

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 361

There's Nothing to Miss

By the time Natalia came to her senses, the knife in her hand was already in Yara's hand.

At this moment, Yara was putting the knife against Natalia's neck. A trace of pride flashed in her eyes, but her voice was still trembling.

"Natalia, that was how you treated me just now."

"Look, how terrible it is!"

Natalia was stunned for a while before she realized what had happened.

It turned out that while she was excited, the seemingly weak Yara had already picked up the knife and pointed it at her neck!

The scene in front of her made Ralph's brows furrow violently.

Kayden next to her was even more excited than Ralph.

"Yara!"

Kayden frowned and stared at the knife in Yara's hand.

"You will hurt Natalia like this!"

"Put it down!"

Yara's eyes suddenly narrowed.

Kayden was speaking up for Natalia!

Although Kayden had spoken when Natalia put the knife on her neck, it was different!

In the past, no matter what she said or did, Kayden was extremely tolerant and concerned about her!

Now, he actually began to care about Natalia!

It was obvious that Natalia wanted to kill her, but she was fighting back. Kayden was afraid that she would hurt Natalia now! ?

That's good!

Then she had to hurt Natalia today!

Thinking of this, the woman narrowed her eyes and put the knife into Natalia's neck.

The thin blade slipped through Natalia's neck, and blood flowed down along the blade.

The intense pain made Natalia instinctively struggle.

Taking advantage of Natalia's struggle, Ralph narrowed her eyes and kicked away the knife in Yara's hand.

"Clang-"

With a sound, the knife fell to the ground.

However, just a second before the knife fell to the ground, when Yara realized what Ralph was doing, she had already taken one step ahead of her and cut a long scar on Natalia's shoulder with the knife.

"Natalia!"

"Yara!"

After Ralph kicked the knife away, Natalia and Yara fell down at the same time because their center of gravity was unstable.

When she fell to the ground, Yara saw Kayden's intention of rushing to Natalia. She rolled twice and changed her position with Natalia.

Kayden, who was sitting in the wheelchair, rushed down from the wheelchair and pounced on Yara.

Ian, who was about to catch Yara, directly hugged Natalia.

There was a trace of embarrassment in the air.

In the end, Connie asked everyone to come up and help the injured Natalia leave.

The police began to protect the scene.

Ralph and Connie supported Natalia left the rooftop.

The moment she turned to leave, Natalia looked back at Kayden.

He was too anxious just now, so he jumped down from the wheelchair. Maybe he was too nervous, as if he had been hurt somewhere.

Now, two staff members were carrying him to the wheelchair.

On the ground far away from Kayden, Ian was holding Yara in his arms, examining her wounds and comforting her.

Natalia closed her eyes and smiled bitterly.

"Kayden, are you cheap?"

Yara not only had a fiance, but also a group of people who were worried about her and took care of her.

"Do you need to care about someone who broke up with you many years ago?"

She was the one on his household register and marriage certificate...

His heart was so small.

"He can't put her in his heart?"

Even if she was not the person who wrote letters to him in the past, was he blind to what she had done to him over the years?

He couldn't see her at all?

The more she thought about it, the more uncomfortable she felt. Tears kept falling from her eyes.

Tears streamed down to her neck and shoulder, which hurt her.

However, the pain was no match for the pain in Natalia's heart.

She felt as if her heart had been cut by a knife.

The knife that Ralph had just kicked off did not fall to the ground, nor was it taken away by the police as evidence.

The knife fell into her heart and kept cutting it.

"Natalia."

Suddenly, Ralph's voice pulled Natalia's thoughts back.

By the time she came to her senses, she was already sitting in the ambulance at the hospital.

There were so many people outside the car.

She could tell from the window that there were a lot of people outside, but most of them were reporters.

Natalia closed her eyes helplessly.

She deserved it.

In the past, Kayden wanted to divorce her and asked her to return to the entertainment industry.

She felt that he didn't want to get her into trouble, so she refused desperately.

But now...

Not only did she lose Kayden...

After today's incident, perhaps everyone in Rexwell would know what she had done today.

She was afraid that she would not be able to survive in the entertainment industry.

Thinking of this, the woman's lips curled into a smile and she turned to look at Ralph, who was sitting next to her.

"Do you have any requirements to be a martial arts substitute?"

"Why don't I be a martial arts substitute with you in the future?"

Ralph frowned. While helping the nurse treat her wound, she said coldly,

"Just give up. I won't be a martial arts substitute anymore."

"I promised Hank that after he helped me finish the things, I would try my best to become the movie queen."

Natalia paused and turned to look at Connie.

Connie quickly waved her hand.

"Don't look at me."

"Although I used to be a substitute actor like Lottie, I have stopped being an intern agent."

"I can't take you to be a ..."

Connie refused again.

Natalia sighed sadly.

"In the future, I can only be a substitute."

"With my ability, as a substitute, someone should hire me?"

Connie frowned and looked at her in confusion.

Natalia, I know what you mean. Do you think that if today's news gets out, you won't be able to survive in the entertainment industry anymore?

"But..."

Connie bit her lip.

"Although you don't have a management company now, I think that after all, you are Chapmans. Your husband and the Chapman family will not leave you alone."

"Today's news and video won't affect you much."

"Even if it will really have a great impact... you don't have to be a substitute."

"You are like Lottie, both the young mistress of the Chapman family. You are not short of money, aren't you?"

Connie's words made Natalia smile involuntarily.

"What you said is indeed useful to the old Natalia."

"But..."

She heaved a sigh of relief. "It's useless for the current Natalia."

After that, she turned to look at Ralph.

"Lottie, I've decided."

"I want to divorce Kayden."

When she and Yara fell down at the same time, he rushed over from the wheelchair in a hurry. It was Yara.

What else could she miss?

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 362 Maybe There's a Chance to Get Better

"A divorce?"

Connie's eyes widened. "Are you sure?"

When it was in such an emergency, Connie clearly saw that Kayden was looking at Natalia.

Both of them had feelings for each other, so why should they divorce?

"I'm sure."

Natalia closed her eyes and said in a hoarse voice, "I'll find an opportunity to divorce Kayden today."

After the divorce, she could not go back to the entertainment industry without his protection.

Then she could be a substitute, or do anything.

Perhaps the busy life at the bottom would make her feel better.

Connie turned to look at Ralph.

Ralph sighed and didn't say anything else. She just hugged Natalia tightly.

"By the way."

Natalia suddenly seemed to think of something as she was held by Ralph.

She frowned and said, "Lottie, I just saw... Is Ralph holding Yara?"

"That's not Ralph."

As soon as Natalia finished speaking, Connie frowned and said, "That is Ralph's twin brother."

"Twin brother?"

Natalia raised her head in shock.

Ralph could only nod her head lightly and tell Natalia about Ian's story.

Finally, she let out a long sigh of relief. "Yara is Ian's fiancée."

Natalia was stunned for a long time before she suddenly laughed out loud.

"So, Ian is Kayden's rival in love?"

"Kayden has respected Ralph for so many years. He had snatched a woman from a man who looks exactly like Ralph!"

