

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 111 I Find A Jade Pendant At Home

In the ward of the Rexwell Hospital.

Natalia lay quietly on the bed as if she was sleeping.

Kayden sat by the bed and looked at her without saying a word.

Lottie opened the door and walked in.

It was already 11 o'clock in the night.

Fabian had just called her to go home, but she didn't want to go back.

Nor did she want to sleep.

She wanted to stay here like Kayden.

What if Natalia woke up in a second?

"Lottie."

Kayden turned his back to her and said in a deep voice, "Am I a bastard?"

The man's eyes were fixed on Natalia's face. "When you sent me a message tonight, I should have gone to find you." "If I had gone to find you... maybe everything would be different."

Lottie pursed her lips. "I also made some mistakes..."

She shouldn't have listened to the director and left.

Even if Claudia's target was her, it was better to take her away than take Natalia away! After all, Arthur had taught her martial arts for self-defense.

But Natalia could do nothing.

She was just an ordinary woman.

"I should take the blame most."

Kayden took a deep breath and reached out to hold Natalia's cold hand. "I shouldn't lose my temper... I shouldn't tell her to keep away from me."

"I always know that she likes me." "But I only treat her as a friend. For some reason, I won't fall in love with any woman." "I changed my girlfriends frequently to make her give up."

The man's voice was low and hoarse. "I don't understand. She's so beautiful and smart. She's famous and has a bright future.

Why does she waste time on me, a playboy?"

Listening to his words, Lottie gripped her sleeves tightly. "So what did you do...?"

Kayden sighed and said, "It's her birthday in a few days. She asked me if I could accompany her back to her hometown to see her relatives on her birthday."

"She said her family wanted to see me."

"I know. She still didn't give up."

He closed his eyes and remembered Natalia's eyes which were full of despair this afternoon.

"I told her that I just took advantage of her."

"That I founded the Thunder Pictures Entertainment is not to prove myself to my family but just want to get money and girls."

"She's just a tool for me. The reason why I have an affair with her for so many years is to make her work and earn more money for me."

"I even said..." "I said that I have made enough money and will propose to my beloved woman in a few days."

"I said that I would be happy that she wants to stay and continue to make money for me. If she doesn't want to do that, then pay the penalty fee and get out of here. Anyway, when she signed the contract with me, she was just a rookie with a monthly salary of 2,000 dollars, and the penalty fee was only 50,000 dollars."

Kayden gave a wry smile, and the picture of Natalia, who was tearful, standing in front of him clearly appeared in his mind.

Then, she smiled.

"I see." She said.

She stood in front of him and smiled brightly. "Then I still have to thank you for the help over the years. After all, without you, there is no such a Natalia."

"Back then, when I was the only contracted actress in Thunder Entertainment, I worked so hard for you even though a lot of hype and gossips were around me. I just wanted to help you change the useless image in your parents' eyes."

"Although you lied to me, I did what I promised."

"I will send you the penalty fee."

"Thank you, Mr. Chapman, for letting me go solo in the peak period of my career. I will remember your kindness." "When you get married, I will give you a big gift."

Finally, she gritted her teeth and looked at him. "Kayden, I wish you will never be happy."

Kayden held Natalia's hand.

He thought that everything he did was good to her.

Unexpectedly, he pushed her into another abyss.

She was a girl with strong self-esteem. Whatever happened tonight, it would leave her a horrible impression.

He even felt that after what happened tonight, she would no longer fall in love with anyone. Since it was all because of him, he would be responsible for it.

He would give her the happiness she failed to get.

As for his happiness...

Anyway, he had lost his happiness.

"I still have a question."

Lottie pursed her lips and sat down on the chair next to Kayden. "Do you really not like Natalia?" 'I don't think so.' She thought.

Every time Kayden talked about Natalia to her, he always put on a smile.

Feelings in one's eyes and habits could tell the truth.

"I don't like her."

Kayden responded coldly, "I love someone else."

Lottie bit her lip.

She didn't expect Kayden to deny her question so decisively.

After a while, she took a deep breath and tried to slow down her tone. "Since you don't like Natalia, she won't be happy even if you marry her."

"You won't be happy either."

Kayden sneered and looked up at her. "What about you, Lottie?"

"When you married my uncle, did you like him? Does he like you?"

"If I remember correctly, you haven't officially met when you married him. You are still sad for your ex-boyfriend."

"Don't you feel happy now?"

His question was so brusque that Lottie didn't know how to answer.

After a while, she sighed. "I respect your choice."

Everyone had their own lives. She could not feel the same as others, nor should she disturb them. However, she could try her utmost.

Lottie took a deep breath, pushed the door open, and went out.

In the corridor outside the door, Ralph was making a phone call.

"Okay."

Seeing her come out, he hung up the phone and looked up at her. "Alice went abroad."

"Went abroad?"

"Yes, she went to an exhibition abroad, casual decision."

Ralph frowned. "She left too fast. My men didn't stop her."

"Sean just found out that she was already at the airport when I went to the Green's Villa to find Claudia." He sighed. "She must have heard the news and left on purpose."

After that, he lowered his head and glanced at Lottie. "But even if she stays at home, we won't gain much evidence."

"She's a cautious person. After saying those words to you at the entrance of the hotel, she definitely won't intervene in this matter. Even if we investigate to the end, it should all be Claudia's fault."

"She's just an abettor."

Lottie bit her lip. She had already thought of the result.

According to Claudia's attitude toward Alice tonight, she would indeed plan such a thing to please her. Just as she was thinking about it, her cell phone rang.

It was from Kevin.

"Lottie."

On the other end of the phone, Kevin said in a pleading tone. "Come back. I have something to tell you." Lottie looked up at the time. It had been two hours since Claudia had been caught.

Kevin looked for her at this time. He must have tried many ways to bail Claudia out and failed, so he thought of her finally.

She smiled wryly. "Mr. Green, just say it."

She denied that he was her "father" by calling him Mr. Green.

Kevin was silent for a while.

After a while, he said coldly, "I found a jade pendant at home."

"It seems that you dropped it when you came home last time. Claudia said that it was something left by your mother, do you still want it?"

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 112 If Only Our Daughter Would Look Like You

Lottie held the phone tightly.

She had never expected that the jade pendant that Arthur had given her back then was now in Kevin's hands! But...

She took a deep breath. "Mr. Green, how can I know if you are lying to me?"

"I remember that that jade pendant was lost before I went to the Green's villa last time."

"And you tell me that I lost it there last time?"

Kevin sneered. "Don't care when you lost it. Anyway, this jade pendant must be very important to you."

As soon as he finished speaking, Lottie received a photo from him.

In the photo, it was indeed the jade pendant that Arthur gave her last time!

Lottie felt anxious.

She lowered her voice. "What do you want?"

"What do you think?"

Kevin said coldly. "It's so late. Claudia was taken to the police station."

"She can't stay at the police station."

"I want her to come back."

Lottie bit her lip, looked up at Ralph in front of her, and pressed the speaker button.

Kevin's proud and arrogant voice echoed in the corridor.

"Lottie, I'm not threatening you. But the jade pendant is in my hands now. It's mine."

"If you don't do as I say, I won't give it to you."

"It is said that this jade pendant has something to do with your mother whom you have never seen before." "Moreover, what if I break it by accident for the worry of Claudia..."

"Break it."

Before he could finish his words, Ralph said coldly, "Mr. Green, I suggest you break the jade pendant now."

Lottie was stunned and looked at Ralph in disbelief.

Ralph snatched the phone from her hand.

He said in a cold and sarcastic tone. "Mr. Green, listen. The only one thing that your whole family can threaten Lottie might be this jade pendant, right?"

"Then why don't you break it? You can't threaten us any longer. We can make Claudia suffer what she deserves." Kevin was silent on the other end of the phone.

Indeed, the only thing left in his hands that could make her compromise was the jade pendant.

Although he threatened to break the jade pendant, it was impossible for him.

It was a threat, but Ralph ruthlessly exposed it.

"If I were you."

Seeing that Kevin didn't speak, Ralph continued, "I would try my best to please Lottie and come up with a most valuable thing to exchange with her. I won't ask her to exchange the broken jade pendant with a peaceful night that Claudia could sleep well at."

