

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 421

Picking Up An Ungrateful Man

Just as Kayden was hesitating about how to answer, Edward couldn't stand it anymore.

"Cough."

Kayden and Natalia turned around.

After a while, Natalia realized that there was someone else in the room. Had he saw it?

Her face instantly turned red as she glared at Kayden.

She quickly said, "I'll go back first."

After that, she flashed away so fast that Kayden had no time to stop her.

Kayden came to his senses and looked at Edward with resentment.

"Don't look at me like that."

"Why haven't you left yet?"

"Do you still want your legs?"

"I sprained my foot just now. I didn't hurt my leg."

"You're quite smart."

Kayden snorted and said, "Well, I've said what I should say. You'd better go back and study the kidney replacement operation to make sure that there will be no more problems on that day."

"Of course, but you really don't want to think about it anymore?"

"No need."

Seeing that he couldn't persuade him, Edward didn't say anything more. He came over and checked Kayden's physical data before leaving.

When Kayden was the only one left in the ward, he breathed a sigh of relief.

Thinking of the kiss just now, he couldn't help smiling.

"I stole a kiss today, and I'll cheat a few more other days."

Just then, Cais came in from outside.

"Sir, the matter of the phone has been settled. Master Elijah said that someone will send a new phone over tomorrow."

Kayden stopped laughing and nodded gently.

"But..."

"But what?" Kayden frowned when he saw the hesitation on Cais's face.

In the end, Cais told the truth.

"Your mother went to find Mr. Chapman today."

Kayden's hand froze and his frown deepened.

"Why did she run over again? Did she make trouble?"

"She didn't know where she heard that you wanted to donate kidney, so she went to ask Mr. Chapman where you were and said that all this was planned by Mrs. Chapman, in order to kill you."

Kayden's gaze sharpened. "How did she know about this?"

"This..."

"Get the car ready. I'm going to the Chapman family now."

"But Mr. Chapman asked you not to go there."

"Are you my assistant or his assistant?"

Cais lowered his head. "Yes, I'm your assistant, but Mr. Chapman is right. If you go there now, it will only make the situation worse. Besides, you will have operation in two days. If you keep running around, what if something happens..."

"There won't be any accidents."

Cais thought for a while. As Lottie said, these things couldn't convince him at all.

He tried to persuade him according to what Lottie had taught him. "But Mrs. Chapman said that once you show up, your mother will not let it go easily. As your mother, if she forcibly takes you away, it will be difficult for Mr. Chapman to stop her. But you are gone, and Mrs. Ross's operation can't be done. You know her situation best!"

As expected, upon hearing the consequences, Kayden immediately calmed down.

His uncle and aunt were right. In this case, he couldn't panic.

No matter who wanted to destroy his plan of donating kidney, he couldn't let them succeed.

He thought of the mobile phone he had taken away and felt very lucky for a moment.

They had not told anyone that Mrs. Ross was going to have an operation in this hospital. As long as they blocked the news and there was no way for Natalia to spread it, his mother would not be able to find him.

As long as the operation was over, it would not be too late to find the person who was secretly playing tricks!

There was a flash of coldness in Kayden's eyes. Recently, he always felt that someone had been targeting him behind his back.

"Go, ask someone to block the news, and help me call Zack up. I have something to tell him."

Cais chose to tell him the truth in order to arouse Kayden's vigilance. Seeing that he had calmed down, he nodded.

"I'll go now."

When Cais went to help him call for help, Kayden suddenly felt a headache when he recalled his mother's bad temper.

When the operation was over, he had to prepare some gifts for his uncle.

However, his uncle was famous for being difficult to please. He still wanted to know how to please his aunt and three cousins.

Not long ago.

The Chapman family.

It hadn't even been a quarter of an hour before Lottie returned at home, Ralph's eldest brother and sister-in-law came looking for them.

Then, their sister-in-law scolded and insulted them at the top of her voice, which stunned Ralph and Lottie.

It took them a long time to realize that someone had told them that Kayden's kidney had successfully matching with Mrs. Ross's, so they came here to ask for an explanation.

After all, this matter was related to Kayden's health. Ralph could not be as perfunctory as usual.

Lottie planned to take the children back to their rooms to rest first, but she didn't expect to be pulled by her sister-in-law when she had just taken two steps forward.

"It's all your fault, little bitch. I knew you were not a good person."

"It was you who insisted on letting my son marry that actress, causing others to laugh at Kayden.

Now you want Kayden to donate kidney to the actress's mother!"

"How cruel you are! Everyone knows that you have a good relationship with Natalia. Did you encourage my son to do this? Tell me!"

Lancy was probably really worried and angry this time, so she couldn't control her movements at all. She threw herself at Lottie and even wanted to fight with her.

Lottie had a lot of martial arts power, but it was not good to use it on her family. Although they were not related by blood, it was true that Ralph had been raised by the Chapman family. They had more or less owed their favors, so it was not good for her to beat them up.

What's more, she was now a mother who was worried about her child's health. It was understandable that she had lost control of her emotions, and it was not convenient for Lottie to attack her.

However, she was a little too strong. Her words were unpleasant to listen to.

If it had been in the past, Lottie would have choked back, but this time, she didn't immediately refute.

Although it was Kayden's own decision to participate in the match, as an elder, Lottie had never stopped him, because she agreed with this decision.

Natalia had suffered a lot along the way. If Mrs. Ross died of illness, Natalia, who had been in the abyss, would definitely become depressed.

As Natalia's friend, she really couldn't bear to see such a thing happen.

Just as she was about to scratch Lottie's cheek with her nails, Ralph's face turned cold. He stepped forward and grabbed her wrist, pulling her away from him and pushing her to the side.

She immediately stumbled to the ground, her face a little dazed.

But then, she sat on the ground and cried again.

"Well, you two even joined hands to deal with me. Do you still have any conscience?"

"I knew you didn't have any good intentions, so you wanted my son to die. You wanted to take away the property of the Chapman family, didn't you?"

"Our father picked up an ungrateful person back then!"

However, Ralph ignored her and turned to look at Lottie worriedly. "Are you alright?"

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 422 Are You Sure You Dare to Hit Me?

Just now, in the midst of the fight, Lottie's hairstyle had been messed up.

The headband was broken, and her long hair fell down. She looked a little embarrassed.

She was not injured except that her wrist was in pain.

She shook her head. "I'm fine."

Only then did Ralph's gaze relax a lot. He patted Lottie's hand to comfort her and then asked Elijah to bring his brother and sister upstairs to their own room. Only then did he look back at his sister-in-law, who was throwing a tantrum.

She was still cursing.

"That b*tch, Natalia, has divorced with Kayden, but she is still haunting him."

"She's so greedy for our family's money that she won't let Kayden away. I've seen so many bi*hes like her. I didn't expect that she's still thinking about my son's organs."

"Why didn't she donate herself? It would be better if she died on the operating table with her mother!"

"Don't drag us down again. What a group of god-killing vampires!"

The more she spoke, the more she crossed the line. At first, Lottie had cared about how she felt as a mother, but now her face was as cold as frost.

"Shut up!" Lottie's tone was cold and hard.

She was shocked by this harsh shout and felt a little scared. But when she realized who was talking to her, her face immediately changed.

"How dare you ask me to shut up? Lottie, do you really think you're something?"

"You're the one who said you're going to be a martial arts actor, but what about the result? You ran away halfway through the movie, and all your fans were gone. And you established a Taekwondo Gym halfway? You almost killed people and even made a negative headline. Ralph's face was almost lost by you, and it even implicated our Chapman family!"

"The actress is the lowest occupation, and you are even worse than Natalia. Even Natalia is better than you. At least she has the reputation of a movie queen. What about you?"

"What right do you have to let me shut up when you're so shameless?"

