

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 391 Why Were You Unwilling?

Upon hearing Lottie's harsh words on the other end of the line, Kayden couldn't help furrowing his brows.

"Lottie, Natalia is your friend. How can you just sit by and watch her fall?"

"Why don't I give you more than one million? Just say that you lent it to her. Give her the money and tell her not to humiliate herself anymore!"

The man's words made Lottie smile involuntarily. "Kayden, do you think Natalia is someone who is willing to accept others' help and charity?"

"If she was willing to borrow money from me or accept my help, it would be impossible for her to do her current job."

Kayden lowered his voice in an instant and said, "As a friend, are you willing to watch her fall?"

"Why did she fall?"

Lottie smiled faintly. "She's relying on her own abilities to make money. Why do you say that she's fallen?"

"I think she would prefer to make money in her current way to help her own family rather than ask a friend like me for help."

"At least, she's self-independence."

On the other end of the phone, Kayden was so angry that his knuckles began to turn white.

"You call this self-independence?"

"Lottie, why didn't I notice that your view of the world is so crooked?"

He had thought that as a good friend, Lottie would be able to persuade Natalia!

But he didn't expect that even Lottie felt that there was nothing wrong with Natalia doing this.

Being discussed like this by the whole city and spending the night with an old man in his sixties every day was no problem. Really?

"Am I wrong?"

Lottie laughed coldly. "Kayden, since you want to care about Natalia, go and find her yourself."

"What's the point of hiding behind me?"

"No matter how crooked my view is, I'm better than a coward like you!"

The woman's words made Kayden furious.

"Who are you calling a coward?"

"You want to save the person you should save, but you dare not."

"You were afraid that she would do something stupid to hurt herself, but you didn't dare to say anything."

"What are you if you are not a coward?"

Lottie sniffed. "I think you should reflect more on yourself than discussing my values here."

"Why didn't Natalia find you first after she met with a problem?"

After that, she hung up the phone.

"You have a tougher temper."

Looking at his little wife's aggressive look, Ralph curled his lips into a smile. He gently stretched out his arm and pulled her into his embrace.

"It seems that some child has grown a lot during my coma."

Lottie pursed her lips and looked at him reproachfully. "I'm not a child."

"I don't look like a child anymore."

The man pulled her into his arms and pinched her nose.

"Use special makeup effects and turn yourself into an ugly monster. Change your name to Lucian and open a seminary..."

"Isn't it just a child's behavior?"

Lottie pursed her lips. "Didn't I want to avoid you and let you reflect on yourself?"

How could she have expected him to recognize her so quickly?

Ralph smiled lightly. "Then let me ask you. Are you happy when you run the seminary, or when you are Mrs. Chapman?"

Lottie blinked at him.

"Do you want me to tell the truth?"

The man nodded.

"Then..

. run the seminary."

Lottie changed into a more comfortable position and leaned her head against the man's chest. She looked at the sky and said in a calm voice, "When I run the seminary, though I am ugly, no one know me."

"They are sincerely willing to be friends with me."

"But being Mrs. Chapman is different. Many people are flattering me..."

"My friends are only Natalia and Connie Houghton."

Ralph smiled gently when he heard the woman's words.

He held her face and gently kissed her lips. "Are you still willing to experience such happiness again?"

"Yes."

Lottie frowned and fixed her eyes on Ralph. "Honey, what do you want to do?"

He gently tucked her hair behind her ear. "You'll know in the future."

Lottie pursed her lips and bit his Adam's apple.

"Keep me guessing."

At night.

Mr. Sidney invited Natalia to the restaurant for dinner.

Because it was the day of the payment seven days later. In order to make Mr. Sidney more willing to pay the bill to her, Natalia specially put on an approachable light makeup.

There was also a video of Miss Sidney confessing to Mr. Sidney in her bag.

Seven days ago, she received Director Parry's introduction of this job to teach Miss Sidney.

In the beginning, Natalia didn't know why Director Parry asked Mr. Sidney to spend more than one million yuan on teaching Miss Sidney acting skills.

When she entered Miss Sidney's room and saw her photos full of walls and cabinets, Natalia understood it.

It turned out that Miss Sidney was also one of her fanatical fans.

Her work gave Miss Sidney strength and taught her how to perform.

Miss Sidney lost interest in acting because she retired from the amusement circle and married Kayden.

Later, she announced that she would leave the entertainment industry completely, which made Miss Sidney depressed every day.

So Mr. Sidney was willing to spend a lot of money for her to do psychological therapy and acting guidance for Miss Sidney every night...

It was to make his daughter no longer rebel and return to normal.

At first, Natalia felt that she was unable to do this job.

But what she didn't expect was...

An idol was very powerful. As long as she went to Miss Sidney's room and chatted with her, Miss Sidney would change from irritable to gentle...

"So, during these seven days, Miss Sidney has changed a lot."

This was also why Mr. Sidney was willing to book a table in a top restaurant like the Good Luck Pavilion and treat her to dinner.

Sitting in the private room, Natalia took a deep breath and took out her mobile phone to send a message to Zack Ross.

After tonight, she could get 1.

2 million yuan to treat her mother!

Mom would get better, so would Dad...

Their whole family would be fine in the future!

At this time, the door of the private room was opened.

Natalia took a deep breath and put down her phone. She looked up with a smile. "Mr. Sidney..."

Before she could finish her words, her smile froze on her face.

The woman fixed her eyes on the man in black standing at the door.

"Kayden?"

"I am here."

Kayden licked the blood from the corner of his mouth and tidied up his messy clothes.

"Are you waiting for your old lover to come to see you?"

"He won't come."

Natalia's eyes instantly widened.

She frowned and glared at Kayden angrily.

"What nonsense are you talking about? What old lover?"

After that, she saw the blood on his face.

A bad feeling welled up in her heart...

Natalia bit her lip and glared at Kayden.

"What did you do to Mr. Sidney?"

Kayden chuckled and walked over to hold Natalia's jaw. "What's wrong? Are you reluctant?"

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 392 Was He All Right?

There was no surprise on Natalia's face since Kayden could stand up.

She bit her lip and looked up at the man in front of her coldly. "Where is Mr. Sidney?"

Kayden hard narrowed his eyes.

His legs, which had not stood up for a long time, began to tremble.

According to the doctor, he couldn't stand for more than five minutes.

However, it had been a long time since he had beaten the old man until he kicked the door open and walked in front of Natalia.

However, he did not want to fall in front of Natalia, let alone be looked down upon.

In the past, he didn't want to stand up.

On the one hand, he was afraid of hardship and exhaustion. On the other hand, he wanted to escape from the mess of inheriting the Chapman Group.

But now...

Seeing Natalia went to the bad, he felt that he had to stand up at this time.

If she was shameless and continued to degenerate, he would at least be able to stop her!

Just like this!

However, what he hadn't expected was that when she saw him again, the first thing she cared about wasn't his legs.

Instead, she cared about the old man.

The man narrowed his eyes, and stared at Natalia coldly. "What's the relationship between you and that old man?"

"Natalia, the rumor rose in whole city that you have fallen and become a lover of an old man in his sixties."

"And you're still dating him openly..."

As he spoke, he looked at Natalia's face worriedly.

"All the reporters making secret inquire are waiting outside!"

