Chapter 191: The Power Of The [Garden Guardian Commander] & [Frost Fairy Princess] Temporary Titles!

Titan's flowers bloomed as they transformed, merging with his bark and turning into an incredible and colorful armor. He suddenly gained a gigantic spear made of colorful metal and his body emanated a rainbow aura.

Ding!

[You have assigned the compatible [Player: Titan] as your temporary [Garden Guardian Commander]!]

"T-This is... Some sort of temporary Job Class?!" He asked. As he felt as if he gained several new Skills.

"Well, thanks, Planta! I'll use it right away!"

Titan immediately charged forward, and as if they heard his call, many of the flowers in this expansive garden also awakened, they were all adorable little flower soldiers, raising their arms and marching onwards!

Suddenly, I heard the voice of the frustrated Snake Queen in the distance.

"Another army?! Just how many little critters can you summon?!" She roared. "Well, no matter, my children are plenty! And I'll lay more and more eggs if it means I can destroy you! Not even Players are absent from death!"

"SHAAAAA!"

The wounded giant snake roared furiously, swinging his tail around and crushing the last Fairies I had summoned. However, alongside Titan and his Garden Army, there was Nieve! It was interesting what had happened to her, but because she was present here, it didn't mean I couldn't summon her Spiritual Projection.

However, what had happened wasn't as if two of hers fought together, but it was even more amazing, as her Spiritual Projection had merged with her body and transformed her! Her clothes became more lustrous, her hair longer and clear blue in color, and her eyes shone bright gold as her fairy wings grew three times their original size, showing rainbow arura borealis from within.

And her rapier grew twice as long as well, resembling more like a spear, imbued with the primordial power of the element of ice which was the latent talent of her heart. It felt strange, but it was also as if she had been assigned a "Role" within the Fairy Army!

Ding!

[NPC: Nieve] has met the requirements and has been temporarily granted the power of the [Frost Fairy Princess] Title!]

She not only acquired a temporal title but all her stats almost tripled. Not only that, but her ice powers multiplied and she was able to command or enchant the fairy spirits I had summoned, and even summon them herself to an extent, lessening my pressure!

"Come, my friends! Let's do this!" She roared heroically, as she brought more fairy spirits with her. They were different this time as they were wearing ice armor and weapons! These Fairy Spirit classes were [Winter Knights] and [Winter Witches]!

FLUOOSH!

Combining their strength, a wave of cold suddenly hit the fourth and most wounded of the four giant snakes beginning to freeze part of its body instantly! However, the beast struggled as it moved its body furiously, only opening the way for Nieve to strike!

Her long rapier moved majestically as her butterfly wings unleashed bright and beautiful aurora borealis from within, freezing her surroundings.

"I can feel this power... Planta has done so much for me, the least I can do is to repay her favor with my strength! Ice Rapier Arts: Frozen Rose Garden!"

FLAAASH!

Suddenly, a pseudo domain emerged around Nieve as everything within the snake's surroundings turned into a beautiful garden made out of rose-shaped ice, and then, Nieve emerged as countless clones of herself made of Ice Essence, flashing through the entire snake and slashing its entire body consecutively!

SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLASH!

The Horned Giant Snake's HP began to plummet to zero in mere seconds, as a last and powerful attack coming from Nieve was unleashed!

"Perish!"

SLAAAASH!

With that last slash, not only the snake was turned into a frozen statue, but its entire body began to shatter and crack into pieces, crumbling into the ground!

CRASH!

It was... amazing!

Countless notifications of the defeated snakes began to emerge one after the other in front of me as we were seemingly beginning to finally turn the stakes to our favor! But not only due to my help, but the help of the Fairies we helped before. It was as if they were all repaying their favor to us!

"Nieve took down the giant snake!"

"She did it!"

"But there are three more..."

The fairies were feeling slightly dispirited, but Nieve flew without hesitation, expanding the ice she was summoning through her overflowing new powers and quickly beginning to freeze part of the body of a second Giant Snake, this one having a third eye in the middle of its forehead.

"Everyone, don't falter! We can do this!" She roared, quickly rising everyone's morale.

SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLASH!

Her powerful rapier attacks began to reach the third-eyed Giant Snake consecutively. Each attack was growing stronger as enormous wounds were left over the titanic body of the monster.

"SHAAAA!"

However, it was stronger than the previous one. It quickly unleashed magic, as countless magic circles emerged one after the other, unleashing a downpour of projectiles made of Poison Magic, falling over Nieve and the other fairies fighting it!

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The Poisonous Projectiles hit the ground as well, exploding into small pools of miasmic poison that began to infect my own Health Soil Tiles, converting them back into Miasmic Swamp Tiles! Was this also the Snake Queen's plan?

"D-Damn it...!" Nieve roared, suddenly generating large mirror shields made of ice around her which helped her block the hits, as she unleashed slashing attacks using her rapier to intercept the poison and freeze it before it would spread in our Terrain.

FLAAASH!

However, a large Poison Projectile was suddenly directed my way while I was concentrated enhancing our Terrain and my allies.

"Ah!"

"Watch out!"

FLASH!

Suddenly, out of nowhere, a large black hole emerged before me, easily swallowing away the Poison Projectile and sending it away elsewhere. This was Rita's magic!

"Achlys!" I said as I found her right at my side. She was suddenly conjuring several of these strange spells one after the other.

"You need to be more careful, dummy!" She reprimanded me.

"But what with that overpowered spell?" I asked in surprise.

"I don't think I would had been able to conjure it before if it wasn't because this Terrain is enhancing my Darkness Magic... It is called Black Void Portal!"

Brand New Life Online: Rise Of The Goddess Of Harvest

Chapter 192: Against Three Bosses At Once!

"Black Void Portal is a super high-level spell around Level 6, but this buff in this dungeon allowed me to use a lot of magic I wasn't able to use for now...!" Said Rita. "Mostly because it reduces their MP Cost."

"Woow! This Spell is super insane, you're teleporting away all the poison projectiles!" I said in shock.

"Yeah, it only works with non-living things though, but it is sure handy at deviating enemy attacks... And I've got this as well! Nightmare, onwards!" She said, as her horse quickly began rushing towards the three-eyed Giant Snake.

"Shadow... Control!"

FLUOSH!

Suddenly, a sphere of pure Malice was unleashed from within Rita's powers, as it flew towards the Giant Snake with three eyes and impacted it! But it didn't deal directly damage, it took control of the snake's Shadows and began to manipulate them.

"Let's see...!"

"SHAAAAA!"

The three eyed Giant Snake immediately realized there was something wrong going on in here, as the shadows of its own began to take over its entire body, entangling it completely and without letting it properly fight. Although its magic was still firing just as usual.

"GRYSHA!"

