

Break Up 35

Chapter 35

In My Eyes, She's a Celebrity

Under everyone's anticipation, their questions were finally unveiled. The moment the answer appeared, everyone was stunned.

Because the two of them actually wrote: Lin Xi!

Seeing this, Chen Che and Lin Xi were extremely excited and high-fived in celebration.

[F*ck, no way? That works too?]

[The script, right? Didn't you ask your favorite celebrities? Why are they both written by Lin Xi?]

[Isn't this too fake? How can they think of the same thing?]

...

The live-stream exploded with questions.

At this moment, the host came back to his senses and hurriedly asked Lin Xi, "Ms. Lin, I'm sure you've seen the netizens' discussion. In order not to let everyone doubt you, I want to ask you why you wrote your name?"

Lin Xi smiled and explained, "Chen Che doesn't have a celebrity he likes. I really don't know whose name to write down. Usually, when I look at his phone screen saver and background, it's always me, so I wrote my name."

"To be honest, I didn't expect the answer to be consistent. It was a real surprise."

The host nodded and turned to Chen Che. "Mr. Chen, and what made you put that answer down?"

Chen Che smiled. "Just as Lin Xi said, I don't have a celebrity I like. In my eyes, Lin Xi is a celebrity, so I wrote her name."

"When I saw the same answer just now, I even felt that it was a little fake, but all of this is indeed true. Isn't the theme this time tacit understanding?"

"This is the tacit understanding between us!"

[F*ck, this dog food...]

[Aiyo, it's so sweet! So sweet!]

[In his eyes, Lin Xi is a celebrity. He's so sweet!]

[I'm impressed. Other than being poor and stingy, Chen Che is a perfect match!]

[This damn tacit understanding, I love it!]

After Lin Xi and Chen Che finished explaining, the doubts in the live-stream disappeared. They were all swooning over the two of them.

In a short period of time, they attracted countless fans!

After hearing Chen Che's words, Lin Xi was also very touched. Her pretty face was slightly red, and a blissful smile unconsciously hung on her face.

The other contestants were equally envious, but most of them were jealous. They were also wondering why they had not thought of this.

After a moment of silence, the host applauded. "The tacit understanding and romance between the two of you is really enviable. At the same time, congratulations for getting all the answers correct and not disappointing the netizens who support you!"

"Alright, the first segment is about to end. Everyone, take a break. See you later!"

"All the contestants in each group can now move to the next room to eat. You can return here in half an hour!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Lin Xi hurriedly ran to Chen Che. The two of them hugged each other happily. This scene once again made the netizens envious.

After the hug, Chen Che smiled and said, "You're really amazing. You got everything right."

"That's right. We're both great. Let's go eat." Lin Xi held Chen Che's arm and walked out sweetly.

Soon, all the teams left, leaving only Luo Yuelin and Li Wei.

Looking at Luo Yuelin's gloomy face, Li Wei asked weakly, "Do... Do you want to eat something?"

"Do you think I still have an appetite? If you want to eat, go ahead." Luo Yuelin's tone was cold. She could not understand why her limelight was always stolen.

Moreover, she had lost to Chen Che and Lin Xi twice!

When Li Wei heard this, he did not dare to speak or leave. He could only quietly accompany her.

At the same time, in the restaurant next door.

Chen Che was stunned as soon as he entered. He thought it was a simple meal, but he did not expect there to be all kinds of food, fruits and pastries.

Seeing Chen Che's eyes light up, Lin Xi teased, "This time, it suits your taste. You saved money on food, right?"

"If you've seen through it, don't expose it. You won't have any friends like this." Chen Che smiled and continued, "If they provide food in the future, such activities can be done once a day."

Lin Xi chuckled and said in a voice that the two of them could hear, "Dream on. The production team also needs to get sponsors. They're holding this reality show to earn money, not to be a charity organization."

"That's true." Chen Che nodded in agreement.

Because it was free, Chen Che did not stand on ceremony. All kinds of food were quickly placed on the table and then he ate heartily.

“Slow down. No one is fighting with you,” Lin Xi advised.

“No, just half an hour. I have to hurry,” Chen Che replied seriously.

Lin Xi smiled slightly. She did not feel embarrassed because of this. After all, it had been so long and she was already used to it.

The netizens were also used to it, but there was no lack of complaints.

Time passed quickly, and the various groups returned to the program room one after another.

At this moment, Chen Che had eaten three portions with his bulging stomach. He even wished he could eat all the food for tomorrow.

Not long after, the host entered the venue.

“Alright, let’s move on to the last segment of the day. Charades!”

“This game will test the tacit understanding between couples!”

“According to the competition in the previous round, Team 1 and Team 7 successfully advanced. There are still three groups with tied results. After discussion and decision by the production team, these three groups also advanced.”

“They are Team 5, Team 6, and Team 8!”

“This segment is very simple. Within the stipulated time, the one who guesses accurately the most times will win. It’s up to the couple to guess.”

After listening to the host’s introduction, Chen Che looked at Lin Xi. “Who’s going to guess?”

“I’ll do it,” Lin Xi replied.

While the two of them were talking, Wei Xiaochuan and Zou Yun had already gone on stage. As the host gave the order, the two-minute countdown began.

It had to be said that the tacit understanding between the two of them was quite good. After the time was up, they actually guessed ten correctly.

Having learned his lesson, Chen Che realized that the words provided by the production team were all popular online words. He was already thinking about how to express them faster.

Then, Team 5 and 6 appeared one after another.

Luo Yuelin was the one acting out for Team 5, while Li Wei was the one guessing. In the end, they only got five answers correctly. Luo Yuelin was so angry that she almost flipped out on the spot.

At the same time, she knew that this event was clearly used as a foil.

Team 6 wasn’t any better. They only matched seven answers, but the two of them looked quite happy.

After these two teams were done, it was Lin Xi and Chen Che’s turn to go on stage. With tacit cooperation, they tied with Wei Xiaochuan’s group and guessed ten questions correctly.

The last to appear was Group 8. They thought that since Tian Xiao was an actor and Gao Xuan was the director, they should be able to guess correctly.

However, the two of them only answered five questions. It was obvious that their tacit understanding was not enough.

All five groups had ended, and the host returned to the stage to announce the final results.

“In this segment, Team 1 tied with Team 7. However, because Team 7 had a 100% accuracy in the first round, they obtained the final victory. Let us congratulate them!”

As soon as he finished speaking, the livestream room was flooded with congratulations. Only Wei Xiaochuan and Zou Yun applauded. The others were unhappy.

The reason was very simple. Chen Che had won both events. Who could be happy?

Chen Che and Lin Xi did not mind and happily high-fived in celebration.

A voucher worth $1,000 was handed to Chen Che at this moment. Although he was not interested in this item, he could not reject it after obtaining it. He could only keep it for now.

As the host announced the end, the groups quickly left the venue.

Chen Che was not in a hurry to leave. He walked up to the production team and asked, “Can I take some of the food from next door?”
