

Break Up 44

Chapter 44 Unconcealable Joy

Seeing that the situation was not advantageous to them, the few groups of contestants who had been leading the hate comments and pulling fans hurriedly fled, afraid that they would be attacked.

However, no matter how fast they ran, how could the netizens let them off?

After an intense voting, the comments in the live-stream quickly changed.

[He'd rather be scolded than be said to be creating hype. This is really heartbreaking!]

[That's right. Chen Che must have been afraid of the malicious rumors from the past few times! We can't disappoint a good person!]

[That's right. I actually became a troll too. Now that I think about it, I'm so stupid. I have to find someone to vent my anger on!]

[It's useless. The influencers who spread rumors previously have long closed their accounts. They're probably hiding!]

[By the way, a few groups of contestants have been very active these few days. Weren't they still leading the live-stream just now? If they hadn't messed around, they wouldn't have led me astray!]

[Yes, yes, yes. It's these people with ill intentions who caused everyone to misunderstand!]

[Hurry up and send out the plane tickets. Go and bomb those shameless teams now!]

For a moment, not only did the data increase exponentially, but the netizens also wanted to stand up for Chen Che. This outcome was definitely far beyond Chen Che's expectations.

Seeing that everything had been settled, the supervisor smiled and said, "Alright, Kong Hao's mother is fine. Chen Che's misunderstanding has been resolved. This can be considered a happy ending!"

"Everyone, come in. After receiving your salaries, work hard!"

As soon as he finished speaking, everyone happily followed Supervisor Ma through the door.

At the same time, the other groups of contestants had already been locked onto by the netizens and were currently being bombarded.

They tried to explained weakly, feeling extremely helpless.

They thought to themselves, why did the mood change so drastically after three days of happiness?

What was even more amusing was that two groups had already been criticized until they went offline early!

LI Costume Design Company.

In the office, Lin Xi cried tears of joy. She did not expect this misunderstanding to be resolved like this, nor did she expect Chen Che to donate $1,500.

When Kong Hao said the number just now, he was also in a daze. She wondered if this was still Chen Che.

After hearing Supervisor Ma's words, Lin Xi was also deeply touched and felt even prouder.

Because this kind and righteous man was her boyfriend!

Moreover, every time there was a misunderstanding, it would give people a different surprise!

Looking at Lin Xi, Han Jiarui sighed. "I'm sorry. I was misled previously and even said unpleasant things."

"It's fine. I don't care about all the doubts at all, because in my heart, Chen Che is the best boyfriend in the world!" Lin Xi smiled sweetly.

Han Jiarui also smiled, unable to hide her envy. She thought to herself, "What kind of love is this? Isn't it too sweet?"

In another office, Luo Yuelin had already turned off the live broadcast. Her face was filled with black lines.

"Damn it! Damn it! Why did the tables turn again!"

She had originally mocked Chen Che for playing with fire and burning himself. She had thought that she would sit firmly on the throne of being first place.

However, in a short period of time, all the threats came again. The person involved was Chen Che. How could she not be angry?

Looking at Luo Yuelin, the short-haired girl asked weakly, "Sister Lin, what should we do now?"

"What the hell! We're already being stared at by pairs of eyes. If we continue, we'll inevitably be exposed. At that time, even the Luo Corporation won't be able to withstand such a huge group's focused attack."

"I'm participating in the show to gain popularity. If I cause trouble for the Luo family, what's the point?"

Luo Yuelin panted heavily, her eyes almost spewing flames.

"But... but if this continues, the points they receive might exceed..." the short-haired girl stammered.

After a long silence, Luo Yuelin sighed and said angrily, "Continue hiring people to farm. If we can't win even like this, we can only endure it."

After failing a few times in a row, Luo Yuelin was already convinced and planned to let nature take its course.

"Understood, Sister Lin." The short-haired girl hurriedly nodded.

Just as everyone was discussing, Chen Che happily walked into the supervisor's office.

"Little Chen, this is your salary. See if it's right," the supervisor said with a smile.

Chen Che hurriedly picked up the banknotes and counted them. He liked this smell and felt even heavier in his hand because this was a huge sum of money!

“That’s right.” After counting, Chen Che smiled and put the money away.

Just as he had calculated previously, after deducting the $1,500 he had donated, there was still $3,760 left for this month.

After deducting the $2,000 he had to give to his family, he could still deposit more than $1,700. Coupled with this money, the funds in the account had exceeded $100 million.

Thinking that there were so many zeros behind 1, Chen Che could not hide the joy in his heart.

The supervisor did not know what Chen Che was thinking. He smiled and said, “You’re really tolerant. You didn’t say anything after being scolded for three days. Fortunately, the misunderstanding has been resolved. Continue to work hard.”

“I know. Thank you for today, Supervisor.” Chen Che hurriedly thanked him.

“Don’t stand on ceremony with such a small matter. Hurry up and get busy.”

“Yes, Supervisor.”

After leaving the office, Chen Che left with a smile on his face. At this moment, Kong Hao welcomed him.

“Kong Hao? Why haven’t you left? Hurry up and go home to rest. Don’t burn out,” Chen Che said with concern.

“It’s fine.” Kong Hao grinned and took out a small wad of money from his pocket. “I’ll return this $1,500 to you. I appreciate your kindness. You work so hard every day. I can’t take this money.”

Chen Che’s expression darkened. “Why? You just said that I don’t treat you as a brother. Do you treat me as a brother like this?”

“But...”

“No buts.” Chen Che interrupted Kong Hao and patted his shoulder. “It’s true that I need money, but you need it more than me. No matter how poor I am, I can still afford this $1,500.”

“Rest well from now on and don’t let one’s imagination run wild. As long as Auntie is fine, this is a great thing.”

“Also, if you’re really busy, just ask. I’ll go to the hospital to help you.”

“Alright, Kong Hao, I have to hurry up and deliver the packages. The customers will be anxious soon!”

With that, Chen Che hurriedly got on his tricycle and left.

Looking at Chen Che’s back, Kong Hao cried again and was extremely touched.

Chen Che’s words just now also touched the netizens. The live-stream was filled with praise.

After this incident, the atmosphere in the live-stream was worlds apart from before.

At one in the afternoon, Chen Che finished his work for the day. On the way back, he transferred the money to his family, and the rest into the system.

Looking at the number displayed on the system, he could not help but laugh again.

The netizens were all curious, not knowing what Chen Che was laughing about.

At five in the afternoon, they arrived at Wealth Building again. The strange gazes of the people passing by were no longer there. Some even gave Chen Che a thumbs up.

All the changes made Chen Che even happier and more relaxed.

“Chen Che!”

After a while, Lin Xi ran out of the building with a smile on her face. After the matter was resolved, she also felt relaxed.

Seeing this, Chen Che opened his hands and carried her like a princess.

Lin Xi was stunned at first, then her face instantly turned red. She said sweetly, “Stop fooling around. Put me down quickly.”

Looking at Lin Xi, Chen Che smiled evilly and said, “You don’t want me to carry you, but I insist on carrying you. I’ll carry you to dinner today.”

With that, Chen Che took off with her in his arms.