The other two Giant Snakes noticed another of their siblings being struggling, as they attempted to free him from its shackles.

However...!

"You Shall Not Pass!"

A giant made of wood and covered in armor emerged before them, with an army of dozens of Garden Knights. His enormous arms grew thrice their size, as they suddenly punched a snake in the gut!

BOOOM!

"SHAAAA...!"

CLAAASH!

The giant suddenly fell down into the ground, rolling around.

"This power is incredible, my Strength Stat tripled!" Said Titan. "And with this new weapon...!"

Titan quickly ran forward, holding into his new Spear as the Garden Knights around him suddenly flew directly towards the snake, hitting it with their small weapons and suddenly exploding into flowers over the beast!

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

"SHAAAA...!"

Dozens of wounds began to spread over the Giant Snake that had tried to help the three-eyed one, as these flowers quickly began turning red, absorbing the snake's blood and weakening at the same time. The monster's HP was plummeting!

"Now!"

Titan roared, bringing forth six of his Beast Spirits of several different elements, who all unleashed elemental attacks against the Snake, impacting it constantly and leaving enormous wounds all across the beast.

However, he was not done yet!

Titan infused his Mana into the spear he had been given, as his bark seemed to merge with this mysterious magical weapon, enlarging it into a gigantic spear made to pierce the heavens themselves!

"Nature's... RAGE!"

CLAAAASHHH!!!

The gigantic spear pierced through the snake's entire body, reaching the other side, and impaling the monster! Blood quickly sprayed out like a fountain, as more and more red roses began to grow over the monster's body. Its HP has finally reached 50% and was slowly pummeling down more and more. Titan was able to hold it back!

However, there were three Giant Snakes, while one was dealt with Titan, the other trapped by Rita's magic, there was a third one which was being constantly dealt with by Acorn and the Mushroom Brigade, alongside my Summons and Tamed Monsters. They were all ganging on it. However, the monster's HP was absurdly high, so it was getting incredibly hard to hold it back for so long as they were doing!

"SHAAA!"

The snake roared furiously as it was tired of Acorn and the Alchemist Mushroom's bombs, quickly hitting the floor furiously and generating earthquakes that made them lose balance. The Giant Snake jumped forward and directly... towards me?!

"SHAAAAAAAAA!!!"

"Fine! Come at me then! Earth Wall!"

TRUUUMMM...!

I formed several Earth Walls in front of the gigantic, twenty-meter-big snake with a head as big as a car, the gigantic beast impacted the Earth Walls and easily broke them down, but the hit alone still made the monster lose some HP, while giving me the time to evade its attack.

"GRYSHAAA!"

The Snake furiously looked at me once more, leaping towards my direction and opening its jaws. Suddenly, a concentrate of Mana emerged from within its jaws, as a deadly Poison Attribute Breath

Attack similar to the Breath of Dragons was unleashed, purple flames of the poison attribute suddenly began to cover me!

"Spiritual Shield!"

FLUOOOSSSHHH!

The Spiritual Shield I had Leveled up to Level 10 was working wonders to protect me from damage, as I confidently nodded. I couldn't bring the power of Spirits anymore in this area except the fairies, which were already fighting the Giant Snake that Rita had trapped. I had to take this down myself so I don't have to bother everyone else dealing with the others!

Or at the very least, distract it enough time for the rest of my party to reach me and assist me with their strength!

I shapeshifted my weapon into a Scythe shape and then quickly imbued Mana and Spiritual Energy into it, unleashing the powerful attack using the [Farming Tool Usage] Skill!

SLASH!

A gigantic wave of green and golden aura emerged from my weapon, devastating the swamps and turning them into Healthy Soil in front of me, while the Snake, too big to evade, ended taking the hit head on!

BOOOOM!!!

"GRUOOOHHHHH...!"

The snake gave out an agonizing scream as its entire body was covered on the spiritual essence of harvest and nature, suddenly, roots, branches, flowers, and vines began to grow out of its various wounds, beginning to sap away its life through my [Life Drain] Skill!

Maybe I can Solo a Boss on my own now?!

"GRUOR!"

BAAAM!!!

Suddenly, interrupting my dreams, the Giant Snake hit the ground furiously, shattering the Terrain I was creating as poison began to emerge from the cracks, devouring away my source of strength.

"Wait! Don't do that!"

I quickly flew using [Spiritual Leap], which I was able to conjure without Wind Spirits but that ended costing more MP, and reached above the snake, pointing my weapon at the beast as I shapeshifted the weapon into a Shovel!

"HYAAAAA!"

My shovel began to shine bright gold, resembling a falling star crashing against the Giant Snake's head, pushing the beast down into the ground!

BOOOOMMM!

Chapter 193: Intense Battle!

"GRRRR...!"

The Snake roared at me furiously, but its body was completely left almost destroyed. Its HP was already below 5%, and it was on death's door. I slowly moved towards the monster, as I considered if it could be better to make it my tamed monster...

"Do you want to join me?" I wondered.

"GRRRAAAH!"

However, the furious snake seemed to have no reason at all, as its red eyes shone bright crimson in color like a furious berserk. The monster's body suddenly attempted to move so it could kill me, opening its jaws and letting out a cloud of purple and poisonous smoke.

Of course, my Spiritual Shield protected me.

"Ugh, it's no use with you guys... Then...! Wooden Shield, Plant Manipulation, and Plant Boost!"

Combining these three Spells together, I invoked several shields made of wood around the snake, manipulated them and shaped them into sharp spears, enhanced them so they could deal more damage, and then pierced the snake's entire body with them!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLAAASH!

"SHAAAAA...!"

The snake gave out a last defeating cry, as its entire body quickly exploded into particles of light.

POOF!

"Phew, I really beat it on my own..." I sighed in relief.

"You've really grown stronger!" Said the Guide Spirit. "I have to admit it..."

"You think?!" I wondered with a happy smile.

"Well, more importantly, there's two more of those, so go help everyone else!" He said angrily, as if it wasn't him who ended distracting me.

"Okay but don't be so annoying out of nowhere!" I sighed, as I quickly invoked Belle to my side and mounted over her back. "Let's go, Belle!"

"Meeee!"

I used [Spiritual Leap] once more, as me and Belle suddenly jumped through the airs and reached the second Giant Snake, the one that was being trapped by Rita! Interestingly enough, she wasn't able to deal strong enough damage for the three-eyed Giant Snake to be able to die yet, most likely because these monsters resisted the Darkness element and took less damage from her magic, even after being boosted.

"Damn it this thing is super tough or is my magic weak?!" Rita or well, Achlys, angrily said, as she was suddenly shaken by the attack of the snake. Its third eye suddenly shone bright red, unleashing a beam directly at her!

BAAAM!

Her Darkness Spirits tried to protect her and take part of the damage but she ended still being greatly affected!

