

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 461 Can They Quit the Competition?

"Well said!"

A handsome man walked out. As he spoke, he looked at Natalia and Lottie with appreciation.

"The program group wanted to find some gifted talents from all walks of life. No matter how much she has achieved before, as long as she can be regarded as a newcomer in singing and dancing, she can come to participate in the competition."

Seeing the person in front of them, everyone was shocked.

"He's Bridge!"

"Oh my god, Bridge is here too! He must be here to be a mentor!"

"Oh my god, it's Bridge!! I like him so much!"

When Natalia and Lottie heard that, they also looked at the man. The man had a pair of charming eyes, and when he looked at a person with a smile, he seemed to be full of affection.

Lottie knew Bridge. He was the champion of last year's male team selection. He had made his debut in center position and had become in the top level in the industry, earning countless fans.

He was also one of the mentors of the show, and he was very good at dancing.

However, Lottie didn't know why she felt that Bridge's gazes were full of bad intentions when he looked at her.

She didn't know if she thought too much.

Lottie subconsciously covered Natalia behind her and then smiled.

"Mr. Joshua, thank you for helping us."

Bridge's gaze froze on Lottie for a few seconds before he smiled meaningfully.

Lottie frowned. Before she could figure out what that smile meant, she saw that Bridge had already looked away at the red-faced female contestants around him with a smile.

"Hello, everyone. I'm Bridge, one of the mentors of this show. I hope I can get along well with you in the future."

Bridge waved his hand at everyone, which arose cheers. He walked confidently to the stage in the center of the hall.

The stage was temporarily set up and it was not high. But as a man, Bridge was 1.8 meters tall, and he stood on the stage, which made him look very tall. The microphone in his hand soon attracted the attention of the contestants.

Lottie and Natalia were pushed down the stage by the crowd. Eve and Rose were standing next to them.

When enemies met, the atmosphere was very awkward.

Eve snorted in disdain. Although Rose had a smile on her face, she didn't even look at them. It was obvious that she wanted to completely ignore them.

Lottie didn't have time to pay attention to anyone else, either. She grabbed Natalia's hand and said, "Do you know Bridge?"

"I've seen him once backstage, and I don't have a deep impression of him.

But I heard that he doesn't have a good reputation."

Natalia's expression was not good. She felt like she could not breathe as she was being squeezed by so many people.

Bridge held the notebook in his hand. Although he had helped Natalia just now, he did not look at them again. Instead, he read out the rules of the program group in a professional way.

According to the registration order, there were a total of 101 participants. Each group was divided into a group of five and a total of 20 groups, so there would be one more person in the last group.

In other words, Lottie, Natalia, Rose, Eve and the other two contestants were in the last group.

As Bridge finished his words, the electronic screen in the middle of the hall suddenly lit up. The screen was divided into 20 colorful pieces, each color including the number of each group, which was very clear.

Each group entered the studio according to the number. Each group had three minutes to show off themselves. After that, the contestants could choose their seats. When all the contestants arrived, they began to focus on the talent show. The mentors would give the assessment and evaluation.

"The recording time will be very long. The group at the back can go to the lounge to have a rest."

After reading all the rules, Bridge thoughtfully added one more sentence, which led to everyone's applause and then he left.

Before leaving, Lottie could clearly sense that Bridge looked at her for a moment.

Lottie whispered into Natalia, "What do you mean by saying that Bridge doesn't have a good reputation?"

There were too many people around, and there were cameras taking pictures of them. Each of them was wearing the microphone of the program group. It was not easy for Natalia to say the mentors' gossip directly, so she just whispered to Lottie, "I will tell you when we are alone."

With the current situation, there was no time for Lottie to think more.

A staff came to lead the contestants to the group lounge.

Only then did Lottie realize that she had to stay in the same room with someone she hated for a long time before officially recording.

Sure enough, the program group would not give up on making things difficult for them. The program group had actually arranged Rose and Eve into the same group with her and Natalia.

The hatred between the four was enough for the audience to watch.

"Hello, I'm Natalia. Let's get to know each other first."

As a senior of the entertainment industry, Natalia first showed kindness to the other two contestants.

The two strangers exchanged gazes and then whispered their names.

Natalia was about to say a few more words to ease the atmosphere when she heard Eve's "puff" sound. Eve's face was full of disdain.

"The group arrangement is temporary. After the preliminary stage assessment, the mentors will group up again according to everyone's strength. At that time, we may not be teammates. Why do you introduce yourself there?"

After saying that, the other two contestants looked bad.

Lottie rolled her eyes at Eve. "Do you think you're the only one who can speak?"

"You..."

"It's just polite to introduce ourselves. People like you are rude, don't show off your ignorance anymore."

Eve was angry and annoyed. "I didn't talk to you!"

"Did Natalia talk to you just now?"

Eve was rendered speechless.

Rose quickly grabbed Eve's hand and shook her head at her.

Lottie didn't care about their actions at all. She turned to the two contestants and said, "My name is Lottie. Let's be friends in the future."

The expressions of the two contestants eased a little, and they greeted Lottie.

The six people were sitting in the lounge, but they were divided into three parts, watching the live broadcast on the TV screen quietly. No one spoke.

The room was very quiet.

Just as the contestants were participating in the collective recording, a bunch of marketing accounts suddenly appeared on the Internet. These marketing accounts were spreading the news that Natalia and Lottie participated in a variety show.

There were even pictures that had been announced. Lottie and Natalia had put on makeup and were dressed in stage costumes. They were standing together with a group of plain-looking contestants. Their temperaments were so outstanding compared to the other contestants that the others didn't have any glory.

As soon as the news was released, it became a hit.

"Natalia and Lottie participated in the selection! They go to this kind of program, it's like a competition between full-scale master and freshmen."

"They've already made their debut, and they're still trying to get other contestants' debuts. Aren't they going too far?"

"Aren't they bullying others?"

"Didn't Natalia say that she was going to quit the entertainment industry? I thought she was really going to quit the industry, but I didn't expect that she would start all over again. As expected, what the artist said is bullshit."

"That's disgusting. Can they quit the competition? It's unfair to other competitors!"

For a moment, everyone was angry. A large number of opposite fans of Natalia and Lottie appeared on the Internet and commented below the program group's account requiring them to quit.

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 462 Elijah Didn't Let Any One of them Go

When there were comments online, Connie found them immediately.

Connie told Ralph the news and then discussed with the Public Relations Department. They wanted to suppress the comments online.

However, she didn't expect that just as she was about to succeed, there was a new headline on the internet: Natalia and Lottie quit the competition! The news became a hot news. She couldn't help but watch became the first place in the recent search.

Connie asked someone to contact the platform to delete the news, but the platform replied that she could not do that.

Connie knew that someone must have spent money on that.

Lottie and Natalia had a lot of enemies. For a moment, Connie did not know who wanted to hurt them, but she knew that if she did not take action, the reputation of Lottie and Natalia would be completely ruined.

While Connie was trying to find a way to solve the problem, another staff of the show claimed another piece of news. The person said that Natalia and Lottie occupied the place for other contestants, and the person also said that they pushed others away just to make them seem better, but their performance was actually very bad.

Then, the two new contestants who had quit the show suddenly made a miserable statement, saying that they had been practicing their basic skills for several years, so that they could get the opportunity to be on the show. Unexpectedly, they were about to be on the show, but they suddenly knew that they couldn't participate in the competition and that was too sad.

They did not say that they were squeezed away by others. They just showed the photos of them practicing hard in the practice room and a few injured photos, which fully showed how hard they had been practicing. Then they expressed their regret and encourage for themselves.

Connie could tell at a glance that they were trying to increase their reputation. They had quit the competition, but they showed off. They wanted to push the blame to Lottie and Natalia to gain the sympathy of the netizens.

