

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 451 You Are So Shameless

Ralph was very worried about Lottie's safety, so he was silent all the way.

Although he usually wasn't a talkative person, she could still sense his bad emotions.

But Connie was here, so it was inappropriate to ask him what happened. She could only temporarily suppress her worry and heard Connie tell her about Treasure 101.

These news were collected by Connie before. After working in this circle, she did have some connections.

"I heard that there are four mentors in this program this time, two men and two women. But I don't know who they are. I heard that they are prestigious. It seems that the program organizer really wants to do it well."

Ralph knew more about this than Connie did.

After all, he invested tens of millions of dollars in this show. Naturally, he had to ask about the mentors.

"Do you know Rubby?"

Hearing this name, Lottie was stunned.

She felt that this name sounded familiar, but she didn't recall who it was for a moment.

Connie patted her thigh and said, "Isn't she Natalia's opponent? Her current fame is indeed enough to be a mentor in this show, but she doesn't know anything about singing and dancing. Why does the show organizer invite her?"

Ralph answered, "The change of resources."

"That's it. I heard that Rubby has a great backer. I guess that it must be her backer who spends a lot of effort to get her into this show as a mentor."

"But if she is a mentor of this show, it will be very troublesome."

Connie was worried.

Fortunately, Natalia did not participate in this show together. Otherwise, Rubby would definitely find an opportunity to slander Natalia.

Lottie had such a good relationship with Natalia. Rubby would definitely make trouble to Lottie.

Connie thought about it and looked up at Lottie.

Lottie was in a bad mood, but she wasn't afraid of Rubby. On the contrary, she wanted to have a face-to-face competition with Rubby so that she could tear off her fake mask.

She remembered that when Natalia was slandered, Rubby also got involved in the matter. However, Rubby finally didn't get any the punishment, which made Lottie angry.

Perhaps she was doted on by Mr. Chapman recently and became bolder, so she was no longer afraid of confronting with others.

On the contrary, she seemed even more vengeful because she wanted to protect her friend.

Seeing Lottie's angry expression, Ralph found it funny and did not mind it.

She was his wife. No matter how domineering and willful she was, she was still the one he loved.

Ralph told her the names of the other three mentors. They were well-known in the circle. Although Lottie wasn't very familiar with them, she had heard their names before.

Ralph asked deliberately, "If you don't like Rubby, I can ask the program organizers to change a mentor."

Lottie glanced at him and said, "No need."

Ralph touched her white and tender cheeks. It was soft, making him addicted to it.

"Really?"

Lottie patted his hand away and narrowed her eyes, "Of course."

She was not afraid of Rubby. She already made up her mind to win the championship, so she was not afraid that Rubby made trouble to her.

Seeing that she was so determined, Ralph knew that she wanted to solve it by herself. He was also curious what she would do.

At the moment, they arrived at the shooting site.

The Rexwell TV Station attached great importance to this program, regarding it as an S+ level variety show and provided a lot of support to this program. In addition, Ralph and others invested a lot of money in it, so the program organizer was very generous.

The program organizer rented the largest manor in Rexwell, which covered the grassland, garden, fountain, and castle. It was used as the venue for shooting.

Connie couldn't help praising as soon as she got out of the car, "The program organizer is so rich!"

Lottie had seen the residences of the Bells and the Barton family in Odense, so she wasn't very interested in this manor.

She just felt that the design of the fountain at the door was good, so she paid more attention to it.

Ralph smiled and asked, "Do you like it?"

"The design of the fountain is pretty good."

The three little Angels surrounded a female Angel, adding the stars and the moon as decorations around. Lottie liked it at the first glance.

She felt that this design seemed to mean her and her three children, but she didn't say it out loud because it sounded a little narcissistic.

Ralph looked at Lottie and felt happy because she liked it. His work was not in vain. He specifically found designers and engravers abroad to make this fountain, which took him more than three months to finish it.

This manor was called the Star-Moon Manor, which was bought by Ralph for Lottie and his three children.

All buildings and scenery in the manor was designed by Ralph for Lottie and his three children just to let Lottie could have a place to relax while feeling bored.

Lottie didn't know about this. She only felt that it was a coincidence.

Seeing this, Connie said straightforwardly, "Lottie, do you think this female Angel looks like you? It is so beautiful."

Before Lottie could say anything, she heard a sneer from not far away.

"You are so narcissistic! Do you think you are a fairy? However, you are just a stunt-in."

The voice sounded pretentious with sarcasm and meanness. The owner of the voice was certainly not a good person.

Lottie and Connie looked over. They saw a beautiful woman walking over with Rose.

Rose was dressed in a pink dress. Her long and silky hair was draped down her shoulders.

She wore a peach-blossom makeup, making her look sweeter. Even if she didn't say a word, she looked very gentle and beautiful, making it easy for others to like her.

As for the woman next to Rose, she wore a cool and dazzling stage makeup. She was dressed in a pair of hot pants and a crop top, showing her quite good figure. Her dress-up belonged to a sexy style. However, when she stood next to Rose, her temperament seemed gloomy and unpleasant.

The one who spoke just now was this gloomy woman.

Lottie frowned. She glanced at her and did not say a word.

Rose covered her mouth with her hand and sneered. She patted the woman beside her lightly.

"Eve, you shouldn't say that. Miss Green is a popular actress with many fans in the entertainment industry."

Rose seemed to be speaking up for Lottie, but everyone could hear the sarcasm in her words.

Connie's expression changed instantly. She was about to rush over and taught her a lesson, but was stopped by Lottie.

Eve saw Connie's action. She despised her even more and spoke more impolitely.

"You're wrong. I've never seen a senior whose fans are even less than you, a newbie."

.

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 452

Acting the Show of Breaking a Stone on the Chest?

Lottie wasn't angry at all. She just looked at them calmly, seeing what else they could say.

But Connie was so angry that she turned around and saw Ralph standing by the side with an indifferent look. He seemed not to revenge for Lottie at all, which made her even angrier.

"Mr. Chapman, don't you revenge for Lottie?"

Ralph was very angry. He glanced at Rose and her friend, but he didn't say anything.

"I believe in Lottie."

He also wanted to teach them a lesson, but his wife obviously didn't want him to intervene it, so he could only watch it by the side angrily.

Lottie nodded with satisfaction. Her husband understood her very well.

However, Ralph's words didn't sound good to Rose and her friend.

It was said that Mr. Chapman doted on his wife very much. But if it was true, why did he allow his wife to work in the gym for so long? Moreover, Mr. Chapman didn't say anything when they insulted his wife.

Perhaps he was already tired of her, so he stood by and watched.

Rose's eyes lit up suddenly.

When she was in the hospital, she had felt that Ralph was very excellent. Moreover, his current power and status were extraordinary. If she could be with him, she did not have to wait for her cowardly father to help her return to the Chapman family.

She heard that Ralph was in charge of the Chapman family now.

Kayden was a good-for-nothing, who had been supported by Ralph, so that he had current status and reputation.

Rose still didn't know that her true identity was already exposed by Ralph. She thought that she did not have a blood relationship with Ralph, and they could be lovers.

Thinking of it, she looked at Ralph gently. Her admiration for him was clearly showed on her face.

Lottie felt angry when she sensed Rose's admiration for Ralph. She immediately stepped forward to block her sight.

Rose was so shameless that she seduced her husband in front of her.

She had to teach her a lesson.

Rose was unhappy when she saw Lottie's wary look. At the same time, she was even more certain of her own thoughts.

Ralph must be tired of Lottie. Otherwise, why was Lottie so wary of her?