"Agh!"

Rita fell down into the floor and rolled there, her Nightmare and her little Arachne protected her from the smaller snakes but her HP was already below 10% she was going to die soon! And she also lacked healing spells and only had Health Potions which she seems to have been chugging on for a while.

"SHAAA!"

CRASH!

The three-eyed Giant Snake freed itself from Achlys's Shadow Manipulation Spell and quickly moved towards her to finish her off in the best way possible, by crushing her with its enormous size!

"Damn it!"

BOOOOMMM!!!

"Nooo!"

I ran towards her as fast as possible, but she got crushed! If she dies here, she can't revive back inside the dungeon and will have to wait outside. Without having her as a valuable party member everything will become way harder!

"SHAAA...?!"

However, out of nowhere, Rita suddenly jumped out of the shadows of the Giant Snake, which quickly realized this! She survived!

It seems that she had used the [Shadow Step] Spell to merge into the darkness and escape just in time, but this completely drained every little bit of MP left with her.

However, this time, I was there to protect her!

"SHAAA!"

The three-eyed Giant Snake furiously attacked us as she spotted both me and Rita still not dead. Its third eye shone brightly once more, as I created several Spiritual Shield Barriers in layers of up to ten!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH!

The enormous beam that emerged from the Giant Snake's third eye began breaking them all. This laser was truly deadly! However, it wasn't enough at the end, as we survived with barely two Spiritual Shield Barriers still up.

"P-Planta..." Achlys muttered, as she looked at me. Not only was she at almost zero HP and zero MP, but her Status was [Paralyzed]. That beam that came from the eye of the Giant Snake was probably something that provoked a status ailment.

"Don't worry, I am here for you, bestie!"

I quickly healed her wounds using my Recovery Magic such as [Verdant Recovery Light] and [Recovery Antidote Sap], but the Paralysis had yet to be completely dissipated, so I took out some of the Paralysis Curing Potions I made back then when we first explored the Mushroom Dungeon and gave one to her.

"Here, drink this!"

"Ah... you still got these potions?!"

"Just drink it!"

"Ugh..."

Achlys reluctantly drank the potion, as the furious three-eyed Snake readied itself for another beam attack, concentrating its Mana into its third eye!

"SHAAA- GRAH?!"

CLAAASH!

However, out of nowhere, a blazing arrow hit the beast third eye, as blood began spraying out of the gigantic eye! It was Hunter, our Archer and Mushroom Brigade member!

"Lady Planta, we are back!" Said Hunter, who had gone through hundreds of smaller snakes alongside Sporegon, Magius, Alice, and Acorn.

"What about Titan?!" I asked, looking behind them as I saw Mark unleashing all his power against the other Giant Snake.

"Sir Titan said that he'll hold into the beast for as long as he can, we must trust him!" Sporegon roared, unleashing his Swordsmanship Arts alongside Mimy, who resembled a black knight clad in rusty armor.

"Mimyyy!" Mimy roared as well, as she swung her powerful sword alongside Sporegon, the two resembled real knights!

"Dual Swordsmanship Arts: Blade Dance!"

Sporegon roared, as he and Mimy suddenly synchronized their movements almost masterfully, slashing through the entire face of the three-eyed Giant Snake and leaving dozens of slashing wounds over its entire face!

SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLASH!

"SHAAAAA...!"

The Giant Snake agonized, suddenly trying to move back due to the constant attacks!

This was our chance to finish it off!

Brand New Life Online: Rise Of The Goddess Of Harvest

Chapter 194: Defeating The Last Of The Three

"Gryshishishiii~!"

Suddenly, I heard the typical laughter of my Plant Companion, the tricky Loki, as she suddenly dug underground and emerged right below the formerly three-eyed Giant Snake, invoking dozens of long and hard as steel vines, entangling the Giant Snake's tail and stopping its movements barely!

POOOF!

And then, Loki quickly unleashed her [Spray] Skill, releasing poisonous and paralyzing pollen that actually affected the Giant Snake by a bit! Perhaps because her poison is made out by a plant and not by a monster? Well, whatever was the case, she got it!

"MEEEEEE!!!"

Belle charged furiously as well, unleashing her truest [Berserk Mode] combined with her [Aura] and various other Skills. Her Goat Horns suddenly grew three times their original size and were covered by a golden aura, as she headbutted the Snake furiously! I could even see her eyes shining bright red in berserk anger!

CLAAAASH!

"GRAAAKKHHH...!"

The three-eyed Giant Snake felt as if it was about to vomit what it ate earlier, as it received a full hit into its guts, most likely!

BAAAM!

The beast rolled over the floor once more. This time, too weak to even retaliate properly, moving its body around viciously and trying to slap us with its tail desperately, but it was too late now.

"Wooden Shield, Plant Manipulation, Plant Boost!"

I once more unleashed my offensive combination of low-level Spells, as spears of wood shaped themselves from the wooden shields that appeared out of the ground, piercing the enormous snake's body from all sides. Boosted in damage dealt thanks to Plant Boost, the Snake gave out its last breath!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH!

"GRAAAHHH...!"

POOF!

The Giant Snake quickly exploded into bubbles of light, as the little snakes, funnily enough, began to feel intimidated we took three Giant Snakes one after the other, and only attacked from a distance, giving me more space to unleash attacks using my Shovel to create more Healthy Soil.

Without [Spiritual Attack] the chance of creating [Healthy Soil] Tiles is often around 20% with each hit, but I was spamming them and generating these shockwaves attacks which also stunned the little snakes, letting Nieve and the Fairy Spirits finish them off as we advanced towards Titan.

"SHAAAA!"

The last Giant Snake furiously attempted to devour Titan. Even with a giant spear stuck into its belly, the monstrous creature was still more than healthy and energetic to fight back. Titan had been using the power as a Garden Guardian to fight 1v1 against this Giant Boss Monster, while the little Garden Knights offered their support however they could. His Elemental Beast Spirits were also helping him, but even the Elemental Chimera Beast Spirit ended being stomped to death just now.

"Nnnngghh...! Y-You damn snake...!" Titan roared, infusing all the last bits of energy he had into his arms as they grew bigger and bigger, trying to stop the monster's jaws from swallowing him entirely.

"Silver! Now!"

"ROAR!"

However, we quickly came to the rescue!

Silver, my Lake Snake Dragon jumped into action. Although she wasn't as big as the Giant Snakes, she had grown bigger with each Level Up she had, and now at Level 30, she had almost half the size of the Giant Snakes, big enough to easily grasp their tails and stop their movements, which she had been doing for a while now.

However, because she's a newborn, she's rather clumsy and lacks fighting experience, so she wasn't able to help to her very best. However, she was still helping good enough, and even more as she had been strengthening her Water Magic.

