

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 401 I Know Mr. Yung Is Not A Bad Man

The warm water washed against his skin, dispelling the chill for him.

However, deep in her heart, it was as cold as frozen ice.

The discovery just now made her shiver all over. She didn't expect that Kayden would play tricks on her at this point.

"Do you think it's fun or it's because you hate me?"

"He must hate me for exposing Yara's true colors and ruining the unrequited love in his heart."

Well, was this her fault? She was clearly the victim!

No matter what, she would not let Kayden succeed.

"Don't you want to compete with me?" After all, she was the best actress. Although she had retreated now, she still had the foundation.

"Kayden, let's see who will be the one to suffer in the end!"

After making up her mind, Natalia quickly took a shower, changed into a bathrobe, and went out of the bathroom.

"Ding, ding, ding..."

"Natalia, are you done? I'll send you some clothes to change."

She was stunned for a moment before she remembered that the person outside was Lincoln.

"I'm coming."

Natalia closed the door and smiled at him.

"Thank you for your help today."

Lincoln was slightly taken aback when he saw Natalia's expression. He quickly turned his gaze away and handed the shopping bag in the hand to Natalia.

Natalia took the shopping bag and checked the clothes inside. She found that even her underwear was ready.

Lincoln's assistant was quite considerate.

Just as she was about to express her thanks, Lincoln tilted his head to look at the ground, looking so shy.

"Natalia, you'd better go get changed first."

"Also, don't casually open the door for strangers in the future. It's not safe."

After living in the entertainment circle for so many years, how could she still be as innocent as before?

She was not careful at all. Wasn't she afraid that he would do something bad to her?

Natalia paused for a moment before laughing.

"It doesn't matter. I know you are not a bad person."

"Besides, you are not a stranger. We still need to cooperate in the future, don't we?"

Natalia blinked slyly.

Lincoln curled his lips into a smile and he felt very happy.

However, if she continued to talk to him like this, he might not resist.

Natalia didn't know how attractive she was at all. Her wet long hair draped over her shoulders, and she looked like a freshly peeled boiled egg.

Lincoln swallowed hard.

Natalia closed the door. "I'll get changed first, you..."

"I'll wait for you at the door."

Natalia smiled, closed the door, and went in to change.

Not long after, the door was opened again. Natalia had packed up and invited him in to talk.

Instead of entering, he stood by the door and said, "You probably haven't eaten yet. Do you want to go eat something together?"

In fact, Natalia had no appetite and hesitated.

He had no choice but to say, "Actually, I'm hungry. I've just come here to do an investigation and I'm not very familiar with this place. I don't know where there's delicious food."

"So you want me to be your guide?"

Lincoln nodded like a gentleman. "I wonder if I have this honor."

Natalia laughed. "You helped me today. No matter what, I have to repay you."

"Let's go. I know there is a good place to eat nearby."

Natalia led Lincoln out, followed by him. His eyes darkened when he saw her slim back.

...

In the hospital.

Kayden looked out of the window with a lonely expression on his face.

Cais held the food that he had just bought from a high-end restaurant and looked a little unhappy.

"Where is he?"

"Sir, I just heard that Ms. Ross has not come back since she left." ..

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 402 There Must Be A Misunderstanding

"Where is she now?" Kayden asked.

It was getting late.

Natalia was so beautiful. She used to be a movie queen. Maybe she would encounter some trouble.

Seeing that Kayden was so worried, Cais sounded a little angry.

"She is having an appointment with another man now and is very enjoying. I think you should be more worried about yourself, sir!"

Kayden's expression changed. "Could you be mistaken?"

Just now, Natalia was angry with him because she misunderstood her and Mr. Parry.

This time, Kayden was more or less cautious.

But Cais said, "I saw it with my own eyes when I went to buy dinner. They had dinner together in the couple's restaurant, and they were talking and laughing."

"That man is quite handsome. I also heard the waiter praise them for their good match."

"I heard that they came out of the hotel together before dinner."

"Natalia has even changed her clothes. These are their photos. Look at them yourself."

After saying that, Cais handed the photo he secretly took to Kayden, which made him very uncomfortable.

In order to help Natalia, he did not need to participate in the matching, and now he also had to donate his kidney for Randa.

He was not as healthy as before. After donating his kidney, he would only be weaker, but he still kept it from Natalia.

Now, she could do nothing but watch her wife fall into someone else's arms.

"No, there must be a misunderstanding."

Even if the photos were in front of him, Kayden would not believe Cais's words.

Based on his understanding of Natalia, she would never hang out with a strange man when her mother was ill.

Lottie said that he didn't trust Natalia enough, which made her sad.

He had heard these words, so no matter how angry he became, he still refused to think about it.

Cais sighed. "Sir, why don't you tell Madam the truth?"

"No!" Kayden insisted.

All along, Natalia had been sacrificing for him, but he had misunderstood that she was not a fairy. How could she still have the face to kidnap him?

However, it was a fact that there was a man around Natalia. He had to find a way to solve it.

"Send someone to investigate who this man is and what he wants to do by getting close to her."

"Sir..."

"Go now!"

Cais had no choice but to do so. Kayden looked at the photo for a long time and finally figured it out.

He couldn't afford to lose face. But in order to pursue his wife, he had to surrender.

He took the initiative to call Ralph.

"Uncle..."

On the other side, Ralph could not help but raise his brows. "Now you know to call me uncle?"

Just now, he had called her "Lottie", and he didn't respect him at all.

Kayden was a little shy. He knew that with Ralph's scheming character, he would definitely hold his grudge.

"I was wrong. I was worrying about Natalia before."

"What's your fault?"

"It's my fault that I shouldn't argue with her. I should blame her for not treating Natalia well."

"Well, then you should get her forgiveness first and then come to me."

After that, he hung up the phone.

"Mr. Chapman, it's a good idea to get revenge for your wife."

At this moment, Lottie, who was sitting opposite Ralph, couldn't help giving him a thumbs-up after listening to the whole conversation.

The children looked at each other. In terms of doting on his wife, his father was the best.

Sure enough, not long after, Lottie's cell phone rang.

"Hello?" His voice was cold.

"Aunt, this is Kayden. I'm here to apologize to you." ..

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 403 You'll Be Strangers in the Future

This time, Kayden apologized sincerely.

He also deeply reflected on his previous behavior and took the initiative to admit his mistake to Lottie.

He did not trust Natalia enough before, and this time he really regretted it sincerely.

He wanted to make up for this marriage and get her back.

"I grudgingly forgive you for your sincere attitude this time."

Lottie already knew what Kayden had done for Mrs. Ross.

Seeing that he didn't ask Natalia for anything in return with this favor, Lottie felt that Kayden could still be saved.

Before Kayden could be happy, Lottie immediately discouraged him.

"It's easy to apologize to me, because we're family after all. Just be frank."

"But Natalia has been completely disappointed in you. You ignored her efforts and did not trust her. You even wanted to give her up, and that's too bad."

Kayden opened his mouth but didn't speak.

Lottie was telling the truth. There was no way he could refute.

What's more, she insists on divorce you now.

"Once you get divorced, you will be strangers from now on."