"I don't think Kayden can win."

Ralph's lips curled into a smile. "If Yara and Ian get married and Kayden doesn't have anything to do with Yara, do you still want to divorce him?"

Natalia nodded. "Lottie, don't forget that Kayden has always wanted divorce. I just don't want to."

"Now... I'm willing."

Before Natalia could finish her words, the ambulance had arrived at the hospital.

Ralph and Connie quickly put an end to this topic and helped Natalia into the hospital.

"This wound, the other party wants to kill her."

In the hospital, the nurse in charge of bandaging Natalia said as she pointed to the wound on Natalia's collarbone.

"Obviously, that person knows medical knowledge."

"If this position is deeper, it will be a major artery."

.."

"It's easy to die if you were cut in the major artery. You also said that the murderous weapon is a kitchen knife."

"You have to know, the kitchen knife in the restaurant may have cut the meat, and there will be a lot of bacteria and parasites on it..."

"If they enter the major artery, it can still kill her!"

As the nurse spoke, she turned to look at Ralph. "How much does the person who hurt her have against her?"

"A big grudge."

Before she could say anything, Natalia, who had remained silent all this while, smiled.

"More than ten years."

Probably since she met Yara in the orphanage, she had been thinking about how to take away everything from her.

At that time, she separated with her family and was sent to the orphanage.

After a while, his family found the orphanage.

When her parents came to the orphanage, Yara stole the necklace Natalia had been wearing and put it on her neck. The orphanage regarded her as Natalia and gave her to her parents.

Fortunately, her mother recognized that Yara was not her daughter at first glance. She finally found Natalia herself and kindly brought Yara home to raise her.

At that time, Natalia still thought that Yara had stolen her necklace that day. It was just a child's hobby.

On that day, Yara did apologize to her, saying that she thought her necklace was beautiful and wanted to secretly wear it for a day.

Later, Yara imitated Natalia's handwriting and cut off Kayden's reply to Natalia without her knowing, becoming the person who had been writing letters to Kayden.

When she was discovered by Natalia, Yara took out her terminal diseases diagnosis.

It was also because of this terminal diseases diagnosis that Natalia did not continue to argue with Yara.

She had thought that her tolerance would leave a beautiful memory for Yara before she died.

Therefore, even if Yara passed away later and Kayden did not believe that she was the one who first wrote the letter to him, she had never complained about Yara.

After all, in Natalia's eyes, Yara was just a poor girl who wanted to maintain a good image in front of her favorite man before she died.

Her parents adopted her, but they didn't have the money to treat her. In fact, the Ross family owed her a lot.

But...

All of this turned into anger when Natalia saw Yara with her own eyes today.

It turned out that she had always been deceived by Yara!

The terminal diseases were fake.

It was true that she wanted to take over Kayden!

Even now, Yara and Kayden had been separated for so many years. When she came back again, Kayden still cared about Yara!

It was only today that Natalia understood.

It turned out that from the beginning to the end, Yara had been taking advantage of her, deceiving her, and playing with her like a monkey!

Connie bit her lip and said, "But Natalia, if what you said is true..."

"Then you should treat her as your enemy. Why did she..."

"Connie."

Ralph glanced at the pained expression on Natalia's face, signaling her not to continue.

Indeed, what Yara had done to Natalia should be because she hated her. Yara shouldn't hate her.

But at the moment, Yara was forcing Natalia to death everywhere.

Although it might not be hatred, it should be jealousy.

She was jealous that the Natalia has a happy family. Her parents loved her deeply and her younger brother could stand up for her at any time.

Not long after Yara left, Kayden had secretly found Natalia in his heart.

Otherwise, after what had happened to Natalia, Kayden would not have stood up immediately. He would rather be scolded by his family than marry Natalia.

These...

She was afraid that even if Yara replaced Natalia's identity as Kayden's pen friend, she would not be able to get it.

"You go out first. I want to stay alone for a while."

Natalia sighed and closed her eyes.

Ralph nodded. After giving her some advice, she pulled Connie out of the door.

As soon as they came out of the ward, Ralph ran into Hank, who was looking for her.

"I heard that Jenny was dead?"

Hank trotted all the way to Lottie and asked in a low voice.

Ralph frowned and nodded. "What's wrong?"

Why did Hank suddenly care about Jenny?

"It's going to be difficult."

Hank sighed and handed a stack of documents to Ralph. "I've found a way to let Ralph wake up."

"The reason why he is unconscious because he has no will to survive."

"Logically speaking, Ralph has you and three children, so he shouldn't have no will to live. That's why I analyzed that the problem lies with Jenny."

"He must have felt that something had really happened to him and Jenny, he thought he had sex with a woman who looked exactly like his mother, so his heart was in unbearable pain. He felt sorry for you and his mother, so he didn't have the will to live."

"If Jenny were to admit his mistakes a few more times and to keep their relationship, there might be a chance to improve!" .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 363 Two Conditions

Hank's words instantly froze Ralph.

Jenny was dead...

It was completely impossible for Jenny to admit his mistake in front of Ralph.

However...

Ralph suddenly thought of her recording pen!

She had a recording!

Thinking of this, Ralph quickly put her hand into her pocket.

It was empty.

No.

The recording pen that should have been lying well in her pocket...It's gone.

How could it disappear?

Wasn't the recording pen always in her pocket?

Ralph bit her lip and quickly flipped through all the places.

None.

"I'm looking for it again, but I still haven't."

Hank could not help but frown when he saw her looking for something. "What are you looking for?"

"A recording pen."

Ralph bit her lip and looked up anxiously at Hank's face.

"Before Jenny died, I asked her how she plotted against Ralph. She told me everything."

"I recorded it at that time..."

"But I can't find my recording pen!"

Hank frowned.

If there really was the recording pen that Ralph had mentioned...

There was no doubt that this recording pen would wake Ralph up!

He quickly began to help her search.

The two of them searched all the places that Ralph could find, but in the end, they found nothing.

"It should have fallen somewhere. Where did you go just now?"

Ralph frowned. "I just..."

After Jenny jumped off the building, Ralph remained in her ward.

Connie came later.

Later, she received a call from Kayden.

In the end, Natalia was injured and they returned to the hospital.

Therefore, if the recording pen fell somewhere, It must be the restaurant.

Ralph rubbed the space between her brows. "Come with me to that restaurant."

She remembered that on the rooftop of the restaurant, in order to prevent Natalia from doing anything stupid, she took the initiative to kick over the knife in Natalia's hand.

If the recording pen dropped, it was at there very likely at that time.

Hank nodded and quickly ran down the stairs with Ralph, hurrying to the restaurant where the accident had happened as fast as he could.

The restaurant was closed, and the boss was leading the staff to clean it.

Ralph and Hank had a lot to say and even gave the boss money. Only then did the boss agree to let them have a look at the surveillance video of Ralph kicking off the knife in Natalia's hand.

As expected.

When Ralph kicked off the knife in Natalia's hand, the recording pen in her pants pocket also fell out.

Later, there were too many people on the rooftop. In the surveillance, they never saw this recording pen again.