"Do you know that you are now a joke to everyone?"

"You used to be a person with self-esteem. To me, you are also the most important artist in my company and my most important friend."

"So when you were in the entertainment, I protected you. Everyone in the entertainment knows that Natalia is an actress who would never shoot half-naked and bed scenes!"

"But now, what's wrong with you?"

"You quit the entertainment and blamed me for paving the way for you to be an actress. Well, I accept it. You just want to make a clean break with me."

"But after all, you are my ex-wife and my best friend."

"I beg you. Would you please not to be so shameless after making a clean break with me?"

"On a date with a gray hair old man in his sixties, as his lover... staying all night long with him..."

"I am shame on you!"

Kayden's words made Natalia's heart sink.

A heart that had been standing by the cliff was pushed down by Kayden.

She stared into Kayden's eyes.

She found that maybe she had never known him before.

Or perhaps, he had never known her before.

She was indeed.

..had thought of getting the money as soon as possible by selling himself.

But in the end, she couldn't.

If it weren't for the current job that Mr. Parry introduced to her, she might have gone to find other jobs.

But no matter what, she could no longer sell herself.

She saw the rumors on the Internet.

But she could do nothing.

She was no longer a member of the entertainment. She could no longer clarify it by herself, let alone spend useless money to hire internet supporters.

Once, Stella had called her and asked if she wanted help. She and her brother could support her to against the public opinion online.

At that time, Natalia was indeed tempted.

But on second thought, she still refused Stella.

She was afraid of being seen through that it was internet supports helping her. People might said that she was still playing those tricks after retired from the entertainment.

Since she wanted to leave, she had to leave completely.

However, when Mr. Sidney mentioned it when he sent her out a few days ago.

Mr. Sidney promised her that when she finished all her work and would never go to the Sidney villa again, he would announce to the media his real relationship with her...

After all, since the operation many years ago, the old man always lived a sexless life.

Every time Natalia went to teach Miss Sidney, the surveillance camera at home would take photos of which room her was entering and leaving...

Natalia was extremely grateful for Mr.

Parry's help.

She had thought that after getting the reward from Mr. Sidney tonight, she could not only get the money to save her mother, but also let Mr. Sidney clarify it for her.

Everything would have been going in the best direction.

However, Natalia did not expect Kayden to show up halfway.

She bit her lip and looked at Kayden's face coldly and angrily.

"Mr. Sidney is a man of few desires."

"He had been vegetarian and Buddhist for many years after having a castration. He is not that kind of person."

"Neither am I."

"I came to Mr. Parry's house to tutor his daughter."

After that, Natalia threw Kayden's hand off her jaw.

Shocked.

Kayden, who was in high spirits, finally felt weak in his legs after being thrown by Natalia. He fell to the ground.

However, Natalia, the woman who used to rush to support Kayden every time she saw him fall, turned around with a sneer and looked at the man who fell to the ground coldly.

"Kayden, I don't know why did you come here to accuse me."

"You ruined my plan. If Mr. Sidney is not willing to pay me today..."

"I'll hang myself at your door tomorrow. I won't let you off even if I become a ghost!"

This was the most vicious curse she could think of.

She wiped away her tears and turned to leave.

Although she had decided not to cry for this man anymore.

At this moment, she couldn't help it.

"Natalia, Natalia!"

As he called out her name, Kayden tried to stand up with his hands supporting himself. However, his legs, which were completely exhausted, made him fail.

The man bit his lip and picked up his mobile phone to call his assistant Cais Holland.

"Come here!"

After coming out of the restaurant, Natalia saw Mr. Parry's car at a glance.

The old man was smoking in the passenger seat.

Seeing that Natalia had gone out, the old man waved to her.

Natalia bit her lip and quickly walked over. She opened the back door of the car and sat in.

When she got into the car, she noticed a little smell of blood.

She frowned and gritted her teeth. "Mr. Sidney, I'm sorry."

"My ex-husband, Kayden, he..."

"He has a deep affection for you."

Mr. Sidney smiled faintly and wiped the blood on his body with a tissue.

"I told him that I used to be a soldier. Although I'm old, my strength is still enough to deal with an invalid like him."

"But he refuses to admit defeat."

As he spoke, the old man wiped the blood off his finger. "Did you see him?"

"Is he all right?" .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 393 Start Over

Mr. Parry's words stunned Natalia.

She stared blankly at the blood on the old man's hand and his uninjured body. "You..."

"You're not injured?"

"How can I be hurt?"

Mr. Sidney laughed and said, "Although I am old, I am in good health. How can I lost to a sick man?"

"But..."

The old man frowned and said, "It seems that I have beat his old wounds cracked accidentally. He was bleeding."

After that, he glanced at Natalia indifferently. "Didn't you see that?"

Sitting next to the old man, Natalia felt her brain is in a mess.

Kayden was the one who injured but not Mr. Sidney?

However, she couldn't tell from Kayden's expression that he was injured!

Looking at her worrying, Mr. Sidney reached out and opened the car door. "It seems that you still love your ex-husband."

"Go and have a look."

Natalia pursed her lips. Thinking of Kayden's attitude just now, she held back.

She slammed the door shut. "No."

Kayden had divorced her a long time ago. Whether he lived or not had nothing to do with her!

Moreover, Kayden had insulted her so much just now...

"You have guts. Deserved to be the woman my daughter likes."

Mr. Sidney gave her a thumbs-up and stuffed a check in her hand. "This is the reward for your work this period of time. Take them to treat your parents."

"Thank you."

Mr. Sidney ordered the driver to take Natalia home with a smile while looking out of the window and saying,

"In fact, apart from being an actress, you have other ways."

"For example, this time, you really taught my stubborn daughter very well. This morning, she went to the filming team obediently."

"She also said that after finishing the several scenes I arranged for her, she would leave the entertainment and find out what she really wants to do."

After that, the old man glanced at Natalia and said,

"I think you can try to be a teacher."

He took out a business card from his pocket and handed it to Natalia.

"He's the son of a friend of mine.

He's professional at education works. You can contact him to see if there's a suitable job."

"A good boy. Even if he doesn't have a suitable job for you, it's also a good choice to be his girlfriend."

Natalia put away the business card and couldn't help smiling at the old man.

"Thank you."

"I'll think about it."

In fact, she had no interesting at...education at all.

After getting 1.2 million dollars this time, she wanted to go back to her hometown to take care of her mother for a period of time. When her mother was recovered after the operation, she would make other plans.

Soon, Mr. Sidney sent her to the door.

After getting out of the car, Natalia watched the old man's car leave and could not help frowning.

She wondered how Kayden was now.

In fact, she knew what caused the cracked wound ...

Not long ago, when she went out with Kayden, she met a anti-fans who took pictures of her. In order to cover her, Kayden was finally hurt by the anti-fans with a knife.

The wound at that time was not small, but Kayden said with a smile that comparing with his legs, which were about to be disabled, knife wounds were nothing.

That day, Natalia felt distressed for him for a long time. She stewed soup for him according recipes and swore to him that she would be fully armed when she went out with him in the future. She would not let such a thing happen again.

Too many things had happened these days. If it weren't for Mr.

Sidney, Natalia would have forgotten...

In fact, she and Kayden had a past worth remembering.

