

Chapter 149 Their Relations Was Just for Show

“There are some things that you can only see on the surface. The reason why the two families are together is because of this marriage. If something happens to Jonathan, do you think the Monor Family will still let them together again?”

Elena explained to Elsa. She had been in the company for so many years and had done so much for Roman. She should know what kind of person their CEO was.

“What you mean is that Roman and Amara are putting on a show, but they don’t love each other. When the two of them in the company, even if they are not in front of us, they will still show off their affection.” When Elsa saw them, she thought that the two of them were about to get married.

“Roman and Amara are together for the interests of the two families, otherwise, with Roman’s personality, why would he agree to marry Amara so soon?”

During this period of time, she understood what kind of person Roman was. He was simply a villain. He would do anything for his own purpose. He would never care about other people’s feelings, even if it was Amara.

Now that something had happened to Lewis family, Amara would never leave Roman. Amara liked Roman, so she would naturally not give up such a big tree.

“I thought that the two of them really loved each other, but I never thought that everything was just an act. In that case, there is nothing for me to be envious of.”

“That’s why the company looks calm and peaceful. In fact, there have already been many bloody battles. You must be careful not to be used. Roman and Amara will probably do something to squeeze Ryan and me. When the time comes, you must be smart. Don’t forget that you are my man now.” Elena reminded Elsa to let her know her position.

“I naturally know what I should do. No matter what happens next, I will stand on your side. But you must do what you promised me.”

Elsa was not stupid. The company’s interests were now above all else. Therefore, she would not be a gun for anyone, nor would she be the head bird.

“Alright, I will call you when there is something. Recently, help me keep an eye on Tina. She passed the conversation between us to Roman. She must not be a good person.”

Initially, Elena thought that Tina would not do anything under her nose. She thought that she only wanted to stay by Ryan’s side. But she did not expect that she had underestimated this woman.

She had become a stumbling block for them. If it affected the relationship between her and Ryan, it would not be worth it.

“Recently, she seems to have given something to Roman. As for what it is, I’m not sure. However, Roman seemed to be very impatient. After saying a few words, he left. Tina’s face is covered with tears, as if she was scolded.”

Elsa recalled the changes that happened to Tina during this period of time. She could clearly feel her ambition. Since Elena asked them to monitor Tina, then they could not let go of any trace of her.

After that Elsa left the office. After all, she still had more important things to do and must not delay Elena’s time.

After Elena finished dealing with these matters, it was already time for her to get off work. When she walked out of the office, she did not expect Tina was still working overtime.

Elena walked over and knocked on her table. “It is so late and you are still working overtime. Go back home.”

“It is fine sister-in-law. I still have things to deal with. I’ll go home after I’m done. Are you off work? Be careful on the way home.”

Tina had a smile and a little worry on her face. But Elena clearly felt that she had other intentions. This was not to measure a gentle man’s heart with a petty person’s heart.

If this woman could leave the Monor Family Company and transfer to a branch company in Western Europe, she would be at ease. This way, she would not be able to come into contact with Ryan. At the same time, she would be able to stay away from their line of sight.

However, if this happened, Tina’s mother would come and cause trouble, which would make things difficult for Ryan. Therefore, this matter had to be properly considered. They could not act rashly.

“I know. You should also go back early. Your mother will be worried.”

Elena said and left. She did not have time to care about whether this woman would return home or not.
