Chapter 163 Not His Mother

"Elena, don't think that just because you marry into our Monor family, you will be able to enjoy a good life. If you continue to say such sarcastic words, I will drive you out!"

Amanda did not expect that. Now, she actually dared to say such words. It seemed like she did not put Roman in her eyes.

During this period of time, she was at home and did not know what happened in the company. If Amara hadn't gone to her house yesterday, she would have been kept in the dark.

When Roman felt wronged, couldn't he go home and complain? Ryan allowed his wife to bully his brother like this. He was also an outsider.

"Don't forget that although this company is currently run by Roman, many of the business partners are still in my hands. If you dare to touch my wife again, I won't mind revealing all the secrets." Ryan sat at the side and said coldly. It was as if he didn't care about this company at all.

Amanda's pupils suddenly contracted as she looked at the man in front of her in disbelief, "Ryan, do you dare to say it again? Don't forget that you still need to rely on this company."

"Then let's give it a try. I don't need this company to live. Can you live without this company?" Ryan threw all the information in his hands onto the table.

He did not expect his mother to support her eldest son to this extent. He did not expect her to hit his wife for her eldest son.

"You… You… You unfilial son, are you trying to anger me to death?" Amanda was so angry that her hand, which was pointing at Ryan, was trembling.

"If possible, I don't mind doing this." Ryan did not follow Amanda's words and beg for mercy.

Begging these people? He was afraid this day would not come in this life time.

Amanda covered her chest and her voice was trembling. "Ryan, you… you… I didn't think that I would raise such an ingrate for so many years."

"Amanda Monor, don't you feel pain in your heart when you say this?" Ryan's brows were tightly knitted together. This sentence sounded more like a questioning.

Elena stood at the side in disbelief. She could understand the meaning of Ryan's words. Was he not born by Amanda?

Amanda's entire body was trembling and her face was pale. She looked at the man in front of her but was unable to speak.

At this time, Roman suddenly barged in from the doorway. Seeing such a scene, he immediately went forward to support Amanda. "Mom, are you alright?"

Amanda instantly cried out. But she did not say anything and just looked at Ryan.

Roman pointed at Ryan and shouted, "Ryan, do you still have a conscience? She is our mother, and you dare to treat her like this. If you have any anger, you can come at me. Don't bully our mother!"

"That's your mother. Don't use the word 'us' and confuse us."

After Ryan finished speaking, Amanda didn't know whether she was angry or if she remembered something, she fainted.

Roman picked Amanda up and looked at Ryan fiercely. "You better watch your words. If I hear this next time, I will not let you off!"

"I will be waiting for you at any time." After saying that, he pulled Elena's hand and left the office.

Elena did not know what to say for a moment. She was shocked with the scene just now.

After coming out, Ryan did not say anything and lowered his head. But his face said all of his sorrow and pain.

Seeing him like this Elena ran over and hugged his tightly in her arms without saying anything.

"Don't you want to ask me anything?" After a while, Ryan slowed opened his mouth.

Elena smiled faintly and did not let go of Ryan. "When you want to say it, you will naturally tell me. If you do not want to say it, I will not ask. I respect your personal privacy."

Ryan held Elena's hand and brought her into the room. Ryan sat in the wheelchair and stretched out his hand to wipe the blood from the corner of her mouth. After a while, he looked at her and slowly opened his mouth.

"Amanda is not my biological mother."

Ryan paused and continued. "Amanda was indeed pregnant at that time. Unfortunately she did not expect my father to cheat on her when she was pregnant. After that, Amanda's child died when he was born. So after my mother gave birth to me, she was jealous of me. So she directly knocked me out and carried me by her side to take care of me."

Ryan only said a few sentences and told her all about his background.

Elena actually did not know how to deal with this matter. After all, even in the current fantasy novel, they did not dare to write like this.

"How did you know?" After all Ryan was very young at that time. If he was directly raised by Amanda's side, he would not doubt his own background.

"My biological mother told me."

After Ryan found out about this matter, he directly did a paternity test. Sure enough, there was no relation with Amanda, but it had a biological relation with Charles. That's why he believed what that woman said.

It was a pity that because he had been by Amanda's side for a long time, she did not bring him back.