Rose nudged Eve who had the same idea as she. When Eve received Rose's reminder, she immediately mocked Lottie again.

"Miss Green, why are you here? Are you also here to participate in the show shooting? Are you a mentor?"

This was a deliberate humiliation. They knew obviously that it was impossible for Lottie to be a mentor, so they said that deliberately.

Connie couldn't stand it and said, "Who are you? I haven't seen you before. Do you think that you have a chance to make your debut relying on your ugly face?"

Eve was furious when she heard that. In order to become famous, she specially had a plastic surgery to make her facial features look better.

As a result, Connie's words offended her thoroughly.

Pointing at Connie, she shouted, "Who are you? Do you think you're beautiful? You must not be an actress with your appearance. Are you a comedian invited by the program organizer?"

Connie wasn't angry at all. Her appearance couldn't be compared to Lottie's. She had an ordinary appearance.

She knew herself well and didn't want to be an actress, so she wasn't angry at all.

"It's none of your business. In short, I won't kid myself like you."

"You are so shameless! Although you have a cosmetic surgery, Lottie is still more beautiful than you. When you stand by Lottie, everyone will only look at Lottie. Who do you think you are?"

Eve was so furious that she glared viciously at Lottie.

She had to admit that Connie was right.

Lottie was really pretty. Moreover, she wore makeup today, making her look even more beautiful.

Even if she had no talent, she could win the competition with her beautiful face.

However, Eve would not want Lottie to steal their limelight.

That was why she deliberately slandered her just now.

"If we can make a debut only relying on our appearance, the program organizer doesn't need to find so many talented contestants to participate in this show. Therefore, if you want to win, you must rely on your own ability."

Just as Eve didn't know how to retort, Rose slowly opened her mouth.

Eve immediately reacted and swept a cold glance at Lottie. She said with a cold laugh, "That's right. She's just a eye candy. She probably won't even pass the initial exam. Do you have any stage experience?"

Connie frowned and didn't say anything, but Lottie replied with a smile, "It's none of your business."

"Who are you? An examiner or a mentor?"

"We don't need you to take the test. Don't worry too much."

Eve hadn't thought that Lottie would either keep quiet or speak in such a choking manner. She was so angry that her face turned pale.

She immediately said with hatred, "You used to be a stunt woman for others, and your acting had been grounded. I think you haven't learned to perform seriously, have you?"

"Then what are you going to show on the stage? Just like breaking a stone in your chest?"

"I don't really care about your business.

I just feel sorry for the audience and the examiners. Their eyes would be hurt."

"You!" Connie was so angry that she wanted to hit her.

Then she was once again pulled back by Lottie.

Connie turned around angrily and said, "Lottie, don't pull me! This bitch's mouth is too cheap. I'll tear her mouth apart!"

"Oh, what's wrong? Are you angry at being exposed by me?"

Seeing Connie like this, Eve felt even happier. She wanted to say something more, but Rose grabbed her arm.

Rose had been secretly observing Ralph's expression just now. At first, he was quite indifferent, as if he didn't care about anything. But when Eve had gone too far, he glanced at her coldly.

Thinking back to the day when Ralph had insisted on finding bodyguards to throw her out of the hospital, Rose's heart skipped a beat.

Although Ralph might not care so much about Lottie, he was a man after all, and he valued his face very much.

After all, Lottie was his children's mother. He definitely didn't like that someone constantly provoke her.

Thus, when Rose stopped and pulled Eve back in time. She even pretended to be nice and tried to persuade her, "Eve, you've gone too far just now."

"If she didn't have real skills, how could Ms Green dare to sign up in the program group? At that time, the video will be recorded. It's absolutely impossible without preparation."

"A true talent? Oops, I think it's a shame."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 453 Can I Show First?

Eve still wanted to say something, but a staff member of the program group had come out to welcome her.

Before coming, Ralph had informed the staff in advance.

"Ms Green is here."

"You're also here. Coming to hand in your registration form, right? The judges and photographers are already in place. Everyone, come with me first."

The staff didn't notice the dispute between the two sides, they invited them in with a good attitude.

The playwright-director had already learned from the director that Ralph was the rich investor of the show group. Even the whole manor was rented by him to the show group. Naturally, he was very enthusiastic now.

Lottie and Connie looked at each other and felt that it was more important to hand in the registration form first.

Connie was still a little angry. Before entering, she couldn't help retorting.

"Let's just wait and see whether it's shameful or not."

After that, she pulled Lottie away.

Ralph followed behind.

Eve's eyes gleamed with malice. She turned to Rose and said, "Look at their arrogant attitude!"

"They will definitely make a fool of themselves time after!"

Rose had been paying attention to Ralph the entire time. His back view was more handsome than all the men she had met at the Film Academy and in Trust Town.

Even Mr. Yung did not have the strong temperament of a long-term superior.

If she could be with such a man, she would really wake up with a great laugh from her dreams.

Thinking about it, she became a bit shy inexplicably.

She took Eve's hand and didn't pay attention to what she had just said. She just said, "Let's go there too."

Eve was a little dissatisfied that she didn't agree with her. She opened her mouth and wanted to say something, but in the end, she was dragged inside by Eve before she could finish her words.

Soon, everyone entered into the shooting site of the program group.

The program group set up an examination room next to the hall on the first floor of the castle.

The staff member pointed to a room and introduced them, "You go to the recording room and hand in your registration form. There will be a teacher who will ask you some questions. In addition, there will be a small performance to be checked."

"The performance is not about singing, dancing, or playing musical instruments. In short, you just need to take out your performing strengths on stage."

"If you pass the first interview, it means that you will get the pass of the show. That means you have been selected as the contestants."

"Only three places were left. Come on! You will definitely be accepted!"

After the staff introduced them, they smiled encouragingly at Lottie and the others, and even made a gesture of "victory".

Lottie felt that the staff of the show was easy to get along with, so she couldn't help but smile at the man.

And that staff was stunned at first, and then he showed a gesture with admiration. Nothing, just because Ms Green was quite a fabulous beauty.

With such a smile, the whole hall seemed to become bright because of Lottie.

Yep, she was good at taking advantage of her own beauty. That staff was sure that she would definitely become famous in the future!

Just as Lottie was interacting with the staff, Eve seemed to be unable to bear it any longer. She directly pushed Lottie's shoulder away and snorted coldly.

"Don't stand in the way if you don't want to perform. After all, as an eye candy, if you are eliminated by the teacher later, we'll be glad to see that."

Ralph felt a bit annoyed. He frowned and picked up his phone, intending to find out who Eve was.

Why was her attitude so arrogant?

Eve entered the recording room first. Seeing this, Rose hurriedly followed her. Before leaving, she smiled apologetically at Lottie.

"Ms Green, Eve is a straightforward person. Don't argue with her."

"Come on for the coming show! We'll support you. If you cannot sing well, that's okay. Anyway, with Mr. Chapman here, he won't watch you get eliminated."

After that, she smiled gently and followed Eve into the recording room.

"Pardon? what do they mean?"

Connie was furious. Forget about the fact that Eve looked down on her. Was that Rose implying that their Lottie had a backer?

Lottie pressed down on Connie and she curled up her lips slightly.

Interesting.

No wonder Rose's character was as similar as Lincoln. Both of them were quite cunning.

Before leaving, Rose deliberately winked at Ralph. Her eyesight was so lingering that it was obvious that she was purposely provoking Lottie.

Little bitch, do you really think I'll be afraid?

Lottie turned to look at Ralph and asked Connie, "Did you bring the props I asked you to prepare?"

