

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - / Chapter 691 Only if your brother says so

Lottie slept beautifully. Unbeknownst to her, while she was asleep, something big happened next door. I don't know who reported Jeremy for engaging in feudal superstition and spreading cult ideas, and a police officer came to the hotel that night. Jeremy was directly taken away by the police for investigation, and the "gurus" around him also suffered. In the end, although it was confirmed that he was not to the extent of spreading cult ideas, he was inevitably criticized and taught a lesson, and was also asked by the police to write a review and post it online. Jeremy only feel that today's face are about to lose, but under the gaze of the police, the light of the righteous will be his point of courage are scared out of the shadow, obediently do as the police asked. Even Jeremy's fans didn't expect that their brother, who looks so "righteous", would actually seek fortune telling and feng shui from a Taoist priest in private, so grounded and sand-carved. His powder circle also set off a storm, part of the people feel that he is not the same as the persona, directly off the powder; there is a part of the people but feel that he has a contrast, more die-hard for him. But at the end of the day, it's still more powder that falls off, because fans feel really ashamed to engage in feudal superstition to the police station. It's hard not to be angry when his fans, who also pride themselves on their low profile and look down on Alfred's fans, are now being slapped in the face by the rightful owner. Of course, these are still small things, and when Jeremy was warned and criticized, and sent out a Twitter review to apologize, and later was picked up by the hastily arrived lan back to the hotel, but received an angry news. The hotel declined Jeremy's check-in and checked him out directly. Jeremy was furious and questioned the manager as to why he was doing this. The hotel manager looked at him with an apologetic gaze, "I'm sorry Mr. Huff, because your not-so-sensible behavior was reported by the other guests en masse, we had to do this in consideration of the majority of people's stay experience." Accidentally, many stars in the hotel found his behavior of engaging in feudal superstition so absurd that they were ashamed to stay with him in the same hotel, so they complained collectively.

Live in the hotel are stars, casually spit a few words online, the hotel to suffer a huge storm. For the sake of their own reputation, the hotel finally had to risk offending Jeremy and make such treatment. As soon as Jeremy heard the manager's words, his face darkened. There are many people in the entertainment industry who engage in feudal superstition, and he is not the only one. Only he did it a little more blatantly. Let the hotel staff check it out, they're sure to find a lot of these people!ignant, but dare not ny people at once, he had a hard time to tuan not be because of a sat it goes Jeremy regretted beyond's woman in the end, even Mr. Chapman to Ian, "Ian, even if it's for me, you are my problem, and there is no evidence against another conflict with Lottie, but see Jeremy said so seriously, I don't want me to help you do his hand, said that, he thought better of it and said I shouldn't be for them to leave before E.

"He really said that?" Inside the presidential suite, Ralph's eyes lowered as he looked at the papers in his hands, his tone slow. Edward nodded his head repeatedly. "I can't see that this Jeremy is quite sensible and will actually help you talk to Lottie." Ralph, however, snorted, "He's speaking for us? He's clearly afraid of attracting further trouble!" Such a bold, but also dare to provoke Lottie, but also to Lottie's head to throw dirty water, also do not know how this Jeremy is actually thinking. Edward forked a piece of watermelon with his fork, not forgetting to ask Ralph: "So the plan after that, do you want to implement it again? I see that this kid is quite sensible, let him lose so much face, he did not think of revenge." But Ralph sank his face: "It's too cheap to let him off like this." Dare to molest Lottie, but also bite back to plant evidence, such a person will be what good people? He will concede, purely because he can not afford to mess with Ralph, if it were someone else, there is no guarantee that he would not continue to bully others. This kind of bullying villain, only let him lose some face and let go, it does not appear that he is too kind. Edward choked for a moment: "Really want to do this ah? If his behavior is exposed, Jeremy may really not be able to mix in the entertainment industry, and you are not afraid of the dog jumping to the wall?" Ralph frowned, "Put away your unnecessary sympathy." Edward closed his mouth and didn't say anything, but his expression was clearly disapproving. Ralph continued, "If he hadn't met Lottie, who would have fought back, then Jeremy would have gotten his hands on him. Edward looked stunned. "Instead of sympathizing with an abuser, it would be better to eradicate him as a tumor sooner than for him to continue to plague others. A dog can't change his ways, unless he gets his momentum pulled, you know?" The words with a few bloody gas, Edward is thoroughly understood Ralph's meaning. Ralph to deal with Jeremy, but also more than for Lottie out of anger, but also in order to make the entertainment industry less victims, but also less tragedy.