But now all these memories...

were nothing to her.

The woman took a deep breath and drove away some unrealistic ideas in her mind.

Why would Kayden need her help and care now?

He was the young master of the Chapman Family, who was accompanied by so many people whenever...

He was not like her, who was alone. Even if she died in the rental apartment, no one would know.

With this thought in mind, Natalia not only returned home with peace of mind, but also fought for cheap train tickets on the Internet after returning home. She planned to go back to her hometown tomorrow morning to treat her mother.

In the Chapman Manor.

Lying on the sofa, Kayden was being manipulated by the doctor.

"In addition to the wound on his leg, the wound in his abdomen was also torn."

The doctor lowered his head to treat his wound and frowned. "Mr. Chapman, I've told you that even if you can stand up, you can only tread lightly."

"How can you fight with someone?"

"Now that your bones are damaged again, you have to sit in the wheelchair for two more months."

Kayden looked very unhappy. He glanced at Lottie and Ralph sitting in the distance and thinking,

"Isn't it all Lottie's fault?"

Even though she knew exactly what relationship Natalia had with Mr. Sidney, she did not make it clear to him and let him misunderstand Natalia. He even fought Mr. Sidney finally.

Mr. Sidney was a veteran retired from the army!]

Kayden didn't know much about fighting, and he had just recovered from his illness...

The old man didn't break his hands and feet again, which was already a great honor for him!

Thinking of this, Kayden couldn't help but glare at Lottie again.

Ralph narrowed his eyes and gently held Lottie in his arms. He glanced at Kayden and said lightly,

"Mr. Sidney and your grandfather are old friends. If you check carefully before, you won't make such a mistake."

"This is your fault. Don't blame Lottie."

Kayden curled his lips and said, "But she misled me."

Lottie shrugged her shoulders.

"I admit that I did mislead you."

"But Kayden, have you ever thought that this is mainly your problem?"

"If you really trust Natalia, will you doubt that she will do such a thing?"

"Just like Ralph and I..."

As she spoke, she turned to look at Ralph. "Would you believe it if someone told you that I did such things?"

Ralph gracefully picked up a strawberry and stuffed it into Lottie's mouth.

"I will beat off that person's teeth."

Kayden was speechless.

He had been injured and had lost his wife. Why should he be here to suffer from watching Lottie and Ralph showing off their love?

"To tell the truth, Kayden."

Seeing that Kayden didn't speak, Lottie took a deep breath and finally looked at the man in front of her seriously.

"I think you should reconsider your relationship with Natalia."

"You don't trust her so much. You won't be happy together."

"Why don't you give up on her and find another woman to start over?"

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 394 Are You Sure You Want to Continue?

"Bullshit!"

Kayden swept a cold glance at her. "I don't trust her, do I? I'm just afraid that she'll be fooled and go astray!"

He supported himself to sit up and took a deep breath. "You have no idea how Natalia has been protected well by me all these years!"

"I won't allow her to shoot all the naked scenes, and all the scenes of kiss and sex."

"In my agent company, I have always used the best way to protect her!"

"I protected her so well that most of the time, she thought that the entertainment was so simple and she could refuse those movies and scenes as her wishes!"

Kayden reached out and knocked on his head. "I raised her into a child, so when she's out of my control..."

"I'm really afraid that she might go astray."

"When I saw the photos of her going in and out of the old man's house on the Internet, I really thought that she began to go astray after leaving me. That's why I was so angry."

The man took a deep breath. "Maybe it's my fault. I thought too fragile and too simple of her."

After that, he could not help laughing at himself. "That's right."

"How can a woman like her, who has been framed by Yara and misunderstood by me for so many years, be really fragile and innocent?"

"Maybe the simple one is me."

After that, he raised his eyes and glanced at Lottie and Ralph indifferently. "Thank you for clearing Natalia's name and making me realize my mistake."

"I am leaving."

Lottie frowned as she watched Kayden leaving alone in his wheelchair.

For some reason, she suddenly felt that Kayden seemed to be...a little pitiful.

She sighed and held Ralph's hand. She turned to look at him and said, "Tell me, Kayden..."

"Probably because of concern."

The man pulled Lottie into his embrace and said indifferently, "Kayden and Natalia have been working together for so many years. Natalia has always listened to him and followed him."

"Now that Natalia has taken the initiative to divorce him and cut off all ties with him, he is very uncomfortable. And then he knew that Natalia is actually the pen pal with him back then. He realized that he had always misunderstood Natalia over years..

."

"That's why he was so anxious and lost his mind about everything about Natalia."

"In fact, it's good to be beaten up. At least he can wake up."

Lottie pursed her lips and could only let out a faint "hmm".

After a while, she came out of his arms and took out something from her pocket. "By the way, honey, Elijah asked me to give this to you."

The man looked down at what Lottie handed him.

It was a small transparent self-sealing bag. Inside the bag were several bank cards and bankbooks, as well as two ownership certificates of shopping mall.

They all belonged to Ian.

Ralph narrowed his eyes. "Where did he get it?"

If he remembered correctly, Lottie had told him that Ian had given all his property to Yara.

At that time, Ralph had just woken up, and Yara was already at the airport. It was too late for him to ask his men to the airport to get the things back.

Ralph and Lottie had once planned to find out how much Ian's previous assets were, and then gift them to him with equivalent things.

After all, Ian had helped Ralph a lot during his coma.

If both the Chapman Group and the DS Group knew that Ralph was ill, they would definitely suffer a great turmoil.

However, because of Ian, the two groups didn't suffer any turbulence.

Moreover, depended on his acting skills and hard work, no one found any different from him and Ralph.

This alone was enough to make Ralph admire him.

Not to mention giving him a share of the assets that were equal to his previous assets, even if it was doubled, it was worth it.

However, neither Lottie nor Ralph had expected that their sensible Elijah would actually take back the money Ian had given Yara!

"It's very simple."

On the railing upstairs, Fabian sat there with a smile.

He looked at his daddy and mommy, who were hugging each other, and explained calmly,

"We asked Uncle Sean to stop Yara in the airport, saying that Daddy wants to see her."

"She was frightened. In order not to let you, the devil, catch her, she bribed Uncle Sean with all her money!"

"That's the way we got the money!"

The little fellow's words stunned Lottie.

After a long while, she helplessly rubbed her eyebrows. Smart guys.

Compared to Lottie seeing light suddenly, Ralph simply raised his head and glanced at Fabian upstairs.

"Who are you calling the devil?"

"Daddy, you!"

Fabian naughtily stuck out his tongue and said, "Not only me. Many people said so!"

Ralph narrowed his eyes and said, "Who? Give me a list."

Fabian pursed her lips and pointed to the little woman in the man's arms.

"Mommy told me that you're the devil!"

Ralph frowned.

He lowered his eyes to look at Lottie in his arms. "You?"

Lottie, "..."

What was the business with her when the father and son were chatting?

The woman pursed her lips and broke free from his arms. "I... I didn't say anything!"

After that, she went upstairs and went back to the bedroom.

Ralph smiled lightly as he followed her upstairs.

The man pushed open the bedroom door and gently pressed his body against Lottie.

"Mrs. Chapman, do you think I'm the devil?"

"Do you want to experience what a real devil is?"

Lottie instantly blushed!