Ralph took a deep breath and rushed out of the monitoring room to the rooftop.

The rooftop was clean and tidy. Not to mention her recording pen, there was not even a speck of dust.

Several staff members were mopping the ground.

Ralph felt despair once again.

After asking, she learned that all the garbage on the rooftop had been thrown to the garbage station.

When Ralph asked if they had seen the recording pen, the cleaners couldn't answer.

There was nothing she could do.

She closed her eyes and finally decided to chase after the garbage truck to the garbage station.

Ralph and Hank followed the garbage truck for several kilometers and finally intercepted it.

But...

No matter how hard they tried, they couldn't find the recording pen that Ralph was looking for.

The life-saving recording pen seemed to have evaporated out of thin air without a trace.

Ralph refused to admit defeat and searched the restaurant again and again.

By ten o'clock in the evening, the restaurant had closed.

She stayed there and refused to leave.

"Are you looking for this?"

Just as Ralph returned to the rooftop and was about to re-examine the scene, a clear female voice rang out.

She frowned and looked up in the direction of the sound.

At the door of the rooftop, Yara, dressed in white, stood there with a smile and a small recording pen in her hand.

The appearance of the recording pen was exactly the same as the one Ralph had lost!

Ralph's eyes lit up when she saw the recording pen.

"Where did you find it?"

Yara shrugged. "I just picked it up from you today."

As she spoke, she sat down elegantly on a chair beside her, with a cold and distant smile on her lips.

"I saw you run up and down here and went to the garbage station several more times..."

The woman's gaze swept across Ralph's dirty and smelly clothes, and a smug smile appeared on her lips.

She fiddled with the recording pen in her hand.

"This thing seems to be quite important to you?"

Ralph narrowed her eyes. "Yes."

She strode to Yara and said, "This recording pen is very important to me."

"Please return it to me."

"Give it back to you?"

Yara raised her eyebrows and hid the recording pen in the closest place. "It's fine to give it back to you."

"But Ralph, since this thing is very important to you..."

"You should know that if you don't pay the price, you can't take it back, right?"

Ralph closed her eyes and gasped.

"What do you want?"

Of course, she knew that Yara wanted to negotiate with her.

Otherwise, why would she have waited until now to find her with this thing?

Yara just wanted to see how important this recording pen was to her.

Only when she knew how important it was could she continue to increase the price.

Although she hated Yara very much, for the sake of Ralph..

She still had to endure it.

The woman took a deep breath and looked at Yara's face.

"Tell me, what do you want?"

"Money?"

"I can..."

"I do need money."

Yara curled her lips and said indifferently and proudly,

"But I need something else."

She curled her lips and proudly fiddled with her hair.

"I've heard the recording inside. It's wonderful."

"I also know that you must want to play these recordings on Ralph's bedside to wake him up."

"So, I divided the recording into two parts."

"I want you to do two things for me. After you finish both, you can get the complete recording and let the dying Ralph hear it."

Ralph's hands were clenched into fists by her side.

"He went too far!"

This recording was originally hers!

But...

Although she was angry, she still smiled gently.

"What do you want me to do for you?"

"It's very simple."

Yara raised her head and looked at Ralph's face indifferently.

"First of all, I want Natalia to publicly admit her mistake and announce a divorce with Kayden. At the same time, leave the entertainment industry and never step into it again."

"Second, I want you to announce Ralph's death in the name of Ralph's widow, and give all Ralph's inheritance to his twin brother Ian."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 364 Ian, Save Me

Yara's words made Ralph's hands clench into fists.

She narrowed her eyes and suppressed the anger in her heart.

"Yara, don't you think you've crossed the line?"

Yara curled her lips and smiled faintly. "Too much?"

The woman lowered her head and played with the recording pen in her hand. She said calmly, "Compared with Ralph's life, I think it's not too much for me to make any demands, is it?"

She looked at Ralph and smiled.

"Do you think that your husband, Ralph, can't compare with your good friend, Natalia's love and career? Or do you think that Ralph's life can't compare with his assets?"

"If you don't agree, then I will..."

Yara raised her lips, took out her lighter, lit it, and slowly approached the recording pen.

"Anyway, these recordings are not important to you. Why don't I destroy them for you?"

As she spoke, she wanted to ignite the recording pen!

Ralph quickly took a step forward.

Yara sneered. "Don't blame me for not reminding you, Ralph."

"I know you have extraordinary skills, but you can't hurt me."

"Don't forget that a knife-wielding case just happened here during the day. The surveillance here is very clear now."

"Once you hit me... I accidentally fell down..."

"This is the third floor. I can't die. At most, I'm disabled."

"But you're going into prison."

"Ralph is in danger. If you go in again..."

"Ian and I won't help you raise those three orphans!"

Ralph's hands, which were placed beside her, creaked.

"Yara has planned it!"

She had calculated everything!

Since she came here, she had put everything in her plan!

It included her military strength, the surveillance here, and even...

At this moment, Ralph finally understood why Natalia had been toyed with by Yara for so many years, but she couldn't fight back at all.

This woman's scheming was even deeper than that of Alice White and Yoyo's!

She took a deep breath and looked up at Yara seriously.

"I can't agree to your two great requests."

"First of all, Ralph's the DS Group and the Chapman Group under his name. Although he is the legal representative, that is also the result of his hard work with many people."

"After all these years of hard work, I can't give him away without his permission when he's in a coma."

"And..."

She looked up at Yara's face coldly.

"Natalia is indeed my friend, but she has no responsibility and there is no need to sacrifice her own emotional life and career for my husband."

As the woman spoke, she carefully moved closer to Yara.

Yara's lips curled into a smile as she continued to sit there elegantly. She didn't realize that Ralph was getting closer and closer.

She chuckled.

"Then you may not know Natalia enough."

"Natalia is a person who values relationships..."

"How many feelings does she have?"

"When I lied to her that I had a terminal disease, I was about to die. Can you give me the identity of the little fairy who wrote a letter to Kayden..."

"

"She agreed directly and worked everywhere to help me with my treatment!"

The more she said, the more proud she became. There was no respect for Natalia in her eyes.

"She is such a person. I've seen through her for a long time."

"Now your relationship with her is actually better than ours. As long as you are willing, you can find her by yourself. No matter how unwilling she is, she will agree!"

After that, Yara turned her eyes and looked at Ralph's face indifferently.

"Mrs. Chapman, why don't you consider your husband's life?"

"It seems that your feelings for your husband are just so-so."

Ralph narrowed her eyes slightly. "I don't need an outsider like Yara to judge my feelings for my husband."

By the time she finished speaking, Ralph had already flashed in front of Yara.

The woman rushed up quickly and pulled Yara back from the edge of the roof. Then she pressed her on the ground and began to grab the recording pen in her hand.

"I won't let Natalia pay for me, nor will I hand over my husband's achievements to others!"

"This recording pen is mine. I will definitely get it back!"

She gritted her teeth and tried her best to grab the recording pen.

How could Yara let her succeed so easily?

The woman's long fingernails poked viciously at the back of Ralph's hand, causing scratches and bloody holes to appear on the back of her hand and wrist!

