

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 471

Perhaps It Was a Conspiracy

"I want her to lose her reputation! I want her to be abandoned!"

Eve's expression was very angry. She could not control her hatred for Lottie at all.

Rose gloated.

Eve's family was also doing business. The Smith family had little power in Rexwell. Perhaps the Smith Family could not shake Ralph's foundation, but it was still a piece of cake to deal with a small artist like Lottie.

As long as Ralph and Lottie could break up, it would mean that they had achieved their goals.

"Rose, do you have any way to deal with Lottie?"

Eve's temper was bad and her brain was not smart enough. She only knew how to find a few professional internet trolls. She was not as knowledgeable as Rose. At the critical moment, Eve still needed Rose's help.

"Me? I don't dare to go against Mr. Chapman."

Rose pretended to be timid. She even tried to persuade Eve, "That Lottie isn't someone to be trifled with either. She can take Yoyo away today and reverse the public opinion online. She can send us away from the show tomorrow."

"Why don't we just endure for a while? Either way, Lottie and Natalia only occupied two debut spots. We also have a chance to debut."

"No!"

Eve was extremely angry. "How can I stand Lottie showing off in front of me!"

"But..."

"Rose, I know you have scruples. Don't worry, as long as you give me an idea, I'll take responsibility for whatever happens in the future. I won't implicate you!"

"How can we do that? We are such good friends."

"Are you willing to help me?"

Rose's face was full of hypocrisy. She hid the corners of her mouth and pretended to be worried as she said to Eve, "Since you've already said that, I'll definitely help you."

Eve immediately became happy.

"Do you really have a way?"

Rose said hesitantly, "I don't know if I can, but let's give it a try."

"What method? Tell me quickly."

Eve moved closer to Rose and the two of them whispered into each other's ears.

"Good! What a good idea!"

Eve couldn't hide her excitement. "Rose, don't worry! I'll find someone to settle this matter. It won't involve the two of us. I'll definitely give you a big gift to thank you when Lottie really gets into trouble!"

"There's no need for such a big gift. It's just that in the next few days, it's best if you and Lottie don't clash again, lest you cause more trouble."

Eve listened Rose's words carefully and patted her chest. "Don't worry. I won't make trouble for her again until it's done."

After a night, the crew of "Dream Girls 101" finally came up with a solution.

The program group directly canceled the show and only let the mentors score according to the contestant's image and registration video, which determined the contestants' class division.

Because Yoyo had left, one of the mentors of the program group was missing, so the program group looked for someone overnight. In the end, they found an acquaintance of Lottie.

Lorry.

When it was Lottie's turn to go on stage, Lorry blinked at her.

The four mentors first let Lottie simply introduce herself and then watched her performance video when she signed up. After a discussion, the mentors directly gave her results on the assessment board.

The mentors scored four "A", which caused a small climax on the spot.

The contestants under the stage were both envious and jealous, which made Lottie feel unreal.

"I always feel that there is a conspiracy." Lottie said.

Natalia smiled and walked onto the stage calmly.

Lottie was prepared to be questioned. After all, the program group would definitely not let go of such a popular contestant like her. If she clashed with Ruby, the ratings would rise.

However, Lottie didn't expect Ruby to remain silent. Lorry and Bridge had been trying their best to praise Natalia throughout the entire process. The judges didn't ask Natalia to say a few more words. Instead, they went straight to score after watching her video clip.

Another four "A".

The audience was surprised. Some of them felt that the score was fair, and some of them were not convinced.

However, no one said anything when they glanced at the camera, leaving only some contestants with exaggerated praise and inexplicable embarrassment.

Natalia said thanks without any emotion. She stepped down from the stage and met up with Lottie.

"There is indeed a conspiracy." Natalia replied.

It seemed that the program group wanted to raise them to a certain level first so that they could arouse the dissatisfaction of the other contestants, and then take back their honor and let them directly accept failure.

It turned out to be like this.

Lottie and Natalia were very calm. In the face of the compliments from the others, the two of them didn't reveal any happy expressions.

Seeing their expressions, Eve couldn't help sneering in her heart.

She thought to herself: you won't be proud for long.

There were a total of seven classes in this division. The best students entered Class "A" one after another, and Class "F" was the weakest.

The number of students in the class was not average. There were about a dozen people in each class, and the number of students in Class "A" was less, only nine.

Other than Lottie and Natalia, Rose was also assigned to Class "A". Eve had made a mistake in her registration performance, so she had been assigned to Class "C". She hadn't been able to be with Rose.

After the division of classes was completed, each class would choose at least two songs, and then the contestants in the class would choose their own songs to adapt. The adapted songs included dancing and composed songs, and the application was completed and rehearsed. Finally, the public performance would be held on the stage.

When the public performance came, there would be a thousand audiences on the spot. The audience on the spot would vote with the four mentors, and the next 40 contestants would be directly eliminated.

Because 40 contestants had to be eliminated, the atmosphere instantly became tense.

Everyone went back to their class first to discuss the division.

When Class "A" was selecting songs, they were not very lucky. The two songs they selected were songs with fast rhythm and slow rhythm. The performance of the fast rhythm song was extremely difficult, but the slow rhythm song was not suitable for the stage of competition, so it was difficult to perform well.

Before anyone else could have any new ideas, Rose took the lead to stand up and declare her stand.

"Let's divide into groups first."

Everyone had no objection to this point.

Rose took the opportunity to take control of the main control. She said amiably to everyone, "Everyone, let's see which song you like first.

We'll change it when we're done with the division."

Everyone had no objections, but quite a few people cast their gazes on Lottie and Natalia.

The contestants always felt that they had to wait until they agreed.

As Rose observed the details, she felt a little uncomfortable.

Lottie shrugged her shoulders and said, "Sure, you can choose first."

"Why don't you choose first, Lottie?"

"That's right. Lottie, you and Natalia both got four "A", so you have the greatest say. You should choose first."

The corners of Rose's mouth twitched when she heard the other contestants' words.

She only got three "A".

Lorry didn't give her an "A". She even said that it wasn't natural for her to sing. Although Rose had entered Class "A" in the end, she was indeed a little weaker than Lottie's four "A".

Just as Rose was about to speak for herself a little more, she heard Lottie say, "Alright, I'll choose a fast-paced song."

"No!" Rose suddenly shouted.

Everyone's gazes turned to Rose. She calmed down a little and said, "Lottie and Natalia are both strong, so they should be the last to choose. Why don't everyone choose to join the team? Then there will be no one else to choose."

She tried her best to use the so-called fair and square method, but in reality, Rose had her own selfish motives.

Rose wanted to choose a fast song, and she didn't want to be on the same team as Lottie.

Lottie saw through her thoughts at a glance, but she didn't expose it. She smiled and nodded. "Sure."

Rose heaved a sigh of relief. .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 472 Feel free to Come to Me

Just as Lottie had thought, most of the contestants chose fast-paced songs, including Rose.

When it was Lottie and Natalia's turn to choose, only a short-haired girl chose a slow-paced song.

The girl's name was Voilet Lena. Before she could sign a contract with the company, she came out alone to adventure in the entertainment industry. She didn't look very old.

Lottie smiled. "According to the rules of the program, there are at least four people in each song. Even if we add Natalia and me, there are only three people in the slow-paced group. How do you want us to perform?"

As a senior, Natalia sincerely suggested, "The songs can be adapted. Fast songs may not necessarily be better than slow songs. It's better for everyone to choose a suitable song for themselves."

For example, there were some people who did not have the skills of dancing at all and insisted on singing fast songs. At that time, their performance would be more stressful.

However, no one noticed their suggestions.

"Senior Natalia is right. Since it can be adapted, it means that slow songs can also be outstanding. I believe that with you and Lottie, this song will definitely be adapted to the right place! Is there anyone else who wants to go to the slow songs group?"