She reached out to push the man's chest.

"You... you haven't recovered yet, don't..."

The man smiled evilly and gently bit her earlobe.

"I am indeed not fully recovered."

"But it's enough to torture you."

Lottie was stunned. Before she could say anything else, the man's kiss stopped her...

Early the next morning, Natalia took the earliest train back to her hometown, a small county.

After getting off the train, she took a taxi directly to the hospital and rushed to the counter.

"Randa Parry's medical fees, I will pay Randa Parry's medical fees!"

The cashier at the front desk frowned and glanced at her, while tapping on the keyboard. "Why is there another person here to pay medical fees for Randa Parry?"

After that, she frowned and turned to look at Natalia.

"In the morning, a Mr. Chapman paid two million dollars for Randa Parry. After paying for her surgery, there are still eight hundred thousand left."

"Are you sure you want to pay for her?" .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 395 Let's Meet Again

Natalia was stunned.

She could not believe it. "Who... who are you talking about?"

"A man surnamed Chapman, sitting in a wheelchair, said that he was the son-in-law of Randa Parry."

After the nurse finished speaking, she looked Natalia up and down. "You might be her daughter, right?"

"Your husband paid the medical expenses for your mother. Don't you know?"

Natalia was in a great shock.

She picked up the bank card on the counter and rushed upstairs.

"Kayden, thanks to you. If it weren't for you, your mother-in-law wouldn't have survived last night."

As soon as Natalia rushed upstairs, she heard her father's voice.

She froze.

Then, Kayden's voice came from the ward with a suggestion of smile,

"Dad, please regarded me as an outsider. It's my duty to take care of mom."

"Natalia is busy with her work. It's my duty to help here."

Mr. Ross was silent for a long time on Kayden's words.

After a while, he sighed. "What is she busy with?"

"We all know about what happened to her."

"She announced that she would withdraw from the entertainment industry unilaterally and divorced you with no compensation..."

"If it weren't for the fact that we knew that she was having a hard time now, we wouldn't have kept the secret that her mother seriously ill from her."

Mr. Ross's words made Natalia cover her mouth subconsciously outside the ward.

Tears fell silently.

So...

It turned out that her mother's condition was more serious than what her father had told her before...

It's all her fault. It's all her fault for being impulsive...

If she hadn't been so easily threatened by Yara, she wouldn't have...

In the ward, Kayden sighed lightly, "She's throwing a tantrum at me."

"It's just her temporarily angry words whether she quit the entertainment industry or divorce."

"When she is not angry with me, I will let her return to the entertainment industry, and I will let her...

celebrate a marriage with me again."

The man's words stunned Natalia outside the door.

She bit her lip and stood there in a daze with her head rumbling.

She wanted to rush in and tell her father that it was not like this, but she was afraid that her father and mother, who had just been rescued, could not accept it.

But if she didn't go in...

It meant that she had acquiesced to Kayden's words.

She didn't want to have anything to do with him at all.

"Sister?"

After buying breakfast from the outside, Zack Ross got out of the elevator and saw Natalia standing outside the ward with tears streaming down her face.

He leaned over and took a closer look. It was indeed Natalia!

Zack Ross frowned slightly and whispered into Natalia's ear, "Why are you standing outside? Why don't you go in?"

Natalia bit her lip and glanced at Zack Ross. She stretched out her hand and pulled Zack Ross to the stairwell.

"Why is Kayden here?"

"What's more, dad just said that if it weren't for Kayden, mom wouldn't have survived last night. What's going on?"

"Is mom's illness not as simple as you told me on the phone?"

A string of words from Natalia made Zack Ross frown.

After a while, he sighed.

"Mom's illness... Dad and I did hide it from you."

"We thought that she just had the illnesses because of jumping from a building, but after the examination, we found that her two kidneys..."

"One of them has completely necrosed, and the other has been damaged by half. She needs to have her kidney changed."

"But dad and I have matched the kidney type with mom's. We are not matched."

"I've found all the suitable matching kidneys for my mother, but I can't find one..."

Zack Ross sighed and shook his head.

"There was something wrong with mom's kidney last night."

Dad and I couldn't take out the money for the rescue."

"We know that you don't have the job as an actress now, and you won't be able to earn money in a short time."

"So..."

Zack Ross lowered his head, "I just called my brother-in-law."

"Coincidentally, when I called my brother-in-law, he had arrived at the small county here."

"In less than ten minutes after the call was connected, he went to the hospital to pay the bill, and mom had a operation smoothly..."

After listening to Zack Ross's words, Natalia was really angry and helpless.

She reached out and knocked on Zack Ross's head.

"Haven't I told you many times?"

"I can make money, I can make money!"

"Besides, it's not like you don't know about my divorce with Kayden!"

"Why do you still call him brother-in-law?"

Zack Ross lowered his head.

"But brother-in-law said that you two haven't gone through the procedures to get your divorce certificate yet."

"So... you are still his wife now."

Natalia rolled her eyes helplessly.

During this period of time, she had been busy making money, so she forgot to get her divorce certificate with Kayden!

Thinking of this, she took a deep breath and turned directly into the ward.

"Natalia."

Mr. Ross and Mrs. Ross smiled at Natalia when she entered the ward.

Mrs. Ross leaned against the bed and looked at Natalia with a doting smile.

"Kiddy, why did you come so late?"

"Kayden visited me last night. I asked him where you were and he said you were too busy, so he didn't want to disturb you."

"Look at him, and then look at you!"

Mr. Ross quickly added,

"Yes, yes, Kayden didn't sleep well last night because of your mother."

"Well, you just came so late.

Her parents' words made Natalia's scalp tighten.

She intended to ask Kayden to leave and tell him not to talk nonsense. They would get divorced sooner or later!

However, in the face of her parents' kind and doting criticism, she couldn't say those hurtful words.

She bit her lip and put down the things in her hand. Finally, she sighed helplessly, turned around, walked to Mrs. Ross's side, and held her hand silently, "Mom, do you feel better now?"

Mrs. Ross sighed and raised her other hand to pat the back of her hand.

"As long as you get along well with Kayden, mom will also feel well."

After that, she couldn't help but sigh and look at Kayden, then at Natalia.

"You two are quarreling. Why did you talk about divorce?"

"Your father and I thought you were really divorced. I cried for a long time..."

Natalia's mother's words made her heart sink.

She turned her face away. Just as she was about to say something, Kayden, who was standing beside her, laughed and said, "Natalia is childish. If she encounters any setbacks, she will talk nonsense."

"It's all my fault that I have always spoiled her."

Mrs. Ross sighed. Just as she was about to say something, Natalia's phone rang.

It was from a strange number.

Natalia thought it was about the rental apartment, so she didn't go out and just answered the phone directly.

"Hello, is that Miss Ross?"

On the other end of the phone, there was a gentle male voice.

"I am the son of Mr. Sidney's friend. He have mentioned me to you."

"My name is Lincoln Yung. Can we meet when are you free?"

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 396 It's Too Late

Natalia was stunned for a moment before she remembered that Mr. Sidney had did introduce her to a boy in the education sector last night.

At that time, Mr. Sidney said that he hoped that Natalia would try to enter the education industry and get to know Mr. Yung.

