

Bride Of The Mysterious CEO Chapter 133

Amara knew Roman didn't like to be bothered by others, but it was a rare opportunity. She had to firmly grasp it, or else, Roman might be lured away by the vixen.

"Alright, I was wrong before. Then you have to finish your work quickly. Otherwise, people will laugh when they see me waiting for you for so long."

Amara didn't want to be laughed at. Although she was Miss Lewis, only Monor family could solve Jonathan's problems. So she had to please Roman no matter what.

Although Lewis family's problems had been solved by Ryan, they couldn't lose Roman, this big tree, for this.

Roman only glanced at Amara but did not say anything. He understood what this woman was thinking in her heart.

He then turned around and went to his desk. After taking some files, he left the office.

Amara looked at his back and clenched her fists. No matter what, she had to win him over again.

Roman returned to the meeting room again. When he sat on the chair, he looked at Elena, who was sitting beside Ryan. He remembered what she said before. Under such circumstances, he didn't expect Elena to still consider him.

Ryan, who just looked up, noticed Roman's gaze towards Elena. He narrowed his eyes, then suddenly grabbed Elena's hand and placed it on his knee.

Elena, who was reading the document, looked at the man in confusion. Was this man forget that they were in a meeting?

There were so many people sitting in front of them, she wasn't as thick skinned as Ryan, so Elena tried to pull her hand back. But Ryan held it even tighter.

They were sitting just beside Roman. So he could clearly see what they were doing.

Roman subconsciously clenched his fists.

He then looked at Ryan and said with a complicated expression. "Since your team is collaborating with King, then you will prepare all the financial reports for this year. I hope there wouldn't be any problem with it."

"Since Big Brother said so, he doesn't need to worry. We'll do our best."

Ryan understood this man's heart very well. Eyeing on his woman... Dream on!

After the meeting ended, Roman went back to his office. He saw that the normally arrogant Eldest Miss was actually still waiting there.

"Roman, I have already booked a restaurant near your company. In the future, I will come and accompany you every day, okay?" Amara said and held Roman's arm.

Hearing her words, Roman frowned. She did not want to accompany him. She wanted to restrict his freedom.

"I have already said that I am very busy with work now. So don't waste too much time of my work."

"But I haven't been able to see you during this period of time. I hope you can accompany me well. Don't tell me that you won't agree to this small request of mine?"

Amara was a little angry. She had already softened her attitude and came over to ask for peace. Why didn't this man give her face?

Roman knew that although Lewis family was in a state of decline, their family's foundation was still there. If all the assets of the Lewis family were injected into the Monor family, it would be like adding wings to a tiger.

"Alright, let's talk about this later. Didn't you say that you have already booked a restaurant? It's true that I've neglected you during this period of time. Don't be angry."

Under normal circumstances, Roman would also coax this woman. After all, she had helped him a lot previously.

Amara heard Roman's reply and felt slightly relieved. She originally thought that his indifference towards her during this period of time was because of the incident last time. Now, it seemed that there should not be any problems.

At this moment, Elena and Ryan were discussing about lunch.

Elena looked at Ryan and asked. "What do you want to eat this afternoon?"

"I just called Mrs. Baker and asked her to prepare some food at home. We will go back to eat this afternoon. There is nothing important in the afternoon. Let's skip work."

"I saw Roman at the meeting today. He meant to break your foundation. You have to be careful during this period of time. Don't let him catch you. If you are not careful, the consequences will be unimaginable. After all, Roman is in charge of the company now. We need to keep a low profile."

Elena reminded Ryan that this matter could be serious or small. Although he had cooperation with foreign countries, if it was stolen, Ryan would be kicked out of Monor family by Roman.

“Let’s not talk about the company anymore. Let’s go home and eat first. You have made many records. You must be tired. Let’s go back and have a good rest.”

Ryan thought about Elena’s hard work during this period of time and his heart ached.

Elena smiled and nodded. The two of them held hands and planned to leave the company.
