

Break Up 16

Chapter 16

For Him, I'm Willing to Give Up Everything

Taking the document, Lin Xi hurriedly opened it.

After reading the content, her expression turned extremely ugly. "You suddenly stopped working with me because of such a small matter?"

Han Jiarui sat at the side and sighed. "Lin Xi, do you still think this is a small matter? This is the Internet era. All brands value reputation very much."

"Now that you've been slandered countless times, your image is about to collapse. All the brands are also worried about being implicated."

"Do you know how much effort I put in to get a collaboration with Rima?"

"The new quarter's construction period is about to begin. Now that the other party has stopped cooperating, not only will my efforts be in vain, but you and the design team's recent efforts will also be in vain."

Lin Xi felt extremely guilty after hearing Han Jiarui's words. It wasn't easy to get inspiration for the design, and she had to work overtime to complete the sketches.

However, now that it was all for personal reasons, the entire team would suffer a heavy blow.

"I'm sorry." Lin Xi put down the document. Tears welled up in her eyes.

Seeing this, Han Jiarui held Lin Xi's hand with heartache. "Alright, there's nothing to be sorry about. Now that the matter has happened, we have to think of a way to resolve it."

"Although no one knows about Rima yet, as far as I know, the other brands have already wavered and are paying close attention to the direction of the public sentiments."

"But we can't hide Rima's matter for long. If the matter is exposed, more contract terminations will await us."

"By that time, the company that you worked so hard to build might be over. You'll be even further away from the dream of being a top designer. Do you know that?"

Lin Xi nodded. "Then what should we do now?"

"It's very simple. Leave this boring love story and break up with Chen Che." After a pause, Han Jiarui continued, "Not only that, we have to get Chen Che to clarify this matter. This is the best solution now."

Hearing this, Lin Xi refused without hesitation. "No, I can't be separated from Chen Che."

Han Jiarui was stunned. She raised her hand and touched Lin Xi's forehead. "You don't have a fever. Why do you have to be so stupid? Are you really willing to give up your career and your dreams for a poor boy?"

Faced with this question, Lin Xi bit her lips and struggled internally.

All these years, she had put in all her effort for her dream. With her own talent, she had successfully built a small company.

Although she was still far from her ultimate dream, she was at least moving forward step by step.

She was naturally the most unwilling to give up everything in front of her!

However, she was also unwilling to give up on Chen Che. Ever since she was young, she did not have space for anyone else in her heart.

If building a career was to fulfill her dream, then Chen Che was her motivation to move forward.

Because every time she was depressed, every time she felt tired and helpless, as long as she thought of Chen Che, she would be filled with confidence.

Actually, before she had confirmed their relationship, Chen Che had already become an indispensable part of her life.

After thinking about it, Lin Xi said, "If this is the reason why the company collapsed, I have no regrets."

"I'll give up everything for him."

Lin Xi emphasized the last three words. This represented her determination and unwavering love for Chen Che.

At this moment, if the netizens knew about this, they would probably go crazy and envy Chen Che's luck!

Han Jiarui was completely speechless. "Please, are you alright? Are you giddy in love? Have you lost your mind because of this short relationship?"

"How about this? Suspend filming for a few days and don't contact Chen Che first. Calm down and think carefully, okay?"

Lin Xi shook her head. "I'm very calm now. I'm not a giddy in love. I know what I'm doing."

"I really don't understand. What kind of bewitching potion did this kid give you to make you so obsessed?" Han Jiarui was a little anxious. She continued, "I can understand if you give up everything because of a tall, rich, and handsome man, but what do you want because of a pauper?"

"Do you really want to accompany him to eat porridge and vegetables? You might be able to persevere for a year or two, but can you persevere for a lifetime?"

"When you realize that he can't give you happiness, will it be too late to regret?"

"I won't regret it. I also believe that he won't be poor for the rest of his life." Lin Xi's tone was still firm.

"Lin Xi, you... Are you trying to anger me to death?" Han Jiarui stomped her feet in anger.

"Alright, Jiarui, you don't have to say anything. Things might not be as bad as we think."

"Go back and rest. I want to be alone for a while."

After saying that, Lin Xi leaned on the table and sobbed.

Seeing this, Han Jiarui could not say anything else and could only sigh helplessly.

At noon, in another office.

“Sister Lin, your method has already achieved great results.” The short-haired girl happily entered the door.

Luo Yuelin lit a lady’s cigarette and took a puff. “Tell me.”

“After a night of application, the popularity hasn’t decreased. When they first started broadcasting this morning, their popularity temporarily increased, but most of them were there to join in the fun. The comments were even filled with criticism.”

“As they didn’t have any new tricks, their popularity quickly decreased. Even some of their original loyalists left. They said that acting was meaningless.”

“As their popularity decreased, the popularity of the other live-streams returned. Your live-stream is also now the most popular.”

After hearing this, Luo Yuelin said in satisfaction, “That’s right. Instead of being angered by that pauper, why don’t you look at a relaxed and luxurious life?”

“We have to seize this wave of popularity and shake off all the teams.”

“Sister Lin, is there anything else that Chen Che needs to do?” The short-haired girl asked.

“They want to compete with me for favor? Are they worthy?” Luo Yuelin smiled smugly.

...

In the blink of an eye, the day’s work was over. Chen Che came to pick Lin Xi up as usual.

Standing at the door, Chen Che had his hands in his pockets and a smile on his face. He turned a deaf ear to the people pointing at him.

“Guess who?”

After a while, the beautiful Lin Xi walked out of the building and mischievously covered Chen Che’s eyes.

“I’m guessing that she must be a fairy, and the one I love the most,” Chen Che replied.

“You’re glib-tongued.” Lin Xi smiled and let go.

Chen Che chuckled and habitually took the satchel and carried it on his back.

Their every move was filled with sweetness.

At this moment, Chen Che noticed that Lin Xi’s eyes were red and her eyelids were a little swollen. His expression could not help but change.

“Why are you crying? Did someone bully you?”

Lin Xi quickly shook her head. "No, I was just accidentally blinded by sand in the air. Don't think too much."

Chen Che felt that something was wrong and asked again, "Don't lie to me. What happened?"
