

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 431 Is It Kayden or Not?

Kayden was deeply devastated.

When she arrived at the hospital with her men, she saw the dispirited Kayden.

"What happened to him?"

Lottie put down her bag and looked at Kayden. His bitterness was so apparent that it was difficult for others not to pay attention to him.

Ralph was very dissatisfied. He raised his injured hand in front of Lottie.

"You only care about others. Why didn't you ask about your husband's injury first?"

Seeing this, Lottie quickly comforted him, "I'm sorry, I'm sorry."

"How did you get injured? How is your injury? Is it serious?"

The corners of Mr. Chapman's lips curled up slightly. When he saw that Lottie switched her focus to him, he proudly placed his hand behind his back.

"It's nothing, just a slight wound."

Lottie quickly grabbed his hand and carefully examined the gauze with a faint trace of blood. Her brows were tightly furrowed.

"It's not slight at all. I think it's very serious and bleeding!"

Ralph's heart softened when he saw that she was really worried.

"It's really not serious, just abrasions on scurf skin, which is normal for bleeding. If you don't believe me, you can ask Elijah."

"Mommy, daddy is lying."

Elijah was very honest and stripped away Ralph's lie.

Ralph glared at Elijah.

Why didn't he know how to cooperate?

Suddenly, Ralph's face was pinched.

It was Lottie.

The woman pinched his face fiercely and said, "Ralph, you have changed. How dare you lie to me?"

Ralph stared at Lottie's hand and thought to himself, "Recently, Miss Green has become bolder and bolder. She even dares to pinch my face in public. It seems that I have spoiled her."

Lottie felt guilty under Ralph's gaze and quickly retracted her hand.

"Look... what are you looking at? I'm your wife. Can't I pinch your face?"

Ralph restrained himself and replied with a smile, "Pinch it, you can pinch it as you like."

Lottie snorted and looked at Elijah. "Baby, tell mommy how daddy's injuries are."

"There's such a long cut in his palm."

Nebula gestured and said in a very light tone, "It's quite deep. Uncle Holland said that it would take a week to scab."

Lottie's heart ached and she glared at Ralph.

"Why don't you know how to protect yourself? There are so many people around you. Are they just decorations for you? Kayden didn't get injured, but you are injured!"

Kayden sighed and asked, "What?"

"No, it's fine if you show off your love in front of me, but now you blame me for not getting injured?"

"Aren't you bullying a single man too much?"

"Aunt, uncle got injured for saving me. Don't blame him."

Kayden was furious, but he didn't even dare to say a word.

Lottie had been tough recently and his leg was injured, so e was no match for her in a fight.

Lottie glared at him again, "It's all your fault!"

Kayden was speechless.

"If it weren't for the fact that you mistook the evildoer for Natalia and made her disappointed in you, you wouldn't have divorced at all!"

"If you don't divorce, Lincoln won't be able to find an opportunity to fill in."

"If Lincoln didn't meddle in, I wouldn't have gone through this and Mr. Chapman wouldn't have been injured!"

"Don't you think it's all your fault?"

Lottie scolded Kayden repeatedly, making him unable to raise his head.

"It's my fault."

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry to my uncle."

"I'm a sinner. No wonder Natalia didn't pay attention to me. Instead, she was concerned about that Lincoln!"

Lottie raised an eyebrow. She hadn't expected him to apologize so quickly.

"Wasn't Kayden very arrogant before?"

Ralph tugged at Lottie's hand and winked at.

Lottie understood and did not burn Kayden. Only then did she remember to ask about what had happened after she cared about Ralph's hand.

"Why did the plan suddenly change? Didn't we say that we would stall for time and expose position after the operation is over?"

Ralph told her everything that had happened, including the betrayal of the bodyguard.

"Why was Lincoln so crazy? How dare he kidnap a child as a threat!"

"Then what should we do? Should we just let it go?"

Although that bodyguard was very hateful, a three-year-old child was innocent.

Ralph had already sent someone to save the child. He was about to get the news, so he quickly comforted Lottie.

Only when she was told that someone had gone to save the child did she relax.

"In order to prevent Lincoln from making trouble again, so we brought the operation forward. The operation will begin in about two hours. Would you like to go downstairs and visit Natalia and her mother?"

Lottie nodded.

Seeing how pitiful Kayden was, she said, "Then stay here with him. I'll go find Natalia myself."

Ralph shook his head, "Let's go together."

"But..."

"He deserves it. I have to let him swallow the bitter pill."

Ralph ruthlessly left these words behind and brought Lottie and his babies downstairs.

On the way down, he still remembered, "Where is Connie?"

"She was called away by Alfred."

That couple also had problems getting along with each other. If they didn't communicate with each other properly, they would probably become another foe.

However, she had no time to care about them recently. She'd better wait after Natalia's problem was solved.

"Alas, why are there a group of fools around me?"

Lottie sighed with emotion. She and Ralph were much better than others.

They understood each other and accepted each other.

Ralph could not help but laugh when he heard what she said.

Fabian said, "Mommy, you and daddy have experienced a lot before getting together."

Lottie looked down at her baby with a grave expression.

Indeed, she and Ralph had missed out on each other for five years before they got together.

While they were talking, they had arrived at Mrs. Ross's ward.

Lottie stepped forward and knocked on the door. When Natalia saw her, she couldn't help but throw herself into her arms and sob.

"Lottie, I..."

"All right, all right. Don't be sad. Let's talk aside."

She asked Ralph to stay in the ward to greet Mrs. Ross, and then took Natalia to the corridor to talk separately.

The sound insulation in the ward was very good. If it weren't too loud, no one in the ward could hear them.

"Lincoln is not a good person."

Lottie wiped away Natalia's tears lovingly, "I know."

"When I turned on my new phone, Lincoln will call me and ask me where I am now."

"Now I understand. Is he looking for someone to destroy my mother's operation?"

In the face of Natalia's question, Lottie couldn't bear to tell her the truth.

Natalia's tears kept falling. She only managed to control her emotions after crying for a while.

"There's one more thing. Lottie, tell me, is the volunteer, who donated kidney to my mother, Kayden?"

Lottie, "..."

How did Natalia know it? Did someone tell her the truth?

Panic flashed through her eyes. Just as Lottie was hesitating if she should tell Natalia the truth, footsteps sounded from the hospital corridor, along with a few familiar cries.

Lottie had a bad feeling.

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 432 Hand Over My Son

"You're really here!"

"Damn it! Natalia, how did the Chapman family offend you? It's not enough for you to mess up our family. What's more you even involved Kayden in injuring his leg. He finally divorced you. How dare you keep pestering him!"

"You want Kayden to donate kidney to your mother? Do you want him to die before you give up?"

"It's a pity that I only have one son. If you make trouble like this, I would give up my life!"

With Lancy's words, a group of reporters who had appeared out of nowhere rushed forward and took photos of Natalia and Lottie ceaselessly.

Lancy even rushed over to argue with Natalia.

Lottie quickly stood in front of Natalia and pushed the people in front of her away with a cold face.

"What are you doing? Who allowed you to come in? This is a private hospital. Don't shoot!"

However, there were too many reporters that Lancy had invited, and she had already arranged everything beforehand. These people weren't afraid of Lottie at all, and instead, they were getting even more furious.

Lottie was no match for them. No matter how skilled she was, she couldn't defeat the crowd of people.

Watching from the side, Lancy vented her anger.

The corners of her mouth curled up proudly, and she was about to say something sarcastic.

"Lottie, here isn't in the Bells! You threatened me with your identity before and hit me. You didn't let me see my son and even humiliated me. I don't care about all that!"

"But you shouldn't have schemed against my son!"

