

Chapter 145 She Had to Face the Problems Alone

Ryan and the others returned to Western Europe overnight. They had to bring back the original stones they had bought.

In the car, Ryan looked at Jackson, who had a lot on his mind, and patted him on the shoulder.

“Things might not be what you think they are. Sometimes they might let you come back to life and make some decisions. After all, you know very well who treats you well these years.”

“When I was young, I heard my mother call Clarence a person, but I have never seen a picture of him. I never thought that we would recognize each other in this kind of situation.”

Jackson’s father was very good to him all these years. Besides providing a seed, Clarence had never done anything else.

“I know what you are thinking right now. After all, he is your biological father. You have to think carefully about how to make the decision.”

“It seems like only I can know about this matter. I hope that we won’t have any more interactions in the future.”

Jackson knew that bringing up this matter at home would make his mother worry. Furthermore, their family was very happy right now. There was no need to cause any more trouble because of this man.

After rushing back to Western Europe at noon, the group returned to the headquarters. Ryan ordered them to take care of those things.

Recently, the company had not been peaceful. Roman should play some new tricks again. He was afraid that Elena alone would not be able to handle it.

“The things have been dealt with. What else do we need to do?” Isaac asked.

Since most of the things here had been taken care of, Ryan had nothing to worry about. “Let’s return to the country.”

“Return to the country?”

Both Jackson and Isaac were stunned. It was not easy for them to come here. Now the company’s fiancés needed to be verified, if they did not deal with it, they would face a big problem in the future.

“What I mean is that the two of you will stay here and I will go back by myself. There were still many things that needed to be dealt with in the company. Roman would definitely not stop during this period of time. I am worried that Elena won’t be able to deal that man.”

Although there were people left to protect Elena, she was only saved from being killed. It was easy to be bullied in the company. And Amara was also there. She would not let Elena go easily once she knew the later was alone.

“Ryan, I think you are a little too sensitive. Sister-in-law has the ability to handle these matters. You have to trust her.” Jackson said his point of view.

As the saying goes, a bystander can see clearly. Elena had contributed to the company’s current results. She was not that weak. Ryan’s concern would cause chaos.

“Ryan, I think what Jackson said is right. You should let sister-in-law go and explore.” Although Elena was sometimes soft and weak, her temper was strong. She would never admit defeat.

The fight with Jonathan and Adeline over the past five years had allowed her to grow a lot. They had heard about Elena. They did not interact with each other before, so they did not inquire about the real reason.

Hearing the persuasion of his two good friends, Ryan also fell into deep thought. What they said was true, but Roman and Amara were cunning. If Elena was really hurt, Ryan would definitely blame himself.

After a long while, Ryan looked at the men in front of him. “I know. Let’s go deal with business first.”

He was somewhat moved by their words and did not want to talk about this anymore.

Jackson and Isaac left with Ryan. After all, after dealing with private matters, it was time to take care of the company’s matters.

...

The day after Ryan left, Elena went straight to the company the next morning.

When Ryan was not around, everyone would report to Elena first before continuing to work.

Nova held the report in her hand and came to the office. When she found that Elena was not around, she looked at Tina, “Where is the general manager’s wife?”

“Sister-in-law just went out. Give me the things first. I will hand them to her when she comes back.” Tina had a decent smile on her face and her gentle appearance made it hard for people to reject her.

Nova was not stupid. She could see the thoughts of this woman. If she handed the things to Tina directly, it would delay things.