Rose's words meant that she wasn't preparing to go to the slow songs group. Instead, she wanted to push the others out.

No one responded.

Lottie laughed coldly in her heart and purposely said, "Since no one is willing to come, why don't you join us, Rose?"

Rose waved her hand again and again. "You're all so outstanding. If I were to go with you, then the groups wouldn't have been able to hold their ground. That wouldn't have been a good idea."

In fact, some of the contestants were already shaken, but after listening to Rose's words, they quickly gave up the idea.

Without Lottie and Natalia in the Fast Song Group, it would be easier for them to shine. There was no need to change the team.

After all, they were not weak.

So in the end, everyone chose to stay in the Fast Song Group, and no one wanted to leave.

The situation came to a standstill.

Chapmans' Villa.

Seeing this scene at home, the three children were furious.

"This Rose did it on purpose!"

"Did she not want Mommy to perform on stage?"

"She was the one who said that it was not suitable to be divided into groups, and the one who was unwilling to change!"

"She's really pure on the outside, but vicious inside!"

Stella cursed as she watched, her face flushed red.

Fabian also echoed, "She also whispered to others. She must have told them not to leave. She just wanted to see mommy and sister-in-law Natalia make a fool of themselves!"

"Brother, what should we do?"

Stella and Fabian cast their eyes on the Elijah at the same time.

Elijah's finger tapped on the table.

Just as he was about to speak, his gaze suddenly changed.

"Bridge went to class "A" classroom!"

More than three children noticed the differences between Class "A" and the director group.

The director group felt that this was a good spot and was ready to let the mentors work together. Lorry wanted to go over and help, but she was secretly mocked by Ruby for being unfair, so they quarreled.

In the end, the director group decided to let the fair Bridge go and have a look.

"Knock-knock."

"Excuse me. Do you need my help?"

Everyone looked back and saw Bridge walking in.

"Mr. Joshua!"

"Why are you here?"

The contestants were all very excited, and even Violet's eyes changed.

"I heard from the director that your division is not very smooth. Can you tell me the reason?"

Rose looked at Lottie. Seeing that she didn't speak, she smiled and explained what had just happened.

Bridge nodded.

"It's not a problem to divide them according to their personal wishes, but we still need to combine them together when we choose."

Bridge suddenly looked at Lottie and said, "Lottie, do you also want to choose a fast song?"

Lottie didn't even want to pay attention to him. She replied perfunctorily, "I want to choose a slow song again."

Bridge smiled and proposed a solution.

"How about this? You write down five fast and slow notes on each note and then put them together to draw lots. Then you go to the drawn group based on the drawn results."

It would be fair to divide them in this way, but it was not necessarily a good thing for the contestants.

Except for Natalia and Lottie, everyone else didn't look very good.

Just then, someone raised his hand and said, "I can go to the Slow Song Group."

Lottie glanced at the contestant.

Her figure and temperament were both very good, and her eyes were still blue. She was actually a mixed-race beauty. Judging from the name tag, her name was Jessica.

Jessica's Mandarin was not very good, so she didn't want to choose slow songs at first, because she could sing fast songs in English rap, and slow songs were too difficult for her.

However, Jessica also did not believe in her luck. If she drew lots, she would definitely draw the song group. It was better for her to join the Slow Song Group on her own, so as not to make everyone unhappy.

When hearing that Jessica was going to the Slow Song Group, Rose's smile grew even happier.

Although she didn't want to make things easy for Lottie, since the mentors were all here, it was inevitable for them to divide into groups smoothly.

Rose was still thinking about how to kick Jessica out of the group, but this person had actually proposed to leave her group.

Although Jessica had a different style from her, his face was too attractive. She did not need another beautiful woman to stay and steal her spotlight.

Bridge was a little surprised and asked Jessica, "Are you sure?"

Jessica took a deep breath and nodded. "Yes."

"Well, is there any problem with the others?"

Everyone shook their heads in unison. Bridge looked at Lottie again.

Lottie was a little annoyed. Why did Bridge always look at her?

Lottie replied coldly, "No."

The division was settled just like that.

But Bridge didn't leave. He stayed behind and said that he was going to make up a dance for Lottie's group.

Bridge said that it was just a small suggestion and Lottie could refuse him

But Bridge still had to teach her, and he only taught her one person.

Lottie suppressed her urge to hit him and reluctantly nodded in agreement.

In the name of guiding Lottie's movements, Bridge was very close to Lottie and even personally adjusted her posture.

Lottie's fist hardened.

Just as she was about to beat him up, Bridge chuckled and took half a step back.

"Don't be nervous. I won't do anything to you now."

"What do you mean?" she asked coldly.

"For the first time, you should perform well in public. If there is anything you don't understand, feel free to come to me."

Bridge didn't answer her question. He patted her on the shoulder and left behind a meaningful sentence before turning to teach Rose and the others.

Bridge wasn't anxious at all. He had to slowly train a beauty like Lottie.

Natalia walked over and asked worriedly, "What did Bridge say to you just now?"

Lottie shook her head. He really didn't say anything, but she could sense his ill intentions.

"Stay away from him in the future." Lottie reminded Natalia.

Natalia wanted to say something but stopped on second thought. Compared to her, Lottie was still a little more dangerous.

Should I tell this to my little uncle?

Or, did little uncle already know?

While Natalia was hesitating, Mr. Chapman had already sent someone to investigate Bridge's background.

He stared at Bridge on the screen with his deep eyes and turned to Sean.

"Take care of the people Bridge has slept with all these years and send them to me tonight."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 473 A Very Exciting Preview of the Program

Just as Lottie and other contestants still thinking about how to adapt to the song, there was already a heated discussion online.

The reason was that the program group released a very attractive preview and sent it to the program to record the behind-the-scenes for warm-up.

In the preview, the 101 young ladies were dressed in all kinds of clothes and introduced themselves to the camera. Each of their smiles was particularly bright, which made people unconsciously infected by their vitality.

Because there were too many contestants, the program group did not cut all the self-introductions together. Instead, they randomly selected more than a dozen people's cameras and placed them in the preview. The others' self-introductions would be on the official website prepared by the program group. As long as the fans chose the profile picture of their loved contestants, their self-introductions would be shown.

This method was very novel, and the netizens were very satisfied. The official website's click rate was very high, and the netizens chose to watch the self-introduction video of the contestants they liked.

And the click number of each contestant would also be converted into the popularity of the contestants, and then the ranking would be carried out. The contestants who ranked high would get more points when they performed in public.

But at present, what everyone was most concerned about was the preview released by the program group.

Many ordinary netizens were interested in this program because of the sword dance that performed by Lottie. Therefore, as soon as the preview was released, they took the initiative to watch Lottie's latest video.

There were also some loyal fans of Natalia, who were obviously more experienced than others. In the beginning, they organized to increase the popularity of Natalia's voting. They also thought that if the program group released a preview and there were online trolls scolding Natalia, they would comment on some encouragement so that they could suppress those curses in time.

Everyone clicked on the preview excitedly, but there were no cameras of Natalia and Lottie in the preview.

This was also normal. After all, during the first recording, Lottie and Natalia hadn't completed their self-introduction. Then, Lottie had refuted Yoyo directly, causing this portion of the material to be missing.

However, the audience and fans didn't know that they only felt that they had been deceived by the program group. They all scolded the program group, saying that they deliberately suppressed Lottie and Natalia.

The program group was really innocent.

The director didn't expect Natalia and Lottie to be so popular. Originally, the program team thought that the audience didn't like Lottie and Natalia, but they didn't expect them to be so excellent in the hearts of the audience.

The director didn't dare to ask more because he had received a lot of private messages from netizens on the Internet, so the program group had to edit the video overnight.