It was only when she felt the intense pain that she realized that Yara had indeed come prepared.

Not only did she accurately calculate her position, but she also monitored the situation when they met...

Even her nails had small blades on them!

Those small blades cut Ralph's arm into a bloody mess.

However, she still endured the pain and pressed Yara under her body, trying her best to grab the recording pen.

It was a chance for Ralph to wake up!

Yara was pressed under Ralph's body. It was obvious that she had been hurting her, but she kept screaming.

"Help!"

"Someone was killed!"

"Ian, save me!!!"

After an unknown period of time, the door of the rooftop was kicked open from the outside.

The moment Ian rushed in, the first thing he saw was his sister-in-law, Ralph, pressing his fiancée under her body and beating her desperately.

Their faces were covered with blood.

Ian had been with Yara for two years. He ever seen Yara suffer like this.

The pity that Ralph had for Ralph for the past few days had completely vanished at this moment.

The man strode up to her, raised his hand, and pulled her away. "What are you doing!?"

She clutched the recording pen in her hand with all her might. She was hurt so much that she couldn't speak.

Just as she thought she was about to fail...

Yara smiled smugly and loosened her grip.

The other end of the recording pen had lost Yara's pull, and Ralph had used too much force.

The moment Yara loosened her grip, Ralph fell to the side.

She rolled several times on the dirty rooftop and finally stopped when she hit the obstacle on the side.

The intense pain pierced through her internal organs.

But it seemed that she could not feel it at all.

The woman lowered her head and looked at the blood-stained recording pen in her arms as if it was a treasure.

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 365 I Have Something to Do

"Ralph, don't go too far!"

Ian held Yara in his arms and looked at the blood on her body.

"I know that your friend and Yara had a misunderstanding before, but the misunderstanding can be resolved. You really don't have to do this!"

"During the day, your friend wanted to hurt Yara with a knife. If we hadn't arrived in time, I don't know what would have happened!"

"I know that when you were angry, Yara grabbed the knife and put it on Natalia's neck, but Yara had no choice at that time!"

"If she doesn't do this, she might get hurt!"

"Ralph, I know you hate me more or less because of Ralph. Today, Yara hurt your friend again."

"But you really don't have to do this!"

"If you secretly hurt Yara at night, I'll look down on you!"

After that, he strode away with Yara in his arms.

When they reached the door of the rooftop, the man frowned and said indifferently, "Tomorrow, I will take Yara to the police station to report to the police."

"There are videos on the Internet about Natalia hurting her today. The evidence is conclusive. She can't escape."

"As for you... I think for Ralph's sake, I won't take you with me when I report to the police tomorrow. But if I find out that you tried to hurt Yara again..."

"Even if you are Ralph's wife, I will not spare you!"

After saying that, Ian strode away with Yara in his arms.

Ralph lay on the ground, tightly holding the recording pen in her arms.

She didn't care what Ian had said.

Although Ian and Ralph looked exactly the same, he was Ralph's brother.

But for Ralph, Ian was just a stranger she had just met.

There was no need for her to care about him!

The only thing she cared about was Ralph!

Thinking of this, she quickly reached out her badly mutilated hand and opened the recording pen with trembling hands.

She was looking forward to the message from the recording pen. It was what Jenny had said before, to plot against Ralph.

But...

"You've been deceived."

"How could I really carry such an important recording pen with me?"

"You're so good at martial arts. If we fight hand-to-hand, I can't beat you at all. If you take it away, won't I be sad?"

"So, I uploaded the recording into a network disk. This network disk is very secret, and only I know that the password."

"As for the recording pen... of course it's for decoration and bait. I bought more than a dozen of such recording pens..."

"Guess if there will be any recording sound inside?"

"Hahahaha!"

It was late at night.

Ralph lay alone in a corner of the rooftop, listening to Yara's mocking laughter in the recording pen. Her heart turned cold.

She closed her eyes and smiled bitterly.

The wound on her hand was still screaming in pain.

Her efforts were in vain.

It was unexpected but reasonable.

Yara was so smart that she could calculate the surveillance footage and her location when they were chatting.

Therefore, how could the recording pen be real?

She was stupid and naive. She was too anxious, so she fell into Yara's trap. Not only did she not get back what she wanted, but she also alerted Yara, making her guard up, and even...

He even offended Ian.

Ralph closed her eyes and looked at the sky with a bitter smile.

She just wanted to take back her recording pen and give it a try according to Hank's plan. She just wanted Ralph to wake up.

Was this request too much?

"Too much?"

Why did the god give her hope again and again, and then destroy it with their own hands??

"Lottie!"

After an unknown period of time, Natalia and Connie's voices came from the door of the rooftop.

The two women rushed over and looked at Ralph's badly mutilated hands stained with dust and the recording pen in her hand. Pain flashed across their eyes at the same time.

Connie quickly pulled her up and said, "Follow me to the hospital!"

Ralph lay motionless on the spot and looked at the sky. "I'm not going."

She stared blankly at the sky. "Connie, you said..."

"Why is it so difficult to rescue the person I care about the most.

.."

Connie bit her lip and looked at her fragile look. Tears welled up in her eyes.

Connie knew exactly how strong Ralph was.

Back then, she had personally watched as Ralph was pregnant with Ralph's child for Luke Berry. She had endured the pain of being pregnant for ten months alone.

Later, she also saw with her own eyes the look of a person walking out of her grief after Ralph had caught Luke Berry and Isobel Mitchell.

She had never been as disappointed and helpless as she was now, as if she had lost the hope of life.

But now...

"Lottie."

Natalia took a deep breath, walked forward, and gently grabbed Ralph's wrist.

"Ralph is still alive. You can't give up."

"If you fall, do you think Ralph will wake up?"

"Are you really going to leave with Ralph and make the three children of Ralph and Stella and Fabian become orphans without any support in the future?"

"The children are still young. You must live well, and Ralph must wake up."

"Even if you don't want to, you must cheer up now."

The woman's words made Ralph close her eyes and let out a bitter laugh.

Yes.

Even if she didn't want to, she was tired.

She had to cheer up.

Ralph was still breathing heavily. She could not give up.

After a while, she struggled to get up from the ground and looked up at Connie.

"Help me contact Alfred."

"I'm going to find Ralph tonight."

She did not believe that she could not wake up Ralph without the recording!

She had to stay by his side all the time and accompany him every minute and second. She kept telling him what he had done and what he had not done.

If so, Ralph would not be able to wake up...

She would accept it!

Connie paused and nodded quickly. "Okay."

Half an hour later, Alfred came with Hank.

With Connie and Natalia's help, Ralph got into Alfred's car.

Hank bandaged her fingers while asking her about the recording pen.

The car started.

When Connie followed Ralph into the car, she turned to look at Natalia, who was standing outside.

"Aren't you going with me to see Ralph?"

Natalia smiled.

She shook her head. "No, I still have something to do."

Connie pursed her lips. In fact, she was not very familiar with Natalia. It was not convenient for her to ask what she was going to do, so she could only let Alfred drive away.

