

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 411

Affected the City Safety Too Much

Natalia looked up at the man in front of her.

Because of the series of actions just now, his hair was slightly messy. His originally pale and gloomy cheeks turned slightly red. There were still some sweat on his forehead. But he looked at her with pity in his eyes.

Natalia was shocked.

She had never seen such a look in Kayden's eyes before.

It was not that she had never seen it before, but that kind of glance had never been given to her.

But this time...

Was Kayden really looking at her?

"Isn't this Kayden?"

"Why is Young Master Chapman here..."

"Isn't it said that he has divorced Natalia? Why is he still protecting her so hard?"

"Then we..."

The whispers of the reporters came from the side woke up several people who were immersed in their own emotions.

Kayden loosened his grip on Natalia's shoulder and pulled her behind him.

He looked coldly at the group of people opposite him.

"Who asked you to come?"

His momentum was so strong that his slightly raised tightened jaw made people break out in a cold sweat for no reason.

The reporters, who had been arrogant, trembled slightly in the face of the oppressive eyes of the Young Master of the Chapman Family.

Someone explained in a trembling voice, "Mr. Chapman... Mr. Chapman, we just want to restore the truth to the public."

Kayden sneered with disdain.

"Is it for the truth or for your own interests?"

"That's not the case."

In the crowd, a middle-aged man stood out with a deliberately flattering smile on his face.

"Anyway, Natalia has already left the amusement circle. She is not an artist, so she doesn't need to care about what others think of her. We let her occasionally appear in front of the public. It will be good for her to come back in the future..."

Kayden's glance became extremely terrifying in an instant.

"What did you just say?"

The middle-aged man was frightened by Kayden's glare and immediately fell silent.

"I don't think you are an artist. Do you mean that I can expose your privacy at will?"

The middle-aged man stammered and explained. "I... I didn't mean that."

"Cais!"

Kayden ignored his explanation and gave orders to Cais, who was rushing over.

"Take off his clothes and throw him on the street for people to watch."

"We also have to find someone to do live streaming. The public should see his dirty look!"

Cais brought a group of bodyguards to control the scene. After hearing Kayden's words, a bodyguard immediately went forward to pull the middle-aged man.

The man's face showed a frightened expression and he hurriedly shouted, "No, no!"

"This is an insult to my personality. You can't do this."

Kayden sneered.

"You're allowed to steal other people's privacy. I'm just treating them with my own way. Can't you stand it?"

"I'm sorry! I was wrong! Mr. Chapman, I know I was wrong. I won't do it again. Please don't do this to me!"

After being dragged out by the bodyguards, the man immediately cried and begged for mercy.

"Who is the person you really should apologize to?" Kayden's tone was cold.

"I'm sorry, Miss Natalia! It's my fault. I apologize to you! I'm really sorry. It's my bad luck. It's my bad luck. Please don't let Mr. Chapman treat me like this!"

The middle-aged man was afraid. Kayden was not someone to be trifled with. He had always kept his word and was not afraid of the consequences.

He had a family and career. If he was really stripped naked and put on the Internet, he would be too ashamed to face others.

Not only that, but also his family would be gossiped about. Even his children could not be excluded from school.

Only at this moment did he truly feel regret.

Kayden kept a straight face and said nothing.

Finally, Natalia pulled the hem of Kayden's clothes from behind.

Kayden felt the power of her and turned to look at Natalia gently.

Natalia, "Forget it.

Natalia's face was pale, but her eyes were extremely calm.

Having been in the entertainment industry for so long, she was used to the aggressiveness of entertainment reporters.

It was not that she did not hate these people's behavior, but if she really did that, it might not be good for Kayden's reputation.

After all, Kayden was here to protect her, so she didn't want to make trouble for him.

In the past, Kayden was just the son of the Chapman family, so it was not a big deal for him to be arrogant. But later, Kayden would inherit the Chapman Group. If he did something wrong, the whole group would be affected.

"Are you sure? They didn't care about the feelings of you and your parents at all." Kayden said.

Natalia bit her lower lip and glanced at her family.

In the end, she said, "You don't have to strip him naked. This will affect the city face too much."

"But we can ask him to apologize to my family online in other ways."

"Can I?"

At first, she said it firmly, but the last three words were somehow pleading.

She sounded soft, as if she was acting like a spoiled child.

Kayden's heart softened.

She was indeed the kind-hearted but persistent fairy. Why couldn't he recognize her before?

Obviously, the quality was so obvious.

Once again, he sighed in his heart that she was blind. Kayden nodded gently under Natalia's gaze.

"Of course."

After that, he turned to look at the middle-aged man who had knelt on the ground, and his expression turned cold in a second.

"Did you hear me clearly?"

"Listen carefully! Thank you very much, Miss Natalia. I will definitely apologize seriously!"

The man breathed a sigh of relief. Fortunately, Natalia was willing to let him go.

Kayden turned his gaze to the other reporters and said coldly.

"Where are you?"

The group of people were already shivering, afraid that they would be treated the same way. When they saw Kayden looking over, they immediately begged for mercy.

"I'm sorry, too. I'll apologize together!"

"I'm sorry, Miss Natalia!"

"It's our fault.

Please forgive us!"

"I'll make an apology on Twitter now."

"I will put the apology statement on the top of the month!"

The others were very sensible and admitted their mistakes and begged for mercy.

Kayden finally looked away from Cais.

"You are responsible for keeping an eye on them. If anyone dares to go against my will..."

Cais nodded. "Understood."

Kayden snorted and turned to look at Natalia.

"Shall we go first?"

Natalia heaved a sigh of relief and nodded.

"Mom, let's go."

Mrs. Ross was angry and afraid at first, but at this moment, she felt very gratified.

"Okay, let's go."

Under everyone's gaze, the Ross family slowly walked to the parking lot.

Kayden followed them with a faint smile on his face.

At this moment, Ralph, who had not shown up, suddenly appeared and pushed another wheelchair.

"Can you still stand?"

Kayden turned to look at Ralph and said, "Uncle."

Ralph nodded at him. "He was pretty handsome just now."

Kayden smiled foolishly.

"Do you still want legs?" Ralph asked again.

Kayden's smile froze. Seeing that there was no one around, he didn't force himself to sit down in the wheelchair.

To be honest, he was in so much pain after a little exercise.

It was likely that he would be scolded by the doctor again.

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 412 Don't Change Your Words in the Future

When they arrived at the parking lot, Lottie was already waiting there.

When she saw the few of them walking over, a hint of a smile appeared in Lottie's eyes.

"Did you get hurt just now?"

Natalia shook her head and looked pale.

"Sorry, it's all because of me that I caused you trouble."

"What are you talking about? It was never you who caused trouble."

Lottie comforted her and then looked at the tiny wound on Zack's face that had been cut open by the edge of the machine.

"Uncles and aunts, get in the car first. Zack, sit with us. I'll treat the wound on your face later."

Zack touched his face and said in a cold tone, "No, thanks..."

This little injury was nothing to him.

However, Natalia said, "Go ahead."

Zack still wanted to say something, but when he saw his sister's eyes, he paused and nodded.

"Thank you, Mrs. Chapman."

"Mrs. Chapman, just call me Sister Lottie."

Lottie rubbed his head and arranged for him to get into the car in front of them.

The door opened and three babies lined up.

Elijah was looking at the tablet in his hand. When he saw the door open, he looked at Zack.

Stella and Fabian gathered together to play the game. It seemed that the battle was still very fierce.

Stella looked away from the game door and looked at Zack. She took out a pink bandage from her pocket and handed it to him.

"Brother Zack, this is for you."

Zack took it and thanked him. "Thank you."

"You're welcome."

Stella waved her hand indifferently with a sweet smile on her face and asked, "Do you want a lollipop?"