She didn't expect Mr. Sidney to not only give her Lincoln Yung's business card, but also sent her information to Lincoln Yung.

The woman bit her lip, glanced at the three people in the room, and smiled apologetically, "Wait a minute."

After saying that, Natalia took a deep breath, gave her parents her salute and turned to leave.

When she passed by Kayden, the man reached out and grabbed Natalia's arm, "Who's that?"

Natalia frowned and glanced at him, "Do I need to tell you?"

Kayden hesitated for a moment before letting go of her wrist.

But he couldn't help but lower his voice and say,

"It hasn't been long since you came back. Don't always make phone calls with others and spend more time with your parents."

Natalia could not help rolling her eyes at the man.

She really wanted to tell him that her parents were no longer his parents-in-law!

However, Mr. Yung was still holding on, so she didn't want to waste time on Kayden.

Taking a deep breath, Natalia bypassed Kayden and walked out of the ward.

"Hello, Mr. Yung, I'm sorry to keep you waiting."

"Yes, I am Natalia. Mr. Sidney mentioned you to me yesterday. I was thinking about contacting you after finishing my work..."

Through the door, the crisp sound of Natalia was getting farther and farther away.

Sitting in a wheelchair, Kayden's eyes gradually dimmed.

In front of him, Mr. Ross and Mrs. Ross looked at each other, and the couple looked up at Kayden at the same time, "Who... is Mr. Yung?"

Kayden pursed his lips.

How did he know who Mr. Yung was?

Because he had misunderstood Natalia before, he investigated Natalia's daily trajectory clearly during last night and this morning.

In addition to meeting a director but failing to make a deal, she had only visited her rental apartment and Mr. Sidney's house.

There was no one else in her communication record that she had contacted except Mr. Sidney and Miss Sidney.

Where did Mr. Yung come from?

According to her words, he was introduced by Mr. Sidney last night?

Kayden couldn't help frowning.

"Could it be that this old guy didn't vent his anger after beating me up yesterday and sent me rival in love?"

Even thinking so, Kayden still smiled gently and said, "Maybe..."

"Maybe that's introduced by someone else who work together with her.

Mr. Ross heaved a sigh of relief.

He held Kayden's hand and said,

"Kayden, Natalia has been spoiled by us since she was a child. You should be more patient."

"For many times, she is like a child..."

"Yes."

Mrs. Ross also sighed, "We haven't contacted her for a long time. I don't know why she quarreled with you..."

"Is it because of Yara?"

"Don't take it to heart, Natalia always thinks that she was the one who communicated with you, not Yara."

"It has been so many years. Don't mind it..."

Hearing Mrs. Ross mention Yara, Kayden's face darkened.

Noticing his expression, Mr. Ross quickly glared at Mrs. Ross.

"Why did you mention Yara at such a happy moment?"

"She's been dead for so many years. It's hard to explain. Kayden will understand."

"What are you talking about?"

Mrs. Ross was stunned by Mr. Ross's scolding and quickly lowered her head.

"I said something wrong, I said something wrong..

."

Sitting in the wheelchair, Kayden frowned as he looked at the couple.

Zack Ross, who was standing aside, didn't take it seriously, "It's just a trivial matter. Only you care about it..."

"My brother-in-law must have not cared about it."

After that, he raised his eyebrows at Kayden and said, "Kayden, don't you agree?"

After a moment of silence, Kayden raised his head and said, "I still care."

His words silenced the family members in the room.

Zack Ross stared at Kayden in a daze and felt nervous.

No way, no way!

It had been so many years, but Kayden still couldn't let it go.

"Didn't my sister stop arguing about affair between he and Yara since long time ago?"

Why did Kayden say that he cared about it?

The family members looked at each other and did not dare to speak.

Kayden's heart ached when he saw their expressions.

How badly did Yara hurt this family?

Or was he really stubborn for Yara in the past?

Why did they not even dare to tell the truth after so many years...

But he still needed to confirm something.

The man took a deep breath and looked up at Zack Ross, "Zack."

"I need you to give me a definite answer."

"Back then..."

"Was your sister Natalia imitating Yara's handwriting or Yara imitating Natalia's handwriting?"

Zack Ross was stunned. He didn't know how to answer the question.

In fact, he had already told the truth for many times.

On one occasion, Zack Ross even fought with Kayden because Kayden misunderstood Natalia.

But he just didn't believe it.

Afterwards, Natalia told Zack Ross not to pursue the matter further. Kayden wouldn't listen to him.

For his sister, Zack Ross could only change his statements and never mention it again.

After all, Natalia was the person involved.

But now, Kayden asked this question again since so many years had passed.

Zack Ross was silent for a long while, and finally took a deep breath.

"Since you asked me, I can't lie to you."

"After so many years, my answer has never changed."

"Yara imitated my sister's handwriting. I have a lot of evidence. If you are willing to go back to the Ross family with me, I can show you."

"In the former years, it had always been my sister who had communicated with you. Later, after Yara learned my sister's handwriting, she intercepted the letter you sent to my sister and then write to you in the tone of my sister."

"After that, the person who communicated with you completely became her."

His words made Kayden's heart ache slightly.

He could even imagine how disappointed and helpless Natalia was while waiting for his letter.

He lowered his voice, "Your sister found out later. Why didn't you tell me the truth?"

Zack Ross rolled his eyes.

"Wasn't Yara diagnosed with a terminal disease at that time?"

"She said that being with you is her last wish and asked my sister to fulfill it. My sister is so kind. How could she refuse?"

After that, Zack Ross looked at Kayden helplessly.

"I thought you would find out by yourself, but you couldn't find it at all. You misunderstood my sister after Yara died."

Kayden lowered his head and nodded.

"It's my fault... I'm sorry to Natalia."

"You're sorry?"

At this time, the door was pushed open. Natalia stood by the door and looked at him coldly.

"It's too late."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 397

Finding the Suitable Kidney

The appearance of Natalia instantly silenced the four people in the ward.

Sitting in the wheelchair, Kayden stared at the woman standing at the door in a daze.

A trace of embarrassment appeared on his cold face.

"You... heard everything."

"Yes."

Natalia took a deep breath and strode in, "You never believed in what happened in those years. No matter what I said, you don't believe it."

"Now you tell me that you feel sorry for me?"

"Kayden, once you treated me as a normal person, you wouldn't turn a deaf ear to my words."

"Now that Yara was back and she's gone."

"You finally know what kind of person Yara is. Why are you looking for me again? You said that you were sorry to me and paid for my mother's medical expenses?"

"I don't need the overdue apology or regret."

The woman took a deep breath, grabbed Kayden's wheelchair, and pushed him out of the ward.

Finally, Natalia threw the bank card from her hand to Kayden.

"Here are two hundred thousand dollars, which is my income from working in the Sidney family recently."

"You paid three hundred thousand dollars for my mother. I can't withdraw the rest for the time being. I owe you one hundred thousand dollars."

"I've just talked to Mr. Yung about work. I'll earn one hundred thousand dollars sooner or later. I'll pay you back when I earn it!"

After that, the woman slammed the door of the ward.

Closing the door, she pressed her head against the door, and her tears fell silently.

She covered her face with her hands and her body gradually slid down. Finally, she fell to the ground.

What a disappointment.

She had made up her mind not to cry for Kayden again.