"It's even harder to change a person's mind. So you have to be mentally prepared in advance."

Lottie was very serious when she spoke. She understood Natalia. She looked soft-hearted, but when she was determined to give up on someone, she would be more determined than ever.

Kayden said sadly, "I know."

He had long been prepared to fight Natalia to the end. In short, apart from Kayden, she could not be with any other man!

"It's good to have this awareness. Next, I hope that you can let go of your identity and your prejudice against her and get to know Natalia again."

Kayden frowned and said, "I know her best in the world. Is it necessary?"

Lottie's tone was mocking. "Are you sure?"

If he really knew her, she wouldn't have been misunderstood all the time. He didn't realize that he was wrong until Yara exposed herself.

Kayden was too ashamed to answer.

"Anyway, it's just a suggestion. It's up to you."

"Wait! Aunt, you haven't told me what to do."

"When you really understand her, you don't need us to tell you. You know what to do."

Lottie said seriously, "Natalia is my good friend, and I support her decision. So the final result will depend on her. I don't have the right to forgive for her."

Lottie handed the phone to Ralph.

"Do you have anything else to add?"

Ralph thought about it and took the phone.

"To be really good to a person is not what you think. You need to set up a place for her."

"Only those who know how to devote themselves for a person are qualified to redeem."

"Take care of yourself. We're waiting for your good news."

Ralph hung up the phone and turned around to see a faint smile on Lottie's face.

"Is it beautiful?"

"It looks good." Lottie smiled and reached out to rub his face. "It's rare for you to praise."

Fabian that was drawing on the side couldn't help but laugh foolishly.

Why did Mommy say that? Of course, it was because Daddy usually didn't act kindly!

Ralph's eyes grew darker. He picked up the man who was not afraid of death and looked down at the children who were laughing.

"The story before going to bed tonight is canceled, and your love package will be gone in the next week."

Stella immediately clenched her fists and exclaimed, "Why? I didn't laugh at all!"

Elijah also frowned in disagreement, "This is unfair."

Fabian was stunned for a moment, and then he protested, "Daddy, you can't take advantage of this to avenge yourself!"

"For personal revenge?" Ralph hugged his wife steadily. The corners of his lips curled into a faint smile, "She's my wife. I feel sorry for her for cooking hard. Is there anything wrong with that?"

"Come on, Mommy!"

Seeing that she couldn't finish her sentence, Fabian cleverly asked Lottie for help.

Just as she was about to speak, Ralph announced in an overbearing manner, "Mrs. Chapman has no right to say no."

Wasn't he bad as they said? Then he would insist this time.

Ignoring the three children who were disappointed, Ralph carried Lottie back to the bedroom.

He put her on the bed and laughed so hard that he was shaking all over.

"Mr. Chapman, don't you think you're too childish?"

He was so old, but he was still jealous of a child.

Ralph lifted his brows as he untied his clothes. "You'll know it soon."

After he finished unbuttoning his clothes, he began to untie his buttons, revealing his strong chest and sturdy abdominal muscles.

Lottie's face instantly turned red.

He stepped forward and said, "Mrs. Chapman, have you forgotten that you still have an agreement that has not been fulfilled?"

"What agreement?"

Lottie pressed her head against the man's chest with difficulty. She couldn't push him away, but she seemed to be trying to get him.

"Give me another daughter..."

The man's voice was dark and hoarse. He held the back of Lottie's head and pushed her onto the bed, moving closer to bite her red lips.

As their breaths intertwined, the temperature kept rising.

The night was still long, and the interaction between lovers was always warm and loving.

However, Kayden and Natalia, who were far away in the town, could not fall asleep.

The next day.

Mr. Chapman went downstairs with a face full of hesitation, and he saw three sad faces.

"Good morning, darlings."

Stella looked behind Ralph and saw nothing.

"Where's Mommy?"

"Your mommy was too tired last night. She might not be able to get up in the morning. I'll make breakfast for you."

After that, he rolled up his sleeves and was about to enter the kitchen.

Elijah's expression changed as he hurriedly jumped off the dining table to stop him.

"There's no need. You're usually so busy, there's no need to bother you with such trivial matters."

Fabian immediately chimed in, "Brother is right!"

He had been fortunate enough to have a meal made by Daddy before. The taste could not be said to be so bad, but could only be said to be just so so.

"You're so sensible..

. Okay, I'll go to work first. When your mommy wakes up, remember to send me a message."

Elijah breathed a sigh of relief and nodded. He took out a USB stick from his pocket and handed it to Ralph.

"This is?"

"The information about my cousin's rival in love." Fabian yawned. "They stayed up late last night to find out."

Ralph raised his brows. These kids were quite worried about it.

"Forget it this time. Don't do so many things next time."

"What's more, you'll not grow up after staying up late. You'd better think about it for yourself."

Staring into Ralph's teasing eyes, Elijah was very calm.

"Daddy, according to the information we found, cousin's rival in love this time is not simple. Maybe you should take a look at the things in the USB disk."

Ralph knew his eldest son very well. He was not the kind of person who would shoot without a reason.

Therefore, there might be something wrong with the man.

He hid his expression and said, "I know, but you'd better try not to get involved in this kind of things in the future. If it was really a particularly difficult person to deal with, your actions last night might have alerted the man."

At this moment, in a hotel room in a small town.

He calmly checked the visiting record of the computer and smiled slightly.

The fish really bit the hook.

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 404 Please Be Aware of Your Place

As soon as Natalia opened the door, she heard a clear male voice beside her ear.

"Good morning, Miss Natalia."

She turned around and looked back. Lincoln was tall and straight, wearing a casual suit, looking comfortable and gentlemanly.

"Morning." Natalia smiled.

"Are you ready to go to the hospital?"

"Yes, I mentioned it to you yesterday. I have to go back and take care of Mom."

"I'll go with you."

"Hmm? No need."

"As a junior, the elders should visit when they are sick. This is a courtesy."

Lincoln smiled gently. "Besides, aren't we friends?"

Yesterday, they talked about the tutoring class.

Lincoln had high emotional intelligence, and they were particularly congenial. Natalia had confirmed that she was going to cooperate with Lincoln, and the two of them had successfully upgraded from partners to friends.

At this point, it was difficult for Natalia to refuse.

"Then let's go together."

"Okay."

After leaving the room at the front desk, Lincoln drove her to the hospital.

Natalia was absent-minded in the car, not in a good mood.

"Are you worried about Auntie's operation?" Lincoln noticed that she was distracted.

"Yes... a little."

She snapped back to reality, feeling extremely vexed.

She should be worried about her mother now. Why was she still thinking about Kayden, the liar?

Anyway, she didn't go back to the hospital last night. Kayden would be very disappointed if he found out.

After all, no one supported him in the wonderful show.

"Don't be afraid. Didn't the doctor say that we have found a suitable match? Believe in the doctor and auntie, the operation will be successful."

"Thank you, Mr. Yung."

"Why are you still call me Mr. Yung?"

"Lincoln, then don't call me Miss Natalia. Just call me by my name."

"Okay, Natalia."

Lincoln smiled and poured the car into the parking lot.