Natalia stood at the door of the restaurant and watched them leave.

When the car completely disappeared from her sight, she took a deep breath and walked into the restaurant.

"Boss, your family's monitoring has a recording function, right?"

"Show me the surveillance video on your rooftop."

"I want to know what Ralph has gone through just now!"

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 366 I'm a little envious of Ralph and Ralph

"First of all, I want Natalia to publicly admit her mistake and announce a divorce with Kayden. At the same time, leave the entertainment industry and never step into the entertainment industry again."

"Second, I want you to announce Ralph's death in the name of Ralph's widow and daughters, and give all Ralph's inheritance to his twin brother Ian."

Sitting in the monitoring room of the restaurant, Natalia looked at Yara's complacent look and what she said. She clenched her fists tightly in front of her.

She only thought that Yara would use this recording to threaten Ralph, but she didn't expect...

Yara wanted to use this recording to let her leave Kayden, ruin her acting career, and make Ralph pay for everything!

This was simply an idiotic dream!

If it were in the past, Natalia would have thought that Yara was crazy and ignored such unreasonable conditions.

But now...

She took a deep breath.

In fact, she had planned to divorce Kayden. She didn't want to see him again in her life.

It was not impossible for her to quit the entertainment industry and no longer be the glamorous Natalia.

After all...

She had left the entertainment industry for a long time.

She also planned to never step into the entertainment industry again in order to become Kayden's good wife.

After the divorce with Kayden, life might become difficult.

But...

"It's not like I won't be able to live until I work in the entertainment industry."

Therefore, she could fulfill her first request.

Instead of saying that she could fulfill Yara's request, it was better to say that she had planned this before.

If her decision could help Ralph, she wouldn't be stingy.

But...

The second condition was indeed impossible.

After a long silence, Natalia gave the money to the restaurant owner and finally copied the video.

After coming out of the restaurant, Natalia took a taxi back to her wedding room with Kayden.

Instead of calling this a wedding room, it was better to call it a place where she lived.

She had been recuperating in the wedding room since she was unconscious.

Kayden rarely went to the wedding room because he was busy with work and had to deal with the family affairs of Ralph and Yank.

When she woke up, Kayden became the one sitting in a wheelchair.

Therefore, because of his health, he stayed in the apartment near the company or went to the hospital.

There was no trace of Kayden in this wedding room.

Natalia was used to being alone.

But...

The wedding room had been quite lively recently.

The taxi stopped in front of the villa.

Natalia took a deep breath, adjusted her mood, and walked into the villa.

The villa was very lively.

"Sister-in-law Natalia!"

Seeing that Natalia was back, Stella was the first to rush out and grab Natalia's arm.

"Why did you come back so late? Did you go to see my mommy? How is she?"

Fabian, who was standing aside, frowned and trotted all the way over. He looked at Stella with some blame.

"Do you understand what is polite?"

"Although what we are most concerned about right now is news about Mommy, since Sister-in-law Natalia has returned so late, we still have to pretend to care about her!"

After that, the little fellow raised his head, blinked his big eyes, and stared at Natalia's face.

"Sister-in-law Natalia, did something happen when you came back so late?"

"Have you eaten yet?"

"If you don't eat, do you want to eat some food I prepared for my brother and sister?"

Looking at these two little guys, the depression in Natalia's heart was swept away.

She sighed, squatted down, and picked up Stella.

"You don't have to put on an act with me."

"I know you care about your mommy. She's fine now. She's not in a good mood after waking up. She's much better now."

After that, she sat down on the dining chair.

"Didn't you say there was cuisine?"

"I'm really hungry."

As a matter of fact, she and Kayden had been hiding from the children about Ralph's serious illness and Ralph's poor condition.

Return the good news.

She was afraid that they could not accept this fact.

After all, the three little guys were only five years old.

The psychological endurance of a five-year-old child...How strong could he be?

It was best not to let them know that an adult was about to collapse.

"There's no dark cuisine."

Suddenly, a clear and steady child's voice sounded.

Natalia frowned and turned to look in the direction of the voice.

In the direction of the kitchen in the distance, Ralph was slowly and elegantly walking towards her with a tray in his hand.

Inside the tray was a bowl of rice, as well as three delicate dishes and one soup.

Needless to say, this was definitely the masterpiece of Ralph, who was usually serious and strict.

Although this little guy Ralph usually didn't like to talk, he was cold and domineering.

But he would take good care of his brother and sister.

Of course...

Occasionally, he would take good care of Natalia.

Taking the dinner from Ralph, Natalia guarded Ralph on the left and Stella on the right.

She suddenly felt that having three babies was good.

All of a sudden, she was envious of Ralph and Ralph for having three children accompanying them.

Unlike her...

After the divorce with Kayden, she probably had nothing left, didn't she?

Even this villa was their wedding house and Kayden's premarital property.

After the divorce, she would return it to him.

After they parted, she became a homeless loner.

Thinking of this, the woman felt a little sad.

She forced down the emotions in her eyes and turned her face away, not daring to look into the Stella's eyes.

So she lowered her head and ate while saying,

"Sister-in-law Natalia's coat and bag are all at the door. Is anyone willing to help me take them to the dressing room?"

As soon as she said this, Fabian on her right jumped up directly from the chair. "I'll do it!"

After that, the little fellow rushed out like an arrow, picked up Natalia's coat and bag, stamped on the ground, and went to the dressing room.

Natalia sat in a chair and smiled as she ate.

This little guy.

She was still listless after being rescued for a while, but now she seemed to be alive and kicking.

...

Fabian quickly pushed the door of the dressing room and put Natalia's bag and coat on the shelf of the dressing room and the cabinet.

Just as the little fellow was about to leave, with a bang, something fell to the ground behind her.

Fabian frowned and looked back. It was a mobile phone dropped from Natalia's coat.

It was a spare machine, and the screen was still on.

He picked it up curiously. Just as he was about to turn off his phone and put it back into Natalia's pocket, he suddenly found...

The picture on the phone was a surveillance video.

In the surveillance, two women were standing on the rooftop.

One of them was his mommy, Ralph!

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 367 I'll Make Tea for You

Fabian's heart pounded violently!

This was obviously a surveillance video!

The time displayed on the lower right corner of the monitor was tonight, a few hours ago!

The little fellow bit his lip and instantly realized that the content of the mobile phone seemed to be very important.

If it wasn't important, Sister-in-law Natalia wouldn't have used her spare phone to take a photo of the emergency, to the point where she even forgot to put it on her phone.

He clicked on the video to see what she had said and done with this strange woman.

But...

The moment he clicked on the video, a password box popped out of the mobile phone, indicating that he needed to enter the password to continue watching.

Fabian frowned.

Breaking the password...

Stella was the best at it.

His brother, Ralph, was a hacker who was good at making all kinds of software and breaking all kinds of firewall and complex code.

His sister, Stella, was a little hacker who was good at cracking the password of other people's accounts.

Only he...

He knew nothing about these things.

Therefore, Fabian took a deep breath and hesitated for a long time. Finally, he took out his mobile phone, connected this confidential video to his mobile phone through Bluetooth, deleted the visiting record, turned off the phone, and put it back into Natalia's pocket.