Tragedies like Helen's are better avoided if they can be. Edward stood up in awe: "I see." "Then what are you waiting for here?" Edward jumped off the couch and immediately said, "I'll get on it now!" Before Edward left, Ralph suddenly called out to him. "If Jeremy hadn't gotten horny himself, then your plan wouldn't have worked at all. So, put away your useless sympathy and don't feel guilty about setting someone up." Jeremy's melon was too fresh and reversed enough. The internet made so much noise that it actually silenced the news of Lottie's suspected disfigurement briefly. Jeremy's career hit rock bottom and at first he didn't make the connection with Ralph, just thought he was unlucky to have kicked a hard one. It was not until Merle came to him, and he was a good analysis, he understood that he was experiencing a fairy jump, and the person who designed him, except Ralph do not think otherwise. "Ralph!" gritted Jeremy's teeth. Wasn't it just an attempt to molest his wife and then a failed attempt? As for being so driven to extinction, this is to completely cut off his future ah! Merle has also suffered the loss of Lottie and Ralph, he has three artists, except Harleen, the other two were screwed by them, Merle is also hated! "We can't sit around like this!" Merle said, "If you don't do something, your future is really over!" Jeremy was deflated, "What else can I do now." His image is completely overturned, open the network is overwhelmed with curses, fans also all kinds of off powder. The most important thing is that all the resources he has on hand have fallen out, even the films he is making have sent him a termination letter, and he is now without even a job. I have to say, Mr. Chapman is Mr. Chapman, he has to deal with a person, basically is bloodless. "There's so much more that can be done!" Merle has been in the entertainment industry for a long time and is familiar with some of the tactics. "What it comes down to with you is still love of fun. It's not like you're forcing anyone else, and this time it's just a misunderstanding that's caused." Jeremy froze: "Misunderstanding?"

"It is a misunderstanding!" Merle clapped, "You have no feet in two boats, much less cheating on a married woman, normal men and women express their likes, and did not break the law!" "So, later on, you send a tweet to apologize solemnly with the female artist tonight, and say that you drank too much to create a misunderstanding, and did not mean to make a move on her.

"As for the ones your fan posted, don't admit it. I will send a lawyer's letter for you, just say that that fan is an illegitimate rice, she loves you but can't get it, that's why she fabricated those to ruin you." Jeremy's jaw dropped as he listened, never imagining that he could turn black and white upside down like that. thisyou really want to just boursenued to speak: "The big deal is not to appeafare, and so the word of mouth Merle's comment, "Can you I say." "Lottie's face is really fine and will recover after a while. She is now highly visible and commercially valuable, and she fits well with the tone of your products, I guarantee you will never find such a suitable spokesperson again!" Connie wasted no time in selling to advertisers, bragging about Lottie's rainbow farts. Of course, Connie doesn't think these are rainbow farts, they're facts! When Lottie's face is healed, there will be these people regret. The person in charge heard Connie's words, but snorted a laugh. "The previous Lottie and our products match I admit, but in the future well" "he laughed, then said: "Since her face is fine, is it possible to arrange for her to come and shoot a commercial to prove it? " Connie's face was ugly, and how could she not hear the mockery in the other party's words, and held back her anger and said, "She has a small injury on her face, and the doctor said she would recover in about ten days. She can't touch cosmetics yet, so why don't we wait ten days before we shoot the commercial?" The person in charge laughed dryly twice: "About ten days? Who knows if she will have another accident after waiting for ten days? Do you think our company is some kind of charity company?" Connie frowned and tried to explain, the other party held out a hand towards Connie, stopping her from continuing. "Needless to say, the termination of the contract is a prudent consideration for our company. To be honest, Ms. Green is not very cost-effective. The cost of having her as a spokesperson is enough for me to hire several artists of the same caliber." "Even if her face is really fine, we can't afford to use her. Please go back to your home, Agent Fu Da, and I hope we will have the opportunity to work together next time!" Connie held her breath and was furious when she heard such an unforgiving comment from the other side.