Ralph's eyes became extremely terrifying at that moment, as if he was going to hit someone in the next second.

But he was stopped by Lottie.

She did not want Ralph to help her. After all, Lancy was Ralph's sister-in-law. If Ralph went too far, he would be criticized.

But she was different. After all, her reputation was already so bad, so she didn't mind being worse.

After experiencing so many things, Lottie was no longer as weak and kind as before.

Some people were mean, but they had to be taught a lesson.

Thus, when Lancy was still cursing, Lottie walked forward silently.

She smiled at Lancy first.

Lancy looked down on Lottie's face the most. She always felt that she looked like a vixen and didn't look like a good person.

"What are you laughing at? Don't think that I'll let you off just because you want to please me. You must hand Kayden over to me today... Ah!"

Lottie slapped her sister-in-law hard in the face.

Lancy Berry's face was slapped to the side and she turned her head to glare at Lottie in disbelief.

Lottie didn't stand on ceremony with her and slapped her twice on the face.

"Clap clap."

In addition to scolding Lottie, Lancy had also cursed Natalia and her mother for dying on the operating table.

She could not be polite to such a vicious person.

Lancy was stunned. She covered her face and screamed.

Her husband, who had wanted her to teach Ralph and Lottie a lesson, finally couldn't sit still.

He couldn't pretend to be a good person anymore and immediately went forward to pull her behind him to protect her.

Then he raised his hand and wanted to fight back.

Lottie looked at him coldly and said, "How dare you hit me?"

"I'm from the Bells. My father is Jerry Bell, my mother is Yuki, and the whole Bells are my backup."

His hand paused.

"I'm still Ralph's wife, who will be the future head of the Bartons."

"I don't even care about a hundred Chapman Group. It's just a few words to make your companies bankrupt."

"Are you sure you dare to touch me?"

The veins on his forehead twitched. He knew that what Lottie had said was true.

He didn't dare to slap her face in the end. Instead, he slapped himself.

"What have I done? Who did the Chapman family provoke? It's not enough for a second son to die.

They want our Chapman family to be extinct!"

Unexpectedly, he didn't dare to hit her. Instead, he imitated sister-in-law and sat on the ground, howling.

They were blaming Ralph for being heartless and trying to kill the only heir of the Chapman family.

Lottie's eyes burned with anger when she heard that. She wanted to say something, but Ralph stopped her.

"They don't know anything at all. How can they say that?"

Ralph's gaze was so cold that it was frightening them. However, when he looked at Lottie, the frost broke, revealing warmth.

"It doesn't matter. Leave it to me."

Lottie trusted his abilities very much. She nodded and stood to the side.

Ralph took a few steps forward and stood in front of him, who was crying.

"Eldest brother."

It was very strange. The couple, who were crying loudly earlier, shut their mouths the moment they heard Ralph's voice. They looked at Ralph with flickering eyes.

Obviously, they were very afraid of Ralph.

Lottie couldn't help but tsk.

She didn't even let her close her mouth when she hit her just now. Now Ralph only said two words, and they were so scared that they didn't dare to speak.

Sure enough, Mr. Chapman was more prestigious.

Lottie wasn't convinced, but at the same time, she felt a little proud.

No wonder he was her man, he was such a cool man.

"Who told you that Kayden wanted to donate kidney after doing the matching work?"

Ralph stared at the couple in front of him without blinking. His tone sounded casual.

His eldest brother stole a glance at Ralph and swallowed.

"Is it... important? What's important is that you don't stop him when knowing this, and you even want to hide it from us!" He didn't dare to say anything at first, but he became more and more confident in the end.

It was their fault. Even if his father knew it, they were reasonable!

He did not believe that Ralph could really attack the Chapman family!

Ralph chuckled.

"Why should I stop him?"

He was stunned by Ralph's self-righteous attitude and didn't know how to refute.

He didn't say anything, but his wife shouted.

"As Kayden's uncle, why don't you stop him when you know it's dangerous to have a kidney surgery and it's so harmful to his body? Are you trying to kill him on purpose?"

Ralph glanced at his sister-in-law coldly.

"How old is Kayden this year? He is over 18 years old. He's already an adult and has the right to control his body. I'm just a uncle who has no blood relations with him. How can I stop him from doing good things?"

She was speechless for a long time before she said, "You... you're just evading the responsibility."

Ralph laughed coldly. "I'm evading the responsibility? You're his parents. I think your words are more useful than mine. Why don't you stop him yourself?" .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 423

You're Act Like A Spoiled Child

"Then you have to tell us his whereabouts so that we can persuade him to go home!"

"Who told you that I know where he is?"

They choked.

"There's another thing I need to remind you."

"I said before that I didn't want Chapman Group, so I absolutely didn't want to get involved. But if you insist on taking the blame for me, I don't mind taking away it."

"As long as I want it, it's not difficult for me to completely change Chapman Group's owner."

These words completely calmed them down.

His eldest brother said, "You... Are you kidding?"

Ralph glanced at him coldly. "What do you think?"

He immediately looked away, not daring to look into Ralph's eyes.

"As for the kidney replacement, I don't support or object. Everything is up to Kayden's will. If you are really worried, contact Kayden and persuade him not to have an operation and don't make a scene here."

"As long as Kayden changes his mind, I have no objection."

"But if you want to use dirty means to force Kayden, I won't agree."

"Big brother and sister-in-law, did you hear it clearly?"

Ralph's voice was calm and gentle, but his words were threatening. His eldest brother and Sister-in-law did not dare to be presumptuous and did not dare to reply for a long time.

Ralph grew impatient when he saw that there was no response.

"Did you hear me clearly?"

His eldest brother shivered and answered loudly, "Yes!"

Ralph was very satisfied. "Alright, it's getting late. Eldest Brother and Eldest Sister-in-law should go back and have rests too."

His eldest brother subconsciously wanted to obey, but his clothes were suddenly pulled by his sister-in-law.

Her face was distorted, and her cheeks were still burning with pain. She couldn't help but glare angrily at Lottie.

"We'll find a way to solve Kayden's problem, but don't tell me what you did just now?"

She hated her very much. She even wanted to go forward and destroy Lottie's face. She wanted to see how she could still be so arrogant then!

She had thought that Ralph would give them face and at least comfort them. However, Ralph snorted again.

"What did Lottie do wrong?"

Lancy looked angry. She was about to speak when Ralph spoke slowly.

"Sister-in-law, I think you didn't seem to have figured out the situation before."

"Lottie is not a useless actress. She is the eldest daughter of the Bells, and her status is extremely noble. Even if she lay down and did nothing, she still has billions of assets."

Lancy was in a daze as her face began to distort.

"The Bells have always protected their families and vengeful, and Lottie is the only daughter of Jerry Bell. Guess how Jerry Bell will take revenge on you if the words you said before are spread to him."

Lancy did not recognize Jerry Bell and did not take it seriously. However, her husband's expression suddenly changed.

"Lottie just gave a small punishment. I don't think there's anything wrong with it."

"You..

. you..."

Lancy wanted to say that she had gone too far, but before she could say it, her husband covered her mouth.

"It's our fault today, but we're too worried about Kayden, so we can't keep our mouth shut. Please don't take it to heart."

He lowered his head and gritted his teeth to apologize to Lottie.

Lottie had long since calmed down. She looked at the couple with a faint smile.

"After all, we are still a family. I can forget about it, but you still have to be more careful in the future."

"Eldest Sister-in-law, you should understand that disaster comes from nonsense, right?"

Lancy was so angry that she clenched her fists and forced a smile.

"Thank you for your reminder."

Ralph's eldest brother didn't dare to stay any longer. He was afraid that the couple would continue to threaten them, so he hurriedly left with his wife.

After they left, the large villa finally quieted down.