"You two heartless bastards! The Chapman family raised Ralph, and the Old Master is partial to him. Not only are you not grateful, but you also want to kill my son. You want the Chapman family to lose offspring!"

"Do you think no one will know what you and Ralph have done if my son dies?"

Lottie sneered in her heart. Lancy had well prepared. Not only did she want to use public opinions to kidnap Natalia, but she had also tried to smear her and Ralph's reputation. She had even made up rumors.

At this moment, someone in the crowd suddenly threw a mineral water bottle at Natalia.

Natalia's face was hit and she exclaimed.

Lottie asked in a hurry, "Natalia, are you alright?"

"Good job! These two women are simply pests of society. Hurry up and expose them. Let's see if they still dare to go out in the future!"

Some reporters scolded them severely, causing a crowd of people to repeat.

At this moment, Ralph and the others in the ward were aware of the disturbance and rushed over with bodyguards.

The bodyguards separated the excited reporters, while Ralph held Lottie's hand and asked her about her situation with concern.

"Are you alright?"

Lottie was still in a state of lingering fear. She shook her head at him and turned to look at Natalia.

Natalia's eyes were still swollen. At this moment, her face was pale, and her mood was about to reach the flashpoint.

She had heard all the words Lancy had scolded her.

Lottie and Ralph looked at each other and both noticed that something was wrong.

Lancy felt guilty when she saw Ralph.

But then she thought of the words that Ank had told her. As long as she blew up it today, even Ralph did not dare to do anything to her. For the sake of the Old Master, he might have to give her a large sum of compensation, and even Lottie had to apologize to her in person!

With confidence in her heart, Lancy rolled her eyes and immediately started acting again.

"Ralph! Although you are not a member of Chapmans, the Old Master has raised you up and treated you like his own son since you were a child. How can you requite kindness with enmity?"

Lancy wiped her tears and cried pitifully. She even wanted to kneel down to Ralph, which caused another uproar among the reporters.

"My friends in the broadcast room, I believe you have also seen the truth. Ralph and his wife are ambitious. They want to take away the property of the Chapman family, and they don't hesitate to incite the only heir of the Chapman family to donate kidney to their Ralph's former mother-in-law. They also want to do something during the operation to achieve the purpose of murdering and money!"

Someone took pictures of Lottie and Ralph with cellphone, talking nonsense all the way.

Lottie was so angry that she almost burst into laughter. She wanted to rush forward and snatch his cellphone, but Ralph stopped her.

The bullet comments flocked in the broadcast room, scolding Ralph and his wife in rage. Many people shouted to call the police, requiring them to be arrested and locked up.

"Stop acting. Aren't you tired of acting?"

Lottie turned to look at Lancy, who had been helped up by the reporters. Her tone was full of disdain.

Lancy's heart was filled with pride. She ignored Lottie's words and continued to complain to the camera.

"Because of her family background, Lottie looked down on us.

She never called me sister-in-law. Yesterday, my husband and I went to their house to beg them to let me see Kayden. Not only was we rejected, but we were also slapped several times. After that, they even asked the staffs to chase us out."

"Nonsense! How could there be such a vicious woman!"

"It's ridiculous to beg an outsider for seeing her own son!"

"I really didn't expect Lottie to be such a person. She looks so good, but she has her dark side."

"Fortunately, she didn't film anymore. She's just a pest in the industry!"

"Oh my god, I used to be a fan of her. It's disgusting. I'll burn her signature photo once I get back!"

There were all sorts of discussions around her. They were all insults to Lottie. No one believed that she and Ralph were on the side of justice.

"Stop scolding me. What they did was for me!"

Natalia, who was blocked behind Lottie and Ralph, suddenly came forward, and her words attracted all the hatred.

"Lottie and the others are innocent. They don't know anything at all. They were all deceived by me."

"Natalia, what are you doing? Who wants you to protect? You..."

Lottie was extremely anxious. She wanted Natalia to hide in the ward and not speak, but Natalia grabbed her hand.

Natalia smiled at Lottie and said, "Thank you, Lottie. But you and Mr. Chapman really don't have to do so much for me. You are all deceived by me."

Lottie frowned fiercely. Ralph also looked at her with an exceptionally serious expression.

"This has nothing to do with you. We don't need you to take the blame."

"Sean Holland, take Ms. Ross back to the ward!"

Ralph's voice was low and he could not suppress his anger.

Ralph's assistant, Sean Hollando, hurried forward to take Natalia away.

While Natalia was still struggling, Lancy pushed aside the bodyguards with the help of others and grabbed Natalia.

She said with a ferocious face, "You are not allowed to leave! Hand over my son quickly!"

Lancy was so strong that she grabbed Natalia's hand to red. If it continued, Natalia would definitely get hurt.

Lottie almost couldn't control herself from attacking Lancy.

"Stop!"

Outside the crowd came a man's angry roar.

Everyone was stunned. They turned around and saw Kayden sitting in the wheelchair, looking at them with a gloomy face.

"You're not looking for me upstairs, but here to make trouble. Mother, are you really here looking for me?"

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 433 I Really Know I Was Wrong

Noticing Kayden, the reporters changed their target and ran to shoot at him.

A flicker of surprise crossed Lancy's face, but she quickly hid it and ran to Kayden, pretending to be very happy.

"My son, at last mom saw you!"

"You've suffered a lot these days. Why don't you go home with mom?"

As she spoke, she was about to grab Kayden's hand and force him to go home.

Her husband had said that as long as her son wouldn't have the operation, he would buy her a villa by the sea, which was worth twelve million dollars!

They could rent the villa to someone else to film a TV series if they didn't live in it, and it might even appreciate in the future. How valuable it was!

Thinking of this, Lancy could not help feeling excited.

However, she tried so hard but failed to pull Kayden.

Kayden leaned against the wheelchair with a casual expression on his face. He had no intention of leaving at all.

Lancy's expression gradually changed when she realized that something was wrong.

"Kayden, did you hear what mom said?"

Kayden finally lifted his eyelids and glanced at Lancy.

However, the coldness in his eyes made Lancy take two steps back in shock.

Kayden ignored her and slowly spoke to the camera.

"No one forced me to donate kidney, let alone my uncle's thuggee. I did it voluntarily."

"In the past, I didn't know how to cherish it, so Natalia was disappointed with me and dropped out the entertainment circle for me."

"I'm the one who shamelessly came to beg for Natalia's forgiveness. As long as she wouldn't divorce me, I'm willing to do anything."

The shutters kept clicking, and everyone's gazes fell on Kayden and Natalia in surprise.

Kayden signaled Cais to push him to Natalia.

Lancy's expression changed drastically. She pointed at Kayden and scolded, "Kayden, are you crazy?"

Ralph clicked his tongue and asked someone to stop Lancy from moving.

"Be quiet." Ralph's voice was unconcerned and indifferent.

He gave her a cold look.

However, Lancy's whole body trembled. She was shocked by the murderous look in his eyes.

Cais pushed Kayden to Natalia Ross's side. Natalia Ross's countenance changed again and again, and she refused to look at Kayden.

Kayden sighed and suddenly got up from the wheelchair. Then, he used his leg, which was not injured, to kneel down.

There was a gasp at the scene.

Natalia also took two steps back in shock.

Kayden took out a small gift box from his pocket and took out a diamond ring from the box.

"Is this a proposal?"

"That ring is so beautiful!"

"How can it not be beautiful? Anyway, the diamond of that ring weights at least 21 carats!"

"Is it very expensive?"

"Is it expensive? It was equal to seaside villa."

The focus of the discussion among the reporters was suddenly out of focus.

Kayden raised his head and looked at Natalia. When he saw the tears in her eyes, he was at a loss.

However, he laughed softly, but his eyes gradually turned red.