Finally, the little fellow took a deep breath and left the dressing room to go downstairs.

Downstairs, Natalia had fallen asleep on the sofa after dinner.

Stella was sitting next to Natalia, covering her with a thin blanket.

Ralph quietly washed the dishes in the kitchen without making a sound.

Seeing the Fabian coming down, Stella quickly waved at him, put her fingers in front of her mouth, and made a gesture of "Shh", telling him not to make a sound.

The little fellow took a look at Natalia, who was sleeping soundly, and quickly ran downstairs. He whispered something in Stella's ear, then ran to Ralph's ear and said something.

Ralph and Stella's eyes instantly lit up.

One of them quickly put away the washed bowls and chopsticks, the other packed up the things in the living room, and locked the door of the villa.

Five minutes later, the three little guys gathered in the children's room.

"Leave it to me to crack the password."

Stella took a deep breath, took out her laptop, uploaded the video taken out by Fabian to the computer, and began to crack it with the self-made cracking procedure.

Ralph frowned and glanced at the screen.

"This rooftop is a little familiar."

"This woman is also a little familiar."

The little fellow was saying while looking for today's news.

The news showed that Natalia was standing on the rooftop with a knife on Yara's neck.

Ralph touched his chin like an adult and turned to look at the Fabian.

"Look, is it here, or is it this woman?"

Fabian frowned and went up to take a look.

With just one glance, the little fellow's eyes instantly widened!

The scene in the picture, and the woman in the picture...

"Isn't she the woman who is on the opposite side of Mommy in the video that Stella is cracking?"

He subconsciously turned to look at Ralph. "Brother..."

"What's going on?"

Ralph stroked his chin and finished reading the afternoon news report.

"This woman is called Yara, Kayden's ex-girlfriend."

"Sister-in-law Natalia saw her meeting her cousin today, so she threatened this woman with a knife in excitement."

"Then this woman stole Sister-in-law Natalia's knife and injured her."

With this, the little fellow took another look at the surveillance video that Stella was cracking.

"This woman is confronting Mommy on this rooftop again tonight..."

Fabian bit her lip and clenched her fists. "Then I know. This woman..."

Ralph and Stella looked up at him at the same time.

"What happened to her?"

Fabian took a deep breath.

"She's not a good person!"

Ralph and Stella rolled their eyes at him at the same time.

"You don't need to say that!"

Stella curled her lips and crossed her arms around her chest, pretending to be an adult.

"During this period of time, I was bored to watch Korean dramas, so I concluded the rules."

"A good woman and her ex-boyfriend will not contact each other casually. Only bad women will know that their ex-boyfriend has a new girlfriend, and they will go out to date and have dinner with their ex-boyfriend."

Ralph nodded.

"You are still very knowledgeable."

Fabian curled his lips. "It's not a big deal."

"It's just that you read books and played code every day. You're ignorant. The bad guys and bad women are like this!"

After that, he suddenly thought of a problem.

"You tell me..."

"This woman is a bad woman. How about cousin Kayden, who met this woman... Is he a good person or a bad person?"

Ralph and Stella were silent for a moment. Suddenly, they didn't know what to say.

After all...

Although Kayden was not their cousin, he was still kind to them.

They really couldn't accept that he would become a scumbag...

"Ding!"

In the silence of the three little guys, the computer suddenly rang with the sound of success.

The three little guys quickly turned their heads and stared at the computer screen.

Stella pressed the starting button.

"Ralph, are you looking for this?"

After the video started, what appeared on the screen was Yara's provocative look of holding a recording pen in her hand.

This video had a total of 30 minutes.

After playing the video for 30 minutes, the three little guys fell into silence.

They were only five years old and had very little experience. They had never seen such a shameless woman.

And...

Stella pursed her lips and adjusted the video to the picture of Ian hugging Yara.

"Although this person looks exactly the same as Daddy, what he said and how he hugged this bad woman, he shouldn't be Daddy."

Ralph frowned and found the news picture of "Ralph" today.

In the news, the man who signed the contract with the cooperative company wore the same clothes and accessories as the man in the picture.

The young man held his chin and analyzed,

"So, the man who appeared in front of us now is not our Daddy."

"But Daddy isn't someone who can be easily pretended by others. Also, during this period of time, no matter whether it's our grandfather or other relatives, they didn't expose him. Instead, they covered him up."

"Therefore, this person might be Daddy's twin brother."

Fabian bit his lip and finally began to be serious.

"In other words..."

The eyes of the three little guys collided. In the end, Fabian opened his mouth with difficulty and said the answer that they had guessed.

"Our biological daddy is in great danger now."

"Mommy would rather get hurt to snatch that recording pen. It must have something to do with Daddy."

After a while, Ralph took a deep breath.

"I remember, did that woman say that the video has been recorded in the internet?"

Fabian nodded hard. "Yes!"

Ralph and Stella looked at each other, and then the two little guys picked up their computers at the same time.

Fabian turned around and went downstairs. "I'll make tea for you!" .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 368 Let's Get divorced

In the hospital.

Ralph's hands were tightly wrapped.

She sat in front of Ralph's bed and looked at the man's pale face with a smile.

"Honey."

"I'm useless."

She said in a hoarse voice,

"I... failed to protect the recording."

"The recording was taken away by Yara. I had no way to fulfill her request, nor did I get the recording back."

"So..."

She sniffed and wiped her tears with the back of her hand.

Tears soaked the gauze on the back of her hand and mixed with the red on the gauze.

The woman bit her lip. "So I don't plan to sleep tonight."

"I remember all of Jenny's recordings clearly..."

"I'll tell you now, what did Jenny do to you after you fainted that day..."

"You really don't have to worry, and you don't have to blame yourself. You may not believe yourself. When you lose your mind, you will do something incredible."

"But I think..."

"You really don't want to think so much. I have always trusted you."

"My husband, even if he loses his mind, he will know what he can do and what he can't do."

"That day..."

She looked at Ralph's closed face seriously and spoke out everything that Jenny had told her.

Again and again.

It was late at night.

Connie stood outside the ICU ward. Through the huge floor-to-ceiling glass, she looked at Ralph inside who was telling Ralph seriously. Her eyes were wet silently.

"He will get better."

Alfred walked to Connie's side, put his hand on her shoulder, and sighed deeply.

"If I were Ralph, as long as I could hear him, I would wake up and come back to life even if I tried my best."

The man's voice and touch made Connie frown slightly.

She turned her head and fixed her eyes on Alfred's face.

"So now, are you sure that you still like Ralph in your heart?"

The woman's words made Alfred freeze.

He was stunned and looked down at the woman in his arms.

"Why..

. did you suddenly ask this question?"

Connie shrugged her shoulders and looked up at Ralph and Ralph in the floor-to-ceiling glass seriously. "Isn't that so?"

"You said that if you're Ralph, you'll definitely wake up if Lottie calls you like that."

After that, Connie sighed. "But I still advise you to give up early."

"You know that Lottie and Ralph love each other so much."