Lottie couldn't help but stretch herself and yawn again.

"Are you tired?" Ralph asked.

Lottie nodded. After all, she had been in the car for so long and had just been thrown into chaos. It would be strange if she wasn't tired.

Ralph glanced at her and suddenly smiled.

"This is the first time I've seen you oppress others with your identity."

Lottie sat down on the sofa in the living room and felt a little thirsty. She looked eagerly at the kettle on the tea table.

Ralph sat down beside her and poured her a glass of water to see her finish.

"Do you want more?"

Lottie shook her head and pointed at her calf. "It's a little sour.

Ralph's eyes were filled with a doting smile.

"You're act like a spoiled child."

He seemed to dislike it, but in fact, he enjoyed it very much and even took the initiative to pinch her calf.

Ralph's hand strength wasn't bad, and Lottie felt very comfortable being pinched. She couldn't help but narrow her eyes.

"Who told you to be my husband? If I don't act like a spoiled child with you, with who?"

Mr. Chapman smiled happily.

Only then did Lottie think of an explanation. "I didn't want to fight with her either. After all, she's an elder. But her words are too unpleasant to hear. I didn't expect you to handle this matter so easily. I should have let you solve it first."

Mr. Chapman still smiled. "Then why did you stop me just now?"

"I'm afraid that you'll leave evidence for others if you hit. Besides, I didn't hit them so hard. I've never bullied others like this before. Now that I have experience, I'll try to do it better next time."

Ralph could not help laughing out loud. He reached out to rub her hair.

Cais also came to him at this time.

"Mr. Chapman, Mrs. Chapman. My master asked me to look for Master Elijah for something."

Seeing Cais, Ralph and Lottie were stunned at the same time.

"You didn't meet Ank and Lancy just now, did you?" Lottie asked Cais.

Cais shook his head. "When I saw them from a distance, I dodged on my own."

In fact, Cais had already arrived. But when he arrived, the living room was in chaos. So he hid aside and did not show up.

He didn't dare to come out until the couple left.

After knowing the purpose of his visit, Lottie called down Elijah and reminded Cais of something by the way.

After Cais left, Lottie looked at Ralph worriedly.

"Honey, how did Brother and Sister-in-law know that?"

Ralph's tone was playful. "You're not calling Ank and Lancy anymore?"

Lottie pursed her lips. "I have thought about it. You still call them brother and sister-in-law. I'm sure you still have to care about their feelings. I have to be more respectful to them."

Although she was a little reluctant.

Ralph pinched her cheek and said, "It doesn't matter. You can call them whatever you want."

Lottie was overjoyed. "Okay."

Logically speaking, they have been in Rexwell all the time, so they should not know Kayden's decision. Either they had been sending people to keep an eye on Kayden, or someone deliberately revealed it to them.

Lottie looked at Ralph seriously.

"Then what do you think?"

"The latter."

"But, who could it be?"

Ralph still looked as if he was very sure of this. He said two words confidently.

"Lincoln."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 424 Lincoln Was Actually Watching

"Lincoln?"

"Why do you think it's him?"

Ralph was still smiling. "My intuition."

Lottie curled her lips. "What? I thought you had a reason."

"Do you think it's not him?"

"That's not the case..."

Lottie recalled her brief confrontation with Lincoln. That person looked flawless on the surface, but inside was actually a bad man who was very sophisticated.

"I just feel that he said that Natalia was kind to him, so why did he do that? If Lancy heard the news, she would definitely stop Kayden from performing the operation. Wouldn't that indirectly harm Natalia's mother? What good would that do to Lincoln?"

Ralph's eyes were dark and he was thoughtful.

Lottie touched Ralph's hand.

"Why don't you speak?"

Ralph held Lottie's hand and suddenly said, "What if he doesn't care about her mother's safety at all?"

Lottie was stunned. "Why do you say that?"

Ralph shook his head and said, "I don't have any evidence now. But I always feel that Lincoln gives me an unfathomable feeling. I think he is very dangerous, and the meaning of his getting close to Natalia is unclear."

"Isn't he here to repay her kindness?"

Ralph smiled and said, "Do you believe it?"

Lottie thought about it carefully and finally shook her head. "I don't know."

When Lincoln and Natalia recognized each other that day, his performance was very real. Her gratitude and admiration for Natalia did not seem to be faked.

"Do you know that some people are born with acting personalities?"

Lottie nodded. Many people were like this in the entertainment industry.

"Do you want to make a bet?" Ralph asked.

Lottie's interest was piqued as she asked, "What bet?"

"Let's bet... on whether Lincoln is the one who leaked the news to Brother and Sister-in-law."

"You must bet on Lincoln, then I'll bet no. What's the bet?"

Ralph smiled and whispered something into Lottie's ear.

Lottie's face instantly flushed red. She could not help glaring at Ralph.

"Why are you thinking about these things every day?"

Ralph held her hand and stood up. "My wife is so delicious that I can't stop after having sex once."

Lottie, "...Shameless.

Just as they were about to turn back to their bedroom, Elijah suddenly came over with Natalia's phone.

"Mommy, there's something wrong with Sister-in-law Natalia's phone."

Lottie and Ralph looked at each other.

Ralph asked, "What's the problem?"

"There are a lot of monitoring software in her mobile phone. Someone stole her backstage authority and monitored her every move at any time and at any place." Elijah's small face was very serious.

Lottie was shocked.

"How long has the surveillance lasted?"

"I checked the backstage journal. It's been about half a year."

"Half a year!" Lottie's eyes widened. "She hasn't found it for so long. Natalia is too careless!"

Ralph asked, "Do you find out who is monitoring her?"

Elijah shook his head and said, "The other party has set up an anti- followed-up software. I tried to break his monitoring system, but it was a bit difficult. I was afraid that the other party would notice it. So I stop breaking it in time."

"Well done." Ralph touched his little head and led them to the study.

Not long after, Stella came to the study with her computer. She was also depressed.

"Daddy, I can't break it."

"It doesn't matter. The other party's an expert."

Both Elijah and Stella were defeated in front of the other party. It was not an exaggeration to say that he was an expert.

But Elijah and Stella still felt very uncomfortable.

They had a pervert like Daddy to crush them. But now there was another big shot. The hackers nowadays were getting more and more worthless.

Fabian could not stay in his room any longer and followed him to the study.

He habitually retorted at Stella. "Why can't you even grab a private fan? You even said that you would help mommy manage her fans and anti-fans in the future. What if something goes wrong then?"

Elijah frowned.

But Stella retorted. "You're amazing. Go and grab him!"

"Let's see if you can compete with each other. You only know how to be sarcastic."

Fabian said, "I'm telling the truth.

It's your lack of knowledge."

"It's done." Lottie stepped forward and interrupted their tit-for-tat. "Fabian and Stella are already very powerful. It's not your fault this time."

Stella pouted and looked tearfully at Lottie.

"Mommy, are you disappointed with me and my brother?"

"What are you talking about? Mommy will never let you down."

Only then did Stella feel satisfied. She leaned over and kissed Lottie, saying, "Mommy, you're so nice."

At this time, Ralph turned on his laptop and connected to Natalia's mobile phone. He began to check the backstage surveillance software and launched a counter tracking.

Compared to Elijah and Fabian, Ralph's technology was obviously much higher.

A series of code ran through the computer. The progress bar of breaking was running forward quickly.

Stella stared at the percentage and said, "I can't solve it by 20 percent. Brother is better than me. 30 percent. If there is more, the other party will fight back with the virus of the merry-go-round."

In case of being discovered by the other party, Stella and Elijah cut it off in time.

However, the problem that troubled them did not trouble Ralph.

Ralph's fingers tapped quickly on the keyboard. The merry-go-round program hidden under the system was broken one by one. The progress bar ran to 50% and then 70%.

