In his eyes, there was a gloominess so deep that it resembled a demon crawling out of hell.

Of course, this was the last sight they would see in this world.

Song Chen's subordinate also heard the gunshots and immediately turned around to see his boss looking coldly at him.

Song Chen only said one word, "Relocate."

The subordinate immediately became excited. "Yes!"

This was the boss he had always followed, always so domineering and bold!

"Relocated?"

Shen Ruojing was currently in the army when she heard the news from Chu Cichen's call. She was slightly stunned. "Why? What happened?"

Chu Cichen said, "It seems that he had a falling out with the Karl family. We don't know the specific reason, but our people received the info. By the time they arrived, Song Chen had indeed relocated. There were two casualties at the scene, apparently from the Karl family."

Shen Ruojing pondered for a moment and then listened to Chu Cichen continuing. "However, our people found that when he relocated, he took all the books with him, so it should be safe."

Shen Ruojing nodded. "Right, like when he was in China, after we caught him, my two senior brothers were watching him, and we thought it was safe. However, he still could escape, so he must be fine."

Chu Cichen immediately said sarcastically, "You really trust him!"

Shen Ruojing coughed and reassured the other party. "The person I trust is you."

Chu Cichen."?"

Shen Ruojing explained, "Because everything about him is cloned from you. Think about it, if it were you who went to seek shelter with the Karl family in Country Y, wouldn't you have a backup plan?"

Chu Cichen hummed. "That's true, after all, I'm so smart."

"..." Shen Ruojing twitched her mouth, feeling that this man was getting more and more unreserved in front of her. But she continued, "Anyway, his fallout with the Karl family was inevitable. Both he and the Karl family are arbitrary people..."

"This part isn't like me," Chu Cichen interrupted her, making Shen Ruojing roll her eyes. "Right, right, all the good parts are cloned from you, and all the bad parts are nurtured by Song Chen."

"Yes, Jingjing is right."

"..." Shen Ruojing didn't bother to pay attention to him anymore and continued, "He went to cooperate with the Karl family in order to deal with the royal family of Country A. But the Karl family's attack this time is considered a failure, so the basis for their cooperation no longer exists. I guess Song Chen already prepared an escape route. Don't worry, Xiaomeng will be fine."

Chu Cichen finally breathed a sigh of relief. Just as he was about to say something, a whistle sounded from Shen Ruojing's end. She immediately said to Chu Cichen, "Alright, alright, I have to go now. I'll contact you if anything happens!"

Her phone was connected to Chu Xiaomeng's vital signs, which she was monitoring at all times.

Since Chu Xiaomeng had been taken away by Song Chen, her emotional state had been consistently happy, so Shen Ruojing simply treated it as a vacation for the little girl.

At this moment, Shen Ruojing hung up the phone and looked into the distance. She saw Yan Zixuan blowing a whistle and everyone running over.

Shen Ruojing hurriedly ran over as well and heard Yan Zixuan say. "You've basically mastered the basic training in the past few days, but you're still far from being able to participate in the martial arts competition! Moreover, there are many other events in the competition, such as parachuting and so on!"

A group of women were instantly stunned.

Yan Zixuan continued, "So, in the next class, I'll take you to learn about parachuting! Follow me."

Shen Ruojing stood in the line of female soldiers, following behind Yan Zixuan.

When the group of female soldiers arrived at the military helicopter base, Yan Zixuan let the instructors there teach them.

The instructors here were not part of the Yan family's army. They were an independent department, responsible for taking soldiers to practice parachuting in the sky.

Seeing Yan Zixuan bring the women over, the instructors' faces changed and they began to mock.

"What are you women doing here?"

"Yeah, being a soldier is not something women should be doing!"

"Parachuting? You'll be scared to death once you're up in the air!"

"Women should be marrying and raising children. General Yan, this is too absurd. How will they get married if you let them be soldiers? Isn't this damaging their reputation?"

Someone even recognized Luo Yan and shouted directly, "Luo Yan, go home immediately! Do you hear me?"

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 668-The person shouting was Luo Yan's uncle.

After Luo Yan joined the army, her family was shocked, and the news spread throughout the Luo family and the noble circle of Country A. As a result, the marriages of the other Luo Family's girls were delayed. To make things worse, Luo Yan's cousin, the daughter of this uncle, had her engagement canceled.

So when Luo Yan's uncle saw her, he was furious.

Luo Yan shook her head and said, "Uncle, I won't go back. I want to join the army and be with the Princess!"

Her uncle's expression suddenly darkened.