Finally, he edited a new version of behind-the-scene and put it on the Internet.

In this video, the contestants were not the main ones.

They mainly focused on the evaluation of the mentors.

There were four mentors in the line-up. The director did not cut off Yoyo's camera. Instead, he cut Yoyo's comment into pieces with ulterior motives.

Then, after the four mentors had finished their individual cameras, it was followed by Lottie's high definition of her face.

In the video, Lottie frowned and said, "Why can't I be confident? I bet I'm more outstanding than you."

Then, the camera focused on Yoyo's face again. Everyone could clearly see a trace of unnaturalness flashing across her face.

The rhythm of the music gradually became faster, creating a tense atmosphere.

Lottie continued to mock her.

"I looked down on you before. Now I also look down upon you."

"Director, I think I need an explanation upon why Yoyo had not been banned from acting, and she even became a mentor in the program."

The next second, the camera turned into the faces of other contestants, who were shocked, scared, or confused.

After Lottie finished speaking, the other contestants looked terrified.

This contrast was full of irony and dramatic style, which instantly created the dramatic effect of the program.

In the end, Natalia made a thumbs-up gesture to Lottie with an expressionless face.

As for other information, the director group did not reveal any.

This scene directly caused a heated discussion among netizens on the Internet.

"Lottie satirized Mentor Yoyo on the spot.

She even said that Yoyo did not deserve to be a Mentor."

"Lottie looked down on others. Relying on her background to oppress the mentor, could she get out of the 'Dream Girls101' ?"

"Lottie called Yoyo a bad artist. What grudge was between the two? Let's talk about the grievances and past between Lottie and Yoyo!"

The marketing accounts on the Internet all wrote Lottie into the gossip news, and there were endless topics about her. Lottie's old fans suddenly panicked.

Regardless of Yoyo's qualifications, since she had been invited by the program group as a mentor, Lottie should maintain the respect she deserved. Lottie's current behavior was too overbearing and rude.

Therefore, after this incident, those who liked Lottie called her "Queen", and those who hated her deliberately used "Your Majesty" as a nickname to mock her.

Lottie had caused a heated discussion on the Internet alone. Even mentors like Ruby and Bridge were not as popular as her.

Some of the experts in the entertainment industry knew that Lottie was about to become famous.

Regardless of whether they liked it or hated it, everyone's topics revolved around Lottie.

According to this situation, the program group quickly adjusted the follow-up strategy. Whether or not Lottie would stay or not, she would have more and more shots in the program in the future.

At this time, Lottie gathered the other three people in the performance group together and officially discussed how to adapt to the song with them.

"Although this slow song is very popular, the melody is too plain and simple. Because it has no high-pitched fragments, it can't show the advantage of sound, let alone make a dance."

"So, in order not to be suppressed by the other groups, I think this song needs to be adapted greatly."

Natalia raised her hand and said, "Yes.

Jessica blinked her blue eyes, as if she didn't understand.

Lottie had no choice but to explain to Jessica in English.

Lottie's English pronunciation was very pleasant, with a little western accent. It was not very standard, but was with a different charm. Moreover, her speed of speaking was not fast, so Jessica could hear it clearly.

Jessica sighed in English in surprise. "Your pronunciation of English was so good!"

If she didn't hear wrongly, Lottie's pronunciation seemed to be that of a legendary noble. She had a unique accent that was different from that of an ordinary person.

Natalia was also very surprised. "Lottie, you can speak English?"

"Is it strange that I can speak English? Have you forgotten who my husband is?"

Mr. Chapman was an expert in the language of various countries. Even Fabian could use the language of the three countries smoothly when he held meetings on behalf of Ralph.

Not to mention that Lottie had stayed in Odense of Eupe for a period of time. She had practiced English hard when she was studying, and her foundation was not weak.

Natalia was especially admiring when she heard this. "What is this? The family's advantage?"

Lottie waved her hand and didn't take it to heart. She said seriously to everyone, "Let's talk about how to adapt the song."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 474

Lottie, Are You Too Kind?

Natalia and Jessica didn't have any objections. Lottie turned to look at Violet.

Violet was particularly silent from the very beginning, making it difficult for others to figure out what she was thinking. When Lottie looked at Violet, she felt a little nervous.

Just as Lottie felt that there was something strange about her, Violet finally nodded gently.

That was to say, she agreed to adapt.

Lottie heaved a sigh of relief. She took out the lyrics that she had temporarily drawn out and continued to ask for everyone's opinions.

"There are four of us. This song is not long. It's only three minutes in total. If we want everyone to be outstanding, we have to add creative ideas into it."

"The innovation is on one side, and we should grasp this time. If we add too many ideas, it will be very strange and even very messy. For our whole song, not only does it not add points, but it has become a disadvantage."

If it could be said that Lottie's English had surprised everyone at the beginning, then the abilities that she'd displayed next would be truly admirable.

Not only could Lottie filled in the lyrics, but she was also very good at singing and dancing.

Some fans often praised their idol, saying that a single person was a band.

Then this time, if it were Lottie, she would be able to take over all the creations by herself.

Natalia and the other two just needed to sit there and listen to her arrangement. It was really troublesome.

"I want a high pitch to end this part, and at the same time, add Jessica's rap. Natalia's high pitch is an advantage, so I plan to give this part to Natalia. Do you have any opinions?"

After Lottie finished speaking, she immediately repeated it to Jessica in English, ensuring that the communication would go smoothly.

Natalia couldn't help but applaud for her, and Jessica directly gave her a hug in agreement. Everyone looked at Violet again. Violet was stunned, and then clapped her hands.

Lottie's mouth was dry when she said that. She swallowed and said, "Don't worry, it's still the beginning version. We can practice while changing. If everyone feels that it's not appropriate, we can think of another way."

There was only a week to practice, and Jessica still had to practice Chinese hard. It was not easy to rehearse the dance after they finished singing.

No one had any objections to Lottie's words.

After the four of them finished their meeting, it was already very late. Seeing that everyone looked very tired, Lottie didn't ask them to continue practicing.

Instead, she asked them to go back and rest first.

Only by recovering their spirit could they finish the work quickly.

The four of them walked to the dormitory together. Because the classes had been separated, the dormitory had to move again.

There were three rooms for class "A", which could hold three people. Class "B" was a four-person room, Class "C" was the six-person room, Class "D" and "E" held 8 persons, and Class "F" only had one room, in which more than a dozen people lived together.

When Lottie and other contestants returned, their names were already posted on the door of the room.

Lottie discovered that Natalia didn't live in the same room as her. On the contrary, Lottie, Violet, and Rose lived in the same room.

Natalia, Jessica, and another contestant of Class "A", who she was not familiar with, lived together.

Towards Natalia not living with her, Lottie was still worried.

"Why don't I find the director and ask him to arrange for us to be together?"

However, Natalia shook her head. "There's no need. I heard that all the rooms were randomly chosen by the program group. It's fair now. If you want to change rooms, it won't be good."

Although that was the case, Lottie was still worried that Natalia would be in danger.

Natalia was amused by Lottie. "Don't worry, I'm already an adult. I can't take good care of myself."

"Don't worry, I'm not a fool. I've seen many tricks in the entertainment industry. Besides, didn't Jessica accompany me?"

After spending the whole afternoon and night together, Jessica and Natalia had become familiar with each other, and now they had become good friends.

Since Natalia had said so, Lottie had no choice but to agree.

Mr.

Chapman was a gentleman, he usually wouldn't keep an eye on a girl's dormitory like this. So if anything happened in the dormitory, Natalia had to solve it by herself.

Fortunately, Lottie had a high-tech watch made of Elijah, so there shouldn't be any danger.

After everyone parted at the door of the dormitory, Lottie carried her luggage to her own dormitory.