Eighty.

Ninety.

Ninety-five.

Finally, the progress bar stopped at ninety-five percent. After about ten seconds, it directly ran to one hundred percent.

"It's undone!"

Stella and Fabian cheered.

Elijah also went to the computer and stared at the screen.

Ralph continued after the anti-tracking procedure on the opposite side was broken. He broke the fire wall of the other side's computer.

Ten minutes later, Ralph completely controlled the right to use the other party's computer.

"Daddy is amazing!" Stella looked at Ralph with starry eyes.

The corners of Ralph's lips curled into a smile as he enjoyed the admiring gaze of Lottie.

Elijah pursed his lips and reminded Ralph. "Daddy, you promised to teach me."

Ralph laughed and said, "When did I promise you?"

Elijah turned his head. "Mommy..."

"All right. All right. I'll teach you later. You only know how to complain, little bastard."

After the matter was settled, Ralph felt a little more relaxed.

He quickly flipped through the documents on the other party's computer and soon confirmed the identity of the monitor.

Ralph shifted the computer screen to Lottie and said with a smile, "You lost."

Lottie took a closer look and found that there were all kinds of research reports and analysis reports about performances and celebrity packaging. The signature of these reports was surprisingly Lincoln.

"Lincoln has been monitoring Natalia?!"

Lottie found it hard to believe.

Ralph frowned slightly. "Lincoln seems to have discovered that he was being watched. I will cut off contact with his computer within three minutes. Hurry up and rummage through his computer. See if there are other hidden secrets."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 425 Do You Know Her, Mr. Chapman?

Lincoln should have had a slight symptom of coercion. The documents were classified into groups and looked very neat.

Lottie quickly opened the hard disk to check the data. But she didn't find any useful information.

"I'll do it."

Ralph took the mouse and used a search function. Soon, he found a lot of information about Natalia from the computer.

Ralph opened it and looked through it quickly. Then, he found the sealed folder.

The folder name was "Mine".

Ralph tried to break the password. His intuition told him there were all the answers they wanted to know in it.

"Daddy, there are only 30 seconds left."

Elijah reminded him in a low voice.

Ralph frowned slightly. He did not know the folder password. 30 seconds was not enough for him to solve it violently. He could only try several groups of numbers related to Lincoln.

But it showed that the password was wrong.

"Let's try 586986."

Lottie's calm voice came from the side.

Ralph tapped on the keyboard subconsciously. With a ding sound, the secret folder was unlocked.

"The password is correct!" Stella shouted in surprise.

"Mommy is amazing." Fabian immediately presented his flattering.

Ralph also shot a look of praise at Lottie. But she was very calm.

"Let's read the contents first."

Ralph opened the folder and found that there were second-grade folders in it, which were marked according to different names.

Lottie's eyes were sharp. "There seems to be your name."

Ralph glanced at the folder. In addition to the folder named by his name, there were also folders named with Lottie, Kayden, and others.

He had a vague guess in his heart and wanted to look at it carefully. But he found that the computer screen suddenly turned black.

"Time's up." Elijah said.

In other words, Lincoln had already reacted and cut off their control over Lincoln's computer in time.

Lottie and Ralph looked at each other. Below them, there were three little kids looking up at them.

Stella asked, "Daddy, what should we do next?"

Fabian said, "We haven't seen the information inside clearly. Should we try it again?"

Elijah shook his head. "We can't try it anymore."

Fabian was unwilling to give up. "Why?"

Stella said, "You're so stupid. Daddy says Lincoln is an expert. We've alerted the enemy just now.

That Lincoln definitely won't give us another chance to crack it."

Listening to the analysis of the three treasure-like kids, Lottie looked at Ralph again.

"Honey, what should we do now?"

With that, they stared at Ralph with the four pairs of burning eyes.

In the hearts of the three treasure-like kids and Lottie, Ralph was the best. As long as he was there, he could solve all difficulties.

This kind of unconditional trust and worship made Mr. Chapman feel very useful.

He smiled faintly. "Go back to sleep."

Lottie, "Ah?"

"It's not we who should panic now."

Lottie's eyes lit up as she guessed. "Lincoln's secret surveillance of Natalia has already been exposed. And we've even discovered his secret. There's bound to be other actions up ahead. We'll wait patiently. We'll definitely be able to collect his crime evidence."

Ralph nodded and looked at Elijah. "You go to the hospital tomorrow."

Elijah understood what he meant and nodded in agreement.

"Go quietly. Don't alarm the others."

Fabian patted his little chest. "Don't worry. Leave it to me. I promise that no one will find out that my brother has been to the hospital!"

Ralph made a plan for them. After the discussion, he urged them to go to sleep.

The babies were all very obedient. After saying goodnight to Lottie and Ralph, they went back to their rooms to rest.

Ralph also brought Lottie back to take a shower and sleep. Only after he had regained his spirit would he be able to carry out his plan tomorrow.

However, Lincoln could not fall asleep.

He almost failed today.

He quickly removed all the sentries placed beside Natalia to prevent Ralph from discovering his other actions. Then, he added two security locks to the computer and changed all the passwords.

Lincoln's face darkened as he drank up the red wine in his cup. His usually smiling face was now full of gloom.

Because he was too nervous just now. He took out his mobile phone with trembling hands and called the stupid and incompetent couple.

"I screwed it up."

On the phone, Ank's voice was full of regret and guilt.

Lincoln was not surprised at all. With their intelligence, it was normal that they could not defeat Ralph.

He just didn't expect that after he had caused so much trouble for Ralph, the other party would find out that he had hidden net virus in Natalia's mobile phone. This man even found the source of the surveillance, broke the anti-tracking program he had set, and locked onto his computer directly.

"What did Ralph say?" Lincoln asked.

Ank repeated what had just happened in the Chapman family with resentment in his tone.

"It's all because you asked me to make trouble with them. Now I'm threatened by them, and my son's kidney can't be saved. This is completely different from what you said before."

"Why are you in such a hurry?" Lincoln's lips curved into a slight smile. "Did Lottie really use her identity to suppress you?"

"Yes, she even hit my wife."

Ank was very angry with Lottie. In the past, Lottie had been so cowardly. But now, with her family background, she had suddenly become tough. She didn't take her brother seriously at all.

When he went back, his wife made a scene. It took him a lot of effort to appease her first. He even gave her a private money.

"Then it will be easy. As long as we reveal her behaviors, we can teach her a good lesson."

"You don't even know how arrogant Lottie is. She's no longer the same as she used to be. I don't dare to offend her again."

Otherwise, if the Bells family really comes looking for trouble with us, I won't be able to handle it."

Although Ank was not smart, he still understood the principle of self-preservation. He already wanted to get out of it.

Hearing what he meant, Lincoln made his voice turn cold.

"You want to break the agreement?"

"It's not that I want to break the agreement. It's that there's really no need to confront Mr. Chapman head-on."

"You don't want your son's life?"

"I've checked it out. A man has two kidneys, so he won't die if he donates one. Since Kayden is willing, I can't stop him. What's more, even if he loses his kidney, with the financial resources of our Chapman family, we won't let anything happen to Kayden."

A mocking smile appeared on Lincoln's face.

It was not that Ank could not stop him. But his son's life was not as important as his own interests.

Ralph was certain about the weakness of Ank and his wife. They were selfish. As long as they lived a good life, they could pretend that nothing had happened, even if they had to sacrifice their faces and son.

Lincoln's previous offer to Ank could no longer attract Ank and his wife to take any risks.

At this point, he could only add more stakes.

"Two days ago, I went to various places to investigate and planned to choose a place to start training classes. I passed by a place called Trust Town halfway and met a mother and a daughter."

When Ank heard the words "Trust Town", his breathing became heavier. When he heard the words of "a mother and a daughter", he could no longer remain calm.