"We got married because of accidents. Our marriage is different from that of others. There is no proposal or wedding ring, and even no wedding ceremony. We just have a meal together."

"You were even lying in the hospital bed at that time, so you didn't have a good meal."

"After we got married, I was such a jerk and always made you sad. Later, when you woke up, you took care of me all the time, because you spoiled me so much that I didn't realize how important you are to me."

"Finally, I've let you down. You've made up your mind to divorce me. I'm so naive to think that I will live well if you leave me alone."

"In fact, I was wrong."

Silence fell upon the scene. Everyone listened quietly to Kayden's words and guessed what he meant.

"In fact, I've fallen in love with you for a long time, but I just don't want to admit it. Even if I realize that I've done something wrong, I don't dare to reveal my true feelings. I'm afraid that you will laugh at me. Kayden, who has always been high and mighty, will have such a humble day."

"I'm even more afraid that you will refuse, and I'm afraid that you have no attachment to me."

Even if I make up for it, I won't be forgiven."

Natalia's tears fell uncontrollably. She even wondered if she was hallucinating.

How could Kayden say something so nice to her? Even in her dreams, she had never dared to ask so much.

However, Kayden was still talking about how he had been feeling during this period of time.

It turned out that it was not that he did not like her anymore, but that he was used to being cared and chased by Natalia. So now the roles were exchanged, which made him unable to adapt for a time, so he did so many stupid things.

"I was too stupid."

Kayden couldn't help crying. He looked at Natalia with pity and tenderness in his eyes.

"I really know I was wrong. Natalia, can you forgive me? If we don't divorce, I'll give you another wedding, okay?"

"I will give you happiness and protect you. No one can hurt you."

Kayden stared at Natalia with shining eyes and breathed heavily.

He was so afraid to hear a negative answer from her.

Lottie wiped away her tears feelingly and held Ralph's arm.

"Kayden is a good talker. Even I am moved by his sincerity."

Ralph turned to look at her and could not help but smile, "Do you like it?"

"Hmm?" Lottie didn't understand.

"I suddenly remember that I haven't proposed to you. Do you want me to make up for it?"

Lottie, "..

."

"Can't you stop imitating others? Isn't it good to be yourself?"

Ralph didn't say anything else. He turned to look at Kayden and Natalia together with Lottie.

Many reporters were moved by Kayden's words. Someone suddenly said, "Promise him!"

The others kicked up a row as if they had woken up from a dream.

"Promise him! Marry him!"

The reporters who had been aggressive just now all rebelled. Seeing this, Lancy was so angry that she glared at these unscrupulous reporters. She wanted to say something, but she found that her mouth had already been covered by someone.

The bodyguard, who was covering her mouth, smiled sinisterly.

He would not allow anyone to destroy such a touching scene!

Natalia didn't answer. Kayden's bright and expectant eyes gradually dimmed.

It didn't work? Was Natalia completely not going to forgive him?

Kayden didn't want to force her to agree. She wouldn't have been happy if she agreed phonily.

Kayden sniffed and decided to get up by himself.

However, he didn't expect that he would kneel down on one knee for so long and couldn't use his other leg. When he got up, he didn't stand firm at all.

His body swayed and he was about to fall when Natalia quickly supported him.

"Don't you know that your leg is injured? You've been kneeling for so long!" Natalia did not care about anything else and started scolding Kayden.

Kayden was a little sad. "Without you, what's the point of recovering?"

Natalia frowned. "Kayden, are you threatening me?" .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 434

Forget about donating Kidney

Kayden was dumbfounded.

He quickly replied, "I didn't mean that."

Natalia looked pale, but she still reached out to Kayden.

There was a gasp at the scene.

Kayden looked at Natalia stiffly and did not move for a long time.

Natalia frowned and raised her hand in front of Kayden.

"What are you waiting for?"

Kayden's heart beat faster, and his heart almost jumped out of his chest. He was so nervous that he didn't even know what to say.

Lottie couldn't stand it any longer, "Natalia has promised you. Put on the ring for her right now!"

Kayden was so stupid.

Ralph looked at the excited lady beside him with a smile in his face.

"Why are you so excited?"

Lottie replied, "Fortunately, he's not Elijah's biological cousin."

"Hmm?"

"I suspect that there is something wrong with the Chapman family's genes."

After that, he glanced at Lancy, who was being held down by the bodyguards beside him with contempt, of which the sarcasm was self-evident.

Ralph smiled and pulled her hand. He said with a smile, "Don't worry. With our genes, Elijah and Fabian will definitely find true love in the future."

Lottie remembered what Natalia had said before, which appointed Fabian as her son-in-law at such a young age, so he didn't lack wife when he grew up.

She was a little proud of it and curled her lips.

But on second thought, something was wrong.

Wasn't Natalia's daughter also Kayden's daughter?

Would she inherit Kayden's genes?

Ralph watched as his wife's expression kept changing within a minute. He felt that it was very interesting and could not help but stare at her.

Ralph finally came to his senses after being reminded by Lottie. He clenched the ring box tightly in his palm.

He asked nervously, "Natalia, did you really promise me?"

Being watched by so many people, Natalia felt a little embarrassed. Hearing Kayden's words, she immediately withdrew her hand.

"You regret it? Then forget it."

"No, no!"

"I didn't regret it! I'm so happy!"

Kayden held her back in a hurry. He was so anxious that his eyes turned red.

He quickly took out the ring and put it on Natalia's fourth finger to lock her up first.

He was afraid that Natalia would go back on her word.

After the ring was put on, Natalia's eyelashes fluttered and she was a little excited.

Seeing this, Kayden quickly held her in his arms, and there was a burst of applause.

Watching from the side, Lancy was dumbfounded. She had never dreamed that it would progress in this way.

She wanted to come out to stop him, but the bodyguards did not give her any chance.

Under Ralph's gaze, the bodyguards quickly dragged Lancy away. Their actions were extremely efficient.

Without an eyesore, the atmosphere of the scene was very good. The reporters who had been tough earlier all gave their blessings now. Many of them even teased the couple. Kayden was actually very cooperative.

Lottie was also very happy for Natalia. Natalia and Kayden had gone through so much up to now. It was so good they finally had a happy ending.

Lottie wanted to cry. She wanted to go to Natalia's side to send her blessings.

At this moment, she saw a figure out of the corner of her eye.

The man, with a knife in his hand, mingled with the reporters who sent blessings and squeezed toward Natalia and Kayden.

Lottie's body shook. Seeing that the man was about to take the opportunity to attack Kayden, she quickly shook off Ralph's hand and turned around to kick the man to the ground.

Ralph also reacted at the moment and immediately commanded the bodyguards to go forward.

The man who dressed up as the reporter knew that he had been exposed, so he pulled out his knife and cut down the two innocent reporters beside him. Then, in the chaos, he quickly pushed away the crowd and ran away.

The bodyguards immediately chased after him, and Ralph ordered his subordinates to send the injured to bandage the wound.

"Evacuate the crowd. Cais will send Kayden and Natalia back to the ward."

"Send bodyguards to guard these two floors. No one else is allowed to approach except us!"

"Yes, sir!"

The bodyguards were well trained and soon controlled the situation.

Natalia, Kayden, and the others were transferred to Mrs. Ross's ward.

Mrs. Ross immediately stood up nervously when she saw them coming in. Natalia, are you all right?

Mrs. Ross and the three kids had not shown up and had stayed in the ward. There were bodyguards guarding at the door, so they were not harassed just now.

But the noise just now still came here. Mrs. Ross knew that someone was coming to make trouble, so she was very worried.

Fortunately, the young master, Elijah was really clever. He turned on the computer and connected the monitoring in the hospital corridor, so that they could see the whole process clearly.