FLASH! FLASH! FLASH!

Suddenly, Silver summoned three enormous spiraling water spears made out of boiling water and fired them into the Giant Snake's eyes, burning them and piercing them with the powerful impactful attacks!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH!

SPLAAASH!

"SHAAAAAAA...!"

The Giant Snake groaned in agony, quickly stepping back from Titan as the enormous Ent barely survived the Boss Monster's onslaught.

"GROAR!"

Silver roared more dragon-like than her snake-like hissing, as she hit the Giant Snake's chin with the tip of her tail, which was covered on a special modified silver-colored scale in the shape of a big, two-meter-long spear!

CRASH!

"GRYYSHA...!"

The Giant Snake felt the piercing blow as it vomited blood, furiously glaring back at Silver, and retaliating with a deadly bite!

CLASH!

However, Silver's amazing Dragon Scales were not so easy to bite through, as the Snake's fangs ended getting stopped by my beautiful little dragon's scales.

"GROOOARRRR!"

Silver roared furiously, attacking back.

As the battle between the two giants continued, we reached the battle and I healed Titan in the process.

"Well done Titan, you managed to hold it off!" I said.

"Has your dragon always been this strong?!" He asked.

"It leveled up pretty quickly so it is surprising for me as well!" I said with a bit of worry.

"Well, let's finish this thing already!"

We all gathered together and began attacking the Giant Snake that Silver was distracting. Already covered in wounds and poisoned as the Giant Snake managed to pierce through her scales, she quickly fell back and let us handle things.

"SHAAAA...!"

After a few seconds of endless projectiles and other skills, the Giant Snake fell into the floor, exploding into particles of light.

POOF!

Several notifications appeared in front of us, as it was mostly just even more EXP we can't use yet, and dropped items such as Snake Meat, Scales, and their Poison. I don't really know what to do with what's not meat though.

The little snakes were very few, and we left my summons and tamed monsters, alongside the Fairy Spirits to slay them while we decided to quickly sit down in the Flower Garden I had created and eat, we were starving!

"Phew... I can't believe it took this long to slay those mobs..." Rita sighed.

"We need to quickly refill our Satiation and then move onwards; we can't stay here for too long." Titan added.

"I know, we'll follow the path I've created using my Terrain!" I said.

Chapter 195: Having A Small Break In The Middle Of A Dungeon

"Phew... I can't believe it took this long to slay those mobs..." Rita sighed.

"We need to quickly refill our Satiation and then move onwards; we can't stay here for too long." Titan added.

"I know, we'll follow the path I've created using my Terrain!" I said.

"It was very intense... I think I spent most of my Stink Bombs and Fire Bombs, dang it. Who would had thought we would be forced to fight those giant snakes again?" Acorn complained.

The transformation that Titan and Nieve were going through was quickly and automatically dispelled the moment the battle was over. Although everything was slightly insane and out of the ordinary, everyone was too tired to talk about this in detail, and we just wanted to eat.

"Alright, let's make something up really quick!"

"I am interested in your cooking as well, Planta."

Suddenly, the Spiritual Projection of the Fairy Queen appeared behind me.

"Uwah! Y-You're here, Titania?"

"Yes, Nieve summoned me some minutes go again. The power you've given to her is amazing. Just what did you exactly do? Also Titan as well received something like that!"

"I... honestly have no idea, it just happened... Really!"

I quickly opened my Inventory and took a lot of pre-made food. There was no way I am cooking something here, it takes a bit too long to cook food and we were in a hurry, the food saved inside the Inventory is always warm and delicious just as prepared anyways so it was everything alright.

I quickly took out several sandwiches and even some stew made out of snake meat, grilled fish, tea, apple juice, and salad of various veggies. Oh right, and baked potatoes, which are delish with butter made out of Belle's milk!

"Wow, such a big feast!" Titan was shocked.

"Thanks for the meal~!" Rita immediately began to dig in.

"This looks mighty good!" Acorn started eating a fruit salad with cream on top.

"So you don't know how it happened?" The Fairy Queen wondered again.

"Not really, it must be some reaction of the System and the Spells. Since I began playing that Spells sometimes come together. I guess it is the nature of the System's powers. Like one day I merged Earth and Sunlight Spirits to create a Lava Golem Spirit." I said. "Merging the effects of Skills and Spells seems like a right way to play this game and make even generally weak classes shine. I guess the people in charge of the creation of these powers really didn't wanted to make any class weak and wanted to leave it to our imagination as well. The classes that are perceived as the strongest are most likely the ones where you need the least imagination to become stronger. Therefore, less effort." I said, as I bite into a fried pork cutlet sandwich.

"I-I see..." Titania seemed slightly confused, as she quickly took a bowl of salad and began eating it. Apparently she was able to eat salad just like that even in her Spiritual Projection form. I wonder if her real body eats it too? "This System existence is truly an enigma to me... I don't know if the Gods made it or something else... Ah, this salad is exquisite!"

She continued eating everything until the very last cherry tomato, and then drank some tea.

"Wow... Planta, did you grow those vegetables yourself?! I've never eaten something so delicious before!" She said happily.

"Y-Yeah, I am a farmer, after we are done with this, I'll expand my farm some more. I am still not producing enough to feed an entire population though, so I don't think I can sell my vegetables in masse..." I said.

"O-Oh, I see... But would you be interested in opening a restaurant, perhaps?" She wondered. Titania didn't seem to want to let me go now that she knew my food was tasty.

"Ahahah... M-Maybe?" I wondered. "I wonder how fun it might be to do that inside a game."

"Think about it!" Titania said, quickly taking another bowl of salad.

"Anyways now that we are a bit more calm after we ate... Planta, how exactly did you do that?" Titan asked the same question as Titania...

"Y-Yeah! I felt so strong back then, I had no idea Lady Planta could transform me and even temporarily lend me her magical abilities." Said Nieve.

"I really have no idea how that happened... But it might be an effect of the Spiritual Spells I used. The Flower Garden Terrain must have special effects, and it said you were compatible with them, most likely due to your Race, Titan, as you're an Ent!" I said.

"Oh... so such compatibilities exist. I guess it is just as you said previously, this game has a lot of hidden effects and things we can produce by combining certain skills and magic together, Terrains and all of that wasn't even within my knowledge. I doubt many Rankers even use such methods for fighting, but it seems that Terrains and their Effects are a special power in this game's world..." Titan said while rubbing his woody chin.

"Huh... Well, I guess I'll leave it to that." Said Nieve.

"Well, the magic that Planta employed was something that she developed after receiving my Blessing. Her Spirit Magic affinity is amazing already. She's able to summon my Spiritual Projection and that of many of my citizens to help her. What happened to Nieve might be because her Spiritual Projection was summoned while she was still fighting here." Said Titania.

