

Chapter 160 Dishones

“I heard Mr. Monor. I’ll do whatever you want me to do. As long as you don’t chase me away.”

Tina let out a long breath. She thought she was really finished. She did not expect that Roman would actually save her.

It seemed that she really followed the wrong person back then. If she had known that Roman was so easy to talk to, she wouldn’t have gone to find Ryan back then.

However, when Ryan was in high spirits, no one would have thought that he would fall into such dire straits. Not only was his legs crippled, but his position as the President had also been taken away by someone else. It was indeed pitiful.

But it didn’t matter. As long as she could get the benefit, it didn’t matter if it was Ryan or Roman.

When the matter of the financial report had come to an end, the company’s returned to the right track. Only the table beside Elena was empty, and the people and things were moved away.

Elena was concentrating on the work in her hands. Suddenly, there was a message. There was a meeting for everyone in the afternoon.

Elena frowned. When did Roman have such time to conduct meetings every day?

After the lunch, Ryan and Elena went to the big meeting room in the company. They sat in the middle of the front row.

Roman stood in the middle and talked about the rules and regulations of the company as well as the recent developments.

Elena was already familiar with these things, so she did not pay attention to them.

When everyone thought that there was nothing important, a person came in front and served tea to Ryan. When Elena looked up, she was stunned. The person who gave Ryan tea was actually Tina!

Elena could not sit still and instantly felt a fire burning in her heart. Roman actually did not expel this woman!

Seeing the unpredictable expression on Elena’s face, Tina had a decent smile on her face. “What? Sister-in-law saw me today as if she saw a ghost?”

Elena looked at her coldly and then looked at Ryan who was beside her. “I originally thought that Roman’s way of doing things was brilliant. It seems that it is only so-so.”

“Everything was within my expectation. Now, I just feel that he is very noisy.” Ryan knew all about the company’s problems.

“Cousin is right. Everything is under your control. You did not think that I would stand on Roman’s side, did you? If you had been a little more kind to me at that time, I would not have stood up on the enemy’s side. Cousin, don’t blame me for not caring about our past relationship.”

Tina said while observing Ryan, hoping to see a trace of regret on his face.

However, this man was still expressionless, as if he didn’t hear her.

Tina knew that it was boring and handed the tea to Elena. Just as she was about to leave, Ryan slowly opened his mouth.

“I remember that I have already reminded you not to call me cousin again. Don’t blame me for being impolite. Although your house is under your parents’ name, but I have the right to take it back directly. After all, I paid the money.”

“You... Don’t go too far. This house was exchanged by my mother for saving your grandfather. It has nothing to do with you. You have no right to take it back.”

Tina was still very concerned about this man’s thoughts. When this matter was mentioned, she was still very sad.

“It is true that your mother saved my grandfather. I did not call the police. It is already considered as repaying my debt of gratitude.” Ryan did not look at her anymore. He felt that she was disgusting.

Elena, who was beside the two of them, heard it very clearly. She smiled faintly and said, “Sometimes it must be in your life. If it isn’t, then don’t force it in your life.”

She seemed to have forgotten that if Amara knew that her fiancée was fooling around with other women, she would definitely cause a ruckus. Although the Lewis family was no longer the same as before, it was still stronger than Tina.

“Miss Elena is right. I can only listen humbly. The two of us have been together and it is still not bad. We will definitely return it to you in the future.”

Tina’s heard was filled with resentment and she would definitely not let this Elena off!