"The girl is very cute and is still at the movie academy. Her wish is to be an actress in the circle. She hears that I'm going to start a acting training class. She even enthusiastically exchanged contact information with me."

"By the way, she said her name was Rose Chapman. Mr. Chapman, do you know her?" .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 426 Just Get Rid of Them One by One

"How did you find Rose? What are you trying to do?"

Compared with his previous frivolous attitude, Ank was so nervous that he spoke much faster.

Lincoln sneered. How could there be so many heartless parents in this world? It was just that someone else cared about the kid.

"Don't worry about how I found her, Mr. Chapman."

"Let me remind you something. With Rose Chapman's talent, it's still easy for her to be popular in the industry. But before that, I have countless ways to destroy her. If you don't believe it, you can try."

"No! Mr. Yung, you can't do this. Rose is innocent. She really doesn't know anything!"

"Whether she is innocent or not depends on Mr. Chapman's choice."

After that, he directly hung up the phone.

Lincoln rubbed his forehead and made another phone call.

"Have you found the hospital where Kayden is?"

"Not yet."

The man on the other end of the line sounded timid. He was afraid that Lincoln would blame him, so he found a bunch of excuses.

"It's all Ralph's fault for being too vigilant. He prepared several similar cars in advance and changed the cars halfway to mislead our attention. As a result, our people lost track of them."

"Then let's investigate Randa's hospitalization information!"

"Randa, we have also checked her. We have found fifteen patients with the same name in all the hospitals in Rexwell. After the investigation, we don't find the person you are looking for."

In other words, they couldn't even find Kayden's location, let alone stop Kayden from donating kidney to Mrs. Ross.

Lincoln poured himself another glass of wine in frustration. He recited Natalia's name in his heart and suppressed the murderous intent that was about to overflow.

"Then continue to look for her! Skip the small hospital and find a few private hospitals with the best conditions. Ask if anyone is going to have kidney transplant operation recently. If you find out one, inform me immediately!"

"Yes!"

Lincoln hung up the phone and tried to call Natalia again. But her phone was still turned off.

He remembered the contact list he had watched from Natalia's mobile phone. He found Zack's phone number and called him.

Soon, Zack answered the phone.

"Hello." The voice between the young kid and the young man came with a sense of alienation.

"Hello, is it Zack?"

Zack paused and replied quickly, "You dialed a wrong number."

Lincoln frowned. Before he could make it clear, Zack hung up the phone.

He called again and found that it was in the phone call. This was the meaning of being directly pulled into a black list by the other party.

"Kayden!"

Lincoln slammed his fist on the computer table with a ferocious expression.

Zack must have heard his voice just now, but he pretended not to recognize him and denied that he was Zack. Kayden must have asked him to do all like this. Otherwise, the other party would not have hung up the phone so decisively.

He had forgotten that Zack seemed to be quite satisfied with his brother-in-law, Kayden.

She had promised to seek justice for her sister. But after being bribed by Kayden, he changed his position decisively.

In the final analysis, Zack's and his parents' love for Natalia was just fake.

If they really valued Natalia, they would not have let Natalia get lost. Later, Natalia was allowed to develop in the entertainment industry. For money, they even married Natalia, who was still in a vegetative state, to Kayden.

They clearly knew how much Kayden's parents looked down on Natalia and how unhappy she would be even if she married Kayden. But they still did so.

The family had been making money with Natalia in all kinds of ways, but they tied her up in the name of love.

Natalia was in such a difficult situation now, but they shamelessly asked Natalia for hospital fees and treatment fees. When Natalia was humiliated in order to earn money, Mrs. Ross lay in the hospital and waited for Natalia to pay for the fee.

What was more, Mrs. Ross even wanted Natalia and Kayden to reunite for her own benefit.

Lincoln had wanted Mrs. Ross to live a few more days, but now...

Since she couldn't be a real mother, then he should let her die.

Without this sick mother, Natalia would be less of a burden.

Natalia would definitely return to the entertainment industry with his company in the future.

In the end, she would stand at the top and overlook everyone who had looked down on them.

As for the other obstacles, he just needed to get rid of them one by one.

After taking a few deep breaths, Lincoln finally chose to leave a message on Natalia's social account, asking her about Mrs. Ross's operation time and the current hospital address.

As long as Natalia replied to him, he would have a way to achieve his goal.

He would not let Kayden donate his kidney to Mrs. Ross. Natalia was so soft-hearted. If she knew that Kayden had made such a big sacrifice for Mrs. Ross, she would be very moved. By then, it would be too late for him to intervene.

He had planned in secret for so long that he could not give up all his previous efforts.

Lincoln's face darkened as he quickly thought of other plans.

...

The next day.

Ralph's three treasure-like kids were eager to go to the amusement park.

Ralph really couldn't leave because of the company's affairs. In the end, he could only ask Connie to accompany Lottie and take the children to the amusement park.

Don't worry, Mr. Chapman. Leave this to me. I promise that Lottie and the treasure-like children will have a good time!

Connie patted her chest as if she was totally capable of it.

Ralph chuckled and said, "Then I'll have to trouble you. I won't let you suffer losses. There are three times the overtime pay today.

"

Connie was even more excited and immediately said, "Mr. Chapman is generous!"

Ralph shook his head and smiled as he went over to hug Lottie.

"Then I'll go to work. Thank you for your hard work today."

"Not at all. Anyway, I haven't been to the amusement park for a long time."

Ralph kissed her and said reluctantly, "What should I do? I really want to skip work and stay with you."

Lottie felt that he was annoying and reached out to push him.

"Well, don't lose your temper. Go to work. Your employees are waiting for you to make money."

"You have no conscience." Ralph pinched her face and left reluctantly.

After he left, Connie came to her with a wicked smile and bumped into Lottie's shoulder.

"You two have a good relationship. Don't you feel awkward anymore?"

Thinking back her missing before, Lottie still felt a little guilty. If she hadn't been too willful before, she wouldn't have caused so much trouble.

However, although she felt guilty, she wouldn't admit it.

She rolled her eyes at Connie and said, "You're so meddlesome. Have you made it clear to the big star Barton?"

Speaking of Alfred, Connie put on a bitter face.

"Do you think the brain circuit of the boss is different from that of others?" Connie complained to Lottie, "You still want to ask me to be his agent? That's why his original agent has some problems with me."

Lottie couldn't help but laugh. "He's chasing you so closely, why didn't you agree?"

"Forget it." Connie shook her head. "I'm afraid that I will be torn apart by his fans."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 427 Another Day

"I'm not being a sister-in-law for my fans. I'm just an agent. Don't you think too much?"

"I just want to be an agent, but Alfred..." Halfway through her words, Connie's face turned red.

"How's he?" she asked curiously.

Connie was too embarrassed to continue, but Lottie immediately understood when she saw her expression.

"He wants to sleep with you?"

Connie quickly covered her mouth and looked at the three children.

"The child is still here. What are you talking about?"

Lottie removed her hand and shrugged. "What's the big deal? Why are you even purer than a child?"

As soon as Connie choked, she heard the Stella discuss with Connie, "Aunt Connie, why don't you agree to sleep with Uncle Barton? Are you afraid of having a baby?"

Connie, "..."

Stars also came to join in the fun. "Why are you afraid of having babies? Does Auntie Connie not like babies?"

"We want a younger sister, but Mommy and Daddy aren't working hard enough."

Lottie, "?"

What's the point of working hard? Isn't your daddy working hard enough?

Stella said, "Am I not your sister? Isn't it enough to have me?"

Fabian said unwillingly, "You... are fine."

Seeing that the brother and sister were about to argue again, Elijah came out to interrupt them at the right time.

"Auntie Connie doesn't want the baby. Uncle Barton probably hasn't proposed to her yet."