"R-Right! That was it! I think you ended merging with your Spiritual Projection, Nieve. It ended giving you some sort of "idealized form" that you see yourself in the future as!" I said happy to finally figure out what had happened.

"W-Wha...?! My ideal form... is a princess?!" She asked while blushing until she got as red as a tomato.

"Hahah, that's certainly a cute dream you have, Nieve." Sighed Titania. "I've already been thinking about having a new Queen, perhaps you might be the ideal. You're strong, diligent, and intelligent."

"E-Eeeh?!" Nieve was shocked.

Chapter 196: Reaching The Snake Queen's Nest

"Of course that decision will be for another time." Said Titania. "Planta, I think it has already been five minutes, we should keep moving now. Has everyone eaten their fill?"

Everyone nodded, although Acorn was still eating tasty fruits and stuffing his cheeks with them.

"Alright then, everyone, let's move on. The entrance was already located by the Fairy Spirits, it is towards this direction! I'll make up a path so we can remain in our Terrain and not be weakened!" I said, moving onwards.

As we packed everything and decided to move on, I took my weapon, which I was able to shapeshift as it was made out of the Branch of the Tree of Beginnings, giving me the ability to shapeshift it using [Plant Manipulation], I shaped the weapon into a Shovel once more, and began hitting the ground with it.

TRUUUMMM...!

FLASH!

A wave of green and golden light erupted from the floor, spreading out and magically converting our surroundings into Healthy Soil, the Flower Garden expanded almost automatically, leaving a trail of flowers behind us as we advanced forward.

"Honestly, your abilities are amazing." Titania sighed. "Not even I am capable of doing something like you, Planta. To be able to instantly change something contaminated with Miasma... It is incredibly impressive."

"I-Is that so? It is merely Level 10 [Farming Tool Usage] Skill!" I said.

"Farming... Tool Usage? I had never heard of such a Skill before..." Titania said. "Players really do have impressive Skills, don't they?"

"It is actually quite a non-battle Skill." Said Titan. "I had no idea it could develop such effects after reaching Level 10."

"Oh well, it also happens thanks to the power of Soil Manipulation and Terrain Adaptability, both at Level 10 too." I said with a nod.

"T-Those are all Farmer Class Skills, right? I had never heard of those before." Sighed Titan. "Maybe I should had picked up the Farmer Class myself now that I think about it..."

"I think your Druid Class is pretty strong, Titan! You just have to keep finding new ways to merge your Magic and Skills together. I am sure you can find a way." I said.

"Hmmm... Certainly, I'll try my best." Titan said with a rather confident tone of voice. "I want to grow stronger and protect this forest. I've already grown quite attached to everything here... Although I also want to explore the outside world too."

"Me too!" Said Achlys. "Quite honestly it is getting a bit boring for me..."

"I might be able to help you reach your home, Lady Achlys." Said Titania.

"My home?" Rita asked while raising an eyebrow.

"You see, there's a Forest of Dark Elves in an adjacent region to our own. They live close to the Dwarven Mountains of Rosenheim as well." Said Titania. "If you ever think about meeting with your kin, you could go there."

"Oh, that sounds interesting... Dwarves are those little guys, right?" Wondered Rita.

"Yeah!" Titania said. "We don't have... good relationships with them. A vassal of them, who was also a Player, tricked us. He not only betrayed our trust but also stole our treasures." Sighed Titania. "I would like to get back the Spirit Wood Crown and the Translucent Fallen Star one day..."

"Wait, so that player stole treasures from you?!" I asked.

"Of course... If it wasn't for him, we would have already given you them so you could use them against the Snake Queen. Without them, we were left rather hopeless against the snake invasion." Sighed Titania. "The Spirit Wood Crown is an incredibly powerful Crown that multiplies Magic Power and Mana by several times, and it also allows for the usage of Summon Magic, which allows people to temporarily Summon powerful Spirits of the past. The other is a powerful Sword of Legends once wielded by the Mushroom Hero to slay the Snake Queen, the Mushroom King, and the Shadow Crow King..."

"Wow, so a Player just stole them..." Said Titan. "I was fairly sure NPC are protected by the System so a Player that tries to hurt them is punished, right?"

"Well, he fooled us and ended getting close to the Treasures. It only took a single tap of his finger over them for the treasures to disappear. We tried to chase him down and capture him, but he escaped easily from our grasp." Titania sighed. "Ever since then, we haven't trusted Players... Until all of you came here and saved us, so we have decided to change how we think."

"I see..." I said while thinking about such things.

Whoever was that Player, he was really a terrible person... Well, maybe not that exaggeratedly bad, but he was really an asshole. But I suppose... it also depends on how people see the NPC of this world. As mere game characters with no real life, which doesn't make them feel bad about stealing from them or tricking them, or as people like I am doing right now.

Maybe the correct way is not really the way I am doing things, but I feel like it is the right thing to do in my heart, and I think that's the important part.

"Well, if we ever find him, we'll try to take back the items." I said with confidence.

"Eh?! But that would involve a PvP battle, wouldn't it?" Asked Titan. "I bet he's over leveled too..."

"I-I am just hypothetically saying! It is not like I will chase him to the ends of the earth, but if I happen to find him, we'll try something..." I said with a nod.

"Thank you for your consideration, Planta." Titania smiled charmingly at me. "But I believe this is enough talk for now, we are here."

After waking for only five minutes while slowly turning the Swamp Tiles into Healthy Soil and then expanding my Garden Terrain, we suddenly came across the entrance to the very depths of this "Dungeon" which resembled caves that led down, dimly illuminated by glowing mushrooms and moss.

"This is the nest of the Snake Queen." Titania said.

From within the caves, a foul aura of darkness and poison leaked... It was truly quite terrifying.

Chapter 197: Arrival

The Venomous Snake Queen was furious!

Not only have the Players survived her onslaught of almost a thousand Small Snakes between Level 15 to 20, but they had also managed to defeat her four Giant Snakes, which were all Level 30!

Certainly, it wouldn't have gone their way if it wasn't for a particular one within their group, Planta. This Dryad Farmer woman held within her an incredible power, something that the Snake Queen had honestly never expected out of a Player, the power to change the [Terrain Tiles].

She had singlehandedly shaped the Terrain of her own Dungeon, the place she had been given the power to shape as she desired as the Dungeon Master! It felt as if she was completely cheating! The Snake Queen was so furious that she felt like she had swallowed a swarm of bitter bugs.

The System had promised her the ability to change her fate and to even force immortals themselves to not be able to intervene with her... but at the end, things didn't go as she planned. The Players were too strong, and Planta changed the tide of battle with a single swipe of her weapon.

However, it wasn't as if everything was over yet, after all, she wasn't a weakling at all. She was someone way stronger than before, in fact, she had already surpassed the strength of her previous life, the one that the Hero of Old had slain.