"Mom, I'm fine. What about you?"

Mrs. Ross shook her head and saw the ring on Natalia's finger. Finally, she shed tears silently.

Although she was still a little worried, this was the decision that Natalia had made. As her mother, she could only send blessings to her.

Fortunately, Kayden seemed to be enlightened this time. What he had just said in front of the reporters was quite sincere and moving.

"Kayden, come here."

Mrs. Ross waved to Kayden.

After the chaos, Kayden was helped to sit down in a wheelchair by Natalia. Naturally, he was rolled to get close to Mrs. Ross.

"Good boy, I heard what you just said."

"You said you would take good care of Natalia and protect her from harm, so I'll believe you again."

"I hope you won't let me down. Don't let Natalia get hurt again."

"She's a silly child, and she's very sincere. She will pay a hundred times the price to whoever treats her well."

"If you dare to betray her again, I..."

Mrs. Ross held Kayden's hand tightly. Her eyes were red and fierce.

She was gentle and honest, and she had never shown any spearhead and hostility in her life.

"I won't let you off even if I become a ghost!"

"As for donating kidney, forget it."

After Mrs. Ross finished speaking, Kayden couldn't help nodding. When he heard her last sentence, he suddenly raised his head.

"Mom, you..."

"Mom!" Natalia also held her hand nervously, "What are you talking about? Why should we forget it?"

The doctor also said that this kidney match might be Mrs. Ross's last chance.

Mrs. Ross shook her head and her tears slowly fell.

"I'm satisfied to see you and Kayden get together."

"With my current condition, even if the operation is successful in the future, I won't be able to live for many years."

"Natalia, since you've chosen to be with Kayden, you should consider how his family feels."

"We can't be so selfish."

Mrs. Ross's words silenced everyone present.

Everyone knew who Mrs. Ross was referring to.

Lancy's reaction was so fierce just now that she didn't want her son to donate kidney, and she didn't want Natalia to marry into the Chapman family.

Mrs. Ross knew what Natalia was thinking, so she could not bear to let her daughter give up the happiness she got.

The only thing she could do was to earn some self-esteem for her daughter with her life.

She didn't want her daughter to be gossiped in the future when she married into the Chapman family and couldn't raise her head for the rest of her life.

Natalia could not hold on any longer. She cried and knelt on the ground. .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 435 Her Surname Is Also Chapman

Mr. Ross's tears kept shedding. Although it hurt, he understood his wife's decision.

They had always felt that they owed Natalia a lot. Not only could they not help her career or marriage, but they also kept hindering her.

If Mrs. Ross's health was exchanged for Natalia's happiness, they would never feel at ease for the rest of their lives.

"No, dad, mom, you don't have to worry about this. You just need to prepare for the operation."

Kayden was also a little flustered. He had kept it from Natalia before because he was afraid that she would feel guilty if she knew about it. As a result, she would force herself to reconcile with him because she was moved.

But he did not expect that after the truth was revealed, Mr. and Mrs. Ross would choose to refuse.

"How can we not care about Lancy? She is your mother and Natalia's mother-in-law."

"Mom, don't do this..."

At this moment, Natalia feel as if a knife were being twisted in her heart.

She even wondered if her mother would have no reason not to refuse as long as she was not with Kayden.

As long as she didn't marry into the Chapman family and kept a distance from Kayden, her mother wouldn't have to consider so much about her.

However, this idea was too selfish and unfair to Kayden.

What right did she have to ask Kayden to sacrifice so much for her, but he could not get anything in return?

However, her mother seemed to be weak-minded and good-natured, but it was hard to persuade her once she make the decision.

What would she do if her mother insisted on not having surgery?

Should she just watch her mother die?

Mrs. Ross could not bear to see how dilemmatic Natalia was.

She really didn't want to make things difficult for Natalia, nor did she want to give up her life. But she really couldn't the conflict generate between Natalia and Kayden.

Without the matter of kidney, Natalia and Kayden would always be equal in this marriage.

But if she accepted the donation, Natalia would be in an extremely passive position.

Life was not a fairy tale, and it could not be maintained simply by love. There would be a lot of trifles in marriage, as well as impulsive and quarrel.

"I will persuade my parents, mom, but you can't drag on any longer!"

Kayden was both greatly shocked and distressed when he saw Natalia in sorrow and the other members of the Ross family with determined expressions.

Mrs. Ross was willing to sacrifice her own life for her children's happiness. Kayden had never felt such a great motherly love when he stayed by Lancy's side.

Lancy doted on him, but it was only because of his status that he could bring Lancy praise and glory.

His existence was a tool for Lancy to establish a firm foothold in the Chapman family.

As for his father, he looked gentle, but in fact, he didn't know much about him. He didn't know what Kayden liked or hated. He would only ask Kayden in an commanding tone, but he never cared about what Kayden really wanted.

He envied Natalia for having such loving parents, and at the same time, he felt anxious for Mrs. Ross's decision.

"If something unexpected happens to you because you don't want to have surgery, do you think that Natalia and I will be happy? She will definitely feel guilty about your death, and then feel that she can't face me, and push me away."

Kayden spoke word by word, and every word he said was what Mrs. Ross was most worried about.

"It..."

Mrs. Ross looked at her daughter hesitantly.

Kayden said right about what Natalia would do.

Kayden's eyes were red as he continued, "Natalia became estranged from me. Why don't you have an operation now? We'll solve other problems after you recover."

"Besides, didn't you just say that you believed that I would protect Natalia? Why do you think that I would let her encounter such a difficult situation? Is this your trust for me?"

It made Mrs. Ross speechless.

Natalia's eyes gradually lit up because of Kayden's words.

"Mom, think about what Kayden has said. Let's do the surgery first."

"But..." Mrs. Ross still hesitated.

Would this choice really be good for Natalia?

She had thought that she had made the right decision, but she was a little confused by Kayden's words.

Seeing that the situation was in a stalemate, Ralph, who had been listening aside and did not speak, suddenly spoke.

"Mrs. Ross, you don't have to worry so much. In fact..."

However, before he could finish his words, Edward rushed in from outside.

"There's no need to argue. I just received the message that another donator appeared! The doctor has given her a matching analysis just now. The professional data shows that she is more suitable than Kayden!"

Hearing this, everyone in the ward was shocked.

Natalia got up excitedly and looked at Edward happily. "Dr. Grant, is what you said true?"

"Of course! These days, we haven't given up looking for a suitable kidney source. There were two suitable volunteers before, but they were not as suitable as Kayden, so we didn't tell you anything. But this time, the volunteers are more suitable than Kayden!"

Edward was very excited, not because he was worried about Kayden. The higher the degree of matching, the lower the possibility of rejection, which was good for everyone.

Natalia wiped away the tears on her face and said excitedly, "Who is the volunteer this time? Can I go to meet her?"

After what Mrs. Ross had said just now, she was about to collapse.

No matter which choice she made, she would not feel good. So now, she felt that she had come back to life.

No matter what, she had to thank the donator for her help.

"Of course you can. She's downstairs now. If you agree, I'll ask someone to bring her here to meet you.

"Then please bring her here!"

Mrs. Ross and Mr. Ross saw hope in each other's eyes.

If possible, who didn't want to live?

Lottie silently wiped away her tears and whispered to the kids, "That's great."

Fabian was very happy, "In this way, things can be solved perfectly!"

"Great, I like this ending!" Stella also clapped her hands excitedly.

Only Elijah's brows were furrowed, without any expression on his face.

Ralph and Kayden also had similar expressions on their faces.

Kayden frowned all along and felt a little uneasy for some reason.

He wanted to say something, but when he saw the excited expression of the Ross family, he closed his mouth silently.