"Here we are. Let's go."

They got out of the car, and Lincoln took out a lot of things from the trunk to check.

It was not particularly expensive, but it was very necessary.

It was just a token of gratitude.

Mr. Yung, who was introduced by Mr. Parry, was very considerate. At the same time, he valued and respected others.

Natalia had never revealed her thoughts to others so easily, but when she talked to Lincoln, she seemed so natural.

"You're too considerate, aren't you? But you brought so many things with you, and I'll be scolded."

"Why will they scold you?"

"You brought too many things. Mom and Dad will think I'm too rude."

"It doesn't matter. If they scold you, just say that you bought all these. I'm just responsible for carrying them for you."

"They won't believe that I'm so thoughtful."

As the two chatted and laughed, Natalia didn't feel so heavy in her heart.

When she walked to the ward and heard someone talking inside, she stopped pushing the door open.

"Natalia has not been in a good state recently. How can you let her live alone outside? What if she meets some crazy anti-fans or bad people?"

"It's okay. Sister called me last night and said that she had a friend who came here for an investigation. She also wanted to talk to her about work, so they stayed outside."

"Other than Lottie and us, she doesn't have any other friends. So can she be still talking about work? Don't you know that her career is over? Many people are waiting to laugh at her, and none of them really want to help her."

"But my sister said that Mr. Yung is a gentleman. He won't do anything bad to her..."

"What bullshit gentleman? Do you know who he is? He is a..."

"Enough!"

Natalia pushed the door open and glared at Kayden with red eyes.

"In your eyes, I am a good-for-nothing without friends and a loser, right?"

Natalia didn't know what to say.

"That's not what I meant. You misunderstood."

"That's what you mean!"

Looking at Kayden, who was still sitting in a wheelchair with a pale face, Natalia sneered.

"I'm useless. I've been living under your protection all these years. I admit that I'm innocent and incompetent."

"But why do you have to say that I have no friends?"

"Do I lose my ability to make friends without you and Yara?"

Seeing that she was getting more and more outrageous, Kayden quickly apologized, "I'm sorry. Natalia, I was just too worried about your safety, so I said those words without thinking. I didn't..."

"You don't have to worry about me!"

Natalia said coldly, "We're divorced. We'll be strangers from now on!"

"You don't have the right to interfere with my business, and you have no right to interfere with my relationship."

"Mr. Chapman, please be aware of your position."

After Natalia finished speaking, there was a dead silence in the ward.

Kayden's eyes turned red with anger as he stared at her.

The man's eyes seemed to be burning hot.

Natalia even suspected that Kayden would strangle her to death the next second.

However, after waiting for a long time, he didn't do that.

He pretended not to hear her words and turned to look at the man behind her.

Lincoln was gentle, with a polite smile on his elegant face. His temperament was completely different from Kayden's.

It was him who had abducted Natalia last night and even threatened to cooperate with her.

At first glance, one could tell that she had ulterior motives. Unfortunately, Natalia was confused by his appearance and could not see his heart clearly.

"Are you Lincoln?" Kayden said arrogantly, "Did Philip introduce you here?"

Lincoln stepped forward and said with a smile, "Yes, I am. Mr.

Chapman, I have heard a lot about you."

Kayden snorted and said, "Don't try to trap me."

Natalia didn't understand, "It's just an ordinary form of courtesy. I'm not trying to befriend you."

Kayden was speechless.

"It's okay, Natalia. After all, Mr. Chapman was spoiled by his family and grew up. It's normal for him to be arrogant with his parents doting on him."

Lincoln was truly powerful. After he finished speaking, the expressions of everyone in the Ross family changed.

They all recalled how Kayden's parents did.

Not to mention Ank, but Lancy was really disgusting.

First, he despised Natalia's bad family background and then looked down on her identity as an actress. Later, he even said that she would never wake up after she became a vegetable.

Even when Kayden insisted on marrying Natalia, it was Ralph who took the initiative to give up 10% of the shares of the Chapman's Group. Lancy agreed to let them get married because she saw that they had some profit.

She was so greedy and the Ross family had suffered a lot of humiliation.

At first, the parents of the Ross family wanted their daughter and son-in-law to reunite as soon as possible, but now they felt that divorce was not a bad thing.

Perhaps after leaving Kayden, Natalia might be able to start a new life.

As parents, they did not expect too much that their children would be so promising. They only hoped that they could live a peaceful and happy life.

Natalia recalled her situation back then and her words were full of ridicule.

"Lincoln is right. Mr. Chapman is of high status. I'm afraid this small hospital is not suitable for you to stay. I think you'd better transfer to the other hospital as soon as possible and go back to the city to treat your illness of arrogance!"

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 405 I Believe You Again

It was clear that Natalia was ordering him to leave.

Not only was she not worried about Kayden's injury, but she was also trying to help outsiders drive him away.

When he left, would she and Lincoln be able to slowly develop a relationship here?

That was quite impossible!

Kayden was so angry that his chest hurt. In the past, he could not be sure that his feelings for her were because of love, it was not because of the so-called possessiveness and affection.

This time, he clearly understood!

If he didn't really like her, why would he be so angry after she misunderstood his meaning? Why did he still not feel like blaming Natalia after she cursed him? Instead, he was worried more that she would be cheated. If he didn't like her, he wouldn't be so flustered when he realized that he had a strong rival in love.

After thinking it through, Kayden's attitude had softened up a lot.

"I won't transfer."

"I'm still injured. I'll be discharged after I recover."

"I won't agree to a divorce either. As long as we don't get a divorce certificate, you will still be my wife."

Natalia had never seen him so shameless. She was so angry that she could not speak.

Kayden swept over Lincoln with his sharp eyes, who had been smiling gently, and his tone was cold.

"Don't blame me for not reminding you. Natalia is under my protection. If you want to hurt her, I will not spare you easily!"

Even though Kayden had always treated him rudely, Lincoln was not angry.

He still nodded gently. "I see."

It made Kayden look like he was threatening someone in a fit of anger.

He was at a loss for words. He wanted to say something but gave up.

"That's all? Then get out. My mother is going to rest."

Natalia said coldly and went forward to help Mrs. Ross adjust the height of the bed.

After preparing the bed, Natalia confirmed the operation with her father and brother and introduced Lincoln to them.

The atmosphere between them was very harmonious. On the contrary, Kayden looked like an outsider who could not incompatible with them.

He tried to find a topic several times but failed.

Cais couldn't stand it anymore, so he called softly, "Sir, why don't we go back first?"

They had to go back to prepare for the kidney replacement operation. They couldn't stay here all the time.

Moreover, they were so unpopular.

Kayden was unwilling to give up, but he could not change the situation. He could only nod to Cais.

"Father-in-law and mother-in-law, then I'll go back first. If you need anything from me, you can ask Zack to find me upstairs. I will definitely come with you."

"Okay, you're also injured.

Go back and have a good rest."

Natalia's parents forced a smile at him.

But Zack also stood up.

"Mr. Chapman, I'll see you off."

"Mr. Chapman, take care." Lincoln nodded politely at him.