He glared at Luo Yan. "Do you know that your actions have already shamed our family? Luo Yan, if you keep messing around, are you planning to harm all of your cousins?"

Luo Yan bit her lip.

She knew that her cousins had been affected by her actions.

But she wanted to help more women in Country A rise to a higher status. Should women just be resigned to their roles as wives and mothers, forever living in the inner courtyard?

No, they had learned so much knowledge; why couldn't they have their own careers?

If she succeeded, her cousins could also break free from the inner courtyard and improve the status of women.

But her uncle didn't understand. He only knew that his daughter had been affected, so he was very angry and upset. When he saw that Luo Yan was still stubborn, he became even angrier. "If you don't come back home, I will have your name removed from the family registry! You will no longer be someone from the Luo Family!"

Luo Yan smiled bitterly at his words. "Fine, do as you please."

If her name were removed, she could act more freely and not worry about implicating the Luo family's women.

With this thought, Luo Yan turned her head and no longer looked at her uncle.

However, hearing her words, her uncle was extremely angry. He stared at Luo Yan. "Fine, fine, you're so unrepentant. Don't blame the family for being harsh on you!"

His eyes emitted a touch of malice.

At this moment, Yan Zixuan felt that something was off. But when he was about to stand in front of Luo Yan, he saw someone else moving faster than him and directly blocked Luo Yan's uncle's view.

Luo Yan obviously breathed a sigh of relief and showed Shen Ruojing a gentle smile.

That's right, the person standing up for Luo Yan was Shen Ruojing.

Shen Ruojing returned the smile and looked at the scene. "Whether the female soldiers are capable or not, wouldn't we know after trying? Let's start the class!"

As the Crown Princess, Shen Ruojing's words carried more weight than Yan Zixuan's.

After she gave the order, even if Luo Yan's uncle was reluctant, he had to find someone to teach them. However, his gaze at Luo Yan was still filled with grim darkness.

Although the parachuting teacher also looked down on these female soldiers, he didn't dare to play any tricks with Shen Ruojing present, so he taught the class properly.

All the female soldiers who came here had studied abroad and were mentally mature and determined. Hence, they took the opportunity to learn very seriously.

Yan Zixuan wandered around outside.

Since the Crown Princess was among the female soldiers learning to parachute today, he couldn't let anything happen to Shen Ruoqing. He had to stay here and even follow them during the parachute training in the next few days.

Glancing over occasionally, he saw the Crown Princess sitting there lazily and spinning a pen in her hand. She looked like a student who was daydreaming instead of paying attention in class.

The teacher saw her like this and sneered, but since the person daydreaming was the Crown Princess, he didn't dare to scold her. He could only say, "You must study the theoretical knowledge of these two days carefully! Although parachuting is relatively safe now, many soldiers still get into accidents every year because they didn't learn properly. If you don't want to be disabled or injured all over, listen carefully!"

"Yes!" the female soldiers shouted in unison.

The teacher looked at the Crown Princess again, only to see that Shen Ruoqing was still looking lazy.

The teacher couldn't help but snort with displeasure.

However, he didn't say anything more. He thought to himself that the Crown Princess was only here for show. After all, with her noble status, how could she really parachute from an airplane?

Talking about helping women was just lip service.

Hence, the teacher's disdain for Shen Ruoqing grew deeper.

When the two classes were over, Yan Zixuan led the group of female soldiers to leave. After all, after finishing this theory class, they had to practice on the ground before they could really parachute from an airplane.

As the group turned to leave, they saw a few male soldiers standing not far away, chatting.

At first, they didn't pay much attention to them, but when they passed by the male soldiers, they suddenly heard their conversation.

“Hey, I heard that the Luo family has taken a liking to you and plans to have you marry their daughter Luo Yan?”

One of them poked a guy, who had his back to the group and hadn't seen them approaching. The poked soldier said impatiently, “No!”

“I thought so too. After all, that Luo Yan went into the male soldier's barracks, so her innocence must be long gone! You did the right thing by refusing.”

The poked soldier coldly snorted, “I wouldn't want such a woman even if she were given to me for free!”

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack chapter 669-Luo Yan was stunned.

She actually knew this person.

As the legitimate eldest daughter of the Luo family, she would either marry into the royal family or form a marriage alliance to win over military generals.

In this generation, there were actually several promising candidates that the Luo family had set their eyes on. Luo Yan's father had even asked her to choose one of them.

However, Luo Yan had refused.

What she wanted was fair and free love.

The person in front of her was one of the soldiers that her father had considered. He was said to be a young battalion commander with a promising future.

