Chapter 371 Hug Wendy

"Lady Faye is extremely pompous. Because to the emperor's affection towards her, she is always causing problems for Lady Ivanka. If she keeps on behaving like this, she will surely be punished severely in the future."

"Shit! This woman is like Helen of Troy. No wonder the emperor fell in love with her at first sight."

"To have so many people despise her character is an indication that she is an incredible actress."

More spiteful comments came one after another. These comments were based on the plot.

Some of the audience began to criticize the actress, though.

"Faye is so shameless and vicious. This is not acting at all. I believe this is Wendy's true self."

"I agree! It's only natural that she acted this way because she's a nasty girl in real life."

"Honestly, I don't get it. This film's director and cast are top-notch. Why did they make Wendy play such a significant role in the movie? This is a serious problem!"

The online harassment went on and even got worse.

Even so, Wendy continued to read the comments, sitting cross legged on the sofa.

All of a sudden, her hand was empty. Before she could react, the phone in her hand was snatched away by Ryan.

"Why did you do that?"

"Stop reading those stupid comments!" Without hesitation, Ryan threw her phone away and looked at her with a gloomy face. "It's going to ruin your mood!"

Wendy looked at Ryan's livid face and burst into laughter. "I think it ruined your mood."

Ryan didn't even bother to deny it. It was like he admitted that the comments indeed ruined his mood. Those hurtful remarks made him wish he could hack the accounts of the people behind them.

"Hey, are you angry?"

Ryan pressed his lips together and said nothing.

"Are you really angry?" With her head tilted to one side, Wendy looked at him and smiled. "Why are you so angry about it? I have no problem with the comments! I won't lose anything just because I'm being bashed online."

Ryan was still in a bad mood.

"Alright, alright. Let's put it this way; the more they criticize me today, the more concerned they will sympathize with me in the future. When that time comes, my career will be skyrocketing!" Wendy comforted him.

However, it didn't seem to work on Ryan.

"Well, let's not mind the comments anymore." Trying to change the subject, Wendy patted Ryan's shoulder and touched her belly with the other. "I'm hungry."

"What do you want to eat?"

"Hotpot!" There was no need for Wendy to think any further. She thought hotpot was the best choice for such a cold day. Speaking of hotpot, the first time Ryan, Wendy, Raymond and Precious ate together, they had hotpot. And it was more than six months ago.

Thinking of this, Ryan stroked Wendy's hair and said, "I'll ask someone to send it here."

"Ray and Precious can't eat spicy food. Let's get a two-flavor hotpot."

"Okay."

As the days went by, Wendy had been constantly a hot topic on social media because of the vile comments from the audience.

However, just like what Wendy said, she gained supporters as the plot unfolded.

The story of Faye began. Her character became more and more completed. The audience who had cursed her began to feel sorry for her, especially after her story with Weston was shown to the audience.

When they saw how Faye's family were exterminated, how Weston died in order to protect Faye, and how Faye jumped off the cliff, holding his dead body, the audience couldn't help but be emotional. They sympathized with her.

"When I watched the scene in which Weston died, I burst into tears. My roommates were so shocked that they wondered what was wrong with me. After I showed this video to them, they all cried!"

"Shit! I'm a man, and I'm crying too. What the hell!"

"Boo...hoo... It's so pitiful. Faye and Weston loved each other so much. Why did they end up like this?"

Countless comments from the crying audience were posted on social media.

These new batch of comments made Wendy breathe a sigh of relief. When she was satisfied reading the comments, she finally put down her phone and wore her apron so she could start cooking porridge.

All of a sudden, the sound of the door being opened from the outside was heard in the ward.

Startled, Wendy turned around, only to see Luke running towards her with his arms open.

Everyone in the room was shocked.

At first, Wendy thought Luke was looking for Ryan. She didn't expect that he would just ignore Ryan and rush to the kitchen.

With his arms wide open, Luke walked straight to where Wendy was standing.

Before Wendy could react, she was held tightly by Luke.

"Uh..." It came so unexpectedly that Wendy froze, holding a spoon in her hand.

It wasn't only Wendy who was stunned. Both Raymond and Precious were also dumbfounded.

Biting the ball pen she was holding, Precious scooted closer to Raymond. "What happened to Uncle?"

Clueless, Raymond spread out his hands. He also wanted to know.

The two of them looked at Ryan and saw that his face turned livid.

Then he stood up and strode to the kitchen, looking like he was about to face a war.

Poor Luke hadn't sensed the danger yet. He burst into tears as he hugged Wendy. "Faye, you are so pitiful. Weston died so miserably. Boo...hoo..."

The corner of Wendy's mouth twitched. 'Has Luke gone mad after seeing the newest episode of the show?' she wondered.

"Luke..."

"Oh my God! You are so pitiful!" Luke was immersed in the plot.

At that moment, Wendy didn't know what to say. She felt it funny that a man like Luke would watch a soap opera.

"Luke..."

"Wendy, can you stop talking for a second?"

"I'm afraid not."

"What?"

"Look behind you."

As he sniffed, Luke did what Wendy tell him to do. It was only then that he saw Ryan entering the kitchen. Dark aura surrounded him. "Ryan..."

A smile appeared on Ryan's lips, but it didn't reach his eyes.

"Luke."

"Alas!" The smile on Ryan's face looked so terrifying that it made Luke's scalp tingle.

"Luke... Are you done hugging Wendy?"

'Huh?' It seemed like Luke just realized what he had done. He slowly looked down on his arms in which Wendy was imprisoned. "Oh my..." In a hurry, he let go of Wendy as if he was burned. He screamed internally. He just hugged Wendy in front of his brother, who was known for being extremely possessive.

'Damn it!' Luke's whole body trembled in fear. "Ryan, let me explain..."

The next second, Luke felt his collar tightened. Ryan grabbed his collar and dragged him out of the kitchen.

"Ryan..."

"Come with me. You should explain what is going on..." "

"Wendy, Help! Please, help me."

However, Wendy only gave Ryan a helpless look.

Seeing this, Luke felt more miserable.