The layout of the dormitory was like "loft bed with desk". It was very similar to the layout in college, but the decoration here were more exquisite. The equipment and so on were all newly changed, and there was a lot of space.

When Lottie entered the room, she found a suitcase by the bedside by the window. There were also some cosmetics on the table. It was obvious that it belonged to Rose.

Lottie shrugged and said to Violet, "There are still two seats left. You can choose first."

Violet shook her head and said in a low voice, "You go first."

Lottie was speechless.

For some reason, she felt that Violet was mocking her.

If it weren't for the lack of hostility in Violet's eyes, Lottie would have thought that she didn't like her.

Lottie thought for a moment. The door was very close to the switch, and it was easy to wake her up when she went in and out of the door. She was not the kind of person who was greedy for enjoyment, so she carried her luggage to the bed at the door.

Violet stared at Lottie with a complicated expression in her eyes.

Seeing that Violet was standing still, Lottie couldn't help but ask, "What's wrong? Do you want to sleep here?"

Violet didn't answer. She just looked at Lottie and asked coldly, "Lottie, are you too kind?"

Lottie was very confused.

She didn't understand why Violet suddenly scolded her.

Lottie was so angry that she laughed.

She put her luggage aside and asked directly, "Violet, do you have any objections to me?"

Violet probably didn't expect Lottie to be so direct. She was stunned for a moment before saying, "No."

"Really?" Lottie was skeptical.

Just as she was about to have a deep conversation with Violet, a commotion came from the door. It was Rose who had pushed the door open and walked in.

"You're back." There was a gentle smile in Rose's voice. "I didn't see you move in before, so I thought you were going to apply for a change of dormitory."

Lottie glanced at the camera on the table and smiled.

"You don't feel uncomfortable being with me, neither do I."

Rose was momentarily at a loss for words.

Lottie laughed as she said, "I'm quite satisfied with this arrangement anyway. If you want to change your dormitory, you can bring it up earlier. I can also move to your bed."

"Speaking of which, your bed is indeed very good. You came back so early to put things in order to take a good bed, right? In fact, it's not necessary. We are in the same dormitory. If you want to sleep inside, we will give you a seat."

"Is that so, Violet?"

Violet was taken aback by this intimate address. She couldn't help but take another look at Lottie before nodding gently.

"Yes."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 475

Seriously? Are You A victim?

Lottie had only said this on purpose to disgust Rose.

However, she hadn't expected Violet to be so cooperative. On the contrary, it caused Lottie to be stunned.

Rose was so angry that her eyes turned red. Of course, she could tell that Lottie had been mocking her on purpose, and that she had thought that Lottie and Violet had bullied her together. She didn't dare to say anything else, afraid that she would be mocked again.

Rose silently packed up her things and went to wash up. After washing up, she took her things and walked out. It seemed that she was planning to go outside.

Lottie didn't want to talk to Rose either. She had been tired for the whole day. After taking a shower, she lay on the bed and used her watch to send a message to Ralph and her three children.

She had missed Ralph so much after leaving him for just one day.

She thought of his voice, his embrace, and his gentle and doting look when he hugged her.

And her three children. She didn't know if they ate on time, went to school obediently, and watched her performance in front of the monitor.

Lottie's eyes turned red as she thought about it.

At this moment, Ralph's message finally came back.

Ralph: Baby, your performance today is so great!

Ralph: You're perfect. We miss you so much. When you perform, I'll take the babies to watch your performance.

Looking at these simple lines of words, Lottie was especially touched and couldn't help but smile.

With the support of her family, she was not afraid of any hardships.

She also replied to Ralph, "I'm a little tired today, but I'm very satisfied. I just miss you very much."

After receiving this reply, Mr. Chapman almost immediately wanted to take his wife home.

Ralph had changed his clothes and even got the car keys. However, when he passed by the living room, he gave up and sat on the sofa in the living room, lost in thought.

After a while, Elijah came down in his pajamas, walked around the living room, and finally sat down beside Ralph.

Then came the Fabian . The three of them sat side by side in a row, holding their chins and looking in the direction of the kitchen.

In the past, Lottie had been busy there. She would make delicious dishes. During the cooking period, she would sweetly call their names and wait for them to go over to feed them.

Just as the father and the sons were immersed in their own thoughts, Stella, who was wearing her princess nightdress, rubbed her eyes and went downstairs with a doll in her hand.

This doll was personally made by Lottie, and she had also personally made several sets of clothes for the doll, allowing Stella to change to play.

Stella held the doll tightly and slowly walked to Ralph.

"Daddy, I miss Mommy so much."

Mommy had only been gone for a day. She had seen her mommy on the computer screen during the day, but she still missed her very much.

It was rare for Fabian not to dislike Stella. She echoed, "I miss Mommy too."

Elijah was silent. He turned to look at Ralph and asked, "Daddy, do you miss Mommy?"

Ralph picked up Stella and placed it on his thigh. Then, he reached out to rub his two sons' heads.

"I miss her more than you do."

"But there's nothing we can do. That is Mommy's dream. We can only support her."

Stella held back her tears. "When Mommy comes back, I will cherish the time with her!"

"Me too!"

"We are all the same."

Ralph was very touched. Lottie and her three children were gifts from the heavens. He had to protect and cherish them.

"Tomorrow, Dad will tear down the wall in the living room and make a huge display screen. Then we can watch Mommy rehearse together, okay?"

In order to make the children not miss their mommy too much, Ralph gave them ideas.

"Okay!" Stella was the first to answer.

Elijah nodded.

Fabian had no objection.

The four of them stayed in the living room for a long time.

It was not until Stella yawned that Ralph carried her upstairs.

"It's time to sleep. If you don't sleep well, Mommy will be worried."

Ralph's words had convinced the children.

Elijah and Fabian went back to their own rooms to sleep. Ralph sent Stella back to her princess room and covered her with the quilt. Then, he told her a bedtime story. Stella held her doll and soon fell asleep.

"Good night, darling."

Ralph gently closed the door and returned to his room. He changed his clothes into pajamas and finally couldn't help but connect the camera closest to Lottie. He looked at her quiet sleeping face in the picture, and his eyes were filled with tenderness.

"Good night, wife."

A night passed quietly.

Lottie woke up very early. After washing up lightly, she put on her clothes and ran out.

After running around the dormitory twice, Lottie practiced her basic skills according to her previous habits and prepared to go back to the dormitory to change clothes.

However, as soon as she entered the door, she heard an annoying voice coming from inside.

"Why do you look like you're bullying me? It was you who deliberately dirtied my clothes, but you became the victim."

Lottie frowned. She pushed open the door and walked in, only to find that the room was in a mess. Her originally neat and clean bed was now full of oil. Someone deliberately knocked over a bowl of soy milk on her bed.

Not far away, Eve's clothes were also a little dirty.

She shouted at Violet.

Judging from Eve's words, it seemed that Eve had bumped into Violet at the door when she brought breakfast over to Rose. Violet had deliberately bumped into Eve, so Eve didn't hold her breakfast firmly and smashed it directly into Lottie's bed.

As a result, Eve's clothes were stained with stains.

Lottie was very angry. She turned to look at Violet and asked, "Who did it?"

Violet remained silent.

Eve continued, "Who else did it? Were you deaf just now? It was Violet who hit me on purpose. Not only did I lose my breakfast, but I also wasted my clothes. Do you know how expensive my clothes are? You can't afford it even if I sell them."

Eve had obviously said the last sentence to Violet.

Violet's clothes were simple, and they were not famous brands. Fortunately, they were clean and comfortable.

Lottie didn't think that she should be laughed at for her poor family background. She didn't think that there was anything to be proud of for Eve to bully other contestants because of her good family background.

Lottie turned to look at Eve and said coldly, "Have you said enough?"

Eve was stunned, and then she scolded, "Do you have a problem? I didn't do anything to make your bed like this, and I am also a victim!"