Connie didn't expect the topic to jump so fast. She was stunned.

When she left home, Lottie did give her a small wooden box and asked her to bring it with her. However, Connie didn't care when she got out of the car.

At this moment, Ralph took out the wooden box in his hand.

"Here you are."

Lottie smiled at him and took the wooden box.

"Don't you have anything to say?" Lottie asked Ralph.

Ralph smiled as he said to Lottie, "Come on! let's go pick up our babies together after school after your registration."

He was very confident in Lottie and felt that she would definitely pass this interview.

Lottie snorted and followed the group into the recording room.

Ralph and Connie stayed in the hall and did not enter. Fortunately, there were seats in the hall and a very large screen. At this moment, the scene in the broadcast room was on the live simultaneously.

After Lottie entered the door, the inspection record officially began.

There were three teachers sitting at the front: one was a music teacher, one was a dancing teacher, and the other was a stylist.

Each of them was a big shot in the industry, not artists, but real experienced people.

Even Eve didn't dare to make a fuss when she saw them, so she greeted them politely.

The stylist carefully scanned their appearance and shape, and then lowered her head to record something on the scoring list.

It was the music teacher who spoke first, "Who would like to show first?"

He didn't give them time to introduce themselves.

Instead, he asked them who would perform first from the beginning.

Eve was shocked by their lofty quality, and her eyes slightly shrank back.

Rose smiled but didn't say anything.

Lottie didn't have much to worry about. She walked forward with the small wooden box and was about to be the first to perform. Just as she was about to say something, Rose opened her mouth and said, "Wait!"

Lottie frowned and turned to look at Rose.

Rose smiled sweetly at her, a shallow smile appearing on her face. She looked both funny and playful.

"Ms Green, can I come first?"

She didn't want Lottie to be the first. If the teachers gave her a higher grade with a good impression, then the loss outweighed the gain.

On the contrary, after she and Eve finished their performances, Lottie was the last to make a comparison, then she would be utterly defeated.

Anyway, she didn't think that Lottie could perform well. It was just a group performance, how many talents could she have?

She gave Eve a look. Eve immediately understood and said, "Ms Green is a senior in the circle. She shouldn't compete with a rookie like us for such an opportunity to perform."

Lottie paused for a moment, then suddenly smiled meaningfully.

It wasn't that she didn't know about Rose wishful thinking.

But... Why not let them perform first?

Only big shots didn't care about the order.

"Please go ahead." Lottie made a gesture with a good manner.

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 454

What? Is that the So-Called Talent?

In the hall.

Connie's left fist and right palm were a little unwilling.

"How can Lottie let them go first?"

Ralph glanced at Connie lightly and said in a deep voice, "Believe her."

Connie gritted her teeth when she saw how calm Ralph was.

She wondered if Mr. Chapman didn't care Lottie or if he had too much confidence in Lottie.

As a manager, Connie was so nervous because Lottie had no time to practice dancing and singing during this period. When she had time, she would practise fighting.

Lottie even opened the Taekwondo Gym to teach fighting for girls.

Wait... Could it be that Lottie just wanted to perform Tai Chi in front of the teachers?

Although it might be a good watch for the program group, wasn't it a little too silly?

Other girls were singing and jumping, while Lottie went to perform Tai Chi?

Fine.

How to put it, she inexplicably felt like Lottie had won.

So Connie asked in horror, "Mr. Chapman, what was in the wooden box that Lottie just carried in?"

The wooden box was quite long, but it was quite narrow that it didn't seem to contain any musical instruments.

Ralph wasn't interested in Rose's performance in the camera. He just searched through the gap between the cameras for Lottie.

Hearing this, he answered softly, "It's a sword."

"What?" Connie was stunned.

"A soft sword."

Connie was speechless again.

Her expression was complicated. After a while, she said, "This is not an audition for martial arts actors. Why did she bring a sword in?"

There was still a big difference between an audition for a martial arts movie and the idol's talent show.

Ralph's expression did not change. He still said, "Just wait and see."

At this moment, in the recording room.

Rose was using a happy song as for her today's stage performance. It had to be said that the atmosphere was well-prepared, and she was especially good at shooting. When she smiled, she seemed to be able to bring the audience into the atmosphere she had created.

Yeah. She was quite good at attracting the audiences.

She was also good at singing. Although sometimes she didn't catch the right tone, but that was okay.

After she finished performing, the three teachers and other staffs took the initiative to applaud her. It could be seen that they were very satisfied with her performance just now.

"Thank you, teachers. My performance is over."

The music teacher nodded in approval. "Great.

Your name is Rose, isn't it?"

"Yes, Mr. Hale."

"You knew me?" The music teacher's surname was Hale, and he was a middle-aged man. Judging from his appearance, he looked very serious, so it was easy to make the contestants nervous.

Rose smiled again, revealing dimples on her face. "Mr. Hale, you were quite appealing for us. When I was at school, there were often teachers who told us about your past achievements when you were studying at the Berklee College of Music."

"In fact, I'm still your fan."

Rose knew how to please others. After a few words, Mr. Hale was even more satisfied with her, and his eyes were filled with praise.

After Rose praised Mr. Hale, she also praised the other two teachers, therefore, their impression of her was quite good. They passed her on the spot.

"Put the registration form here. I'll ask the staff to take you to get the number tag later. I think you would be a popular competitor this year."

Mr. Hale, who had always been a serious person, now had a very friendly attitude towards Rose.

Rose was very happy. After thanking them, she stood aside politely, clearly waiting to see Eve and Lottie's perform for a while.

Perhaps it was because Rose had gotten the spot so smoothly that Eve felt a little nervous.

When Eve went up, she looked a little unconfident.

She simply introduced herself, but before she could finish her words, she was interrupted by Mr. Hale.

"No need to say so much.

Let's just perform."

Eve's face darkened, but she didn't say anything. She asked the staff to find the accompaniment she had prepared and then danced with the music.

She took the Korean style, both in performance and in image.

Her background music was a song written by Korean, but she couldn't perform well when performing. Especially when she jumped halfway, she accidentally caught a glimpse of Lottie yawning beside her.

She was anxious, so her expression didn't manage well. Her voice was broke.

Following that, her left foot tripped over her right foot. She did not finish her smooth dance. Instead, she stumble and almost tripped over herself.

Oops!

Lottie couldn't help but laugh out loud.

Is that her so-called talent?

Eve's face darkened when she heard that sneer. She couldn't dance immediately and turned her head to glare fiercely at Lottie.

However, even the three teachers, who had failed to show their approval when she broke her voice just now, all became frowned when she stopped performing.

"Whether there is a mistake, it is necessary to ensure the stability of the stage."

"But you haven't even done this basic skill, and there is a problem with your mentality. You are not suitable for our show."

The three teachers' comments were extremely ruthless.

Eve's expression didn't look good, and she explained in a low voice, "It's all because someone beside me affected me that I wasn't able to do it properly. If it wasn't for Lottie purposely laughing at me, I wouldn't..."

Lottie couldn't help but explain herself, "If someone is laughing at you under the stage and you don't perform, Are you still an idol?"

"What's more, it's not that I'm the one who asked you to break the tune and to trip yourself."

"You!"

"Enough!" Mr. Hale unhappily interrupted Eve's speech.

Previously, they had been satisfied with her appearance, because that she had come with Rose. They intended to think she must have learned some real skills.

But he did not expect her to do this.

"Your performance today was not perfect enough. And you need to be confirmed."

"If there is still no suitable contestant at the end of the registration, we will pass the examination for you."