Stella's eyes lit up. "If Uncle Barton propose to Auntie Connie, can they sleep together?"

Elijah, "No."

"Why not?"

"They have to get married after the proposal. They can only sleep together and have a baby after they get married."

After thinking for a while, Stella blinked and said, "But Daddy and Mommy have us before they get married..."

"Puff-cough, cough."

Lottie, who had been sitting there watching the show, almost choked to death.

She quickly stopped him. "Elijah and Stella, what you said is right. Don't say it again next time."

"What are you talking about?"

Elijah's lips curved slightly, but Stella was still asking, "Why don't you tell me?"

"You're still young and don't quite understand many things. You'll know when you grow up.

"

Stella curled her lips and was not very satisfied with her mother's words. She went to pull Connie's clothes and said, "Aunt Connie, I will persuade Uncle Barton to propose to you. Remember to agree to his proposal."

Connie said, "Can I have another choice?"

"Don't you like Uncle Barton?"

"Yes... but it's just the fans' love for their idol."

Stella did not quite understand. "Is there anything different?"

Connie patiently explained to her, "The two kinds of feelings are different. Just like if you like the princess dress, then you can't marry the princess dress."

"I can marry the princess dress!"

Connie, "You can't!"

Connie looked at Lottie with all her strength. "You don't care about the child!"

Lottie looked at her helplessly. "Do you think I don't want to interfere? But their IQ is too high for me to control!"

She felt bitter just thinking about it.

Fortunately, the car stopped at this time and arrived at the amusement park.

The driver said at the right time, "Madam, Mr. Chapman has booked the whole amusement park. You can go to any project later. You don't need to queue up."

Lottie responded and got out of the car with the children.

Connie looked at the empty amusement park and exclaimed.

"Wow, in such a big amusement park, only a few of us can play. It's so cool!"

As soon as he finished speaking, a figure jumped out, which startled Connie.

"Why are you here again?" Connie's pupils dilated.

Seeing her expression, Alfred was a little unhappy. "You don't want to see me ?"

"You.

.. you can't say that."

The fans were still very happy to see their idol.

It was this idol who didn't seem to have the qualification to be an idol.

"Why are you here just? Don't you have an announcement today? Where are your manager and assistant?"

Alfred stared at Connie and said nothing. Stella shouted and rushed over.

"Uncle Barton! Aunt Connie wants you to propose to her!"

Connie pretended to be frightened and said, "I'm not talking nonsense!"

There was a smile in Alfred's eyes. " Stella never lies."

Connie glared at him and said, "What do you mean? Do you mean that I will lie?"

"Little liar, you lied to me that you don't like me. Who do you think will lie?"

"I didn't lie to you! It's really not that kind of love!"

"I don't believe it."

When popular actors pestered their fans, they firmly disagreed with breaking up.

Connie's words didn't work, and she was helpless.

Stella took Alfred and Connie's hands and turned to look at Lottie. "Mommy, I want to play with Uncle Barton today. Is that okay?"

Stella was brought up by Alfred, and they hadn't played together for a long time.

Lottie nodded. "Go ahead. Don't cause trouble."

"I won't make trouble. I'll help!"

Lottie couldn't help but laugh. She watched as Alfred left with Stella and Connie.

Alfred had his own bodyguards, so Lottie was very relieved and turned to look at her two precious sons.

"What kind of project do you want to play?"

Star shouted, "I want to play with water!"

..

On a small hillside near the amusement park.

Two suspicious people were looking into the distance with binoculars in their hands.

"Why are the three children separated?"

"It should be that Lottie couldn't control them by herself, so she asked Alfred and the others to take care of the child."

"I heard that Stella used to be Alfred's adopted daughter."

"Shall we also keep an eye on each side?"

"There's no need. What can a child do? We just need to keep an eye on the track of Lottie and her husband."

"But I heard that these three kids are very smart."

"So what? This is an amusement park! It's obvious that there are a few children. Are we afraid that we can't keep an eye on them?"

"By the way, are our monitoring equipment still there?"

"Lottie and the others are very vigilant. I've only successfully put one of monitoring equipment on her bodyguards."

"Open it now!"

The people on the other end of the line started monitoring in a flurry. On the other side, Lottie had already led the child into the changing room, because the first project they were going to play was related to water. If they didn't change their clothes, their clothes would be wet.

Not long after, Lottie brought the children out. The two little boys were still wearing large sunglasses on their faces, and one of them had a bad face. It should be Elijah.

The two of them didn't have any doubts and continued to keep an eye on them, chatting for a while from time to time.

The real Elijah, however, came to the hospital under the escort of bodyguards and Cais.

Kayden had already asked Zack to find Natalia. While Elijah returned the phone to her, he also told Natalia the truth of the monitor.

Natalia widened her eyes. "Lincoln, why are you monitoring me? Did you make a mistake?" .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 428 Uncle Holland's Problem Is Not Big

It was hard for Natalia to accept this fact.

She remembered how she had gotten along with Lincoln before. That man was gracious and polite, and he respected her very much. He was completely different from the others.

The most important thing was that if Lincoln was Yung she had saved back then, Natalia couldn't believe that the other party would monitor her for so long.

When she thought that no matter what she did, someone else would know, she felt creepy for no reason.

"Calm down first. If you think about it carefully, you'll know that Lincoln doesn't look like a good person at all."

"Why do you say that he doesn't look like a good person? Is he not a good person?"

Natalia glared at Kayden as anger rose in her heart for no reason.

If Kayden hadn't stolen her phone, she wouldn't have faced such a horrible reality.

Kayden knew that she was in a bad mood. Even if he was scolded, he was not angry.

"Sister, why are you so angry?" Zack felt that something was wrong.

Not only was she angry, but she was also blaming Kayden.

Natalia's eyes were red as she glared at him. "Why do you think I'm angry? How would I know if you guys were working together to deceive me? There's actually no surveillance software in the phone, right? You guys want me to stay away from Lincoln, don't you?"

Zack wanted to refute, but Kayden grabbed his shoulder and stopped him.

Kayden looked at Natalia seriously and said, "I know that it's hard for you to accept it. The person you saved once was against you, right?"

"It doesn't matter. It doesn't matter if you don't believe us. But there's one thing. The mother-in-law's operation is coming, and nothing can happen to her at the moment, so it's very important before she enters the operating room."

"It's better not to contact him until my... mother-in-law goes out of the operating room."

Kayden took the new phone from Elijah and stuffed it into Natalia's hand.

After hearing Kayden's words, Natalia felt even more aggrieved. Finally, she squatted down, covered her face, and cried.

It was again!

Yara and Lincoln were the same. Why were all the friends she approved of not good people?

Or was it that she, Natalia, was destined to never make true friends in the rest of life?

At this moment, Elijah slowly walked forward and reached out his hand to touch Natalia's head.

"Sister-in-law Natalia, don't be sad."

Elijah usually didn't say much, but his voice was still as steady as ever.

Natalia raised her head and looked at him with tears in her eyes.

"Mommy said that no one has ever met a few scums in their lives."

"Even she met my father when she was deceived badly.

"So don't be discouraged. According to the law of material conservation, good luck will come when you are unlucky to the extreme."

Elijah turned to look at Kayden and said meaningfully, "Maybe a fool has enlightened and taken the initiative to protect you."

Natalia was comforted by Elijah's words and asked in a muffled voice, "Did your mother teach you these words?"

Elijah nodded. "Mommy guessed that you would be sad, so she asked me to tell you. Even if other people are blind and can't see your good, she will always treat you as her best friend. Please don't be depressed."

Natalia sniffled and forced a smile.

"Sister-in-law Natalia, you'd better smile."

Natalia could not help but pinch his little face. "You are so sweet. I thought you were Fabian."

