

Break Up 29

Chapter 29

Not Ugly at All

Ignoring everyone's expressions, Chen Che began to speak affectionately.

"The reason why I made such a doll was because a little girl gave me inspiration during the day."

"Lin Xi and I were born in the countryside. Our family backgrounds weren't very well-to-do. As far as I remember, Lin Xi never had a doll growing up."

"I know that it's not that Lin Xi doesn't like to play with dolls. It's just that she can't buy it due to the family's financial situation. That's why I made this doll."

"You guys think that this is trash that I've gathered from all over the place, but this is our history because she gave these things to me. No matter where I go all these years, they've always been by my side."

"When I complain that life isn't going my way, whenever I'm unhappy, I see these things and my mood improves. I get motivated."

After saying this, the attentive netizens recalled the scene at the beginning.

That day, when Chen Che went downstairs to buy instant noodles, she did find a box full of items in his room. At that time, Lin Xi could not help but cry.

At this moment, the criticism online could not help but slow down. Most of the netizens began to listen carefully, wanting to hear the story of the two of them.

However, there were also some netizens who wanted to see what tricks Chen Che could come up with!

Luo Yuelin frowned. Although she was impatient, she couldn't say anything because of her image.

After a moment of silence, Chen Che picked up the doll and began to introduce it carefully.

"Because my family was poor and I had never used any decent stationery. Even in junior high school, my classmates laughed at me."

"But only Lin Xi has a good relationship with me as usual. She saw that my erasers were leftovers from others, so she saved her pocket money and bought me a new one."

"Therefore, the head eraser was Lin Xi's first gift to me, and I couldn't bear to use it. I kept it for 13 years."

"The colorful rope for its hair was given to me by Lin Xi during the Dragon Boat Festival. I remember that one year, I was very envious when I saw other children playing with it during the Dragon Boat Festival, but I didn't dare to ask my parents for it."

"The meticulous Lin Xi realized this and gave me half of hers. Later, when she had some money, she bought me a new one."

“From the first time until now, the Dragon Boat Festival Forest Stream will send over the five-colored rope every year. It has never stopped.”

“Although these things don’t cost much, they weigh as heavily as a mountain to me. Every time I receive them, I can’t bear to part with them. Tears well up in my eyes.”

After the two items were finished, the scolding in the live-stream completely disappeared. Many netizens had already become cautious and expressed their envy for this relationship.

Other than Luo Yuelin and Fang Weixun’s team, the rest of the people present were also stirred up.

At this moment, the production team also added emotional music to enhance the atmosphere.

Lin Xi crossed her arms in front of her chest and listened carefully. She originally thought that Chen Che had a carefree personality, but she did not expect him to remember everything.

Memories flooded back. Tears welled in her eyes. She fought them back.

“The pencil and ballpoint pen used to make the arms and legs were also given to me by Lin Xi. I couldn’t bear to use these things.”

“In other words, as long as it’s a gift from her, I won’t use it because in my eyes, it’s no longer a consumable.”

“Actually, there are many similar things. It’s just that I can’t show them to everyone.”

After a pause, Chen Che sighed. “To be honest, I’ve liked Lin Xi since I can remember. It’s not because she always gives me things, but because her thoughtfulness and gentleness touched me.”

“But I didn’t know that she actually had me in her heart.”

“The decorative paper used to make clothes. It was originally used to wrap candy. I remember this was given to me three years ago on New Year’s Eve.”

“That day, we went shopping together, ate together, and played until late at night before coming home. We were both very happy.”

“But I didn’t know that this packet of sugar had any other meaning. It wasn’t until a long time later that I realized that the decorative paper was filled with the words ‘Love’ all over it.”

“At that time, I was afraid that I was thinking too much, so I didn’t mention it to Lin Xi. Now, it seems that Lin Xi was testing my intentions, but like a fool, I didn’t dare to take this step.”

“And Lin Xi waited for me for another three years. We’ve been worried about each other for the past three years and haven’t been able to break through this layer of paper. Has anyone experienced this feeling before?”

After sharing this matter, the crying emojis in the live-stream instantly flooded the screen. Clearly, they were touched.

After a short silence, Chen Che spoke again. “The shaver for the body is this year’s Valentine’s Day gift. That day, Lin Xi even teased that neither of us had a lover and could only make do with each other every year. How good would it be if we could be together?”

"I understood what Lin Xi meant at the time, but I didn't answer because Lin Xi was a CEO and I was just a delivery boy."

"I didn't think we were compatible back then, and I still think so now. So the only way is to save as much money as possible. Unfortunately, I can't save much."

The host asked, "Then why did you agree now?"

Chen Che smiled. "Because in private, I can pretend to be stupid, but in front of the camera, how can I bear to refuse?"

"Furthermore, Lin Xi bravely took this step. If I don't even have the courage to accept it, am I still a man?"

"More importantly, she doesn't despise me. I believe I can give her happiness!"

As soon as these words were spoken, Lin Xi could no longer hold back her tears.

She thought that Chen Che did not know anything, but Chen Che knew everything. It was because he felt inferior that he did not dare to confess.

Lin Xi thought to herself, 'Shouldn't he have taken this step long ago?'

In that case, the two of them would not have to torture each other for so long.

"Don't cry." Seeing this, Chen Che hurriedly wiped Lin Xi's tears with a tissue. "It's all my fault. As a man, I didn't dare to be bold. I even needed a girl like you to take the initiative to confess."

"Speaking of which, I still have to thank this show. Otherwise, if you were snatched away by someone else one day, I'm afraid I would regret it for the rest of my life, right?"

"I'll make these into dolls for you today. I just want to say that I remember everything you gave me. I'll return them doubly to you in the future."

"I also know that you've been waiting for a long time. Today, in front of all the netizens, I want to make up for it."

"Lin Xi... I love you!"

Hearing these three words, Lin Xi completely broke down. She stood up and hugged Chen Che, sobbing uncontrollably.

The comments in the live broadcast room were filled with tears. Every part of the doll carried memories. At this moment, this doll was not ugly at all. It was filled with love.

Not only that, the netizens finally understood that Chen Che was not exaggerating. With so many years of memories, it was indeed priceless!

After a while, Lin Xi stopped crying and sat back down. She hugged the doll lovingly.

In her heart, this was the most precious gift she had received in so many years!

Seeing that Lin Xi liked it very much, Chen Che was also very happy. He said again, "Alright, I've shared the meaning of my gift. Thank you for listening patiently."

“In addition, I also want to tell everyone that love should be bold. If you really miss it, it’s too late for regrets.”