"Now, please hand over your registration form and wait aside."

Mr. Hale's words were unquestionable.

No matter how unwilling Eve was, she didn't dare to disobey his words.

She could only apologize and hand over her registration form as she walked towards Rose. At the same time, she glared at Lottie with a murderous gaze, as if she wanted to kill her.

The teachers present exchanged their looks, and then shook their heads.

If the program group hadn't informed them in advance and the contestants with Eve's personality, they really didn't want to give her unconfirmed and would have been eliminated directly.

As if nothing had happened, Lottie slowly pulled out a soft sword from the wooden box she had brought over.

The sword was not long. When she stood with the sword in her hand, she looked inexplicably cool.

Seeing her actions, Eve couldn't help but sneer.

"They asked you to dance. What are you putting on with your sword? Do you think you are taking a martial arts film?"

"Why don't you just bring the hammer up?"

Because of the mistake just now, Eve was very jealous of Lottie. At this moment, she naturally couldn't help but ridicule her, hoping that she would also make a mistake.

Lottie ignored her and asked the staff to play the background music she had prepared. Then, she clasped her hands behind her back and made an ancient salute to the three teachers.

"Hello, teachers. Next, my performance, Sword Dance."

.

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 455

Honey, I'm So Hungry and Tired

As the ancient saying goes," A fabulous beauty could amaze the world with her sword dance."

It could be seen that if the sword dance performed well, it would bring a quite great shock to everyone present.

The dance songs prepared by Lottie were all composed of ancient musical instruments.

The ethereal and low-pitched zither, accompanied by the melodious and sad sound of the pipe and the fast rhythm and dense drumbeats, immediately brought people into the majestic ancient battlefield.

The murderous enemy seemed to be right in front of the audience's eyes. Lottie raised her sword and moved.

It seemed that she had infinite courage to chop toward the enemy leader. Her sword shadows were like thunder and lightning, and the dragon came out of the water.

With the sharp sword moves, Lottie began to chant an ancient poetry in a low voice. The lyrics were adapted and combined with Lottie's heroic voice, it easily caused a shock in everyone's chest.

The atmosphere that had been created instantly beat against Rose's sweet song and Eve's sexy Korean dance.

As the last song stopped, the teachers and staffs still could not come to their senses.

As long as Lottie laughed, they had come to their senses, and then she said, "Thank you all, everyone. My performance is over."

The scene was silent for three seconds, and then there was continuous applause from everywhere.

Mr. Hale and the other two teachers also stood up. At the same time they applauded for Lottie, their eyes were full of gratification and surprise.

"Great, great! The performance just now was amazing!"

"As expected, the national style is the most attractive!"

"When the music sounded just now, I almost got goosebumps!"

"It's so wonderful! Both the dance and the music are so wonderful!"

"Is this a performance we can see it now? It can even be taken to the finals!"

"The reciting and singing are also excellent. The overall effect is really perfect!"

As the three teachers continued to praise them, Rose and Eve's expressions almost turned ugly.

This was especially true for Eve. She had been hoping that Lottie would make a fool of herself, but she hadn't expected that it was herself who would be the one to be a fool.

The attitude of the teachers was like three loud slaps, which made her face swollen.

She wanted to find something else to add. She wanted to say that Lottie's performance earlier wasn't a song at all. She was just reading a poem. If she were to let Lottie sing that song of hers, she would definitely be able to break the tune!

As she had just taken two steps forward, someone grabbed her arm.

She turned to look at Rose, who shook her head at her.

There were cameras everywhere. Under the circumstances that the teachers appreciated her so much, it would not only be helpful for them to achieve their goals, but also may cause the teachers' impression of them to be greatly reduced.

It was better to give their applause generously to gain some good feelings.

Although Eve wasn't very happy, she knew that Rose's actions were correct. She suppressed her anger and didn't lose her temper, but her expression was still ugly.

On the other side, Lottie had already been surrounded by a few teachers, they asked her about her situation warmly.

Lottie's attitude was also very good. She answered the teacher's question neither servile nor overbearing, generous and decent.

"Lottie, you should have come to our show a long time ago. Our show really needs talents like you!"

"That's right. Hand over the registration form quickly! We still have a few recommended tickets. When we officially record the show, we can add points to your first stage. Take the tickets quickly!"

Lottie felt a little helpless about the teachers' hospitable, but she didn't refuse. She handed over the registration. Then, under the teachers' admiring gazes, she left the recording room.

As soon as the door opened, Connie rushed over and hugged her excitedly.

"Lottie, you were so awesome just now!"

"A sword-dance! Whatever put the idea in your mind? It's so brilliant! You looked so beautiful!"

Listening her praise, Lottie only smiled faintly and then looked at the man in front of her, her eyes shining.

Ralph was so excited that he wanted to hold her in his arms and kiss her.

Such a treasure belonged to him alone.

At this moment, Rose walked out with Eve, who was angry.

"Big deal." Although Eve said it in a low voice, everyone present could hear it clearly.

Hearing that, Lottie who was about to embrace Ralph stopped and turned to look at the one she had defeated just now.

Her eyes were so bright, as if she had seen through her tricks.

Eve didn't dare to look her in the eye. She stepped forward and wanted to knock Lottie away fiercely to teach her a lesson, just like what she had done last time.

Seeing that, Ralph held Lottie's shoulder and pulled her into his embrace. Then, he glared coldly at Eve.

"Are you blind?"

"If you can't use them in a proper way, why don't you donate them to those who can?"

"If you dare to knock her again next time, your eyes would be dug out."

The most handsome man was speaking the most merciless words.

Eve shuddered when she saw the murderous look in his eyes.

She knew that the man was serious.

Once she did it again, Ralph would not let her go!

Mr. Chapman, who was rumored to be violent and bloodthirsty, was indeed not someone to be trifled with.

But why did he come forward to protect Lottie? Could it be...

Eve felt strong uneasy, and her body trembled slightly.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Chapman. Eve didn't do it on purpose. Please don't be angry with her."

Rose said in a gentle and coquettish tone.

In fact, she didn't want to speak up for Eve but wanted to take this opportunity to talk to Ralph.

She didn't think that Ralph really cared about Lottie. As a man He was so possessive, he must felt that his authority had been challenged. That was why he was angry.

However, Ralph didn't even look at her. He just asked Lottie in a low voice.

"Are you alright?"

Lottie leaned into Ralph's embrace and saw through the plot of Rose.

She slowly curled her lips into a meaningful smile.

"Honey, I'm so hungry and tired."

She leaned against Ralph, pretended to be weak, and deliberately acted like a spoiled child in front of everyone.

"Can you carry me home? I want to eat the dishes you made."

A mocking look appeared in Rose's eyes.

"What is Lottie thinking about? How dare she ask Ralph to carry her in front of so many people? How shameless she is!"

However, the next second, Ralph's action was like a slap in her face.

The man who had been indifferent just now became so gentle at this moment.

He gently picked her up and looked at her affectionately with a smile on his face.

"Got it. I'll take you home, honey."

After that, he carried Lottie out, ignored everyone in the spot.

Rose and Eve were both shocked.

Watching Ralph left with Lottie in his arms, the other staffs were also shocked that they all covered their mouth.

"Damn it, why should I witness PDA in the company?"

"Could this be considered an injury on-the-job?" .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 456 I'm Very Petty

"Do you deserve to compete with Lottie?"

"Look at you! No strength, and be ugly."

"I advise you to be self-aware. Don't reach out to anything that doesn't belong to you."