Sure enough, the netizens were not angry at first. It was not until the two freshmen posted their photos that the netizens were really angry.

"I'm so angry. Isn't that Lottie and Natalia stealing others' dream? They're thieves!"

"Look at their wounds, it's really painful. It's really not easy for freshmen to make a debut because it's so difficult for them to survive. It's not easy to get such a chance, but it was took away by two beauty."

"They're indeed more powerful. Why are Lottie and Natalia so shameless?"

"Sis, don't be sad. You are so hard-working and so beautiful. You will definitely become famous. As for the two people, no matter how beautiful they are and how powerful they are, they are ugly! Even if they are on the show, no one will vote for them!"

"Natalia, get out of the entertainment industry! Lottie, get out of the entertainment industry! Two tumors in the industry, quit the competition as soon as possible!"

"Don't insult other people's dreams! Can the show expel them? If they don't quit the competition, we will never watch your show!"

Connie was really angry, so she immediately contacted the program group.

She questioned why the program group didn't promote it properly and even asked the staff to leak the news. She strongly urged them to clarify the truth immediately.

However, the program group was experienced. The sudden fame was worth it. They apologized to Connie while stalling for time. They didn't care about Lottie's and Natalia's reputation.

Anyway, Lottie and Natalia were recording the show in the program group, and Connie couldn't take them away.

Besides, even if he could take them away, so what? Connie would definitely not let them immediately quit the competition, because once they did, it would confirm the fact that Lottie and Natalia used their identities and backgrounds to bully the newcomers, which would be even worse for their reputation.

Connie didn't expect the program group to be so shameless. She hung up angrily and was about to rush to the program group to quarrel with them on the spot. However, when she was about to go out, she was stopped by Richeal.

"Why are you in such a hurry?"

"How can I not be in a hurry! The program group is too bad. I have to ask them to get the live video. Lottie and Natalia are not vases! They are so excellent!"

Connie also wanted look for the photos and videos that Lottie had practiced herself, and then spread them out to show the netizens how miserable she was.

She was just regretting that she forgot to record when the program group had told her that the two contestants voluntarily quit the competition. Otherwise, she would have released the recording directly and embarrassed the two shameless newcomers!

Seeing her anxious look, Richeal could not help but smile.

Connie was anxious. When she saw that Richeal was stopping her and smiling, she was angry.

"How can you still smile at such a time!"

Richeal shook his head and put the phone in front of Connie.

"You don't have to go.

The matter has been solved."

"What?" Connie couldn't believe it. She took the phone and looked at it.

In the time she had just communicated with the program group, all the negative comments about Lottie and Natalia on the Internet had disappeared, and the hit of scolding them had disappeared. Connie searched for Lottie's name again, and all the slanders had disappeared.

"How could this be? Didn't the platform not delete the news? Did the company spend money?"

Richeal shook his head and patted Connie on the shoulder with a smile. "There are three children. Are you afraid that the news can't be deleted?"

Connie finally understood and immediately smiled.

"Master Fabian is so handsome!" Her eyes lit up. "He's Ralph's child!"

Richeal couldn't help laughing. She held Connie's shoulder and said, "You don't have to worry about the comments on the Internet. The three children are paying attention to them. Come with me to find out who planned this incident, and then we will think about how to fight back."

To be able to spread the news so widely in such a short time and refuse people to spend money to delete the trending search, a person who was not capable could not do that.

Connie nodded immediately and rolled up her sleeves, indicating that she must find out the bad guy that day.

Things happened on the top floor of SFLE Media.

Elijah took off the small glasses on his nose and crossed his fingers. He calmly said, "Done."

Stella brought the fruit sent by the assistant to Elijah and said with a flattering smile, "Brother, eat some fruit.

Elijah glanced at Stella and said, "Eat it yourself. I'll eat later."

Stella chuckled and took a strawberry to eat before browsing through the web page. They deleted all the accounts that had slandered their mommy and Natalia.

The accounts that had spoken bad things of their mommy had also been 'all wiped out', and Elijah had not let go of any of them.

"Brother, you're amazing!"

Stella gave Elijah a thumbs-up and then watched Lottie's fan group chat. He realized that the number of her fans had decreased by three and couldn't help but frown.

Her mommy's show hadn't started yet. Why were there fewer and fewer fans?

She couldn't let thing go on like that...

She didn't even want to eat strawberry. She turned to look at Fabian and asked, "Are you done with the video?"

Stars was editing the video. Stella had already brought over the origin video of the program group. Stella was adding music and words to Lottie's sword dance performance.

He was also looking for a suitable clip to edit, trying his best to show his mommy's most cool aspect.

"It'll be done soon. I'll release it now!" .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 463

Mommy Is So Beautiful

When performing in the recording room, it was not good to collect sound.

That was why Fabian had chosen the sound track again, making the BGM more compatible with Lottie's sword dance. Coupled with the Fabian's outstanding editing technology, when the video of Lottie's sword dance was released, it immediately caused fans to cheer.

The video couldn't be sent by the account of "Stars Surrounding the Moon". If sending the video, people would think that Lottie and her fans were working together. Perhaps people would say that Lottie was trying to please her fans.

In order to achieve the goal of increasing the number of fans, flattering the fans meant that the idol was flattering the fans.

Before he could use the account of fans, Fabian logged into a marketing account run by himself - Know Everything.

Speaking of which, "Know Everything" actually had more fans than "Stars Surrounding the Moon".

As for the reason, it was that Fabian was the owner of the account, who would from time to time reveal some fierce news about the entertainment industry.

The account was not like other accounts that were talking nonsense or making up news. What Know Everything said was true every time. Gradually, there were many fans who liked to watch the fun, and their loyalty was better than many accounts.

The news that Fabian was going to release to the entertainment industry was also very simple.

As the biggest management company, SFLE Media had a wide network of contacts, so he naturally knew a lot. On the other hand, with Elijah and Stella around, it would be easy for them to investigate the secrets of anyone.

"Know Everything" didn't advertise or earn fans' money. He was very domineering. He dared to reveal any news that others didn't dare to. No matter how hard the star team tried to persuade him to delete and apologize, he never paid attention to it. If he was forced to do so, he would send more negative news.

Every time the account appeared, it seemed that it was for justice. The star team avoided it in time, so the account had a high reputation in fans' heart.

The matter of Lottie and Natalia was widely spread. Many fans asked "Know Everything" about the truth. At first, Know Everything didn't say anything. Everyone thought that he was not going to intervene in the matter, but they didn't expect that when the hit was deleted and the accounts that caused trouble were sealed, Know Everything appeared.

Fabian didn't waste any time. He launched the video that he had carefully edited and wrote: Lottie and Natalia were upright, Hazel and Paula deliberately made trouble.

Hazel and Paula were the two contestants who had quit the competition.

As soon as the video was released, netizens were very excited.

"I've finished watching. My roommates asked me why I knelt down and watched the video."

"Lottie is so handsome! Her eyes were so cool when she was dancing. I love her so much!"

"The one who said that Lottie was a vase, come out and be beaten! With her level of singing and dancing, it would be a loss if they didn't get selected!"

"I love her too much. It turns out that I thought that Lottie only has a pretty face. Now I know what a charming person she is. If her foundation is not good enough, she can't dance so well!"

"You're all praising Lottie. Didn't anyone praise Natalia? In the past, I only knew that she was good at acting, but now I know that she can play the piano and sing. Her English songs are also soft. I'm very excited to hear her sing a few high notes!"

"Lottie and Natalia are both powerful! Furthermore, they all stay in the competition according to the procedure when they signed up. I didn't hear from the teacher that they took over other people's spots. Natalia performed so well, and there was even a dancing teacher who find a mistake. How did those rumors spread out?"