"What kind of victim are you? Have you read the rules of the dormitory? You are not allowed to enter other people's dormitory without permission; you are not allowed to bring food to the dormitory to eat. You broke the rules yourself, and you want to push all the blame to others. How shameless are you?"

Lottie didn't stand on ceremony with Eve at all. She directly pointed out her mistakes and did not care about the live camera.

"You dirtied my bed. Not only did you not apologize, but your attitude is also so arrogant and bad. You don't have any family education at all. What qualifications do you have to laugh at others?"

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 476

Everyone, Let's Stop the Quarrel

The quarrel in the dormitory attracted everyone in the next dormitory.

Rose saw that Eve was rendered speechless by Lottie's counting, so she quickly took a step forward.

"Lottie, Eve wanted to send me something to eat because she saw that I wasn't feeling well. I'm really sorry to dirty your bed. If you don't mind, I'll let you sleep in my bed."

Rose's eyes were red, and her face was flushed. She didn't seem to be in good spirits.

Now that Rose had apologized to Lottie in a low voice and given her a solution, coupled with the fact that she had pretended to be pitiful last night, everyone sympathized with her.

The contestants helped to persuade them.

"Lottie, forget it. Eve probably didn't do it on purpose."

"Yes, it's just a small accident. They probably don't want to do this."

"Eve's clothes are also dirty. Violet is also in the wrong about this. Why don't we let them wash the sheets for you?"

"Rose is still ill. She said that she wanted to give the bed to you."

Lottie's gaze swept across the crowd. "Rose, who is pretending to be wronged with her head lowered, and Violet, who is standing silently by the side. Eve, who is faintly pleased with herself."

She suddenly laughed.

At this moment, Natalia squeezed through the crowd and asked, "What's wrong?"

She first glanced at Lottie and found that she was fine. She let out a sigh of relief. Then, Natalia saw the messy bed and couldn't help but scream.

Lottie gave Natalia a comforting look as she stared at Rose.

"You want to give me the bed?"

Rose pressed her forehead and pretended to be uncomfortable. "If you don't mind, I can give it to you."

"I mind."

Rose was speechless.

Lottie ignored her and looked sharply at Eve.

"You did it on purpose, didn't you?"

Eve was stimulated by Lottie's gaze and immediately denied it. "How is that possible? Everything was an accident!"

Natalia could not help but help, How could there be such a coincidence? Do you think we are stupid?

"It's none of your business. Besides, it's just a quilt. I'll pay for it!"

Lottie sneered. "Are you sure?"

"Although I didn't do it on purpose, I will talk to the director group to help you change into a new quilt.

As for whether the director group would agree or not, it was another question.

Eve had already communicated with the staff in charge of the dormitory last night. She believed that the director team would also refuse this request.

However, Lottie said, "This set of bedding isn't something that can be easily changed."

Everyone's gaze was focused on Lottie, and they were all very curious.

Lottie laughed coldly. "This set of bedding is made of top-quality silk. Its material is the most resistant to the smell of oil. It can't be cleaned or washed. Usually, when it's dirty, it has to be sent to someone to deal with it. My husband was afraid that I couldn't sleep well outside, so he specially went abroad to make it. It's worth seven million yuan."

A trace of panic flashed across Eve's eyes. "Come on, you're exaggerating. Who knows if you're lying?"

No matter how rich a person was, who would spend millions to buy a set of bedding products and use them in the dormitory?

Besides, how could Ralph have done this for her?

It must be Lottie bragging.

The contestants who were watching the show were also surprised and began to discuss with the people around them about the authenticity of Lottie's words.

"You ruined the sheet with a bowl of soy milk, but you not only didn't apologize, but also said that I lied?"

"Don't tell me I don't care about the several-million-yuan bedding? If you think I'm lying, then let's go to the director now and ask him to call my husband. Then he will show you the receipt."

Lottie looked straight at Eve.

Eve's face turned pale. Although her family was rich, it was not to this extent.

Her parents usually gave her pocket money very generously, but compared with ordinary people, it was at most hundreds of thousands of yuan a month. Occasionally, they would give her more money, which was about one million yuan.

However, Lottie said that her blanket cost millions.

Eve turned to look at Rose, wanting her to come up with an idea.

Rose shook her head at Eve, indicating that she shouldn't go against Lottie and apologize first.

Eve gritted her teeth and said nothing.

Natalia watched from the side. At first, she was quite confused. She thought that Sean went to the shopping mall to buy the sheets.

One set of that only costed 3999 yuan, two sets with a discount, and seven thousand yuan to buy it. Where did these seven digits come from?

She looked at Lottie hesitantly, only to see her suddenly blinking at her.

Natalia knew what was going on. She deliberately said to Eve, "I heard that your family is also very rich and well-informed. You should be able to see the value of these things. Just now, you said you wanted to pay for them. Are you going to default?"

Eve didn't expect it to be so expensive. She was regretting it now.

She felt that Lottie must be lying, but she was a little uncertain when she saw that she was so sure that she wanted Ralph to give her the receipt.

When everyone was embarrassed, they heard Lottie say, "Yesterday I embarrassed you, but today you dirtied my bed. Are you taking revenge on me on purpose?"

When Eve's thoughts were exposed, she immediately became like a furious female cat. "I didn't!"

Natalia sneered. "Look at your expression. You look guilty and afraid. Don't you look like you don't have it?"

Eve hated Natalia so much that she scolded, "What does it have to do with you? Stop meddling in other people's business!"

Natalia smiled and said, "Lottie is my good friend. Even Rose can plead for you, why can't I help her expose your true colors?"

Seeing this, Rose immediately coughed a few times. Pretending to be very weak, she stepped forward and said, "Everyone, stop arguing.

Rose felt troublesome as well. She had wanted to teach Lottie a lesson, but the other contestants had all spoken up for her. She had thought that this matter would cause Lottie to suffer a loss. She hadn't expected her things to be so expensive.

It was indeed a little unreasonable for such an expensive thing to think about it with just a few words of apology.

But they didn't want to lose money.

Not to mention that they didn't have money, even if they had money, they didn't want to pay for it.

After thinking for a while, Rose came up with a good idea.

"I'm really sorry."

Rose took a few steps towards Lottie, looking as if she wanted to say something. However, before she could finish her sentence, she leaned to the side and threw herself directly at her.

Lottie was startled and couldn't help but take a step back.

Without anyone supporting her, Rose fell to the ground.

"Boom!" Her forehead slammed into Lottie's bed.

Rose almost cried out in pain. She gritted her teeth and pretended to faint.

Eve was also stunned, and then she quickly reacted and immediately shouted to help her.

"Rose! What's wrong with you, Rose?"

Tears welled up in Eve's eyes. As she sent someone to look for the director, she glared angrily at Lottie and Natalia.

"Rose isn't in good health to begin with, but you've always been so aggressive. Do you really want to drive away all those who pose a threat to you?" .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 477 No One Can Bully His Wife

Rose's sudden dizziness shocked the program group.

The director immediately asked the staff to send her to the hospital for treatment first.

They had just started the variety show, so they could not spread rumors that they abused the contestants. Otherwise, how could the show continue smoothly and be complained by fans?

Meanwhile, the sky-high price of Lottie's bed sheet had ended because Rose had fainted.

However, the reprimand that Eve had said after Rose fainted had entered the hearts of quite a few people, causing the competitors who had been close to Lottie to suddenly keep a distance from her.

Although Lottie had promised to introduce resources to them, who knew if she would fulfill her promise? If everyone took part in the show, they would be competitors. It was better to do what they should do first and move forward with their own efforts. Only then would they feel more at ease.

For a time, the contestants in the manor were not so impetuous. Instead, they began to practice desperately.

