

Break Up 82

Chapter 82: Eating the Elderly

Little Wang did not expect Chen Che to really dare to take out his bank card. Could it be that Chen Che was an invisible tycoon?

Boss Ji was also stunned. Boss Ji had a wide network, but he had never heard of someone like Chen Che.

The woman Boss Ji brought looked at Chen Che in disdain.

“Can you stop pretending? It’ll be very embarrassing if it gets declined.”

Hearing the woman’s words, Boss Ji also reacted.

“Young man, I can understand young people, but don’t pretend too much. It’s easy to get exposed.”

When Little Wu heard their conversation, he did not dare to reach out and take the bank card.

The audience in the live-stream even farmed comments.

[Old Scrooge Chen, just say a few words. There’s no need to pretend!]

[That’s right. It wasn’t easy for Lin Xi’s company to recover. You can’t harm it like this!]

[Old Scrooge Chen, are you trying to cause Goddess Lin’s company to close down again?]

The VJ wanted to persuade him too. He had been filming for a year. He knew too well what kind of contestant Chen Che was.

However, Chen Che was indeed not flustered at all. He even handed the bank card to Little Wu.

“Little Wu, swipe.”

Little Wu took the bank card shakily.

“Brother Chen, my small machine can’t clear such a large amount. We need to return to the company.”

Boss Ji thought that the salesperson was helping Chen Che find an excuse.

“Sure! Let’s go and see how rich the rich are.”

The woman with heavy makeup laughed mockingly.

“Darling, you’re so bad. You know that young man has to leave when he goes out, but you still don’t let him off.”

Little Wang followed suit.

“Boss Ji, let’s continue looking at the houses. There’s no need to argue with such a child.”

Boss Ji felt that it was right. No matter what, he was a successful person.

The three of them turned around and planned to enter the villa.

When Chen Che saw that the three of them were about to enter, he immediately berated.

“Stop right there. Didn’t you hear what I said before? Little Wang, do you want to get fired?”

Little Wang’s face flushed red as he gritted his teeth and looked at Chen Che.

Boss Ji frowned and looked impatient.

“Kid, I’ve let you off. Don’t ask for trouble.”

The netizens in the live-stream also commented.

[Old Scrooge, enough is enough!]

[Now that you have a way out, hurry up. Otherwise, you’ll really be slapped in the face later.]

[Old Scrooge Chen, you’re embarrassing Lin Xi now.]

When everyone returned to the company, a thin layer of sweat had already seeped out of Little Wu’s forehead.

After all, Little Wu did not know Chen Che very well. Along the way, he had only heard them say how stingy Chen Che was.

Little Wu already completely believed that Chen Che did not have money.

Now, he was caught between a rock and a hard place.

When Boss Ji saw Little Wu’s appearance, he was even more certain that Chen Che was pretending.

“Little Wang, why do you think some people don’t know their place at all?”

Little Wang followed suit.

“Boss Ji, some people are like this. They always want to pretend. Let’s see how he ends up later.”

Chen Che could no longer be bothered with the two of them. In any case, when he swiped his card later, these people would naturally shut up.

At this moment, a voice sounded.

“Chen Che? Is it really you?”

A man in a suit approached.

When Little Wang saw who it was, he immediately went forward to greet them respectfully.

“President Lin, why are you free today?”

Lin Jian smiled at Little Wang.

“I’m here to buy the villa I saw two days ago.”

Boss Ji also hurriedly went forward to greet him.

“Hello, CEO Lin. My surname is Ji. I’ve always been your supplier.”

Lin Jian thought for a moment and came to a realization.

“I remember you.”

Lin Jian looked down on Boss Ji at all. He was just a small supplier. There was nothing worth befriending.

Lin Jian looked at Chen Che with a vicious glint in his eyes.

“Chen Che, why don’t you recognise your old classmates? I’ve been watching your and Lin Xi’s show. I’m really envious of you.”

Chen Che ignored Lin Jian.

The two of them were university classmates. When they were in school, Lin Jian had always targeted Chen Che.

When the netizens in the live-stream saw this scene, they began to guess.

[This so-called CEO Lin doesn’t seem to get along with Old Chen!]

[Needless to say, look at the way Lin looks at Old Scrooge Chen. He’s completely an enemy.]

[Could it be that this CEO Lin is also Lin Xi’s admirer?]

[I think so. Otherwise, how could it be like this?]

...

The atmosphere at the scene was a little strange.

Boss Ji did not want Lin Jian to be embarrassed.

“President Lin, this kid is pretending around. I went to look at the house previously.”

“This kid is pretending around me. Now he says he’s going over to pay.”

When Lin Jian heard this, he immediately smiled.

“Chen Che, you want to buy a house? Lin Xi gave you money?”

“You’re a couple. I shouldn’t say anything, but Chen Che, we’re men. How can we rely on women to give us money to buy a house?”

Boss Ji immediately cooperated.

“I was wondering why this kid was so good at pretending. So he’s a freeloader.”

Boss Ji’s woman and Little Wang immediately laughed mockingly.

Chen Che originally wanted to ignore it. Lin Jian was really too much.

Chen Che rolled his eyes at Lin Jian.

“Lin Jian, what does it have to do with you whether I spend my girlfriend’s money or not?”

“You have the cheek to criticize me? Didn’t your parents give you all your money anyway?”

“You’re just someone depending on the elderly!”

Chen Che’s words rendered Lin Jian speechless.

The VJ who was following them could not help but want to applaud Chen Che.

The netizens in the live-stream were even more excited.

[Old Scrooge Chen’s rebuttal is really awesome, exciting.]

[Although Old Scrooge Chen is a freeloader, he also relied on his ability!]

[That’s right. Depending on the old is even more hateful!]

...

Lin Jian’s expression was a little ugly. Boss Ji immediately said to Chen Che.

“Kid, stop talking nonsense. Aren’t you going to pay? If you can swipe it out today, I’ll call you Daddy.”

Chen Che could not be bothered to continue talking nonsense and handed the bank card to Little Wu.

“Little Wu, go swipe now and prepare the contract.”

Little Wu was a little hesitant as he held the bank card.

If the card gets declined, Little Wu would also be mocked in the company.

Boss Ji saw that Little Wu did not move for a long time.

“Little Wu, are you also afraid that your Brother Chen doesn’t have money? Hahaha.”

Chen Che patted Little Wu’s shoulder.

“Go. Trust Brother Chen.”

Little Wu looked at Chen Che’s determined gaze.

“Brother Chen, you have to go with me, you have to enter the pin number.”

Chen Che nodded and followed Little Wu to the finance office.

Lin Jian gave Boss Ji a look.

Boss Ji understood and the few of them followed behind.

In the finance room, Little Wu’s hand that was holding the bank card was trembling.

If there was money in this card, this would be the biggest deal in the company in two years.

The finance manager took the bank card with a smile and inserted it into the company’s swipe machine.

After inputting the amount.

“Password, please.”

Chen Che went forward and entered six numbers.

However, the machine showed that the balance was insufficient.

When Lin Jian, Boss Ji, and the others saw this scene, they mocked crazily.

“Hahaha, I knew this kid didn’t have any money. The act is over now.”

“Chen Che, do you need me to lend you a little so that you can pay the first payment?”