However, Ralph was different from Kayden. Ralph felt that something was wrong. He suddenly asked in a deep voice while the room was filled with surprise and excitement.

"What's the name of that volunteer?"

When Edward heard Ralph's question, he immediately turned the page of the volunteer information list he had just received.

"Let me take a look. Her name is... Rose Chapman."

"What a coincidence. Her surname is Chapman. Is she also a member of Chapmans?"

Edward teased him with a smile. However, when he turned around, he saw Ralph's serious expression.

Apologize to Miss Chapman

"What's wrong?"

Noticing that something was wrong with Ralph, Lottie stepped forward and grabbed his arm.

Ralph shook his head at her. He did not say anything else in front of everyone.

Seeing him like this, Lottie frowned as well. Her intuition told her that there must be something wrong with the name, Rose.

"Is he really one of the Chapmans?"

Before Lottie could think it through, the bodyguard led a young girl into the ward.

The girl looked young. She was about 20 years old and had a baby face, which looked quite cute.

Her dress was not ordinary. It was from a very low-key brand, which was very suitable for her temperament, making her give off a gentle and harmless aura.

When Rose entered, everyone was a little surprised.

The main reason was that they didn't expect that the donator this time would be so young, just like children who hadn't grown up yet.

No one expected that the person who had spoken first would be Rose.

When she saw Natalia, her eyes lit up. She ran to Natalia and held her hands excitedly.

Natalia was surprised at first, but she quickly came to her senses and nodded at Rose with a smile.

"That's right, I'm Natalia Ross. Are you Miss Chapman? This time, you're going to donate kidney as a volunteer."

Rose was very excited and immediately nodded, "Yes, I'm a volunteer!"

"It's really you. Mr. Yung didn't lie to me! I really saw you. Rose, you've always been my idol!"

As soon as she said that, the ward fell silent.

Those words just now contained too much information.

Kayden was the first to change his expression, "What did you just say? What Mr. Yung?"

Rose turned to look at Kayden, her eyes filled with disdain.

"Mr. Yung is Mr. Yung. He is the best man in the world and he asked me to do the matching test here. He said that I can see my idol here. I didn't expect it to be true!"

Natalia's expression was grave as she held Rose's hands and asked, "Are you referring to Lincoln Yung?"

"That's right! Natalia, do you know him? He is really a super gentleman, and he is very powerful. He taught me a lot of things! He also said that he would teach me how to act and help me get resources. He will definitely make me famous!"

It was Lincoln Yung!

Natalia's expression changed. She turned to look at Ralph with complicated emotions in her eyes.

Mr. Chapman had clearly said that Lincoln was the one who had planned for murdering Kayden. He had also said that Lincoln had installed the surveillance software on her phone to frame Kayden and her mother.

With her trust in Mr. Chapman and Lottie, she had no doubts about his words.

And because of this, she felt sad for a long time. She felt that she had been deceived by Lincoln.

However, based on Rose's words, things weren't as simple as she thought.

If Lincoln really wanted to harm her mother, why did he ask Rose to do the matching test for Mrs. Ross?

He had even promised Rose so many benefits just to help Mrs. Ross.

If Lincoln had never done anything to hurt her, would everything that had happened earlier be a misunderstanding?

Thinking about it carefully, she didn't see the surveillance software with her own eyes.

Kayden took the phone away. Could it installed by Kayden? Was it a set-up to Lincoln. And she thought of the bodyguard who betrayed Mr. Chapman. How could Mr. Chapman happen to appear at the moment when Kayden was about to be killed?

Mr. Chapman kept saying that the bodyguard had betrayed him, but after that, no one knew how he dealt with the betrayer. He directly asked someone to take him away.

At that time, Zack also asked why he didn't ask clearly in person, but Mr. Chapman didn't give an explanation. Instead, he asked Elijah to answer with some vague words.

Natalia's expression changed.

Could this be a scam that Mr. Chapman and the others had set up before?

His purpose was to deceive her to forgive Kayden, so that she would think that Lincoln was the mastermind behind all this, so that she would become estranged from Lincoln, and then break completely with each other.

Seeing Natalia's expression, Ralph knew that she must have misunderstood something.

He had never dreamed that Lincoln would play a dirty trick like this.

Rose's appearance not only washed away Lincoln's sin, but also caused Natalia to doubt them instead.

Rose was still talking endlessly. While praising Lincoln, she also expressed her love and admiration for Natalia.

To be honest, from Rose's appearance alone, she was actually a pretty likable girl.

However, when Kayden first saw her, he didn't like her very much.

He couldn't describe what it felt like, but in short, it was disgusting.

He didn't know if it was because she had been praising Lincoln all along.

"Have you said enough?" Kayden finally couldn't help interrupting her, "You really trust Lincoln so much. Maybe he's just a liar."

Rose had been smiling, but when she heard Kayden's words, her face immediately darkened.

"Who do you think is a liar? Mr. Yung is honest and open-minded. He is not a liar."

"On the contrary, you are such a jerk! Don't you want to divorce my idol? But you are always pestering her. You are the actual liar!"

"You!" Kayden was furious. If it weren't for the fact that she was a young girl, he would have taught her a lesson today.

"Am I wrong? You are a scumbag! When you got married, you didn't my idol well.

When you lost her, you pretended to be nice and wanted to save this marriage. Don't you think you are too shameless?"

The young girl talked glibly, and Kayden was thoroughly refuted.

Her words made Mr. and Mrs. Ross a little embarrassed.

If it had been a day ago, they might have agreed to Rose's suggestion. However, Kayden had already reconciled with Natalia just now and Natalia had promised to reunite. Wasn't it a little for them inappropriate to criticize Kayden now?

Just then, Zack, who had been silent the entire time, stood up and walked up to Rose.

He reached out and pushed her, "We don't need your donation. Get out."

Zack's move shocked everyone present.

Natalia even grabbed Zack's hand.

"Zack, what nonsense are you talking about? Why did you do this?"

Zack looked terrible. He turned to look at Natalia.

"Sister, just like Lincoln, she's not a good person. We have my brother-in-law. We don't need this woman."

After hearing his words, Natalia's face darkened.

"Who asked you to judge others casually? She came here help us out of kindness, but you not only didn't thank her, but also drove her away. Zack, where is your manner? Apologize to Miss Chapman!"

Rose looked like she was easy to bully, but in fact, she wasn't weak at all.

She widened her eyes and angrily pointed at Zack's nose, "You're not a good guy! I'm here to save your mother, but you pushed me out. Do you want to kill your mother?"

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 437 No Good Person

"You don't need to save her. My brother-in-law will save her."

Zack's face darkened, but what he said was very rude.

Natalia quickly stopped him, "What are you talking about?"

After listening, Rose wasn't angry at all.

Instead, she sized Kayden up from head to toe.

"Him? Are you sure he's reliable?"

That kind of suspicious tone made people angry.

Kayden said with a cold face, "Do you have any prejudices on me?"

However, Rose swept a disdainful glance at him before turning to grab Natalia's hand.

"Natalia, listen to me. I can't let Kayden help you. He's so shameless. What if he asks you to repay his kindness in the future?"

"Besides, you have divorced him now. What will others think of you if he do you a favor?"

Rose acted as if she was standing in Natalia's shoes and considering the problem for Natalia. She also criticized Kayden, her words full of disdain for him.

"If he really wanted you to repay his kindness, he wouldn't have chosen to keep it a secret."

Lottie finally couldn't stand it any longer. It was indeed a good thing for Natalia to find a donator, but there was no need to refute Kayden thoroughly.

"You're... you're Lottie, aren't you?"