He said it calmly with irresistible and powerful voice.

In the Green's Villa, Kevin began to tremble.

He glanced at the jade pendant on the table in front of him and suddenly felt that it was his last hope.

Ralph was right.

What he said that he would break the jade pendant just now could only threaten a little girl who had no will of her own.

When it came to a calm man like Ralph, his scheme was exposed in an instant.

After a while, Kevin sighed. "Mr. Chapman."

He said in a low voice, "I want to save Claudia with this pendant."

Ralph sneered. "The pendant is far less valuable than Claudia's life."

"Even if it was left by Lottie's mother, I believe that no matter her mother is alive or dead, as long as I tried my best, I can find her."

"When the time comes, the pendant will be worthless."

Kevin's hand, which was holding the phone, trembled violently.

He gritted his teeth and said, "What do you think I can use this jade pendant to change?"

"If it can't meet my expectations, I'll smash it directly!"

"Then I suggest you smash it now."

"After all, the person Claudia framed is not my wife, and I can't intervene. But if you smash the jade pendant, I will have reason to deal with Claudia."

Kevin was speechless.

He looked at the jade pendant in front of him as if it was a timebomb.

Half an hour ago, when he found this jade pendant, he thought it could help her.

But now, he couldn't do anything to Lottie with this jade pendant.

He couldn't use it to exchange for Claudia's life or a better treatment for her. He couldn't even break it! So... Was this the price of infuriating Ralph?

He held the thing that Lottie cared about the most, but he couldn't do anything!

After a long while, Kevin took a deep breath. "What can I do now, Mr. Chapman?"

"Put away it. You may get what you want at the most critical moment."

“But remember, you are not eligible to bargain with me.”

After that, he hung up the phone without waiting for Kevin’s response.

Lottie was dumbfounded.

Ralph put the phone back into her hand, and smiled to her. “My dumb girl.”

“You’re so...”

She was at a loss.

Perhaps it was because Ralph had always been gentle. She had never seen him so tough and cold.

It was Kevin who had just called to threaten her. But in the end, Ralph took the negotiation under his control.

What else could she do other than say “Awesome”?

“Let’s back home.”

Seeing that she was still in a daze, Ralph had to rub her head and took her to the elevator. “There are still many things to do tomorrow.”

Lottie nodded her head heavily and left with him.

On the way back, she sat in the back seat and couldn’t help peeping at him.

He was lying on the leather seat with his eyes closed.

His face was perfectly carved. Even with his eyes closed, he was an overwhelming presence that no one could ignore.

This man... it’s reasonable for him to be arrogant and overbearing.

Ralph did not even open his eyes. “Am I so good?”

Lottie stiffened. She quickly looked away. “I think... you’re very powerful.”

The phone call with Kevin made her still immersed in admiration and shock for him.

“If you had experienced too much, you wouldn’t have been threatened.”

The man said indifferently.

Lottie pursed her lips. “Have you been threatened before?”

Ralph was silent for a moment.

In the end, he smiled faintly. “It is very common in business.”

Lottie nodded.

That made sense.

He was a businessman, so he must be very used to it.

Seeing that she didn't say anything, Ralph changed the subject. "Is today the birthday of Stella whom we met last time?" "Yes."

Lottie nodded. "You still remember her."

She thought that a busy man would not remember a little girl whom he met by chance.

"Of course."

Ralph pulled her into his arms and said, "She looks like you."

After a long while, the man's deep voice came from above her head. "If only our daughter would look like you..."

In his warm embrace and listening to his deep, fascinating voice, Lottie's face suddenly blushed. "But it's better for her to be as smart as you."

Unlike me, I'm so dumb!

Ralph smiled. "That's right."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 113 Claudia Was Being Wronged!

"But..."

Lottie took a deep breath and looked at Ralph. "How did you know I was in the Skywu Villa Quarter?" Not only did he know that she was over there, but he could also accurately find her in the villa village. Ralph frowned slightly. "I sent you a message."

Lottie, "?"

"When did you send me a message?"

Ralph glanced at her coldly. "You really don't know it's me?"

Lottie, "Where..."

Before she could finish her words, she suddenly remembered the message from "Dear"! She had thought that it was Connie's, but she didn't expect...

She bit her lip and forced an embarrassed smile. "Well, it's you."

"Of course."

He looked at her soulfully. "Don't tell me you doesn't know yet, Mrs. Chapman."

Lottie pursed her lips. When she thought of how sweet the messages she had been sending to that number recently, she turned scarlet from embarrassment. "I..."

"It seems that Mrs. Chapman does regard me as someone else."

He bent down and pressed her between him and the car door. "So many dears, huh?" Lottie, "..."

How did she know that he would save his caller ID as 'Dear'?

The closer he got to her, the more her heart thumped wildly.

She bit her lip and subconsciously pushed his chest. "Well, I..."

"I didn't regard you as someone else!"

"I sent it to you..."

In a hurry, she had no choice but to admit it.

Ralph was satisfied with a curled corner of his lips. "That's good."

Seeing that his expression had finally relaxed, Lottie heaved a deep breath. She had thought that she would be fine, but she hadn't expected that he would hold her lower jaw and kiss her hard.

The partition in the car dropped down urgently.

He pressed her on the leather seat and kissed her lips, then her neck, and finally her collarbone unscrupulously.

Lottie had no strength to resist and could only gently push him. "Don't..."

However, she did not reject him from the bottom of her heart.

Perhaps her mind, which had been nervous for too long, needed a moment of relax and a sense of security...

In short, although she said she didn't want to, she was positive in her manner.

She didn't know how long it took, but just as she felt that she was totally exhausted and was about to collapse, the car arrived at the Chapmans' Villa.

She was wrapped in the man's coat and carried home like a child.

The bedroom door opened and closed again.

The petite woman was pressed against the door and bit her lip weakly. "Ralph..."

"Call me honey."

He kissed her earlobe, and his voice was smoky.

"Honey..."

"Yes."

He chuckled in her ear and took a light bit at her round earlobe.

"Want it again?"

Lottie's face was as red as a ripe apple.

She bit her lip shyly and nodded.

The warm lights fell on the two on the bed.

For the whole night, she was hovering between the extreme happiness and hardness.

In the end, the man held her jaw and mumbled. "I won't let such a thing happen to you again."

His eyes were deep and serious. Lottie's heart trembled, and tears instantly welled up in her eyes. She did not expect him to know her uneasiness and fear in her heart.

The woman stretched out her arms and hugged him tightly. "Thank you."

That night, it was until four o'clock in the morning that she finally fell asleep exhausted.

When she woke up again, she was awakened by Fabian.

"Mommy!"

"Mommy, Mommy, wake up!"

"Mommy..."

The little boy's childish voice rang out over and over again.

Lottie rubbed her aching forehead and sat up from the bed. "What's wrong?"

"The police are looking for you downstairs!"

Police...

They should be here to ask her something.

After all, Claudia had been arrested yesterday and she was the reporter.

She quickly changed her clothes and went downstairs.

Downstairs, a female police officer was sitting on the sofa chatting with Elijah.

"Mrs. Chapman."

Seeing her go downstairs, the policewoman stood up with a smile. "It was too late last night. I didn't bother you. Do you have time now?"

Lottie nodded and casually tied her hair up. "I'll go with you."

Regardless of whether it was for Natalia or herself, she had to bring Claudia to justice this time! The policewoman reluctantly bid farewell to Elijah, and then took Lottie out of the door.

"I really envy Mrs. Chapman for having such two handsome and smart sons."

After getting in the police car, the policewoman couldn't help sighing with emotion. "When I just arrived at the Chapman family, I was surprised by such beautiful kids."

"I didn't know until I saw you, Mrs. Chapman, that they really look like you!"

Lottie smiled awkwardly. "They're not my biological children."

The policewoman's eyes widened.

“Mrs. Chapman, don’t joke with me. Elijah and Fabian’ eyes are so similar to yours. How could they not be your children?” “The first time I saw you, I felt that your eyes were very similar...”

Lottie paused for a moment and subconsciously glanced at her eyes that were reflected on the car window.

Was it?

She had never noticed this before.

Soon, the car arrived at the police station.

According to the procedure, Lottie made a statement to the police and truthfully told them everything she had heard and seen last night.