"Isn't it a little too much to say that Hazel and Paula deliberately made trouble? Although they haven't made a debut, they have put in so much effort. There must be something wrong with the sudden quit of the program group!"

"There are still people talking for the two newcomers!" Fabian was very angry after reading the comments.

Elijah said, "Release their videos on the screen too!"

"OK!"

Fabian's fingers moved on the keyboard for a moment, and soon, fans saw a new article.

Know Everything said, "Hazel and Paula quit the competition, and the program group had two more places. Natalia and Eve replaced them." And there was a video.

The following video recorded Hazel and Paula handing over their registration forms. In order to prevent people from talking nonsense, Fabian also uploaded the footage video of Rose and Eve.

When the fans finished watching all the videos, they realized that even Rose couldn't compare to Natalia and Lottie, much less Eve and the other two newcomers, whose dancing were full of mistakes.

"Did Eve really become a trainee?"

"Eve can be elected as the candidate, but why can't Natalia?"

"I really didn't expect that the so-called vase player was the real strength."

"Rose is too fresh. She doesn't have any advantages in front of Lottie and Natalia."

"I was wondering why Lottie and Natalia were suddenly be cursed. It turns out that some people saw that they were doing too well and was creating trouble in advance."

"The things in the entertainment industry are so complicated. I won't make any comments anymore."

"Hazel and Paula were so disgusting! I was so sympathetic to them before, but I didn't expect to be used by them."

When Know Everything posted the videos, his fans learned the truth. Many people announced that they were going to be fans of Natalia and Lottie. A group of people turned to scold the program group, Hazel and Paula, who had quit the competition. There were also a group of netizens who no longer paid attention to the matter after watching the videos, but they were interested in the show.

Noticing that the public opinion on the Internet had completely reversed, the three children took a deep breath at the same time.

"I told you it's useful to manage a marketing account!"

Fabian was very proud of himself. He had run the account of "Know Everything" by himself.

Stella was also very happy, but she just wanted to say something opposite Fabian.

"Humph, if big brother and I help didn't help you get those things before, you wouldn't have attracted so many fans!"

"Yes, you are right, you two are also meritorious!"

Fabian was not greedy for credit. He said with a smile, "It seems that we need to register a few more marketing accounts. It will be very helpful in both publicity and clarity in the future."

Elijah's expression was cold, but the corners of his lips slightly raised.

After the matter was solved, Elijah ran the computer for a while and soon connected the computer with the backstage of the program group to watch the recording video.

"Stop arguing. Mommy is about to go on stage."

Hearing Elijah's words, Stella and Fabian stopped arguing and looked at the computer.

Under the camera, the six walked out of the lounge and headed for the passageway set up by the program group.

After waiting for almost two hours in the lounge, Natalia was about to fall asleep. She finally waited for them to go on stage.

As the most important part of the last show, the photographer did not hesitate to approach the faces of them.

Even though Rose was mentally prepared, it was the first time she had encountered such a scene. She was a little nervous. Eve was even more nervous than Rose. She looked very reserved. The smokey makeup on her face was a little messy, and her face looked a little dirty.

As for the other two newcomers, they didn't say a word and hid behind Natalia and Lottie.

At that time, the camera turned to Natalia and Lottie. Both of them looked calm. They even waved their hands at the camera very generously and greeted them with a smile.

"Mommy is so beautiful! She's the most beautiful!" Stella couldn't help praising her.

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 464 Did She Think that She Was so Happy?

It wasn't just Stella who thought so. In the recording, everyone who saw Lottie also thought that she was beautiful.

Lottie was so beautiful. Even though the camera was very close to her face, her skin was still very delicate. There was no flaw in her facial features or face shape. She only wore a little makeup and looked very radiant.

"Lottie is so beautiful."

"Natalia is beautiful too."

"No wonder Mr. Chapman likes Lottie so much. If I look at her face, I can eat more."

"I just don't know how excellent she is."

There were whispers from the contestants around, because their shooting was closed. The contestants' mobile phones were taken away, and the contestants without special channels did not know what was going on online.

The contestants didn't see Lottie's sword dance, nor had they heard of Natalia's piano music.

Everyone's knowledge of Lottie and Natalia was still at the level of "good-looking actors". The others didn't approve of their stage performance.

In the scene, the six lined up in a row according to the number tag. On the opposite side were 101 seats for the contestants, as well as the four mentors in front of them.

The contestants' seats were almost full, leaving only six empty seats. The back of the chair was marked with numbers.

Lottie's vision was very good. She only took a quick glance and saw the numbers on the seats.

The center seat at the top was still empty. In addition, there were the 3rd, 13th, 14th, and 92th at the bottom.

No one dared to sit on the center seat, not knowing whether the contestants lacked confidence or were afraid of offending others.

However, that was just right for her.

What Lottie wanted was the center seat.

"Hello, can you introduce yourself?"

Bridge's words interrupted the noise at the scene.

Among the four mentors under the stage, apart from Bridge and Rubby, there was an acquaintance - Yoyo.

Lottie was very surprised. She hadn't even had the time to get even with Yoyo when she appeared on her own.

Just in time, Lottie could take the opportunity to settle accounts."

The two competitors in the front row introduced themselves first. Their introduction was very formal and did not have too many creative ideas.

It was Rose's turn to introduce herself.

"Hello, mentors. I'm Rose."

"I'm glad to have the opportunity to come to Treasure 101. The four mentors are all my favorite teachers. I'm really excited now!"

Rose gave a brief introduction of herself and expressed her respect and affection for the four mentors. Then, with a flushed face, she bowed deeply, appearing a little nervous.

Someone among the contestants immediately responded, "She blushed!"

"She's so cute."

"Rose is so sweet. She's a cute little sister."

The corners of Rose's lips curled up slightly. She couldn't help but feel smug.

She thought to herself, "Lottie is beautiful, so what?" The more beautiful a person was, the more aggressive she became. She would definitely attract the attention and become target of the other contestants. When that time came, Lottie would definitely be in troubles.

On the contrary, if she showed weakness to get closer to everyone and made everyone like her, it would be easier for her to do things in the future.

Rose was already familiar with how to attract people's hearts.

It could be seen that Yoyo didn't like Rose. She was smiling, but her eyes were filled with disdain.

Rubby, on the other hand, went against her usual self and talked to Rose. Bridge and another male lecturer called Allen Johnson followed her.

Lottie thought expressionlessly, "With these four mentors, can the show continue?"

She was wondering if this was something usual. Was Ralph investment going to be wasted?

It was a waste of money.

Just as she was lost in thought, Bridge shifted the topic to her.

"The next one seems to be a very beautiful contestant."

Lottie took the microphone and didn't answer Bridge's question. "I'm Lottie. Maybe you all know me."

After all, she had been on trending and became famous in the entertainment industry.

Yoyo suddenly sneered. "Lottie is still so confident."

Her tone seemed to be teasing, but in fact, she was mocking Lottie.

She mocked Lottie for being too proud and self-righteous.

Lottie narrowed her eyes slightly and said, "A person like you be a teacher, then why can't I be confident?"

As soon as she finished speaking, everyone present was shocked.

The contestants all felt that Lottie was too arrogant, and Yoyo's expression instantly froze.

Rubby had been staring at Natalia the entire time. When she heard that, she also looked at Lottie in surprise. Then, she used her peripheral vision to observe Yoyo, revealing a thoughtful expression.

Under such circumstances, Yoyo struggled to speak. "Lottie, I know you have always looked down on me, but I..."

"Not only did I look down on you before, but I also look down on you now."