"Otherwise, you will become a complete joke."

Connie sneered and said, then she raised her head, and followed them out.

Rose narrowed her eyes and clenched her fists tightly.

"Rose, they've gone too far!"

"Is there any way to take revenge? I really can't let it go."

Eve was a proud and arrogant person. She felt that she had been greatly humiliated by Lottie today, so she naturally couldn't calm down.

Rose was very angry too. She knew that Lottie had done it and was provoking her on purpose.

"Do you want me to retreat?"

"I'm sorry. In this way, I would be more interested in Ralph."

A man who would never pay any attention to other girl but spoil his beloved with heart and soul.

He was far more attractive than a scumbag who would always be cold-hearted and only know how to get things from women.

The one who should be blame on wasn't Ralph but Lottie.

As long as Lottie's reputation was ruined, as long as Lottie completely disappeared from his life, Ralph would be hers.

Rose was confident that Lottie would be driven away from the Chapman family.

"Don't worry, I will find someone to deal with her."

"As for us, we just need to watch the show."

Rose had learned a lot from Lincoln, and one of them was to shift the blame on others.

There would always be people who didn't like Lottie for her arrogant, hence even she didn't do anything herself, someone else would deal with Lottie.

Eve looked at Rose suspiciously.

"Will anyone deal with her?"

"Of course, have you forgotten our mentors?"

They had already known who the mentors were through various means. Unfortunately, one of them, who looked very glorious and had many fans, but in fact, he was a scumbag who had a lot of girlfriends.

He liked to cheat those newcomers who were beautiful but didn't have much backing.

"Isn't Lottie proud of her face? Let's see if she can still smile when Zac Woods takes a fancy to her."

Zac Woods had a strong backing, so it was not easy to deal with him. Even Ralph would have to think twice.

Eve was finally satisfied.

Lottie was carried into the car by Ralph. Then, she leaned lazily back in the chair and did not allow Ralph to approach her.

Ralph sat next to her. After Connie got in the car, he called the driver to drive.

The car started. Ralph wanted to touch Lottie, but she dodged.

Mr.

Chapman was stunned. What was going on?

"You won't let me touch you?"

Ralph asked in Lottie's ear.

She was obviously acting like a spoiled child just now, but in the blink of an eye, she was at odd with him again.

"Mr. Chapman was so gorgeous, and he has many followers at his side. There are countless people waiting for you to touch them."

"If you felt dissatisfied, you can go to find someone else."

Lottie snorted lightly and said unhappily.

She had witnessed what Rose done just now.

She had never expected Rose to have such thoughts about Ralph.

Being a student of Lincoln, not only was she not attracted by Lincoln, but she was also eyeing her man.

Lottie was very angry and wanted to vent her anger on Ralph.

Why was he so charming that attracted so many women? It was annoying.

Ralph knew that she was jealous when he heard her jealous tone.

He smiled happier. Ignoring Lottie's angry glare, he held her in his arms.

"There's no other women, only you."

"No matter what others do, I only love you."

"I can't see anyone else except you."

"Baby, don't you believe me?"

His words were getting more and more pleasant to the ear, and as she listened to the man's sweet words, Lottie gradually calmed down.

Forget it. He didn't want a woman like Rose to fall in love with him.

Considering that Ralph was also a victim, she decided to forgive him.

With that thought, Lottie decisively kissed Ralph's face.

Then she announced aggressively, "You are mine.

"

"Don't look at other women, and don't have any contact with other women."

"Just look at me."

Hearing her words, Ralph did not feel disgusted but overjoyed.

He had a possessive desire for Lottie, and also hoped that she had a possessive desire for him.

Now that his dream had come true, he was naturally overjoyed.

"Okay, I'll always only watch you."

"I only love you."

She felt a little better after receiving his promise.

However, whenever she recalled the look in Rose's eyes, she felt disgusted.

"You'd better not come to the show anymore."

"Why?"

"I'm very petty. I don't want my man to be coveted by others."

She said in a frank and self-righteous tone.

"It's a loss for me if you are looked at by others."

Ralph felt it was the sweetest word. He did not object immediately.

"Well, I will try my best not to show up in front of others in the future, but don't deprive my right of seeing you at the scene."

The two of them whispered, and Connie, who was sitting in the passenger seat, was amazed.

Good heavens! Their words were getting more and more cheesy.

However, it also showed that they were really in love. On the one hand, Connie was jealous, on the other hand, she was happy for Lottie.

It was not easy to find a reliable man. Lottie finally got her pay for the painful days.

Along the way, Connie was forced to witness PDA.

She couldn't help but think of Alfred.

If she and Alfred could love each other sincerely, would they be very happy?

As this thought came to her mind, Connie showed a self-deprecating smile.

How could someone like Alfred really fall in love with her? What a fond dream.

The car soon stopped in the kindergarten. After picked up the three treasures, they planned to go back to the Chapman Family.

"Mommy, thank you for picking us up."

"This is for you."

As soon as she got in the car, Stella gave Lottie a hug and a handmade flower.

Lottie happily accepted it with thanks. "Thank you, darling."

"Mommy, I have one for you too!"

Fabian found a gift from her schoolbag and said, "Congratulations, Mommy. You've signed up successfully and won the approval and praise of the teacher!"

Lottie was shocked.

"How did you know?"

Elijah also had prepared gifts, which was the video of Lottie's sword dance edited by himself.

But he didn't intend to take it out at this time. He just said to Lottie, "Congratulations, Mommy."

When she looked into Elijah's eyes, Lottie immediately understood. It was likely that the three little brats had learned this from other sources.

"If you don't attend the class properly at school but keep an eye on me, is it a good thing?"

Elijah said righteously, "We know everything they taught."

"It's just a waste of time to attend the class."

Lottie, "..."

You're so arrogant.

Is it a big deal to have high IQ? .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 457

Pretend I Never Know Him

After receiving the gifts from the children, Lottie made them a delicious meal as a return.

The children really enjoyed the meal, but Ralph hadn't eaten much. He looked at Lottie with his beautiful eyes, making her feel embarrassed.

"Why are you looking at me like that?"

Ralph smiled and whispered in her ear, "Didn't you say that you wanted to eat what I cook?"

In the end, he didn't cook. Was she afraid that he was too tired?

Lottie rolled her eyes at him. She hadn't really wanted him to cook, what she said at that time was an announce of owning him.

After dinner, Connie went home. The three children went back to their rooms consciously and did not disturb their conversation.

Lottie looked at Ralph seriously and headed to the point, "When you came back to see me this afternoon, you were very worried. Did something happen?"

Ralph's expression changed a little. He thought that he had hidden it well, but she could see through him.

He let out a long sigh and held her in his arms before explaining to her.

"Lincoln ran away."

Lottie was shocked. "Ran away? Didn't you catch him back?"

Ralph shook his head. That kid had a way to escape, he had not found him yet.

"I sent someone to investigate Lincoln before and found that he had a disturbed past. He has something to do with Jenna Kennedy."

Ralph explained to Lottie that Lincoln was an illegitimate child. For some reason, he had been taken in by the orphanage.

His father was a playboy and had a child with the nanny at home.

At that time, Madam Yung didn't get pregnant. Later on, she got sick. She was afraid that Lincoln's biological mother would take her place relying on her son, so she secretly sent Lincoln away. It was a pity that Madam Yung died on the operating table, so her previous plan was in vain.

After all, Lincoln was the backbone of the Yung family. His father sent Lincoln's birth mother away and took him home from the orphanage overnight.