Kayden ignored Lincoln and looked at Natalia eagerly.

However, Natalia did not look back from the beginning to the end and did not say anything, as if she had completely forgotten about him.

Kayden lowered his eyes and said, "Let's go."

Cais pushed him out of the ward and went to the elevator, followed by Zack.

"Brother-in-law, don't blame my sister."

"I can't blame her. I can only blame Mr. Yung."

"For Mr. Yung, I don't think he's a good person either."

Kayden raised his eyebrows and asked, "Why do you think so?"

"I can't say. Maybe he has a good temper and looks very pretending."

Zack had suffered a lot in these years, and he had experienced the emotion inconstancy too early. He had his own judge of character.

"That makes sense. Why do you think it's so coincidental? Your sister's work is not smooth now, and she lacks good friends. He appeared, helped her solve her work problem, and even developed into a good friend with her."

"There seems to be something wrong when you said this."

"He must have other purposes."

You must hold on and not be knocked down by his sugar-coated cannonball!"

Zack stared at Kayden and suddenly pursed his lips into a smile.

Kayden was confused by his laughter. "What are you laughing at?"

"You didn't nag like this before."

On the contrary, he was extremely cold and kept staring at others gloomily. Zack didn't dare to get too close to him before.

But this time, Kayden came to the town and took the initiative to pay for his parents' hospitalization and operation fees, and his concern for his sister was real.

This made the man, who had always been superior, suddenly become down-to-earth. Compared with the unknown Lincoln, Zack trusted Kayden, who had a bad temper. Because his emotions were real.

Kayden was slightly taken aback by Zack's words.

Soon, he put on a wry smile. "It was all my fault in the past, but I didn't know my heart."

"But this time, I really know I was wrong."

Zack stopped smiling and looked at him seriously.

"I'll only ask this once. Are you sincere to my sister?"

"Of course!"

"You won't change even if you encounter any external forces?"

"Never change!"

"Remember what you said." Zack said, "I'll trust you again. If you disappoint me again, I won't let my sister forgive you."

After that, they arrived at Kayden's ward.

"It's ok here. I'm leaving now."

Zack waved at Kayden and turned to leave.

Watching him leave, Kayden didn't speak for a long time.

"Sir, are you really not going to tell them the truth?"

Kayden brought back to himself, he warned him in a cold and stern voice, "No, and you're not allowed to tell anyone! Do you understand?"

Seeing that he was angry, Cais quickly lowered his head. "Yes."

"It's exactly as Uncle said.

Lincoln targeted at me."

It was not until Kayden returned to the ward that he regained his composure and became as gloomy as before.

Just now, he deliberately tried to test him.

He realized that Lincoln knew him very well and had even investigated his parents.

Otherwise, it was impossible for him to fight back so perfectly and cause the Ross family to have problems with him.

"Do you need me to find someone to keep an eye on him?"Cais asked.

Yes. Be careful not to be discovered by him."

"Yes."

"When is the operation scheduled?"

"Three days later."

"Does it need to adjust the diet before changing the kidney? These two days, ask someone to make more nutritious and digested food. Remember to send one to downstairs."

Cais looked down and sighed, "Sir, you have really changed a lot."

In the past, Kayden would never pay attention to these small details. He was not a considerate person.

At the very least, it had never been so for Natalia.

"Really? Is this good or bad?"

"It's good, isn't it?"Cais said, "If Mr. Chapman knows, he will be very gratified."

Speaking of Ralph, Kayden remembered that he had something to discuss with him.

"Where's my phone. I'm looking for my uncle."

"Why do you want to call my husband?"

A familiar voice came from the door, and Kayden looked over.

She saw that Lottie had brought three children to visit her, followed by two bodyguards.

"Aunt, why are you here?"

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 406 Who Is Against Natalia

"I heard that someone is going to have an operation in two days, so I came to check."

"Only you, where's my uncle?"

"Daddy is busy."

Stella bit the lollipop and said vaguely.

"You've been refusing to go back. I have to trouble my husband to help you manage the company."

Lottie turned her head and rolled her eyes at Kayden, her tone full of disgust.

"I'm sorry, I'll deal with this matter as soon as possible."

While feeling guilty, Kayden heaved a sigh of relief.

With his uncle's help, there was at least no need to worry about the company's affairs.

"We're fine, but for your parents..."

Lottie hesitated for a moment, then swallowed her words back.

Kayden raised his head and asked, "Did they make trouble with Uncle again?"

Ever since Kayden's parents learned that Ralph intended to withdraw from Chapman Group, they were overjoyed.

His second brother had passed away, and his third brother had taken the initiative to withdraw. Wouldn't the Group belong to the big brother in the future?

When he was in Rexwell, his parents had always urged him to take back the company's management authority, and from time to time, they would go to the company to show off, which made Kayden feel embarrassed and ashamed.

Now that he hadn't gone back for so long, they must be anxious again, and they even went to the company to make trouble for his uncle.

Kayden's face darkened.

"It's not a big deal. Your uncle can handle it."

After all, her husband was Mr. Chapman. The Chapman Group still had to rely on him to support it. The boss and the others didn't dare to offend him.

It was just that he was always doing some coquettish things, which was annoying.

That was why she came to see if there was anything she could do to help, so that Kayden could go back to Rexwell as soon as possible.

Kayden looked a little better. Anyway, his uncle would never let him suffer losses.

"We don't want the property of the Chapman family, and we don't want to live with your parents, so no matter what they do, it won't affect us. But it's different for Natalia. If you want to reunite with her, you have to remove your parents' prejudice against her first."

Kayden frowned and remained silent for a long time before nodding solemnly.

"I understand what you mean."

"I'll talk to my parents. I won't let Natalia suffer any more."

Seeing that she had achieved her goal, she didn't say anything else.

She opened the chicken soup with a smile and filled a bowl for him.

"I heard that you haven't eaten much in the past two days. Have a taste of this chicken soup."

"I made it myself."

"Thank you, aunt."

"Come on, Kayden." Fabian curled his lips. "She didn't do it for you."

"Mommy made this especially for my Daddy."

"Mommy said that Daddy has been working overtime recently and he's very hard, so she specially made it for him."

Stella also added.

"Kayden, you just happened to be here."

Kayden was speechless.

He knew that he was only worthy of his uncle's remaining chicken soup.

Elijah saw that he seemed a little sad, so he stepped forward and patted the back of his hand.

Kayden thought that Elijah wanted to comfort him and looked at him with hope.

"Don't be sad."

"If you want to eat soup, you can come to my house to eat it in the future."

"Anyway, even if you bring Natalia back, she won't do it."

Kayden gritted his teeth and said, "Thank you for your comfort."

Elijah was inexplicably proud, "You're welcome."

Kayden was speechless.

Lottie was amused by them and rubbed Elijah's little head.

"Ignore them. Come and eat."

Kayden thanked Lottie and took a sip from the spoon. His eyes lit up instantly.

"Good taste! Aunt, is there any more chicken soup?"

"Of course, help yourself."

"I want to."

.."

"Send it down?"

Kayden nodded embarrassingly.

Lottie took another thermos from the bodyguard and patted it.