There were even a few groups of contestants who were crazily training because they were defending Rose against injustice. They swore to suppress the limelight of Lottie's group in their first public performance.

The difficulty of Lottie's group's song selection had already spread throughout the program group. The contestants all felt that this was a good opportunity to take advantage of this opportunity to suppress Lottie.

In such an environment, Lottie's group training had also begun.

"Yesterday, I told you to remember the lyrics of your part. Did you remember them all?"

Natalia and Violet both agreed that there was no problem with Lottie's inquiry. Only Jessica blinked his big blue eyes and looked pitifully at her.

Lottie sighed. "It doesn't matter. Anyway, I haven't finished the lyrics yet, and this song has to be composed again. I plan to adapt this song first today, and then we will come back to practice the dance slowly."

"Lottie, is there anything we can do for you?"

Natalia couldn't bear to see Lottie working alone.

Lottie didn't have any intention of showing off. She nodded. "Of course."

Natalia knew a lot of musical instruments, so she could give an opinion when she composed the song. Lottie asked her to try to add some creative ideas into the song first. Then it was Jessica, who was very good at singing. The lyrics that belonged to her were handed over to her. As for Violet.

Lottie looked Lena's dejected expression. She didn't know what Violet was good at either.

She asked, "Violet, can you help me modify the lyrics?"

Violet stared fixedly at Lottie for a long while before finally nodding.

Lottie heaved a sigh of relief and clapped her hands. "Everyone, cheer up. I heard that there are many outstanding fighters in the other groups. This means that we have to work harder to catch up with them. Come on!"

The other three said, "Come on!"

Everyone separated and went to do their own things.

Violet stayed because she wanted to cooperate with Lottie's work.

"Let's think of a topic first and set the tone of this song."

The two of them found a seat in the corner of the practice room and sat down. Lottie immediately began to discuss with Violet.

"This song is not suitable for ancient music style. We can consider the ballad style, but the pattern is not good enough. First of all, we need to open up the pattern of this song."

Just as Lottie was thinking about how to adapt, Violet's gaze on her gradually turned strange.

Lottie felt Violet's gaze and frowned as she looked at her.

"What's wrong?"

"Would you not scold me?"

"Why should I scold you?"

Lottie was speechless.

Violet frowned and reminded her, "About the sheets."

Lottie paused for a moment before smiling. "I know you didn't do it on purpose, but Eve tricked me. I won't blame you."

"But your stuff is broken, and it's so expensive."

She had thought that Lottie would receive compensation from Eve, but after Rose had pretended to faint, the matter had come to an end.

When Lottie brought up the matter of compensation at this time, it seemed that Lottie had no sympathy for her.

Lottie didn't lack money anyway.

Violet also felt that she had been framed, but she did accidentally bump into Eve, so she felt guilty.

She had been waiting for Lottie to reprimand her and then join forces with her teammates to push her out.

However, Lottie's attitude towards her was the same as usual. She even stepped forward to protect Eve and the others.

Violet had never experienced such treatment before.

Therefore, she was shocked and uneasy.

"It doesn't matter. Don't take it to heart."

However, Lottie didn't seem to care at all. She comforted Violet with a smile, "This matter can't just go on like this. A vicious person must pay the price he deserves."

Violet was puzzled.

She didn't understand. Then should she still be responsible for Lottie?

"Do you know who my husband is?" Lottie suddenly asked.

Violet felt very speechless. Everyone knew that the news had basically spread.

Mr. Chapman doted on Lottie very much and even went to negotiate with the program group, making them tremble with fear. They held a meeting all night and came up with various ways to make up for it.

Lottie blinked mischievously. "With him around, I definitely won't let myself suffer."

Violet was speechless.

Damn it, it turned out to be showing off their love.

"Don't worry, we're all on the same side. As long as you don't have any bad intentions toward me, I'll be able to protect you."

Lottie's words were very domineering, but they warmed Violet's heart.

Violet finally reacted.

She snatched the lyrics from Lottie's hands.

"Leave the adapted songs to me."

Lottie was also stunned. "What did you mean?"

"I graduated from the Capital School of Music and can get a scholarship every year. It should be enough to adapt this song to you."

After all, they were all in Class "A", and Violet's strength was not weak.

In addition to her surprise, Lottie was finally gratified.

Although Violet still had a cold expression on her face, she understood that she had already opened her heart to herself.

The news that Rose had been sent to the hospital for medical treatment had also spread as the group's applications were carried out enthusiastically.

This caused a lot of netizens to guess why she fainted. Some related staff had leaked the news that Rose had fainted because she had been bullied by the contestants.

As soon as the news spread, the whole Internet was shocked and asked the program group to respond and give an explanation.

In such a tense atmosphere, Ralph realized that the situation was abnormal.

After letting Elijah find out what had happened, Ralph angrily rushed to the program group with his subordinates.

Since his wife said that it was a sky-high bed sheet, then the bed sheet was a sky-high price.

It was inconvenient for his wife to be too aggressive, so he would negotiate for his wife.

In short, no one could bully his wife! .

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 478 Eve Can't Stay Anymore

When Ralph threw a pile of receipts, purchase certificates, and even the high-quality reports issued by experts in front of the director, the director was so scared that he didn't dare to breathe.

Seeing this, the director scenarist hurried out to smooth things over. "Mr. Chapman, please calm down first."

"Today's matter is really a misunderstanding. We've all asked about it."

Seeing Ralph's cold eyes and trying to make up for the program group and the contestants, the director scenarist was so scared that she broke out in a cold sweat.

It had to be said that Mr. Chapman's momentum was too strong.

Just one look was enough to make people feel infinite pressure.

How terrifying!

Ralph did not say anything but signaled for his assistant behind him.

Sean nodded slightly and stepped forward, saying, "Whether it's an accident or not, Mrs. Chapman is a complete victim. She didn't do anything wrong. She shouldn't have been used by you, and even become a tool for other contestants to advance!"

"Assistant Holland, why did you say that?" The director asked while wiping his sweat.

Sean had been prepared. He printed a pile of fake news on the Internet and threw it directly in front of the director.

"Look at it yourself!"

The director still didn't know that Rose had been hospitalized. When he saw the unreal news, his eyes turned red with anger.

"Who spread all this?"

"Where's the assistant director? Didn't I tell you to block the news? Go and find him for me!"

The director was still very dignified in front of his subordinates.

After a while, the assistant director ran over in fright.

"Director, I've already sent someone to investigate. We must find out who leaked the news and spread rumors!"

"What's the point of finding out? This matter has been spread out! It has a great impact on the contestants and the program group! How do you bear this loss?"

The assistant director shivered. He knew that the director was going to take the blame himself.

However, there was nothing he could do. Ralph was right in front of him. He would not stop until he gave an explanation.

However, what everyone was curious about was why Mr. Chapman's news was always faster. Was he paying too much attention to his wife or the program group?

Maybe there was someone he had arranged in the program?

If the assistant director could think of something, so could the director. Both of them became nervous at the same time.

Ralph didn't want to see the two directors cooperate with each other.

Their acting skills were too bad.

Ralph glanced at Sean again.

Sean said, "You don't have to check. We've found the evidence for you."

Sean took out another pile of evidence. This time, it was a surveillance video, as well as the phone recording of Eve and the staff.

In the recording, they could clearly hear that this was Eve's scheme. She was going to teach Lottie a lesson, but Eve had asked the staff to cooperate with her not to report this matter and to make her suffer losses.

Eve also promised the staff that as long as they helped her drive Lottie out of the program group, she would repay them with 200,000 yuan.

After listening to the whole recording group, everyone was angry.

"How could such a thing happen!"

"Eve is too shameless. She used money to buy people's hearts. After the incident, she was questioned and even tried to frame Lottie!"

"Director, Eve should be eliminated!"