When she finished and came out, she happened to meet Kevin and Eira, who were here to visit Claudia.

“Lottie!”

As soon as she saw her, Eira rushed over angrily and grabbed her collar. “What do you want?”

“Claudia is innocent!”

“Something happened to your friend. Why do you want to wrong Claudia?”

“We have treated you well! Over the years, even if we know that you are not our biological daughter, and even if we know that you are from a humble family, we still let you stay in the Green family, right?”

“What’s more, we gave you such a good marriage!”

“How dare you repay kindness with enmity? You are an ungrateful woman!”

Lottie laughed coldly in her heart and shook off Eira’s arm. “Is that so?”

“You’re really good at flattering yourself.”

“Didn’t you ask me to stay in the Green family just to be your servant?”

“The so-called good marriage, isn’t it because Claudia doesn’t want to marry him, so you forced me to marry him for your kindness of raising me up?”

The woman’s words attracted many people’s attention.

The attention of the people around her made Eira’s face turn red and pale.

She had always been keen on face-saving. How could she bear losing her face?

So she angrily took out a blade from her pocket and rushed straight toward Lottie’s face- A large rough hand blocked in front of her.

The next second, Eira’s knees got hurt and she directly knelt on the ground. The blade in her hand pierced through her palm, causing her to scream in pain.

The situation changed the moment she made a defensive gesture.

She frowned and turned to look at the strange man in front of her.

The man was in his thirties. His facial features were rough and his body was muscular. When she looked at him, the man also turned to look at her. "Are you okay?"

"Thank you."

Although Eira would not be able to hurt her even if he didn't help her, she had to thank him.

"No worries."

The man smiled at her. "According to your fighting skills, she couldn't have hurt you." "But I think girls should be protected."

Lottie looked at him in shock.

How did he know that...

She hadn't made a move yet!

Could it be that he knew it from the way she raised her hand?

This is too terrifying...

"Mr. Chapman!"

Someone in the distance shouted.

Lottie paused and subconsciously looked in the direction of the voice.

Ever since she married Ralph, she was naturally sensitive to the name "Mr. Chapman".

"Coming."

The man standing beside her answered in a low voice and turned to look at her. "Excuse me." After that, he strode away.

Looking at his fading figure, Lottie frowned slightly.

His family name is Chapman?

She felt that this man... Was he related to the Chapman family?

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 114 Is This God's Will

"Lottie, if anything happens to Eira and Claudia, I won't let you get away with this!"

Kevin talked tough before he left.

Lottie stood where she was and watched as he helped Eira leave. Her eyes gradually turned icy.

After a while, her cell phone rang. It was from Fabian.

She was aware that he must have been waiting anxiously at the gate of the police station.

As she hung up the phone, she turned around, and strode out of the police station.

“Mr. Chapman, what are you looking at?”

“Nothing.”

In a corner of the police station, Yank moved away his gaze. He asked, “What is that woman doing here?”

The person at the side said carelessly as he was staring after Lottie. “Oh, she’s here to make a statement. Her friend was kidnapped and abused yesterday.”

The man nodded and turned to look at the people around him. “Sorry about her friend. What about her? Is she all right?” “Come on, look at her, do you think she’s not good?”

The man was amused by him. “Mr. Chapman, you’ve been single for almost 40 years. Why are you suddenly interested in such a young girl?”

Yank also glanced at him coldly.

The atmosphere around them turned strained.

Once the man realized, he coughed awkwardly. “I’m just curious about why you suddenly care about a stranger.” “She’s not a stranger. I’ve seen her before.”

Yank frowned and once again turned his eyes in the direction where Lottie had left.

But it seemed that she no longer remembered him.

Five years ago, she... Did she really forget everything?

Outside the police station.

Lottie opened the door and got into the car.

“Mommy, Daddy just called and asked us to go to grandpa’s house now!”

As soon as she got in the car, Fabian couldn’t wait to say, “Daddy is waiting for us at the door there!”

Lottie nodded and subconsciously glanced at her clothes. “Is it... appropriate for me to wear this?”

Although she had seen Mr. Chapman before, it was the first time she had seen Ralph’s two brothers.

Ralph was born when Mr. Chapman was in his forties.

Although he was 28 now, his two brothers were already in their middle age. Even his second brother was almost 40 years old.

Lottie always felt pretty stressed when she met his two brothers.

“It’s fine!”

Fabian smiled and said, “Mommy, don’t be afraid! Uncles are not bad guys!”

After that, he looked up at Elijah, who was sitting in the passenger seat. “Brother, don’t you think so?” Elijah, who was sunk into his thought, looking into the distance, came to his senses. “Yes.”

“That’s a happy decision. Let’s go!”

Fabian smiled and said, “Sir, fuel up!”

Half an hour later, the car stopped at the entrance of the old Chapman’s house.

Lottie got out of the car and looked at the marvellous villa in front of her. She felt a great deal of pressure.

“Let’s go.”

The man’s deep voice rang in her ears.

She was stunned and subconsciously turned to trace the voice.

It was Ralph in a black suit, standing two steps away from her.

He was tall and his back was straightened, exuding an elegant and cold temperament.

The noon sunshine made him more distinguished and charming.

He reached out a hand to her.

Holding his hand, she was still uneasy.

Sensing her tension, the man smiled faintly. “Relax.”

Lottie’s mind was wandering as she bit her lips. How could...

Then they entered the old house.

In the living room of the house, an old man was sitting on the sofa drinking tea.

A middle-aged couple was sitting on the sofa on his left. It seemed that they were Kayden’s parents.

At this time, the woman in the middle-aged couple complained a little, “Ralph didn’t bring his wife back to see us after he got married. He didn’t take us seriously at all.”

“Now just because he said that he wanted to announce something, we must postpone the arranged things to wait for him here!” “Sure enough, he’s the future patriarch. But don’t you think he’s too bad-tempered?” “Quiet.”

Ank, who was beside her, frowned impatiently. “Ralph has his own considerations in everything he does. He is still young. As his elder brother, so what if we make some compromises?”

Lancy snorted unhappily, “You’ve given him the right to inherit the group. How much more do you want to compromise?” From afar, Lottie could hear their quarrel.

The woman’s heart sunk slightly.

It seemed... Ralph did not have a good relationship with his family...

“Uncle, Auntie!”

Fabian rolled his eyes and then ran toward them, yelling.

A clear child's voice broke the tense atmosphere in the living room.

Fabian threw himself into Lancy's arms with a smile. "I miss you so much!"

The little fellow's coquettish voice eased Lancy's expression.

She liked children. No matter how much she hated Ralph, she could not hate his child. She smiled and held Fabian in her arms. "Do you really miss me?"

"Of course!"

Fabian smiled and raised his hand to touch her face. "Auntie, you look much younger this time!" Lancy was overjoyed by the compliment and completely forgot the quarrel with Ank.

"Ralph."

Ank stood up and looked at Ralph with a smile.

"Uh huh."

Ralph walked over with Lottie in hand and introduced her in a calm voice, "Brother, this is my wife, Lottie." "Lottie, this is my elder brother, Ank."

"This is my elder Sister-in-law, Lancy."

Lottie said, stiffened. "Hello, glad to see you."

Ank smiled and nodded. "You're pretty. Oh, youth!"

"I'm so flattered, Ank," Lottie replied honestly.

"You're the same age as Kayden."

Lancy looked at Lottie contemptuously. "What do you do?"

"Now I am an actress."

"An actress?"

Lancy raised her eyebrows at once. "Why?"

"It's hard to find a good girl in that circle."

After that, she rolled her eyes at Lottie. "Listen to me. Quit your job. It's better to go home and take care of Ralph's children."

"Besides, Ralph wants a nanny to take care of the two children and he found you, didn't he? Is he willing to let you work in that circle?"

"Ah-!"

As soon as she finished speaking, Fabian, who was in her arms, "accidentally" knocked over a cup of hot tea.

"I'm sorry, auntie."

Fabian looked apologetic and almost cried with grievance. "I didn't mean to..."

Lancy pursed her lips gloomily and put Fabian on the sofa. "I'll change my clothes."

After she left, Ank looked at Lottie with some embarrassment. "Don't take it to heart. Your sister-in-law always talks like this. She was offensive, but kind in her inner side."