"I'm ready. I'll go down to see Natalia and Auntie in a while."

"When you go and find her, don't tell her about the kidney replacement. I'm afraid she will be worried."

"Why? Are you worried that you'll escape overnight?"

Kayden's face froze. "Aunt."

"I'm trying to persuade you to consider the facts of a situation."

Kayden was still stubborn. "Didn't you see how nervous she was when she found out that I was injured yesterday?"

"And then? Did she ask about your injury today?"

Kayden didn't know what to say.

Natalia did not ask about his condition today. She looked very nervous yesterday.

She must have forgotten about it because of what happened this morning.

Or Lincoln was playing tricks!

Anyway, he refused to admit that Natalia had no feelings for him.

Seeing him so embarrassed, Lottie understood.

"Not only was she not worried about you, but she also went out to sleep with someone else last night?"

"It's just that they lived in the same hotel. That's not terrible at all." Kayden put down the bowl and looked unhappy.

"My words are unpleasant to hear?"

"Then that's because you didn't hear those worse words!"

Lottie's expression turned cold, and her temperament instantly changed.

"The photos were taken and posted online, but you stayed in the hospital and knew nothing!"

Kayden was instantly nervous. "What photo? Where are they? How about public opinion now?"

Then he turned to glare at Cais, blaming him for not reminding himself earlier.

Cais's heart skipped a beat and he quickly explained, "Our people have been keeping an eye on it.

We really didn't find any bad news for her."

Lottie glanced at Elijah.

Elijah nodded, took out his small tablet, and found something he had intercepted and showed it to Kayden.

"Kayden, this was stopped this morning."

"There's something worse, but we deleted them all."

Kayden took it and saw that it was indeed a photo of Natalia and Lincoln entering and leaving the hotel and having dinner together at the couple's restaurant last night.

And under these photos, they were all given a disgusting title.

"After retreating, she ended up like this! She hooked up with the old man and found a new backer. Let's count how many rich backers does she have?"

"After being driven out of the rich and powerful family and being banned from the industry, she can only sell her body to live after she's down!"

It could be imagined that if these photos and drafts were posted on the Internet, Natalia would be scolded a lot.

"Nonsense!"

Kayden was so angry that he smashed the wheelchair. It was said that the hardest metal armrest in the world had been punched into a pit by him.

"Come on, Brother Kayden."

"You can't even protect your own woman. No wonder my sister-in-law wants to divorce you."

Fabian was still laughing at him. "If it was Daddy, he would never let such a thing happen."

Kayden choked and handed the tablet to Cais with a gloomy and horrible temperament.

"Go and investigate!"

"Find it out!"

"Who is it that is targeting Natalia!"

"After finding it out, I'll teach him a lesson!"

Natalia had already announced her withdrawal. With her notorious reputation, she didn't have much news value now.

However, someone had followed them all the way to the small town and had been playing and filming. After that, he even slandered her with some paid posters. Kayden did not believe that there was no one behind it.

Yara had already run away. Who on earth hated her so much that she wanted to kill her?

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 407 The Bich

Kayden was so angry that he ordered Cais to investigate immediately.

Seeing this, Lottie left Elijah and Stella to him, while she took Fabians' hand and went to the ward downstairs to find Natalia.

When they arrived, Natalia was talking to the doctor with red eyes.

When she saw Lottie, she was even more surprised. "Lottie, why are you here?"

"I heard that you're here, so I came to see you."

Natalia said goodbye to the doctor and came up to speak to Lottie.

"Thank you."

"Aunt Natalia, don't be sad."

"I'll give you the lollipop, and your mommy will get better soon."

Fabian took out a lollipop from his pocket and handed it to Natalia, saying sweetly.

Lottie brought Fabian here, feeling that this little guy was very good at making people happy.

It turned out that she was right.

Natalia took the candy from him and put on a relaxed smile. Thank you, Fabian. When my mommy is recovered, I'll treat you to a big meal.

Fabian quickly nodded. "Then I want to eat barbecue."

Natalia smiled again. "Okay."

After chatting with him, Natalia turned to look at Lottie.

"What did the doctor say? How's your mother?"

"She was a little serious before, but fortunately, there was a good person who donated kidney and successfully matched with my mother's. The doctor said that although the operation was risky, it was very likely to succeed."

"When will the operation begin?"

"Three days later."

Lottie patted her on the shoulder. "You have to work harder these past few days, but when you take care of her, you also have to take care of yourself, okay?"

Natalia smiled. "I know."

"Don't talk outside. Go inside and have a seat."

"Alright, let me also visit my aunt."

The three of them entered the ward together. Lottie immediately noticed the man sitting by the bed chatting with Mrs. Ross.

She was a little surprised and turned to ask Natalia, "This is..."

Natalia immediately introduced him to her. "Oh, this is Lincoln. Mr. Parry introduced her as my partner."

"Lincoln, this is Lottie. She's my good friend."

Lincoln got up and walked over to Lottie with a clean smile on her face.

"Mrs. Chapman, I've heard a lot about you."

Lottie raised her eyebrow. "Have you heard of me?"

"Mrs.

Chapman, who is famous in Rexwell, has been working hard all the way from a stunt double to a famous star. Your face is like a living signboard. It's hard for me not to know you."

Lottie smiled when she heard that. For some reason, she could sense the faint hostility emanating from Lincoln.

"If you know me from the news and trending topic, then you shouldn't have very good impression of me, right?"

"Mrs. Chapman, why did you say that?"

"Recently, the news about me doesn't seem to be good one."

"Are you referring to the incident that you turned into Lucian to open a seminary and only received one dollar to teach girls martial arts?"

Lottie didn't say anything, neither did she admit or deny it.

"This matter is indeed quite controversial, but I believe that Mrs. Chapman's original intention was actually for the sake of those girls. In fact, I admire you very much. As long as you want to do something, you will definitely do it. And no matter what others do, you just want to have a clear conscience, just like the ancient heroine in the world."

Lottie raised her eyebrow. It was obviously a compliment, but in her opinion, it was inexplicably so unpleasant to hear.

"Then I have to say thank you."

Natalia looked at her in surprise. "No, I was obviously praising you."

Natalia felt that Lincoln was right. In fact, that was what she thought.

Although there were many people who had misunderstood her, in her eyes, many of her actions were particularly cool!

Lottie turned to look at Natalia. She felt that her idol, whom she had always liked, was really a babe in the wood.

She didn't understand the sarcasm in Lincoln's words at all. Instead, she thought that she was praising her sincerely.

Lottie smiled.

"Because in Mr. Yung's words, I'm not like a heroine, but a selfish person who only makes myself happy."

Lincoln raised her eyebrows slightly, and an apologetic look appeared in her eyes.

"I didn't mean that. You might have misunderstood what I meant."

"Mr.

Yung should be very clear about whether it's a misunderstanding or not."

While they were talking, the atmosphere was not quite right.

Natalia was at a loss. She did not know why Lottie was against Lincoln.

Just as Natalia was confused, Lincoln took the initiative to take a few steps back.

Then, he smiled at her and said, "Mrs. Chapman, you're not here just to visit Natalia and her aunt, are you? Have you visited him before? Did he say something to you that caused you to misunderstand me?"