Elijah felt the touch on his face. He didn't mind Natalia's intimate actions.

She blushed slightly and said, "Fabian should be pretending to be me now."

"To pretend to be you?"

Elijah nodded. "Someone has been keeping an eye on us. They wanted to find out where you were. In order not to be discovered, I sneaked out to meet you."

Seeing that Natalia's attention had been diverted, Kayden was not as sad as before.

He immediately asked with a smile, "Then how did you escape the surveillance and run out?"

"Let's go to the amusement park together. Uncle Barton will leave with the actor from another place. After we arrive there, Stella will take the initiative to go with Uncle Barton.

In fact, after being led into the haunted house by Aunt Connie, Stella hid and disguise himself as an actor to go out with them."

"When those people leave the haunted house, Stella will hide in the props and be sent to the locker room. After that, Stella will change into Fabian, and Fabian will play me."

"I'll come to you secretly when Mommy and Fabian draw the attention away."

After listening to the whole story, Kayden couldn't help but sigh. "Good boy, you're acting like a spy movie."

However, Natalia was very worried. "If you do this, won't you be discovered?"

Elijah shook his head. "The little actress is a girl. As long as her hairstyle and clothes are about the same as Stella, she won't be discovered."

"Stella disguised herself as Fabian because Fabian is lively and active, so is Stella. It's less difficult to play it."

"Fabian has the experience of disguising, so it is going to be alright."

It had to be said that he had considered it very carefully.

After explaining, Elijah suddenly reached out to Kayden and the others.

Kayden was confused. "What do you want? Reward?"

Elijah sighed, revealing an expression of "Brother, why are you so stupid?"

"A mobile phone."

Before Kayden could react, he asked, "What cell phone? Whose cell phone?"

"Your phones, electronic equipment, and so on. Daddy asked me to check all of them."

Only then did Kayden understand why his uncle had asked Elijah to come over instead of other kids.

Elijah was a very powerful hacker!

Kayden was very cooperative and immediately asked someone to find his phone and other equipment.

"The bodyguards also need to be checked."

"Elijah replenished."

Kayden nodded and called them over for further investigation.

Elijah looked at Zack again. "Your, uncle, and aunt need to check their mobile phones."

Zack thought of what had happened to Natalia. How could he not agree? He immediately turned around to get his phone.

Soon, a basket of mobile phones and electronic equipment was placed in front of Elijah.

Without saying a word, Elijah started the test. Finally, he found a monitoring software in a bodyguard and Cais's mobile phone.

Cais was shocked. "How could there be such a software in my mobile phone?"

Elijah said, "Don't panic, it was just installed. It should have been sent to your mobile phone with a garbage text message. Did you click on some kind of link?"

Cais felt guilty. "Just now, when I was going to the bathroom, I clicked on a marketing text for boredom."

Kayden rolled his eyes at him speechlessly and asked, "Did I pay you less?"

Cais lowered his head in shame.

The salary was not low, and it did not conflict with saving money.

Elijah calmly closed the app, cut off all contact with the host, and added a poison software. Then he returned the phone to Cais.

"Uncle Holland, it's not a big deal, mainly because of this bodyguard..." .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 429 Who Is So Cruel?

When Elijah turned his eyes to the bodyguard, the bodyguard's eyes flickered.

Kayden noticed the other party's abnormality. When the bodyguards suddenly pounced on Elijah and Natalia, he quickly stepped forward to stop them.

He didn't expect that the man seemed to want to hurt Elijah and Natalia, but in fact, he came for Kayden.

The sharp fruit knife was about to pierce into Kayden's body when a hand suddenly reached out and grabbed the bodyguard's wrist.

"Daddy!"

"It's Mr. Chapman!"

The sudden appearance of Ralph encouraged everyone. Ralph used his strength to grab the knife and kicked the bodyguard away.

After the bodyguard was kicked away, someone else immediately stepped forward and pressed him.

"Don't move!"

Ralph looked at Kayden coldly. "Are you alright?"

Kayden wiped the cold sweat from his forehead and shook his head.

Just now, he almost thought he was finished. He didn't expect that his uncle would come out to save him.

However, Ralph's face set hard.

He had thought of all Lincoln's plans, but he didn't expect that he still missed something.

If he hadn't noticed that something was wrong and changed the direction to the hospital, Kayden might have died today.

Even if it was not finished, he would be seriously injured, so Mrs. Ross operation could not be completed.

Lincoln was really vicious!

He had done such a sinister thing. How much did he hate Natalia!

Elijah rushed over and hugged Ralph's leg. He looked up at Ralph and said, "Daddy, will you be discovered if you come here so rashly?"

Ralph's face was full of anger.

"It will be ok. Besides, I can't hide the current situation."

Elijah turned to look at the bodyguard and nodded gently.

"Sister, are you okay?"

Zack touched Natalia a little nervously. Natalia's expression was not quite right from just now.

Natalia, who was trapped in her emotions, suddenly came to her senses. Then, she pounced on Kayden and sat directly on his thigh.

Kayden was at a loss at first, and then he was overjoyed.

He quickly hugged her and began to coax her in a low voice, "It's okay, it's okay. I'm fine. Why are you crying?"

Unexpectedly, Natalia suddenly hit Kayden in the chest with her small fists. She cried and scolded, "Who let you rush out? Do you think you are good at it?"

Natalia cried so hard that her fists were soft and powerless.

Kayden was very happy. While enjoying Natalia's "Iron Fist", he comforted her, "I'm sorry, the situation was too urgent just now. I didn't think so much."

"Then you can't rush out! Who wants you to protect her? Kayden, why are you still so masculine?"

Kayden didn't know whether to laugh or cry. He thought to himself, "What kind of man is it to protect the woman I love?"

However, he felt warm in her heart.

The reason why Natalia blamed him was that she cared about him.

Natalia still liked him in her heart!

Kayden felt that even if he was stabbed, it was worth it.

"All right, all right. It's my fault. Don't be angry. Don't worry. I'm fine."

Kayden showed his body to Natalia. Apart from the injury on his leg, he was fine.

Ralph and the others watched from the side. They felt that Natalia was just stubborn, but in fact, she was soft-hearted.

"Ms. Ross, if you don't get up from Kayden, his legs will be even worse."

A cold voice suddenly came from the side.

Natalia suddenly came to her senses after being reminded. She jumped from Kayden's body in shock. When she turned around, she found that it was Edward who had just spoken.

Ralph's private doctor was now lent to Kayden for treatment.

While Edward was talking, he was still treating the wound on Ralph's hand.

It turned out that Mr. Chapman's palm was accidentally cut when he was grabbing the knife. Fortunately, the wound was not deep, so he could recover in a few days after a simple treatment.

Natalia was a little embarrassed. Recently, Kayden's leg injury had been getting worse and worse, and it was all because of her.

Just now, when Kayden rushed out of the wheelchair to stand in front of her and Elijah, he remembered that he didn't get off the ground directly, but he didn't expect that he would sit down at his wound.

"Sorry.

.. I'm sorry." Natalia apologized with red eyes.

Kayden was very dissatisfied. He hadn't had enough time with Natalia yet, but Edward came out to spoil his plan.

"I won't sit for a while. I'm fine."

Edward cut off the bandage and tied it up. Then, he let go of Ralph's hand and rolled his eyes at Kayden.

"I think you really want to be disabled."

Before Kayden could react, Natalia frowned.

"Doctor Grant, you shouldn't say such things to your patient."

And it had become his fault. Edward was speechless.

"Okay, I won't tell you. I'll shut up."

Ralph winked at his friend and said, "Why are you angry with a child? Is it interesting?"

Hearing this, Edward, who had been wearing a strict face just now, suddenly laughed.

"In fact, it's quite interesting."