Why couldn't she hold it back?

She thought that the reason why Kayden came here to take care of her mother and pay her medical expenses was that he felt sorry for what had happened last night, because he knew that he was wrong about her.

Unexpectedly, he came here for what happened in the past.

Since Kayden already knew that she was the girl he writing letters to and falling in love with.

Then why did he do that yesterday?

Why did he doubt her behaviour?

Back then he mistaken her as Yara, he believed her unconditionally no matter what she said or did!

But when this little fairy whom he communicated with became her...

He didn't even believe his little fairy!

Was she not as good as Yara, or was it because in Kayden's eyes, Natalia was not trustworthy, no matter what her identity was?

"Sister..."

Zack Ross walked over, gently held Natalia's hand, and said in a low voice,

"Brother-in-law has known your identity and known that he was wrong. He came here to pay for mom's medical expenses. He also said that he would chase after you again..."

"Isn't it a good thing?"

"Why do you..."

"Stop asking."

Natalia cried out of breath and threw herself into Zack Ross's arms.

Men would not understand what women cared about.

Moreover, Zack Ross had been taking care of his mother in the countryside. He had no idea about the rumors about her in Rexwell, let alone the words that Kayden had said to humiliate her last night...

She was just crying. She just felt that what she had done for Kayden over the years was not worth it.

It didn't matter if he didn't know that she was his little fairy, but he knew it now.

He knew everything.

But he still felt that she would sell him out to Mr. Sidney for money!

Mr. and Mrs. Ross were stunned by Natalia's behavior.

The couple looked at each other with embarrassment and uneasiness on their faces.

Mr. Ross walked over and gently rubbed Natalia's head.

"Natalia, what happened?"

"Can you... become reconciled with Kayden?"

Natalia shook her head desperately.

"Impossible, it's impossible for the rest of my life!"

"When I return to Rexwell this time, I will divorce him. As soon as I get back, I will divorce..."

She sobbed and said,

"It's my fault. I just wanted to announce a divorce with him and forgot to get a divorce certificate..."

"It's my fault..."

Through the door, Kayden listened to Natalia's collapsing cry. He silently held the armrest of the wheelchair with both hands, and then clenched it tightly again and again.

He wanted to open the door directly, hugged Natalia, and knelt on the ground to admit his mistake to her.

But...

He was even more aware of how stubborn Natalia was.

Even if he knelt on the ground, hugged her feet and begged her, she would not forgive him.

What she said meant separation.

She wanted a divorce...

He couldn't stop it at all.

The man closed his eyes with a complicated expression on his face.

Was he really going to give up on Natalia like this?

He couldn't do it.

He owed her so much but he had no time to compensate her.

There were so many misunderstandings about her that he didn't have time to apologize to her.

"Sir."

Cais Holland, his subordinate, could not help but say,

"Why don't ask Mr. Chapman for some advice about how to coax a girl?"

"I remember... the conflict between Mrs. and Mr. Chapman was even more complex, but Mr. Chapman coaxed his wife..."

Kayden sighed and nodded silently.

Perhaps at this time, only Lottie and Ralph could help him.

He rolled his wheelchair and was about to leave when he saw Mrs. Ross's attending doctor coming over.

He frowned and stopped the doctor, "How is my mother-in-law..."

The doctor sighed.

"We still can't find a matching kidney. We can't find a suitable one in the surrounding small cities. You can only add more money to expand the scope and search in Rexwell..."

After a moment of silence, Kayden asked, "How to find out if the kidney source is suitable?"

"To do a screening."

"How about taking me to have a try?"

Natalia cried in the ward for a long time.

After a long while, when she finally stopped crying, Mrs. Ross held her hands and sighed lightly.

"It's all my fault."

"If I hadn't made that decision, something wouldn't have happened..."

"You wouldn't gone through everything now, either..."

Tears welled up in her eyes as she spoke, "Your father originally wanted the hospital to help me find a kidney source for kidney transplantation..."

"How about... forget it."

"It doesn't matter whether I do the transplantation or not, we need to return the one hundred thousand dollars that Kayden paid..."

"I'll be discharged in the afternoon, okay?"

Natalia gritted her teeth and shook her head desperately.

"No..."

"No."

She sniffed, "Mr. Yung, who I have contacted today, is a very good person."

"He asked me to work for him, and he can give me an advance salary."

"And he doesn't mind if I once married someone else or that I have a patient in my family."

"After I meet him, if he is not bad, I will marry him. The man introduced by Mr. Sidney will not be wrong."

"We will be rich then. We will be rich..."

Before she could finish her words, the door of the ward was knocked open.

Mrs. Ross's attending doctor came in with a smile.

"Mrs. Ross, congratulations!"

"We've found a suitable kidney source for you!" .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 398 You Are Still Worried About Me

Was there a suitable kidney source?"

This news lit up the eyes of the four members of the Ross family in the room!

Natalia stood up excitedly and rushed to the doctor.

"Really?"

"Didn't you say that our town is too small to find a suitable kidney donor?"

"How did you find him suddenly?"

The doctor was a little embarrassed by Natalia's question. He cleared his throat awkwardly and said,

"A volunteer knew that Mrs. Ross needed kidney transplant, so he did a test, which proved a successful matching between him and your mother..."

Afraid that Natalia would find something, The doctor quickly changed the topic.

"Anyway, it's good to find an available kidney."

"I've checked Mrs. Ross's deposit in the hospital. There is still $800,000 left, which is completely enough for the operation, so we will do the operation in a few days."

Natalia was ecstatic.

She had thought that it would take a long time to find an available kidney donor for her mother, and she was ready for a long-term slog.

To her surprise, in less than a day after she returned, a proper kidney donor had been secured.

She was extremely excited.

"Can I meet this volunteer?"

"I want to thank him in person!"

The doctor shook his head. "I'm sorry, Ms. Ross. The donor doesn't want you to be stressed, so he chose not to meet you."

"We won't reveal the information of the donor's. I'm sorry."

The doctor then gave a few simple instructions and left.

Natalia stood there watching the doctor leave. Her heart was filled with warmth.

She was surprised that there was such a selfless and kind-hearted person in this small town.

Knowing that her mother couldn't find the kidney donor, he was willing to do the test.

The test last night proved a matching, but he didn't want to reveal his name, and didn't want to accept their gratitude...

However, since the kidney replacement operation should be done as soon as possible, she couldn't return the $800,000 to Kayden immediately.

"Dad, Mom, have some food."

Zack opened the four sets of breakfast that he had bought, handed two of them to Mr. and Mrs. Ross, gave Natalia one, and had the last one for himself.

Sitting on a chair on the side, Zack asked Natalia to eat while he was eating.

"I bought food for Kayden, me, Mom and Dad."

"But Kayden is not in. Natalia, you eat it.

Don't waste."

Hearing Zack mention Kayden, Mrs. Ross, who was fed porridge by Mr. Ross, frowned.

"Where has Kayden gone?"

"Although our town is small, it's not so safe. Kayden is disabled..."

"If he goes out by himself, will he be in trouble?"

Hearing her mother's worried voice, Natalia frowned and curled her lips disdainfully.

"He is a man. What trouble can he encounter?"

Hearing this, Mr. Ross was a little unhappy.