"What's not cost effective? Not when you started begging and pleading for Lottie to endorse you? In addition to being an artist, Lottie is also the wife of Mr. Chapman, the wife of the richest man in Rexwell!" "When she first announced her endorsement, the sales of your company's products directly tripled! It's not the time when you were licking your face and sending out good news? Why didn't you say it was expensive at that time, but now you say you can't afford it anymore.

"Also, connoting our Lottie's face, when she heals, I won't work with you again even if you beg me on your knees! Shameless villain, wait for retribution!" Connie was furious and disliked the person, then turned around and left without giving the other person a look anymore. Connie then went to see the heads of the two advertisers and got the same response. Connie was so angry that she was shaking all over and turned around without saying a word. By the time she returned to the hotel and approached Lottie, she was on the verge of losing control of her full-body anger. "What's wrong?" Lottie had just finished breakfast and was hesitant to go to the set to study when she saw her best friend appear in a murderous mood and was busy welcoming her. aw her, she f her a hug before asking Lottie said, "You wanted to hesitantly telling Lottie about the calmly said: "Business cooperation is origi cost-effective, you don't youe a laugh, "And thewhich was true, but Connie didn'tks and smiled, "It's just Mr. Chapman's ere's no need to get angry felt cool when Lottie saw Ralph's expression change afterwards and rushed to reassure him. "It's not a waste, I can go to the set to observe everyone filming and gain experience." "The experience accumulated as a martial arts substitute before is not enough ah, your acting skills are obviously already very good." Connie screams on Lottie's behalf. Lottie shook her head and said seriously, "There is no end to learning." Connie and Ralph looked at each other, neither could do anything about her. "To go to study also do not have to rush, you are still injured, first rest in the hotel for two days, but also give the crew two more days to adjust." Lottie is curious and asks Ralph, "Adjust what?" "There are always problems with the cast and crew group, what if they continue to have problems in the future, I asked Javion to get me a charter to ensure the safety of the actors." Actor safety does need to be taken seriously, the crew is estimated to be in disarray these two days and Lottie doesn't want to appear to add to the burden of the crew and director. After thinking about it, I agreed to rest at the hotel. Ralph and Connie both breathed a sigh of relief. Lottie tells Ralph to go back to work while she and Connie talk some more. Unable to resist her, Ralph finally went back to his study. Connie looked at Ralph's back with eyes full of envy: "Mr. Chapman is so good to you." Lottie laughed and teased her, "Envious? Envy you also find a, I see Alfred is good

.. "I suddenly remembered that I still have things to take care of, and I have to go over to keep an eye on the crew side, so I'll leave first." Connie still looked like she was running away, grabbed her bag and ran. Lottie couldn't help but laugh at her like this. Staying at the hotel was too boring, but when the three babies saw the news and called, Lottie's motherly love came into play and she went to her room to bond with the babies. As soon as Ralph returned to the study, the expression on his face changed.

Sitting in front of the computer, I googled some news and immediately understood what Lottie was trying to hide from him just now. "A bunch of profit-oriented things." Ralph snickered and took out his cell phone to call Sean. "Come back when Jessica's side is settled." Sean was excited, and he had wanted to return to his home country for a long time. "Yes, Mr. Chapman, I'll buy the tickets!" Transferring his right-hand man back, Ralph didn't forget to contact his newly promoted subordinates. ch's daughter, and also showed Nancy's phother side aspect to bst as Rich's daughter rty years old, is it like her, to give me as a little mother is finegainst my dad? Ralph learned that Lottie was going live and spontaneously gave up his study. Connie took Zack and set up the equipment in the den, with a group of assistants on hand, waiting to come up and give Lottie a hand later. Lottie, seeing the mess made in the study, is a little uncomfortable and goes to apologize to Ralph. Ralph is also not busy with work today, watching Lottie live on the side, but also called HowardSean, so that Howard will be next to watch Sean control the live room speech, will make up for it. Lottie couldn't resist persuading him to go back to work when she saw him accompanying her. "Work is not as important as you." Ralph couldn't resist circling the person into his arms. Lottie's face is red, when how many people are greasy, she is a bit not very good. "A little nervous." She started to pout, and Ralph held her and coaxed her. "Why would you be nervous? We didn't have stage fright when Lottie was recording the show." "Because you are." Ralph's heart sweetened when he heard this answer. "You're nervous because I'm watching?" Lottie nodded and discussed with him, "Don't watch from the side later, okay?" "How can I do that? I'm going to stand guard and see if anyone bullies you." Lottie said, but did not persuade, and finally had to puff and puff to sit under the camera. Connie adjusted the lighting and looked at the filters in the live room, thinking that it would be better to use filters than not to use them, Lottie herself is good enough, no need for those strange filters to help at all. So I turned off the filter and asked Lottie again, "Is it okay to leave your face open like this?" Lottie shakes her head. In order to convince netizens that she did not have plastic surgery, Lottie simply removed the gauze from her face.