Lottie pursed her lips. "It's fine."

"Alright."

The old man said, "Everyone takes your seat."

Only then did Ralph pull Lottie to sit down on the right side of the old man.

"Where's your another brother?"

"He went to the police station early in the morning."

As the old man spoke, he looked down at the time and said, "He's coming back soon." As soon as he finished speaking, the sound of the car stopping came from outside the door.

Not long after, a tall figure came in from outside.

"He is here."

Ralph reminded her in a low voice.

Lottie quickly stood up and was about to say hello to him.

Raising her head, she looked at the man in front of her. 'What a coincidence!' Yank also paused slightly when he saw Lottie.

Why was she here?

"Brother."

Seeing that neither of them spoke, Ralph frowned. "This is my wife, Lottie." Lottie snapped back to reality and greeted him politely, "Hello, nice to meet you." "Okay..."

Yank's expression instantly stiffened as he looked at Lottie's face.

She had married Ralph...

Was it destiny?

Or did Ralph find out something...

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 115 I Didn't Teach Her Well

"Yank, take a seat."

Seeing that Yank was still standing where he was, the old Chapman, George cleared his throat and pointed at the sofa opposite him. "Ralph said that he has something important to announce today..."

After that, he glanced at his watch and said, "Are Kayden and Alice still absent now?" "Alice went abroad."

As soon as George's voice came out, Yank answered, "She went aboard for an exhibition by her private plane last night in the middle of the night."

There was a flash of doting in the man's eyes. "She has always been like this, acting rashly."

After he finished speaking, he seemed to have thought of something and raised his head to look at Lottie. "Have you met Alice before?"

Lottie nodded. "Yes."

"She is a little nervous. If she offends you, don't take it to heart."

It's obvious that Yank's voice contained a trace of doting.

Lottie narrowed her eyes slightly. "What did you mean about 'not to take it to heart?'"

"Do you refer to the time that she emphasized her close childhood relationship with my husband in front of me, or that she cursed me that I'm screwed after drinking during my dinner?"

The woman's words instantly cooled down the atmosphere in the living room.

Ank looked up at George with a complicated look in his eyes.

Yank frowned slightly.

After a while, he smiled and said, "If Alice has done all these things, I will apologize to you on her behalf."

"I didn't educate her well."

Ralph calmly put his arm around Lottie's shoulder and said in a cold voice, "Ank, you'd better teach Alice a good lesson." "I will."

Yank looked at Lottie seriously. "Is there anything else that Alice made you uncomfortable?"

Lottie shook her head.

She had met and talked to Alice countless times. Although she didn't like her, she did nothing other than this.

"That's good."

Yank narrowed his eyes.

It seemed that she really didn't remember what had happened five years ago.

After chatting for a while, Kayden came back.

He obviously didn't sleep all night, and his face was full of haggardness.

Ank looked at him with a cold face. "You didn't go home last night. How did you end up like this?"

"What did you do?"

"I made a decision."

Kayden took a deep breath, stood in front of his family, and announced calmly, "I plan to get married in a few days." His words shocked everyone in the living room like thunder.

Everyone was pleasant about the news.

Lancy had just come downstairs when she heard the news and rushed over excitedly. She held Kayden in her arms and said, "My dear son, I'm so glad that you've finally decided to get married!"

"Which family is she from? What does she look like? Is she beautiful?"

"Why didn't you bring her here today?"

After that, she even glanced proudly at Lottie. "Don't find a woman who worked in the entertainment circle!" Her words made Kayden's face change slightly.

He pulled Lancy away and took a deep breath. "What I want to say is that I want to marry Natalia."

Lancy's face instantly darkened!

Even if she had never paid attention to the entertainment circle, she knew Natalia!

She hyped, and played many exposed plays! She was always the subject of those gossips!

She bit her lip and glared at Kayden. "Are you insane?"

She is Kayden's mother. She had just mocked Lottie for being a part of the entertainment circle. And she suggested Lottie might as well go home and take care of her child!

But now he slapped his mother's face!

"I'm not insane."

Kayden looked at Lancy seriously and said to everyone present, "Uncle, thank you for helping me call everyone together today." "I want to tell everyone that I want to marry Natalia."

He was, standing in front of everyone, solemn and decisive. His voice was cold and forceful. "Natalia had an accident yesterday and is still lying in the hospital unconsciously."

"The doctor said that she might wake up today, or she might never wake up again."

"Something happened to her because of me, the man she loves the most, is me."

"So I want to marry her. Whether she wakes up or not, I want her to be my wife for the rest of my life."

"I disagree!"

Lancy said hotly. "You want to marry an actress whom we don't know whether she'll wake up or never will?" "Kayden, are you trying to piss me off?"

Ank, who was standing by the side, was also unhappy. "Kayden, even if this girl met with an accident because of you, you can't marry her."

"Your dad and I hope you can get married, but I mean with a normal person!"

Kayden turned to look at George and asked, "What do you say, Grandpa?"

George coughed lightly. "I... I don't agree either."

After that, he glanced at Ralph subconsciously. "You already knew?"

Ralph nodded. "I support him."

"Of course you do!"

Lancy was furious. "Your brother Ank is unwilling to inherit the family property since he came back from the army."

"In addition to us, only you can inherit the Chapman family's property!"

"Of course you want Kayden to marry such a woman. She'd better never wake up!"

"At that time, no one will compete with you and your sons for the property. And the whole Chapman family will be yours!"

The more Lancy said, the angrier she became. "I knew it. You did it on purpose!"

"Don't ever think I don't know what you are planning!"

Lancy's words were harsh.

Lottie bit her lips and turned to look at him.

Fabian and Elijah sat in the corner playing chess, as if they didn't hear the adults' conversation at all.

As for Ralph, he was leisurely drinking tea. It seemed that the person who was attacked by Lancy with harsh words was not him.

After a long while, when Lancy finally stopped talking, Ralph put down the teacup and asked, "Lancy, are you done?"

Lancy rolled her eyes at him and stopped talking.

Ralph looked at Lancy with a faint smile. "Do you mean that you're worried that I'll take over Kayden's property and my two sons and I will suppress him?"

Lancy rolled her eyes at him and said nothing.

"Kayden is my nephew."

Ralph raised his hand and poured himself a cup of tea elegantly. "I'm thinking about what gift am I supposed to give him after he gets married. How about 10% of my shares in Chapman Group?"

His words silenced the whole living room.

Yank smiled at him. "Ralph, isn't that too much?"

After all, Chapman Group was a large group owned a property of hundreds of billions.

Ten percent of the shares were equivalent to giving Kayden tens of billions.

Moreover, shares were not as simple as money.

If Ralph gives Kayden the shares, that means he will hand a part of rights of Chapman Group to him.

Although Yank never did business, he still understood what does it mean.

Ralph smiled and said, "Kayden's decision made me see his responsibilities as a real man. I think he worth it."

"Well."

Yank shrugged his shoulders. "You've always had a good relationship with Kayden. It's normal for you to give so much." As he spoke, he glanced at Lancy, who was completely dumbfounded. "However, Lancy probably doesn't really want it."

"How can she accept a daughter-in-law who is unconscious in exchange of 10% of the shares?"

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 116 He Doesn't Like dessert!

"I can accept it!"

As soon as Yank finished speaking, Lancy quickly retorted, "Why can't I accept it?" "It doesn't means that Natalia can't wake up for the rest of her life!"

Ten percent of the shares were too tempting.

Even if Lancy pretended to be tough, she had to admit that if Ralph didn't give them the shares, they would not be able to get so many shares even if they worked hard for ten years!

If he married Natalia, Kayden could get a large sum of money. Why not?

Anyway, it was impossible that Natalia couldn't wake up. After taking away this 10% of the shares, they could treat her well or ask Kayden to divorce her in a few years, it was not a loss at all!

Yank couldn't help but laugh at her sudden change in attitude. "But she's an actress, disgraceful."

Lancy rolled her eyes. "Yank, don't judge others with prejudice, okay?"

"What's wrong with an actress? Isn't Lottie an actress?"

As she spoke, Lancy turned to look at Lottie with a fawning smile on her face. "Lottie, tell Yank how good it is to be an actress!" Lottie, "..."