"I know you. Back then, you only got a chance to become famous because of Natalia's help, didn't you? Speaking of which, Natalia is your benefactor. She treats you so well. How did you repay her?"

"You put her be in danger and made her drop out the entertainment circle. Do you want to force her to get into hot water again?"

Rose didn't stand on ceremony at all. Soon, she argued with Lottie again.

She shielded Natalia behind her and glared angrily at Lottie, "I hate hypocritical and double-dealing people like you the most. I don't know if you're holding back or not."

Lottie frowned fiercely. Rose really knew a lot.

Moreover, her angle of view of things was particularly extreme. It was obvious that she had been trained by Lincoln.

Lottie redressed, "I don't need an outsider like you to comment on my personality."

Rose's expression changed when she heard that.

Natalia saw that the atmosphere in the ward was not good and quickly stepped forward.

"This... Miss Chapman..

."

"Natalia, just call me Rose. I'm really your fan. I've liked you for a long time!"

Kayden chuckled, indicating that he was suspicious of Rose's words.

Natalia was a little embarrassed. She quickly said, "Alright, Rose. I think you've misunderstood Kayden and Lottie."

"They are not as bad as you think, and they are very good to me."

Rose's eyes widened. "No way. Natalia, are you controlled by Kayden? He's already treating you like this. Do you still think he's treating you well?"

Zack glanced at her coldly, "How can you, an outsider, judge clearly their relationship?"

After being scolded by Zack again and again, Rose got angry.

What's wrong with this guy? Isn't he Natalia's biological younger brother? Why was he always helping outsiders?

Sure enough, Mr. Yung was right. There was no good person around Natalia.

She was about to retort when Ralph, who had been watching her, suddenly spoke.

"Let's put aside the grudges first." Ralph said, "The operation is coming. Miss Chapman, are you here voluntarily to donate kidney to Mrs. Ross?"

Rose turned to look at Chapman. The man's entire body was emanating a sharp aura. However, when he focused his attention on someone, his eyes seemed to be filled with endless affection.

A single glance was enough to attract a person.

She, who had been chattering just now, suddenly blushed.

She blinked shyly and replied softly, "Of course."

"What if something happens during the operation? Will you be responsible for it?"

Rose frowned and asked, "Why are you say so?"

"The operation is risky. You are still so young.

In case of any accident, I have to make sure that you or your family and friends will not come to make trouble. This is called precaution."

These words made sense, but they didn't sound pleasant to Rose.

She stopped wondering and glared at Ralph.

"I came here to save her, but according to your words, I've become a villain."

"If you don't trust me, you can find someone else."

"Why should I bear your suspicion?"

As she spoke, she turned around and was about to leave as if she was angry.

Natalia was about to step forward to stop her, but was stopped by Lottie.

"Natalia, do you believe me?"

Natalia glanced at Ralph hesitantly before nodding.

Although she still had doubts in her mind, she still chose to believe in Lottie because of her sincere look.

"Then you can go." Ralph's voice was indifferent as he turned to look at Edward .

"It's almost time. Get ready to let Kayden and Mrs. Ross have operation together."

Although Edward didn't know why Ralph had rejected Rose, Mr. Chapman had his reasons for doing everything. He didn't ask much and nodded obediently.

"Okay, then we'll carry out the original plan. I'm going to prepare now. There will be nurses taking them to the operating room in three minutes."

Edward turned around and left.

Rose watched helplessly as Kayden was about to be taken away to change his surgical gown. She was dumbfounded for a moment.

"No, I pretended to leave just now. Why didn't these people stop me?"

She was actually the most suitable candidate!

"Wait!" Rose quickly stopped Ralph and the others in hurry.

Ralph glanced at her coldly, "What else do you want?"

"If there's nothing else, please leave immediately."

Rose's face turned red, "How... how would I know if it is your scheme?"

"Did you say those words on purpose just now just to provoke me and let Kayden take my place to have the operation?"

"You worry too much." Ralph's tone was cold.

"I never thought of letting you go to the operating table from the beginning."

Rose widened her eyes, looking innocent. She really didn't look like a scheming person.

"You... How could you..." He didn't follow the routine.

Ralph sneered and turned to call the bodyguards.

"What a coincidence that she's a fan of Natalia while knowing Lincoln and everything about us." Ralph's eyes were as cold as ice.

"Miss Chapman, how coincidental do you think it is?"

That glance seemed to have profound meaning and could easily see through her hearts.

For some reason, Rose shuddered and her heartbeat sped up.

Lottie walked over to Ralph and held his hand. Rose's gaze at Ralph earlier had made her unhappy.

"No, it's just a coincidence, and there is no problem with the test done by the doctor! I am indeed the most suitable person!"

Rose turned to look at Natalia, "Natalia I'm really your fan! Why did you let an outsider make the decision for you? Don't you believe that I can help you?" .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 438 Can I Stay?

Natalia and Mrs. Ross hesitated and did not speak.

Zack stepped forward with a indifferent expression to block Rose's gaze.

"I don't believe it."

"You've been sowing discord. You don't look like a good person."

After that, he turned to look at Mrs. Ross.

"Mom, you should believe in my brother-in-law. Since he promised to make my sister happy, he would never let others bully her. Isn't what happened just now enough to prove it?"

"Lancy had obviously found him just now and brought so many reporters with her."

"In the end, it was resolved by Kayden. He did not listen to Lancy, but proposed to Natalia in front of her."

"Since he had such courage, he could protect Natalia in the future."

Mrs. and Mr. Ross looked at each other with conflicted eyes.

Kayden had already changed into his surgical gown, and he had heard the conversation just now.

"Zack is right. I can even risk my life for Natalia. How can I let her get hurt because of me?"

Natalia looked at Kayden with red eyes, lowered her head and shed tears silently.

Perhaps she was thinking too much. A proud person like Kayden always disdained to deceive others.

It was even impossible for him to put on such a show in order to coax her back.

Just like what she had said before, Kayden could get all kinds of women he wanted. What else was worth it for him to set up such a big trap with Mr. Chapman?

After thinking it through, Natalia took a deep breath.

Finally, she made up her mind.

"Mom, let's listen to Kayden."

The expression on Rose's face immediately changed on hearing these words.

"Are you all crazy?" She still felt unbelievable.

"You're the crazy one." Lottie glanced at her coldly.

"Do you think we'll believe a donator of unknown origin?"

"Bodyguard, invite Miss Chapman out."

Rose glared fiercely at Lottie. She hadn't expected these people to treat her like this.

She was still calling Natalia's name and shouting for help, but the next second, she was dragged out by Ralph's bodyguards.

"You can't do this. Why don't you believe me..."

"Natalia, I'm really here to help you."

The voice gradually faded away until it disappeared.

The ward fell into silence for a while.

Until the nurses opened the door and came in to help Mrs. Ross change her surgical gown, and then asked the others to leave.

Ralph led Lottie and the others out of the ward. He watched as Mrs. Ross and Kayden were rolled out of the ward.

Natalia hurried up to hold Mrs. Ross's hand.

"Mom, don't be afraid. Dr. Grant is professional. He will definitely cure you!"

Mrs. Ross nodded with tears in her eyes. She looked at her husband and then at her children with her eyes full of attachment and reluctance.

She didn't know if she could get off the operating table this time. Maybe this was the last time too see her family.

The nurse rolled Mrs. Ross away first.

Natalia cried and released Mrs. Ross's hand. She turned around and saw Kayden.

Lying on the bed, Kayden looked much weaker than usual.

He looked at Natalia with a smile and said gently, "Don't be afraid. Mom and I will come out safely. Just wait outside."

Natalia didn't expect that he was comforting her, and her tears kept falling.

"Okay, I'll wait for you outside."