Fabian passed the latest checkpoint and snatched the lollipop from Stella.

"I bought this lollipop for you, custom-made!"

"It doesn't matter! Brother Zack is not an outsider. Why are you so stingy?"

"I'm not stingy, but this lollipop is specially for you! You can't give it to others!"

Stella curled lips and said. "It's mine. I have the right to give it to others."

"You can't!"

"Sure!"

"No!"

Under such a noisy noise, Elijah sighed silently.

He put away the tablet and took out another lollipop from his pocket.

"Here you are. Brother Zack, come in and have a seat."

"Don't bother with them."

When Zack saw the Buddha-style expression on Elijah's face, which he had long been used to, he could not help but smile.

He got into the car first and sat down next to Elijah.

"Thank you, Elijah.

Elijah then handed the tablet to Zack.

"They have already apologized."

Zack took it and looked at it. He found that it was all from the media and reporters.

On Twitter, the reporters admitted that they deliberately slandered Natalia for the sake of interests and popularity. They also revealed the name of the culprit who ordered them to do this, and even attached evidence to it.

The person who had sent someone to photograph Natalia secretly was the same person who had ordered these reporters to chase after Natalia in the hospital.

This man used to be Natalia's rival, and now he was a popular star in film and television. In the past, he had always been suppressed by Natalia and had suffered losses several times in Natalia's hands. He had always hated Natalia.

Now that she saw that Natalia was divorced and retired, she wanted to take advantage of this opportunity to trample on Natalia again. She would never be able to turn over again.

"Why is this person so disgusting?"

After seeing the truth, Zack frowned hard.

However, Elijah patted his hand and comforted him. "Kayden won't let her go. You don't have to worry."

Zack thought of the scene when Kayden stood in front of them and smiled.

Outside the car.

Lottie arranged for the parents of the Ross family to be in another car, and Natalia followed.

After entering, he found that it was a very spacious nanny car, which was equipped with doctors and medical staff.

After they sat inside, Lottie said to Natalia, "Can Kayden come with you?"

Natalia opened her mouth and hesitated.

"Don't get me wrong. I'm not trying to create an opportunity for him. But he's more or less a patient now. I still need to check his legs so that the doctor can take care of him nearby."

Only then did Natalia remember Kayden's leg injury and her face turned slightly pale.

"Is he all right?"

Lottie glanced not far away. Ralph had already pushed his nephew over.

"It shouldn't be a big deal."

"If you think it's too disturbing, I'll arrange another car for him.

At this time, Mrs. Ross pulled Natalia's hand.

"Natalia, let Kayden come with us."

Mr. Ross also chimed in, "At least he's here to protect us."

Natalia was already shaken. Now that her parents had said so, she didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

"Got it. I'm not the kind of person who doesn't know how to behave properly."

"Besides, this car was arranged by the Chapman family, and I have no right to refuse."

Ralph had just approached with Kayden when he heard Natalia's last sentence.

Ralph greeted Mr. and Mrs. Ross before looking at Natalia.

"Ms. Ross, please don't say that."

"No matter how close Kayden is to you, you will always be a good friend of Lottie."

"So, whether it's a car or hospital transfer, our care for you is out of our friendship."

"You don't have to feel burdened. If you change your position with Lottie today, I believe that you won't stand by and do nothing to her, will you?"

Ralph was indeed Ralph.

Just a few simple words swept away all the troubles and uneasiness in Natalia's heart.

He was right. It was not shameful to accept friends' help. She was too narrow-minded before.

She finally nodded seriously and said solemnly, "Thank you, uncle."

Ralph could not help but smile. "What did you call me?"

Natalia came back to her senses and her face turned slightly red. She said awkwardly, "I'm sorry..

. I'm used to it and haven't changed for a while."

"No need to change." Ralph smiled and gestured for the doctor in the carriage to help him.

The doctor helped Kayden up from the wheelchair, got him into the car, and then gave him an examination.

Kayden blushed and whispered, "That's right. We haven't divorced yet. You don't have to change your mind in the future."

Natalia,"..."

She didn't know why, but she felt a little speechless when she saw how complicated her feelings for Kayden were.

"Thank you for your help just now. Also, how's your leg?"

Seeing that Natalia could finally speak to him in a normal tone, Kayden was very excited.

"I'm fine. Thank you for caring about me."

Natalia looked at him as if he was looking at a fool, but the doctor next to her darkened his face.

"Who told you that your legs are fine?"

"The wound is getting worse again. Do you still want your legs?"

"I've never seen a patient as disobedient as you!"

Just like what Kayden was worried about, the doctor was really angry.

Kayden apologized in a hurry. Seeing this, Natalia subconsciously comforted him. The atmosphere in the car was quite lively.

Standing outside the car, Ralph and Lottie smiled at each other and gently closed the door.

"Let's go home."

Ralph walked up to her and held her hand, a faint smile on his face.

Lincoln sat in his own carriage behind them. His eyes were filled with hatred and unwillingness as he looked at Ralph's back.

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 413 Are You Ready to Return to the Entertainment Circle?

On the way back to Rexwell.

Lottie and Ralph got into the car in front of them and sat together with the three babies and Zack.

Because it was a nanny car for eight people, the seats were just right.

Lottie applied ointment to the wound on Zack's face, and then helped him put on the bandage.

The pink and tender one was the one that Stella gave to Zack.

Zack was very sensible. After applying the medicine, he changed to the passenger seat and left the empty seat behind for the five of them.

He had wanted to return to Mrs. Ross's car, but was gently stopped by Lottie.

"Zack, are you scared of what happened today?"

Lottie leaned against Ralph and asked Zack lazily.

Zack shook his head. "This little thing can't scare me."

"Good boy, have you ever thought about what to do in the future?"

Zack was stunned.

Lottie added, "You can't stay in the town forever. Have you thought about where to go in the future?"

Zack bit his lower lip. He was not as good-looking as Natalia. Although he was still pretty, according to the standards of the entertainment industry, he was nothing. Besides, he was not as excellent as the others. He was just a scholar. When it came to hobbies and expertise, he had nothing.

He loved to watch his sister's acting, so he didn't know if it was one of them.

In his imagination, people like him, who had no good look or ability, should find a job that could be sold for strength in the town, such as a car repair factory, to repair cars for others, which was barely enough for him to feed himself and his parents.

Zack told the truth.

Lottie was stunned for a long time before she burst out laughing.

"Why don't you have any advantages? Don't belittle yourself. In my opinion, you are much more alert than others."

Zack turned to look at Lottie in surprise.

Lottie's face was wreathed in smiles. "And you have a pair of sharp eyes that can see through people's hearts. When everyone else was deceived by Yara's hypocritical appearance, it was you who stood out and revealed her in front of others."

"And Kayden, when your sister and your parents were disappointed with his behavior, you were the first to stand up and say that you still believe him. Kayden also told us your doubts about Lincoln. You are so sensitive, how can you say that you have no ability?"

Zack's face, which had always been expressionless, suddenly turned red when he heard Lottie's words.

He had never been praised like this before. For a moment, he felt proud and shy.

Lottie saw his expression clearly and pursed her lips into a smile.

"So cute.

Hearing this, Ralph glanced at Zack's face.

In his heart, Zack was indeed very cute, but he looked serious.

"How is it cute?"

Lottie looked back at him in surprise with a smile at the corner of her eyes.

"No way, Mr. Chapman, are you jealous?"

"I like sour food, can't I?"

Lottie couldn't stop laughing. She leaned over and kissed him hard on the lips.

"Is this okay? Mr. Chapman, why are you so cute?"

The corners of Ralph's lips lifted slightly, but he still kept a straight face. "Not bad."

The three babies who had been watching the whole process, "..."