Lottie interrupted Yoyo from pretending to be pitiful. She simply stopped recording. "Director, I think I need an explanation. Why isn't Yoyo, a bad artist, banned by the industry? Instead, she was invited to be a program mentor.

Is there a story behind this?"

Yoyo had never expected that Lottie would be so bold as to turn against her in the half of the show's recording.

"Lottie! I know that you have a strong background now, but that doesn't mean that you can slander me! Do you have proof that I'm a bad artist?"

"In Odense, you stole the jade pendant left by my mother and forged a birthmark to pretend to be me so that you could flirt with my fiance, and even conspired with others to take away my family property. After your deeds were exposed, you began to pretend to be crazy and stupid, and finally, you were sent back to Rexwell's psychiatric hospital."

"I have both your medical records and your hospitalization cases. Do you want me to find out and slap you in the face?"

In fact, Lottie couldn't figure it out. Ralph had clearly said that Yoyo was sent to a psychiatric hospital. How could she escape from it and even work in the entertainment industry?

"Is Yoyo brainless or stupid? How dare she participate in the same show with Lottie and quarrel with her face to face?"

Did Yoyo think that she was so happy?

After Lottie finished speaking, the contestants and mentors below were all shocked. Even the director was stunned.

The director hurriedly came out of the general control room, intending to stop recording, and continue recording after he figured out the situation.

Yoyo was recommended by Rubby. The female supervisor who had been invited before suddenly had a car accident and was hospitalized. The director agreed to let Yoyo to save the show for the sake of continuing the program. He did not expect such a big thing would happen.

Lottie's words had undoubtedly given Yoyo a huge blow. She was on the verge of collapse in the whispers of the crowd.

But she couldn't do anything here. She had been guaranteed that nothing would happen.

There was absolutely no evidence in Lottie's hands!

So she gritted her teeth and explained, "Take out the evidence now, or I will sue you for slander!"

Lottie sneered. She indeed didn't leave any evidence, but that didn't mean that Ralph didn't leave any evidence.

When she used her watch to contact Fabian and let Ralph find the evidence, she would see how Yoyo could defend herself!

Just then, the huge display screen behind her flashed, and Ralph's face appeared in front of everyone.

Ralph said, "You want the evidence? Here you are." .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 465

Lottie, You Are Handsome!

The screen was split into two.

On the left was Ralph's handsome face, and on the right was evidence that Ralph had shown.

As Lottie had said, whether it was the evidence of crime or the diagnosis of mental illness, they were originals. In addition to those documents, there were many photos and videos.

Ralph played them one by one, which amazed all the contestants and staff present.

"It's amazing."

"I didn't expect to see such a big scene in a variety show."

"If the show is broadcast, it will definitely be popular!"

It was not sure whether the show would be popular, but Yoyo must want to commit suicide.

Ralph's actions could even be said to be a public punishment for her.

"No! This is not true!"

"These are all fake. They made the videos and photos!"

"Ralph and his children are top hackers. They forged all these!"

Yoyo was crazy. She could never imagine that things would develop in that direction. She tried her best to clarify herself, but no one believed her crazy words.

"Let me make a joke of myself. Video can be photoshoped, and everything is forged."

"I think what Yoyo said is fake."

"Mr. Chapman hasn't been married for long, and his child hasn't been born yet."

"No, I heard that Mr. Chapman has a child and the child is five years old."

"Is it true? Then Lottie is..."

"She should be considered a stepmother."

"Even if a five-year-old child can't become a top hacker, can he?"

"Yoyo is really talking nonsense. How can the program group find such a person to be a mentor?"

"Oh my god, it's lucky that Lottie exposed her things. When I thought that we would accept Yoyo's comments, I..."

"Yoyo just said that she was recommended to the show by Rubby. Will Rubby..."

"Are they roommates in hospital?"

There were all kinds of discussions around. More than 100 contestants were sitting together, and there were too many topics to discuss.

Rose's face gradually turned pale.

Because she had discovered that her limelight had been stolen by Lottie. If Yoyo's things were exposed, it might even affect Rubby's reputation. The situation was extremely disadvantageous for Rose.

So she stepped forward and said to everyone, "Be quiet, everyone. I believe there must be some misunderstanding."

"Even if there is no misunderstanding, we still need to believe in the program group and the mentors. They will give us a satisfactory explanation."

When Rose spoke in such a state of chaos, she seemed to be in charge of the overall situation.

If there wasn't Lottie there, perhaps she would have been able to control the situation.

However, how could Lottie give her such a good opportunity?

Lottie tugged at Natalia's hand and winked at her.

Natalia immediately understood.

Natalia said, "This is a very serious thing. The program group must give us an explanation! If there is no explanation, let's call the police!"

On the screen, Ralph said, "Take control of Yoyo. I've already called the police."

The director's expression was very ugly. If the scene was so chaotic, could their show continue?

When the news got out, the whole program might be banned.

How could Natalia not know the director's attitude? She deliberately said, "Director, it's also a good thing for the program group to help you solve the problem. How can you still look like this?"

Hearing Natalia's words, everyone looked in the direction of the director.

Yoyo seized the opportunity and wanted to slip away secretly.

Lottie had been paying attention to Yoyo the entire time.

The moment she secretly ran, Lottie realized that something was wrong.

She immediately ran a few steps forward.

With a bang, the door that had just been opened was shut by Lottie.

Yoyo roared in despair, "Lottie, I will kill you!"

Yoyo pulled out a dagger. She grabbed the dagger and slashed it to Lottie's face.

Yoyo took the knife with her in advance just in case, and she could take the opportunity to deal with Lottie.

She had hated Lottie's face for a long time.

Everyone said that Lottie was beautiful. When she disfigured her face, she would see how Lottie could survive in the circle.

At that time, she would see if Mr. Chapman would still love her!

With such a vicious idea, Yoyo acted decisively and quickly.

Seeing that the knife was about to cut Lottie's face, the contestants in the recording hall screamed one after another.

"Be careful!"

"Oh my god, Yoyo brought a knife to record the show!"

"Where's the security? Hurry up and stop her!"

The scene was chaotic, and everyone's hearts were tight.

Including Ralph, who had been watching the surveillance, and his children.

Ralph had already stood up. If possible, he even wanted to rush through the display screen to save her!

However, in the blink of an eye, Lottie nimbly dodged Yoyo's knife and picked up a drum stick on a shelf.

"Bang!"

Lottie used the drum stick to knock hard on the copper goblet, testing its strength.

While the crowd was still in a daze, Lottie spun the drum in her hand twice, and then firmly and ruthlessly knocked on Yoyo's wrist.

Yoyo felt pain and her dagger almost fell to the ground.

Lottie performed a capture skill. She turned around to grab the hand holding the dagger, and then twisted her wrist violently.

"Ah!!"

As Yoyo cried out in surprise, Lottie knocked hard on the back of Yoyo's hand with the stick.

Her strength was so great that Yoyo finally couldn't hold the dagger. Lottie snatched the dagger from her hand. She threw Yoyo again, and Yoyo was pressed to the ground.

The battle was over before the contestants could react.

The people at the scene were stunned for a moment, and then they suddenly heard the screams and cheers of the crowd.

"So handsome!"

"Lottie, you're so handsome!"

"What happened just now? I didn't see it clearly!"

"Is this the long-lost peerless kungfu?"

In the cheers of the contestants, the security guards rushed in to hold Yoyo down.

Only then did Lottie get up and look at the screen on the wall.

Mr.Chapman, who had always been fearless, turned pale at that moment. There was still fear in his eyes, and he was no longer as calm as before.

"Are you alright?"

His voice was very hoarse. His back was covered in cold sweat after such a thing happened. He was afraid that something would happen to Lottie.

