

Chapter 161 He Would Destroy What He Can’T Ge

Elena scoffed at her words. “How capable do you think you are? You are just another person’s dog after all.”

Tina could do whatever she wanted for her own benefit. Now that Tina and Roman were tied together, she had to be on guard at all times. Tina originally liked Ryan, although he didn’t like her.

But after what he did that to her, she naturally hated him even more.

“Whether it’s a dog or not doesn’t count. Don’t think that you can do whatever you want just because you are Ryan’s wife. Don’t forget who is in charge of the company now. If you kneel down and beg me, I can spare you once for Ryan’s sake. Otherwise, if you dare to offend me, I won’t be polite.”

Tina said fiercely. She was no longer the little girl during her internship. She had learned a lot from Roman. Once must be ruthless and she was always like this.

However, she had been pestering Ryan all these years, so she had to pretend to be weak and incompetent. But she never thought that Ryan would be so cruel and merciless. He didn’t even show her any mercy.

“Then I really have to thank you. When the time comes, you must not show any mercy to me.” After saying that, Elena did not pay more attention to her and Tina also took her things and left.

Roman, who was on the side, heard everything they said. But he didn’t stop them. If he couldn’t get what he wanted, he would have to destroy it.

Since he couldn’t get Elena, how could he let Ryan get her? The two of them had been fighting for such a long time. It was impossible for them to be destroyed by a woman.

Ryan was very happy with Elena, right? He would destroy his relationship!

And the best method to do this was keeping Tina by his side. He knew that creepy woman was coveting Ryan and Elena did not like it. So it was best to use this woman to create a crake.

But Roman forgot one thing that Ryan and Elena’s relationship wasn’t as easy as to be destroyed.

After the meeting, Roman took out a piece of information and placed it on the projector. “During this period of time, our company will be cooperating with the Thomas family, the super military family for the capital. We must do our best to improve our efficiency so that our cooperation will be more effective.”

After Roman finished speaking, he immediately looked at Ryan. Sure enough, there was a trace of shock on the man’s face. This man probably never would have thought that he would also contact Amber and work with Thomas family.

“Ryan, if you have any ideas, you can just stand up and bring it up... Oh, I’m sorry. I have already forgotten about your lame leg. If you have any questions, you can raise your hand. I will get someone to push you onto the stage.”

After saying that, Roman burst into laughter. It was as if he was taking Ryan’s weakness for fun.

“Roman, don’t you go too far!”

This damned man knew that this was Ryan’s pain, but he still brought it up in front of so many people. It was obvious that he was doing this on purpose.

“Sister-in-law, what I said is only the truth. I was just making a mistake just now, there’s no need for you to be so angry. If younger brother has any questions, I will definitely answer them.” Roman directly threw the question to Ryan.

Ryan just smiled faintly and went straight to the stage with his wheelchair. “I have already read the document just now. This contract was indeed very important to Monor Group. If they could really cooperate... The quality of our economy will also improve.”

“However, has Big Brother ever thought that their family would seek this cooperation? Of course, they will also compete with the other three families. We still don’t know if they will fall into the Monor Group’s hands. Besides, Big Brother shouldn’t be happy too early.”

Although Amber agreed to this job, the specific time of signing the contract was still unknown. So this matter was still not considered over.

Therefore, Roman needed to sign the contract with Amber’s family as soon as possible. Now, the people on the board of directors were also starting to get anxious.

“Yeah, if the contract is not finalized this time, then it will be a slap in the face again. You’d better confirm the time of his partnership, and we can prepare when the time comes. After all, this is a big deal. President, you’d better come to a conclusion as soon as possible.”

“I think Director Monor is right. This matter concerns the future of the company. Previously, the problem with the financial report has caused a huge uproar. If there is another problem now, the entire company will be paralyzed.”

The other directors also discussed animatedly and began to echo Ryan’s words. Roman frowned.

He and Amber only talked about some cooperation matters. Amber had asked him to come up with the cooperation plan and did not set the time and location of the contract.

If it was really as these people said, could it be that Amber wanted to stand him up?

“Everyone, calm down. This matter needs to be discussed slowly. If you are too anxious to achieve success, it will not be good for the company’s economic benefits. Please wait patiently. In the future, we will be able to sign a contract with Thomas family.” Roman comforted those people and made them have faith on him.
