

I Am A Boss Mommy That Wants To Slack

Chapter 8: You're Fired!

At the Chu Corporation's lobby.

Shen Ruojing narrowed her eyes and looked at the security guards surrounding her.

This group of people carried electric batons. They had clearly come prepared. The Chu Corporation's security team wasn't to be underestimated.

On the other hand, the receptionist raised her chin slightly and said sarcastically, "Shen Ruojing, Miss Lin is about to get engaged to Mr. Chu, yet you actually tried to create trouble for them. You're really shameless!"

At this moment, there was a commotion at the elevator's entrance. A few bodyguards in black walked out and stood on both sides domineeringly with their hands behind their backs.

Chu Cichen was dressed in a black suit, and his figure was as straight as a javelin. His sharp figure and determined face made those who didn't know better think that he came from the army.

Five years ago, he still had the disposition of an immature guy, but now, he was filled with the aura of a tough man.

"Shen Ruojing, why is it you again?"

Lu Cheng, who was wearing a flowery shirt, had his hands in his pockets. He walked over and frowned. "Let me tell you, Bro Chen and I are busy looking for someone today and don't have time to talk to you. Don't fail to know what's good for you!"

Prof. Z had always been mysterious, and very few people in the outside world knew of his true identity. However, did he suddenly come to their company's entrance because he knew that they were interested in purchasing the biological petri dish?

However, there were many people passing through the lobby, with countless people coming to the Chu Corporation for work. Which of them was that major character?

Shen Ruojing ignored him and walked straight to Chu Cichen.

However, his bodyguards were well-experienced and stopped any possibility of her approaching from all angles.

Shen Ruoqing could only stand at a spot two meters away from him, sizing up his calmness, and saying, "The DNA report is out. The children are yours."

Chu Cichen's phoenix eyes narrowed slightly.

However, Lu Cheng said in surprise, "To think that you've even prepared a fake report?"

Shen Ruoqing was about to say something when her phone rang again.

She was really getting a lot of calls today... She frowned and was about to hang up the call in annoyance when she saw the incoming number. She then accepted the call. The person on the other end said something, and she threw Chu Cichen a glance. After that, she inhaled deeply and said, "I'll be there right away."

After hanging up the call, her voice turned cold. "If you don't trust my report, why don't you go do one yourself? Chu Cichen, I hope that you can contact me after doing the DNA test and then explain to me what is going on."

She threw a glance at the receptionist and sneered, "Moreover, I didn't know that entry to the Chu Corporation is decided by Lin Wanru."

After saying this, she seemed to have something urgent to attend to and turned to head out.

Through the glass door, she could be seen casually picking up her helmet and driving off on her motorbike.

The series of actions were done smoothly, looking very cool.

Lu Cheng couldn't help but sigh, "As expected of an unattainable beauty in the past! Eh... I almost forgot the important thing. Bro Chen, hurry up and check in which direction Prof. Z is at!"

Chu Cichen held up his phone but realized that on his tracking software, the small red dot that represented Prof. Z disappeared after a few flashes.

Lu Cheng's shoulders instantly collapsed. "It's over! We were discovered!"

Chu Cichen put away his phone, looking very calm. There was no disappointment in his pitch-black eyes, instead he looked coldly toward the receptionist.

The receptionist was so scared that she lowered her head and said meekly, "Mr. Chu, it was Miss Lin..."

Chu Cichen felt a deep disgust at the mention of Lin Wanru. He then ordered coldly, "You're fired."

After saying this, Chu Cichen took large strides out.

Lu Cheng followed behind him. “Bro Chen, where are you going?”

“Home.”

“What for? Aren’t you looking for Prof. Z anymore?”

Lu Cheng suddenly realized something. “You can’t possibly really be going back to do a DNA test with that young girl, could you? But that’s true. Shen Ruoqing isn’t a fool. If they weren’t your children, why would she cling to you like she’s crazy? But you have to be careful regarding the organization you choose to do the DNA test with. It’s to prevent anyone from fiddling with the test report.”

Chu Cichen paused in his footsteps and glanced at him. “Chu Xiaomeng.”

“What?”

“She has a name.”

Lu Cheng: “... She’s not your daughter yet, but you’re already being so protective of her?”

Shen Ruoqing rode on her motorbike to the Golden Bilingual Kindergarten.

At the entrance, the small Chu Tianye was hugging a big school bag and had his head lowered, looking like an abandoned puppy.

The gentle teacher said apologetically, “Little Ye’s mother, I’m really sorry. We received a call from the Chu Family to process the withdrawal for your child... Moreover, with the Chu Family giving the word, there shouldn’t be any kindergartens in Sea City who would accept Little Ye...”

Her eyes were red. “I’ve tried my best...”

Chu Tianye held her hand. “Teacher, I can’t bear to part with you... After I grow up, I’ll open a kindergarten and let you be the principal there. How about it?”

His words made the teacher’s heart ached for him even more.

Shen Ruoqing picked up the child and put him in the passenger seat. When they reached the turn, the child was still shouting, “Teacher, I’ll miss you!”

Shen Ruoqing: “... Stop with the pretense.”

Chu Tianye, who seemed to be dejected earlier, instantly changed his expression into a beam. He grinned and said, "I finally don't have to go to school anymore! This feels so great!"

He had long since been envious of the fact that his younger sister didn't have to go to kindergarten!

"But Daddy is too bad. The kindergarten belongs to the Chu Family, however, not only did he not waive off my school fees, but he's even bullying me! That's too much!"

When they arrived home, Chu Tianye got off the motorbike and ran into his room. He wanted to go ask his younger sister what was going on with their daddy!

However, he had just picked up his phone when he saw a message sent by his sister. [Bro, Daddy has another son!]

Chu Tianye: "?!"

What was this situation?

He replied, [Is that child by your side? Hurry up and chat with him the way I taught you! Try to get some information from him! I want to know all the information about him!]

In the Chu Manor's living room.

After receiving her brother's message, Chu Xiaomeng's pupils contracted. She then lifted her head and looked at Chu Yu who had a straight face on.

Chu Xiaomeng, who had social phobia, frowned.

How should she initiate a chat?

She thought about it and suddenly spoke up, "You..."

Chu Yu raised his head abruptly and looked toward her!

Was the aloof little sister finally willing to talk to him?

Then, he heard Chu Xiaomeng's meek question. "... What is your relationship with Daddy?"

Chu Yu: "?"

He was very puzzled as he replied, "... Father and son."

"Oh."

Seeing him staring at her, Chu Xiaomeng then asked nervously, "Then what's your surname?"

"... My surname is Chu."

"Oh."

Chu Xiaomeng hurriedly lowered her head, avoiding the other party's gaze. She didn't see the disappointment in Chu Yu's eyes.

Why was she ignoring him again?

Were his replies not good enough?

When Matriarch Chu, who was sitting at the side, listened to their conversation, she tried to hold in her smile as she looked at Chu Xiaomeng lovingly.

The child was wearing a white gauze dress and sitting docilely on the sofa. She was hugging that dinosaur cloth doll and had her head lowered, her long lashes casting a shadow on her face. At this moment, her hands held onto a big phone as she sent messages to someone.

She looked really adorable.

Why was this not her granddaughter?

Click!

The door opened and Chu Cichen strode in. His gaze landed straight on Chu Xiaomeng, and that woman's words flashed in his mind.

"If you don't trust my report, why don't you go do one yourself?"