How could she reply?

The woman pursed her lips, hesitated for a while, and said silently, "Yank, Lancy, in fact, actor is kind of serious job."

"You don't have to explain it to me."

Yank was also amused by Lottie's serious explanation. He didn't looked down on actors at first, but purposely used Lancy's words to joke with her.

After that, he narrowed his eyes and looked at Lottie. "I'm not interested in acting."

"But I'm interested in you."

The man's gaze carefully sized up Lottie. "Are you accustomed? To be the mother of Elijah and Fabian?" Lottie startled. She probably didn't expect him to ask this question. After a while, she chuckled. "Certainly." "They are very sweet and sensible."

Yank nodded. "That's true."

"The biological mother of these two brats is also sweet and sensible."

After that, he raised an eyebrow and looked at Lottie. "By the way, do you know who their mother is?"

Lottie nodded. "I know a little about her."

Seeing that the topic was about to deviated from Kayden's marriage, Ank coughed and said, "Ralph, are you really willing to give him 10% of the shares?"

Ralph nodded. "Of course."

"Kayden is my family, and Natalia is Lottie's friend. 10% of the shares is not too much."

Ank was a little excited.

He glanced at Lancy. "Should we take Kayden to meet Natalia' parents?"

Lancy quickly nodded. "Yes!"

After that, she quickly turned around and grabbed Kayden's arm. "Let's go to visit them."

Kayden probably didn't expect things to go so smoothly. He was stunned for a while and finally nodded his head. "Okay." "Let's go now!"

As if she was afraid that Ralph would go back on his word, Lancy could not wait any longer. She simply said goodbye to everyone and took Kayden home to change his clothes. She wanted to see Natalia' family right now.

"Uncle."

When they reached the door, Kayden raised his haggard face with dark circles under his eyes and said, "Thank you." Without Ralph, everything would not have gone so smoothly.

He had asked Ralph to help him yesterday because he knew that his family would not easily agree to marry Natalia.

Originally, he wanted Ralph and Lottie to help persuade his parents.

But he didn't expect... Ralph directly used 10% of the shares to tempt his parents.

Even though Ralph was wealthy and did not care much about the shares of Chapman Group, this gift was still too valuable.

The man took a deep breath and looked at Ralph and Lottie solemnly. "If you need my help in the future, feel free to ask." "As long as I can."

Ralph smiled helplessly when he saw how serious he was. "Go."

Kayden took another deep look at Ralph before following Lancy to leave.

After Ank's family left, George changed his sitting posture and leaned on the sofa. "Phew... It's finally settled."

It was really hard for him to say such a thing.

Yank shrugged and looked up at Ralph. "Do you really think Kayden is right?"

"It's nothing about true or false. Since he wants to do, why not?"

After that, he smiled. "Could it be that every time Ank helped Alice, it was all because that Alice did right thing?" The man's words made the smile on Yank's face instantly dissipate.

After a while, he lowered his head and smiled bitterly. "That's right."

"Since it's the choice of the person you favor, it doesn't matter whether it's right or wrong. As long as he's happy." After that, he implied as he looked at Lottie. "Lottie, what do you think?"

Lottie nodded blankly. "Yes... sure."

She didn't know why Ank kept staring at her, intentionally.

The look in his eyes did not look like he liked her, but more like he was examining her.

It was as if she had committed crime, which made her very uncomfortable.

Perhaps he had noticed Lottie's uneasiness, Elijah slowly walked over to her. "Mommy, I'm hungry." Hearing that his lovely grandson was hungry, George quickly asked the servants to prepare lunch. "No need."

Fabian smiled and blinked at his grandpa. "My brother is really greedy."

"He wants Mommy to take him to have dessert!"

When he heard the dessert, Elijah's small body stiffened slightly.

He doesn't like dessert!

Fabian likes dessert, obviously!

But in his heart, he was anxious to let Lottie leave the Green family's old house, so he couldn't refute it.

So the little boy looked at grandpa with a fake smile. "Yes."

Lottie was a little surprised. "Since when did you like to eat dessert?"

"Just now."

Elijah pursed his lips and said these two words in a low voice.

"Oh, anyway, he loves the dessert a cafe served, Mile Street!"

Fabian smiled and took Lottie's hand, then turned to look at George with a proud face. "Grandpa, take your two sons for lunch!" "Mommy is going to take us to have cupcakes!"

George stroked his head helplessly and smiled when he saw how good the relationship between Lottie, Elijah and Fabian was.

“Go ahead.”

“Ralph and Yank, stay and eat with me.”

“You two haven’t had meals together for a long time, have you?”

Yank nodded.

Ralph smiled faintly and stuffed a credit card into her hand. “Go home early after eating.”

“You didn’t have a good rest last night. Go back and have a good sleep.”

He was obviously speaking out of concern, but the sentence “you didn’t rest well last night” still reminded Lottie of last night.

The woman’s face instantly turned blushed.

She took the card and left in a hurry with the two children.

Looking at her leaving with the two children, George smiled with satisfaction. “She is really fated with these two little devils.”

“I can’t tell that she’s not their biological mother.”

After saying that, George turned his head to look at Yank. “Do you think that the biological mother of Elijah and Fabian has anything to do with her?”

They have lots of similarities no matter in their appearances or personalities. Sometimes, their habits were very similar.

“How is that possible?”

Yank smiled at him. “Elijah and Fabian’s mother was Alice’s friend. They grew up in the same orphanage and have no relatives.” “What a pity.”

“Unfortunately, we still don’t know how does that woman look like.”

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 117 You Are not convinced, Are You

In the Milan dessert shop.

Lottie Green got out of the car. She held Elijah Chapman with one hand and Fabian Chapman with the other hand as she walked towards the dessert shop.

“I used to like this store very much.” Lottie Green looked up at the big sign in front of her, and countless memories of the past surged into her mind.

At that time, no one knew that when she and Claudia Green were exchanged, the Green family treated her as their own daughter.

At that time, Kevin Green and Eira Scott were willing to give her the best one.

So was the dessert.

Back then, when she was the little princess of the Green family, she had eaten all the dessert in the Milan dessert shop.

Later, her true identity was exposed, and she had no capital to come here to eat.

“Mommy, your taste is the same as mine!”

Fabian Chapman smiled as he tightened his grip on Lottie Green’s hand. “Let’s eat dessert happily!”

After saying that, he even gave Elijah Chapman a very arrogant look. “Some people don’t like sweet food, so don’t eat it!” Elijah Chapman rolled his eyes at him. “There’s not only sweetness in the dessert shop.”

The mother and sons entered the dessert shop.

Fabian Chapman took a fancy to a very delicate cake in the window.

“Sorry.”

The waiter was a little embarrassed. “This cake was reserved by the guests upstairs...”

“What a coincidence.”

Lottie Green helplessly turned to look at Fabian Chapman. “Change it?”

The little fellow’s face was full of displeasure. “But Mommy, I just want this!”

The woman could only look at the waiter helplessly. “Can you make another one?”

“The master who made this cake left because he had something to do.”

The waiter was also in a dilemma.

After a while, she pursed her lips. “I’ll ask the guests upstairs. Maybe they can share half of it with you.”

“The other party is also a child. He should not be able to finish such a big cake.”

After that, the waiter took out his phone and dialed.

Not long after, a tall man came down from upstairs. “Who wants to share the cake with our little princess?”

This voice...

Lottie Green quickly raised her head. When she saw that person, she was stunned, and that person stopped as well.

“Ms. Green?”

“Frank?”

The man who came down from the upstairs was none other than Frank, the captain of the team!

She frowned and pointed to the cake in the window. “So this cake... is your brother?”

Fabian Chapman rolled his eyes. "What brother? We are mommy's sons!"

"She's our mommy!"

As he spoke, the little fellow took a step forward and opened her arms wide to block Lottie Green like a little eagle. "Don't fall in love with my mommy. She's already married and has children!"

His lovely action amused Frank.

He raised his head and glanced at Lottie Green. "I didn't expect Ms. Green's children to be so big."

With this, he glanced at the cake. "The waiter is right. This cake is indeed a little big. The little princess can't finish it alone, and Mr. Barton doesn't eat sweet food."