They are used to it.

After listening for a long time, Fabian understood what his mommy was up to, so he simply made it clear for her.

"Brother Zack, Mommy is praising you because she wants you to work with her."

Zack widened his eyes and kowtowed. "Really... really?"

"As expected of my son, he knows me so well." Lottie thought.

He immediately smiled and nodded. "I think you have the potential to be a star assistant. You are smart and steady. Most importantly, your character is reliable."

"Star Assistant?" Zack's eyes lit up.

"I don't know why you were not taken away by Natalia before, but I think you are not young anymore. Now that your mother is ill, the burden on our family can't be thrown to your sister like before. I think you are not a selfish child."

Zack's eyes turned red. Of course not.

When his sister and Kayden got married and their family were ridiculed and looked down upon by Kayden's mother, he swore that he would make a lot of money to support his sister in the future.

However, a wish was a wish, and reality is reality.

He had neither education nor background. It was really difficult for him to stand out.

It was not that her sister had never thought of taking him with her. However, at that time, Natalia was still relying on Kayden. If she took him with her again, Zack was afraid that his sister would be gossiped about by Chapmans, so he refused.

If there was a way to earn more money and a better future, he would not refuse again.

He knew very well how it felt to have no money in his pocket when an accident happened.

He didn't want to leave the pressure on Natalia alone.

"Sister Lottie! If I can really stay with you and work, I will definitely work very hard!"

"It doesn't matter even if I have less money, as long as I can learn something."

Lottie smiled. "You child, how can we let you suffer losses?"

However, Ralph said at this time, "You have to think about it. You may not be able to stay with your parents and take care of them in the future. You have to persuade them to let you stay in Rexwell. Is that okay?"

As expected, Zack hesitated. In the end, he said, "I will discuss it with them. I can also let them stay in Rexwell with me.

I will rent a house for them!"

The more he thought about it, the more he felt that it was feasible. Staying in the town all the time would not help her sister's future development. The most important thing was that Rexwell's conditions were much better than in the town. If anything happened to his parents, it could be handled in time.

Lottie and Ralph looked at each other with smiles in their eyes.

"Okay, find an opportunity to discuss it with your family first. If they agree to let you stay, you can come to me again."

"Thank you, Sister Lottie!"

Lottie waved her hand indifferently.

Ralph said, "Let's not talk about it for the time being. Anyway, you should stay in Rexwell for a few more days this time. You can discuss it with them after Auntie's operation is completed."

"Yes, they will definitely think too much now. Thank you for your suggestion, Mr. Chapman."

Ralph also waved his hand and said, "You're welcome."

Stella's crisp and childish voice rang out. "Mommy, are you looking for Brother Zack to be your assistant? Are you preparing to return to the entertainment industry?"

Stella's words silenced the carriage.

Fabian turned to look at Lottie.

"Mommy, will you be busy after your comeback?"

"Don't you have time to cook for us and play with us?"

Lottie opened her mouth and finally asked with a smile, "You don't want me to go out to work?"

Elijah, "I can't bear it."

Fabian looked a little sad. "I'm not willing either."

Lottie was just about to comfort them when she heard Fabian say, "But we won't stop you." .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 414 SFLE Media

Lottie looked at the Fabian in surprise.

Fabian snorted.

"Mommy, do you think we're selfish people who only care about our own happiness and don't care about our parents?"

"As long as you want to do something, we will support you."

As expected, Lottie was very touched to hear that. She wanted to pick up these babies and rub her little face.

Stella chuckled. "Mommy, don't watch him pretend to be pitiful."

"In fact, he wanted you to come out again a long time ago. He secretly watched the movie you played before more than a hundred times!"

Fabian were destroyed by Stella, and her face couldn't help blushing.

"You're the same yourself. You're always collecting news headlines in the entertainment industry. You even compared others with Mommy, saying that they can't compare with Mommy!"

"I... I'm telling the truth. They're no match for Mommy!"

"You also sneaked into other people's fan group to be an undercover!"

"I'm just waiting to see if they're speaking ill of Mommy behind her back. If that's the case, Mommy won't have to cooperate with such a person in the future!"

"You cut the video yourself and posted it on Twitter."

"I'm sending benefits to Mommy's fans. They like Mommy so much. Shouldn't they be rewarded?"

"You..."

"You're saying that you're the same yourself! Who's showing off to your classmates every day and saying that Mommy is the most beautiful star?"

Fabian were finally rendered speechless by Stella, and their faces were flushed red. They looked at Lottie guiltily and stammered, "I... I'm telling the truth. Mommy is the most beautiful."

"You said Mommy would definitely get the movie queen and fight with Fatty!"

Fabian finally broke down. "How did you tell mommy about my fight? You... didn't keep your promise!"

"You said that first!" Stella was fuming as she turned her gaze towards Elijah. "Big Brother didn't say anything about me, so I didn't say anything about him."

Elijah, "...

Silly boy, you've almost finished all your old stories.

He knew that there would be such a day.

With a long sigh, Elijah handed the tablet he had prepared to Lottie.

Lottie's eyes had been sparkling since just now. When she heard that the little babies had done so much for her, she was truly moved and guilty. She didn't even know that they had done so much for her behind her back.

Seeing Elijah handing over the tablet, she couldn't help but suck in her nose and ask, "What is this?"

"The plan for your comeback."

Lottie was surprised. She took it over and took a look, only to find that it was a very professional marketing plan.

He analyzed all her advantages and disadvantages at present, and then made detailed plans according to these. He would improve her popularity from all aspects, and the most important thing was to improve her reputation and influence.

This was a very professional proposal, which could be said to be more professional than professional agents.

"Did you do it yourself?"

Elijah nodded and said, "Fabian and Stella also did."

Lottie was extremely moved. She had said that she wanted to make a comeback. One was that she had promised Hank Han that she would definitely make a comeback and become a movie queen. Another reason was precisely because of Natalia.

This time, the female artist who framed Natalia was Rubby.

She was Natalia's rival. Not long ago, she had just won the movie queen, and now she was very influential in the circle.

Lottie had also heard Connie complain that Rubby had snatched a lot of her artists' resources, as if she was deliberately targeting her.

Rubby framed Natalia while targeting Connie.

Lottie didn't have many close friends. Natalia and Connie were the only two.

How could they all be bullied by Rubby? Was this reasonable?

Those reporters were forced to apologize to Natalia by Kayden and they even admitted that Rubby took part in them.

This person's reputation was definitely affected.

However, Rubby also had a backer behind her. Soon, the Public Relations Department came out to clean up the mess. Rubby came out to apologize and sadfishing. This matter was actually over.

After that, if Kayden wanted to deal with her again, he would have to be scolded that he took advantage of his power to bully her.

Such a despicable and shameless woman was becoming more and more popular. How could Lottie, who had always valued relationships and had a chivalrous heart, bear it?

Therefore, Lottie planned to take the lead and return to the entertainment industry to deal with her and clear the obstacles for her good friends.

If Natalia thought it through and wanted to make a comeback, she could pave the way for her.

How wonderful it was to do this!

The most important thing was that when Elijah was investigating Rubby's background, he found that she still had contact with Yoyo.

It was Yoyo, who had been targeting her over and over again!

It was Yoyo who stole her identity and tried to replace her!

She had encountered too many dangers and troubles before. In order to get rid of Jenna and the others, she had been unable to handle all sorts of problems. This had also caused her to ignore Yoyo and not be able to settle accounts with her. She had become a fish that had escaped the net.

Now that she had come out to stir up trouble again, how could she let her hide behind and shoot a cold arrow?

This time, Lottie would no longer be passively defending her. She would drag Yoyo out to take revenge and send her to where she should go!

There were various reasons for her comeback, but she didn't really like to be a star.