Ralph did not want to see this good friend with evil intentions. He held Elijah's hand and looked at the bodyguard who had been bribed.

"Why did you betray me?"

The bodyguard's eyes flickered and he did not dare to look into Ralph's eyes.

The atmosphere became cold, and no one else dared to speak.

Ralph continued to ask expressionlessly, "Did I treat you badly?"

Of course not. Mr.

Chapman had always been generous to his people. As long as he was loyal and willing to do it, he would get double rewards.

The bodyguard lowered his head and began to tremble.

"I remember that when your company went bankrupt, many enemies came to seek revenge. You cried and begged me to give you a way out."

"I'll take you out and help you deal with those enemies. I'll let you follow me and even teach you martial arts personally."

"Is that how you repay me?"

Finally, the bodyguard could not hold back his tears and knelt down in front of Ralph.

"Mr. Chapman! I'm sorry, I'm sorry! But that bastard took my son away. If I don't do this, he will kill my son!"

"Mr. Chapman, I know you've done me a great favor. I'm incompetent, I'm heartless!"

"But... my son is only three years old. Mr. Chapman, I can't just watch him die!"

Every word of the bodyguard's words came from the bottom of his heart. A 5.9-inch-tall man was crying like a little boy.

A look of pity appeared on Natalia's face, but at the same time, she felt angry.

"Who is so vicious to kidnap a three-year-old child to threaten others and even want to strike Kayden? It's so inhumane!"

Ralph finally made a move.

He slowly walked to the bodyguard and asked word by word, "Then why don't you come to me directly? Do you think I have no ability to help you?" .

Wouldn't He Be Exposed?

Ralph's words made the bodyguard shut his mouth.

There was a hint of mockery in his eyes. Ralph asked, "Did he give you a lot of money?"

The bodyguard collapsed on the ground and didn't speak. He fell to hide it from Mr. Chapman.

Ralph got up from the bodyguard and did not even look at him.

"Take him away."

The other bodyguards quickly dragged him away. Judging from everyone's angry expression, this man would definitely be severely punished.

Kayden opened his mouth and said, "Uncle, don't you want to figure it out before you take him away?"

For example, who sent him here, or what his mission was.

"He won't say it."Ralph said.

"Why?"

"Daddy taught him that."Elijah explained.

Kayden nodded in understanding.

However, Zack, who stood aside, was confused, "Why did you think that he won't say it since he was taught by Mr. Chapman? Since you have helped him, wouldn't it be easier to ask questions?"

Elijah explained in a cool but cute tone, "No one of daddy's men would be afraid."

Therefore, even if he was beaten to death by his companions, he would not leak any news about his employer.

Zack nodded with only a hazy notion.

Natalia was lost in thought, "How could it be? What should we do next?"

Ralph glanced at Natalia and then looked at Edward, "My opinion is to carry out the renal transplantation as soon as possible so as not to cause too much trouble."

Edward had been observing Mrs. Ross's physical condition and Kayden's state.

Hearing Ralph's words, he immediately understood what he meant. He read the data which he observed again and nodded seriously, "We can have an operation this afternoon."

"Will it increase the risk if you perform the operation in advance?"

Edward's face was full of contempt, "Do you think I'm a quack?"

As long as he was here, no matter how difficult the operation was, it would be fine.

"Can you promise that there will be no problem?"

"I can guarantee that the operation will be successful, but whether there will be other rejection reactions after the transplantation will depend on how much Mrs. Ross's body can bear."

Seeing Kayden's sharp eyes, he immediately promised, "I will try my best to minimize the possibility of rejection reactions. There won't be any problem with seventy to eighty percent chance."

Kayden looked away with satisfaction.

Ralph nodded and turned to look at Natalia, "Natalia, how about your opinion?"

Natalia turned to look at Zack, Natalia gritted her teeth and said, "Please perform the operation this afternoon!"

Edward closed the medical record book and said, "Okay, I'll prepare it now."

Seeing that Edward was about to leave, Natalia quickly stopped him, "Wait."

Edward turned around and asked, "Is there anything else I can help?"

"Don't we need to do anything else? Will the volunteer who donated kidney be willing to change the time to the afternoon?"

Edward glanced at Kayden and thought to himself, "Do I need to ask him? She don't know how willing he is."

On the surface, he echoed, "I've contacted that volunteer before. He said he was willing to cooperate with us all the time."

Natalia asked again, "Can't I meet him? I really want to thank him in person!"

"It... I'm afraid it won't work. We have to respect the volunteer's will. He doesn't want anyone to know his information."

"But..."

"Natalia." Kayden walked up to her in a wheelchair and held her hand, "Let Dr. Grant prepare. We can also inform mother-in-law to be mentally prepared."

Natalia turned to look at Kayden deeply and suddenly pulled her hand out.

"We have divorced. Don't call her mother-in-law."

Kayden was speechless.

She was fine just now. Why did she suddenly turn hostile with him?

Natalia wiped her tears and suddenly walked over to Ralph and said, "Can I have a private chat with you?"

Ralph glanced at Kayden, then at Natalia, and finally nodded.

"Okay."

Natalia looked relieved and turned to remind Zack, "Go to your parents and tell them that Mr. Ross will have an operation in the afternoon. Don't tell them anything else."

Sean Holland understood what Sean Holland meant and nodded heavily.

Then Kayden watched helplessly as Natalia and his uncle went to the empty ward next door together.

"What does Natalia want to talk to my uncle about?" Kayden felt a little uneasy.

Elijah turned his gaze and glanced at Kayden.

"Kayden, I think Natalia has guessed something."

"What?"

"She might have guessed who is that volunteer which has never shown up."

Kayden was shocked and couldn't help asking, "No way!"

Wouldn't he be exposed?

The more Kayden thought about it, the more he felt that there was something wrong with the way Natalia looked at him. He thought about it and asked Elijah, "Do you think that if we go to eavesdrop, will we be found?"

Elijah completely ignored him. He took out his phone and typed.

"Elijah, did you hear what I said?"

"I heard it."

"Then why did you ignore me?"

Elijah did not speak.

Kayden wanted to eavesdrop, but he didn't dare because his uncle had a bad temper.

It was better to carry someone together with him, so he came over and looked at Elijah's phone.

"What are you doing?"

"Send a message to mommy and tell her that daddy's hand is injured."

Kayden was confused, "Is there anything more important to tell her than your father's injury?"

After sending the message, Elijah glanced at Kayden.

"Daddy's injury is the most important thing."

Kayden was speechless.

Alright, he was convinced.

Kayden didn't manage to eavesdrop in the end.

Because Ralph would be back soon.

Kayden had been staring the direction behind Ralph but did not see Natalia.

"Where's Natalia?" Kayden asked.

"She's going to accompany her parents." Ralph walked up to Elijah and asked, "Did you tell your mommy about my injury?"

Elijah nodded and showed him the message he had sent.

Ralph looked at the continuous questions that Lottie had replied to him, and a smile finally appeared in his eyes.

"Who asked you to send it to her? Don't Bother."

"Daddy, you're actually smiling very happily."

"I'm happy because your mommy loves me, but I want her to be worried if she knows I'm injured."

"You're lying."

"You don't understand."

Seeing that the father and son were arguing, Kayden interrupted them in a hurry. He supported on his wheelchair and asked Ralph, "What did you talk about with Natalia? Does she know that I am the volunteer?"

Ralph glanced at Kayden from his head to toe. When he was about to lose his temper, he said, "You're so good at flattering yourself. She didn't mention you at all."

"She didn't mention me?" Kayden was stunned, "How is that possible?"

"She wants to confirm something with me about Lincoln."

Kayden was so jealous. He had almost died just now, and he had been so brave to protect his beloved woman. Did he only get a punch in return?

However, what Natalia wanted to know the most was about Lincoln? .