"Kayden, don't let any accidents happen to you. Do you understand?"

Kayden smiled at her and then looked at Ralph.

"Uncle, please..."

Ralph nodded at him. Everything was told when say nothing at all.

The nurse also rolled Kayden into the operating room.

Everyone moved to the door of the operating room.

Stella pulled Lottie's hand and asked in a low voice, "Mommy, how long will Kayden and Aunt Ross's surgery last?"

"Will they come out safely?"

It was the first time she had experienced such a thing since she was only five years old. She was a little scared.

Before Lottie could say anything, Fabian immediately came over to comfort her.

"Honey, of course they'll come out safely!"

"Everyone will be fine. Only in this way will it be the ending you like!"

Stella turned around and looked at Fabian seriously. Her little face was full of seriousness, "Really?"

Lottie said, "It's true."

The operation had been going on for too long, and Lottie was still a little worried that they would be sleepy.

But in this case, it was not good for her to leave, so she squatted down and discussed with them.

"Daddy and mommy want to stay here with Natalia. If you're tired, let Uncle Holland take you to rest, okay?"

At this moment, Cais and Sean were waiting aside, waiting for orders at any time.

Elijah was the first to shake his head. "I'm not tired."

Fabian also said, "I want to wait with you!"

He glanced at Stella worriedly and said, "If you are tired, you can rest first."

Stella frowned. "Don't look down on me. I'm not tired either!"

Fabian was confused.

Why did he look down on her? He was obviously worried that she would be tired!

Natalia heard all the conversation here. She was very worried just now, but when she heard the words of the children, she felt very warm.

"It doesn't matter. You don't have to wait here." Natalia said gently, "You're still young. Let your mommy take you to rest, ok?"

Lottie shook her head. "Since they want to wait, let them wait."

"Although they are not related by blood, they really treat Kayden as their family."

He was just like someone, who was always quiet, but he was actually doing like real elders.

Ralph felt warmth on the palms. It was because Lottie who was holding his hand.

He didn't feel nervous and calmed down a lot.

He looked at her seriously.

"Thank you."

Although he didn't show it, he was actually very worried about Kayden.

Lottie smiled brightly at him. "Do you still have to say that to me?"

Although she had been waiting for a long time, Natalia felt that it was not too difficult because of the company and warmth.

Time ticked by. Rose, who had been kicked out of the hospital, was contacting Lincoln.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Yung. I screwed it up."

In that instant, she could clearly hear the man's rapid breathing.

She did not expect him, who had always been calm, to feel so nervous at this moment.

"Mr. Yung?"

"I see. It's useless for you to stay over there. Come back for the time being."

Lincoln did not ask about the details and only gave her other orders.

His tone was still calm, as if nothing had happened.

Rose hesitated for a moment. "I saw Ralph today. He's harder to deal with than I thought. I want to stay and help you deal with him. Mr. Yung, can I stay?"

They had clearly agreed that as long as she could help, the other party would help her sign a contract with an agency, and then spend a lot of effort to help her debut. But now, Lincoln asked her to go back.

She didn't want to go back.

Rose curled her lips. "What am I going back for? Am I going to live in the countryside with that stupid mother of mine?"

She spent most of her life waiting, just in exchange for a moment of reunion and joy.

Why?

She was going to stay!

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 439

Maybe You Will Be Against

This time, Lincoln was silent for a long time before speaking.

"If this is what you want, then stay."

Rose's eyes lit up. "Really? Mr. Yung, you really agreed to let me stay!"

"You can stay, but you have to do as I say next."

"No more mistakes are allowed, understand?"

The last sentence was clearly very gentle, as if her lover was whispering in her ear. However, for some reason, Rose shuddered, feeling threatened.

She did not dare to be too excited and nodded obediently.

"Don't worry, I won't let you down again!"

Lincoln responded and said, "Stay at the door and don't move. I will send someone to pick you up."

"Okay, Mr. Yung."

Lincoln quickly hung up. Rose put away the phone with a delighted expression. She didn't notice that Lincoln knew that she was at the door.

On the opposite side of the road, in an inconspicuous black car.

Lincoln closed the laptop that had been monitoring Rose the entire time with an unusually cold expression.

"Let's go." He ordered the driver to drive.

The driver did not dare to disobey his order and quickly drove away.

Lincoln didn't ask how Rose had failed, because he had already seen the whole process through the camera she was carrying. After watching the whole process, he understood that Ralph didn't intend to accept her from the very beginning.

He even suspected that Rose had acted faster and was caught tripping by Ralph.

From Ralph's expression, Lincoln could tell that he understood.

It was like... It was as if he had long known about Rose's existence.

Lincoln closed her eyes and started thinking about her next plan.

At the same time, Ralph received information from a private detective on his phone.

As he had expected, Rose's background wasn't simple at all.

However, what surprised him was that Ank looked so honest but he would still make such a mistake under the eyes of Mr. Old Chapman.

However, Lancy, who had always been fierce, did not notice the existence of the mother and daughter at all.

No wonder Rose's match was successful, because she and Kayden were blood siblings.

Lincoln had grasped this information in advance, so he would not give up so easily. There must be other tricks waiting for them in the future. He had to be on his guard and protect the people around him.

Sitting next to him, Lottie was the first to feel the change in his emotions.

She couldn't help frowning.

Then she clenched his hand again and comforted him, "Don't worry too much. Dr. Grant is very powerful. Kayden and aunt will be safe."

Ralph turned to look at Lottie. After hesitating for a while, he still didn't tell her Rose's identity. He just nodded.

"I'm not worried."

"No, it's obvious that you're worried."

Lottie rolled her eyes at him. Finally, she gently leaned her head against his shoulder and closed her eyes as she pretended to sleep.

The operation lasted for more than seven hours.

They waited from the afternoon until the night fell. Just as Natalia was feeling uneasy, the door of the operating room finally opened.

Natalia and the others were all shocked and then nervously surrounded there.

"Dr. Grant, how is it going?"

Edward took off his medical gloves, took off his surgical uniform, and handed it to the assistant next to him. Then he remembered to reply.

"Don't worry, the operation is very successful. The reason why it took such a long time was mainly because Mrs. Ross had a small problem halfway. Fortunately, it was solved safely."

"After the operation, they still have to observe for 24 hours in the quarantine ward. During this period, families are not allowed to visit her. You'd better go back to rest first and come back after you adjust yourselves."

Edward then told Natalia and Mr. Ross the details of the operation.

Knowing that the operation was successful, everyone breathed a sigh of relief.

Ralph turned to look at Lottie. "You and the children are all tired. I'll take care of them here, and you can take them home to rest first."

After all, they were in the hospital. It was not good for children to stay here all the time.

Lottie thought for a moment and finally nodded.

"Are you staying at night?"

Although Edward said that family visit was not allowed, he knew that it was a critical time. If something really went wrong, someone had to make a decision next to her.

Ralph nodded. "If I were here, they would be more at ease."

"Got it, you're our great hero." Lottie leaned over and kissed his forehead.

"Then I'll take our children back to rest first. I'll make delicious food tomorrow and change shifts with you."

The doctor also said that it was very important within 24 hours. After tonight, there was still one day of tomorrow, and it was very critical. Lottie had already prepared to change shifts to ease their pressure.

Ralph didn't want her to be so hard, but he didn't refuse at this time since he was mainly afraid that she would be worried.

"Okay, then be careful on your way back. Call me when you get home."

After Lottie finished speaking with Ralph, she went to greet Natalia. Before she left, she even called for supper for them before returning home.

On the way back, she received a call from Connie.

"Lottie, how's Kayden's operation?"

"It went well. He stayed in the sterile ward for isolation observation for the time being.