She hadn't thought that her children would be so fond of her being a celebrity and be proud of her performance. This made her happy, and her heart fill with the love of the children.

Even Ralph showed his support.

"I would rather you comeback than open a Taekwondo Gym."

After hearing this, a fierce light flashed in Lottie's eyes. "What do you mean? Do you think that I'm not promising enough to open a Taekwondo Gym?"

Ralph saw her expression and immediately pulled her into his embrace to apologize.

"How can I think that you're not promising enough? I just think that you're too talented and useless to open a Taekwondo Gym. You can obviously use your influence to do more things, encourage your fans to learn self-defense, and make them increase their safety consciousness.

Isn't it faster and more effective than you working hard to teach students in the Taekwondo Gym?"

Lottie thought for a moment. She had to admit that Ralph's words made sense.

Even so, she was still unhappy.

"The children all know to help me comeback. What about you? You didn't do anything?"

Ralph,"..."

It was not that he did nothing, but that he did not dare to say anything.

It was still Elijah who said, "Daddy specially opened an entertainment company for you."

Lottie, "?"

"What company? When?"

Ralph glanced at Elijah and knew that she would not let it go if he did not make it clear. In the end, he admitted it.

"Not long ago, haven't I been working overtime?"

"I just bought an entertainment company."

Lottie thought for a moment. When she was watching the news, she seemed to have heard that the largest film and television entertainment company in the country had been bought, but she didn't expect it that the buyer was her husband.

"It seems to be called TY Media?"...

Ralph chuckled and said, "Now it's SFLE Media."

Lottie's eyes lit up. "SFLE Media?"

"Well, S, F, E are short for our children's names, and L is short for yours. Different from the Thunder Pictures of the Chapman's Group, SFLE Media specializes in serving you and the children. All resources are inclined to you."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 415 You Youth Didn't Have Martial Virtue

Lottie was both moved and surprised.

"Isn't it too extravagant to serve me alone?"

Ralph smiled and said, "I only spoil you. Are you not satisfied with that?"

"It's not that I'm not satisfied. I just feel that it's not good."

As she spoke, she couldn't help but smile.

Ralph's heart softened when he saw her smile. He could not help but smile as well.

"What's wrong with that? I'm capable of spoiling you. No matter how jealous others are, it's none business of them."

"Will it be a waste of resources to serve me alone in such a large film and television company?"

Lottie was very worried. Such a large entertainment company must have spent a lot of money to manage and maintain it every day. If she couldn't become famous and couldn't create any value, wouldn't they lose money every day?

That wouldn't do.

Ralph could not help but laugh. "If you're afraid of wasting money, sign the artist you're optimistic about and let them make money for you. That way, you won't be afraid."

With this, he looked at Zack. "Zack, if you come in the future, you can directly sign a contract with SFLE Media."

Zack listened to their conversation from the side, and his heart could no longer be described as shocked.

He really didn't expect that the way rich people doted on their wives was so overbearing.

He sent her directly to the entertainment company just to support her.

Moreover, if Lottie wasn't prepared to make a comeback, Ralph would never let her know about the acquisition of the company, and the company would remain idle.

The largest entertainment company in the country, whose daily income was estimated to be hundreds of millions, however Ralph did not even blink.

Zack was simply amazed.

At the same time, he felt lucky for himself. If he really became a staff member of SFLE Media in the future, even if he didn't work as Lottie's assistant, he would definitely have a promising future.

Because Mr. Chapman was not short of money at all!

"Okay... okay, thank you, Mr. Chapman."

After hearing this, Lottie couldn't help but laugh. It seemed that the image of Mr. Chapman, the overbearing president, had been deeply rooted in people's hearts.

Ralph smiled slightly. Then, he heard Elijah say, "I want to join too."

He was going to be an analysis manager and head of public relations for his mommy's business. He believed that as long as he was there, he would never let his mommy suffer again.

Seeing how positive Elijah was, Stella quickly raised his hand.

"I also want to join! I can be a child star and accompany Mommy to any public occasion to bring profits to the company. I can also be a stylist for mommy and give her a suggestion! I can even comment on mommy's anti-fans!"

Fabian also followed. "Me too! I... when daddy is busy, I can hold a meeting on behalf of daddy! I can also get resources for mommy and help her to become a popular star in the company. Even if I become a child star, I can do it!"

Lottie, "

.."

She had to admit that her children were too capable.

Ralph glanced at the three children who were crazily snatching his credit and snorted.

"When I was in Chapman Group, I wanted you to help me manage the company. Why are all of you not so active?"

Fabian blinked and explained, "At that time, we were still children."

"Have you grown up now?"

Fabian nodded shyly. "Now that we have grown up, we can take charge of it alone."

Stella echoed, "Yes, and Chapman Group is not our own company. Why should we be so active?"

Ralph turned to look at the Elijah.

Elijah said, "Chapman Group doesn't have mommy."

He wasn't working for anyone else. He was only serving his mommy.

Lottie was so moved that she wanted to kiss them one by one.

Which family's children were so like angels? They were really lovable.

Ralph secretly ground his teeth. Alright, he would remember all them.

"Well, I'll give you administration authorities. Every one of you has to choose a direction to take responsibility for your mommy. If something goes wrong, I'll find you to blame."

Elijah, "There can't be any problems."

He was very confident in his hacker skills.

Ralph glanced at him and said, "There's always someone better than you. Have you forgotten?"

Elijah thought of how he had lost to Ralph and lowered his head silently.

After a while, he raised his head again.

"There's something I don't understand. Just teach me."

Ralph looked at his eldest son in surprise. "Are you sure?"

Elijah nodded. "You can make the conditions."

"Then I want your mommy to cook only for me in the future?"

Elijah was silent for a moment before saying, "Change it.

He didn't want to give up this benefit.

"Then cancel your bedtime story and your good night kiss."

Elijah,"...No."

"Is this your attitude of begging for help?"

Elijah stared fixedly at him for a long time before suddenly turning his head.

"Mommy, daddy bullied me and refused to teach me."

Ralph,"..."

Young people didn't have martial virtue.

To actually complain to his wife in front of him, Elijah was really a bad student.

Sure enough, Lottie, who had been happily watching the father and son bicker earlier, immediately puffed up her face.

"Ralph, why did you bully Elijah? As daddy, if you have the ability, why don't you teach him and threaten him?"

Ralph said, "...Honey, I was wrong."

Fabian and Stella looked at each other, indicating that they had learned something.

As expected, their brother was really great.

"Mommy, I want daddy to teach me too."Stella said.

"Mommy, daddy always bullies me. He asked me to hold a meeting for him and squeeze out my childhood."The stars added.

Ralph,"..."

He ground his teeth in hatred. "Are you going to rebel?"

Lottie raised an eyebrow.

"Who are you scolding?"

Ralph,"...I was wrong."

Zack, who was watching from the side, couldn't help laughing out loud.

"That's great. Mr. Chapman and his family are really happy."

If possible, he also hoped that his sister could get his own happiness.

But he didn't know how her sister and brother-in-law got along with each other in another car.

At the same time.

Kayden, who had been severely criticized by the doctor, lowered his head awkwardly.

"I really know I was wrong."

Kayden apologized with a wooden face, feeling hopeless.

This time, the doctor in charge was Edward Grant. His uncle's good friend, and he was also his elder.

So he couldn't be angry with him casually and had to listen to him honestly. He was really embarrassed.

Fortunately, Edward Grant was finally tired. After helping him treat his injured leg, he changed his target.

Edward Grant went to check on Mrs. Ross, while Mr. Ross stayed by her side nervously and answered his simple questions from time to time.

Natalia sat next to Mrs. Ross and secretly glanced in the direction of Kayden.