"If Kayden hadn't been injured, he would be fine."

"But now he is still a patient!"

He glanced at Zack. "Don't eat now. Go and find where Kayden is."

"There are a lot of unreasonable scoundrels and thieves in this small place. If he meets them, he won't be able to deal with them."

Zack nodded, quickly took a bite of the steamed bun, got up, and went out.

Listening to the footsteps behind her, Natalia curled her lips and sat down in Zack's seat. She ate and pursed her lips.

"All that fuss over him."

Even if Kayden was injured now, not everyone could bully him.

As a man about 1.8 meters tall, even if he was injured, he didn't need to be protected by the old and the weak.

But.

..

Natalia had thought that Kayden would not go far. He must be wandering around the hospital.

But no news had come since Zack had been away to look for Kayden half an hour ago.

She gradually became a little anxious.

Could her father be right that this man would be in danger?

How could that be?

When did Kayden become so fragile?

Mr. Sidney was able to beat him yesterday because he was a veteran.

If it weren't for his status, how could he beat Kayden?

However, if nothing had happened to Kayden, why wasn't there any news about him for so long? There was even no news about Zack who was looking for him.?

This was too strange!

After breakfast, Natalia sat in a chair and chatted with her mother while lowering her head and fiddling with her mobile phone absent-mindedly.

Several times, her mobile phone homepage stopped on Kayden's dialog box.

She wanted to text him and ask him where he had gone.

However, she was afraid that he would think she was worried about him and still liked him.

She struggled for a while.

In the end, she did not send the message.

"Why don't you call Zack?"

Seeing Natalia restless, Mr. Ross could not help but ask tentatively.

Natalia paused for a moment before it suddenly clicked.

That's right...

She was really stupid.

In fact, besides contacting Kayden, she could also contact Zack!

Thinking of this, Natalia took a deep breath and finally found a suitable excuse for worrying about Kayden.

She picked up her phone and quickly dialed Zack's number.

"Zack, where are you?"

As soon as she was put through, Natalia deliberately said in a light voice,

"Did you lose yourself while looking for Kayden?"

"Did he really meet some scoundrel and thieves and ask for your help?"

"No.

.."

On the other end of the phone, Zack was biting his lip. After a long silence, he finally took a deep breath.

"But Kayden is really in trouble."

Her words made Natalia's heart jump to her throat.

Her voice sank slightly.

"What's wrong?"

"He..."

Zack glanced at the man, who was leaning against the hospital bed with a pale face.

"He was robbed. The robber stabbed him in the belly."

"He was bleeding and is now in the ward on the top floor."

Natalia almost couldn't hold the phone in her hand.

What was going on??

A robbery?

Someone dared to rob a cripple in a wheelchair!?

She hung up the phone, opened the door crazily, and ran toward the elevator.

But for some reason, both elevators were on the first floor, not moving at all.

After waiting anxiously for a minute, failing to defeat her worries about Kayden, she pushed open the door of the stairwell and chose to climb up the stairs.

Probably because she was too anxious, she almost fell off the stairs.

Five minutes later, Natalia finally reached the top floor, out of breath.

She rushed straight into the ward.

"Kayden! How are you?"

The man leaning against the hospital bed looked at her flatly.

"You are still worried about me."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 399 I'll Accept Any Result

Hearing Kayden's words, Natalia frowned slightly.

She was indeed worried about Kayden.

But now when she saw him lying on the hospital bed proudly saying that she still cared about him, she didn't want to admit.

Taking a deep breath, she turned to look at Zack, pretending that she was worried about Zack.

"The reason for your having been away for so long is wasting time here?"

"I thought you were in trouble!"

She then glanced at Kayden indifferently. "And what's wrong with you?"

Kayden smiled and looked at her flatly. "So you rushed here just to look for Zack?"

"Of course."

Natalia rolled her eyes at him. "Do you really think that I'm worried about you and come to see you?"

Kayden laughed and looked at the woman in front of him indifferently.

"After all, you were the best actress. Why is your acting getting worse and worse now?"

His eyes fell on her hair soaked in sweat because of climbing up the stairs.

"I came to this town to pay for your mother's medical expenses and now I'm injured. It's not embarrassing for you to be concerned about me."

"I won't laugh at you."

Hearing that, Natalia feel embarrassed and resigned.

She curled her lips. Knowing that she had not acted well, he stopped pretending.

She walked over and lifted the quilt covering Kayden.

"How are you?"

"How can there be robbery near the hospital?"

Kayden was naked to the waist.

As soon as Natalia lifted the quilt, the man's abdominal muscles and wounds wrapped in gauze were all exposed in the air.

Zack had a glance and couldn't help exclaiming,

"Kayden, you are so fit."

Natalia frowned and glanced at Kayden's abdominal muscles indifferently.

Was he fit?

Kayden had not trained for a long time because of his illness, so the lines of his abdominal muscles were obviously not as good-looking as before.

Could this make Zack exclaim?

He had never seen what Kayden had been before.

When Kayden was just injured, every time she helped Kayden get washed everyday. She couldn't help blushing

As time went by, she was immune to Kayden's abdominal muscles.

Natalia pursed her lips and raised her hand to remove the gauze from Kayden's abdomen.

she wanted to know how serious his words was.

However, as soon as her fingers touched the edge of the gauze, they were pressed down by Kayden.

The man's rough and dry hand gently pressed down on Natalia's small hand.

"Don't touch me.

Natalia rolled her eyes at him. "I'm not taking advantage of you."

She just wanted to see how serious his wound was.

Otherwise, how could she take care of him in the future?

"Didn't I did the same when I was at home?"

Why was this man so reserved in front of her now?

Kayden smiled and said, "I know you're not taking advantage of me, but it's not easy for me to show you."

After that, he held her hand and put it in his heart with both hands. "Do you feel my heartbeat?"

"You can rest assured if I'm still alive."

The temperature of the man's big hand, the hardness of his chest, and his deep and affectionate voice and eyes made Natalia pull her hand back as if she had been scalded.

Natalia rolled her eyes at him. "You're narcissistic."

"What does your life have to do with me?"

She then glanced at Kayden's bedside number and turned to leave.

"Zack, since he is fine, don't stay here for too long. Mom and Dad are quite worried about you."

After saying that, Natalia walked out of the room.

Kayden sighed as he watched her leave.

He didn't let her see his wound because there was nothing under the gauze.

However, in a few days, there would.

Kayden just wanted to do something for Natalia, but he didn't want her to be grateful for a kidney.

Although he hoped that Natalia would look back at him and give him another chance...

However, he did not want Natalia to forgive him and stay with him for his s\kidney.

Lottie was right. Love was not a bargaining chip for trading.

Neither was his kidney.

Therefore, after the test results came out that his kidney could be transplanted to Mrs. Ross, he asked the doctor to make such arrangement.

He pretended that he encountered a robber and was wounded.

In this way, when Mrs. Ross had surgery a few days later, the Ross family would not connect the donor to him because he himself was wounded the same time, .

"Doctor, how is Kayden?"

After coming out of the ward, Natalia went to the nurse station to inquire about the office of Kayden's attending doctor. She then knocked on the door of the doctor's office and went in.

She was still worried about him.

Kayden had fought against the veteran Yank Chapman alone for Ralph's sake and had been injured badly.