With her power to drain MP from her Dungeon and the ability to unleash incredible Magic and Skills, she awaited them without any fear. She had no plans aside from fighting them, as she had confidence on her own strength...

Of course, like any snake, she was not without tricks.

"Come at me then... I will show you what happens to those insolent enough to dare come fight me head-on...!" She said to herself. "And you... Titania, I won't forgive you for what you've done. You're the one I detest the most... I will slaughter you and your people after I kill your heroes... I promise it!"

(Elayne's POV)

After the enormous battle we had at the beginning of this dungeon, and after our break and then our road towards the depths of it, we have finally reached it, the lair of the Queen. Interestingly enough, there were no other monsters around, there were no snakes or anything of the sort, it felt strangely empty, way too empty to be honest... However, I knew that deep in there, the Queen was waiting for us. It felt as if she was very confident that she could fight us directly.

After seeing her employ so many underlings to fight for her, it felt strange she would confront us head-on. Even Titania felt doubtful about this. She was definitely up to something, wasn't she? I knew it... However, I really couldn't think of what she might be trying. And just to make sure, I might as well make a Terrain inside the cave as well.

"HYAAAA!"

CLASH!

I charged a good amount of Mana and a bit of Spiritual Essence from the Great Spirit, hitting the ground before us in the corridor leading us below.

TRUUUM!

The entire corridor began to change and shape, the ground began to constantly shapeshift, gaining soil on top of it, as the healthiness of it made everything richer, shining with bright gold and green light which meant Life and Nature Elements were taking over the place. They were not enough to bring my Spirits through Dragon Veins yet, so I'll have to fight without their aid in this Boss Battle, but I had the aid of my friends, my summons and tamed monsters, and the Fairy Spirits led by Titania. Of course, there was also the Great Spirit of Farming and Harvest, my trump card.

FLUOSH!

The Terrain on front of us quickly changed, as the Healthy Soil Tiles were filled with flowers and from the flowers, an aura of magical power began to come out, there were already almost a hundred small Flower Garden Knights marching behind us, and I believe that as long as I will it, Titan can also transform into his Guardian Form and Nieve into her Frost Fairy Princess Form. Both are triggered by the new Spells I had acquired thanks to Titania's Blessing.

Helping her was the best I could've done, the boost I've gained from her was fantastic, and the ability to temporarily transform two of my party members, boosting their stats and giving them new abilities is something that I never thought this game could feature at all! It is really a fun experience to see them transform and all...

However, I cannot keep thinking so carefreely, this is the time of truth after all!

"Amazing, the Terrain even inside of this cave is changing." Said Titania in amusement. "With this, I feel inspired to fight more... But... I wonder if I can do this?"

Titania seemed slightly doubtful after what she had been saying before.

"Why?" I wondered.

"Well... The Snake Queen was... Ah, I guess it doesn't matter now. It has been so long since then that I suppose... Things have changed too much for that to even be relevant." Titania sighed, her spiritual form seemed to slowly grow less brighter as she showed her emotions.

I didn't wanted to really dig into her memories about this, so I quickly decided to not pursue the topic.

Led by Titan and Nieve in front as our Tank and Main Physical Attacker, we slowly moved as I converted the Terrain. My MP was already down to half, but I had already laid the groundwork for most of what I wanted to bring, especially the Fairy Spirits, as over sixty had joined us with Titania. To transform Titan and Nieve, I'll simply spend roughly 400 MP each, that would leave me in around 2k MP, more than enough for my own attacking and healing.

"Welcome to the place where all of you will die."

Suddenly, the tenebrous voice of the Snake Queen resonated through the dungeon.

We reached the last floor, and there, an enormous shadow emerged before us, with menacing red eyes.

Chapter 198: Against The Ravenous Venomous Snake Queen

With a menacing voice, the gigantic Snake welcomed us. She seemed slightly carefree, but I bet she had a lot of plans already on the work. By merely watching her, I could tell she was incredibly strong. The space where we had arrived was an enormous underground cave, the ground below was muddy and there was a large lake where she was positioned, filled with Miasma. However, as my Terrain made its way inside, this mud and the Miasma grew weaker.

The Snake Queen's appearance, which quickly revealed itself from within the shadows was rather unsurprising to me, as I've already imagined her as a gigantic snake. She had no human-like half, like Titan had thought she would be like a Lamia, another race of this world which Players can choose apparently. No, the Snake Queen was quite literally a purple-scaled Giant Snake, the same ones we saw before, but twice as big. She was approximately... 50 meters big? Or a bit less. She had six pairs of black horns growing over her head, and a big third eye in the middle of her forehead, which was completely black with red pupils...

Her body seemed different though, her scales were not slim at all, and were more like armor stacked together dozens of times, they looked rough and even... dragon-like. The tip of her tail had a long, curved blade of at least ten meters of height, capable of easily shredding into pieces her prey. And above all, she emanated a monstrously large presence, as if she was the pure darkness itself.

And even then, I saw a vision. Right behind her, there was something...

It is as if the power that Gaia granted to me back then when we fought the Undead Hero was still within me, whatever this gift was it wasn't in the form of Skills, but an innate ability I now possessed to see... the truth behind others.

I saw several black threads behind her, controlling her every movement. And controlling such threads there was a monstrous and menacing puppeteer, or well, the shadow of it.

This was most likely the one behind the Snake Queen's Miasmic Powers, the Demon King of Miasma himself.

If I manage to cut down these threads, will he finally let us alone? Or will he continue pestering us somehow, somewhere... in some sort of shape or form? I am honestly annoyed of how insisting this World Boss is about destroying this Starting Area of the game!

"So this is the Snake Queen..." Titan said.

"Her presence is so overwhelming, and just how big is her body?! How can we even defeat such a behemoth?" Nieve wondered.

"She's certainly above and beyond..." Rita sighed.

Ding!

[You have entered the [Boss Room] of this Dungeon!]

[The [Dungeon Boss]: [Ravenous Venomous Snake Queen: Saphee: Lv35] has invoked her [Dungeon Boss Aura]

[All of her Stats have increased by +100%, Darkness and Poison Attribute Damage has been enhanced by +100%]

[The [Dungeon Boss]: [Ravenous Venomous Snake Queen: Saphee: Lv35] has invoked her [Dungeon Master Privilege]

[The Dungeon's Terrain Effects have been intensified!]

So her name is Saphee and her Level is 35! W-Well, it is not as high as I imagined, but that's still 15 Levels above us! Isn't that a bit too much? How can we fight someone with such a massive level difference? I'll really have to rely a lot on Titania, the Fairy Spirits, and the Great Spirit of Farming and Harvest's help to defeat her.