She noticed that Kayden didn't seem to be in a good mood, and she slowly got up when she heard that her mother's condition was stable.

"Are you alright?"

After hesitating for a while, Natalia sat down next to Kayden.

Kayden immediately looked up happily.

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 416 You Are A Good Man

"I... I'm fine."

Kayden blinked and was suddenly at a loss.

He should be happy. After all, Natalia was concerned about him and he wanted to sadfish. However, he was afraid that she would worry, so he was really in a dilemma.

When Natalia saw the confused expression on his face, she suddenly took a deep breath.

"Thank you for what happened today."

"You don't have to thank me."

Kayden frowned in displeasure.

"You never need to thank me."

Natalia looked at him for a while and suddenly said, "What's the relationship between us?"

Kayden froze and subconsciously looked into her eyes.

"Husband... husband and wife."

However, Natalia's eyes were extremely clear. She just stared at him as if she wanted to look into his heart.

"Kayden, I don't know why you refused to divorce with me. Didn't we... agree before?"

"Since you don't love me, why don't you let me go?"

Panic flashed across Kayden's eyes. "No... no."

"Am I wrong? Do you mean that you fell in love with me again?"

Kayden's face instantly turned red. Although he felt that he loved Natalia, he felt embarrassed when he saw her clear eyes.

He had never said this to her before.

Natalia had always been chasing after him, but he had never expressed his love for her.

It was hard for him to confess for a while.

Natalia waited for a while. When she saw that he did not say anything, a hint of mockery flashed across her eyes.

The other party was Kayden. She had spent so many years trying to make him fall in love with her. How could he change his mind overnight?

In the end, it was she who forced him.

Holding back the emotions in her eyes, Natalia looked straight at Kayden with a hint of coercion.

"Since you don't love me, why do you hold on to me? Isn't it better to break up as soon as possible without love?"

"Of course not!" Kayden quickly denied it.

He swallowed his saliva and carefully thought about his words. "I... I promised before that I would take good care of you for the rest of my life. You have encountered a lot of difficulties because of me. How can I leave you like this?"

However, Natalia sneered. "You don't want to divorce me because of this?"

Kayden said no in his heart, but he said, "Of course, I swore in front of Ralph that I would take good care of you for the rest of my life."

"You don't have to.

"Natalia said.

Kayden frowned and looked at Natalia cautiously.

"You... don't you need me to take responsibility for you now?"

Natalia's eyelashes fluttered and she suddenly chuckled.

"Kayden, you're a good person."

Kayden was stunned. Why did she suddenly said he is a good person?

"On the surface, you don't seem to care about anything, but in fact, you are very principled. You must do what you promised others. Usually, you are not serious, but you are always explicit about important things."

Kayden suddenly felt a little embarrassed by her praise.

"It's... it's not as good as you said."

"It's the same this time. It has nothing to do with my mother's illness. You don't have to be so responsible. You came here specially to help find the doctor and pay the hospitalization fee."

"This is what I should do."

"Nothing is what you should do." Natalia interrupted him seriously.

"The time when I was in danger and seriously injured and in a coma, it had nothing to do with you."

"I've been forcing you to like me, and it was my own fault for drinking. At that time, I couldn't wake up, and I didn't want to live anymore."

"It has always been my personal will. It's my fault. I shouldn't have forced you to do everything."

As Natalia spoke, she suddenly felt relieved. "In this world, many things cannot be forced."

"For example, love and marriage."

Kayden's expression was ghastly. At the same time, he was flustered.

He did not understand why Natalia had suddenly told him all of this. At this moment, he felt very uneasy.

"Everyone has their own happiness and evil. It's not your fault that you don't like me, so you don't have to be responsible for me."

Kayden panicked and wanted to stand up, but Natalia pushed him back into the wheelchair.

"Your leg injury hasn't healed yet. Don't stand up again."

Kayden's lips trembled slightly. "You just said that I... I don't agree."

"Where don't you agree?" Natalia smiled at him. "Am I wrong?"

Kayden looked at her smiling face and was in a trance. He couldn't remember how long it had been since Natalia smiled at him like this.

"It doesn't matter whether you like me at first or not, whether Yara appeared later or not, I have always been with you for so many years."

"It took me so many years to not let you see me. I'm useless."

Kayden quickly said, "It's not like that. It's not your fault. I was blind..."

"No, it has nothing to do with you." Natalia's tone was exceptionally calm. She did not hold any grudge against him. "I've been chasing after you for so many years and it's been enough. If I continue to pester you, I'll look down on myself."

"Thank you very much for your appearance. You have been taking care of me all these years. It can be said that I won't be so popular without you."

Kayden kept shaking his head. He wanted to say something, but Natalia covered his mouth and stopped him.

"I don't regret loving you." Natalia added.

"But maybe, if we find someone to start over, there will be another world."

"Kayden, I don't want you to be responsible for me now. If you still care about our relationship, then let go of each other and divorce with me."

Kayden's throat seemed to be blocked by something and he couldn't say a word.

Natalia looked at him gently with a faint smile in her eyes. It seemed that she had let go of this relationship.

She no longer hated anyone, nor did she want to suspect that Kayden was plotting something against her.

She no longer loved him. Falling in love with someone was too painful. She had suffered for so long and could not move forward.

Her only wish now was to get rid of this hopeless marriage.

Then she started over and gained freedom.

She wanted Kayden to let go of her and forget everything...Kayden.

Thinking of this, Kayden's eyes were suddenly filled with anger.

Natalia could take anything from him, but she could not leave with love and freedom!

How could he let go? He fell in love with Natalia, he hoped her by his side for the rest of her life.

If she left, she would be with another man...

Kayden couldn't breathe just thinking about it.

He didn't want to be a good person. As long as he could keep her by his side, so what if she hated him?

"No." Kayden pulled Natalia's hand away and said coldly.

Natalia frowned and looked at him in confusion. "Why?"

After thinking about it for a while, Kayden could not express his love to her openly, nor could he answer her perfunctorily.

He moved his leg, which had just been bandaged, and an idea came to his mind.

"My leg hasn't recovered yet, and I'm afraid that I will be disabled for the rest of my life. Except for you, who else would be willing to marry me and take care of me so unscrupulously?"

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 417 You Bear to Abandon Me

Natalia almost laughed out of anger.

"So the real reason why you refused to let me go is that I was too kind to you before?"

Kayden nodded. He was telling the truth. Even his parents treated him less sincerely than Natalia.

In the past, he didn't think much of it. However, after Natalia left, he was deeply touched.

In this world, there was probably no one as good as Natalia. It was all his fault that he was blind and did not cherish Natalia.

Natalia's anger, which had been suppressed, was completely ruined by Kayden's explanation.

She had thought that since Kayden had helped her today, she could not be stingy.

He lied to her, she should be able to solve it together and have a peaceful talk with him. Maybe she could make it clear and let him give her freedom and peace.

Of course, she had to admit that she still had some hidden expectations in her heart.

She hoped that him would ask her to stay, hoping that he would respond with a little sincerity. Even if there was only a little affection, she would accept it.

Unexpectedly, the reason why Kayden refused to let her go was so ridiculous.

How cheap she was! After she realized that Kayden didn't love her, she continued to treat him well.

Natalia replied with a cold smile, "You are the young master of the Chapman family and have countless assets. It is not hard to find a woman who is devoted to you. As long as you tell the news, I believe that the threshold of the Chapman family has long been trampled by the self-introduction."

Kayden didn't like her tone very much, but he still said honestly, "But those people do it for my money. Only you don't care about money. It's for me."

He wanted to say that no one could compare to Natalia's kindness to him, so he cherished her even more.

However, for some reason, his words made Natalia even angrier.