Mr. Yung didn't like the nanny, so he couldn't get close to Lincoln. Later on, Mr. Yung married a daughter of a wealthy family. Lincoln became an eyesore to the new madam. She urged Mr. Yung to send Lincoln out of the country for further study.

Lottie sighed. "So Lincoln is also an illegitimate child. No wonder he came to Rose."

She didn't mean to look down on the illegitimate child.

After all, no one could choose his own origin.

But if you want to do bad things and harm others because of your bad birth, it doesn't make sense.

Ralph said coldly, "Lincoln didn't have a good time abroad. Later, someone from Lab K came to him. He became a sponsor of Jenna Kennedy, helping her sell those harmful drugs."

Lincoln earned the first bucket of gold by selling medicine. Later, he went abroad to further his studies and repackaged himself as an elite studying abroad instead of a drug dealer. After gaining his father's favor, he returned to China to develop.

"Does he really love Natalia?" This was what Lottie cared about.

Ralph hugged her tightly. After a moment of silence, he said, "Maybe he loves, or maybe not. Who knows?"

Perhaps it was because Lincoln had suffered too much in his life that he couldn't forget Natalia's kindness, eventually, he became her obsession.

Or perhaps, Natalia was just a pawn of Lincoln. Lincoln's ultimate goal was to deal with Ralph.

"Should we tell Natalia about this?" Lottie looked up at Ralph.

"I'm going to the hospital to see Kayden later. Are you going with me?"

"Okay!"

They soon arrived at the hospital.

Another good news was that Mrs. Ross' condition gradually stabilized. She had been transferred out of the quarantine ward to the VIP ward next door to Kayden by his arrangement.

Lottie and Ralph went to visit Mrs. Ross first. After being thanks by their family, they helped them arrange the nurses and bodyguards before turned to Kayden next door.

After this operation, Kayden seemed to have grown up overnight and matured completely.

After reading the documents brought by Cais, he signed his name with a pen. When he looked up, he saw Ralph and Lottie.

"Ralph, Lottie, why do you have time to come here?"

Kayden was pleasantly surprised and gave them a bright smile.

Lottie still remembered that Kayden used to be a gloomy person. He always sneered and laughed at others. He never smiled so brightly before.

Lottie sighed in her heart. With love, Kayden had finally become a normal person.

Ralph helped Lottie to pull the chair and let her sit down before answering Kayden.

"I came to see you. How do you feel?"

"I'm fine! The doctor asked me 800 times a day, but I'm fine. I can go to work now!"

Lottie couldn't help but laugh. "Come on, even if the scalpel's mouth recovers, you have to take good care of your legs. Do you really want to become disabled and let Natalia raise you?"

Kayden touched his head and smiled awkwardly.

"He doesn't want to go back to work. I think the reason he wants to be discharged from the hospital early is to held a wedding with Natalia."

Ralph smiled lightly. He said with a teasing look.

Lottie was surprised. "You've already chosen the day?"

"I make two choices. One is in half a month, and the other is in a month, but Natalia doesn't agree."

"Why?" "Is Natalia going back on her word?"

Kayden was about to complain when Natalia came in and answered, "Both of them aren't appropriate. We'll be pressed for time."

Although Mrs. Ross' operation was successful, she still had to stay in the hospital to recuperate for three months.

Besides, Kayden had to rest well. Natalia didn't want any accidents to happen to the two closest people because of a wedding.

"Why would we be pressed for time? I can definitely recover my legs within a month! And it's not necessary for Mom to show up all the time. After our wedding, we can send her back to the hospital. I'll hire a medical team to follow her. I promise that nothing would happen to her!"

Natalia frowned slightly. "There are so many things to prepare for the wedding, and you always like to do everything yourself. How can you recover then?"

"But..." A long delay means trouble!

He wanted to hold the wedding with Natalia first, and then announce to the whole world that he and Natalia were officially together.

Only in that way, he would have no worries.

"Do what I said!" Natalia put on an angry look with arms akimbo, directly rejecting Kayden.

Kayden didn't dare to say a word but lowered his head.

Lottie and Ralph looked at each other and felt that the roles of the two persons seemed to have changed. It was quite interesting.

"Just do as Natalia says." Ralph said seriously. "I came to you today because I have something else to tell you."

Natalia and Kayden both turned to look at Ralph.

Ralph directly told them everything about Lincoln and then asked for their opinion.

A mixture of emotions spreading over Natalia's face, but she did not make a concession because of Lincoln's past.

“There's nothing between Lincoln and me. I don't want to see him again in the future. If he doesn't provoke me, I'll pretend that I never know him.”

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 458 Start Your Show

Ralph said, "You can pretend that you have never met him, but Lincoln doesn't think so."

Lincoln was that kind of man who would seek revenge for the smallest grievance. Being suffered such a great loss because of Ralph this time, he would definitely take revenge later.

As his first target, Natalia would naturally be dealt with.

Natalia frowned and looked at Kayden in confusion.

Kayden held her hand and said, "Don't be afraid. I won't let Lincoln hurt you."

"I'll choose a few bodyguards to guard you when you go out. Lincoln can't get close to you."

However, Natalia was not happy to hear that. "But what if I was alone."

During this period of time, she stayed in the hospital to take care of her relatives, but they would recover one day. Moreover, Natalia had to go out for work sometimes, she did not like someone to follow her all the way.

Kayden frowned and said, "Then I'll stay by your side all the time. Is that okay?"

Natalia was amused by his words. "Who wants you to stay with me all the time? Aren't you tired of seeing the same person every day?"

"No, I would be very, very happy."

"But you have to go to the company when you recover. I can't go to the company with you every day."

"Why can't? You can be my secretary. We'll be together every day."

Natalia rolled her eyes at him. "Indecent."

Kayden said with an innocent face, "Is it indecent?"

Lottie listened from the side and suddenly had an idea. "Why don't you come with me to participate in the variety show?"

Everyone turned to look at her.

"I heard from Connie that the variety show would be shoot in a closed-off style. It will take three months from dividing into groups for the first time to the finals."

"In these three months, the contestants can't go out, and outsiders can't go into the training manor either. Besides, the camera would shoot every contestant all the time. There is no chance for Lincoln to hurt Natalia. Three months is enough for you to deal with Lincoln, right?"

Natalia was a little tempted for the idea, but when she thought of returning to the entertainment, she felt a little scared.

Back then, she had said that she wanted to quit the entertainment. If she said she would back, many people would insult her.

"After three months, Mrs. Ross' condition will be stable. Kayden can concentrate on taking over the company and arrange the wedding. When Natalia returns to her peak state on the day of her debut. She would get married too. That's great!"

With Natalia's strength, it was very easy for her to win in the variety show.

In addition, there was Lottie with her, so they took care of each other.

Although Natalia didn't say it herself, everyone had seen her depression these days.

She was suitable to live under the starlight. She should have been the most dazzling existence in the entertainment circle. How could she be willing to return to silence?

"Okay! That's it!" Kayden was the first to make his decision.

Natalia turned to look at Kayden.

"Natalia, I know that you liked acting. You also enjoy the feeling of being the focus. Now that you have a chance to return, you shouldn't give up." Kayden looked at her seriously.

"But I have announced that I will quit. I have very few fans."

"Who said you don't have many fans? I'm your fan!" Lottie immediately said, "Furthermore, what are you afraid of? You don't even need. to be afraid."

With your own strength, the fans turn to like you. Wouldn't it be exciting for if you succeed in the C position?

Natalia wanted to laugh when she heard that. She said honestly, "I'm afraid that I'll drag you down. If the Chapman Group is affected because of this, wouldn't it cause you a lot of trouble?"