"I'm fine. I'm fine. Nothing's wrong!" Lottie immediately shouted to him.

She didn't care about Yoyo at all.

Natalia also rushed over at that time. She grabbed Lottie and examined her carefully, only to find that she didn't even have a injury. Only then did she relax.

"You scared me to death. Why did you rush up just now? Don't you know it's dangerous?"

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 466 No One Can Bully Mommy

Natalia's heart was still tight.

When Lottie had rushed out, Natalia hadn't been able to hold her back. Later on, Natalia had been afraid that she would affect her performance, so she hadn't dared to go over.

However, there were too many people, as well as quite a few enemies of them. Natalia helped Lottie keep an eye on Rose, Rubby, and others. She was afraid that those people would take advantage of the chaos to attack her.

Fortunately, she had thought too much about it. Lottie was safe and sound, and nothing happened.

After all those things happened, the program could not be carried out normally.

The director was still in shock, feeling regret and fear in his heart.

He didn't expect Yoyo would bring a knife to the recording site!

The program group had set up a security check, but it was not so strict with the mentors, which made Yoyo know.

If the program group started to broadcast live and Yoyo suddenly took out a knife to stab Lottie, it would be even more troublesome!

He would have to bear the consequences, so he would never be able to broadcast the show.

After spending so much effort to invest, if the show finally became an online variety show, the director would go crazy with anger.

He didn't dare to blame Lottie and Ralph anymore. He had to calm down first.

"Quick, control Yoyo and wait for the police to take her away!"

After the director gave the order, securities immediately took action.

Because of the special circumstances, the director decided to suspend the recording on the spot. When the program group confirmed the follow-up process, the previous camera might be invalid.

The director wiped his sweat and said apologetically to everyone, "Sorry, this is all our fault. As for today's matter, the program group will compensate you accordingly."

"Don't worry about your cameras. We will cut today's recording into pieces and put them on the Internet to test and broadcast."

After that, the contestants, who were still a little dissatisfied, was satisfied.

Yoyo's incident was serious. If it was spread out, it would definitely cause a heated discussion. And the new contestants could also take the opportunity to raise their reputation, and maybe more people would see them.

It was much more influential than the official broadcast of the cameras.

Everyone was satisfied with this solution. Before the police arrived, the other contestants were arranged to rest in the dormitory by the staff. Some related contestants, such as Natalia, Lottie, and the mentors, all stayed for the time being, because they had to cooperate with the police to take notes.

After the incident, Yoyo might not be able to regain her freedom.

She was either in jail or locked up in a psychiatric hospital. Anyway, she would never come out to make trouble.

That was a good thing for Lottie.

After all, Yoyo was too sinister. If Lottie kept her outside, she would definitely make many hidden dangers for her.

Yoyo's matter was solved, but it caused a lot of trouble for the program group.

Lottie was also a little embarrassed.

She apologized to the mentors and directors with a good attitude. On the surface, everyone said that it had nothing to do with her, but no one knew what they were actually thinking.

Lottie pretended not to know anything and turned to apologize to Natalia.

"I'm sorry, I'm a little too impulsive. It seems that I've taken away the center position of your first show."

Natalia didn't know whether to laugh or cry. She reached out and patted Lottie.

"Don't say like that."

"Your reputation is my reputation. We are always together."

After listening to that, Lottie laughed foolishly for a while, then looked at the screen again. She found that the screen had turned dark, and Ralph disappeared.

She suddenly panicked.

Oh no, she was so busy dealing with the thing just now that she seemed to have forgotten to comfort her husband.

Ralph must be very angry!

Lottie shrank her neck guiltily. At that moment, the police rushed over and asked everyone to make a statement separately.

Just as she was about to leave, someone patted her gently on the shoulder.

She turned around and saw that it was Bridge.

Bridge looked at Lottie warmly and encouragingly with a smile on his face.

"Don't be afraid. Nothing will happen."

Lottie looked at him and said calmly, "I wasn't afraid at all."

Bridge didn't seem angry at all. Instead, he smiled again.

"That's good."

Lottie didn't have time to pay attention to the person, so she went to make the statement. She told the police everything she knew.

With so many contestants in the show as witnesses and video cameras, everyone saw how Lottie subdued Yoyo. The police didn't make things difficult for her and quickly let her go.

When she came out of the room, she found four people standing outside.

An adult and three children all came.

"Mommy!"

"Mommy, are you alright?"

"I'm so worried about you!"

The three little children threw themselves at her as soon as they saw her.

Lottie hurriedly held the children in her arms and then looked at Ralph.

Ralph was wearing sunglasses and his face was dark. He stood there and did not say anything.

Lottie wanted to laugh.

She knew that Ralph was angry.

However, she didn't know if Ralph was angry that she was too impulsive, or that he was angry that he couldn't protect her at such a critical moment.

Perhaps, he was angry because of both.

"Honey, don't you want to hug me?"

"I was greatly shocked just now. Why didn't you come to coax your baby?"

Ralph's cool face finally relaxed a lot after he heard Lottie's words.

He slowly approached Lottie, and the rest anger disappeared from her expression.

"You."

Ralph was very helpless, but he still reached out to hold her in his arms.

Lottie rubbed against him and giggled.

"Don't be angry. I'm fine."

She thought for a moment and suddenly said, "By the way, where is Natalia?"

"Don't worry, I've already asked the bodyguards to protect her."

Only then did Lottie let out a sigh of relief.

She was still too impulsive and only focused on rushing forward. She had almost forgotten about Natalia's safety.

She had the ability to protect herself, but Natalia did not.

"Let's go. I'm here to pick you up."

"Hey, isn't this a closed recording? Can we go home?"

Ralph's face darkened. "Who cares?"

Ralph was really angry. He didn't want to save face for the program group at all. It was lucky that he didn't turn hostile on the spot.

Seeing that he was angry, Lottie was even happier. It was a reflection of how much Ralph cared about her.

"Forget it." Although she was a little reluctant to part with him, she refused to go home.

Stella didn't understand. "Why don't you go home? Mommy, you were almost assassinated today!"

Elijah also said, "Don't be afraid of the program group. At worst, we can quit the competition."

"That's right. No one can bully Mommy!" Fabian shouted.

Their family was too conspicuous and beautiful. Soon, the staff and other contestants were attracted.

At that moment, Natalia and several mentors also finished taking notes and walked out of the room.

Ralph frowned and looked back, just in time to meet Bridge's gaze.

At that moment, Lottie could clearly sense that Ralph's expression became even more serious.

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 467 I'll Wait for You at Home

As a famous person, Lottie had been a hit for several times.

She was married to Mr. Chapman, the richest man in Rexwell, and also a celebrity. Many people were very jealous.

Who could believe that an unknown group performer married a handsome and rich man?

Some netizens were curious about the life of Lottie after she married into a wealthy family. Some people heard that she was unhappy after marriage and became a stepmother of a rich family. Moreover, she had disappeared before, so she left the entertainment industry.

However, there were others who said that Mr. Chapman loved her very much. First, he had prepared a golden wedding for her, but unfortunately, something unexpected happened and she failed. Later, Lottie made up as a Lucian to open a martial arts school, and Mr. Chapman came to show his love.

Lucian was so ugly in disguise, and Mr Chapman loved her so much and even sent roses to show his love. No one believed that it was not true love.

After that, Mr. Chapman suddenly had a fiancée. Although it was proven that the woman was a liar and Ralph had also said it was a rumor, there were people who felt that something was wrong with the relationship between him and Lottie.

In addition, not long ago, Rose had slandered Lottie, and Mr. Chapman's sister-in-law had also made troubles. The situation was getting more and more chaotic, and no one knew what exactly was going on between them.