"Ms. Green, why don't you take the two children upstairs? Let's have a table together. I believe Mr. Barton and the little princess are very willing to treat you."

Lottie Green nodded.

Stella, Elijah Chapman and Fabian Chapman almost at the same age, and their names were very similar. Maybe they could become good friends!

Therefore, she took Elijah Chapman, who had been silent, and Fabian Chapman, who was unhappy, upstairs with Frank.

In the private room upstairs, Stella was lying on the table with grievance, looking at Alfred Barton with a bitter face. "Uncle Barton, you don't keep your word."

"Didn't you say that you would introduce Aunt Green's powerful hacker to me as a teacher last time?"

"It's been a few days. There's no news at all!"

A trace of helplessness flashed across Alfred Barton's beautiful face. "Your Auntie Green is not free recently." Although he had been working overtime last night, through Frank, he also knew what had happened last night.

The relationship between Lottie Green and Natalia Ross was quite good. Something like that had happened to Natalia Ross, and Lottie Green must have been extremely busy in the past few days. He couldn't use such a small matter to disturb her.

So the man sighed lightly. "How about finding a few online?" "No."

Stella rolled her eyes. "Many so-called masters on the Internet are not as good as me!"

Looking at the little girl's stubborn appearance, Alfred Barton had a headache.

At this time, the door of the private room was pushed open.

The first to enter was a waiter carrying a cake.

The waiter finished serving the cake, followed by Frank, who was smiling.

"Little princess, guess who I brought you?"

Stella Barton lay on the table without raising her head. "Now, I'm not interested in anyone except Auntie Green." Frank smiled. "Then look up, Your Highness!"

Stella looked up with little interest.

Lottie Green stood by the door in a long white dress.

"Auntie Green!"

The little girl jumped down from the chair, opened her arms, and ran toward Lottie Green.

However, before her tiny body could hug Lottie Green, it was blocked by a little fellow who was half a head taller than her.

Fabian Chapman crossed his arms around his chest and widened his eyes, pretending to be fierce. "This is my mommy. You're not allowed to hug her!"

But he appeared so suddenly that Stella couldn't stop it at all and hit Fabian Chapman directly.

The little girl ran too fast, and the impact she brought was also great. When Fabian Chapman was about to fall, she instinctively reached out and grabbed Elijah Chapman on the side.

So-

With a bang, the three little guys fell to the ground in front of Lottie Green. Lottie Green knew that she shouldn't laugh.

But she couldn't help it.

The three little guys looked so funny when they fell...

Even the aloof Elijah Chapman was very funny.

The woman smiled and bent down.

Frank carefully helped Stella up and the two boys.

"Who are you?"

Stella placed her hands on her hips and glared fiercely at Elijah Chapman and Fabian Chapman. Elijah Chapman glanced at her indifferently and did not say anything.

Fabian Chapman put his hands on his waist like Stella. "Who are you?"

"Don't you know that you can't hug someone else's mommy casually?"

"She is my Aunt Green! I want to hug her!"

"She's my mommy. I won't give her a hug!"

The two little guys quarreled fiercely.

In the end, Elijah Chapman calmly pulled Fabian Chapman to the side. "Don't quarrel with a little girl." Stella was unhappy. "What's wrong with girls?"

“I am the youngest and most powerful hacker princess in Rexwell!”

“Are you better than me? How dare you talk to me like this?”

“The hacker little princess?”

Elijah Chapman smiled.

He looked Stella up and down. “You?”

His contemptuous attitude instantly irritated Stella. “You’re not convinced, are you?”

“If you have the ability, then compete with me!”

“Don’t stop me from hugging Auntie Green if you don’t have the ability!”

Elijah Chapman smiled faintly, took out his mobile phone, and dialed a number. “Sir, bring my computer here.” Stella did not show weakness. “Captain Frank, go and get my computer!”

After that, she looked at Elijah Chapman with a provocative expression.

Elijah Chapman also looked at her coldly.

The two little guys were at loggerheads. On the other side, Fabian Chapman had already pulled Lottie Green to the dining table and sat down toward Alfred Barton.

“Handsome Uncle, you invited us to have dessert today, right?”

Only then did Alfred Barton come to his sense from the confrontation between Stella and Elijah Chapman.

He glanced at the well-behaved young man in front of him and nodded. “Yes, I’ll treat you.”

“All right.”

Fabian Chapman glanced at the waiter with a smile. “Give me two of the most expensive cakes!”

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 118 if You Were not Married

Lottie Green looked helplessly at Fabian Chapman. “Can you finish it?” “I can’t finish it.” Fabian Chapman look at Lottie Green. “But you can pack it up and give it to Daddy.”

After that, he turned to look at Alfred Barton as if he was declaring his sovereignty. “Handsome uncle, have you ever seen my father?”

“My daddy is very handsome. He’s a perfect match for Mommy!” The young man’s childish words made Alfred Barton smile faintly. “How can I not know Mr. Chapman?” In Rexwell, even if you hadn’t seen Mr. Chapman, you would have heard his name.

This was a legendary figure. He took over Chapman Group in his teens and brought Chapman Group, which had almost gone bankrupt, back to life and stood at the top of business in Rexwell again.

Alfred Barton had been in Rexwell for a long time, so he was familiar with the legendary news about Third Mr. Chapman.

But...

The man turned his head to look at Lottie Green.

However, he did not expect Ralph Chapman to have the same taste as him. He liked such a simple, cute, and silly woman.

“Since you know my daddy, do you think my daddy and Mommy are perfect?”

Fabian Chapman’s big watery eyes were full of innocence. “My daddy and mommy are a couple of immortals, right?” Alfred Barton narrowed his eyes.

He knew that the little guy was announcing Ralph Chapman’s sovereignty.

But why should he cooperate with him?

The man did not answer. Instead, he turned his head and glanced at Elijah Chapman and Stella, who had already turned on their computers. “Do you really want to compete here?”

“Of course!”

Stella curled her lips disdainfully. “I want to prove to him that Stella Barton is the strongest hacker!”
Sitting opposite her, Elijah Chapman curled his lips contemptuously.

The hacker war between the two little guys officially began.

The waiter also brought the cake over.

Fabian Chapman ate the cake while sitting beside Elijah Chapman.

“Brother, there is a loophole here.”

“Oh, I broke through another layer of the wall. Brother, you’re amazing!”

“Little sister, you have to work harder. Elijah Chapman is much more powerful than you!” He crossed his legs leisurely.

“Shut up!”

“Shut up!”

Suddenly, two clear children’s voices rang out.

Stella glared at him. “You’re so annoying!”

Elijah Chapman stared at the computer seriously. “She’s not as weak as you think.”

The air in the room suddenly became hot.

As for the contents of the competition between the two young geniuses, Lottie Green gave up after watching them for a while.

She really couldn’t understand.

She looked at Alfred Barton awkwardly. "I may still be suitable to read the script."

She was destined to not understand computer hackers for the rest of her life.

Alfred Barton smiled faintly. "Actually, I don't understand."

"But Stella likes it."

"She used to watch hackers' movies and thought that hackers were very handsome, so she pestered me to find a teacher for her.

Unexpectedly, the teacher said that children had such talent."

After that, Alfred Barton sighed helplessly. "I used to find her biological parents in the hackers in Rexwell, but I didn't find them." "But I believe that if her biological parents are still alive, they should be expert at programming."

"After all, the genes of such a genius will be inherited."

Lottie Green took a sip of coffee. "Not necessarily."

She glanced at Elijah Chapman, who was still seriously editing. "Ralph Chapman and I don't know how to program, but Elijah Chapman is also very powerful."

She had seen how powerful Elijah Chapman was. He could create a virtual navy company alone . Otherwise, how could she have fooled Isobel Mitchell and Luke Berry with so much money? Alfred Barton glanced at her. "Maybe Elijah Chapman's biological mother was good at it?"

The man's words caused Lottie Green to pause.

When she came to her senses, her cheeks instantly turned red.

That's right...

She was not the biological mother of Elijah Chapman and Fabian Chapman.

No matter what, they would not be affected by her inheritance.

She had been so harmonious with them that she almost forgot that she was actually a stepmother.

The atmosphere in the private room became awkward.