.....

At that time, this person had even approached Luo Yan to show his good intentions, hoping that she would choose him.

After all, getting the support of the Luo family would help his career in the army!

Luo Yan had refused him at that time, but she never expected that she would be ridiculed by him now.

As she stood there in a daze, she heard him continue...

“At first, General Luo did indeed consider me, but I didn’t agree. I’ve long since heard that Luo Yan is ugly and has no talents. Now, she’s not staying in the back, taking care of her husband and children, and has run into the men’s group. How desperate must she be for men?”

“Hahaha, Luo Yan is just eager to get married! But like this, it’s definitely impossible. Who would marry someone who has been among men? You were right not to want her.”

“Hehehe,” the soldier sneered, “I am not the only one who doesn’t want her. I think even if she became an old maid in the future, no one would want her!”

“Of course, if she’s really lacking men, we can give it a try. After all, Luo family women are usually high and mighty. When would it be our turn? Hahaha...”

The group became more and more outrageous in their comments, making Luo Yan’s eyes turn red and her body tremble. It was as if she couldn’t wait to rush over and die with them the next second.

Yan Zixuan, who was beside her, was also furious.

Country A had a conservative culture, and women took their reputation very seriously. Once, a distant cousin of the Yan family was accidentally kidnapped for ransom. Although she was found the same day, she still committed suicide by hanging herself after that.

This just went to show how harsh Country A was toward women.

Yet, these men were openly discussing a woman here?

Yan Zixuan felt his fists harden.

He was about to step forward when he saw a figure rushing over.

How could Shen Ruojing sit and listen to these people slander Luo Yan?

She went straight over and kicked the soldier who claimed to be chosen by the Luo family.

The soldier was inexplicably kicked and didn't come to his senses until he got up from the ground. He then realized that Luo Yan had heard their conversation.

However, he was here specifically to discredit Luo Yan under the instructions of Luo Yan's second uncle.

So, how could he be afraid?

He angrily said, "You, a mere soldier, do you know who I am?! How dare you lay hands on a superior? You're really overestimating yourself!"

When Shen Ruoqing entered the army, she did so as an ordinary soldier.

And the military was where people followed orders the most, and status was of the utmost importance.

Moreover, the person in front of her was indeed a battalion commander, and he did have a higher status than her.

Shen Ruoqing narrowed her eyes and said directly, "No matter what status you have, does it allow you to insult your colleagues here?"

The soldier immediately shouted, "What colleagues? What colleagues are you to us? Do you have records of serving in the army? You think you're a female soldier just by wearing a military uniform?"

Shen Ruoqing sneered, "Whether we are female soldiers or not is not up to you, but if you insult Luo Yan, I will intervene!"

The soldier wanted to say something, but Luo Yan's second uncle hurried over. "Your Highness the Princess, what's the matter?"

The soldier then realized that the person in front of him was the Princess.

He was so angry that he gritted his teeth, but he dared not say anything more. He could only complain to Luo Yan's second uncle. "General, I was just chatting here, talking about how General Luo had his eye on me and wanted me to marry Miss Luo. Then, out of nowhere, Her Highness the Princess came up and kicked me!"

Luo Yan's second uncle looked at Luo Yan and frowned. "Oh? So you are the son-in-law my brother chose for Luo Yan?"

The soldier immediately shouted, “No, I’m not!”

Luo Yan’s second uncle pretended to be a good guy and said with a dark face, “What’s the matter? You don’t think our Luo family women are good enough?”

“General, although I admire the Luo family, Miss Luo Yan’s actions are really too humiliating! I will not marry her!”

Luo Yan’s second uncle continued, “What if it’s an order?”

The soldier immediately took off his hat and said stubbornly, “For such a woman, I’d rather be a soldier for the rest of my life and not be an officer. I won’t marry her!”

He looked determined, which made the surrounding soldiers look at him with admiration.

Luo Yan was furious.

Her father hadn’t chosen this soldier at all, but now they were ganging up on her to make her look bad!

Luo Yan stepped forward and yelled, “Second Uncle, I won’t marry him either, so you don’t have to go through all this trouble!”

Luo Yan’s second uncle just sneered, “What trouble am I going through? This is their own choice. Luo Yan, do you see? Even with your father’s face on the line, no one dares to marry a woman like you! You won’t be able to get married in your lifetime! Do you still want to be a soldier?”

Luo Yan was stunned.

She looked at her second uncle, about to say something, when suddenly a deep male voice came from beside her.. “Who says she has no one to marry?”