In the past two days, she has been careful to avoid eating and has been applying medicine on time, and the wound has started to scab over. Four centimeters of mouth, just below the eyelid, in addition to scabs, the wound is surrounded by a bruised red piece, which shows how dangerous the accident was. She is still plain today, but her hair is tidied up, the whole person looks good, despite the scar on her face, but still very beautiful. Connie finally understood that beauty battle damage is still beauty, ordinary people simply do not have to compare. She even secretly thought that Lottie's state, even if she was a vegetarian, would be better than Harleen's girl's temperament! Lottie this time live, no one else to help hype the topic. She didn't even mention Ralph during the live broadcast, just explained very casually. Lottie thought she didn't have any explosive points, but still ended up in many hot searches. #Lottie live, #Lottie face, #Lottie shooting injury, #Lottie actor by trade, #Lottie photos, #Lottie not worth bragging about The hot searches are all related to Lottie herself, followed by no other names. In other words, the billion-dollar fever is completely supported by Lottie herself. Advertisers saw the heat on Lottie and the terrible effect she was causing, and couldn't help but start looking at her influence head on. As for those directors who read the hot search, after knowing that she is so good in acting and so serious and responsible, they also sent letters of intent to work with her. Connie was so excited, although she thought she was going to squash Harleen's hotness, she didn't expect to win so completely, and she didn't expect Lottie's popularity to be this high after all this time. Although Lottie's Weibo followers have just surpassed 10 million, she has indeed become the "top stream" of the moment. While Connie was hugging Lottie and getting excited, Sean had the live stats up. The number of people watching online broke 50 million, the maximum number of people online at the same time reached 35 million, the live heat broke 100 million, and the number of pop-ups exceeded 10 million! When Sean sent the data to Ralph, Ralph looked at it for a long time, proud of Lottie, but at the same time, there was also a faint melancholy inside. Wife popularity is high, and the number of people grabbing wives with him has become more. It's sad.

But he didn't show it. He took the roses and cake that he had prepared from Sean's phone and mentioned it to Lottie. "Congratulations." Lottie took the flowers in surprise, "Again?"

"The flowers before were a confession, now they are a celebration." "Celebrate what." "Broken record, and you proved yourself with strength, you're really good." Lottie was a little shy and hugged the flowers to thank him. Ralph simply took the person into his arms and kissed them in front of everyone. There was a lot of uproar. On this side, the atmosphere on the set crew let Natalia know it is very hard, and do not have the heart to tell all, as the day Alfred, even if high up, but also down and out, although the crew does not deal with Kayden after the shooting, there is to send some food and drink to the crew to get them in the news and has become a bit of Harleen, even say derogatory things to a number of people badmouthing Natalia's affairs being ostracized by the crew,

Things were moving too fast and Rich was not expecting it. He was still kissing Nancy on the first foot, and then suddenly he lost his reputation and was invited to tea by the police. If the lawyer he hired wasn't still somewhat useful, Rich would have gone straight in and not even had a chance to sneak away. He came out of the police station after taking a statement, even his daughter did not see a side, and rushed to Nancy, originally intended to give her a sum of money to send abroad, and so to avoid the headache of this period. But to my surprise, I ran into Nancy running away with the money. Seeing Nancy's coded box and her evasive eyes, what else didn't Rich understand. Immediately stepped forward and slapped Nancy across the face. "Bitch, how dare you betray me!" Rich this person, very macho, but also about righteousness, life most hate others betrayal. He also thoroughly understands that Nancy, no matter how much she looks like his wife, is not his wife. The actor is after all an actor, how can you expect her to be like your wife and stay with you? Thinking about it, the last bit of pity he had for Nancy was gone. Swinging his fist, he rushed up and punched and kicked Nancy. "Damn, I even offended the surname Qin for you, now he is so whole, after the future can still come out are two say, you fucking give me money to run away, you really have the ability!" Nancy was dumbfounded at first, the first time she had ever met a man who hit her so hard! It was a complete beating of her to death! Nancy has a spirited nature, and a special idea, even Merle dare to threaten, it is not a quiet master. When they come back to their senses, they naturally start to resist. "Did I ask you to help me? Before all said not to involve you, you yourself to go out of this head!" "I've been slept with by you, isn't it right to take some money from you?" "If it weren't for the money, who would want to be with you! Rude and unpleasant thing, the sight of your face turns my stomach!"