"You have no chance."

Alfred could only feel the veins are going to throb on his forehead.

Connie...

How did she come to such a stupid conclusion??

He wanted to confess to her and tell her that if he were Ralph, as long as Connie treated him like that, he would definitely wake up.

But Connie...

She!

Alfred gritted his teeth and glared at Connie.

"Are you insane?"

Connie frowned and looked up at Alfred's face. "I'm trying to persuade you. How dare you say that I'm insane?"

"Alright."

She shook off Alfred's hand and took a step back. "Then I won't try to persuade you anymore. You can continue to like Lottie. The feeling of being in love but not being loved is very uncomfortable. You can feel it gradually!"

After that, she turned around and ran away.

Alfred stood where he was and watched Connie leave. He clenched his fists tightly.

Connie...

How long had it been? ?

Every time he wanted to confess to her, she either didn't believe him or misunderstood him!

Couldn't she be like a normal woman and be his girlfriend? ?

Such a woman...

How was she used to be his fan?

She couldn't even know what he was thinking!

"What are you waiting for?"

In the distance, Hank leaned against the wall with his arms crossed. He looked at Alfred's face indifferently.

"If you don't chase after her, your girl will really run away."

"It's obvious that she likes you, but in her heart, she doesn't have confidence in herself. She doesn't think she can compare to a beauty like Lottie."

"What are you waiting for if you don't chase now?"

Alfred was silent for a moment, then quickly chased after her.

"Young people nowadays..."

Hank sighed and glanced in the direction that Alfred had left. He then looked in the direction of the ICU ward.

Lottie's face was still full of tears. She held Ralph's hand tightly with her hands wrapped in gauze and said something while crying.

Hank silently rubbed the space between his eyebrows.

He believed that Lottie would definitely not sleep that night.

She would stay by Ralph's side all night and tell him what had happened.

In fact, Hank didn't know if that would work.

In fact...

The effects of Lottie's report weren't as effective as what Jenny said.

However, Jenny was already dead and the recording had been taken away. Lottie could only do that...

Thinking of that, Hank suddenly thought of something.

He furrowed his brows and found a nurse on duty to take care of Lottie. Then, he turned around and left the hospital himself. He drove straight to the restaurant where he had found her.

In the monitoring room of the restaurant, the staff was sleeping soundly.

Hank directly took out a stack of money and slammed it on the table.

"I want to check the surveillance video."

The man glanced at him and yawned. He turned on the monitor and sighed without emotions.

"You're here to ask for surveillance on the rooftop, aren't you?"

"The rooftop tonight is really lively.

Hank frowned. "Is there anyone else besides me?"

The man nodded.

"The big star Natalia also came."

"Actually, she should be the previous big star, Natalia."

"She is such a beautiful woman. I didn't expect that she would quit the entertainment industry. And after that, she wants to kill..."

"What a pity."

Hank clenched his fists silently.

He looked at the monitor and listened to Yara's voice. He frowned tightly.

The woman...

She wanted to destroy Natalia and Ralph's assets over the years...

How vicious she was.

However, if Lottie's words to Ralph didn't work, he still had to retrieve the recording.

He sighed and saved the video in his mobile phone. Then he turned to leave.

...

Things happened early the next morning.

When Natalia woke up, the first thing she did was to call Kayden.

"Kayden."

She sat on the sofa and spoke to the man on the other end of the phone without emotions. Her voice was cold and emotionless.

"Let's divorce." .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 369 Who My fiance Is

Kayden, who was on the other end of the phone, probably didn't expect that Natalia would talk about that. He was stunned for a few seconds and finally said in a deep voice.

"Okay."

"When?"

"Now."

Natalia closed her eyes. "If you have time now..."

"I don't have time now."

Kayden frowned and glanced at the TV screen. "Why are you in such a hurry to divorce?"

On the other end of the phone, Natalia laughed. "Of course I'm helping you and Yara."

"Kayden, no matter what I say, you always think that the girl who wrote the letters to you was Yara. You also firmly believe that Yara was your favorite woman..."

"Then I admit that she is and I am not. I have always been lying to you."

"There's no substitute at all, and Yara didn't learn my handwriting. I learned Yara's handwriting and planned to replace her after she died. Your previous guess is right."

Sitting on the sofa, Natalia continued speaking with a poker face.

"In the past, I insisted on being with you. I always felt that as long as Yara died, you would give me a chance. Now, I've seen through it."

"So I want to divorce you as soon as possible."

Natalia's tone was cold as if she was telling someone else's story.

But only she knew that her nails had been deeply embedded in the palm of the other hand hidden in her sleeve.

She was an excellent actress who had won the honor of queen of the silver screen several times.

No one would be better at disguising their emotions than her.

"Kayden, I was wrong in the past. I should have divorced you earlier. It's my fault. I couldn't figure it out earlier."

Suppressing the reluctance and sadness in her heart, she even smiled at the phone.

"If I figured it out earlier, I wouldn't have taken care of you for so long. What does it have to do with me whether you can stand up?"

"But..."

She sniffed and smiled.

"You know that Yara has a fiance, don't you?"

"Her fiance is very powerful, and you may not be able to defeat him. But if you can't, don't be discouraged. There will always be blind women in the world who like you. You won't be lonely forever.

Yara finished what she wanted to say in one breath, only to find that Kayden on the other end of the phone had not spoken.

She pursed her lips and pretended to smile casually.

"Hello, Kayden? Are you dead or did you miss the call? Why don't you speak?"

"It's not easy for me to chat with you about all my feelings. It won't be such a coincidence, will it?"

After a long time, Kayden's deep voice came from the other end of the phone.

"What about you, Natalia?"

Was he asking her?

Natalia thought that she had heard wrongly and could not help but frown. "What?"

"I mean..."

On the other end of the phone, Kayden was sitting in a wheelchair with one hand holding his phone, and the other hand holding the armrest of the wheelchair tightly.

"I won't be lonely forever. What about you?"

"What about you in the future?"

Natalia was stunned and then smiled.

"It's really strange. You haven't cared much about me since we got married. Why do you suddenly feel guilty when we were about to divorce?"

"But don't worry, I will be better and better in the future."

"Didn't you always say that I should go back to the entertainment industry?"

"After I divorce you, I will go back to the entertainment industry and continue to film, act, sing, participate in variety shows... and then be the movie queen."

After saying that, Natalia could not continue.

She was silent for a while and finally took a deep breath.

"Forget it, it's useless to talk so much to you. You can't divorce with me now."

"Kayden, let's determine the time. When will you have time to divorce?"

Kayden closed his eyes and forced smile sadly.

"A few days later."

"How many days will it take?"

"Two days."

"Okay!"

Natalia sniffed.

"In two days, we'll meet at the entrance of the Civil Affairs Bureau!"

She hung up without waiting for Kayden's reply.

When she put down the phone, her face was full of tears.

The emotions that she had been held back finally broke out.

She hugged the pillow and cried so hard.

But she cried silently.

She knew that the three little children upstairs were still sleeping.

She couldn't wake them up.

Natalia was such a person.

For the person she valued...