"So you've come to your deaths, have you not? Do you truly believe I am a weakling that hides behind her underlings?" She said cockily.

TRUUUM!

Suddenly, the route to escape was sealed by a wall of stone.

"I have merely lured you into my own Territory so I can have all the time I want to eat each one of you...!"

TRUUUUUUUMMMM...!

Suddenly, the entire cave shook. The enormous body of the Snake Queen began to move out of the Miasmic Lake! And the first thing she did was direct her gaze upon me!

"YOU...! You're the one that has been doing this, right?! I'll take you down first!"

FLAAAASH!

Her body moved faster than we all could have predicted from such a gigantic body!

CLASH!

Her enormous jaws suddenly impacted my Spiritual Shield Barriers, as I desperately continued to create more and more.

Crack...! Crack!

However, her gigantic jaws were easily crushing through my spherical barrier, even when I was blocking a lot of damage dealt, it wasn't all the damage at the end! Her jaws were as big as a car, if not a bus! This thing could easily just swallow me up!

"It is useless, simply let me kill you! You're immortal right? You already can tell our level difference! Simply perish and let me do what I want!" She roared. "Why do you care so much about them? Aren't they simply "NPC" to you? Why do you have to get involved into such a difficult challenge just for people that you might not even think it's real?!"

The Snake Queen surprisingly knew a lot of what was happening with us Players! Just how much has she been told by the System? Or maybe... the Demon King might know something?!

CRASH!

My Spiritual Shield Barriers finally broke, as the enormous jaws of the Snake Queen reached up to me in an instant. My entire body was about to be swallowed up.

Or was it?

"Why, you ask?" I said, as I quickly held up my weapon, shaping it into the shape of a Scythe. "It is for a very simple reason!"

Infusing Mana and Spiritual Essene into my weapon, I called upon the full power of the Great Spirit, as she emerged at my side while smiling defiantly against a foe that was beyond what I could even do, and giving me the chance to exceed my own limits...

"It is because for me, these people are real enough!"

FLAAAASH!

My weapon unleashed an enormous burst of green and golden colored Spiritual Essence, as I swung it against the Snake Queen's open mouth.

This was the chance I wanted; she obviously had her weakest spot ready for me to attack!

"[Spiritual Attack]!"

CLAAASH!

Brand New Life Online: Rise Of The Goddess Of Harvest

Chapter 199: Clash Against A Level 35 Boss!

"[Spiritual Attack]!"

CLAAASH!

An enormous aura slash made from this enormous amount of Spiritual Essene came out of my weapon, impacting the Snake Queen's open jaws and piercing through her two sharp fangs, and even slicing through her tongue! The energy went through her mouth, reaching the interior of her body, and exploding inside!

"SHAAAAAAAAAHHH...!"

The scream of the Snake Queen resonated across the cave, as she was blown away with all my power!

BOOOOOMMM!!!

Her enormous body clashed in the opposite direction of the cave, leaving an enormous crater behind her gigantic body, as it shaped the walls of this vast cave.

Her entire body ended wounded, as the interior of her body was also completely damaged. The Spiritual Energy I fired at her easily wounded her entire gigantic body, as several of her scales began to fall, countless crack-shaped wounds appeared over her body, as green and golden light began to come out of them, at the same time, flowers grew out of her wounds, draining away her life.

"Unngh...! Gaagh....! Aggh...! T-That attack... W-What... what was that...?! Unghh... Guagh...!"

The Snake Queen continued to struggle to even speak, as she continued to vomit blood, that attack alone took away 30% of her total HP!

I had imbued all the power of the Great Spirit into that single attack, so the Great Spirit is now quite tired and will need at least a minute to rest before I can use her powers at full once more. But that's a good enough starting point!

"Hahahaha! This is the power of a revived Great Spirit, foolish snake! A pawn of that damned Demon King will never defeat my Vessel!" The Great Spirit made herself visible to everybody, talking as cheeky as she had always done.

"G-Great Spirit?! So you have such a power within you..." The Snake Queen slowly tried to crawl back, but my friends wouldn't simply allow her.

"Onwards!" Titan roared, as he was already transformed into his Garden Guardian form, twice as tall as before and incredibly bulky, yet somehow agile, he jumped forward into battle alongside a hundred smaller Rose Garden Knights as well.

"Snake Queen, your reign of terror ends today!" Nieve roared, already in her Frost Princess Form after merging with her Spiritual Projection. Her beautiful wings generated aurora borealis around her as fifty Fairy Spirits wore armor made of ice and weapons made of ice.

"Let's do this... Saphee. Let's finish this." Titania said, holding into her beautiful and lustrous Magic Rapier, as her enormous wings unleashed a rainbow of spiritual essence pouring everyone with power, me included.

"We'll serve our Lady with all our might and make up for the rest of us that couldn't come here!" Sporegon roared raising his sword with Hunter, Magius, and Alice at her side.

"Damn right!" Acorn said while taking his potions and bombs from his Inventory. "This forest's has always been the home of my tribe, of my parents, of my grandpa, and of... grandma! I won't let any pawn of the Demon King nasty its beauty any longer! We'll fight to protect it if that's necessary! And I am here to represent the Squirrel-kin, the descendants of the Ancient Messenger of the Gods, Ratatoskr!"

Acorn had the flashiest monologue, but I couldn't expect less from him.

An aura of power began to surge from all of us, the combined Aura of the Queen of Fairies, alongside the ever-expanding aura of the Terrain of Magical Flower Garden, and the Terrain of my [Farmer's Authority], all merged together boosted our stats through the roof, completely making them all skyrocket!

"Heh! See? You've gotten yourself a damn amazing team already, Planta!" Said the Guider Spirit. "Now stay focused and defeat this Boss so you can Evolve and save the Forest at the same time!"

"I know! You don't have to remind me of it!" I said with a prideful smile.

Somehow... I finally realized, with everyone here with me, I have truly forged a new life in this world. This game, whatever it was, sure enough, it should possibly be not just a game. I know that there's something else to all of this.

There is something really telling me that these stakes, and the lives we were trying to protect... they are all real!

"Hmph... Hahahaha! Foolish! All of you are stupid! You can't go against the Demon King! His power is supreme! The Players had been trying so hard to defeat him, yet he crushes them like ants constantly!" The Snake Queen said. "Titania! This world is not the same we know of! There's a System, and this System demands sacrifices for us to grow stronger... This is a fair world where the stronger crushes the weak and grows even stronger... this is a world where even my lord will thrive, and become even stronger than before! There is no point in going back against him! You're all the foolish ones for still having hope... I lost it long ago, and now, look at me!"

FLASH!

After lowering her HP to 70%, the Snake Queen suddenly undergone a transformation. Her purple scales were completely replaced as she molted her body. And instead, metallic-like black scales resembling those of a dragon emerged across her body, while a pair of gigantic dragon-like wings appeared behind her back, flapping rapidly and lifting her gigantic body up the air.