When Rich saw that she still dared to resist, he became even more angry, and hearing her speak so unpleasantly, the hatred in his heart rolled over and could not be eliminated. It is such a bitch that caused him to plant and may have to break his family in the future. And his daughter, may also have to follow the disaster. Rich stormed up, punch after punch, until Nancy completely whacked over, which can only be subsided. Rich was accompanied by follower and saw him stop moving before he dared to come over and ask, "Mr. Greg, what's next?" Rich's chest kept rising and falling, because of the action just now, a sweat, fat face vaguely white, but it seems that his eyes arer and snd ID card are being held, only the last tethingry he is, his contacts are broken, the o man, if I can not run, he al'm going to dancy, who was passed out on the floor. "Where to?" Seeing Ralph going out, Lottie frowned and went up to ask. Thinking about Ian's attitude toward Lottie, Ralph paused and said, "A little work to take care of." "To meet a client?" "Hmm." Ralph's face was a little less natural, mainly because Lottie's eyes were slightly sharper. After a long silence, Lottie went over to him and hugged him. "Go ahead, I happen to be going out to work today as well." Ralph was surprised: "Going to the shoot?" Lottie pointed to the wound on her face and said helplessly, "I can't shoot the movie for now, but I have a magazine interview to take, and it just so happens that their studio is in Ohioland." "Will someone accompany you?" At this moment, Mr. Chapman did not want to go to see Ian, or spend time with his wife is more important. Lottie felt his concern for her and let out a soft smile, "Yes, don't worry, Connie and Zack are with me." Ralph frowned, "Take Edward with you." In case of any accidents, he can still come in handy. Lottie helpless, "There are still several bodyguards, I just go to the interview, no need to do anything." So no injuries either. Ralph, however, insisted: "Bring him along, he's been idle at the hotel lately anyway." "Okay." Ralph came over and kissed her, adding, "Send me a message when you're done working, and I'll pick you up.

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - / Chapter 700 I've been tricked by Rich

Rich's anger kept burning when he thought of the frozen property, and the confiscated RV. He stepped forward and raised the stick in his hand, intending to give him a few more sticks to relieve his anger, but was stopped by the follower on the side. "Mr. Greg, it's not a good time to move him." Rich gave the follower a hostile cross look. the follower advised, "Mr. Greg, have you forgotten our plan? He will wake up in a few minutes, so the show will be ready, and you want him to lose his reputation, right?" Rich's eyes were furious: "I just want him to die!" "Mr. Greg, he died, his estate will be left to his wife to inherit. lottie if find out the truth, will deal with your daughter, even if not for yourself, but also for her to think more ah!" "Ralph didn't come alone, his men are expected to come after us soon, and although we intercepted Ralph's text messages, it's not a long-term solution." "You are now even if you are investigated, you have a period of time, and you will be out after a few years of imprisonment. If you really do kill someone, the result will be different!" The follower's bitter words finally put Rich off the idea of killing Ralph, but the hatred in Rich's heart is growing deeper and deeper, waiting for the day to explode later. Just then, Ralph in the bed suddenly moved, with the intention of waking up. Rich and the follower looked at each other, and the two men quickly stripped Ralph's top off before throwing the man onto the bed. Rich walked over to Nancy, ripped the tape off her mouth, and threatened in a low voice: "If you dare to talk nonsense, I'll kill your whole family." Nancy shook her head in fear, and Rich then hid in the closet with the follower.

the follower took the intercom and said something, and within a few moments, there was a knock at the outer door. "Mr. Chapman, are you there?" "Mr. Chapman!" "Bang Bang Bang."

Ralph was finally woken up, covered his forehead and sat up from the bed, his first reaction was to check his body. He noticed that he was not wearing a shirt, his face was astonished, he hurriedly took his shirt to put it on, but saw Nancy on the other side.