Even Rose had always thought that Ralph was just pretending to be in love with her. She thought that Ralph wasn't sincere to Lottie, so she had a good impression of him.

Until the moment...

Everyone in the program group saw that Ralph was holding Lottie in his arms. His eyes were full of deep affection. Although his face was a little cool, everyone knew that his anger was not because of Lottie.

The three children, who were said to not be Lottie's biological children, all leaned close to them and looked worriedly at her, afraid that something would happen to her.

"With this kind of atmosphere, who would dare say that Lottie married into a rich and powerful family because she was liking troubles?"

"She has money and children. She's the winner of life."

"The key is that she is beautiful and powerful. Her husband dotes on her so much."

"I'm jealous. People really can't compare with others."

The staff whispered one after another.

At that moment, Ralph retracted his gaze from Bridge and turned to look at Lottie.

"Let's go home?"

Lottie didn't notice the eye contact between Ralph and Bridge. She looked at her husband with sparkling eyes.

"I can't go."

"Why?"

"No one left."

"You're different from them."

Ralph frowned. He was really worried that there would be other problems if he left.

However, Lottie smiled and smoothed his frown with her hands.

"We are all the same here."

Lottie insisted. "If I want to return to the entertainment industry, I'll have to put in a lot of effort. It's best if I can do it myself. You have to believe me."

She could indeed go home with Ralph. However, there would definitely be rumors of her leaving. She had never been liked by other contestants. If there were any special circumstances, it would be even more difficult for her to return to the entertainment industry.

Furthermore, Natalia was there. Even if she did not consider her reputation, she had to consider Natalia.

She wasn't at ease leaving Natalia alone. If both she and Natalia left, Rose and Eve would definitely take the opportunity to spread negative comments.

Ralph knew what she was thinking. Although he was unhappy, he did not force her.

Although he was reluctant to part with her, he respected all her decisions.

"All right."

Ralph said, "When this show is over, you have to make it up to me."

Lottie thought that it would take a lot of time to convince him, but when she saw that his mind had changed so quickly, she was a little unhappy.

"What compensation do you want?"

Ralph looked at Lottie.

In order to film, she deliberately put on makeup and made her hair into a style, which was different from her usual appearance.

Ralph liked the usual her and the present her. He could not help but swallow.

"You'll know when you go back.

Lottie rolled her eyes at him. Hearing his deliberately lowered voice, she knew that he wasn't speaking seriously.

She deliberately ignored him and squatted down to look at the three children.

"Be good. Mommy won't go back with you today, okay?"

Stella curled her lips and looked like she wanted to cry.

"Mommy, you don't have to record today, do you? Let's go back together and ask Daddy to send you back tomorrow."

"Yes, we will come back to record the show. Mommy, come back with us."

"We can't bear to part with you."

Stella and Fabian were unwilling to give up, but Elijah didn't say anything.

Fabian pulled Elijah's sleeve and said, "Brother, say something."

They really wanted to take Mommy home. They wished she could stay at home all the time, so that she could be safe.

Elijah looked at Lottie before turning back to look at the Fabian.

"You're not allowed to play games or scare people but you have to be in a meeting all the time for Daddy. Are you willing?"

Fabian was stunned. "Ah?"

Elijah asked Stella, "You're not allowed to wear a beautiful skirt or play computer games. Do you think it's okay?"

Stella suddenly stopped crying and shouted, "Why?"

Elijah shrugged his shoulders. "That's right. Why?"

Why didn't anyone stop them from doing what they wanted to do, but they had to oppose what Lottie wanted to do.

Since they were a family, they should be more protective and helpful so that Lottie could do what she wanted to do without any scruples.

There were no idiots in their family. Although Elijah did not finish his words, everyone understood what he meant.

Ralph looked at Elijah, his eyes full of gratification and appreciation.

Elijah looked cold, but in fact, he was the most reliable. He was considerate and steady, which was really reassuring.

Stella and Fabian couldn't ask Lottie to go home with them anymore.

They had pestered her at the door for a long time before getting into the car unhappily.

Natalia had been standing by the side the entire time. When she saw that Ralph and the children were about to leave, she heaved a sigh of relief.

"Uncle Ralph."

Ralph nodded at Natalia and asked with concern, "Are you alright?"

"It's okay. I just stood far away."

"That's good."

"Uncle, I'm fine. My mom and Kayden..."

She was worried and she missed Kayden after leaving for a long time.

Ralph smiled and suddenly nodded.

"I will take good care of them for you. Don't worry."

Natalia didn't understand. It was only after Lottie pulled her that she nodded.

"Well, Uncle, are you leaving?"

Ralph's tone was filled with resentment. "We have to leave. Lottie thinks that we're in the way."

Lottie paused and turned to glare at Ralph.

Ralph let out a muffled laugh. He reached out to rub her hair and kissed her lips.

He said in a hoarse voice, "I'll wait for you at home."

After that, he deliberately glanced at Bridge, who had not left yet, before getting into the car.

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 468 Don't Wrong a Good Person

Ralph's car drove away.

Lottie stood where she was, blushing. It wasn't until the car had completely disappeared that Natalia touched her.

"Stop looking."

"If you really don't want to part with them, why don't you go home with them?"

Natalia teased her, and Lottie came back to her senses. In a second, her expression returned to normal.

"Stop fooling me. I'll make fun of you when Kayden comes to pick you up."

Kayden thought about that scene. Natalia also blushed, but her eyes were filled with anticipation.

"His legs haven't recovered yet. He probably won't be able to come."

Lottie shook her head with a smile. She wanted to chat with Natalia for a while, but an ear-piercing voice sounded next to her.

"Some people really take themselves too seriously."

"I didn't expect that Mr. Chapman would be disturbed. People who don't know the truth will think that the program group is her home. They can leave and stay at anytime. They even perform a big show here."

As soon as Lottie heard the mean tone, she knew who it was.

"Eve, are you out of your mind?"

The one who spoke first was Natalia. She had really tolerated her for a long time. Eve always came to make trouble. She was a troublemaker.

Eve had a fight with Lottie before. She had been recording the show, but because of Lottie's sudden appearance, she wasn't mentioned at all. Eve didn't feel very happy.

Now that she saw that Lottie was so proud, she couldn't help but want to satirize her.

She hadn't expected that Natalia would rebuke her before she could say anything.

"I'm not talking to you? You're helping Lottie because you want to curry favor with the Chapman family. Do you think Kayden will reunite with you in this way?"

"It's so funny. He didn't even like you when you were the movie queen. Now you are just a new actress with many scandals. Will Kayden like you? Don't dream about marrying into a rich and powerful family. It's not a long-term plan to make a living with beauty. You will suffer in the end.

The words seemed to be scolding Natalia, but in reality, they were also indirectly scolding Lottie.

"Although you're quite famous now, it's because Mr. Chapman still likes your face. When you get old, you might be kicked out of the house."

Hearing Eve's words, Natalia was not angry, but amused.

Natalia thought that some people just liked to lie to themselves. The fact was already in front of her. She still refused to listen to it and felt that she was right. She did not know that others were laughing at her.

Natalia and Kayden had already made it clear that they were going to choose a day for the wedding ceremony. She trusted Kayden so much that she didn't care about others' provocation at all.

As for Lottie and Ralph, she didn't need to worry about them.

Ralph was always paying attention to Lottie's every move. Otherwise, Ralph would not have appeared so timely and helped Lottie expose Yoyo on the spot.

Only idiots would think that Ralph only loved Lottie's face.

"Whether he likes me or not, it's none of your business. We can make a living with our beauty. But I'm afraid that some people don't have the gift to do that."

Lottie suppressed her laughter and replied, "That's right."