And he was taught a lesson by Mr. Sidney last night.

Moreover, he suffered another knife wound today...

She was really worried about Kayden.

Hearing Natalia's voice, the doctor who was writing the medical record looked up.

Natalia was shocked to find that Kayden's attending doctor was just her mother's!

How could that be?

There was a moment of confusion in Natalia's mind.

Kayden suffered external injuries while her mother suffered internal injuries, and the doctor was in charge of the treatment of her mother's kidney illness.

How could the doctor treat both her mother's kidney illness and Kayden's trauma?

Unless...

Unless Kayden's internal organs was injured!

Thinking of this, she rushed over anxiously.

"Doctor, are Kayden's kidneys hurt by the robber?"

The doctor paused and then cleared his throat softly. "No, no."

In the face of the doctor's perfunctoriness, Natalia didn't believe it at all.

"If Kayden's kidneys are not injured, why are you his attending doctor?"

"That's unreasonable!"

She nervously grabbed the doctor's arm.

"Tell me, what happened to his kidneys?"

The doctor paused. He did not expect Natalia to care so much about Kayden.

Why did Kayden say...Natalia was his ex-wife?

Would an ex-wife so concerned about her ex-husband?

However, on second thought, he found it understandable.

After all, Kayden, her ex-husband, could donate his kidney for the sake of his ex-wife, Natalia.

Since they both cared so much about each other, why should they divorce?

Seeing that the doctor did not speak, Natalia became even more nervous.

"Please tell me, how is Kayden?"

"No matter what the result is, I can accept it!"

The doctor paused and glanced at Natalia. "You can accept any result?"

Natalia nodded seriously.

Wasn't it just taking care of Kayden?

She had taken care of him before!

The doctor cleared his throat-

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 400 He Finally Found Her

"In fact, there is nothing wrong with Mr. Kayden's kidneys."

The doctor sighed and turned to look at Natalia. "He became my patient like your mother because the first doctor he met after he came here last night was me."

"So after he was injured by the robber, he naturally thought of me."

"And his wound... did affect his kidney a little bit, so I treated him."

He then glanced at Natalia again. "Did I explain clear enough?"

Natalia bit her lip and nodded silently.

Therefore, it was because Kayden was headstrong. Just because he met this doctor when he came to this hospital, he asked the doctor, who usually specialized in kidney diseases, to treat his trauma.

Thinking of this, Natalia could not help but laugh at herself with her lips twitching.

She should have thought of it earlier.

Who was Kayden?

The young master of the Chapman family, who was rich and influential. He had more wealth than the total of all the people in this small county.

He could ask whichever doctor he wanted to treat him.

How should she worry about him?

Thinking of this, Natalia took a deep breath. While mocking herself for being naive, she still went to buy some necessities for Kayden.

When she returned and walked to the door of his ward, she heard Kayden making a phone call inside.

"Don't worry, she can't find out. I did it secretly."

"I know... Don't call me these days. She has known that I am injured and will take care of me. If you call me too often, she will suspect me."

"My body? Of course, my body is fine. I am stronger than a cow..."

Carrying the daily necessities that she had bought for Kayden, Natalia listened to his conversation with the other end of the phone. Her heart instantly sank to the bottom.

Every word Kayden said was like a heavy hammer hitting her heart.

His being wounded...

was not real?

Just as she was full of doubts, the man in the ward sighed again.

"I'm good at pretending to be ill."

"Don't worry. It's only a few days. Everything will be fine in a few days."

The stuff in Natalia's hands fell to the ground with a bang.

She covered her mouth and left the ward, feeling herself like a joke!

Kayden was pretending to be wounded and cheating her!"

During this period of time, she had always felt that she had no more illusions about Kayden.

She hadn't expected that she would still be nervous and worried when she heard Kayden was injured.

She really advised herself inward to take good care of him. After all, he came to this small county for her mother, otherwise, he would not have been injured.

She was trying to find an excuse for herself to believe that she cared about him not because she liked him.

But the reality gave her a hard slap.

Kayden was pretending to be wounded.

He was using her affections for him to win her sympathy.

Tears fell silently from the corners of her eyes.

So she didn't hear what Kayden said in the end.

"After her mother and I finish the operation, I will have a real wound. Then I will not be afraid that she will find out something."

Natalia ran out of the hospital in tears.

As soon as Zack, who fetched water for Kayden, returned to the door of the ward, he saw a bag full of new personal supplies.

Every item inside was the most expensive and highest-quality one that could be found in the small town.

He was silent for a moment. He was sure that they were bought by his sister Natali for Kayden.

But why were they left here?

Did...Did she not want Kayden to know that she treats him so well?"

Thinking of this, Zack sighed and picked up the bag and entered the door.

"Kayden."

He put the bag on the bedside table and said, "These are the necessities I bought for you."

Kayden nodded. "Where's your sister?"

Zack shook his head. "Maybe she's busy."

It was raining outside.

Natalia did not take the umbrella. She walked alone in the rain, crying and laughing.

She cried because she felt her affections for Kayden not worthwhile.

She laughed because she felt herself ridiculous to be played like a monkey.

She walked in the rain for a long time,

until a car stopped in front of her.

The car window rolled down, revealing a man's gentle face.

"Miss Natalia, I finally find you.

Natalia paused and raised her head subconsciously.

The man had a beautiful and delicate face.

But she didn't remember that she knew him.

"You are..."

"We talked on the phone before. My name is Lincoln Yung."

The man looked at Natalia with a smile. "I just happened to have an investigation in this town. I had planned to return to Rexwell this evening, so I called you to meet you in Rexwell tonight."

"But you said you were in your hometown, so I just let it go."

"But I just heard from Uncle Sidney that this small town is your hometown. I went to the hospital to check and found your mother's name."

"What a coincidence."

Natalia stared blankly at the man in front of her. "It's... very coincidental."

"The rain is getting heavier. Let me take you to take a shower and change into clean clothes."

Lincoln Yung opened the car door generously. "If you catch a cold, how can you take care of your mother?"

The man's gentle voice matched his appearance very well.

Natalia hesitated for a moment before making her choice when Lincoln Yung mentioned her mother.

She took a deep breath and got into Lincoln Yung's car. "Thank you."

"You're welcome."

As he drove, the man said lightly, "Did something happen to your mom? You stayed alone in the rain outside the hospital?"

Natalia paused and then shook her head desperately. "No."

"My mother's illness.

..can be cured."

"Then why are you so sad that you stay in the rain?"

The man held the steering wheel and drove while comforting her with a chuckle. "It's the best thing to have your mom cured. Other things are not important, are they?"

Natalia nodded. "You're right."

Mom's health was the most important.

Mother could be cured. She should have been happy. Why should she be sad for Kayden?

Thinking of this, she took a deep breath and calmly looked ahead. "Mr. Yung, thank you."

"You thank me again. You have said many thanks in a while."

Lincoln Yung parked the car at the entrance of a hotel. "Let's go. I've booked two rooms. You can take a shower at ease. I've already asked my assistant to buy the clothes."

Natalia's heart warmed slightly. After thanking him again, she took the room card and entered the room.

Lincoln Yung stood outside the door and looked in the direction of the door. A smile appeared on her lips.

After so many years...

He finally found her. .