His subordinates gave the director advice and asked him to fire Eve.

When other players tried their best to practice and defeat their opponents with their strength, Eve's mind was full of schemes.

From the very beginning, Eve had been in trouble. Now that her family members had come to her door, it was really unreasonable not to give her an explanation.

Moreover, Eve's own strength was not enough. When she signed up for the show, it caused a group of ridicule on the Internet, and Eve's memes were still spreading.

They might as well fire Eve and give Ralph an explanation.

The director also knew this, but he received the benefits from Eve's father in private. It was not 200,000 yuan, but a total of five million yuan!

Mr.

Smith wanted to buy a debut for Eve with five million yuan, and the director himself agreed.

If the director fired Eve at this time, all the money he collected would be in vain.

Five million yuan was not a small amount for ordinary people. The director's heart was bleeding.

"We can't make such an arbitrary decision."

The director's face stiffened. He looked at Ralph and squeezed out a sentence from his teeth.

"Go and call Eve and the dormitory administrator over. I want them to confront each other on the spot!"

The director thought that this was his last chance for Eve. He hoped that Eve could think of a way to get rid of herself.

The assistant director immediately went down to call for help, while Ralph sat aside coldly, waiting for this group of people to act.

Since he was here today, he would not leave so easily. As long as the director wanted to protect Eve, he had a way to replace the director and his team.

Because the dormitory keeper had been in the program group, she was soon brought here. Eve, on the other hand, had gone to the hospital with Rose. The assistant director had called her to inform her to return to the show immediately. It would still take a lot of time on the way back.

Eve didn't want to come back too soon. The longer she and Rose stayed in the hospital, the more unfavorable public opinion would be for Lottie. Eve had already thought about how to make the news that "Lottie bullied the contestants" spread quickly on the Internet.

The assistant director had to tell Eve everything.

"If you don't come back to apologize, you will be kicked out of the program!"

The assistant director said these harsh words and immediately hung up the phone.

If Eve still couldn't recognize reality, then they had to give up on her.

Sure enough, Eve panicked when she heard that. She immediately turned to Rose, who was lying on the bed, for help.

Rose was also a ruthless person. In order to frame Lottie, she had forced herself to take a cold shower last night and blow under the air conditioner all night, turning herself into a high fever.

Rose hadn't eaten anything since she lost weight yesterday, so she was exhausted. That was why she could act so well today, and no one could find her flaws.

Even the doctor cursed inwardly when he saw Rose's condition. Just what kind of fate had caused such a glamorous girl to become so haggard? How unfair was this?

At this moment, Rose was hanging an intravenous drip bag. Perhaps there were sleeping pills in the medicine, Rose's mental state was very poor. If it weren't for the hatred she felt for Lottie, she would have long fallen asleep.

Originally, she had wanted to faint on Lottie's body. If Lottie pushed her away, she would be able to take advantage of the situation to plot against her. Even if Lottie didn't push her away, she would still disgust her.

However, Rose hadn't expected that Lottie would dodge directly. Thus, she slammed into the bed pole and a big bump appeared on her forehead, almost making her disfigured!

Rose bit her lower lip and sneered. "I'll teach you a good idea."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 479 It's all the Chapman Family's fault!

When Eve arrived at the program group, it was already an hour later.

Eve was terrified when she saw that Ralph was there as well. At the same time, she heaved a sigh of relief in her heart.

Fortunately, she had listened to Rose and made preparations in advance. Otherwise, she would have been doomed this time.

"Director, what can I do for you? Rose needs someone to take care of her."

While no one spoke, Eve started complaining. Rose had said that this was the first move.

However, the director was angry and scolded, "What do you think I'm looking for? You know what you've done!"

"I can't understand what you said. What did I do?"

Eve glanced at Ralph and said with a cold smile, "Could it be because of that accident in the morning? Even Mr. Chapman was alerted. Lottie is really delicate. She complained to her family about a trivial matter."

"By the way, I remember that the program group has said that when you enter the manor, you are not allowed to use your mobile phone, let alone contact outsiders. Why does Mr. Chapman always run so hard? The news is really timely. Did he hide his mobile phone?"

This time, Eve said that Lottie had contacted outsiders privately and violated the rules of the program group.

The director had wanted to get even with her, but Eve made him speechless.

"Don't talk nonsense! Mr. Chapman naturally has his own way to understand these things. And don't make trouble. What we want to say now is your business!"

"Nonsense? What a joke. I still remember that when Yoyo had an accident, Mr. Chapman appeared on the big screen in time and cooperated with Lottie to expose Yoyo. So many people at the scene saw it. I shouldn't be talking nonsense, right?"

Eve's eyes were full of anger because her momentum was so strong that she blocked the director's words.

The director looked at Ralph helplessly.

Ralph sneered in his heart. He knew that someone must have given Eve ideas. Otherwise, she would not have thought of this.

"As the biggest investor of the show, I should be qualified to pay attention to the recording progress, right?"

Ralph asked slowly with a ruthless look in his eyes.

"Besides, you've spread the news that Rose is hospitalized all over the Internet.

It's hard for me not to notice it. Am I right, Miss Smith?"

Eve panicked when she heard the truth. She avoided Ralph's gaze and did not dare to look into his eyes.

"When I learned that there were contestants in the show that were hospitalized, I rushed over to learn about the incident. I thought that Rose had really been assaulted, but I didn't expect that the person who was punished in the end would actually be my wife."

Ralph had a smile on his face, but the smile made people shudder.

Eve's face paled slightly and she didn't dare to reply.

Ralph glanced at Sean, who immediately threw all the information he found to Eve.

"Miss Smith, you maliciously spread rumors about the contestants behind their backs, and even bribed the staff to frame other contestants. The monitoring and phone recording are in front of you, and the housekeeper has admitted that he has accepted your bribe. The witness and material evidence are all here. What else do you have to say now?"

Before Eve came, Ralph asked the housekeeper first.

The other party was afraid of Ralph's imposing manner and was afraid of punishment, so he naturally told him everything.

Eve knew that at this point, if she didn't save herself, she would be doomed.

Eve calmed down and said, "I admit that I don't like Lottie, and I want to find someone to teach her a lesson."

Seeing that Ralph's pressure was getting lower and lower, she quickly added, "But I didn't bully her. What happened this morning was purely an accident."

Sean sneered: "You can make up such a lie?"

"The dorm supervisor and I met in private, and the recording only said that we wanted to punish Lottie. The original plan was to secretly pour water into her bed at night. In that case, the dorm supervisor wouldn't have to deal with this matter in the middle of the night."

"I just wanted to teach Lottie a lesson.

Ralph's heart was filled with resentment. How could his wife sleep with the poured water on the bed in the middle of the night?

How dare she say that she didn't want to do anything to Lottie?

Ralph wanted to break Eve's neck.

Eve was still trying to explain herself. "But that's just our plan. It's still not night yet, and we haven't had time to do anything yet. What an accident this morning. Rose is really sick. I can't care about anything else."

"You can't blame me for what I haven't done, can you?"

Ralph was extremely angry. He took a step forward and was about to get angry when he was stopped by Sean.

Sean shook his head at Ralph.

Although Eve's explanation was forced, it could barely make sense.

If they hadn't punished Eve because of this, they would make Mrs. Chapman being criticized.

Ralph clenched his fists. He had no choice but to endure for the sake of Lottie.

After comforting Ralph, Sean looked coldly at Eve. "Why do you hate Lottie and want to harm her secretly? Don't you think you've gone too far?"

Eve heaved a sigh of relief when she saw Ralph retreating.

It wasn't that she wasn't afraid just now, but fortunately, everything had gone according to what Rose had said.

Eve pretended to be cold.

"I hate Lottie because they're targeting us first."

Ralph couldn't stand it anymore. Eve was quite good at pretending to be innocent.