"Every time someone gets into the mirror, she would make up like a ghost. If she wiped it with makeup oil, she probably won't be recognized by the crowd."

"No wonder she hates us so much. She may be jealous of our beauty."

Lottie hadn't expected Natalia to be so strong when she met Eve. Her words made Eve's expression change.

Lottie didn't have a good temper either. She purposely tried to persuade Natalia.

"Don't say much. What if she go crazy and take out a knife like Yoyo?"

Natalia showed a worried expression. "You're right. I have to talk to the director. Let her stay away from me in the future, or I'm afraid she will do something to us secretly."

Eve couldn't hold back her anger and her face twisted as she looked over. She wanted to bite Lottie and Natalia to death.

Rose stopped her in time and looked at the them with a little grievance.

"Eve is just a little straightforward. She said those for your own good. Even if you don't like to listen, you don't have to speculate her intention so viciously, do you?"

"You are all seniors. You are beautiful and have backgrounds. Today, because of you, all the previous shots were in vain. We didn't say anything. We still have to compete together in the future. Why did you make the atmosphere so weird?"

Rose seemed to be trying to persuade her, but her words were implying that Lottie and Natalia were aggressive.

Rose hinted that they didn't to care about the feelings of the other contestants and make use of Ralph's influence to unite and push out the newcomers.

The contestants and staff who had been watching had just felt that Lottie and Natalia's argument had been quite cool. However, after Rose had changed the topic, and seeing that Rose and Eve were at a disadvantage, they suddenly felt a little sympathy for them.

They weren't as good-looking as Lottie and Natalia, and weren't as rich and powerful as them. Did that mean that they no longer had the right to speak in the future? And they would be targeted by them.

Lottie and Natalia realized at the same time that the situation was not good.

Rose was good at creating public opinion. She could always make herself enjoy a favorable position, while others with weak willpower were often guided by her.

Lottie said, "After hearing what you said, the vicious people are us."

"I help exposed Yoyo for the program group. Except for the safety measures, the program group will also give corresponding compensation after the event. Both reputation and the number of fans can be guaranteed."

"If you are not satisfied with this result, then I will tell the director now that the previous version will be edited as usual. At that time, we will make up for the following scenes and completely hide Yoyo's things."

Everyone's expression changed when they heard that.

"No, don't do that!"

"It's not good to hide such a big event, is it?"

"Lottie is right. Yoyo is a madman! If we keep her in the program group, we don't know what danger we will encounter later. Although today's recording can't be used, we are all very grateful to her!"

"Yes, Lottie is so powerful and beautiful. We are very convinced! Only those who are not confident in their own strength will cause troubles!"

"Rose, don't speak on Eve's behalf. We saw clearly from the side that it was Eve who had provoked Lottie and Natalia time and time again. But you regard her as a senior bullying a newcomer."

"Lottie and Natalia are good-tempered, and mentor Bridge also said that we are all newcomers here. What kind of seniors are they? Don't say like that."

"Rose, Eve, you should apologize to Lottie and Natalia! Don't wrong a good person!"

Only when their interests were attacked would they fight back.

Initially, they had thought that Rose's situation was similar to theirs, so the contestants, who were a little dissatisfied with Lottie and Natalia, came to their senses and criticized Rose and Eve when their interests were damaged.

Rose and Eve couldn't stay any longer after being criticized by the crowd. Natalia turned around and gave Lottie a thumbs-up.

She was so amazing. .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 469 She Is Ralph's Woman

"Sorry, we were too impulsive just now."

"We know we were wrong. Can you forgive us?"

Rose was quite smart. Noticing that everyone was excited, she immediately apologized to Lottie.

He looked quite sincere.

However, she just looked sincere.

Lottie knew that Rose hadn't truly admitted her mistake. She had no choice but to apologize.

But so what? If she could make Rose admit her mistake once, there would be a way to make her be blamed all the time!

"Don't say that. As long as you don't blame me to make me uncomfortable, I won't be sad."

She would also show off misery. Fabian often used that to play tricks on his brother and sister.

Lottie had seen too much, so she could learn a little.

"Lottie, please don't take it to heart."

"Everyone knows that you're doing this for our own good. No one will blame you."

"We are not ungrateful people."

Sure enough, everyone comforted Lottie.

Lottie forced a smile and said, "I know what everyone means. You won't blame me, but some people may not think so."

Following her gaze, everyone turned to look at Eve.

"Eve, shouldn't you apologize?"

"Even Rose has apologized. You're still so cold."

"Lottie didn't do anything wrong to you. Do you have to make trouble for her like this?"

Under the gazes of the crowd, Eve was extremely angry.

When she looked at Lottie's fake expression again, she really wanted to immediately hit her.

But it was not the right time. She couldn't make everyone angry.

With Rose's hint, Eve suppressed her anger and spoke.

"Sorry, I was wrong just now."

After saying that, Eve couldn't stay any longer and squeezed through the crowd to leave.

Rose looked at Eve's back and then at Lottie. She stomped her feet and ran after Eve.

The corners of Lottie's lips curved into a slight smile. In the face of the flattery of the other contestants, she was still very clear-headed.

"Thank you for speaking up for me today."

"Don't worry, everyone. As long as you don't blame me, I won't find the director for advice."

"Since we are lucky enough to attend the show together, we are all good friends. Whether we can advance in the end or not, as long as you can help me, feel free to come to me."

This meant that as long as they had a good relationship with her, she could provide them with some help.

Although she wanted to climb to the top with her own strength, Lottie wasn't prepared to fight alone.

Since she had enough resources, she could make use of them. She didn't want everyone to give up their debut spots to her. She just wanted a relatively fair competitive environment.

She didn't want to fight with those people every day when she was preparing for the competition.

With Ralph backing her up, wouldn't it be a pity if she didn't use it?

"Really? Lottie, you're too kind!"

"That's a deal. We're all friends. Don't forget me outside the manor."

"Lottie is beautiful and kind. No wonder Mr. Chapman likes you so much."

Most of the contestants hadn't made their debut yet, and most of them were girls who had just entered society and weren't very scheming. After Lottie expressed her goodwill, they won't make troubles for her.

There were others who truly felt that Lottie was very good. They thought that she dared to do what she wanted, so they were willing to make friends with her.

Lottie's popularity immediately improved, and even Natalia was quickly accepted by everyone.

Natalia smiled and shook her head as she looked at Lottie, who was surrounded by everyone.

Over the past few days, Lottie had experienced too many things, and her personality had gradually changed.

The stubborn Lottie had unknowingly become more tactful. She was also willing to open her heart to everyone. This way, no matter when, she would attract a group of supporters. ...

Natalia thought casually, "Should I learn from Lottie and try to rely on my friends?"

And Kayden...

"Lottie.

Just as everyone was about to leave for the dormitory, a man's voice came from behind.

When everyone turned around, many people blushed.

Lottie didn't have any expression on her face as she nodded gently at Bridge.

"What can I do for you, Mr. Joshua?"

Bridge smiled and said, "I want to talk to you. Is it convenient for you?"

Many people looked enviously at Lottie.

Bridge was the top star in the circle! He had so many female fans, and no matter what he did, he would be trending search. There were countless female stars in the entertainment industry who wanted to communicate with him, but they didn't expect that he was looking for Lottie.

Sure enough, no matter when a beauty would receive preferential treatment.

"It's inconvenient."

However, Lottie rejected him completely.

A trace of surprise flashed in Bridge's eyes, and then he smiled.

"You don't have to be nervous. I won't do anything to you. I just want to ask you about Yoyo."

He looked at her face and added, "It seems a little inconvenient to say it here."

Lottie didn't like a person who was always smiling.