"I have already surpassed what I originally was!"

Ding!

[The [Dungeon Boss: [Ravenous Venomous Snake Queen: Saphee: Lv35] has reached its [Second Phase]!]

"Now all of you insolent vermin, perish!!! [Darkness Miasma Meteor]!"

She suddenly and furiously flapped her wings, as enormous meteors made of crystalized darkness began falling from the skies one after the other, reaching up to us!

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

Each Darkness Meteor exploded in the ground, suddenly unleashing enormous quantities of darkness and miasma and trying to take over my Terrain!

"I won't allow it!"

TRUUUMMM!

I hit the floor furiously, unleashing a blast of light against the miasma, purifying it!

This wasn't merely a battle of strength... this was also a battle of who could maintain their Terrain above the other!

Brand New Life Online: Rise Of The Goddess Of Harvest

Chapter 200: Nieve's Powerful Magic!

TRUUUUMMM...!

The ground trembled! The collision between the spiritual essence and the Snake Queen's miasma exploded, light and darkness exploded against one another, it was pure chaos!

"Stop attacking Planta and fight us!"

Titan roared as he moved forward first, his entire body suddenly began growing bigger... and bigger, and bigger!

"UOOOHHHH!"

His fist, at least ten meters big, punched the giant snake in the face!

BOOOOMMM!!!

"NNGHH?!"

The Snake Queen roared in shock at what was happening! The one she had thought was merely a subject or background character ended doing some good damage!

And the best part... he wasn't even done with it!

"Thanks to Planta, I've finally realized how real and alive this world is! This is not just a game I have to care about stupid crap like Meta... this is a breathing and living world, a second life! I will protect it!"

Titan said, as his body continued growing bigger through his ability to shapeshift his body, which was even better than mine thanks to various Skills he had chosen, exclusive for Ents.

"Hmph! As if I were to care about your stupid thoughts, you walking tree!" The Snake Queen selfishly roared, as her tail moved swiftly like a spear, piercing through the body of Titan, who was already thirty meters tall! Wow!

Titan crossed his two enormous fists as he received all blows head-on!

CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH! CLASH!

However, somehow... he was still standing!

"Ngh?! Why are you not dying yet?!" The Snake Queen cried in shock.

"I've invested all my Stat Points into Defense because I've realized that I am already the Party's Tank!" Titan said, as his enormous fists impacted the Snake Queen's face once more. "[Titan's Fist]!"

CLAAAAASHHH!!!

"AGGGH...! Y-YOOUUUU!"

The Snake Queen furiously began hitting Titan once more, as a completely ridiculous scene was shown before our eyes, two giants were wrestling it out with all they had! However, if this continued, Titan would eventually die!

Of course, he had tiny friends with him, a hundred of them in fact!

"For Lady Planta!"

"March, knights!"

"Ooooooh!"

Over a hundred Flower Garden Knights impacted the Snake Queen's entire body, as they suddenly began to attack her enormously hard scales, chipping them down however they could! However, as they realized they couldn't properly damage, they simply exploded!

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

"Nnggh...! Damn flies- AGH! What is this!?"

The Snake Queen swiftly realized a Flower Garden was growing over her gigantic body, slowly yet steadily, more and more red roses appeared, all of them started to absorb her blood and decrease her health slowly, bit by bit!

"My health is getting drained!" She cried angrily, swinging her tail against Titan once more.

CLAAASH!

"Not yet!"

However, Titan suddenly grabbed her tail masterfully and used his gigantic strength to drag her from the skies! The Snake Queen couldn't believe his boldness!

"UOOOOHHHH!"

"W-What do you think you're doing?! GYAAAAAH!"

BOOOOOMMM!!!

The Snake Queen was down!

The ground trembled, cracks emerged everywhere, a gigantic earthquake was provoked due to her enormous body falling from the sky. However, my friends didn't falter!

"This is my time!"

Nieve flew forward with over fifty Fairy Spirits clad in Magic Ice Armor, as she raised her long rapier at the Snake Queen in the floor.

"NOW! Spiritual Ice Magic: Winter's Judgement!"

FLASH! FLASH! FLASH! FLASH!

Suddenly, all the Fairy Spirits unleashed their strongest magic, which immediately turned into Ice Magic that Nieve channeled with her own gigantic Ice Magic Circle! All the Magic Circles came up together and then...!

FLUOOOSH!

It felt as if Winter itself emerged out of it!

Freezing winds, ice, snow, everything emerged out and quickly covered the Snake Queen, suddenly freezing half of her body! Her HP was slowly going down as well, so this was actually freezing her flesh as well and not being completely fend off by her scales!

"Agh...! T-This freezing cold! You're a mere fairy, how can you even bring this much magic power?!" The Snake Queen asked while furiously standing up, her wings tried to flap and let her fly, but one of them was completely frozen, and Nieve made quick work of it!

SLASH! SLASH! SLASH! SLASH!

She moved like a blue blur around the skies as she slashed the wings of the Snake Queen with her rapier, easily shattering them into pieces, as the second was also frozen into a wing-shape statue!

CRAAASH!

"AAAAGGGH...! Y-YOU!"

The Snake Queen furiously attacked Nieve, as her tail hit her directly!

CLASH!

However, what was in place of Nieve was one of the Fairy Spirits which took the hit for her and disappeared... Is this a new Spell or Skill?!

"W-What?!" The Snake Queen was shocked, suddenly seeing the swarm of Fairy Spirits around her.

"Spiritual Ice Magic: Frozen Mirage. I've united with my kin's Spiritual Projections. You won't be able to easily slay me...!" Nieve roared, as she quickly attacked the Snake Queen once more from all sides. Her small body was perfect to fight such a titanic foe, the Snake Queen was having a hard time trying to hit her or even find her!

"Excellent performance, Nieve. However, I must also assist you. Saphee, we'll end this tonight!" Titania said, raising her rapier into the skies as an explosion of spiritual essence came out of her Magic Weapon, she reached the Snake Queen in an instant, reaching her face and then pointing her rapier at her third eye!

CLAAAASH!

"SHAAAAAHHHH...!"

The rapier pierced the Snake Queen's third eye quite easily, as an explosion of spiritual essence emerged from within the enormous wound, covering the entirety of the body of the monstrous creature at the same time, as if runes spread out of the Fairy Queen's wondrous attack!

FLASH!

A flash of bright light came from within, as the Snake Queen suddenly began to grow weaker, as if Titania had managed to hit a very weak point of hers!

"I knew it! This place is her Miasmic Nucleus!" She said, as she was suddenly attacked by the furious Snake Queen's tail piercing through her entire body!

"Uggh...!"