Alfred Barton did not continue to worry about this matter. Instead, he changed the topic. "How is Natalia Ross now?" "She's out of danger, but I don't know when she'll wake up."

Lottie Green sighed. "But she should be getting married soon."

"The man she has always liked is responsible for her. Whether she wakes up or not, he will marry her home."

Alfred Barton smiled. "That man is also very good."

"I also think it's very difficult for him to do this."

Lottie Green picked up her coffee again and took a sip. "Mr. Barton, if you were this man, would you do that?"

"I don't know."

Alfred Barton changed into a comfortable position and leaned against the chair. "I may be willing to marry a woman I know." "But if I don't know or have never seen her, I refuse."

The man's words made Lottie Green inexplicably think of Ralph Chapman.

When he married her... Wasn't he married someone he had never seen before?

The woman smiled awkwardly and felt that it was not a good idea to talk about this topic. "But with Mr. Barton's status, he shouldn't be asked to marry a woman whom he has never seen or not known."

"Why not?" Alfred Barton picked up his coffee and took a sip gracefully. "I do have such a fiancée." "She was arranged by my family."

"This woman is a few years younger than me. Before she was born, the two families had arranged a marriage for us."

"However, something happened to her family when she was about to be born. She was taken away by her bodyguards."

Alfred Barton sighed deeply. "No one knows if she's alive or dead now, but since it's a family agreement, whether she's alive or dead, or not, the engagement can't be canceled."

The man looked up at Stella lovingly. "So I adopted Stella."

"Since marriage can't be decided by me, I can choose the child."

"When I went to the orphanage, this little girl's eyes immediately attracted me." As he spoke, he looked up at Lottie Green.

This woman's eyes were as clear as Stella.

It wasn't that he wasn't interested in Lottie Green.

But...

The man sighed lightly. "If only you weren't married."

Lottie Green was still immersed in the family marriage that he had just mentioned. She didn't hear his last sentence clearly.

"What did you just say?"

"Nothing."

Alfred Barton put down the coffee cup and turned to look at Stella and Elijah Chapman, who were still fighting in full swing. "How is it going?"

"It's almost over."

Stella's eyes were fixed on the computer, and her little hands were tapping on the keyboard, with fine beads of sweat on her forehead.

How was that possible!

"How could this brat in front of me be so powerful?"

The memory of being defeated by a strange hacker that day came back again, and Stella began to doubt herself.

"Isn't she a genius hacker?"

Why could the person who bullied her that day? Why could the child in front of her bully her? Had her skills fallen to such a low level?

The little girl gritted her teeth and tried her best to fight.

"Pal"

The person opposite her instantly controlled her computer.

The image of Elijah Chapman knocking on the computer appeared on the computer.

"It seems that you are very conceited."

The winner, Elijah Chapman, calmly turned off the computer. "I defeated the program a few days ago. You just improved it a little, and then you took it out and continued to fight with me."

"It's inevitable to lose." Stella's eyes instantly widened. "You..."

Elijah Chapman smiled and reached out his hand to her. "You look quite cute without wearing a mask or a voice changing device."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 119 They Will Be Brother and Sister in the Future

Stella stretched out her hand in confusion to hold Elijah Chapman's hand. "You... are the master of that day?" "I'm not a master. I just like to play."

Elijah Chapman let go of the little girl's hand immediately.

Turning around, he looked at Fabian Chapman who was eating the cake. "She is Stella."

Fabian Chapman was so shocked that he almost dropped the cake on the ground. "It's her!?"

The hacker who was evenly matched with his brother that day turned out to be this little girl!

However, although this little girl wanted to steal his mommy and was very arrogant, Fabian Chapman did not hate her at all.

Maybe it was because she looked very similar to her mommy!

He comforted himself in his heart. He must like her because she looked very much like his mommy.

"Stella, what's going on?"

Alfred Barton asked with a frown.

Stella pursed her lips and said in an aggrieved voice, "Uncle Barton, do you still remember what I told you before? Is there a very powerful hacker on Auntie Green's side?"

She raised her hand and pointed at Elijah Chapman with dissatisfaction. "It's him!"

Alfred Barton was stunned, and his face was full of shock. "You told me before that you wanted me to ask Aunt Green to introduce the master to you... Is it this little guy?"

Stella's face suddenly turned red.

She bit her lip and stamped her feet in anger. "Uncle Barton, can you save my face?"

It was already shameful to lose just now. But Uncle Barton said that she wanted to be apprenticed! "She doesn't want to save face?"

"Oh? To be an apprentice?"

Fabian Chapman heard Alfred Barton's key words. "My brother won't easily accept a disciple!" "Even as his younger brother, he..."

"I'm willing."

Before the little fellow could finish her words, he was ruthlessly interrupted by Elijah Chapman. Stella suddenly looked up and could not believe her ears. "What did you say?"

"I'll tell you."

Elijah Chapman smiled faintly. "I can accept you as my disciple."

"But I have a condition."

"What condition?"

"Be our sister."

Elijah Chapman gave Stella a sly look. "Fabian Chapman and I have always wanted a younger sister."

"I was planning to wait for Daddy and Mommy to give us another baby, but their progress was too slow."

Lottie Green, She had worked very hard, okay?

How could she explain to this little kid that the child could not be pregnant once?

"So."

Elijah Chapman looked at Stella seriously. "You look like my mommy."

"And you look younger than us, so before Mommy gives birth to our own sister, you can be our sister."

Stella pursed her lips and looked at Fabian Chapman and Elijah Chapman seriously.

These two brothers were hostile to her at first, but...

The two brothers bickered, and their relationship with Auntie Green...

She had always been envious of them, who had relatives, family and mother.

She had always hoped that Uncle Barton could help her find an elder brother.

If she agreed to Elijah Chapman's request, would it mean that she had two brothers all of a sudden? Two brothers, double happiness!

He could also learn hacker skills from Elijah Chapman.

She frowned and thought about it carefully, as if it was beneficial to her.

Moreover, she looked at Lottie Green.

If she accepted these two brothers, would she be able to look for Auntie Green in the future?

She could even help Uncle Barton dig up the wall and grab Auntie Green!

Thinking of this, the little girl turned around and looked at Alfred Barton with grievance. "Uncle Barton..." Looking at the little girl's conflicted look, Alfred Barton shrugged his shoulders lightly. "I don't care."

"You can choose to be friends or siblings with them, so that you can have friends in the future."

He was usually very busy with his work, so he seldom had time to accompany Stella.

In the past few years, Stella had spent more time alone at home, staring at the TV and computer. If she was willing to be friends with these two little guys, he would be more relieved.

The man turned to look at Lottie Green.

If the three children got along well, would he be able to become even closer friends with her?

For a long time, although he had done a lot of things to get close to her, he could see that Lottie Green had been keeping a distance from him.

"Okay!"

After receiving Alfred Barton's confirmation, Stella took a deep breath and looked at Elijah Chapman righteously. "I can recognize you as my brothers!"

"But I want to live with Uncle Barton. Uncle Barton is still my father."

Elijah Chapman smiled helplessly. Did this little girl misunderstand what he meant?

He didn't want to take her home.

The little boy pretended to be mature and coughed softly. "Well, you don't need to live with us." "If we look for you, you must show up at any time. Can you do that?"

"Of course, you can also find us at any time. As long as we have time, we can help you with many things you want to deal with." "Deal!"

Stella stretched out her little thumb to hook up with Elijah Chapman.

Although she felt that hooked fingers were very childish, but... She was his younger sister. Elijah Chapman sighed and directly reached out to hook up with Stella.

“Well...”

Fabian Chapman, who had been speechless, rolled his eyes helplessly. “Why didn’t you ask me for my opinion?”

“What’s your opinion?”

The brother and sister turned their heads and said in unison.

Fabian Chapman: “...”

Lottie Green quickly came over and pulled Fabian Chapman into her arms. “It’s all right.”

“No one asked for Mommy’s opinion.”

Fabian Chapman raised his head and looked at Lottie Green with grievance. “Mommy, we’ve been neglected.” Lottie Green quickly nodded. “Mm, we were neglected. What should we do?”

Fabian Chapman directly came out of her arms and sat down on the chair. “I plan to turn grief and anger into appetite, eat!” “Mommy, you eat too!”