This kind of smile was not real at all. It only made people feel hypocritical and disgusting.

Just like Bridge.

Natalia also stared warily at Bridge and took a step forward to stop Lottie.

Natalia's expression was cold. "Mr. Joshua, if you're curious about Yoyo, you can wait for the police to inform you. Let's not talk about anything else."

Bridge's smile froze.

His gaze shifted back and forth between Lottie and Natalia.

Then he said helplessly, "In fact, you really don't have to be so wary of me."

Lottie and Natalia had no reaction.

Bridge said, "Forget it. You can go back."

Lottie didn't stand on ceremony with him. She thanked him and left with Natalia.

A cold glint flashed across Bridge's eyes as he watched them leave.

A woman came from the corner and sneered at Bridge.

"She's Mr. Chapman's woman. How dare you want her?"

Bridge didn't even turn his head.

"Doesn't your backer has a wife now?"

Rubby's face turned slightly pale. She frowned and glared at Bridge unhappily.

Bridge turned around and smiled at Rubby.

"We're together. Don't worry about me. I won't provoke your people."

After that, Bridge left in a good mood.

"Sis, what does he mean by that?"

Rubby's assistant came over and asked, looking very worried.

Although everyone guessed that Rubby had a backer, Bridge was the first person who spoke so firmly about her situation.

Could it be that Bridge knew who Rubby's backer was?

Rubby's eyes flickered as she gritted her teeth.

"He's warning me not to make him unhappy, or he'll tell the media about us."

"How dare he! No matter how popular Bridge is now, he is just a star. There are many people who have become famous in the entertainment industry for a while."

Rubby glanced sideways at her assistant and scolded, "Idiot!"

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 470 I'm So Angry!

It would be good if it was really that easy to deal with Bridge, or he would not have been famous so fast.

He even dared to want Lottie, which meant that he had a strong background. Otherwise, he wouldn't have dared to go against Ralph.

Others might not have noticed it, but Rubby knew it clearly.

She saw that Bridge smiled provocatively at Ralph.

"Bridge is a little disgusting. He likes to sleep with his fans, and he also specializes in picking married women. His reputation in the circle is very bad, but did you see anything happen to him?"

The assistant felt a little wronged after being scolded, but she realized something after hearing what Rubby said.

Indeed, Bridge and his fans had never concealed their sex. He had broken up countless families, but he was fine.

If it weren't for his powerful backer, he wouldn't have dared to be so arrogant.

Thinking about it briefly, the assistant was scared.

Rubby glared at her assistant and warned, "He is a lunatic. Stop talking about him and don't provoke him in the future!"

The assistant nodded quickly.

"As for Lottie... Ha. I don't have to do anything. She's someone that Bridge wants. What a good ending will she have?"

Her ally, whom she had worked so hard to find, had been eliminated by Lottie.

The things happened so quickly before Rubby could react, and Yoyo had been taken away by the police. Lottie had also exposed Yoyo's things, making it impossible for her to save Yoyo.

Rubby hated Lottie, but she knew that Lottie had a powerful background, so she didn't dare to cause troubles for her. She only asked Rose and Eve to help her find some troubles for her.

But Rose and Eve were no match for Lottie either. It would be best if they had Bridge's help.

"Then can we focus on dealing with Natalia?"

The assistant asked Rubby.

Rubby's expression was fierce. "Don't worry. Now Natalia is protected by Lottie, there's nothing we can do about her."

They would only make a move when Lottie was in danger. They would make sure that Natalia and Lottie would never be able to escape!

Natalia was not clear about Rubby's plan.

She was explaining Bridge to Lottie.

"So, Bridge is a big bastard?"

Natalia nodded with a serious expression.

Lottie was so angry that she almost laughed.

"Yoyo was taken away, and there is Bridge. Oh, by the way, Rubby is not a good person. What's the meaning? Is there a gathering of band mentors?"

At first, Natalia had been very worried, but when she heard Lottie's words, she couldn't help but laugh.

"Although Bridge doesn't have a good reputation, he has a good capacity. It's not a problem for the program group to invite him."

"No matter how capable he is, he is morally corrupted."

"Speaking of which, it's strange. Bridge's reputation in the industry is so bad, but nothing has happened to him. None of the families who are responsible accuse him."

Natalia sneered. Why didn't they come out to accuse Bridge? They were either bought by him or were forced not to make any comments.

But no matter what, she couldn't let him go.

If a bad guy like Bridge was invited to be a mentor in the show, the reputation of the show would be ruined, and Ralph's investment would also be affected.

She would never allow her husband to lose money!

Natalia said worriedly, "Bridge looked at you strangely just now. Did he fall in love with you?"

Lottie snapped back to her senses and looked at Natalia.

They lived in the temporarily arranged room. The camera of the program group had not been installed yet, and no one watched their every move.

Lottie showed her watch to Natalia. "Don't worry, I'm on my guard."

Natalia was also wearing a watch on her wrist. She remembered that Ralph had a gesture of pointing at his wrist before he left and immediately understood.

"The watch..."

"The phone watch designed by Elijah is equipped with a high-performance function. It can be used online to make video calls, locate and call the police."

Lottie was very proud, and she looked a little like an auctioneer.

Natalia said, "Wow, will the group find out?"

Lottie shook her head. "As long as we are careful, it won't be discovered."

Natalia understood and made an "OK" gesture.

"I'm tired after the whole day. Why don't we wash up and rest early?"

"I don't know how to shoot tomorrow."

Lottie said to Natalia.

Natalia nodded. They went to wash up. After that, Natalia went to video chat with Kayden while Lottie went online to see if there was any news.

Only then did Lottie discover the things online. She had become famous because of the video of the "Sword Dance", attracting many new fans, and her reputation had gradually improved.

Lottie's smile was a little mischievous. She had been cursed by someone else all of a sudden. It was most likely because of Rose and Eve, and the two competitors who had quit the competition. Perhaps they really wanted to slander her before she became famous.

But they didn't expect that they would hurt themselves.

Eve was about to become a joke on the Internet.

Because in the video released by Fabian and the others, Eve's performance was the worst.

She danced and sang bad. She almost tripped and fell, and some netizens made her into an emoji and called her "Throw myself on the ground".

Lottie laughed out loud when she saw that, but Eve was smashing things in the dormitory and scolding her.

"I'm going to die from anger, the b*tch!"

She had been suppressed by Lottie, and she was already very annoyed. She had finally returned to the dormitory and took out her hidden phone to surf the Internet. She had wanted to see how badly Lottie had been scolded, but she hadn't expected that the person who had been scolded in the end would be herself.

Seeing the funny emoji and the netizens' criticism of her, Eve couldn't hold back her anger.

She smashed the things in the dormitory and barely calmed down a little.

Rose watched coldly from the side.

Her performance video was also posted online. Although she didn't make any mistakes in singing, her little song became meaningless compared to the excellent performance of Lottie.

Therefore, she was also criticized.

Rose could accept that she wasn't perfect enough, but she couldn't stand people saying that she wasn't as good as Lottie!

"Who the hell is Lottie? She just appeared a few days earlier than her and was lucky enough to become Ralph's wife. If it were me, I would definitely have done better than her!"

She had witnessed how good Ralph was to Lottie, so she was even more jealous of her.

When she thought back to how Lottie had joined forces with the other contestants and asked her to apologize, she hated her so much that she almost bit her teeth into pieces.

Eve was still loudly insulting Lottie, and Rose had calmed down a little.

"Keep your voice down. Do you want everyone to know that you have a conflict with Lottie?"

Hearing that, Eve sat down next to Rose. She took her hand and said, "Rose, do you know how those people online scold me? I can't stand it!"

Rose rolled her eyes and asked, "Then what do you want to do?"