"So, just because I sincerely treated you and took care of you like a nanny, you could trample on my heart at will. You even tied me up with you regardless of my current will?"

"Kayden, why are you so selfish?"

Kayden was stunned by Natalia's words. It took him a while to come to his senses.

He wanted to explain, but he couldn't.

But no matter what, he would not let go of her, nor would he divorce with her. If she misunderstood him, he would let her continue to misunderstand.

"Whatever you say, I won't divorce with you anyway."

Natalia was pissed off by him. Kayden had always been stubborn and would never change his mind.

Natalia had suffered such a loss before and knew that it was useless to say more to him. She was even angrier.

"Whether you agree or not, I'm going to divorce with you! When we get back to Rexwell, we'll go to the Civil Affairs Bureau!"

Kayden frowned. "I won't go."

"Then I'll appeal!"

"You.

.."

Natalia glared at him fiercely. New and old grudges surged into her heart. "What are you talking about? You liar!"

"What liar?" Kayden was stunned.

"How dare you say that you didn't lie to me?"

Kayden frowned. Before he could say anything, Natalia had already stepped forward and ripped off his clothes.

"Didn't you say that you fought with someone before and your chest was injured? Where's the wound?"

"I..."

Only then did he remember the lie he had told her before. It was for the sake of to cover the wound of changing the kidney. He did not want Natalia to worry.

"What are you talking about? What excuse do you have? I heard what you said to others on the phone. You deliberately pretended to be injured just to fool me!"

"I didn't fool you. You misunderstood."

"Misunderstanding? Then tell me, how did I misunderstand you?"

"My injury..." Kayden thought for a while and decided not to tell her about the kidney replacement.

The burden on Natalia was too great. Kayden didn't want to put pressure on her, so he had to hide the truth.

"I was indeed injured before, but not my chest, but my leg." Kayden said, "But I know that if I said that my leg was injured, you would definitely think that I was lying to you."

Natalia was stunned and subconsciously looked at his legs.

"You still want to lie to me!" Natalia glared at him angrily.

Did he think she would still believe what he said? This man was a liar. He didn't tell the truth!

Kayden sighed and finally said, "I admit that I did lie to you about my injury."

"But I'm afraid that you don't want to see me and want to drive me back to Rexwell."

Natalia did not speak for a long time. She glanced at him with suspicion and asked, "Are you telling the truth?"

Kayden nodded and said, "What's more, my leg is indeed injured. You heard the doctor scold me just now. My injury has not recovered yet. Later on, when I was with Mr. Parry, he didn't have a backup plan."

"You deserve it."

Kayden touched his nose and said guiltily, "I didn't blame him."

Natalia's heart softened when she saw him like this. She lowered her head to look at his injuries and asked worriedly, "Is it really difficult for your leg to recover?"

The corners of Kayden's lips curled into a smile. Just as he was about to say something, Natalia suddenly came to her senses.

"No, we were clearly talking about the divorce just now. Why did you change the topic again?"

Kayden was speechless.

He was not the one who changed the topic.

He simply pretended to be pitiful. "My legs are like this, and I guess I will be a good-for-nothing in the future. Do you want to abandon me and divorce me?"

"Even if you are disabled, you are still Chapmans."

The heir of the Chapman family was not from the same world as her.

Kayden was about to speak when he heard Natalia's phone ring.

Natalia took out her mobile phone and looked at it. She did not avoid Kayden, but deliberately said it very loudly.

"Lincoln, I was just about to call you.

Kayden frowned. It was the boy again.

Why was this person always haunting?

On the other end of the phone, Lincoln's voice was very gentle. "I brought some food for you. I only found out after asking around that you've been transferred. Did something happen? Why did you leave so suddenly?"

"Nothing, it's all over. However, the medical conditions of Hospital in Rexwell are better than that of the town. In order to reduce the risk of surgery, we made this decision. We left in a hurry just now and forgot to tell you. I'm really sorry."

Lincoln seemed to be relieved. "I see."

Natalia: Yes, you bring us food. I really don't know how to thank you.

Lincoln smiled, "What are you talking about, Natalia. You saved my life, there is no need for you to be so polite to me."

When Natalia heard his words, she suddenly felt a little embarrassed.

"That's happened when we were young. Besides, it's not me who saved you. I just called others over for help."

"It may be a piece of cake for you, but it saved my life."

Lincoln chuckled in a low voice. "Aunt, are you going to Hospital in Rexwell? After you've settled down, send me your address. I'll be here with you on the day of your surgery."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 418 Don't You Love Kayden?

"It doesn't matter. You are so busy that you don't have to come here on purpose."

"Sister Natalia, it's already my regret that I couldn't repay you back then. Don't reject my offer now. At least let me feel at ease, okay?"

Natalia politely refused several times, but Lincoln insisted on coming over. Natalia had no choice but to agree.

"Well, I'll tell you when I settle down."

"Okay, Sister Natalia."

"Lincoln, you don't have to keep calling me that. I'm not much older than you. You'd better just call me by my name."

She always called her "Sister Natalia", which made her feel a little uncomfortable.

Even Zack had never called her that.

Lincoln chuckled again, "Is this not good? You will always be my Sister Natalia."

"Uh, it seems a little disgusting," Natalia said.

Lincoln smiled as if she was very happy. "Alright, I'll listen to you. Should I still call you Natalia?"

Natalia breathed a sigh of relief. "It's much more comfortable."

Natalia and Lincoln chatted casually, but they didn't notice the expression on Kayden's face. He was about to kill someone.

Since Lincoln still wanted to talk to Natalia about the training class, Natalia didn't think too much about it and continued to talk. However, before Natalia could tell Lincoln about the places suitable for the training class, a hand reached out.

"What are you doing?"

Natalia watched helplessly as Kayden snatched her phone away. Then, she hung up the phone and turned off the phone. She was furious.

Kayden put the phone into his pocket and pointed to Mrs. Ross and Edward Grant, who were not far away.

"The doctor has done the check-up for Mom. Now she needs to have a good rest. The sound of your phone call is so loud that it will easily disturb her."

Natalia looked back and her expression softened.

"Then you can't just casually hang up my phone and return it to me."

"No." Kayden refused. He was afraid that Natalia would snatch it from him, so he deliberately closed his eyes and said, "I have to rest too. Don't disturb me."

"You..."

"Shh."

Natalia wanted to hit him, but when she saw that the whole carriage was quiet, Mr. Ross frowned and looked in their direction, then gave up.

"Give me your phone when we get to Rexwell." She said in a low voice.

Kayden pretended not to hear her and closed his eyes to sleep.

"Did you hear me?" Natalia bumped into his arm.

Kayden changed his position and turned his head away, ignoring her.

Natalia was angry. Why didn't she find that Kayden was so bad-tempered before?

Natalia knew that he was pretending not to hear her, so she lowered her voice and said, "When we get back to Rexwell, you can go with me to the Civil Affairs Bureau to get the divorce certificate. At that time, we will be separated."

Who wants to break up with you?

Do you want to spend the night with Lincoln after the divorce? Dream on.

Kayden said in his heart, "I'll hide my marriage certificate and household register when I get back. I won't divorce her even if I die."

After so long, Natalia was tired. She got up and finally sat down on the empty seat behind Mrs. Ross.

Silence returned to the carriage.

It would take about three hours to drive back to Rexwell from the town.

Natalia originally wanted to find a quiet corner to think about things, but she did not expect that she would actually fall asleep gradually.

When she opened her eyes again, it was dark. She lay on a hospital bed, covered with a thin quilt.

Shocked, she suddenly lifted the quilt and sat up.

He looked around and found that this was an extremely spacious ward.

Opposite the bed she was lying on was her mother's bed.

"She's awake." Mrs. Ross was resting on the bed. Seeing her get up, she quickly looked over with a smile.