After saying that, Natalia suddenly understood.

"Did Kayden speak ill of Lincoln?"

She gnashed her teeth in hatred. She didn't expect that a man like Kayden would complain!

"He is really amazing. Why didn't I know he was such a person before?"

After listening, Lottie frowned. "I did visit Kayden, but he didn't mention you to me."

Lincoln smiled gently and said, "I might have misunderstood him. The next time I meet him, I will definitely apologize to him."

"No need. It's obvious that he is rude!"

"Natalia, that's different."

"Mrs. Chapman shouldn't lie to cover for her husband's nephew. It's true that I misunderstood Mr. Chapman. I should apologize to him."

"But..."

Natalia bit her lip and glanced at Lottie again, her eyes clearly filled with suspicion.

Lottie was so angry that she almost laughed.

"Wow, this Lincoln is so amazing, but he is still a male bi*ch."

Kayden seemed to be capable of fighting, but in fact, he was a fool. Otherwise, he would not have been unable to recognize his heart for so many years and gotten to the point where he was courting his wife's death.

If Kayden were to confront Lincoln himself, he would most likely be bullied bitterly.

For the time being, Lottie didn't intend to pay any attention to that bi*ch Lincoln, so she went closer to greet Mrs.

Ross.

"Hello, Aunt. I'm here to see you. How you are doing recently."

"It's Ms. Green. Thank you for coming to see me. Actually, I'm fine. Thank you for coming here."

"No problem. Natalia is my good friend. Her mother is the same as my own mother."

Lottie smiled and opened the thermos in her hand.

"This is the chicken soup I made myself. Before I came here, I specially asked the doctor that this is very useful for nourishing. It will be helpful for you to eat it before the operation."

"Well, thank you so much."

Lottie shook her head with a smile and served her a small bowl of chicken soup.

Natalia quickly took the bowl. "Let me do it. Thank you, Lottie."

Hearing that, Lottie stood up and gave way from the bed. When she turned around, she saw Lincoln staring at Fabian beside her.

Recalling what had happened to Fabian earlier, Lottie felt a little nervous.

She quickly walked over to block Lincoln's sight.

"I suddenly remember that Mr. Old Chapman and Mr. Parry are old friends, but he seems to have never heard of the Yung family in Rexwell. I wonder if Mr. Yung is from Rexwell?"

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 408 Being Others' Helper

The smile on Lincoln's face gradually faded.

"I am indeed not from Rexwell, but my grandfather is from there. He is an old friend of Grandpa Mr. Parry, so he has always treated me as his grandson."

Lottie nodded.

"I see."

"Did Mr. Yung know Natalia before?"

Lincoln looked at her in surprise.

"Mrs. Chapman, why do you ask that?"

"I heard that Mr. Yung wanted to work in the field of education. Will Natalia's previous experience affect her enrollment? Why did you choose to cooperate with her?"

"He didn't know her in advance and didn't know what kind of person she was? Isn't Mr. Yung afraid that she will cause him trouble in the future?"

Lottie's words caused Natalia's face to turn slightly pale.

She hadn't expected this. She had only heard Lincoln that it was all just pie in the sky for her, which made her forget her situation for a while.

Yes, not everyone was like Mr. Parry's granddaughter as her loyal fan.

Not everyone cared about her past experiences and was willing to accept her guidance.

Lincoln could have made a better choice, but why did she have to cooperate with him?

The things that she hadn't thought of before had all been remembered by Lottie's reminder.

She looked at Lincoln with a very serious expression, as if she was waiting for his answer.

Lincoln narrowed his eyes slightly. If it was the fact that he hadn't treated her seriously in the beginning, then from this moment on, he finally realized that this woman was not simple.

As expected, the woman who could deal with Mr. Chapman's woman was not simple.

He could only nod gently and admit it.

"I did know her a long time ago."

As he spoke, he took out a photo from his jacket pocket.

Natalia took it and looked at it in surprise. "This is a photo of me in the orphanage!"

It had been many years since that period of time. She might not have been able to leave any photos of that time. But how did Lincoln have her photo?

"You..." Natalia looked at Lincoln hesitantly.

Lincoln looked back at Natalia. His eyes were full of tenderness and nostalgia.

"Sister Natalia, do you really not remember me?"

Natalia was confused.

Even Lottie was greatly surprised.

How could this bitch-like man have a relationship with Natalia?

Moreover, they seemed to know each other earlier than Kayden.

Could they be a couple since childhood?

Seeing that Natalia had no impression at all, Lincoln could only continue to say.

"It's not your fault. At that time, I was thin and small. I was always bullied by Yara.

If I wasn't protected by you and other sisters, I wouldn't have grown up."

"That time, I was pushed into the water by someone. If you hadn't found out and called the adult to save me, I would have died a long time ago."

"I would not have been taken away safely by my family."

When Natalia heard this, a vague figure flashed in her mind.

"You... Are you Yung?"

"It's me. I'm your little Yung! Sister Natalia, you finally remember me!"

Lincoln was so happy that he wanted to hold her in his arms.

Natalia finally remembered who he was. Her face was full of disbelief.

"I only know that your name is Yung. I don't know your name is Lincoln. Besides, you didn't stay in the orphanage for a few days. Later, your family found you and took you away."

This was also the reason why Natalia did not dare to think about the poor boy Yung at first.

In fact, she should have spent less than half a month with Lincoln in that small orphanage.

At that time, Lincoln was very thin and weak. It seemed that he couldn't walk steadily.

Seeing him, Natalia thought of her younger brother. She could not help paying more attention to him.

Later, she found that he seemed to have been bullied by other children all the time. She couldn't bear to help him a few times. But because it had been too long and they were just trivial matters, Natalia didn't take it seriously.

Besides, Lincoln had been taken away by his family. So Natalia couldn't remember him.

However, she still remembered that Lincoln had been pushed into the water.

It was indeed she who had called the adult of the orphanage to fetch him from the river.

It seemed that Lincoln had gotten a high fever for several days and had almost died.

Later, he was sent to the central hospital for rescue. Then he came back to life. It seemed that he happened to meet someone who knew him. So not long after, Lincoln's family found the orphanage according to the clue.

"So it's you. It seems that you've been doing well all these years. So I'm relieved."

Natalia was very happy for Lincoln. After all, he could be considered her old playmate.

Lincoln stared at Natalia and said, "I went to the orphanage to look for you later. But they said that you had been taken away by your family, and even Yara left with you."

Lincoln was very afraid of Yara. After all, he had been bullied a lot by her.

Therefore, after learning that Yara had also been adopted by the parents of the Ross family, he did not dare to contact Natalia because of his fear of Yara.

Later, Lincoln went abroad to study.

When he was abroad, he would occasionally pay attention to the domestic news. He knew that Natalia had become a big star. He had thought of coming back to find her many times, but he couldn't do it for various reasons.

Not long ago, he came back from his studies and wanted to find Natalia. But he learned that she had married into a rich and powerful family.

Lincoln was very regretful. He had been thinking of ways to get close to Natalia to find an opportunity to meet her.