"Why did Lottie and the others target you? They're in Class "A", and you're in Class "C". What's the point of her targeting you?"

Being criticized by Ralph in such a cold tone, Eve's eyes turned red with jealousy, but she didn't dare to retort loudly. She just sneered and said, "She's targeting me not because of me, but because of Rose."

Ralph frowned. He had a bad feeling.

The director next to her scolded, "Nonsense. Lottie is straightforward and dares to love and hate her. She is not the kind of person who will target her opponent!"

Although there was a suspicion that the director was trying to please Ralph, it was the director's true intention.

He had watched the recording during this period of time and knew that Lottie was a very upright person.

Whether it was the selection of songs or the division, Lottie didn't make things difficult for the other contestants. After that, she even took the initiative to bring everyone to complete the application of songs.

"She's targeting Rose not only because she's an opponent, but more importantly, her existence is a huge scandal for the Chapman family!"

The bad premonition came true. Ralph frowned and scolded, "Shut up!"

Eve, on the other hand, refused to shut her mouth. Rose had told her everything she wanted to say, so she had to speak it out in public.

"Why should I shut up? Is it because you are guilty?"

After questioning her, Eve looked at the director and said, "You all know that Rose's surname is Chapman, right? That's because she's also a family member of the Chapman Family! She's the daughter of Ank, the eldest uncle of the Chapman family! Ank forced Rose's mother to have sex with her, and only then did they have Rose!"

"It's all the Chapman Family's fault!"

After Eve finished speaking, the crowd fell silent. It was obvious that they were all shocked.

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 480 The Truth Previously Before

Rose's identity had never been revealed to the public.

On the day of the negotiation between Ralph and Lancy, Lancy and Kayden talked for a long time. In the end, Lancy was sent out by Kayden to travel around the country.

Ralph didn't have time to cause trouble for Rose either.

As for Lancy's departure and the divorce agreement signed by her for Ank, Ank was very uneasy.

Ank thought that Lancy would make a big scene and make the scene ugly. He could take the opportunity to ask Ralph and Mr. Old Chapman for some benefits.

However, before he could do anything, Lancy had already gone abroad.

Ank went to the hospital several times to ask Kayden for help to persuade Lancy, but he was ridiculed by Kayden, so he knew that Kayden would not help him.

Ank wanted to ask Mr. Old Chapman for help again, but Mr. Old Chapman went abroad to recuperate on the grounds of poor health. Moreover, it was arranged by Aiden. Ank could do nothing about it.

In the end, Ank didn't get anything, and his wife and son had left him. His heart was filled with hatred, and he didn't have the time to respond to Rose.

Ralph had originally wanted to use Rose as a pawn to lure Lincoln out, but he hadn't expected that before he could make a decision, Rose would reveal her identity as a victim.

Ralph felt disgusted.

Ank was indeed wrong at that time. He was disloyal to his wife, heartless to Kayden, and unfilial to Mr. Old Chapman. It was not wrong to say that he was a scumbag.

But then again, both sides were responsible.

Back then, Ank had indeed made a mistake, but that was also because Rose's mother had seduced her first.

When it came to the culprit, Rose's birth mother couldn't help but be implicated.

However, in Eve's words, the culprit had become a victim who had been forced to do so.

Even the daughter of a mistress like Rose could become the object of sympathy in everyone's eyes.

How ironic!

"Rose hasn't seen her father since she was a child, and because she didn't have a father, she was bullied by her classmates. If it weren't for the fact that she was outstanding enough and hard-working enough, she wouldn't have grown up like this. Perhaps she would have been killed by school violence a long time ago."

"The Chapman family is aware of all of this. Not only did they fail to bring Rose back to the Chapman family, but they also acquiesced in the bullying of their mother and daughter. They are also Kayden's children.

Kayden is powerful in the entertainment industry, but Rose has to work hard."

"It's not easy for Rose to make it this far with her own efforts. Natalia and Lottie, the two insiders, are using their status to suppress her. Why?"

Eve's face was full of dissatisfaction. Tears welled up in her eyes and her tone was exceptionally forceful, as if she was truly defending Rose against injustice.

The staff beside her were also agitated by her words and looked at the expressionless Ralph with complicated eyes.

"The Chapman Family is too cold-blooded."

"Can you do whatever you want just because you have money? I didn't expect Rose's family background to be so rough. She and her mother are both pitiful."

"Ank is so abominable! He forced someone to have a relationship with him. Isn't that just rape?"

"Is there any justice? Why didn't Rose's mother call the police?"

"It's not like you don't know that the Chapman Family is very powerful. It's useless to call the police."

"It's just that Rose's pitiful."

"If Natalia and Lottie truly knew of Rose's background, but didn't say anything, and instead wanted to join forces to suppress her, that would be too much."

"Hush! Mr. Chapman is still here. You don't want to live anymore. How dare you speak ill of his wife?"

Ralph heard all these discussions.

Sean saw Ralph's expression and could not help but take a step forward. "Mr. Chapman, are you alright?"

Ralph pinched his nose and shook his head slowly.

Originally, Ralph had wanted to save some face for Rose. After all, she could barely be considered a member of the Chapman family.

Now it seemed that he was too kind before.

"Sean, get ready. I will hold a press conference in half an hour."

"Okay."

Sean did not ask for a reason, but arranged it very efficiently.

Eve felt bad. Perhaps things weren't as simple as she thought.

"What do you want to do?"

Eve pretended to be flustered.

Ralph glanced at Eve indifferently and smiled. "Didn't you say that our Chapman family is cold-blooded? Didn't you say that we didn't say anything about Rose?"

"Then you'd better watch carefully. I'll let you know what is true cold-blooded!"

Eve's face turned pale and she had a bad feeling.

This premonition was verified half an hour later.

Under everyone's gazes, Ralph faced the tens of high-profile cameras that had been temporarily summoned to attend the press conference. He announced word by word solemnly, "Rose is indeed my big brother Ank's illegitimate daughter."

"Her existence is not what everyone thinks."

"There is no coercion or rape. The truth is far worse than everyone expected."

Ralph nodded at Sean.

Sean understood and put the prepared evidence on the huge electronic screen behind him one by one.

If Lottie was here, she should be able to recognize. At that time, on this electronic screen, Ralph had identified Yoyo's crime.

The press conference was held directly on the stage of the show hall.

Not only the media but also the netizens who had heard the news were excited.

With tens of millions of netizens as witnesses, the truth of that year was revealed one by one in front of everyone.

Rose's birth mother was Sherry Cole. Twenty years ago, she was still in college, and the conditions at home weren't very good.

Relying on her beautiful face, Sherry had been lazy since she was a child. At the age of thirteen, she knew how to play tricks. She asked the male classmates in her class to treat her warmly and give her gifts and money. At the age of fifteen, she had sex with the school tyrant and even had a child.

In such a rural area, Sherry's pregnancy was not kept a secret and was quickly discovered by her classmates. She directly told the teacher-in-charge. In the end, this teacher-in-charge wasn't a good person either. He didn't inform Sherry's parents and instead used them as evidence to approach Sherry.

The teacher-in-charge threatened Sherry to be with him. Just as Sherry was about to get rid of the school tyrant, she agreed.

The teacher-in-charge gave Sherry a sum of money so that she could have a miscarriage. He then used his connections to help Sherry transfer to another school and privately tutored her. In the end, Sherry was admitted to a third-tier university.

At the early stage of college, Sherry and her teacher-in-charge still maintained that unhealthy relationship, but after seeing the prosperity of the city, Sherry became even more unrestrained.

As she played with the teacher-in-charge, she made a lot of boyfriends.

Yes, she had so many boyfriends.

Probably because she had tasted the benefits from her teacher-in-charge, Sherry became increasingly dissatisfied with only being with a man. .