"Mom, why am I asleep? Where is this? Have we arrived at Rexwell?"

She looked around and did not see Mr. Mr. Ross and Zack.

"We're already in Rexwell. This is the private ward that Mr. Chapman arranged for us. You fell asleep in the car just now, so we didn't call you. These two days, you've been busy raising money and looking for jobs. You definitely haven't had a good rest."

"Mr. Chapman.

.. Is that Kayden?"

"No, it's another Mr. Chapman, Ralph."

Natalia's heart relaxed. For some reason, she felt a little disappointed.

"Where are Dad and Zack?"

"Your dad went to buy dinner. Kayden asked Zack to leave."

Natalia frowned. "Why is Kayden looking for Zack?"

"He said that he rented a house near the hospital and wanted to take Zack to the place to identify himself. When the operation is over, I have to stay and observe for a period of time. I can't let you sleep in the hospital for so long."

Natalia was a little annoyed. "Then we can also go to the hotel."

"How much money do you have to live in a hotel? Besides, you used to be a star, so it's not convenient for you to live in a hotel."

Natalia did not speak after being scolded by Mrs. Ross.

She touched her pocket and failed to get what she wanted. She asked, "Where's my phone? Did Kayden give it back to me?"

Mrs. Ross asked, "What cell phone?"

Natalia secretly scolded Kayden for being shameless, but she said, "It's nothing. I'll ask Lottie when Dad comes back. Mom, how do you feel now?"

Mrs. Ross smiled weakly. "I'm fine. the Doctor gave me some medicine. I feel much better after taking it."

In other words, when she was in the hospital in the town, she was still very uncomfortable.

But because she cared about their feelings, she didn't say anything.

Natalia' eyes instantly turned red. "Mom, it's all my fault. If I were a little more promising, I wouldn't have let you suffer so much."

"Silly child, what are you talking about? You are already very powerful.

I never dreamed that my daughter could become such a famous star."

Mrs. Ross cried as she spoke.

"It's all my fault. We parents are not promising and have no ability to give you a better birth. You have suffered a lot."

Natalia shook her head while crying. No, it was not like that.

Although the family's conditions were not as good as the rich, her parents had always been very good to her. They would try their best to give everything she wanted, and they had always loved her.

Natalia, tell me the truth. Don't you really love Kayden?

Natalia cried and looked up at her sick and weak mother.

No one knew when her mother's face had been wrinkled. The pain had been torturing her, making her look much older. The only thing that remained unchanged was her mother's loving eyes when she looked at her.

Natalia sniffed and shook her head.

"Mom, it's not that I don't love him, but I... can't afford him anymore."

Her love for Kayden was not something that could be taken back so easily.

After all, she had been loyal to him for so many years. No matter how heartless she was, her heart could not be deceived together.

However, as she had just said, she and Kayden were not from the same world. She couldn't afford him.

In the past, she had relied on her courage to stay by Kayden's side even if she had to die.

However, what happened to Yara made her understand what kind of chasm there was between her and Kayden.

Reality was in front of her eyes, making her unable to continue to bully herself. The only thing she could do was to stay away from it. .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 419

Prepare a New cell phone

Mrs. Ross felt sad when she heard what Natalia said.

In the past, she only wanted to obey Natalia's wishes and let her pursue the happiness she wanted.

However, she didn't know that her daughter had so many hardships in her heart. She had to give up because she couldn't bear it anymore. In the end, she couldn't make her daughter happy.

Mrs. Ross's tears fell even harder and she almost choked with sobs.

"Natalia, good Natalia. It's our fault. If we hadn't been careless enough to let you go, you wouldn't have ended up like this without the bad relationship between you and Kayden."

Natalia shook her head as she listened.

"Mom, it's not your fault, nor his fault. Love can't be forced, but I'm not lucky."

"Who said you didn't? Natalia, since Kayden doesn't want to divorce you now, why don't you try with him? Maybe he has changed..."

"No."

Natalia interrupted Mrs. Ross and her tone was very firm.

"He's still pestering me now because he's used to my care for him. It's not that he has to ."

"He doesn't love me. When he gets used to my efforts again and gets tired of seeing me, how can I deal with myself then?"

Mrs. Ross's heart skipped a beat when she heard what Natalia said.

"Even if he doesn't love you, he has feelings for you. Kayden is not a heartless person. He may fall in love with you after a long time."

Natalia still shook her head with a bitter smile on her face.

"Mom, if we can fall in love with each other for a long time, Kayden would have fallen in love with me a long time ago. But I asked him in the car today that he didn't like me at all. Why should I make it difficult for him?"

"But..."

"Okay, mom."

Natalia interrupted her. Obviously, she didn't want to talk about it anymore. This was the truth. Kayden would never fall in love with her, so she didn't have to continue to humiliate herself.

A divorce was the best choice for each other.

Seeing that Natalia was so determined, Mrs. Ross, who wanted to give Kayden another chance, closed her mouth in embarrassment.

"How long has Dad been out? Why hasn't he come back yet? Why don't I look for him?"

Natalia took out a tissue to wipe Mrs.

Ross's tears and poured her a glass of warm water. She went to the bathroom to wash her face and reorganized her emotions.

Mrs. Ross's face was full of fatigue. Coupled with the discomfort in her heart, she did not have the strength to nod.

Natalia got up and walked out. She wanted to call a nurse to take care of her, but as soon as she walked to the door, she saw Zack standing at the door with a big bag in his hand.

"Zack, you're back. Are you alone?"

Natalia looked behind Zack and did not see anyone else.

Zack glanced at the corner from the corner of his eyes, then looked away and met his sister, whose eyes were a little swollen.

"I went back with my brother-in-law, but he went to the VIP ward upstairs. We separated at the elevator."

However, Natalia frowned at this moment.

"What brother-in-law? I have divorced him. You are not allowed to call him brother-in-law again."

"But sister, you haven't got your divorce certificate yet."

Natalia was a little annoyed. "When mother's surgery is done, I'll ask him to get it from the Civil Affairs Bureau!"

Zack nodded and said calmly, "Then I'll change my words after you get your divorce certificate."

Natalia was choked by her brother's sudden rebellion and glared at him angrily.

But what the other party said was right. She couldn't refute it, so she looked at the thing in his hand.

"What are these?"

"Brother-in-law bought some daily necessities for Mom and Dad."

"Did Kayden buy it?" Natalia asked.

Zack nodded.

Natalia snatched it away and asked, "Did he ask you to give me anything?"

Zack was very confused. "What?"

Natalia was even angrier. This bastard really didn't give her back her phone.

"Go back and accompany Mom. I'll go upstairs.

By the way, which ward is he in?"

Natalia did not call out her name, but Zack knew who she was talking about. He blinked his eyes. Was his sister going upstairs to find his brother-in-law?

But his brother-in-law...

Zack widened his eyes and raised his voice. "Sister, are you going to find brother-in-law? But I don't know which room he is in. He didn't tell me."

Zack suddenly spoke loudly. Natalia was shocked by his loud voice and could not help patting him.

"If you don't know, then you don't. Why are you so loud? This is a hospital!"

Just then, a dull crash came from the corridor at the corner, as if the metal had hit the armrest.

Natalia frowned and subconsciously glanced at the corridor.

Zack was afraid that Kayden's eavesdropping would be discovered, so he quickly changed the topic.

"By the way, sister, I don't know brother-in-law's ward. Mr. Chapman and Lottie must know. Why don't we call them and ask them?"

As he spoke, he pulled Natalia into the room.

Natalia was pulled into the ward by him. She was speechless when she saw that the door was still closed.

"Do you have Lottie's contact information?"

Zack was stunned. "I don't think so, but you must have one."

"I do, but my phone is with Kayden."