However, he did not expect that before he could find the right opportunity, the news of Yara's return came out. Later, she inexplicably became Ralph's fiancée.

After that, Lincoln went to inquire and found out more inside stories. He learned that Yara was still entangled with Natalia's husband. But Kayden mistook Yara for Natalia!

On the one hand, Lincoln felt sorry for Natalia.

On the other hand, he felt that the Chapman family had gone too far!

Before long, the news that Natalia and Kayden had divorced and Natalia had announced her withdrawal of amusement circle came out one after another.

Natalia's reputation had been ruined and everyone hated her.

However, Lincoln felt that the opportunity he had been waiting for finally came.

"Yes, I didn't stay in the orphanage for long. Then my family found me and took me back." Natalia didn't want to mention Yara, so she directly ignored Yara.

Lincoln didn't care. He just looked at Natalia with his sparkling eyes.

"I didn't dare to look for you before. But this time I met you by chance. So I really want to do something with you."

"You don't have to doubt my motive. No matter what, I won't hurt you."

"I believe in you. I also believe that the crisis in front of you can be overcome. I want to try with you!"

Natalia sniffed and was obviously moved by Lincoln's words.

Lottie was speechless.

She wanted to expose Lincoln's disguise. But she didn't expect that she would help him instead.

Fabian reached out to grab Lottie's clothes and whispered into her ear.

"She made a mistake. Mommy accidentally became someone else's assistant."

"If Kayden finds out, will he be angry?"

Lottie, "..."

It seemed that it was really difficult to end like this.

She asked Fabian in a low voice, "Why don't you ask your daddy to solve it?" .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 409

Returning to Rexwell

After receiving a call from his wife for help, Mr. Chapman immediately rushed from Rexwell to the town.

After arriving at the hospital, he didn't even spare Kayden a glance. Instead, he raised his hand and pulled Lottie into his arms.

Lottie blushed at his actions and reached out her hands to gently push him.

"Don't you miss me?"

The man's deep voice rang in Lottie's ears, as if there was an electric current, making her ears feel numb.

"I don't miss you. I just want you to help solve the problem."

"You're so stubborn."

"No."

"Really? Let me try."

After saying that, he grabbed her slender waist and kissed her directly.

Fabian stretched out his hand to cover Stella's eyes with a speechless face. Elijah seemed to be used to it.

Kayden wailed in his heart.

What did he do? His wife left him. Now he must see the sweet scene of his uncle and his aunt.

Mr. Chapman had always been used to doing whatever he wanted. So he didn't care about others' opinions. He kissed her until he was content. Then he let go of her with satisfaction.

"So sweet." Ralph said.

Lottie rolled her eyes at him with a red face. Now this man was becoming more and more shameless.

In front of so many people, he did such a shameless thing without even changing his expression.

Ralph knew that she was shy, so he stopped teasing her. He just whispered in her ear, "Let's continue after going back tonight."

Lottie twisted the flesh around his waist without batting an eyelid, which caused the man to let out a light hiss.

"Stop fooling around."

Ralph grabbed Lottie's hand and pulled her to sit down. Only then did he look at his nephew.

"How are you?"

Kayden finally got his uncle's concern, but his expression was bitter.

"Uncle, you finally remember me."

Ralph did not waste time talking to him. He said, "Don't waste time. Explain your situation clearly."

Kayden was speechless.

"Don't bully him. Let me tell you."

Lottie told Ralph what had happened to Natalia recently and also mentioned Lincoln.

After listening to the story between Natalia and Lincoln, Ralph held his chin with one hand and looked thoughtful.

"What's wrong?"

"I don't know why. But I always feel that this story sounds very familiar."

After that, Ralph looked in the direction of Kayden.

Kayden was so angry that he got out of bed. "Don't I feel familiar? That's what happened between me and Natalia!"

At that time, Kayden had met Natalia and her family in the orphanage because he had been separated from his family. Later, although he had been taken away by his family, he had fallen in love with Natalia, who had written letters to him.

Lincoln's story was similar to Kayden's. The difference was that one of them had been deceived by Yara, and the other had not been deceived by her.

In Kayden's eyes, Lincoln was a bad man who copied his story and tried to compete with him for Natalia.

"Shameless! He even made up such a story. Does he think that Natalia will think highly of him because of this? Dream on!"

After being reminded by Kayden, Lottie also remembered it. Hearing his complaints, she couldn't help laughing.

This Young Master Chapman seemed to be really angry. His face showed a ferocious look. He did not care about his Young Master's demeanor at all.

Ralph glanced at him lightly.

"Calm down."

"It's not a big deal. Look at you."

"After all, he is the successor of the group. How can't he act maturely?"

Kayden looked bitter. "I..."

Uncle just knew how to be sarcastic. If it were his aunt who wanted to divorce him, he would probably be more panicked than him!

"From what you said, do you have a solution?"

Lottie glanced sideways at her husband and interrupted him.

Ralph smiled.

"You want to know? Beg me."

Lottie rolled her eyes in her heart.

"Say it or not."

Anyway, she was not in a hurry. Lincoln seemed to be very kind to Natalia, so he would not hurt her.

It wasn't bad to let Natalia have more choices.

Ralph felt helpless. His wife was getting more and more difficult to be fooled.

"Okay, I'll tell you. Don't be angry."

Kayden couldn't stand it anymore. "Can you stop showing off your love like this?"

He was so anxious, okay?

Ralph turned around and glared at Kayden. He had great dissatisfaction of his nephew disturbing him and his wife.

However, when he saw that Lottie wanted to know but pretended not to care it at all, his heart softened.

"It's easy to deal with Lincoln. We just need to find a reason to send him away."

"But Natalia has promised to work with him for the training class. What excuse can we find to send him away?"

Ralph turned to look at Elijah.

Elijah made an "ok" gesture to him.

"What the hell are you doing?"

Elijah's expression was cold as he calmly said, "Mommy, you'll know in a few days."

"You made it so mysterious. Can't you tell me now?"

"Because we don't know if the plan will succeed."

Ralph also said, "It's impossible for Lincoln to appear out of nowhere. Maybe we can search for his background and find some useful clues before our plan succeeds."

After that, no matter how Lottie and Kayden asked, Ralph refused to reveal anything.

Even the three children kept their secrets, only letting them wait for the result. It made Lottie angry and helpless.

However, since Natalia had been secretly photographed by the paparazzi last night, it was obvious that this hospital was no longer suitable for her staying here.

After a discussion, Lottie was in charge of looking for Natalia and persuading her to transfer Mrs. Ross to Rexwell Hospital for the kidney replacement.

The medical conditions and health team there were better. Mrs. Ross's success rate would be higher. She could be better taken care of after the operation.

When Lottie went to find Natalia, she was a little worried that she would refuse it.

However, after hearing that this arrangement was better for Mrs. Ross, she still agreed after hesitating for a long time.

"But Lottie, if we transfer to Rexwell, won't my mother's surgery fee be insufficient?"

"No, Ralph went to talk to your mother's attending doctor just now. If she is transferred to another hospital now, he can directly transfer the deposit of surgery fee. This money is just enough for your mother's operation fee."