Ralph pulled Lottie back to his side and laughed.

"If you are worried that the Chapman's Group will be affected, then sign the contract with SFLE Media."

Natalia was stunned. "SFLE Media?"

"Well, I'm running a company for Lottie. I still lack artists, so you can accompany Lottie now. Even if you don't win the show in the end, I can find someone to plan a suitable route for you and let you go back to perform."

"SFLE Media runs independently. No one knows the boss. You don't have to worry about the Chapman's Group because of this.

I will take care of everything."

Ralph's words dispelled Natalia's worries.

"Okay, then I'll try. Do you still want the contestant in the show?"

Lottie replied excitedly, " They need a candidate in the program group. The registration deadline is tomorrow afternoon. You can have a try tomorrow morning. With your talent, you will definitely be able to enter!"

Natalia smiled. "Okay."

Lottie told Natalia about the interview. When Natalia learned that Rose was also there, she became even more determined to participate in the show.

She couldn't let Lottie be bullied alone in the show. She had to help her!

The next day.

Natalia completed the registration form according to Lottie's suggestion. Then, she took the bodyguards Ralph had chosen to sign up for the show.

Natalia's previous manager had already retired. This time, the one who came with Natalia was Connie, who had been temporarily called over.

Connie was stunned by this good news. She got into the car and asked, "Did I really become Natalia's agent?"

Natalia replied with a smile, "Yes, you really became my agent."

"Oh my god, I've become the movie queen's agent! I never dreamed that I would be so successful."

Natalia was amused by her words. She felt much younger when she got along with Connie, who was full of energy.

Connie had been here last time, so she was very familiar with the process this time. She told Natalia some details, and Natalia remembered them all. At the same time, she was a little nervous.

Right now, she wasn't like before.

Her entire body was covered in dirt, and quite a few of her peers disdained her.

She was afraid that as soon as she showed up, her teacher would be angry and leave.

However, when Natalia entered the recording room and saw the three acquaintances in front of her, nothing she was worried about happened.

She had cooperated with the three teachers in the recording room before.

Although Natalia was the movie queen, she had participated in all kinds of parties on TV stations. She also had to perform at the parties. Now that they met again in this way, the four of them were deeply touched.

Mr. Hale sighed and looked at Natalia with sympathy.

"Ms. Ross, let's start your performance."

Natalia's heart ached when she heard the way he addressed her. However, she was a person who had seen a lot. Her expression was very good. She calmed herself down and began to perform.

Since she had a solid foundation and had practiced hard last night, Natalia directly played the piano and sang today.

A very difficult English song was easily finished by her, and she successfully won a lot of applause.

When it came to the comment section, the teachers were all praising her. Only the dancing teacher pointed out that she could not pass because she did not show her dance today.

Natalia expressed her understanding, but fortunately, the interview was successful with two votes.

After getting the pass, she came out as if she was in a dream.

Connie frowned and said, "I don't think they behaved well."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 459 I Want to Go to the Competition with Mommy

"They're all in the entertainment circle. It's impossible that they haven't heard that you were going to quit the entertainment circle before. But today, they didn't mention it at all." Connie frowned. Although she looked heartless, she was actually the most careful.

After being reminded by her, Natalia felt that something was wrong.

In her current situation, no matter which program she went to, she was afraid that she would be used as a topic. The program group wanted to hype up what had happened before, but this time, she did not ask at all. Her attitude was naturally like that of a newcomer.

In this circle, people would always bow to their superiors. Although Natalia had cooperated with these three teachers, they were far from having a good friendship.

"I'm afraid that the program group is holding back some big trick. Later, they want you and Lottie to participate in the variety show so that you can pass the registration so easily."

As Connie spoke, she remembered that when she came over yesterday, the playwright-director clearly said that there were only three places left.

Lottie and Rose had occupied two of them. Together with Eve, who had been determined yesterday, the quota was almost full. If there were any other good competitors coming, Natalia probably wouldn't even be able to pass.

But today, she was successful and incredible.

Natalia was also a little uneasy. "Is there anything wrong with it?"

Connie felt that there must be something wrong with it, but she couldn't say it in front of Natalia.

"Since it's over, let's leave it alone. After that, I'll ask people to keep an eye on the public opinion on the Internet. You and Lottie just need to prepare for the stage competition at ease and leave the rest to me."

After being sent back to the hospital by Connie, Natalia told her that she would come to pick her up in three days. She also told her to have a good rest.

After Natalia agreed, Connie turned around and asked someone to investigate.

Sure enough, she asked. The program group's quota had been full yesterday. Today, Natalia should have been refused directly. But for some reason, the two contestants who had agreed to withdraw at this time.

Two more places appeared in the program group, which happened to be made up by Natalia and Eve, who had been expected.

After Connie asked about it clearly, she told Lottie about it.

"Although it is a good thing for Natalia to be able to enter, I always feel that there is a conspiracy inside."

However, Lottie had already known the inside story. It was Richeal Lee who had found out before telling her.

"It was Rubby who caused the contestants to withdraw from the competition."

"Rubby?" Connie was shocked. "How could she.

.."

"I've probably heard that Natalia is going to participate in this show. Now she and Natalia are mentors and contestants. The situation is very different. Didn't she seize the opportunity to humiliate Natalia?"

Connie was so excited that she slammed the table.

How can we do that? How can we let Rubby's plot succeed? How about I let Natalia withdraw from the competition?

Natalia wanted to enter the program in order to avoid Lincoln. There was no need to be so wary of Rubby.

There were people on Rubby's side in the program group, but there were also people on Mr. Chapman's side, as well as her, Lottie, who was helping them. There wouldn't be too much trouble.

"If she wants to slap Natalia's face, just come. I'm afraid that someone's face will swell first."

Lottie added, " We'll have to sign the contract in the next two days. Once the contract is signed, the program group will officially warm up. I'm afraid that the program group will still make an issue of me and Natalia. At that time, you should be smart."

The two of them had a good discussion, and Connie was relieved. She trusted Lottie very much.

Since Lottie said that she didn't have to worry, she didn't worry about it.

In the next two days, Natalia and Lottie began to adjust their condition. After signing the contract, Lottie began to pack her luggage.

When the three babies saw that she was looking for a servant to get a suitcase, they suddenly felt very reluctant.

"Mommy, why don't you take me with you? I can't bear to leave you for so long." Fabian said to Lottie.

Stella said angrily.

"Why did you lie into luggage? It's too cunning!"

She also wanted to lie down and let her mommy take her away.

Lottie didn't know whether to laugh or cry. When she saw these two funny fellows, her heart was filled with warmness.

In the past, she used to be alone wherever she went.

"Mommy is going to attend the variety show and preparing to make a comeback. Isn't this your support?"

"It won't be a long time. I can go home in half a month. If I am eliminated, I can come back early for holiday to accompany you."

Even so, half a month was still too long.

Although they could see Mommy on TV, she couldn't see them.

Stella was about to cry. She ran over and hugged Lottie. She didn't want her to leave, but it wasn't easy to say it out loud.

After all, they were the ones who said that their mother should be brave enough to be a star. How could she go back on her word now?

Lottie picked up Stella, who was holding her tightly, and kissed her twice on the face, coaxing her in a low voice.

Unexpectedly, the more she coaxed, the sadder she became. Stella actually cried in a low voice.

Fabian stopped lying on the suitcase and got up to beg Ralph.

"Daddy, can't you really send us to the show? We want to go with Mommy."