Lottie Green nodded. She was also hungry.

So the woman ate the cake with Fabian Chapman.

“You can eat too.”

Elijah Chapman released Stella’s hand and patted her gently on the back. “Go ahead.”

Stella nodded and had just taken a step when she turned around. “Elijah Chapman, aren’t you going to eat?” “I don’t like sweet food.”

The little princess frowned, waved to Frank, and whispered something in his ear.

Not long after, Frank entered the private room with a piece of vegetable salad.

“This is for you!”

The little girl put the vegetable salad in front of Elijah Chapman, and her eyes were black and shining. “Brother Elijah Chapman, let me treat you!”

“Thank you.”

Elijah Chapman sat down on the chair very gentlemanly and began to eat.

Lottie Green recorded this scene and sent it to Ralph Chapman.

At this time, Ralph Chapman was having lunch with Mr. Old Chapman and Yank Chapman in the Chapman family’s old house.

The man clicked on her video.

“They got along quite well. Stella has acknowledged Elijah Chapman and Fabian Chapman as brothers. From now on, they will be siblings.”

“It doesn’t look particularly harmonious.”

Looking at his son’s gentle expression in the video, Ralph Chapman sighed lightly.

“She’s the second girl who treats Elijah Chapman so gently.”

“Who is the first?”

“It’s you.”

After lunch, Lottie Green brought the two little guys home.

Alfred Barton still had to shoot in the afternoon, so he entrusted Stella to Lottie Green.

The little princess followed her into the car, chattering excitedly all the way.

“Auntie Green, is this the way to your home? I have to remember that I will go there often in the future!”

“Big Brother, don’t you like to talk very much? It doesn’t matter. I’m more talkative than you. Only when a boy is a little aloof can he be more handsome!”

“Brother Elijah...”

Children’s emotions came and went quickly. In less than two hours, Stella’s attitude towards Elijah Chapman had changed from resistance to dependence.

Fabian Chapman was very depressed.

He crossed his arms around his chest and looked at Stella helplessly. “Am I not handsome?”

“You’re not as handsome as Brother Elijah!”

Stella still looked at Elijah Chapman with starry eyes. “Brother Elijah, when we go to your house, can you teach me?” Fabian Chapman was even more depressed.

He looked exactly the same as his brother.

“Why does my sister always say that my brother is handsome, but she doesn’t praise me at all?”

Not happy!

Seeing the three little guys making a scene, Lottie Green couldn’t help smile.

Stella’s arrival was actually quite good. With a younger sister around, it was as if Elijah Chapman and Fabian Chapman had suddenly become alive.

Just as she was sighing with emotion, her cell phone rang.

It was two photos sent by Kayden Chapman. He said, "Thank you."

Lottie Green clicked on the photo.

The first one was Kayden Chapman and Natalia Ross' marriage certificate.

The second photo was taken by Kayden Chapman's family and Natalia Ross' parents in front of Natalia Ross' bed.

Natalia Ross' parents' eyes were still red and swollen. It seemed that they had just learned about Natalia Ross' coma.

Lottie Green found the marriage certificate in shock and checked it to make sure it was true.

Did Kayden Chapman and Natalia Ross get their marriage certificate so quickly?

Was he afraid that he would regret it?

Lottie Green looked at the marriage certificate with complicate feelings in her heart.

She did not know whether this would be good or bad for Natalia Ross.

What would happen to Kayden Chapman and Natalia Ross in the future?

Everything was unknown.

But she always felt that Kayden Chapman's decision would ruin him and Natalia Ross for the rest of their lives...

"Lottie!"

Before the phone could be turned off, Lottie Green's phone rang again.

It was Connie Houghton who called this time.

"The shocking news!"

Connie Houghton's shocked voice almost pierced through Lottie Green's eardrums. "Natalia Ross is getting married!"

"Thunder Company just issued an announcement that Natalia Ross will get married in a week, so they would rather pay the penalty than cancel all the following notices."

"She also said that she would have a honeymoon after marriage, and the date of her return is uncertain." "Do you think she will quit the entertainment industry just like that?"

After that, Connie Houghton sighed and said, "It seems that what happened last night affected her a lot. She has been on leave for so long not only because of marriage."

Lottie Green pursed her lips. She had yet to explain to Connie Houghton about Natalia Ross' coma. However, it would be less dangerous if people don't know about it.

Thinking of this, she smiled faintly. "Maybe."

"By the way."

Connie Houghton paused and changed the topic. "Your father just contacted me." "My father?"

“Yes.”

Connie Houghton frowned. “But he’s not your biological daughter. He’s Kevin Green.” “Why is he looking for you?”

“Ask me if I have photos and videos of your pregnancy.”

Her voice was full of disgust. “Why did he suddenly ask this?”

Lottie Green’s hand, which was holding the phone, paused slightly.

It seemed that Kevin Green had reached the end of her life.

She couldn’t get Claudia Green out of prison, nor could she threaten her with the jade pendant. Therefore, he still planned to make an issue of her pregnancy.

“Do you have any photos?”

“I have one.”

Connie Houghton smiled and said, “I went to see you at that time. You have a big belly, so you must have three babies. Let’s take a photo.”

“I think that one is very beautiful. Even if you had a big belly, you are still very beautiful.”

“So I left that one behind.”

“But Lottie, don’t worry. That photo is still locked in my house.”

“When Kevin Green asked me, I scolded him away angrily and told him that I had it, but I would never give it to him!” “Let’s piss him off!”

Lottie Green was amused by Connie Houghton’s tone.

“I’m no longer afraid.”

No matter how unbearable the past was, it was still her real experience.

In the past, she had always been afraid that Ralph Chapman would dislike her and abandon her if he found out. She would feel that she was not careful.

But it was over.

Ralph Chapman said that he did not care.

Since he did not care, no one was qualified to blame her.

In fact, she could face it calmly.

“This is not a matter of whether you are afraid or not.”

Connie Houghton sighed and said, “Lottie, you have to remember that human’s words are terrifying.”

“You are still a new actress now. The past is a dark history. Once people know that, it will affect your career.” “Also, if Ralph Chapman doesn’t care, does his family not care?”

“Didn’t you say that Ralph Chapman has a woman who claims to be his fiancée?”

“Can she not care?”

“If she finds out, she will add fuel to the fire in front of Chapmans, and your status in the Chapman family will be affected in the future!”

Connie Houghton’s words made Lottie Green’s grip on her phone tighten slightly.

“I see.”

After hanging up the phone, the woman lay on the leather seat of the car and took a nap.

Soon, the car arrived at Chapmans’ Villa.

“Madam.”

As soon as Lottie Green entered with the three little guys, the servants came up to her. “Someone’s looking for you.” “He’s been here for a long time...”

The woman frowned and turned her head to take a look. It was none other than the person sitting on the sofa. It was Kevin Green, whom Connie Houghton had just mentioned on the phone.

Seeing that Lottie Green had returned, the middle-aged man quickly stood up. “Lottie.” Lottie Green took a deep breath and ordered the servants to bring the three little guys upstairs before sitting down on the sofa.

“Mr. Green came to find me on purpose. What’s the matter?”

Kevin Green smiled warmly and raised his hand to pick up the teacup. “Mr. Chapman’s house is different. The tea is very expensive!”

He took a sip of tea and put a stack of photos on the coffee table. “I want to exchange it with you.”

Lottie Green didn’t even need to look at those photos. They must have been taken when she was pregnant.

The woman raised her eyebrows coldly. “What else?”

Kevin Green took a deep breath, took out a jade pendant from her pocket, and put it on the photo. “Change these together.” “It’s your turn to withdraw the confession from the police station.”

“In this way, maybe Claudia Green doesn’t have to go to jail.”

Lottie Green sneered. “Ralph Chapman has already made it clear to you.”

“He doesn’t care about my pregnancy. You can’t do anything to me with these photos.”

“Yes.”

Kevin Green nodded. “Indeed, the photos can’t do anything to you.”

“But...”

The man changed the subject. “These are not photos of your pregnancy.”

Lottie Green grabbed the stack of photos and flipped through them.

All of a sudden, her whole body seemed to be struck by lightning. She was stiff and couldn't even move.
