

Chapter 154 I Will Protect Ryan With My Life

“Like I said, you don’t have to take the responsibility for this matter with Ryan around. Let’s do this for today. If Ryan doesn’t return within three days… I will hand over all of this information to tax bureau. I hope that Ryan can give me a reasonable explanation.”

“If not… Just wait for him to be fired. I will not let such a person a person stay in the company.”

Roman would never give face to Ryan. He had taken away a lot of things from the later. He would never let Ryan live.

Three million was not a small amount. Even if Elena could make those financial statements for Ryan, Ryan would not have the money to block this hole.

Elena narrowed her eyes and instantly understood Roman’s purpose. She slammed the table and stood up. “Roman, I finally understand. Didn’t you want to chase Ryan out of Monor Family? I’m telling you that it’s impossible. I will never let him suffer injustice for no reason.”

Seeing this woman’s resolute look for Ryan, Roman was a little dazed. He originally thought that such feelings could only appear in novels and television dramas.

He raised his head and looked at this woman. Only then did he realize that not only did she have a beautiful appearance, but she also had a firm heart. To protect her husband, she did not hesitate to scold the President of the company in front of everyone. He was afraid, Amara would have never done this.

Roman stood up and said that the meeting was adjourned. Everyone shook their heads as they walked out, as if they didn’t believe Ryan was such a person.

Only Elena and Roman were left in the huge conference hall.

“Roman, let me tell you. I believe in Ryan. I will never admit anything that I never done. Even if you bring more evidence, we will fight with you till the end.” Elena’s face was full of coldness as she looked at Roman.

This kind of feeling made Roman go crazy with jealousy. Perhaps, no one would ever treat him like this.

That Ryan was a cripple. There was still someone protecting him. What did Elena like about him?

Roman suppressed his jealousy and smiled, “I have said that my goal is very simple. One mountain cannot tolerate two tigers. Even if you know it is a conspiracy, so what? Without evidence, you are still at my mercy. Since you want to help Ryan, let’s continue. Don’t regret it when the time comes.”

“Then I will wait and see. I will never admit defeat. I will protect Ryan with my life.” After saying that, Elena left.

Roman looked at her determined look and swept the things on the table to the ground. He also did not know why he was angry.

Amara was clearly the best choice but he had his heart set on Elena.

Elena angrily walked into her office while muttering. Tina saw her look and immediately went forward to ask, “What happened, Sister-in-law? What happened? You do not look good.”

“Just do your work.” Elena glared at her and shouted. This was may be the first time she lost control in front of Tina.

Elena did not forget what Elsa said to her earlier. This woman had a deal with Roman. She had to keep a safe distance from this woman. Otherwise, it would not be worth it if she died here one day.

Tina did not think she would be scolded. Her eyes filled with tears. She looked at Elena pitifully.

But Elena, who was already pissed off, did not even bother to look at her and went straight into her office. She had had enough of this woman’s hypocrisy.

Tina could only lower her head and return to her seat to sulk.

Elsa happened to see her expression and helplessly shook her head. Why did this woman want to enter the company? Elena had already treated her like this and she still wanted to stay here. It seemed like she really wanted Ryan.

Inside the office, Elena looked at the financial report and could not understand why there was suddenly a problem. It was indeed her personal signature on it. But now she had to find the problem to prevent Roman from getting what he wanted.

Ryan had already lost so many things. He absolutely couldn’t lose this position.

Thinking of this, Elena instantly became alert and began to check the accounts. Although the string of numbers was a little confusing to Elena, for Ryan, she had to find out the truth.