She didn't even allow herself to make a sound.

Meanwhile, it was in the hospital ward.

Kayden put down his phone and looked at the TV screen silently.

At that moment, the news about Natalia was playing on TV.

The title of the news was:

"The movie queen used to use a knife against her old friend. Was it the distortion of human nature or moral decay?"

On the screen was the picture of Natalia holding a knife against Yara on a rooftop of a restaurant the last afternoon.

As the video was played, the reporter's voice sounded.

"We interviewed the president of the artists' association in Rexwell. The president said that public figures must have good conduct in order to become role models. Natalia has already lost the basic condition of survival in the entertainment industry..."

"Although Natalia has already quit the entertainment industry, it will be more difficult for her to return to work in the entertainment industry in the future..."

"It's a scandal, and there's an accident in her family. She broke up with her best friend and even faced the risk of being accused of murder at any time..."

"Where will Natalia go in the future? We will continue to report..

."

At the end of the news was an interview of Yara.

In front of the camera, Yara smiled happily. It was impossible to tell that she was a woman who was threatened by a knife the day before.

She looked at the camera with a smile.

"Natalia and I used to be friends, but I didn't expect that she would treat me like this when we met again after so many years..."

"In fact, I really don't want to sue her. After all, we used to be friends. She is an actor. If she has a record of murder, it will end her career."

"But..."

She lowered her head and wiped her tears with grievance.

"But my fiance was very angry and insisted that I sue Natalia and let her pay the price. Yesterday, I coaxed my fiance for a long time, and then he agreed to let me not sue Natalia for the time being..."

"Who my fiance is?"

The woman smiled shyly.

"My fiance... is the president of the Chapman Group, Ralph."

"Bang!" After the news was played, Kayden's phone fell to the ground.

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 370 Please Wake Up

"How can the woman say that her fiance is our Daddy?"

Sitting in the children's room on the second floor of Natalia's villa, Fabian watched the news and gnashed his teeth in anger.

"Our daddy is in hospital!"

"She stole our Daddy's recording and said that she is his fiancee. That's too much!"

Beside him, Elijah sighed lightly. He looked at the program of decoding the password on the computer and comforted Fabian softly.

"It's normal for her to say that."

"You should know..."

"Father's twin brothers, Ian, is now our Daddy."

"If the they want to hide the news of Daddy's serious illness, then they can only let uncle pretend to be Daddy."

"She's the fiancee of Daddy's elder uncle. It's reasonable that she say that she's Daddy's fiancee."

"But..."

Elijah rubbed his chin and furrowed his brows tightly. "But if she says so, everyone will subconsciously think that she is Daddy's real fiancee."

"In this way, when Daddy wakes up, this matter will not be explained clearly."

His words made Fabian distressed.

He lay on the sofa and frowned.

"Brother, what do you think this woman wants to do?"

"Is she trying to ruin the relationship between Daddy and Mommy after she ruined the relationship between cousin Kayden and sister-in-law Natalia?"

"Of course not!"

Stella, who had been silent, curled her lips. "If she wants to break up Daddy and Mommy, then she must have feelings for Daddy."

"If she has feelings for Daddy... she wouldn't have used the recording of Mommy saving Daddy to threaten Mommy, because she definitely wanted Daddy to live."

Stella's words made Fabian frown.

He got up from the sofa. "So..."

"She wants sister-in-law Natalia to separate from cousin Kayden because she used to be his girlfriend."

"She asked Mommy to announce Daddy's death and transfer all of the assets to elder uncle. And she claims to be his fiancée..."

Fabian bit his lip and looked up at Yara, who was being interviewed in TV.

"This woman is really ambitious."

What she wanted was not to separate Daddy and Mommy.

What she wanted was to get all of Daddy's assets!

The Chapman Group and the DS Group abroad!

Elijah nodded. "Actually, Yara made two preparations."

"Here's number one. She asked Mommy yesterday to announce that Daddy is dead and transfer all his assets to elder uncle."

"The second preparation is that if Mommy doesn't agree, elder uncle will divorce Mommy as a Daddy and publicly announce that she is Daddy's fiancée."

"In this way, if Daddy really can't wake up... then everything about Daddy will belong to them."

"How vicious she is!"

Fabian gritted her teeth angrily. "All the female villains I've seen in Korean dramas are not as hateful as her!"

"So..."

Elijah looked down at the computer that was still operating. "We must decode this before tonight and get the recording."

"If Daddy wakes up, all the traps she designed will be solved."

Things happened in the hospital.

Lottie had been waiting for Ralph for an entire night.

That night, she told him everything she could say.

That was probably the longest time and the most she had talked to him.

The next morning, she was so hoarse that she couldn't make a loud sound.

Every word stopped in her throat as if something was obstructing her.

However, she still held Ralph's hand as she spoke.

Outside the ward, through the huge window, Alfred saw her like that. He couldn't bear anymore. He took photos of her and sent them to Aiden.

At that time, Aiden was cleaning up the spies and obstacles of the Bartons over the years in the old house.

Yuki, who had just woken up, was with him.

Yuki was sitting in a wheelchair. Her husband, Jerry, she had finally met after many years was standing behind her.

They looked at the list of spies in the Bartons and sighed.

"Who would have thought that Jenna would end up like this?"

Yuki sighed silently and held Jerry's hand tightly. "Our daughter has found a good husband..."

Jerry sighed and nodded. "Yes."

"Jenna has been arrogant for a lifetime. She thought that she could control the Bells and the Bartons, but she didn't expect..."

"In the end, it was Aiden and Jenna's son who got rid of her."

"It can be said that evil will be rewarded with evil."

Aiden rolled his eyes when he saw the couple in front of him. "I asked you to come here early in the morning to help me see if you have any questions about this list."

"Why are you showing off your love in front of me?"

Yuki glanced at the list and said, "I've been in a coma for too long. I don't know."

Jerry did not even look at it. "Don't ask me. I've been in the mountains for so many years. How would I know?"

Aiden frowned and rolled his eyes at them helplessly.

"I shouldn't have ask you to come!"

"I should have asked Arthur to come over. Although he doesn't know anything, at least he is good at fighting. He can help me beat a few of people!"

Yuki smiled and said, "Jerry is also good at martial arts, but he can't help you beat people."

Aiden glared at her. Before he could speak, his phone rang.

It was a video from his nephew Alfred.

He frowned and turned on the video.

The video was took in Ralph's ICU ward.

Through the huge window, he could see that Lottie was sitting by the bed with a haggard face, holding Ralph's hand tightly with both hands. She was whispering something to him.

The sound of the video was too low. He didn't hear what Lottie said clearly before pressing the voice button.

Probably because he pressed too heavy, the voice in the video rang in the room in an instant.

It was Lottie's hoarse voice that was almost inaudible.

"Ralph, please wake up. We still have three children."

"If you die, I can't live anymore. I'll die with you."

"Then the three children will become orphans. Can you bear that?"

"If you can't bear that, can you wake up?"

"Without you, we can't..."

The voice made Yuki and Jerry, who had been calm, suddenly become serious.

They hurried over.