Through the small window on the ward door, Zack saw Kayden being pushed out of the corridor by his assistant. Then he pushed the elevator and quickly pulled Natalia into the room.

"Ah? Why is your phone with my brother-in-law? What should we do now?"

Natalia was confused by Zack's strange behavior. She couldn't help but say, "What else can we do? I'll go upstairs and ask. I went to find him just to get the phone back."

"

Zack still wanted to say something, but Natalia pushed him away. "All right, I won't talk nonsense with you. It's useful for me to take my mobile phone. I'll take all these with me. After all, we have nothing to do with him anymore. We won't be rewarded for nothing. Give them all back to him."

After that, he pushed Zack open the ward door.

The moment the door opened, the elevator door was closed. Natalia did not see Kayden in the elevator.

Seeing this, Zack could not help but let out a sigh of relief. Seeing that he could not stop her, he followed her.

At this moment, in the elevator.

Kayden's lonely expression made Cais feel sorry for him.

"Sir, why did you avoid Madam just now?"

Kayden shook his head and did not explain.

He did not know why, but he did not want Natalia to know that he had overheard her conversation with Mrs. Ross.

From Natalia's words, he could tell how much damage he had inflicted on Natalia.

Natalia refused to believe that he had fallen in love with her and said that it was impossible.

Then he had to prove with practical actions that his love for Natalia was better than real gold and silver!

"Ding!" The elevator reached the corresponding floor.

However, Kayden stopped Cais and said, "Get me a new phone."

Cais was stunned. "What cell phone?"

"This."

Kayden handed Natalia's phone to him and said, "Tell Elijah what I said. He knows what to do."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 420 But Now I'm Going Back on My Words

Through the logo pasted on the wall, Natalia recognized that they were now in a private hospital.

This hospital was very large and had a very high medical level. It was the kind of hospital that specialized in treating rich people.

The fee was very high, and relatively, it was very private.

When Natalia was still a movie queen, she had come to this hospital to visit the famous doctors she knew. She knew that the highest third floor of the inpatient department was the most advanced VIP ward.

According to her previous experience, the higher her status was, the higher her residence would be. Thus, Natalia went to the highest level first.

However, there seemed to be no one on the top floor. She took the elevator down the first floor and finally saw a familiar bodyguard at the elevator entrance.

Natalia knew that she had found the right place, so she went forward to ask Kayden where he was now.

The bodyguard recognized Natalia, so he didn't dare to hide anything and took her to Kayden.

When Natalia arrived, Edward Grant was talking to Kayden.

"Are you sure you want to do this? It's not a small matter. It's also dangerous for you. If your parents know, they won't agree."

However, Kayden's eyes were quite determined. He looked like a completely different person from his usual casual self.

"There's no need to persuade me. I've made up my mind."

"But..."

Before he could finish his words, the bodyguard came to knock on the door with Natalia.

A trace of surprise flashed across Kayden's eyes when he saw that Natalia had come so soon. He looked at Edward Grant with a warning look and then walked to the door with a smile.

"Why are you here? Are you looking for me?" He asked despite knowing the answer.

Natalia looked around and didn't see Lottie and the others. She guessed that they must have returned to her own home.

There was a trace of doubt in Natalia's heart. Lottie and Mr. Chapman had always been thoughtful. How could they leave without saying hello to her? They even left Kayden alone in the hospital.

Moreover, the conversation between Kayden and the doctor just now was a little strange. What was the risk to Kayden?

However, in the face of Kayden's smiling eyes, Natalia swallowed back the doubts in her heart.

"Forget it. I'm going to get divorced. Why should I worry about it here?"

"Give it back to you. Give me back the phone."

Natalia's voice was extremely cold and direct.

Kayden frowned when he saw the bag that Natalia had brought over.

"It's just some essential daily necessities. They're not worth much money. Why do you have to..." Was she going to separate herself from him so clearly?

Natalia raised her head and glanced at him coldly.

"We are neither relatives nor old friends."

Kayden found it hard to accept her words and looked at Natalia with a complicated look.

"We haven't divorced yet."

"Anyway, it's almost time."

"Natalia, are you really going to be so heartless to me?"

Natalia suddenly laughed as if she had heard some funny joke.

"Mr. Chapman, please accept the reality and stop lying to yourself."

"You agreed to the divorce yourself. You can't let Yara leave, so you have to continue to delay my youth, can you?"

If it had been before, Kayden might have been angered by her words, but he had heard the conversation between Natalia and Mrs. Ross just now and understood what she meant.

Therefore, even though he was mocked by her, he did not feel angry.

There was only heartache left.

Natalia was always like this. She always thought for others, but never thought about her own situation.

In the past, he was used to being spoiled by Natalia, but it did not mean that he really had no heart.

"You're right. I did promise back then, but now I go back on my word."

Natalia widened her eyes and looked at Kayden in disbelief.

"Natalia, people will make mistakes. You have to give me a chance to turn over a new leaf."

Natalia frowned and watched as Kayden walked closer in a wheelchair. She subconsciously took a few steps back.

"You said I'm selfish, shameless, or anything else. I admit it."

"As long as I can keep you by my side, why not be selfish?"

After hearing these words, Natalia's heart began to beat wildly again. Especially at this moment, Kayden looked at her so seriously, as if he could only see her alone.

Kayden continued to approach with a faint smile on his face. He picked up the shopping bag Natalia had put on the ground and handed it to the bodyguard beside him.

"Take these downstairs and tell my mother-in-law that I will go downstairs to accompany her every day in the future. Tell her not to worry. I will arrange the operation."

Without any nonsense, the bodyguard took the things and turned to leave.

Kayden smiled and turned to look at Natalia.

"Ross, you should know me very well. No one can stop me from doing what I want to do. You have to have this awareness. No matter what, I won't divorce with you."

Kayden stared at Natalia as he spoke.

Natalia's heart was pounding under his gaze. She realized that she had unknowingly retreated to the base of the wall, but Kayden's wheelchair had trapped her between the walls. She frowned slightly.

"Kayden, do you know what you're talking about?"

"Of course I know."

However, Natalia suddenly sneered. "I don't think you know at all."

With a smile on his face, Kayden suddenly stood up with the support of the armrest of the wheelchair, enveloping Natalia under his tall figure, making the distance between him and Natalia get closer little by little.

"Do I know? You'll know in a while."

As he spoke, he kissed Natalia.

He had long wanted to do so.

He didn't want to hear those disgusting words from this mouth again, nor did he want to hear her mention the word "divorce".

It was time for him to taste her sweet lips. Why didn't he do that earlier?

Natalia suddenly widened her eyes.

As she breathed, the smell of that person came from his body, making her inexplicably blush.

Even if they got married, they had never done anything intimate between them.

But now, Kayden...He was kissing her?

Natalia held her breath and thought about she seemed to have not brushed her teeth when she woke up just now. Then, she began to despise herself for being so useless.

He was just a man, a man she, Natalia, did not want.

After repeating this in her heart several times, Natalia finally had the courage.

She pushed Kayden away and slapped him in the face.

"Pa."

A crisp slap sounded, and the whole ward fell silent.

Kayden tilted his face to one side. In order not to worsen his injury, he had just stood there with one foot. Now that he had lost his balance because of the slap, he sat back in his wheelchair.

"Clang!" There was a loud noise.

Edward Grant couldn't bear and he looked away, so he didn't laugh out loud.

He had to say that Kayden was far worse than his uncle when it came to acting like a hooligan.

Natalia was also very angry, but when she saw that Kayden could not stand steadily, her heart couldn't help but thump.

Her mouth was faster than her brain, and she blurted out the worried words.

"Are you alright?"

Kayden was speechless.

There was still an awkward silence in the ward. .
