

Chapter 159 She Will Follow Roman

Tine begged Elena bitterly hoping that the later would give her another chance. However, Tina did not know that Elena had already made up her mind. She wanted to chase her out.

In the past, she thought that she would be more obedient under her watch. But she did not expect that this woman was like a time bomb that could explode at any time. Elena would not be as foolish as to continue to keep her by her side.

Elena pushed Tina away. “Previously, I pitied you so that Ryan allowed you to come to the company. I did not expect that you would not grateful to us and still want to kill us. Do you think we’ll still let you live?”

If Elena really chose one, she would rather choose Amara. At least she would not play such dirty tricks.

“Sister-in-law, you have helped people a lot. You can’t do this to me. Cousin, I beg you. I promise I will wholeheartedly follow you in the future. I will not think about any messy things anymore.

Tina looked at Ryan. She could not cut off her own path of wealth.

Elena sneered. This woman really did not know what was good for her.

“Tina, did you not hear that just now? My husband has already told you. He is not your cousin. Don’t try to get close to him here. You should at least know about your bottom line. You should pray for your own good.”

After Elena finished speaking, she did not pay attention to anyone. She pushed Ryan out of the meeting room without looking back.

Tina weakly sat on the ground. Everything was ruined.

The shareholders looked at her and started to criticize her. “I didn’t expect you to be such an ingrate. If it wasn’t for you, the Monor family would not have any problems. You’d better leave now.”

“That’s right. A person like you isn’t worth sympathizing with. CEO, just deal with what you need to do.”

The few shareholders behind also left conference room. Only Roman and Tina were left in the entire meeting room.

Tina helplessly sat around the ground. She originally thought this time she would definitely win.

During this period of time she always been cautious and this time she had finally gotten a chance to turn the tables. That night when she was working overtime, after Elena left she went to her office room and tampered with the documents. Then she gave the documents to Roman.

She thought that when the time comes the shareholders would definitely ask about the missing money. And because Elena personally signed in the document, she would be the prime suspect.

Because of this Ryan would personally kick Elena out of both the company and his life and after that both Ryan and the position of Second Young Madam of Monor family would be her!

But she never would have thought that instead of blaming Elena, Roman would actually use this matter to target Ryan.

And for this her meticulous plan was completely ruined.

Tina looked at Roman. She did not know whether he would help her or not. She knelt forward with the mentality of trying.

“Mr. Monor, please help me. I can do anything you want me to do. I really cannot lose this job.”

“Weren’t you begging Ryan just now? Everyone in the company knows that we brothers are not on good terms with each other. Do you think I will give you a chance?”

Roman didn’t think that this woman would betray her benefactor for her own benefit. He wouldn’t spend so much effort to nurture a traitor.

“Mr. Monor, it is not like this. It was cousin who brought me into the company. But he does not like me. It was Elena who caused this. Otherwise, I would not have ended up like this. You must help me.”

Tina again blamed all the mistakes on Elena. She had planned everything so perfectly but why Elena was so lucky to cross all obstacles? And why Ryan liked her so much? Why?!

Roman raised his eyes and looked at this woman who was kneeling on the ground. She actually dared to blame all this on Elena?

He lifted her chin. “I have never seen someone like you who blamed all of your mistakes on someone else. You are really despicable.”

Tina’s pupils suddenly contracted. She did not understand why he would say such words. Moreover, she stole this information for his sake. He actually did not help her.

“President…” Tina’s words were a little shaky. She did not know what he was going to do.

They were powerful. And even if he killed her, no one would be able to blame him.

Feeling the trembling of this woman, Roman let go of her.

Tina was so scared that she fell to the ground. It was as if she had just experienced a life and death cycle.

“I thought you would be very capable. That’s all. Since you have begged me to this extent, I will not fire you. Since Ryan won’t let you live, then follow me. Don’t worry. I won’t let you do any work. I will give you ten times the previous salary. But if there’s anything you need in the future, you have to go through fire and water.”

Roman lowered his head and played with Tina’s hair. “Did you hear that?”