Ralph couldn't bear to part with Lottie either. His face had always been darken over the past two days. However, he was an adult. He didn't roll around like a child. No matter how reluctant he was, he would support Lottie in pursuing her career.

At this moment, he only took Lottie into his arms and said to her, "There's no need to pack too much stuff."

If there's anything you need, let the staff of the program group tell me and I'll send it to you."

When they were sent there, they would take the child to see Lottie.

Lottie had completely lost her temper towards them.

"Aren't you openly telling everyone that I have a backer?"

"Although we do have a backer, we can't go too far in front of the camera. We still need to be the same as everyone else to avoid being envied. At that time, we don't have to be excluded."

Ralph still wanted to say something, but Elijah, who hadn't spoken much all this while, jumped off the sofa and stuffed a special watch into Lottie's hand.

Lottie looked at her watch in surprise. "What is this?"

"I designed it myself. You will definitely take back your mobile phones after you enter the program group. At that time, Mommy can call us with the watch."

As he spoke, he demonstrated to her how to use his watch to call and surf the Internet.

"The watch also has the function of recording. If someone wants to hurt you, you can record it first as evidence!"

Lottie was very surprised. She played with the watch, both moved and gratified.

This thing was much more practical and might be of great use.

"Is this the only one?" Lottie asked.

"Sister-in-law Natalia also has one. Mommy can bring it to her tomorrow."

Elijah was a thorough person and had taken everything into consideration. Lottie was overjoyed, so she put down Stella and went to hug Elijah.

"Thank you, baby!" Lottie also planted a kiss on his little face. .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 460 What Are You Afraid of?

Elijah's face turned red, but he held Lottie's neck and refused to let go.

Seeing that her brother was so clingy, Fabian Chapman and Stella rushed over and hugged Lottie's thigh, shouting that they didn't want their mommy to leave.

Lottie had no choice but to sleep with her three children tonight.

Mr. Chapman still wanted to take advantage of the time before Lottie left, but he couldn't win the three children.

In the end, he slept to one side, feeling wronged. He watched as Lottie kissed her children one by one and even told them a bedtime story to coax them to sleep.

Finally, when the children were all asleep, Ralph carried them back to his own children's room. Then, he hugged Lottie and kissed her hard in his arms.

Lottie began to feel sleepy when she was taking care of the children. She still had to work tomorrow, so she was not in the mood. In the end, she fell asleep after kissing him, which made Mr. Chapman feel wronged and funny.

It was getting late at night.

Mr. Chapman held his wife in his arms and did not let her go, but he was thinking about whether he should arrange a accommodation school for the children so that they would not come to compete with him all day long.

She had wanted Lottie to give him another daughter, but now that he thought about it, he decided to forget it.

It was hard enough for her to see these three things. No one else could take away her energy.

Lottie had a good sleep. She had no idea that her husband had such a crazy idea.

Afraid that the children would cry when they saw her leave, Lottie got up very early on purpose.

After saying goodbye to Ralph, she took Connie and several bodyguards to the hospital to pick up Natalia.

This recording did not require an agent or assistant, so she did not take Zack Ross with him. She asked him to stay in the hospital to take care of Mrs. Ross and Mr. Ross, and occasionally ask Connie to take him out.

After sending Lottie and Natalia to the Star-Moon Manor, Connie went to greet the director's group and asked them to take care of the two stars as much as possible. After getting the exact answer, she left.

When Connie came out, she found that the whole manor was under martial law. The program group specially arranged many security pavilions. The tall security guards were patrolling at the door. No one could enter without the permission of the program group.

Even the paparazzi couldn't capture any pictures, let alone the others.

At the very least, safety could be guaranteed.

Connie was worried, so she went back to help Lottie and Natalia find other resources. At the same time, she asked the Public Relations Department to keep an eye on the Internet. If there was any trouble, she would report it in time.

In the contestants' meeting hall.

Lottie took Natalia's hand and took out a watch designed by Elijah to her.

Before Lottie and Natalia could tell her the function of the watch, a cold voice came from the side.

"Yo, who are they?"

"Aren't they all actresses? Why are they still here to participate in the variety show?"

Eve's voice was neither too loud nor too low, but it happened to be heard by all the contestants around her. For a moment, many people's eyes fell on Lottie and Natalia.

At first, everyone couldn't believe it, but when they looked at Natalia and Lottie, their eyes were filled with shock and uncertainty.

It wasn't until Eve called out their identities that they were sure.

There were disdain, vigilance, or hostility in their eyes. Some people were confused, but none of them really welcomed them.

" Natalia, you're really good. Other people had no chance as soon as you came. After all, you're a movie queen with millions of fans. How dare you show up in such a show? Are you really not giving us newcomers a chance to debut?"

Eve hadn't been able to gain any benefits from Lottie that day and had been warned by Ralph. She still didn't dare to directly provoke Lottie.

Natalia's previous management team had been disbanded, and her agent had retired. It was said that the company had terminated their contract with her. Now that she had signed into an entertainment company, she might not have any backer. Otherwise, the new company would not let her enter the variety show alone and start again.

It was not very good for her to attend the variety show with Natalia's previous status.

Even if she could debut in the end, the passers-by would not like it. Instead, they would think that she suppressed the newcomers with her identity, which made the passers-by have a worse impression of her.

What's more, there was also Rubby in the program.

Eve was almost certain that Natalia will lose this time. She must have been eliminated halfway.

Seeing the surrounding contestants looking at Natalia with unfriendly gazes, Lottie frowned fiercely. Just as she was about to step forward, Natalia laughed.

She didn't say anything and just looked at Eve with a faint smile, which made Eve feel that she had been provoked for no reason.

"What are you laughing at?" Eve asked with a dark face.

Natalia still smiled and said, "I'm not laughing. I just think you're so stupid."

"How dare you say me stupid? Natalia, do you really think you are still the same as before?"

Eve was about to explode on the spot. "The current you, surrounded by dirt, is worse than anyone!"

"Then what are you afraid of?" Natalia asked gently.

Eve jumped up and down. "Who's afraid? Don't try to make yourself proud, you..."

"Since you're not afraid, why did you provoke me?"

Natalia's gaze swept across the crowd. Seeing that everyone seemed to be watching a good show, she raised her voice generously.

"As you said, I'm now surrounded by negative news, and all my fans have run out. I'm worse than anyone. How can I take away other people's places?"

"Besides, I used to put on an act most of the time.

When I sang, I was also a newcomer like you. Everyone is on the same line. How can you say that I don't give others a chance? Are you so unconfident?"

Eve's face turned pale from anger after hearing Natalia's retort.

However, Natalia did not let her go so easily. She continued, "You know that I've become transparent, and you deliberately said these words to provoke other people's hostility against me. Either you are stupid, or you think others are as stupid as you are. Do you think that if you say these words, others will be incited by you and then push me out together?"

"We are all adults, and we are also in the entertainment circle. Whether we become famous or not is just waiting for an opportunity. A smart person will not easily offend people, but you want to incite everyone to isolate me. I don't know what your intention is."

After Natalia finished speaking, she didn't look at Eve's ugly expression. Instead, she turned to look at Lottie.

"Lottie, let's stand far away. Don't let this stupid woman find another chance to provoke everyone to isolate you. You are Mr. Chapman's wife. Even if you don't stay in the entertainment circle, you have a lot of resources. Why should you be bullied by this fool?"

Seeing that Natalia had turned the situation around with just a few words and even mocked Eve, the smile on her lips couldn't stop.

As expected of her idol, the senior in the circle! Natalia didn't care about Eve at all.