"You don't have to worry about that volunteer who donated kidney. He is more willing to go to Rexwell for the surgery."

Natalia's eyes were red. She knew that once Mr. Chapman intervened, he would definitely help her mother to arrange everything properly.

But in this way, she owed more to the Chapman family.

But Lottie was right. Since those paparazzi could take photos of her and Lincoln entering and leaving the hotel together, they might find this hospital in the future.

Her mother had worked hard all her life for this family. When the operation was about to begin, Natalia would not allow any accident to happen at this time.

"Thank you, Lottie."

"When are we going back to Rexwell?"

"Silly Natalia, don't be so polite to me."

"If you are okay, we can set off immediately."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 410 Sorry, I'm Late

The decision to return to Rexwell was a little sudden.

Mr. Ross and Zack had no objections. They shared the same thought as Natalia.

As long as it was good to Mrs. Ross, they could accept anywhere she went.

Only Mrs. Ross felt a little uneasy.

She knew that her illness had caused her daughter a lot of trouble. Now for her, she had to make Natalia bow to the Chapman family, which made her very uncomfortable.

When she saw that Natalia was so busy packing up everything in the ward and taking them to Rexwell, her nose twitched slightly.

"Ross, why don't you forget it?"

"Can't we have an operation here?"

Natalia looked back at Mrs. Ross's worried eyes and immediately understood what she was thinking.

She leaned over and hugged her. "It's okay, mom. The success rate of the operation is higher when we go back to the city hospital."

"And the public security here is not very good, and the privacy is also not protected well. After all, your daughter used to be a public figure. I am afraid that if someone recognizes me, it will cause you trouble."

"We've been living here for a few days and have not encountered any trouble."

"And if I go to the hospital in the city, the hospitalization fee will be higher, right?"

"Ross... Why don't we just forget it?"

Mrs. Ross still didn't want to add too much trouble to her daughter. She was used to staying here, so it was more uncomfortable for her to go to the big city.

Natalia's eyes were red. She did not know what to say.

Zack added. "Mom, listen to my sister. Let's cure your illness first, and then think about other things."

"And don't look like there's nothing wrong with it now. When I went to fetch water for you just now, I heard someone gossiping in the ward next door. It seems that they recognized my sister."

Mrs. Ross's expression froze.

Judging from Zack's expression, it seemed that what those people said would not be pleasant.

If she continued to stay, maybe someone would really come to make trouble.

"Then... Ross, didn't you promise Yung that you would stay here for the training class in the future? Will it be bad for him if we leave like this?"

Lincoln left in the morning. Mrs. Ross always felt uncomfortable when he was here.

Not long after recognizing Natalia, Lincoln quickly found an excuse to leave.

His well-behaved behavior left a good impression on the Ross family. Mrs. Ross even felt that since there was such a connection, it would be a good choice for Natalia to be with him in the end.

Natalia thought for a moment and said, "I'll apologize to Lincoln later, but he's so considerate. I don't think he has any objection."

Lottie had just returned to tell Kayden that Natalia was also returning to Rexwell. She was here to see if they had packed up.

However, as soon as she entered the ward, she heard the conversation between Mrs. Ross and Natalia. She could not help raising her eyebrows.

"Aunt, you can come back after your operation is over and your body recovers."

"The training class isn't something that can be held so easily. As for Natalia's career, you still need to consider it carefully. The most important thing is to choose a job that she likes and has a promising future. What do you think?"

Lottie didn't think that Natalia wanted to be a teacher. If Natalia compromised now, she might take a path that would make her regret in the future. This wasn't what she wanted to see.

Natalia tilted her head to look at Lottie. When she saw her bright eyes, which seemed to see through everything, she felt a little inexplicably guilty.

At this moment, messy footsteps suddenly came from the corridor. There was a noise not far away.

"Why is it so noisy all of a sudden? I'll go and have a look." Zack got up.

Before he could reach the door, Cais walked in quickly.

"Mrs. Chapman, Miss Ross, have you packed up? A bunch of reporters suddenly came from outside. I think it's better for us to leave as soon as possible."

After saying that, everyone in the ward was stunned.

"Why are they here so fast..." Natalia frowned.

However, Lottie made a prompt decision and called Cais out.

"Cais and I will lure the reporters away. Natalia, take uncle and aunt to the parking lot first to find Ralph.

"

"Hurry up!"

Otherwise, it would be troublesome to be entangled by these people.

"Lottie... be careful."

Lottie heard it and smiled at Natalia. "Don't worry. My kung fu isn't for nothing."

After that, she rolled up her sleeves and walked out with great momentum.

Natalia knew that the situation was urgent. She did not have time to worry and immediately instructed her younger brother.

"Zack, push the wheelchair over."

Zack pushed the wheelchair over. Natalia and Mr. Ross helped Mrs. Ross get into the wheelchair, and then quickly grabbed things to move to the elevator.

When she walked out of the ward, Natalia glanced at Lottie. At this moment, she was standing in front of the crowd, leading her bodyguards and Cais to help to stop the media reporters who had appeared out of nowhere.

After thanking her in her heart, Natalia quickly pushed Mrs. Ross into the elevator.

The elevator went down slowly. When they reached the first floor, there was another group of reporters outside.

They had wanted to meet Natalia, but they were too late. They thought that they would not be able to get the headline this time. But they did not expect that they would encounter her face to face.

After they were stunned at first, these people suddenly smiled happily.

"Natalia is indeed here!"

"Natalia! Someone photographed you entering and leaving the hotel with different men. Your private life is extremely chaotic. Do you have anything to explain?"

"Did you really cheat on others in the marriage? So you left the family without asking for money?"

"Natalia, you've fallen from a movie queen to this state. You can't even afford to pay for your mother's hospital fee. Is that true?"

"Natalia, have you ever thought that your behavior will disappoint your fans?"

"Natalia.

.."

The cameras kept flashing. These reporters blocked Natalia and the others in the elevator. Regardless of the scene and Natalia's family members, the questions they asked became sharper and more ruthless.

Natalia's face was pale.

She didn't expect that these people would still refuse to let her go, even if she had announced her withdrawal of amusement circle.

They wanted to step on her body and squeeze out the last bit of her value. They didn't care how embarrassed she was at the moment.

She said again and again, "I'm sorry. Please give way."

However, it was completely useless.

No one heard what she said. Those people still carried heavy machines and forced her to the dead corner of the elevator step by step.

Afraid that her mother in the wheelchair would be hurt, Natalia could only cover Mrs. Ross and try to protect her with her own body.

She bit her lower lip and tried not to cry.

Right at this moment...

"Get lost!"

A man's voice full of hostility sounded behind them.

Someone rushed over and rudely dragged the people who surrounded the elevator outside.

Those people tried to struggle, but were directly dragged away by the crazy man.

Some were knocked over by a punch and were kicked a few more times.

His crazy behavior finally shocked everyone present. All the reporters in the elevator were driven out.

Kayden panted slightly and glared at the people outside like an eagle. Then he took off his suit jacket and gently covered Natalia's body.

"Sorry, I'm late."