If there was no problem within 24 hours, he could be transferred to the ordinary ward first. There is nothing wrong with his aunt, but we need to observe her for a long time."

Noticing that something was wrong, Lottie hurriedly asked, "What's wrong?"

Connie breathed a sigh of relief and said, "It's good that everything goes well. You know, those people discussed a lot on the Internet this afternoon."

First, Kayden's mother showed up to slander Ralph and Lottie for colluding with outsiders to murder her son. It caused an uproar on the Internet, but she was so embarrassed by Kayden.

The video of Kayden proposing to Natalia became the trending topic. Before the netizens finished sending their blessings, they saw Natalia's anti-fan mixed into the reporters and hurt people with the knife. As a result, the netizens who watched the live broadcast were busy calling the police. Finally, they got the news that the person had been arrested by the police.

It was not over yet. In the evening, a girl who was said to donate her kidney to Mrs. Ross sent a question video on the Internet.

She repeated what had happened in the ward in the afternoon. She doubted about the real purpose of Kayden's proposal to Natalia and raised her doubts about Ralph and his wife

The girl appeared to be always very innocent. She released a bunch of evidence to prove that she was Natalia's loyal fan. In addition, she seemed to have no background. As a result, it incited those netizens fan the flames since she was already a vulnerable person compared with Ralph and the others

The most important thing was that Kayden's mother also came out to cooperate with the girl, saying that Ralph was a wicked monster. She also cried and complained to the netizens that she had been violently treated, which led to many people who did not know the truth joining in the scolding of Ralph.

"Lottie, your current image is too bad. If you want to make a comeback in the future, you may be rejected by netizens."

Connie was worried about her. "It's better to clarify this matter." .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 440 I Need Your Help

"Okay, I'll find a way to clarify it."

Lottie replied calmly.

She had to go to shoot in the future. Ralph had opened an entertainment company for her, so she had to manage

Therefore, it was imperative to clarify it.

"Do you need my help?" Connie was still asking

She had signed the contract with SFLE Media now, and a few artists under her control had also come here. Their development was not bad now.

In addition, she still had Alfred's connections, so she had a lot of ways to solve many problems in the entertainment industry. It was easy for her to pay some paid posters and post a statement to clarify it.

But Lottie refused.

"I want to try to solve it myself."

Previously, Lottie had been busy helping Natalia and hadn't done anything else. Now that her mother had finished the operation, she could do whatever she wanted.

She had promised her three children that she would not only make a glorious comeback, but also win a movie queen award.

She suddenly remembered what Lancy had said when she mocked her, saying that she had only good appearance but bad acting skill.

This time, let him see if she had the good skill or not!

After staying in the hospital for a long time today, Stella had fallen asleep in the car.

Lottie didn't chat much with Connie and quickly hung up the phone.

When she got home and took care of the three children until they fell asleep, she then went into the study alone.

Lottie went online and learned about what had happened before.

The woman who had sent the video to question her and Ralph's true intentions was indeed Rose.

Rose first posted a video of slandering them, and Lancy quickly reposted it. The two of them had interacted with each other in the comments and had already reached the goal of slandering them.

The netizens were all excited, and a bunch of people commented that they were humiliating Lottie and Natalia.

As for Kayden and Ralph, few people scolded them.

It was unknown whether it was because she was afraid of their power or because the netizens were more tolerant of men.

Lottie laughed coldly. She didn't expect that Rose was quite good at winning the favor of the people.

She had done this, but she probably did not really want to stand up for Natalia. She just wanted to attract attention in this way to increase her popularity.

"Is he ready to make a debut?"

Lottie picked up her phone and called Richeal.

"It's late, why don't you still yet?"

Richeal was a little surprised to receive her call.

In the past, Lottie wouldn't casually contact her. After all, she had lied to her before. For a long time, she had treated her and York sincerely.

"I remember that you are now in SFLE Media, right?"

"Well, I've got an artist director here."

Richeal said with a smile, "The main reason is that I think I can find many handsome men and beautiful women here, so that I can hook up with them in the future."

Lottie ignored her improper words. Although Richeal didn't say anything, she knew that Richeal and York would stay because of the simple instructions given by Jerry.

Jerry asked them to stay because he wanted them to work for him.

"That's good. If I don't have any reliable subordinates in the entertainment industry in the future, it will be really troublesome."

"I need your help with something." Lottie went straight to the point.

Richeal did not ask for the reason. "Yes, please."

"Help me investigate Rose and her following actions."

"Tell me if you find anything."

Richeal chuckled. "I'll send it to you tomorrow morning."

"Thank you."

After that, he simply hung up the phone.

On the other end of the line, Richeal could not help but shake her head and laugh in the face of being hung up.

As soon as York came out with the wine, he saw the gentle smile in his eyes, and his heart skipped a beat.

Somehow, he felt a little uncomfortable and asked tentatively, "Who are you calling?"

Richeal rolled her eyes at him. "What does it have to do with you?"

Then she snatched the wine from York, opened it, and blew it on the bottle.

Looking at her unrestrained behavior, York paused for a moment and said softly, "What a tomboy!"

"What did you say?" Richeal glared at him fiercely.

York admitted defeat immediately. "Nothing, I mean don't drink too fast. It's not good for your health."

"Come on, be a man. No wonder Lottie doesn't like you."

York was speechless. "Why are you talking about her again? I really don't have any improper thoughts about her, okay?"

But Richeal didn't believe what he said.

She started to laugh at him for being dumped by more than a dozen netizens. York was angry but didn't dare to say anything, so he had to serve her obediently.

One night passed just like that.

In the early morning of the next month, Lottie prepared breakfast and sent it to the hospital. She saw many reporters waiting at the entrance of the hospital.

Everyone knew that Mrs. Ross and Kayden had undergone kidney transplant here yesterday because of Rose's exposure.

For the sake of getting a wave to ride, they came early in the morning to wait. Unfortunately, the security of this private hospital was so good that no one let them in. They could only wait outside.

Lottie only glanced at the car briefly before looking away. She asked the driver to drive the car directly into the hospital.

When she got off the car, Ralph, who had received the news, was already waiting for her downstairs.

She took a few quick steps forward and looked at the man's handsome profile. Her heart ached for him.

He didn't sleep all night. The man was much haggard, but it didn't affect his handsome appearance.

"How was it last night?"

"Kayden is fine. Mrs. Ross has some minor problems. Maybe she is still not used to it, so she has a high fever several times."

"Then why didn't you call me last night?"

"It's not a big deal. There's a doctor waiting for her, so there's no need to tell you about it."

As they talked, they walked into the elevator.

Just then, a tall figure walked toward them.

At first, the two of them didn't pay much attention to it. It wasn't until the smiling face turned to face them that Lottie and Ralph recognized each other.

"Lincoln, why are you here?"

Lottie frowned fiercely.

"So it's you, Mrs. Chapman." Lincoln nodded politely at her.

"I heard that your surgery has been completed, so I came to visit you today and meet Natalia by the way."

He looked as usual, calm and decent, as if he had not done anything disgusting at all.

A look of disgust appeared in Lottie's eyes. She thought that Lincoln was indeed good at acting.

"Did you get Natalias's permission before coming to the hospital?"

Ralph glanced at him coldly and asked.

"Of course."

Lincoln did not mind Ralph and his wife's attitude towards him at all. He smiled and entered the elevator first.

Ralph's expression changed. In the end, he didn't say anything and was about to enter the elevator when he was stopped by Lottie.

"Honey, let's wait for a while."

Lincoln glanced at their faces with a smile and did not say anything else. He nodded at them politely and naturally pressed the closing button.

The elevator door closed in front of them and soon rose.

Lottie's face darkened. "Why did Natalia call Lincoln over?" .
